Hall Court Discusses Road Blacktopping

Hall County Commissioners meeting in regular session Monday handled several varied matters of public interest.

The County Commissioners unanimously endorsed proposed Legislation to be sent to Senator Sarpalius for action of the 70th Legislature, with the addition of the reservation and stipulation that the Juvenile Officer's Salary not exceed $22,000.00 per year and live within the 100th Juvenile District.

The Hall County Commissioners approved the drafting of a letter to the Federal Highway Commission and the State Highway Commission concerning the blacktopping of a road in Hall County.

According to the letter from the Hall County commissioners Court, there has been no blacktop road constructed in Hall County since 1977, and the proposed road the county seeks to have blacktopped has not been approved nor even investigated by the highway engineer in Childress Texas.

POSTMASTER, SEND ADDRESS CHANGES TO THE VALLEY TRIBUNE, BOX 478, QUITAQUE, TEXAS 79255

By Nadine Baisden

In a telephone call that I received last Wednesday, I learned that three covered wagons from the original Sesquicentennial Wagon Train that came through Turkey last May 25, left Wichita Falls, April 17 headed toward Turkey. They plan to be into Childress by Sunday, then will turn north to Wheeler, back to Memphis, Brice and on to Turkey to cover the same road used by the Wagon Train. They think driving over those hills to Turkey was a pretty drive so they plan to make that drive again to Turkey, arriving here Friday, April 24.

Two families in this group are Glenn and Alton Weeks and wives. The two men formerly lived in Turkey and attended school here in the early 30's. Turkey will probably remember the three older Weeks boys, D. B., Harmon, and Curtis, who were in high school here. These two men are coming to Turkey with this group. They were in the elementary when they attended school here in Turkey. These boys' father Dan Weeks is my first cousin.

The Dan Weeks family moved from Turkey to Wheeler at the same time that Supt. Lee Gilmore left the Turkey Schools for Wheeler. All of the Weeks boys received their high school diplomas from Lee Gilmore at Wheeler.

When living in this area, the Weeks family lived at the Bruce Gibson farm just west of Turkey. It now belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Troy Logan, daughter and son-in-law of Bruce Gibson. The Weeks family later moved to the Cooper farm in the Wolf Flat Community.

There were no school buses at that time, but these boys were determined to come to the Turkey school instead of the Wolf Flat School so they hitchhiked daily to the Turkey school, a seven mile trip each way. I never knew of the weeks boys being absent or tardy a day for school. Harmon Weeks was in my class at school.

These wagons will park on the vacant lot south of my home here in Turkey in order to be in the Bob Wills Day parade.

They score milk sediment disc and milk units for defects and identify sixteen different white and yellow cheeses. In the West Texas State University Contest, Gina Conner posted a score of 22.5 which placed her third high individual in the contest and Valley low score of the year. The team was again 3rd in the contest.

Briscoe Co. Appraisal Dist. Meeting Held

Briscoe County Appraisal District Board of Directors held their regular meeting.

The members present were L.B. Garvin, Jr., Ray Teeple, Robert McPherson. Special guests were George Reed, John Francis, and Elgin Conner, - Appraisal Review Board, Carlyte Fleming, Chief Appraiser; Troy Sloan, Valuation consultant; and Rita Moseley, C.P.A.

The appraisal district's 1986 audit report was presented by Rita Moseley, C.P.A., of McMillian, McMillian, Moseley, and Riddle, of Plainview, Texas. In summary, she reported that the records appear to be in good order.

The motion was made by McPherson and seconded by Teeple to accept the 1986 audit report as presented by Mrs. Moseley. This carried.

Everyone present, including the Board of Directors, the Appraisal Review Board, Troy Sloan, and Carlyte Fleming discussed the new government program (C.R.P.) and its effect on land values. Troy stated that the A.S.C.S. titles this land "Idle Crop Land." They agreed that the definition of the land under the C.R.P. is "cultivated land planted with a cover crop, such land being leased to the government for payment." It was agreed that almost all farmers involved with the program will have an income flow average over the next ten years that equal or be more than they could make by farming the land. The farmers will be reimbursed possibly as much as half the costs of grass seed and will also receive government payments. All were in total agreement that the C.R.P. land should not be considered pasture. They further agreed that the program has or will have the affect of stabilizing market values, and in the future could possibly raise ag values.

Following examination of the current bills, the motion was made by Teeple and seconded by McPherson to pay all bills presented at this meeting. This carried.

