WARNING SIGNALS

A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere

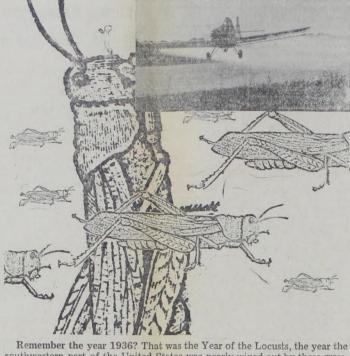

3 A sore that does not heal

Hoarseass or cough

6 Indigestion or difficulty in swallowing Change in a wart or mole

These signals do not usually mean cancer, but they are warnings; if one lasts more than two weeks, it is ortant to go to your

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

southwestern part of the United States was nearly wiped out by these grass-hopper-like insects who swooped down out of the sky in a blanket of nasty little "teeth" and empty bellies, stripping the countryside bare.

Now, it's a whole new ball game. This is the age of the Tough Birds - the Ag Planes - like North American Rockwell's Thrush Commander. This tough bird is one of the reasons you don't worry about things like locusts anymore.

You don't have to. Thanks to industry and science, and the hardy crop dusting pilot, we have meat and potatoes on the table. And bread to go with it. And the locusts are out of it, shot down before they get up by a tough bird, a Thrush Commander, from General Aviation Divisions, North Amer-

THANK YOU
