Spaghetti Supper

Shallowater FHA is sponsoring a spaghetti supper on November 1st at 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

You can get a plate full of spaghetti, lettuce salad, garlic bread, tea and/or coffee for $1.50. If you are under 10 years of age, the price is 75 cents. For a small additional 25 cents you can get a slice of pie or cake.

Grain Official Urges Contract Buying

Livestock producers and other grain buyers should contract now while supplies are adequate to meet their demand, according to officials of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association.

Elbert Harp, executive director of the national organization headquartered in Lubbock, said, "We do anticipate a very tight grain situation throughout the coming year. But at the same time, there should be no problem securing the amount needed."

The GSPA official recommended that the harvest season would be a good time to contract for grain supplies. He emphasized that contract means "booking" for later delivery and that it is not always necessary to make full payment for the grain at the time the agreement is made.

He also pointed out that grain may be contracted for later delivery either at prices fixed at the time of the contract agreement or at prices based on the market at the time of delivery.

"We continue to encourage grain sorghum producers to distribute their sales during the year," Harp said. "And it is possible to contract with livestock producers for grain supplies to be delivered throughout the year. This type of orderly marketing benefits both the

The Shallowater Industrial Foundation will have their kick-off breakfast on Wednesday, October 30th at 7:30 a.m. in the Shallowater Community Clubhouse. U.S. Congressman, George Mahon, will be the speaker for this event.

The Shallowater Industrial Foundation is a non profit organization which has been created to promote agriculture and commerce in the Shallowater area.

A special presentation will be made to Mr. Mahon at the conclusion of the meeting. Everyone is invited to attend the breakfast, and the Industrial Foundation encourages as many citizens as possible to attend as an additional tribute to Mr. Mahon.

This is a come as you are meeting, as many people will need to leave for work immediately following the breakfast and speech by Mr. Mahon.

Tickets for this affair may be purchased at the First State Bank and other Shallowater businesses. The price of the tickets is $3.00 each. Please purchase your tickets before 10 a.m. Monday, October 28, so that an accurate head count can be made in order to prepare the breakfast.

State Department of Agriculture Head Asks for Positive Action by Food Groups

Positive action by all food related industries can help make a turn around in the cost price squeeze that is crippling our economy and contributing to inflation today, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said recently.

"I am urging every segment of the food chain to look at all production and sales methods for ways to cut costs," said White. "Today, there is too wide a gap between what the farmer receives for his products and the prices being paid by consumers at the retail level."

Commissioner White said he was grateful that his two weeks of negotiations with ranchers and dairymen recently had helped prevent mass slaughters of calves in Texas.

An earlier appeal this year by White to national food chains brought about some renewed efforts to generate sales of meat at competitive prices. "All food stores, wholesalers and processors must take a hard look for methods that will reduce expenses and then pass the savings on to the consumers," White declared. "The gap between farm and retail prices is wider than at any time in the past 30 years."

"Transportation charges could be decreased by revision of shipping methods and removal of some inhibiting and costly national legislation," he said. "Also, some unnecessary national regulations on manufacturing and processing could be deleted and help reduce retail prices.

"Farm prices have dropped at least 18 per cent in the past year and are below production costs in many cases. Yet, corresponding drops have not taken place on food costs. The farmers and the consumers both need a fair break in the market place but the whole system is not responding as it should," White added.

Commissioner White said the Texas Department of Agriculture is working with other state departments and federal agencies in an effort to correct current inequities. "But it requires cooperation from every segment of the food industry," he noted.

On the international level, White has met with representatives of several oil producing countries in an effort to reduce fuel costs for agriculture. "We received a very favorable reception for the idea from representatives of two countries and hope to continue negotiations on cheaper fuel supplies.

Meet The Candidates Night Scheduled In Lubbock Tuesday, October 29th

A "meet the candidates" night, sponsored by the Greater Lubbock Press Club, Women in Communications, Inc., and the League of Women Voters of Lubbock, is scheduled for October 29, 7:30 p.m., in the Mayan Room of the Southpark Inn, 3202 Loop 289.

All opposed candidates for local races on the November 5 ballot have been invited to participate in a question-answer program. A panel of three area newsmen and a representative of the League of Women Voters will question the candidates.

The panel consists of the moderator, Norman Williamson, Editor Suburban Today; Max Mott, KFYO radio; Howard Swindle, Lubbock Avalanche Journal, and Louise Cummins, president of the League.

