A. E. Todd Surprised on 84th Birthday

A.E. Todd was surprised on his "84" birthday, Tuesday, March 9, with a party from 7:30 a.m. until 8:15 a.m. in the board room of the administrative office at Shallowater School by the faculty and friends of the community.

The lovely birthday cake was iced in white with "Happy Birthday" inscribed on it, made by Mrs. Hap Covington. An appropriate verse taken from Psalms 71:18 also decorated the cake. A money tree of $105 was presented to him.

Mr. Todd was born March 9, 1892 in Bryan near Texas A&M College, and went to school in the Harvey Community at a country school, walking three miles one way each day. He married Estelle Dyess on December 7, 1913, she died Dec. 2, 1970.

He has resided in the Shallowater area for 50 years where he farmed when he first moved here. He held the position of school janitor, tax-assessor collector and school manager for 7 years, resigning June 1, 1937, and went back to farming. He returned to work for the Shallowater Schools in 1947 and has worked for the school the past 29 years. He semi-retired 3 years ago, but leads such an active life for his age that he still works part-time for the school doing any odd job that needs to be done.

Mr. Todd has a great love for children and stated, "children are my life." He had the pleasure of having the football field (Todd Field) dedicated to him on his 80th birthday, by the school administration and students.

One of God's greatest gifts is love and Mr. Todd's love for people is expressed every day by

The city's application to the Farmers Home Administration for approval of a $300,000 bond issue to build a ground storage reservoir and water and sewer lines is in order, an attorney told city council members Monday night.

"All the work has been done in making bond application to the FHA," Mack Ed Swindle said.

Swindle noted he still had to examine the right of way document and easement from the Santa Fe Railroad to locate a water line on railroad property. But the attorney said he "feels like they probably will lease us the property for $100 per year."

If the railroad approves the right of way easement for the city, the final obstacle to the FHA's purchase of the bonds will be cleared. Present plans for construction of the 350,000 gallon reservoir call for work to begin in the summer if the application is accepted. Shallowater voters approved the bond issue in November, 1974.

The attorney said he expects to hear "shortly whether the railroad has approved our application to put a line on their property."

In the Monday night meeting, city council members also voted to discontinue the use of aluminum wiring in home construction, and to update a city ordinance on abandoned motor vehicles so that it complied with the state's abandoned motor vehicle act.

The annual city and school elections will be held on Saturday, April 3, with 5 candidates vying for 3 places on the city council and 8 running for 3 positions on the Shallowater Trustee election.

In the city election, terms of W.A. "Dub" Hardin, C.E. Pair, and Philip Gerig, expire. Hardin is running unopposed on Place 3. On Place 1, Leroy Grawunder and Mrs. Doris Epperson are candidates for that position; and Bob Grice, Danny Jones and Harry Leonard are running on Place 5.

On the trustee election, terms of Melvin Stewart, Walter Hutton and Donald Martin expire. All three men chose not to run again. The 8 candidates who have entered the race are Joe Randolph, Tommy Pointer, Clyde Wyche, G.W. Gates, Jr., Billy Hayslip, LaVon McAuley, Pat Cobb, and Bryan Burgett.

Absentee voting began Monday, March 15 through March 30 in both elections. Absentee votes can be cast at city hall during office hours until the deadline and at the school business office during opening hours with the exception of March 22-26 when school spring holidays begin and voters may cast their ballots absentee these 5 days from 9 a.m. until 12 noon.

City Secretary, Jessie Lee Vance, is the absentee voting clerk for the city and Mrs. Ruth Walker is the absentee voting clerk for the school.

If you plan on being out of town on election day, April 3, be sure and cast your absentee ballot during the designated time.

The city election will be held April 3 at city hall with Mrs. George Blackmon as election judge. Bob Grice will be judge for the school election, to be held at the community building.

A brief summary on each candidate in both elections will be published in next weeks issue of Suburban Today.