According to Carlyte Fleming, chief appraiser, questionnaires have been mailed to all known taxpayers who have government contracts for C.R.P.

These questionnaires mostly pertain to the current water situation on C.R.P. land. It is extremely important that these are returned to the appraisal district office before May 1st!

Souvenir Edition Of Tribune to Be Published

Hundreds of newspapers, from the 1920's to the present date are being surveyed to find interesting articles which will be used in a souvenir edition of the Quitaque Post and the Valley Tribune.

This newspaper will cover much of the history and happenings that have occurred in Quitaque during the past sixty years. It will sell for $5.00 per copy.

Each Thursday afternoon a group of ladies, spear-headed by Johnnie Morrison meet in the room behind Conner Insurance office to pour over old newspapers and to make the items that may be used in the souvenir newspaper. More help is desperately needed for this project, so we are asking for volunteers to help, if only for an hour or two.

The papers are scheduled to be ready for sale by August 1st at the Quitaque Homecoming. If you wish to be sure of securing a copy for you and your family members, you may call Johnnie Morrison or Mary Stark to reserve your copy. There will be a limited number printed and there have already been numerous inquiries and a lot of interest shown.

Mary Ann Sarchet shows old Briscoe County News newspapers and gives pointers to Johnnie Morrison and Mary Stark on putting a souvenir newspaper together.

MARCH FREEZE TAKING
HEAVY TOLL ON AREA
WHEAT CROP

Frigid weather which swept the Texas Panhandle and South Plains in late March and early April has taken a heavy toll on the region's 3.5 million acres of wheat. Specialists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, who have surveyed fields across the area, urge farmers to examine their crop closely.

Losses in surveyed fields range from 17 to 94 percent in Castro County, for example. Damage in fields surveyed in Hale County ranged from 10 to 90 percent.

Almost every farmer grows wheat in the 20 counties of the Panhandle Extension District - bounded by Dallam, Lipscomb, Collingsworth and Deaf Smith - noted Dr. Brent Bean, Extension agronomist at Amarillo. And wheat is grown by some 75 percent of the farmers in the South Plains Extension District - bounded by Parmer, Briscoe, Gaines and Scurry counties, he said.

Farmers in these 40 counties have spent an estimated $137 per irrigated acre and $14 per dryland acre of wheat, the agronomist said.

To assess the extent of freeze damage to the wheat, it is necessary to scout the fields thoroughly and cut stems open and look inside, said Dr. Harold Kaufman, Extension plant pathologist at Lubbock.

Cold hardness built up by wheat in the fall is quickly lost when growth resumes in the spring, and little freeze resistance is present at that time.

The Extension specialists said the degree of injury to wheat from spring freezes is influenced not only by the low temperature, but also by how long the low was maintained.

In jointing wheat, which was the stage of growth of much of the crop on the South Plains at the time the late freeze hit March 28-29, a two-hour exposure at 24 degrees Fahrenheit can result in moderate to severe effects on yield.

At the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center in Lubbock, the temperature dipped to 23 at midnight March 28, dropped to 19 degrees by 7 a.m. March 29 and never exceeded freezing that day. The night of March 30 a low of 14 degrees was recorded at the center.

Amarillo recorded a low of 12 degrees the night of March 29, with lower readings in surrounding counties, Bean said.

The extent of damage wasn't immediately apparent because the cold weather extended for several days following the severe freeze, delaying the symptoms from showing in the plants, the Extension specialists said.

As county Extension agents and specialists, accompanied by Dr. Kenneth Porter, wheat breeder with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Amarillo, examined fields closely last week, the devastation became more evident.

You cannot gauge the damage by the size of the wheat, Kaufman stressed. Damage will vary within a field, depending on where cold may have settled in depressions, or other factors, he noted.

"We saw a lot of heads between a quarter-inch and half-inch in size that were dead, and some bigger heads not severely affected," Kruffman said.

You have to dissect the stem and examine the immature seedhead, Kaufman said.

In counties from Briscoe and Swisher north, most of the wheat had leaf damage, Bean reported. Wheat that had begun jointing snowed weakening of the first internode, with some lodging. "We can expect more lodging to occur later as a result of the weakened stems," Bean said.

Allen Knutson, county Extension agent - pest management in Castro County, surveyed 14 fields, taking 20 stems at random from each field, bisecting them and examining the small heads within the stem. He found an average of 65 percent of those heads were dead.

Gred Croholm, Extension entomologist in Hale County, surveyed seven fields Wednesday. He said fields just starting to joint when the freeze hit had 10 to 15 percent damage; fields which had jointed showed damage as high as 80 to 90 percent.