Candidates in local races of interest who had agreed to be present as of press time, were Bob Garner and Kent Hance, vying for state senator, senatorial district 28; Carlos Quirino, David Sullivan and Elmer Tarbox, state representative, Place 2, District 76; Max Arrants and Fernando Gonzalez, county commissioner's precinct 2, and Alton Brazell and Billy Aguiro, county commissioner's precinct 4.

Following the question-answer period, the panelists and unopposed candidates, also invited to attend, will visit with the audience. All interested persons are invited to attend.

Teenage Safety Driver Award to Be Presented at Frenship High School

A safest teenage driver award will be presented at Frenship High School to the student exhibiting outstanding safe driving habits on city streets and on highways, for the 1974-75 school year, announced Mr. Clyde Stone.

A handsome trophy will be presented to the outstanding driver in a special assembly during the school year. The trophy was given to the high school during assembly Wednesday, October 16, by Jim Anderson, membership chairman of Travelers Motor Club. It is to be on display in the high school trophy case throughout the year.

"Our organization is grateful for the opportunity and privilege of receiving this award, to be presented to the outstanding boy or girl of the year", Mr. Strong said.

The trophy will be awarded to the student selected by a special committee of Sylvia Dela Rosa, Brenda James, Mac Mansill, Sheldon Green, Joe Johnny Rosales, Mr. Dan Newberry, and Mr. Strong.

Mini-Magic-Meatballs

Only you know how simple these Mini-Magic-Meatballs really are, as your party guests rave over each delectable morsel. They're so simple. Just you and your oven know that they were cooked right in the sauce.

Just mix the ground beef — the leaner the better — with enriched bread pieces, onion soup mix, an egg and parsley flakes. Shape the mixture into one-inch balls and arrange in a baking dish. Cover with the Magic Sauce—a blend of catsup, lemon juice and grape jelly. Then bake in a preheated oven until done. Presto—it's the talk of the party!

Mini-Magic-Meatballs about 4 dozen

- | | |
|--|-----------------------------------|
| 1 pound ground beef | 1 egg, slightly beaten |
| 2 cups small torn pieces enriched white bread (about 2 slices) | 1 tablespoon dried parsley flakes |
| 1 package dry onion soup mix | Magic Sauce |

In large mixing bowl, combine all ingredients except sauce. Shape meat mixture into 1-inch balls and arrange in large glass baking dish. Pour Sauce over meatballs. Bake in preheated 350° oven about 45 minutes or until done. If necessary spoon off excess fat.

Magic Sauce:

SPORTS

by Joe Kelly

Prior to Saturday night's game with Arizona, the one most asked questions by Texas Tech fans was: Could the Raiders win? Would the team be too low, let alone bruised and battered by games against Texas, Oklahoma State and A&M, to overcome an explosive offensive team?

When anyone asked my opinion—for what it was worth—I replied simply that I thought Tech would win, that this team had pride enough to come back. The proof came on a 17-8 victory.

"Usually, we do some running, work in the whirlpool and look at films on Sunday," Jim Carlen said Saturday night at a well attended press conference. "But this week I'm going to give them the day off. I may give them Monday off, too."

"The players are tired, physically and mentally. It's been a tough schedule and it's not going to get easier. I look at it as halfway through the season, with only conference games left. Each one will be tough—and the next two are on the road."

It wasn't an impressive win from the standpoint that Tech didn't really control the tempo of the game. It didn't blow Arizona out of contention. Indeed, it was a game in doubt until the score was 17-0.

As usual, the defense saved the day, with the offense sputtering. And when Tommy Duniven was hurt, the offense really became conservative. Don Roberts threw only one pass—for three yards—in the second half as the Raiders tried to grind it out on the ground.

The defense once again was equal to the task, and it was no mean achievement to stymie the Wildcats. In winning five games without a loss, they built up an average of 435 yards total offense per game. You have to be impressed with statistics like that.

"Like A&M last week," Carlen said, "give credit where it is due. Our defense had a lot to do with Arizona not being able to move consistently, just as A&M stopped us."

Despite coming off the bench and moving Tech in for its first touchdown, just before the half, there was a little breath holding on the part of Tech fans. Roberts had been shaky when he relieved against Texas.

But the Seminole star grew stronger as the game went on. You could see the confidence build and he ran the team well.

"He's a natural athlete," Carlen said. "I thought he did a good job. He and Joe Barnes are a lot alike. I'd say Roberts is at about the same stage Barnes was when he was at Tech."

Overall, the margin Saturday night was a stout defense and an offense that capitalized when it could.

"I thought that we would sustain drives more," Carlen declared. "That was a disappointment."

In analyzing the Raiders, Carlen pointed out that the offensive line still was young and inexperienced, but learning.

