calls in their respective communities over the new DDD, or Direct Distance Dialing, system. Both towns have new seven-digit dialing systems, and on Wednesday night of last week at 7 o'clock, the two towns were "turned on" to the new DDD and the mayor of each town made the first DDD calls over the new systems.

All-Districts Teams Announced For 2-B North Zone

The District 2-B all-North Zone team has been announced and five members of the Valley High team were named to the mythical team on offense and three of those five were also named on the defensive all-zone selection. The all-2-B-North offensive selections are: Pepper Jones, Valley, and Mark Lane, Sudan, ends; Bruce Patrick, Valley, James Graves, Sudan, and Curtis Ivey, Amherst, tackles; Lonnie Williams, Sudan, and Gary McDaniels, Amherst, guards; Mike Mims, Lazbuddie, center; Ron Eudy, Valley, quarterback; Brian Wheeler, Valley, Donald Johnson Amherst, and Danny Williams, Sudan, running backs; Scotty Setliff, wide receiver. The defensive selections are as follows: Ends: Pepper Jones, Valley, Hal-don Messamore, Sudan, and Terry McDonald, Happy; Linemen: Lonnie Williams, Sudan, Mike Todd, Happy, Gary McDaniels, Amherst, Joe Campbell, Motley County; Line-backers, Brian Wheeler, Valley, Kyle Martin, Sudan, and Joel Gerber, Nazareth; Backs, Scotty Setliff, Valley, Rayburn Wenner, Lazbuddie, Sammy Moore, Happy, and Craig Pickett, Sudan. Barry Wheeler of Valley was an honorable mention selection on the offensive team and lacked only one vote of making the first team on defense at an end position. Ernie Lucero was an honorable mention selection at a linebacker position and was barely nosed out of that spot. Rex Fuston was also an honorable mention for a lineman spot. Pepper Jones, Brian Wheeler and Scotty Setliff of Valley, Amherst's Gary McDaniel and Sudan's Lonnie Williams were the only players selected on both the offensive and defensive teams.

VALLEY HIGH TEAMS WIN OVER TULIA, SPLIT WITH LOCKNEY HIGH SCHOOL

The Valley High basketball teams were hosts last Friday night to the teams from Tulia High and the Valley girls got things going right when they took the sting out of the Hornets by a 55 tally, then saw the Valley boys pull off what might have been considered an upset by outscoring the Hornets 69-63.

The Valley girls, looking much better in this outing than they did against Canadian in their first game of the season, put eight points on the scoreboard before allowing the Hornets to light up their side of the board, appeared to be headed for a runaway. The locals went on to lead 16-9 at the end of the first period. The Patriots pretty well controlled the ball on the offensive end of the floor much of the first quarter.

The Hornets, however, refused to fold and picked up some steam of their own, pulling to within three points, 17-20, about midway of the second period. The Patriots moved to a 29-20 half-time lead and were never seriously threatened in the second half of play. Valley led 46-29 at the three-quarter mark. Coach David Sanders used most of the bench toward the end of the game, giving them a chance to get in some playing time. Mitchie Lipscomb sparked the Patriot scoring attack with 25 points. Janna Turner, still slowed by an injured leg, hit for 16 points, Sherice Price, scored 12 points and Joanie Turner tallied two points.

Connie Ferguson, Dodi Lane, Martha Reed, Darlene Hendrix and Shonda Smith saw action at guard.

The boys game was a bit of a surprise from the starting whistle. Tulia fielded a tall team, featuring their 6-4 center, Williams, and the Hornets, we suspect, fully expected to sting the Patriots from the word "go", but the Patriots came to play. The locals got on the scoreboard first, were really hustling, and with about a couple of minutes left in the first period owned a 17-6 lead over the Hornets. The first quarter ended with the Patriots still out in front 17-10. The Hornets began to come on a bit stronger in the second quarter, but Williams found himself in foul trouble and had to go to the sideline for awhile. Midway of the second quarter the Hornets caught up and went ahead 22-21 but the locals came right back to regain the lead and maintained the lead by a narrow margin the remainder of the half. At the intermission Valley was ahead 35-31. The Patriots had only seven players available for the game and at half-time all five starters had three personal fouls and things did not look too rosy, for Tulia had a bench full of reserves, although Williams had three fouls and was seeing only limited duty.

