NUMBER 22

By John Wright

Saturday afternoon, Travis Bruton of Abilene scored the second hole in one in the history of Shady Oaks, and the first on number 8. Bruton used a 5 iron to hole out his shot on the 177-yard par 3 hole. Traon the 177-yard par 3 hole. Travis also made a birdie and a par on the hole on his following rounds for a 1-2-3 on the hole for the day. This is a real golfing variety. Bruton's feat was accomplished while enroute to a one-under par 71 for the day to break the existing course record and to become the first golfer to break par at Shady Oaks for 18 holes. His rounds consisted of a 35-36-71. He played in a group consisting of Paul Frost, Bill Dodd and Fank Row.

Frank Row.
Sunday, our monthly Florida Scramble golf tournament was held and was, as usual, a tremendous success. The teams were really evenly matched this time, as only seven strokes separated the lowest and highest scores of the tournament. The first place winners fired a six under par 66, while the highest score shot was a one over par 73.

The first place winners this month wree Frank Row, Dick Vestal, Jean Preston and Cubelle Harris. This team's 66 was the lowest any team has shot so far in this event. Second place went to the team of Kenneth McPherson, Robert Martin, Randall Ivy and Jon Hardwick. The third place finishers were Joe Harris, H. W. Martin, Tom Watts and Letha Long. Fourth place was nailed down by Bobby Black, Clyde Billingsley, Clark Tabor and Viva Peek, The 2nd, 3rd and 4th place

The 2nd, 3rd and 4th place eams all tied at five under par 67, and decided their places with a sudden death playoff. The cide all the positions.

The team of E. H. Cheves, Bo rruitt, Chester Likes and Gay ymn Newcomb won the prize or the most pars.

The award for most birdies went to Jack Brashear, Kent Finley, Don Tabor and Sherrill Row - Ed Cotton, Tommy Loper, Clift Burfield and Marge Bra-

The following people have not received their prizes yet and may pick them up at the proshop at their convenience: Dick Vestal, Tom Watts, Bruce Pinley, Tutt Tabor, Sherrill Row, Ed Cotton, Clift Burfield, Marge Brashear, E. H. Cheves, Bo Pruitt, Chester Likes, Gay Lynn Newcomb, Jack Brashear, Kent Pinley, Don Tabor and Jo Ann Vestal.

Finley, Don Tabor and Jo Ann Vestal.

Bruce Finley and Gene Finley have agreed to be co-tournament chairmen for this year. We plan to meet this week to begin plans for our first annual invitational golf tournament, We will be announcing the date and the type of tournament to be played this year very soon. I certainly do want to thank these two men for stepping forward and taking an interest in such a demanding and important project.

Golf tip - Golfers who hope to win matches and tournaments regularly should compete as often as they can. While weekday games are certainly fun, and shouldn't be ignored, competition in which something - whatever it's importance - is at stake is what builds a golfer's winning edge.

Putting is the most neglected part of most golfer's game. Strangely enough, this is where the scoring is done. Start counting your putts for each round, 30 putts is considered pretty good. How many are you taking?