Shallowater 4-H Club Holds Annual Spring Banquet

The annual spring banquet of the Shallowater 4-H Club was held Monday night in the community building.

The bicentennial theme was used in the program and decorations on a "March of the Shamrocks" theme were delightfully done by Celeste and Cheryl Potter, Mendi Pair and Dawn Dulaney, under the supervision of Mrs. Dalton Potter.

One of the highlights of the evening was the presentation of a beautiful yellow carnation corsage to Mrs. Louis McMenamy, by the members, in appreciation for her many years of service she has given to the 4-H Club as leader.

Lesa Dulaney, 15 year old sophomore, daughter of Mrs. Jack Dulaney, was recognized for the excellent job she did in representing the local club at the 43rd annual Southwest Junior Livestock Show princess contest, held in Lubbock.

In using the Bicentennial theme, the group played lucky

Shallowater Little League Baseball Program Needs Public's Help

The one activity program that unites elementary age children in the Shallowater area for the summer is Little League Baseball. Do you want it to continue? If so, you need to be involved. The program needs interested adults to make it function. It requires a few hours of your time each week from late April thru early July. To have an organization we must have a president, officers, umpires, and then managers and coaches. The children are always ready, but what about the adults?

Precious Memories

by Dardie

The Williamson family lost a very precious and dear person, with the passing of their mother recently. The loss has left an emptiness in our hearts, that will go away in time, but the memories we hold will live on forever, especially to me, as she was always the mother I never had. I learned to love her dearly, down through the years. She was filled with wit and laughter. She could cry when you cried and laugh when you laughed. She accepted me as one of her own.

She was a plain and simple little old lady, that time never changed. She led an active, agile life for almost 88 years, what more could we ask for. We thank God he let us keep her as long as we did. We

Missionary Conference Scheduled for Shallowater United Methodist Church

The Fifth Annual Missionary Conference of the Shallowater First United Methodist Church is scheduled for April 2-4.

The conference will feature speakers from Honduras, Korea and Siberia.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hord of World Gospel Missions began serving as missionaries to Honduras in December, 1967. Jim taught classes in theology and homiletics at the Tegucigalpa Bible Institute while Mrs. Hord taught organ and choir at the school. On weekends the Hords were engaged in evangelism to the various villages.

Rev. and Mrs. Anthony Fadely are on furlough from Tiberia, West Africa. During their two terms there Tony served as Conference Director of Christian Education. He was later appointed Administrative Director of the theological school.

Miss Jane Day has served five terms in Korea, where she pioneered a ministry for the women of some 740 churches. In a culture which traditionally attaches little significance to the female role, Miss Day has challenged and encouraged wives of pastors as well as lay women to recognize their leadership responsibilities and potential.

Also speaking will be Carl Rucker, the South Regional Director for OMS International, a non-denominational mission society involved in missions all over the world. The society specializes in direct evangelism, establishing churches and distributing gospel literature. Mrs. Rucker is a leader in women's retreats, prayer seminars, and study groups. David, the Rucker's 16 year old son, will head a "coffee house fellowship" for the youth.

Since the first Missionary Conference in 1972, First United Methodist Church of Shallowater has contributed over $25,000 to missions all over the world.

Bridal Shower Honors Miss Patty Ramirez

Miss Patty Ramirez, bride-elect of Alan McMenamy, was honored with a lovely bridal shower, Saturday, March 6, from 3 to 5 p.m. in the First State Bank party room.

The serving table was laid with a lovely pale blue cloth, centered with a bouquet of spring flowers, yellow jonquils, blue iris and pink tulips. Refreshments of cookies, punch, mints and nuts were served.

Special guests were Mrs. James McMenamy and Mrs. L.E. McMenamy, mother and grandmother of the future bridegroom. Also Maria Beardsley, a friend, and the bride-elects sister, Adrian Ramirez.