The two teams played on even terms during the third period and Valley still owned a 3-point lead at the end of three periods. Scotty Setliff had picked up his fourth foul during the third quarter but the Patriots were playing inspired basketball and refused to give the Hornets a thing. The visitors went ahead of Valley 45-44 with a minute and a half left in the third quarter and regained the lead before time ran out. The coach started his big center when the last quarter began and the big fellow started scoring points. The Patriots, however, had hit a bit of a hot streak and shot themselves into a brief 11 point lead. Williams was shooting the Hornets back into the ball game and narrowed the lead three points about midway of the final quarter. Scotty Setliff picked up his fifth foul with about five minutes left. Williams picked up his fifth foul with about two minutes left in the game. The visitors pulled to within two points in the final minute of play but the Patriots met the challenge and scored four more final points to put the win away. The Patriots used only six players during the entire game while the visitors used at least 11. Ernie Lucero tossed in 22 points to lead the Patriots in scoring. Pepper Jones hit for 16 points, Joey Barefield 15, Ron Eudy tallied 12, Scotty Setliff 3 and Danny Mayfield made a free shot. The Patriots earned the victory as they out-hustled and out-scraped the bigger Hornets. Every player turned in sparkling plays during the contest but Joey Barefield probably got the biggest hand of the evening when he faked Williams and left him hanging way off the floor as Joey moved in for a pretty lay-up, scoop shot. It was a good one to win. The Patriots drove up to Lockney Saturday for a pair of games with the Longhornettes and Longhorns and split the pair with the Valley girls trimming the Longhornettes 48-41 while the Valley boys dropped their first game of the season 59-35.

EMERITUS PROFESSOR AND STUDENT HONOREE—Dr. A. W. Young, former chairman and emeritus professor of Agronomy at Texas Tech University, has been honored by the creation of the A. W. Young Scholarship in Plant and Soil Science (formerly the Department of Agronomy). The first scholarship was awarded to David McKay, a senior crops major from Memphis, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Argie Lee McKay. The award was presented at the 48th annual Pig Roast of the Texas Tech College of Agriculture. Pictured are, left to right, Mrs. Young, Mr. McKay, a former Turkey resident and Dr. Young.

WANDA (MYERS) THOMPSON UNDERGOES SURGERY

Mrs. Grant (Wanda) Thompson of Amarillo underwent major surgery on a leg in Houston's M. D. Anderson Hospital Monday morning. Her mother, Mrs. B. E. Myers of Plainview, her sister, Mrs. Monte Stephens of Quitaque, and her husband were at her bedside for the surgery. She is also a sister of Deloy Myers of Quitaque. Deloy received word Monday night that Wanda had come through the surgery fine. The results are not known at this writing. She is a former resident of Quitaque.

The Valley girls led most of the way but could not put the game away. The score was tied 11-11 at the first stop. Valley led 26-22 at half-time and held the same 4-point lead, 36-32 at the end of three quarters. Mitchie Lipscomb hit for 19 points for the Valley girls, Sherice Price was close behind with 17, Janna Turner scored 9, and Joanie Turner hit for 3. The Valley boys could not get it going in their game. The Patriots seemed a bit flat after the tough game the night before, and Coach Hulsey stated that Lockney threw a zone defense against them that they had never seen before and just couldn't quite figure it out. Joey Barefield and Pepper Jones hit for 11 points each for scoring honors for the Patriots. Ron Eudy scored 7 points and Ernie Lucero 6.

The Valley teams drove down to Paducah Tuesday night to wind it up until next week after the holidays. The Valley girls go to Canyon Monday night to play the powerful Eaglettes. The boys are entered in the Plainview tournament December 4-6. The boys will play Motley County Tuesday, December 2, at Valley.

"I'd rather explain higher gas bills than why you don't have gas."

Your natural gas bill is higher. And, you have every right to know why.

One reason is lower temperatures brought on by winter.

The main reason, however, is simply that you are paying more for natural gas. Because we are paying more. This chart shows how much:

This increase hurts both you and Pioneer. It adds to your bill and to our cost... a cost for which Pioneer is not entirely compensated. It is passed through without mark-up or additional charges.

Why does gas cost more? Competition... particularly from petrochemical and other industries. The competition for gas has never been so fierce.

We will have to pay more for gas than in the past. But by working together, and without outside interference, you'll have the gas you need today and in the future.

