Hi neighbor. Yes we got a good rain Sunday morning here at my place, got over two in-cles, and Monday morning is kinda cool and showering all around. At 2 o'clock this morning the electricity went off and it is 9 o'clock now and still off. Guessa transformer burned out somewhere.

Talked to Wilbur McKinney, who lives down on Battle Creek and he said oid Battle really was on a rampage. Had all the field north of their house under water. There was a big rain south of here after midnight, it that is what put the creek on the move.

The cotton is up. Don't know how much of it washed away for the fields washed pretty bad.

Some people are afraid to relax because the moment they really relaxed inside. Consequently they plunge into their work in order to "forget" all the unpleasant bogeys of the mind.

Recently Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Haskew had sent out proclamations (wedding invitations) to their friends, accusing their daughter Vickie Sue Haskew of being in love with Wamon Carroi Tyson, and that the couple nad set a wedding date for June 22. Typical of all parents, they panicked at the idea of giving up their youngest daughter. After going this far, they hardly knew what to do about the situation. Then it came to their minds to take it to a Kangaroo Court in Callahan Co, but did not know even how to contact the Circuit Judge -- so a Vigilante Committee (hostesses) came to their aid -- but they too were at a loss about what to do about a nice young couple who are in love and only planned on being married. for to them this did not seem such a crime. Since the couple had been accined it was the Vici. a crime. Since the co been accused. It was the Vigi-lantes duty to meet. Realizing that a man is innocent untithat a man is innocent until proven guilty, the Committee asked the bride-to-be, Susie Haskew and the groom-to-be Wamon Carrol Tyson, to meet with the Committee at the Community Center last Friday night June 9. With Mrs. Ray Floyd presiding as Circuit Judge, the couple were asked if they were guilty of being in love and planning on being married. The couple pleaded guilty and were willing to accept the Circuit Judge's verdict. The judge, along with the Vigilantes, sentenced the couple to not more than 75

rith the Vigilantes, sentenced the couple to not more than 75 with the Vigilantes, sentenced the couple to not more than 75 years, but not less than 50 years of wedded bilss. The Committee considered the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Haskew, to be accomplices to these plans, therefore the couple was placed in their custody and are to report regularly to them. Since the sentence was considered to be a light one, the Committee asked the community to go their bond and prevent them leaving the community, but as everyone knows, "Ain't nobody at Oplin got money," so in order to show the young couple they had confidence in their future and wished them well, they brought gifts and forfeited them to the couple. After they had opened their gifts, the Vigilante Committee: Mmes. Ray Floyd, Mrs. Pruitt was born August