Hostesses for the shower were Mesdames Kenneth Grissom, Ivan Fowler, Gale Ballard, C.E. Morris, Don Martin, Henry Krey, John Shipp, W.C. Vaughan, A.C. Henderson, Wayne Starch, J.C. Kulm, R.W. Woodruff, Earl Elliott, R.R. Warren and M.J. Williams. Hostess gift was an electric skillet.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Ramirez of San Antonio; and the future groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James McMenamy. The couple will exchange vows March 27 in San Antonio.

Bridal Shower to Honor Gracie Lupton Saturday

A come and go bridal shower, honoring Gracie Lupton, bride-elect of Brad Simmons, will be held Saturday, March 20, from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Billy Hayslip home at 1016 14th Street, Shallowater.

Girl Scouts Celebrate Birthday

The Girl Scouts of America celebrated their 64th birthday last Friday with a bicentennial family dinner, held for both Brownies and Junior Girl Scouts.

The Junior Scouts danced to the tune of the Pennsylvania Polka.

Paula Call and Kristy Tipton sang "This Land is Your Land."

Cookie awards were presented to Paula Call, Kristy Tipton, Tammy Tischler and Theresa Kohler.

At the end of the evening, Paula Call and Jennifer Taylor played "Taps" on their flutes.

Over 100 people attended the family banquet.

Brownie Troop 135 participated in the Bicentennial Family Night held March 12, 1976, in the Shallowater Community Center. The girls danced and sang to "Strut Miss Lizzie," a game enjoyed by their mothers as children.

Cookie awards were presented by Mrs. Ealy Brock, troop cookie chairman.

Brownie Troop 207 was in charge of the candle lighting ceremony.

Safety Foundation Slates Training

Two aviation ground training programs, which are part of the nationwide safety and training activities of the AOPA Air Safety Foundation, will be presented to Lubbock area pilots in a three-day session starting March 19.

The ground-school courses are expected to attract pilots from a number of surrounding states as well as from the local area.

Richard Gless, director of the Foundation's weekend ground school courses department, said the courses are designed to prepare student pilots to take the extensive written examination for pilot's license, and to prepare pilots for the advanced instrument rating test.

Following three days of intensive instruction, the Federal Aviation Administration will conduct examinations on Monday, March 22.

The safety and training programs, which are scheduled for the Quality Inn, are open to all pilots and membership in AOPA is not required, Gless said.

Sheridan's Ride

by Jack Sheridan

I'm sure you remember that oldtime kids' thyme that goes "Smarty, Smarty had a party; nobody came by Smarty"? Well, this Smarty had his own party last Sunday and that is just what happened!

You see, being an oldtime newspaperman, I, up to a few years ago, always had implicit faith in what my editor said. He was "The Man." Of course, years and experience taught me a little differently. In fact, in one instance, I ultimately found no basis for that belief at all.

Well, in last week's issue my present editor, T.J. Patterson, a man of high character and principles, in his "As I See It" column mentioned one of my very favorite services, the annual Federation of Choirs service at Greater St. Luke's Baptist Church. That service, said he, was to be last Sunday at 2:30 p.m. So, in high anticipation, I got myself all gussied up in my best clothes, summoned a cab and arrived in front of the church at 2 p.m. The church was locked tighter than a drum, every door, and there was no human in sight for blocks around.

Well, I was early. So I sat down on a brick wall by the front door and waited. 2:10 p.m., nobody. 2:20 p.m., nobody. So, realizing what had happened, I started out, my cane and I, and hobbled over to avenue A where a good buddy picked me up and brought me to a cab availability.

Checking back I know better now. I overlooked the mention of the date in the first paragraph of T.J.'s column. I also checked with Mrs. A.L. Davis and Mrs. Americus Lee Smith and Mrs. Edwina Woods. I know now.