Latest solutions to weed problems in major crops on the High Plains will be offered in a symposium at the Hale County Agricultural Center in Plainview December 11, beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Topics to be discussed include weed control in sorghum, corn, cotton, sunflowers and wheat, as well as new research developments in controlling problem annual and perennial weeds.

The meeting is one of three area-wide symposiums sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Texas A & M University System and USDA-Agricultural Research Service.

Besides the Plainview meeting, another has been set for Bushland December 9 at the USDA Southwestern Great Plains Research Center, and a third at Brownfield, January 22, place to be announced.

The South Plains Development Program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service is co-sponsoring the Plainview and Brownfield symposiums, while the Panhandle Economic Program is co-sponsoring the Bushland meeting. Both SPD and PEP are area economic programs geared to the economic and social improvement of South Plains and upper Panhandle citizens.

Speakers for the Plainview meeting include Dr. Allen F. Wiese, TAES weed scientist from Bushland, who will talk on water-grass control in sorghums; James C. Esty, Hale County Extension agent from Plainview, discussing sunflower and soybean weed control; and Jim Schrib, associate weed researcher to the Experiment Station at Halfway, who will speak on solving weed problems on corn.

Also, Harry Garretson of Garretson Farm Supply in Hale Center will discuss particular problems in weed control. Dr. James R. Supak, area Extension agronomist from Lubbock, will speak on controlling weeds in cotton, and Dr. Frank C. Peter, area Extension agronomist from Amarillo, is to discuss how to grow weed-free wheat.

Dr. Abernathy will round out the slate of speakers with a topic on perennial and problems weeds. A question and answer session will end the program, with responses from speakers and representatives of several herbicide companies.

Billy C. Gunter district agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Dr. John R. Abernathy, assistant professor of weed research for the Experiment Station in Lubbock, are coordinating the symposiums.

According to Abernathy, both chemical and cultural methods of controlling weeds in major crops on the High Plains are widely used. More recently, systems of limited tillage have been developed and adapted as a method of cultural control.

"Research and education relating to both chemical and cultural weed control have played major roles in the development of commercial agriculture," he adds, "They have done much to make West Texas one of the most efficient crop producing areas in the world."

TEXAS TALK

One good reason for the upturn in the economy and the strengthening of the dollar is the efficiency of the American farmer. While a lot of segments of the economy remained stagnant during the past year the farmer was working . . . working to produce a new all time high in productivity for agriculture . . . working to produce a record harvest . . . working to bring more dollars into this country than went out. Record keepers in Washington now tell us that for this year the farmer's output was seven percent above 1974. American farmers provided this kind of efficiency in one of the worst possible atmospheres . . . prices were low . . . prospects dim. But the farmer didn't quit. Work went on. Records were broken and a chain of business started which boosted employment and sales throughout the agri-business sector. This in turn has had a positive economic effect for the entire nation. Well done farmers.

DEER & TURKEY FORECAST

Dry weather is predicted to be the only factor that might slow down the November deer and turkey season in the Panhandle and on the South Plains of Texas.

An excellent crop of young deer and turkey along with ample food and cover should be furnishing Texas hunters with ample opportunity as the season continues through December 7 in the Panhandle regulatory district and through January 4, 1976 in the South Plains district.

"We recorded the best deer harvest on record in 1974," said Weldon Fromm, Amarillo district supervisor, "but 1975 looks better with excellent deer antler growth and an abundance of wild turkey."

Fromm stated that the bag limit of one mule deer buck and one white-tailed deer buck and one wild gobbler or bearded hen is possible this fall in the Panhandle.

Rains coming at the right time on the South Plains of Texas have brightened the hunting picture for deer and turkey hunters according to Bill Pratt, Lubbock district supervisor.

"The mule deer in the caprock country of the Lubbock district are in excellent shape and all areas recording turkey in past years seem to be holding good flocks now," Pratt said.

A limit of two bucks and one turkey of either sex has been set for the Permian basin - South Plains district Pratt commented.

Both district supervisors are suggesting that hunters use caution this fall while hunting due to the very dry conditions on most of the ranches. Several prairie fires have already been reported and the use of vehicles in the field could be dangerous due to hot tailpipes, mufflers or even the careless use of cigarettes or matches.

Deer hunters in the field for the first time are reminded that legal firearms for deer include all calibers of rifles except a .22 caliber jet gun or rocket or any firearm using rimfire ammunition.

Legal shooting hours for deer and turkey are one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset daily with roosting areas
