SUPPORT OUR HOME TOWN

SWEET 'N' SOUR

By A. Dill

September, first of the autumn months, bowed in this week wearing August hand-me-down weather, and behaving for all the world like summer. Although we haven't had any of those brisk temperatures we associate with "back to school and football time" both of these seasons are off to a rousing start in Baird. Supt. Ford reports the largest enrollment ever as Grade and High Schools set sail for the 59-60 semesters this week. The youngsters are happy and excited, teachers are energetic and there's every indication that a successful season lies ahead.

Didn't we tell you Baird is growing? The old T&P Cafe building on Market Street has been purchased by Janie A. Patterson from I. E. Warren and is now in the remodeling stage. Plans for the formal opening are well underway but the date has not as yet been set.

Add odd pets -- the young Windhams, Tally, Dyer, Tom and Billy have a fawn -- an orphan they adopted and he's just the sweetest little fella you ever saw with his big velvety eyes and his funny wobbly legs. Personally, we think the Windhams, Marion, Richard and the boys are extra nice folks to open heart and home to a woods baby in need.

Speaking of pets -- David, Gwen and Katie Walls have a family of puppies at their home -- seven little tall wagglers of toy Spaniel descent, ranging in color from blonde to black and white and you may have one if you can prove to the young owners that you'll give it the loving care a puppy deserves.

Do you want to see a really beautiful sight? Drive by the Irving Pruitt home any morning and look at the heavenly blue morning glories that completely cover a tree in their back yard. The tree has an umbrella shape and the impression you receive is that you are seeing a huge azure blue parasol -- it's lovely.

The Pruitts, by the way, Essie Mae and the girls, Tommy Sue and Linda Kay, have recently returned from a vacation trip made with Elzora Alphin and Mrs. Walter Pruitt, to points of interest in East Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi, including a visit to New Orleans.

Very best get well wishes to young Alex Shocklee who is recovering from a gunshot wound which was a result, as Alex put it, of being the fastest man in the west on the trigger, but not quite rapid enough on the draw. The boys is doing fine -- it takes quite a lot to get a fella like that down -- one who can grin and joke about even the toughest of luck.

It took Meyba Foy to think this one up and it's just too good to keep. When the Foy men were remiss about mowing the lawn the lady of the house threatened them with "I'm getting a sign for our front yard Mess of the Month." It worked like magic and by eventide every blade of grass had been properly manicured.

Kitty B. Jones King has had quite an interesting trip -- the young lady flew to Chicago to visit her husband with the Armed Forces there.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Walker had special guests in their home this week -- Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Harris and children, Sheila and Ronnie of Abilene. The Harris family were enroute from a vacation trek which carried them to El Paso, Juarez, and points of interest in Old and New Mexico, and back east to Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Corn and children, who have been visiting Weldon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Corn, returned to their home in Ajo, Arizona this week. Butch Bell, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Bell, returned to his home in Longmont, Colo., after a few short weeks of vacationing in Baird.

Here's one we think you'll get a chuckle from -- Debbie Bell, Bobby Griggs Bell's youngest, started her school career this week and mommy immediately summed up the situation by sending her first grade teacher a sympathy card. Now isn't that a low-blow? Debbie is one of the sweetest little girls in town.

More you know Curtis Sutphen the more obvious it becomes as to why the young man was given the title "Baird's Man of the Year" -- he has that rare talent of understanding and judgment, plus a sincere interest in his

Labor Day Traffic Accidents Are Expected to Kill 31 In Texas

The Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety announced today 31 persons are expected to be killed in Texas traffic accidents during the 3-day Labor Day week end.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., said the official prediction -- which is seldom far off -- should "serve as a challenge to all Texans to make a concerted effort to stem the tide of highway tragedy next weekend."

He pointed out that during the Labor Day week end last year there were 30 traffic deaths, one more than the Department had predicted. He noted, however, that the forecast for the 1959 Fourth of July holiday -- 26 fatalities -- turned out to be accurate.

"We would like to make a special appeal to the citizens of Texas to consider the facts about holiday driving and do their utmost to reduce the tragedy of death, suffering and economic loss next weekend," Garrison said.

"Department of Public Safety patrolmen and all other law enforcement officers in our state will do everything in their power to make the streets and highways safer by removing lawless drivers -- but the statistics prove the main job is up to the individual behind the wheel."