That service, one of the most thrilling and uplifting times of the whole year in this city, will be held on the fourth Sunday, that will be March 28, at 2:30 p.m. And, gussied up again, I shall indeed be there. I wouldn't miss it.

You shouldn't either. The whole of Lubbock should attend this one. The Federation of Choirs is the product of all the churches in east Lubbock and when they raise their collective voice and solo voices in the praise of the Lord they reach right into the innermost part of one's heart. There is an incredible joy in that service and one emerges just a little better a person than he was going in.

Remember the date—March 28, 2:30 p.m., Greater St. Luke's Baptist Church, 306 E. 26th St. It's an important date.

Still on things of Biblical nature this week. I went off to see the film production of "Moses" since my last column. This is a British and Italian co-production which was filmed in the arid lands of Israel. It is a curiously hybrid kind of picture, since Burt Lancaster as Moses is American; Anthony Quayle as Aaron is British; Ingrid Thulin as Miriam is Swedish; and Irene Papas as Zipporah is Greek!

The remainder of the cast is a mix of Israeli, American, Italian and the rest.

The film is well photographed and traces, naturally, the setting adrift of the baby Moses in the basket to be found by the Princess and raised as a prince of Egypt. There is the splitting from his "cousin," the Pharaoh Ramses II, and Moses' return to his people. The Passover, the beginning of the flight from Egypt, the parting of the Red Sea, the Burning Bush, the fall from grace and the Golden Calf, the laws and the ultimate victory into the Promise Land—all are told faithfully and with care.

The picture is told less lavishly and less overwhelmingly than the epic Biblical films from the Hollywood master of the genre, the late Cecil B. DeMille. It has validity, this "Moses," and the playing is sincere and direct.

The sequence, incidentally, of the parting of the Red Sea is a far better and more credible handling than the similar DeMille version in "The Ten Commandments."

Burt Lancaster, the one time trapeze artist and "Elmer Gantry," handles his Moses assignment with low-keyed honesty and quiet professionalism. Anthony Quayle's Aaron is a sad, troubled and sometimes uneasy portrayal. Miss Thulin makes a sincere Miriam, while Miss Papas gives her skills to Zipporah.

Two others score handsily in this cast, Mario Ferrari as the Pharaoh and Yousef Shiloah as the wily Dathan.

The film, at the Cinema West, runs two hours and 20 minutes and is PG rated. It has had a dual reputation, for much of its content was seen on television under the title of "Moses: The Lawgiver" earlier. This film contains much material not seen in that TV presentation.

Talked with Less Adams of the Lubbock Theatre Centre's Act IV this week. He's deeply involved, as all members are, in formulating plans for the second annual Summer Mummies set for a July opening at the Koko Palace. If I must be immodest, it was during last July-August run that I made my "stunning debut" as a soft shoe dancer in the olio, playing all performances in white tie, tails, top hat, stick and all. My ego enjoyed it; I hope the audiences did. They seemed to do so; they were kind!

Well, there'll be another big Summer Mummies show this year and if you have any talent for acting or for an act in the olio, pick up the phone and call the Lubbock Theatre Centre and ask for one of the Act IV members or Les Adams. They'll love hearing from you, believe me. All the proceeds go to help the city's prime community theater, Lubbock Theatre Centre.

And, remember, in closing, one other date. That is this Saturday, March 20. That's the positively last time that you can purchase your memberships for the upcoming season of Lubbock Community Concerts. The headquarters is the Lubbock Inn and you can contact them by dialing 799-2105. Don't delay. Remember, no tickets at the door for the four events; only memberships admitted.

Mile Relay: Beverly Pair, Robin Truelock, Terri Stanton, and Janis Horton.

by Kim McMenemy

The varsity boys went to a track meet this week in Spur. They were competing against 20 other schools, so the competition was really tough. Ricky Hawkins got fourth in the mile (5:02.0), Kim McMenemy got sixth in the 880 (2:08.6), and Bill Dixon got fifth in the pole vault, clearing 10 feet.