"I knew, before the season, there was no way we could be as strong on offense," Carlen stated. "We lost too much experience. We just have to show more improvement, tackle to tackle."

From the press conference, other Carlenisms: "Everybody likes a shutout, but I like to win!" . . . "I like to win the games and lose the statistics." . . . "I'm going to play who I think will win." . . . "SMU's top 30 are as good as anybody's in the league. You bet they'll be tough. When Woody Hayes says Bostick (SMU fullback) is the best he's seen, that's good enough for me."

I'm an American League fan, have been for years, but I'm no Oakland A's supporter. Maybe it's because of Charles Finley, but I would have been delighted to see Los Angeles bomb the A's.

Instead, it was the other way around. The Dodgers were so unbelievably bad that even the Taiwan Little Leaguers might have beaten them. LA execution left so much to be desired that it wasn't funny. The Bums beat themselves, as much as Oakland beat them.

Still, you have to give grudging admiration to the A's. They got the clutch hits. They ran the bases intelligently. And they played superb defense. The pitching was brilliant and Rollie Fingers did a magnificent job.

Isn't it funny? The National League wins the All-Star game and makes the Americans look sick, but a team that seems to love dissension and dissatisfaction puts it altogether three years in a row and performs like World Champions should.

The Roundup—Enjoyed a brief visit Saturday night with Doug McSwain, former Tech tackle and, until a few years ago, a hospital administrator at Levelland. Doug's now with Blue Cross in Dallas. He looks good and it was nice to see him. . . .Putt Powell's description of Tommy Duniven: "He looks on Texas Tech as just a big McLean!" . . . Had a good visit with Bill Henderson, the former boxer, in Lamesa last week. I hadn't seen Bill in ages, but he looks great. I couldn't believe that he's 48. Seems like only yesterday he was stalking foes in the ring. . . .The story I get is that Arkansas has internal problems, perhaps racial in nature. It's too bad, with the talent the Razorbacks have. . . .Edgar Self, Denver City, connected my name with sports the other day, shook his head and said that he missed the coverage area towns used to get. . . .Jess Stiles and his aides, as well as the Picadors, deserve a big hand for their undefeated season. . . .And belated congratulations and a large doff and tip of the Levelland Stetson, to Ralph Carpenter, Tech SID, on his recent pressbox award by the Football Writers Assn. He runs a great pressbox and thoroughly merits the award.

Rays of Hope

by Pat Stanton

"Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your father which is in heaven."

We as Christian believers have been called to live "Radiant Lives." We cannot do this daily unless we are drawing strength from "The Light of the World". Psalm 34:5 says, "They looked unto him and were radiant; and their faces shall never be confounded." Jesus Christ is the light of the world. Anyone without his spirit living within is living in darkness. This is why they cannot understand the way of the Christian world.

Spirit filled Christians are actually changed into the nature and likeness of Christ. This is given in 2 Cor. 3:18. "But we all, with unveiled face reflecting as a mirror the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord the Spirit. Many Christians are not being changed into the image of Christ because they will not allow the Spirit of Christ to fill and mature them. As Jesus prepared to leave this earth, he told his followers that he wouldn't leave them helpless and hopeless. He said that he would send the Holy Spirit to stay with them. Many believers today belittle the Holy Spirit and say, "All you need is just more of Jesus." Well, this is true. But the only way to have more of the likeness of Jesus is through the power of the Holy Spirit. Jesus is not here. He is in heaven seated by the Father. His job is to take care of our prayer requests. (Hebrews 4:14-16).

The Holy Spirit is our teacher, guide, comforter, anointer, sustainer, and physical strength.

Col. 2:10 says that we are complete in Jesus Christ. He is our example and Saviour, but his presence can only touch our lives through the convicting and empowering life of the Holy Spirit. The fullness of the Holy Spirit will cause you to love Jesus Christ above all things and more than anyone else.

Theme of the Week Series: Yea For The Red, White, and Blue

by Jean Shipp

America—"the land of the free and home of the brave." When our fore fathers founded this country, it was one of which people were proud to be a part. If anyone said a word against America he ran the risk of being severely punished. If one did not like the country he did not have to migrate, and he certainly was not required to stay.

People fought for America with pride, and death in battle was with dignity. Our freedom is stained with our forefathers blood, which enables us to have the liberty we enjoy today.

Our flag used to be a sight that would bring tears to the eyes of all beholders because of the glory it represented. Veterans and servicemen proudly stood reflecting upon their memories of service to their country as the flag fluttered in the breeze. When the National Anthem rang through the air people stood with pride, knowing that America was truly a great country.