He cited the following facts and figures on last Labor Day weekend, compiled by N. K. Woerner, Manager of Statistical Services:

Of the 30 traffic deaths in the State, 26 occurred in rural areas as the result of 18 accidents.

Ten of the 18 rural fatal accidents involved drivers who had been drinking.

Two of the three rural fatal pedestrian accidents involved pedestrians who had been drinking.

Seven of the 10 drivers who had been drinking in rural fatal accidents were exceeding the legal speed limit.

Thirteen of the 18 rural fatal accidents involved only one motor vehicle.

In 12 of the 13 rural fatal accidents involving only one car, the drivers had no "other driver" to blame. In the other case, a pedestrian victim was at fault.

"Perhaps the most significant thing in the analysis of last year's Labor Day statistics is that in every rural fatal accident, at least one violation was apparently a contributing factor," Garrison said.

"So it might follow that if we can stop the violations, we can stop the death and destruction on the highways of Texas."

The Public Safety Director said some 125 additional patrolmen from the Department's other uniformed services will augment the highway Patrol force during the three-day "Operation Holiday" beginning at 12:01 A. M. Saturday, September 5 and ending at 11:59 P. M. Monday, September 7.

Mrs. Leland Jackson and children moved to Dallas last week end where they will make their home and Mrs. Jackson will attend 8. M. U.

295 Pav Fines For Fishing Without Tags

Fishing without license topped the list of game and fish violations in July, according to the Director of Law Enforcement, Texas Game and Fish Commission.

Game wardens charged 295 persons with fishing without licenses during the month. Four persons were arrested for hunting without licenses and an equal number of bait dealers were arrested for failing to purchase the required licenses.

A total $7,020.15 in fines and court costs was paid by 393 violators. Thirty cases were dismissed in court, six persons served time in jail, 12 appealed to higher courts, and two were found not guilty.

"These violations are usually committed by persons who fail to realize the importance of game laws," said the law enforcement director. "They fail to understand that without the laws, Texas' fish and wildlife soon would be destroyed completely."

IT'S THE LAW In Texas . . .

Taking The Fifth Amendment You have read of someone's "taking the Fifth".

Why does our constitution let people -- some involved in crimes -- keep on refusing to answer questions put to them in our courts, investigating committees, and government agencies?

Because no man can be called on to accuse himself or give evidence against himself.

Where did the rule come from? From the church canons.

Long ago under common law, witnesses or parties took oath and talked a lot or a little as their conscience bade.

Later an English law put witnesses under an oath somewhat like the Church's oath; but the judge could subject them to sharp questioning even torture. The king, for example, punished "heresy and sedition" this way. England at last changed the law: Before any one had to take an "inquisitional" oath, someone had to accuse him of a crime or show that he was "notoriously suspicious". No more "fishing expeditions". No man had to accuse himself.

finance a market development program for wool and lambs.

The program of advertising, promotion and related activities is carried out under an agreement with the American Producers Council. It is financed by deductions from wool incentive payments earned by growers under the national wool program.

The agreement has been in effect since the 1955 marketing year, and if approved in the September referendum, will be continued for another three years. Favorable vote of producers having two-thirds of the volume of production represented in the referendum is required for approval.

The referendum relates only to the wool and market development program. It will not affect the continuation of the payment program under the three year extension of the wool act last summer.

We have a bumper crop of grain sorghums now in the process of being harvested in Callahan County as well as all over West Texas. Bill Bennett, soil chemist for the Texas Agriculture Extension Service, says that an application of nitrogen to the grain sorghum stubble prior to plowing it under will prevent a nitrogen shortage for the crop that follows. An application of 20 pounds of actual nitrogen for each ton of residue to be turned under should be made just prior to the plowing. Where nitrogen is not applied and the stubble is left in the field until late in the year, the decomposition process will tie up the available nitrogen causing a shortage for the following crop.

By using nitrogen and early shredding and plowing of stubble this condition can be eliminated.
Too, the nitrogen in the soil will be available for use by the crop which follows.

Bennett cautions against the use of more nitrogen than the crop which is to follow can use.

In no case, he adds, should more than 60 pounds of nitrogen be applied per acre. Generally about 30 pounds of nitrogen will adequately take care of the residue to be plowed under.