The varsity girls had a track meet in Frenship last Friday. They came out third in the overall standings. The 440 relay got 2nd, the 880 relay got 2nd place, Cindy Jackson got 2nd in the 60, Janis Horton got 2nd in the 220, Robin Truelock got 6th in the triple jump, Claudett Lamb got 6th in the 880 run, and Donna Evans got 2nd in the 100 yard dash and 4th in the 80 yard low hurdles.

Shallowater Superstars Cream Pink Raiders

by Chris Hutchings

The men's faculty played an action-packed game with the Pink Raiders of KSEL radio. The game was the Superstars all the way as they soundly demolished any threat by the Raiders. Two-point Tubb, Wild Willy Williamson, and Burn'em Baker were in the guard positions; Full Cheek Wolski, Jumpin' Jack Jones, Killer Carr, and Garter Gibbs were in the forward positions; Bad News Barnes and Curly Casey played the post positions. Beryl Harris was the team coach.

If there was any team that should go to the Olympics, it should be this one because they have sharp uniforms. The cheerleader was also an asset to the team. (WOW!)

him and revolves around his daily living. Everyone who knows Mr. Todd learns to love him and enjoys visiting with him and talking with him. He stated, "I appreciate the Shallowater people and the people in the community have been good to me."

He is an active member of the Baptist Church, is a Mason, reading is his favorite hobby and he still drives his car. He said he was real fortunate to still have good health at his age.

He has three daughters, all graduates of Shallowater schools. They are Mrs. Alonzo (Nina Ruth) Newell of Las Vegas, Nevada; Mrs. Carl (Louise) Shirver, Grand Junction, Colo.; and Mrs. Vincent (Hazel) Follmer of St. Paul, Minn. He has 8 grandchildren, the oldest is 34 years old and the youngest is 21, and he also has 5 great grandchildren.

Mr. Todd stated he has seen many changes in the community since he moved here 50 years ago. Back in the early 30's, he said, the school enrollment was around 300 students.

To have lived 84 years, depicts Mr. Todd's life in Psalms 71:18 which reads "Now also when I am old and gray headed, O God, forsake me not; until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to everyone that is to come."

May you see many more birthdays and good health, Mr. Todd, and may your philosophy of life, forever live in others.

Varsity Tennis Results

by Kim McMenemy

Monday, the Shallowater varsity tennis team had a duel meet with Abernathy, there. The boys and girls totally humiliated the Abernathy tennis teams. All of the boys won and almost all of the girls came out victorious over the Antelopes.

We are very proud of the teams for doing so well, especially since Abernathy is a AA school.

City Council . . .

The state act says partially wrecked, dismantled, or inoperable vehicles without current license tags and a state inspection sticker can be declared a public nuisance. If the vehicle was in sight of the streets, the city could declare it a public nuisance, giving the owner 10 days to dispose of it. If the owner refused, the city would be empowered to remove the hulk. An owner has the right to a public hearing to contest the city's claim that his vehicle is a public nuisance, according to the state law.

Jimmy Lamb, the city's inspector, appeared before the council Monday night, telling officials that recent National Safety Council figures show 87 per cent of electrical fires are caused by aluminum wiring. Lamb said the wire was still sanctioned in the national safety code, though the safety council "is trying to outlaw it completely."

The ordinance, which does not affect homes currently under construction, was made effective immediately for new housing starts in the city. Lamb estimated it would cost home builders 25 per cent more for the copper wiring. "Everything else is the same," he said.

"If we kill it, we're decreasing the possibility of someone getting burned," Lamb told council members.

In other action, the council tabled for further study proposals to

- employ reserve officers for the police department;
- purchase the services of a street sweeper;
- initiate a retirement program for city employees; and
- purchase land to construct a city building.

Council members will look into ordering telephone cables to control three of the city's wells, "providing the installation charge is not exorbitant."