In examining a field, Kaufman said, the first symptom of stem damage is discoloration of the outside of the stem. The color then goes to white and takes on a shiny, papery, uneven surface because of shrinking.

"When you cut through a collapsed stem, the color will be white, compared to green above the node," he said. Inside the stem, there will be a brown discoloration below the node; healthy tissue above the node will be darker green. A damaged stem blocks movement of water and nutrients to the grain, he noted.

If the spike is straight, with a greenish appearance in the center, and parts of the developing head are full and translucent on the edges the head is probably healthy.

A frozen head looks off-white to beige all over and parts of the developing head are shriveled. "That's what we've been seeing," he said. When a stem is cut open, if the developing head is limp, twisted and hard to extract from the leaf tissue, it is probably damaged, the pathologist added.

health hints

Beware of fire ants! Named for the burning sensation of their stings, these insects are just pests to most people, but their venom is dangerous and potentially fatal to about one percent of the population. Reactions to the sting commonly include a red swelling followed by a blister within 24 hours. For those hypersensitive to the venom, however, symptoms may include hives, dizziness and respiratory distress.

Fire ants nest in mounds, around a foot high. A new fire ant bait that destroys colonies by stopping the queen from laying eggs has been approved by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. Named Affirm®, the bait is sprinkled near the mound. Worker ants pick it up and carry it into the mound to feed the queen and other ants. The colony gradually dies out.

From the Files of the Turkey Enterprise April 24, 1947

Two celebrated with one birthday party, their birthdays falling on the same day; Richard and Jim Irby celebrated their 4th and 1st birthdays with a party April 17.

The table was decorated with large colorful letters of the alphabet scattered over the table, and "Richard" and "Jim" were spelled out beside each cake and the numbers 4 and 1 after each name respectfully.

Guests were Billy Burke Farley, Sherry and Mike Perkins, Carl Lance Lee and Bumpie Farley.

The guests enjoyed playing with a new red wagon, a gift to Richard and Jim from their parents.

Russell-Mohon Motor Co. received four new Fords last Thursday. In the shipment were two new cars and two new pickups.

One of the passenger cars went to Pat Brittain of the Turkey Bakery and the other to Lem Brock of Flomot, one pickup went to Tom Bomar at Silverton and the other to the State Highway Department at Matador.

A stork shower was given for Mrs. Snooks Hulen Wednesday April 16, in the home of Mrs. Chadwick. Hostesses were Mmes. Chadwick, Jim Gatlin, Roy Edwards and Arville Goncse.

Fishermen: Joe and Bert Degan, Donald Chalmers Duck of Quitaque, Bruce Gibson and Charley Franz have been down at Possum Kingdom about a week doing a little fishing. They hadn't returned Wednesday according to all reports (we've been wondering just who would help Bruce do all the work as well as some fishing, out of this bunch.)

A group left early Tuesday morning for Buffalo Lake for a fishing trip. They returned home that night after a big fish supper. Making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hooks, Mrs. G. E. Brunson and Betty Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bedwell, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Browning and Mrs. Ray Cruse, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lusk Jr. and family and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Williams.

The Nuevo Study Club met April 10 in the home of Mrs. C. W. Parmenter. Mrs. Carroll Edgar was leader of the program on "Nature."

SALAD DAYS

Whatever the season, salads have become a year-round favorite with those of us concerned about staying healthy—not to say slim.

But, beware the salad trap! If you lavish on commercial mayonnaise- or cream-based dressings high in calories and fat—as well as chemicals and artificial preservatives—you'll counteract all the advantages this new type of eating offers. It's much smarter — more economical, too—to mix up your own delicious vinaigrette. The classic recipe is: 3 parts good, imported Italian olive oil to one part wine vinegar or lemon juice, a dash of Dijon mustard, garlic and pepper to taste.

And it's important to always choose a first quality olive oil produced according to strict standards of excellence. From Bertolli, a name associated with quality for over 200 years, comes new Extra Light, which is particularly well suited to today's health conscious cooking—including salads.

Several folks are going to Las Vegas early this year. One local guy said he did alright up there... he arrived in a $20,000 Cadillac and came back on a $150,000 Greyhound bus!

Be on the lookout for the new blue signs soon to appear in Briscoe County roads which have been adopted. Local groups which will be participating this Saturday are Briscoe County Activities Association, Silverton 4-H, Valley 4-H and Silverton Girl Scouts and Cub Scouts.