The most valuable crop coming from the farms and ranches of Texas is their young folks, reminds the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council. These youngsters will soon be moving to and from school and the Council urges all motorists to observe all traffic laws and especially those relating to the loading and unloading of school children. Play it safe so the children can be safe, urges the Council.

Higher Pay Scale
For Patrolmen

The Texas Department of Public Safety announced today a higher pay scale for DPS patrolmen will go into effect September 1.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., Director, said the pay of beginning patrolmen will be increased from the present $300 per month to $325 during the time they are in training at the Department's Law Enforcement Academy at Austin. It will be raised to $350 per month during their period of on-the-job training in the field.

Upon completion of the full training period, patrolmen's pay will range between $365 and $388 per month, depending on their assignment.

Garrison said the pay raise was made possible as a result of an increased appropriation made available for this purpose by the recently adjourned Texas Legislature.

At the same time he announced that men between the ages of 21 and 35 interested in becoming patrolmen should have their applications filed by the deadline of September 7.

He said competitive examinations will be given over the state September 15, 16 and 17 to fill approximately 80 vacancies in the Department's four uniformed services -- the Highway Patrol, License and Weight, Drivers License and Motor Vehicle Inspection.

"This is an opportunity for qualified young men to become a part of one of the most respected organizations of its kind in the Nation, and at the same time to occupy an essential position in our society," Garrison added.

Qualifications call for a high school education or the equivalent, sound physical condition, height not under five feet, eight inches nor over six feet four inches, and weight not less than two nor more than three pounds per inch of height.

Among the benefits enjoyed by DPS patrolmen are training with pay, job security, advancement opportunities, vacations with pay and a retirement system. Uniforms and job equipment are furnished.

New State Law to Hit Habitual Violator

The Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety cautioned today that a new state law provides for the suspension of the license of any driver convicted of four moving traffic violations within a 12-month period.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr. said the new law, passed by the recent session of the Legislature and signed by Governor Price Daniel August 5, for the first time defines the term "habitual violator." The definition is as follows:

"The term 'habitual violator' as used herein, shall mean any person with four or more convictions arising out of different transactions in a consecutive period of 12 months, or seven or more convictions arising out of different transactions within a period of 24 months, such convictions being for moving violations of the traffic laws of the State of Texas or its political subdivisions."

Garrison said if a justice of the peace or other designated magistrate finds a driver to be a habitual violator, the Department of Public Safety is authorized to suspend the driver's license for any period up to one year.

The new law also establishes detailed procedures for appeals of persons whose license have been suspended and requires the courts to give priority to the settling of such cases. It designates local prosecuting attorneys to represent the state in such appeals cases.

"Assuming" A Loan

You can give some of your rights to other people, for example, the right to collect a bill; but it's a different thing with your duties. You need your creditor's OK firmly to assign your debts to another.

You can sell what you own, all right, but you can't shake a debt merely by getting somebody else to promise to pay it for you.
Your creditor -- who is a party to your contract -- has something to say about who takes over your obligations.

Thus, your cousin, say, borrows from you and promises to pay the money back. He can't get out of it by getting his neighbor to say he will pay you for him unless you agree -- and this takes a written contract.

Suppose you bought Abel's house on time for $15,000 and had paid off $5,000. Then, with $10,000 left to pay, you get Joe Blow to buy the place.

How could Blow pay you for it? Well, for Blow it would be just dandy for you to let him take over the $10,000 debt, pay you back your $5,000 equity, and then pay off Abel the rest of your $10,000 debt. Blow would save the cost of a new loan -- if his credit was good enough to get one in the first place. So you set it up that way.

One day Blow blew, and you yes you hold the bag. True, you could turn over your equity to Blow without Abel's consent.

But your agreement with Blow to pay the balance is not binding on Abel. He can hold you to your original deal. Pay up $10,- 000.

Don't let someone "assume" your loan unless you protect yourself by an agreement with your lender, or unless you are willing to risk holding the sack.

Your buyer is often a good enough risk for you to let him assume the loan -- but don't do it thinking you are free of debt.

SPECIAL LEGAL REMEDIES

Sometimes you see newspaper stories telling how various courts have issued "injunctions" to protect the owner of a patent from infringement, to stop some one from putting up a building which would be a hazard to the neighbors, or to prevent some other type of activity which might harm one or more persons. Occasionally you read where a "writ of mandamus" has been directed against some public official. This column will briefly explain both of these extraordinary legal remedies.