As time has progressed, respect for our country has grown less and less. There are a number of things that tend to upset me, but the lack of respect for our country upsets me most. It is so hard for me to understand how people can show such disrespect for our flag. Wearing our flag on one's "derriere" is certainly no sign of respect! However, when our nation's Supreme Court rules this act constitutional, there is not much we can do.

Why, instead of standing with reverence as the flag is raised, or the national anthem is played, do people laugh, and talk, or jeer as the ceremony is performed? Why is the honor of serving in the armed services no longer an honor? Why does the sight of a military cemetery not bring awe and respect to one's heart and mind?

These, among many other questions, puzzle and baffle me. Where have we as Americans gone wrong in instilling respect for America in our hearts? Granted, all Americans are not disrespectful and many do have great pride and respect for the country, but an increasing number of people have a very disconcerting attitude.

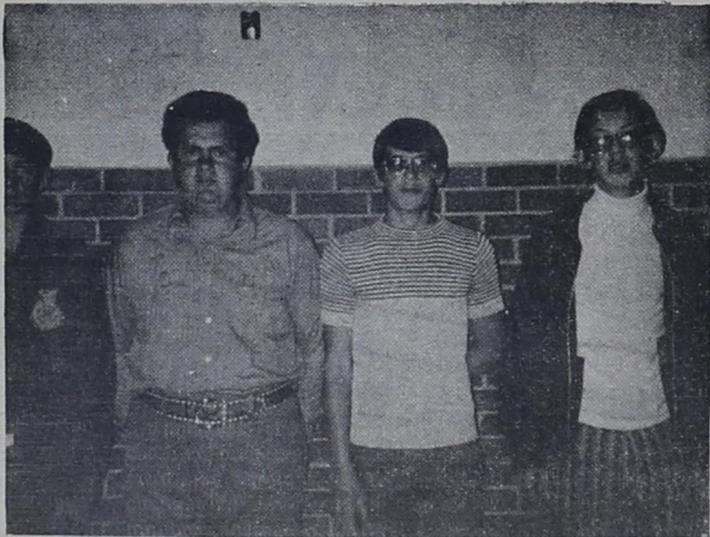

My greatest desire is, that we as Americans regain what is often called the "good ole days". Our forefathers paid a high price for our freedom, and to keep that freedom we are going to have to continue the struggle for that which is good and right.

I have heard many wise men say that if America falls, it will be from without and not from within. I believe that a lack of respect for one's country is a very degenerating thing, and could be a very strong contributing factor in the fall of America. There has never been a powerful nation to remain at its peak after two hundred years. If this is any pattern, then America—the very symbol of freedom—does not have much longer to stand.

Our country was based on the thought "In God We Trust". For the most part this is no longer true, and until we return to God to live as He would have us to live, then America is certainly doomed to deterioration.

I am proud to be an American! This is a great country! As I see our flag proudly waving in the breeze, I cannot help but think of what our country has been through to provide me the privileges of freedom I have today. My prayer is that everyone will take reflective looks at the past and truly realize what blessings we as Americans have had bestowed upon us.

Football Spotlight

by Alex Grice

This week in the football spotlight column, four very important people will be complimented. Dwain Reams Sr., Gary Tipton, Fr., Cris Middleton, Fr., and Steve Conner, Fr.

These four managers are quite important to the football team since they make all the workouts and games just like the players. All of the managers help players who receive injuries. They are always there when needed. If it wasn't for the managers, it would be a lot harder to have a team.

D.E. Spotlight

This week's Distributive Education Spotlight features Miss Cindy Elkins. She is 17 years old and a senior at SHS. Cindy was born in Abilene and because her dad is in the Air Force, she has seen a lot of the country.

Cindy's favorite color is green and she loves to play foosball and to listen to music. Her favorite hobby is painting.

Cindy is currently employed at Tiffany's Bakers in the South Plains Mall.

We wish Cindy all the luck in her future plans.

Senior Spotlights

by Janie Serna

Two young ladies are featured in this week's column. They are Sylvia Cuevas and Jean Shipp. Our first lady is Miss Sylvia Cuevas, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cuevas. She celebrates her birthday on October 15th. Sylvia has attended school here before, but for half a semester, she attended Kress High School, before coming back to good old S.H.S. Organizations to which her time is devoted are DECA, FHA and SOS. She has always had the ambition to become a stewardess, so after graduation she plans to work at this goal. She says about SHS, "There is nothing wrong with this school, therefore I can't say anything bad about it. It's just O.K."

