man lives might be endangered and that thousands of cattle and that thousands of cattle-might be stranded without feed in the driving, drifting snow. I telephoned my frieged Major General Selden Simpson in Am-arillo and offered my help should the National Guard Di-mission be commands—the fashould the National Guard Di-vision he commands—the fa-mous 36th Division—require the help of the U. S. Army or Air Force in alleviating distress. General Simpson said he would keep me advised of the situ-ation. We both recognized that an air drop of cattle feed might he necessary before the storm. necessary before the storm

Simpson called me to inform me that Panhandle ranchers, particularly in Gray County, feared their herds would suffer heavy losses unless feed could be delivered to them. Blizzard-bound cattle had been without bound cattle had been without feed since the previous Monday, and General Simpson said losses would mount rapidly unless feed could be gotten to them within 36 hours. An "air drop" of feed—a "hay drop"—appeared necessary, he said. He suggested that cargo belicopters might be employed and said that men from Panhandle units of the 36th Division stood ready to load the aircraft and mark to load the aircraft and mark drop zones.

I then conferred with Lt. Gen-Carl H. Jark. the commanding general of the 4th Army at Fort Sam Houston at San Antonio. General Jark well understands the problems that can develop on the plains when a heavy snow storm strikes, and he promised immediate assisting and organizing and organizing. he promised immediate assistance in planning and organizing a hay drop to the stranded cattle. The general assigned the job of working out the details to the 4th Army's young operations officer. Major Conrad K. Hausman. This was a job for the Army and the Army area command because the Defense Department has designated the Army as the "action agent" for coordinating the emergency and a few reconnaisance helicopters but no cargo aircraft. Major Hausman contacted the 4th Air Force Reserve Region to determine the status of reserve or which might be coming on active duty for training or which might be on emergency call. He and General Jark had deermined that the most suitable aircraft for the purpose boxcars, and such planes were stationed at Kelly Air Force Base San Antonio, and Elling Base San Antonio, and Ellington Air Force Base. Houston. Major Hausman lined un crews for four C-119s at Ellington AFB, the home base of the 924th Squadron of the 446th Troop Carrier Wing. They were alerted and Major Hausman messaged headquarters in high level appropriate the processing the state of the stat high level approval. That was Meanwhile, General Jark's staff members were in contact with General Simpson and with me and with Major General D. O. Monteith, the commanding general at Amarillo Air Force Base. All was in readiness for the planes to fly from Houston to Amarillo to begin loading hay—but as of Friday afternoon not enough hay had been rounded up. While waiting for the hay to be accumulated. General Simpson rerported to me, he was dispatching National Guardsmen in trucks to go to the ranches to see if they could the ranches to see if they could push through to the pastures.

At noon Saturday, the four planes of the 924th Squadron reached Amarillo Air Force Base and hay was loaded. Through and hay was loaded. Through that afternoon and on into Sunday afternoon, the wonderful crewmen of the 924th flew sortie after sortie over five Panhandle counties, dropping more than 2,200 bales of hay to the cattle below. So hungry were the cattle that as the planes swung around for a second "pass" over the fields, the men aboard could see the cattle beginning to eat hay dropped ginning to eat hay dropped to them minutes before. General Simpson reported to me that the operation was highly suc-cessful. "The ranchers were 100 percent enthusiastic about it, he said. "It saved their necks The good news that came this week was that the air drop help-ed reduce cattle losses far below the loss experienced in the 1957

To General Jark and Major Hausman, General Simpson. General Monteith, and their staffs—and to the flying crewmen of the 924th Squadron at Ellington—my heartiest congratulations and thanks for a job well done. job well done.

GOVERNOR CONNALLY PROCLAIMS PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK IN TEXAS

Special observance of increas.

Army as the "action agent" for coordinating the emergency assistance of all services when problems arise in the Continental United States.

Maior Hausman obviously relishes such assignments—not only because they provide a means by which the Army can be of direct assistance to American citizens but also because planning and executing such operations provide good training for more warlike emergencies.

Working closely with General Jark Maior Hausman guickly determined that the Air Nation al Guard in Texas was not equipped for such a task. The Texas ANG has fighter aircraft and a few reconnaisance heli.

Never before in our history has there been a greater need for educated leadership. As we rush to train young people in science and technology to keep pace with world events, it is also im public schools will furnish ou leaders tomorrow with the ba-sic human, moral and spiritual advanced training and know

THEREFORE. I. as Gover nor of Texas, do hereby designate the period of March 2-6 as Public Schools Week in Texas.

In official recognition where of. I hereby affix my signature this 16th day of December. 19.