The injunction got its name because in the old days the English King commanded (enjoined) special action when an ordinary court action could not solve a problem at hand. Today it is an order requiring a person (or corporation) to refrain from doing a particular act.

As a rule, one would first get a "Temporary Restraining Order" which would stop someone from doing something harmful -- like polluting a stream or annoying the peace of your home. By granting it the judge preserves the status quo until a hearing has been held to hear both sides of the controversy. Usually, if you want an injunction, your lawyer will take sworn statements into court to show that your grievance is one which could be taken care of only by an injunction.

Often you must put up a bond to make up for any damage you do the other side if the court doesn't see things your way.

After you've made your request, the court arranges to hear the other side. The must 'show cause' why the injunction should not be issued. Because most injunctions deal with immediate problems, the court hears the merits of such a case in a very short time.

After the temporary injunction is issued, a 'permanent' injunction may be obtained or either party may start a lawsuit to settle the problems which the temporary injunction has cleared up for the moment.

If the court grants an injunction, it must be served on the defendant to be effective. Then if he disobeys the order, he is disobeying the court and is subject to a fine or a jail term for contempt of court.

'Mandamus' is a special remedy used to right wrongs or enforce proper action by a public officer.

When we elect public officers to work for us, we place a great deal of authority in their hands.
Sometimes they fail to do their lawful duty. One way to make a government official do his job is to ask the court for a writ of mandamus.

Keep Hogs Cool
For Best Gains

Are you keeping your hogs cool? If not, says T. D. Tanksley, extension animal husbandman, you are losing money. Hogs do not sweat and their efficiency is seriously hampered by high temperature if provisions are not made to keep them cool.

Fattening hogs will do their fastest and cheapest gaining when the temperature is around 60-75 degrees. The closer to market weight a hog gets, the cooler he needs to be to make the best gains, he adds. When the temperature rises to 90-100 degrees, the average porker will need about twice as much feed to put on the same gains as he needs at the lower temperature.

Recent work at Purdue and other universities has indicated that the use of water fogging on fattening hogs during hot weather will increase gains an average of 10% over those animals with shade alone. Adequate shade coupled with "showerbath" provisions are doing an efficient job on the hottest days says Tanksley. The shower bath is provided by installing a nozzle that will produce a fine mist town and its people that always makes for a winning combination.

By golly, grandparents are coming in younger sizes all the time -- now its the Dale Compton, who are all slimes about the bundle of joy at their daughter's home -- tiny Cheryl Ann Bressman. The baby arrived on August 31 and her parents are Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Bressman of Lawton, Okla.

September birthdays are coming in, and here are a few of them. Bobby Volgs celebrates on the 4th, and little Rae Jean Swinson will be blowing out candles on the 9th. September 24 is Aleta Marie White's special day and the same week Alice Marie Gilmore will have her time of celebration. On about the 25th of September Robert Lambert has a birthday and on the 22nd Sherry Jeter is going to be all smiles over her big day. Jenice Brown Price celebrates on the 17th and one day later Artie Mae Stokes cuts her birthday cake. September 18th is also Manche Gilliland Estes' day, Mrs. S. L. McElroy is a September child and Inez Windham claims that month too. Ruth Bowlus is a sapphire wearer in good standing, so is Dorothy Henry Reynolds. Over at Bill Ford's house September takes on special significance because its birthday time for Sharla Kay and that makes it just super important. Come September 7, that stalwart American, Frank Windham Jr. is going to be 15 years old and yours truly celebrates that day too (and just how many extra years is somebody's business else.) Who knows, maybe there'll be a cake at our house Monday -- one of those utterly and completely delicious dietary numbers that could be improved on immensely by the addition of a hunk of butter and a cup or so of sugar. But don't you worry about that sugarless wonder of a cake, just yell "Happy Birthday" at us and that'll be sweetness enough for any one. Still another star in September's crown is Patsy Patterson who will be sweet sixteen September 23rd. Freddie Foy goes all out for his celebration this month -- 15 years old and 108 lbs. of pure ole' Texas dynamite. Along September's by-ways W. Clyde White has a birthday, 21st one to be exact, and happy birthday to a nice fella'.