Our other young lady, Jean Shipp, came to Mr. and Mrs. John G. Shipp on September 3rd.

Jean has attended school here all her life. She is a 12 year veteran. This year, she is Vice President of the National Honor Society. This is quite an honor and we are very proud of her. Her time is also devoted to playing her clarinet in the Mustang band and being a spirited member of the S.O.S.

Her plans after graduation are to attend Tech and major in Secondary Education.

When asked how she felt about Shallowater High, Jean replied "I love it! I couldn't think of any other place that I would rather be and the kids here are fantastic."

The Big Move to New Buildings Begun

For the last several days, boxes were loaded, students carried desks, and teachers were supervisors. The "move" to the new buildings began. Grind, scrape, groan. Relocate, reorganize, and rearrange.

The new elementary building was completed last week and the teachers and students of the 4th, 5th, and 6th grades found their way to become a total elementary by being housed with 1st, 2nd, and 3rd. Kindergarten left the annex by the bus barn and joined the group.

The junior high students and faculty vacated the high school building and moved to what was the upper elementary building. That building is now officially the "Junior High."

The moving of the junior high released rooms for the high school. The building "sighed" after having been over expanded during the first nine weeks of school with "all those warm, breathing bodies."

By this time, the boxes have been emptied, the room organized, and a "normalcy" has returned, whatever that is!

Next week, a listing of all the new locations will be printed so your students can be located with a minimum of trouble.

Frank Cuevas ran 69 yards; Billy Glenn ran 43 yards; and Chet Webb ran 85 yards.

The entire J.V. would like to thank the people that came to the game. We would also like to invited the community to the J.V. game here next week on Oct. 25th, at 6:30 p.m. when we take on the Plains Cowboys. The Shallowater J.V. is now 3-2.

Teacher Spotlight

by Caran Conner

Mr. Gordon Jones is our featured teacher this week. Our D.E. teacher was born in Atlanta, Georgia, and went to high school at Hedland High in Eastpoint, Georgia. He attended the University of Georgia and graduated in 1967.

Mr. Jones taught for three years at South San Antonio High School, where he taught Distributive Education.

Mr. Jones lives in Lubbock; and he has a wife and two children. Mr. Jones enjoys teaching here but says it's a lot different from San Antonio because it's smaller and has a different atmosphere.

Changes Made

by Charles Krebbs

This year, there will be some changes made in the grades on students' report cards. This change will involve the use of numbers instead of letters.

The students' reaction to this is very negative. Probably the most apparent reason is that with numbers the exact grade can be seen. Whereas, with letters, each letter is a combination of three numbers. For example: a "B" is an 84, 85, and 86; and an "F" is anything under a 59.

Seagraves Rallies Past Shallowater

District 5-A opened last Friday night with the Eagles of Seagraves beating the Mustangs 42-9.

The scoring got underway when Seagraves halfback scooted across the goal line making the score 6-0, but Shallowater scored next making the game even. This score came early in the second quarter with Bobby Reeves sneaking across the goal line.

Shallowater kicked off but Seagraves fumbled and Shallowater carried the ball down to the 3 yard line, and Jerry Harrison kicked a field goal. The score was then 9-6 in favor of Shallowater. Seagraves scored 16 points in the second quarter making the score 22-9 at halftime.

After the half, the Eagles came out and scored 14 points in the third quarter. The score was 36-9 at the end of the third quarter. There was no score in the fourth quarter until late in the game to make the final score 42-9.

Shallowater was led on offense by Bobby Reeves who had 73 yards rushing followed by Richard Krebbs with 54. The leading tacklers on defense were Don L. Grimes, Jerry Harrison and Brantly Adams.

The Mustangs play the Plains Cowboys this week in Plains. The Plains game will start at 7:30. Be there to support the Mustangs.

J.V. Football News

by Chet Webb

Thursday, October 17, at 7:00 p.m., the Shallowater J.V. stomped over the Seagraves Eagles. The J.V. team was slow getting started during the first quarter. The Eagles scored at the last part of the quarter, but Billy Glenn pepped up the team with an interception in which he ran it back for a touchdown! The conversion failed with the half-time score of 8 to 6, with the Eagles favor.

The third quarter was a show of strength by the J.V. defense. In the fourth quarter Frank Cuevas intercepted a pass and ran it back 11 yards. On 3rd and 7, Chet Webb ran the ball down to the 1 yard line out from 35 yards. This set up a touchdown for Frank Cuevas, but again the conversion failed. From then on, the Shallowater J.V. ran out the clock.