PATTERNS FOR PROGRESS

WTU is proud to be a part of your

NO.T.

TOURISM

. . its value to you

America is on the road . . . going places . . . seeing things. Texas had 9.6 million out-of-state visitors in 1963 who spent $471 million plus $25 million in direct state taxes. As an example in WTU territory, more than 100,000 last year visited Big Bend National Park (pictured above).

A mere eight tourist cars a day that stop in a community is the equivalent of an added $100,000 annual payroll. Travel and tourism in Texas will grow even faster because of vastly increasing tourist promotion on both the state and local level. This makes tourism of value to every community in the WTU service area, and one of our major economic factors.

Many communities are benefiting from tourism as one of the important PATTERNS FOR PROGRESS. These communities are:

- 1. Developing tourist attractions (even a rodeo or county fair is a "tourist attraction").
- Building facilities to care for tourists and other travelers no matter where they are headed (Alpine's Ponderosa Restaurant, pictured left, is one of many such facilities).
- Creating facilities for the growing number of business and family non-vacationing travelers who fill the highways day after day.

That is why we suggest that you evaluate the importance of tourism to you, and consider seriously how your community can benefit from it.

James P. (Jim) Boswell in our spring revival on April 5-12.

These activities and others are to be subjects of discussion and action as the commissions and the official board meet next Monday evening. Feb. 24, this time one hour earlier than the ground in the complex contact in the presentary in the presentary in the contact of the con regular time as carried in the a misunderstanding, we are changing the name of the regu-lar mid-week service leading up to the revival. It is now known as "Mid-Week Stody."

The fifth and final session of the junior missionary study on India was being held on Mon-day of this week. This is to be succeeded on the next four Monday afternoons with similar ar angements as to refreshments y a "Methodist Membership by a "Methodist Membership Class," which is designed fo juniors, for older primary chil juniors, for older primary children, and even for junior highs who wish to take it. Although Palm Sunday, March 22, is designated as "Membership Sunday," no child will be pressured to join the church at all, but this class will furnish information and inspiration for church membership, and is open not only to those who already officially Methodists, but even to those who might like to take the work while retaining connections with other churches. In other words, there are no "strings" attached.

HIGHWAY PATROL DEPORT FOR MONTH OF JANUARY

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 2 accidents on rural highways in Briscoe County during the month of January, according to Sergeant W. E. Wells, Highway Patrol Superisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for three persons injured and an estimated property damage of $2975.00.

The Sergeant reminded mo-orists that Texas along with every other state in the nation every other state in the nation many years ago enacted a safety responsibility law to meet the problems created by irrespon-sible operators of vehicles on our streets and highways. This law is intended to encourage all law is intended to encourage all motorists to become financially responsible and to promote highway safety by identifying those drivers and owners of motor vehicles who will not assume their moral and legal obligations to society and therefore should be removed from the highways.

"In any accident in which damage amounts to at least $25.00 or more, the operator of every motor vehicle is required to report the accident in writing to report the accident in writing to the Texas Department of Public Safety. If the accident involved death, injury or damage to one's property of at least $100.00, the accident then comes under the Safety Respon-sibility Act and its requirements must be met," he explained.

"The Department of Public Safety is required by the new law to suspend the driver licenses and all motor vehicle registration plates of both the operator and owner of vehicles involved in accidents coming under the Safety Responsibility Law unless the owner and operator meet one or more of the ator meet one or more of the following requirements."

1. Liability insurance coverage in minimum amounts of $10... 000.00 for one injury or death, $20.000.00 total injury and death and $5,000.00 property damage.

2. A release signed by the damaged parties.

3. Signed installment agreement for damages.

4. Operator and owner found not to be liable in a court of

5. Operator and owner post-ing cash or bond security in amounts sufficient to cover li-speed rivers and owners of movehicles who will not asme their moral and legal obations to society and therese should be removed from highways.

"More stringent provisions ability incurred.

"If in doubt as to the amount of damage send a report and be on the safe side, or if additional information is needed contact any member of the D P S." the Patrol Supervisor concluded.

PARALLEL TERRACES By Dan C. Huckabee

Area Engineer, SCS
New terracing techniques are being introduced to farmers in the Texas Panhandle. Many farmers who need to terrace their land because of erosion or water loss will be interested in some new terrace layout and contsruction methods offered by technicians of the Soil Conservation Service.

A system of terraces run par-allel to each other is fast gainallel to each other is fast gain-ing popularity among farmers who have seen them in oper-ation. While these terraces are fairly new in the Texas Pan-handle they have been thor-oughly tried and proven in other parts of the State.

Parallel terraces have many advantages. For one thing, they eliminate point rows. This is a
