Christmas Food Drive Slated In Quitaque

The ministers in the churches in Quitaque are leading their congregations and the community in a Christmas food drive.

Needs have been identified in ten families. Canned goods are being collected in each congregation. Plans are to add a turkey to the package with funds from the Thanksgiving Fund. The packages will be put together based on the number of people in the family.

The Quitaque Volunteer Fire Department will help with distribution.

Contributions of canned goods may be made Sunday morning in each church or by contacting one of the ministers.

Quitaque Commodities

Commodities will be given away Tuesday, December 17 at 1:00 p.m. at the Quitaque Senior Citizens Building.

Please bring paper sacks or boxes to carry your goods in.

THEN & NOW!

I have heard it said that we begin to die the moment that we are born--this is quite true in one sense of the word but we also have a lot of growing to do before the final glorious hour comes to each of us. To me if we are not growing in some area of our lives we are stagnant and are speeding up the process of dying.

We have all seen people who never want to try something new, never change their habits, good or bad, never try to learn a new craft or improve their knowledge or skill at any job or project. This seems to be a bit of dying each day. Of course we all have known people of great age that seemed much younger than their years and on the other hand we all have known ones who are old at 15. My observation points to the fact that those that keep learning and doing are much younger physically, spiritually, and mentally than anyone who never tries a new idea out.

Yes, growth is hard work. It takes time to discover, discipline, and discern what is worth spending time on to encourage personal development.

First of all we need a good clear observation of the problem or lesson to be handled. We need to focus on and observe people well. As you observe people--imitate the good traits you see in people--soon it will be second nature for you to act in the same way--By the same token avoid those traits you see in others that you dislike. For example study a person who is undisciplined--Would you like to cope with the problems caused by non-discipline? If not, avoid this type of life style. Work out a life style that is satisfactory for you and pleasing for your family.

Next, you need to observe needs and opportunities. No matter how talented you are, if there is no need for your talent you are wasting your time trying to sell the talent. Therefore try to develop your personal life through experiences that are beneficial to you and your family. If you are afraid to take a risk--you will be quite safe but will you gain your wishes for your future? As an example, if you are shy and an opportunity to work in the public eye at a job you really want and think you could do well comes along--To succeed at the job you must conquer your shyness so that you can truly enjoy your job--GROWTH!

Another way to grow is through books. Biographies help us to learn from the experiences of others. Idea-related books that challenge our old ways of doing things and old attitudes. Self-help books give us practical suggestions for daily living. Inspirational books can inspire us emotionally or spiritually. One such book is the Bible--inspiration deluxe!

You can also grow by listening. Not only listen to what people say but what they don't say. You can also listen to people by observing their body language--their words may say one thing while eyes, hands, feet speak a different version.

Mostly we need to train ourselves to recognize an opportunity when it is presented--even if it is presented in the form of a problem--catch it, work with it and go ahead and start growing!! Discipline yourself for true growth!

Grady Tyler stopped me at the Post Office Tuesday morning and asked me to remind people to turn on their Christmas lights at night.

Law Officers Investigating Sunday Morning Burglaries

Law enforcement officers are currently investigating the break-ins of three Turkey stores December 8. As the deputy made his rounds unday around 2:30 a.m., all was secure and peaceful.

Early Sunday morning Hubert Price opened up his store for a customer and discovered that the lock on his front door had been cut off. As he entered the store he discovered that his cash drawer was on the floor behind the counter with all the cash gone. Approximately $1,200 was the amount taken.

Around noon Tom Eudy went to their ceramic shop, Two J's, only to discover that his front door along with the facing was destroyed. He, too, discovered that his cash register had been broken into and all the cash removed. This was probably in the neighborhood of $70. Mr. Eudy stated that the thief was a very neat fellow. Nothing was broken or out of place.

Turkey Automotive was the third business to be broken into Saturday night. This break in was discovered about the middle of the afternoon, Sunday. To gain entry to Turkey Automotive, a wooden front door was kicked in. Again, as in the other break-ins, nothing was taken except cash and the store was left quite neat.

Officers are continuing their investigation.

Fire Department Collecting Food For Needy

The Turkey Fire Department Women's Auxiliary and Santa Claus will be at Lacy Dry Goods in Turkey, Saturday, December 21, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m.

An added attraction is that many of the businesses are giving away door prizes throughout the day.

The festivities will begin as each business opens its door Saturday morning. At 10 A.M. the craft show, the Chamber of Commerce food booth at the Catholic Center and the commercial booths at the Community Center will open.

The Chamber of Commerce will have T-shirts available with the new Caprock Canyons logo on them. Sizes range from extra small to extra large. They will be on display at the Chamber of Commerce's food booth at the Catholic Center and at the Chamber's display at City Hall.

The Lions club will see that the flags are flying for Saturday's festivities. Businesses holding open house Saturday are Karol's Kountry Korner, Farley Flowers and Variety, Caprock Home Center, and Valley Tribune.

The Volunteer Firemen, Quitaque Women's Auxiliary, and EMTs will be holding Open House at the Fire Hall also.

Hotel Turkey On National List

What does Graceland in Memphis, Tennessee, and Hotel Turkey in Turkey, Texas, have in common?

Both places were entered into the National Register of Historic Places by the U. S. Department of Interior in October 1991.

It also seems fitting that the King of Rock 'n Roll and the King of Western Swing would share in this notoriety. Graceland is of course, the famous mansion of Elvis and Hotel Turkey is located in Bob Wills' home town of Turkey, Texas, and hosted early dances for Bob Wills and his fiddle in the late 20's.

Hotel Turkey is serving over 7,000 guests annually from every state in the Union after 64 years of continuous operation.

Methodist Cantata "Home For Christmas"

The Christmas cantata, "Come Home for Christmas" will be presented by the United Methodist Choir at 6:00 p.m., Sunday, December 15 at the First United Methodist Church in Turkey.

The entire community is encouraged to "Come Home for Christmas."

Buggy rides will be available for the children in the afternoon with Odis Reagan and Sid McFall.

Beginning at 10 a.m. also the State Parks of Texas will have displays available for the public's viewing at City Hall. A live Nativity scene will be on main street in front of Texas Horse Pads.

"Footprints of Time" Arrives at Silverton

Copies of Footprints in Time in Briscoe County, Volume II, were delivered to the courthouse in Silverton Monday morning, December 9, 1991, and many people who heard "by the grapevine" that they had arrived have already picked up their copies.

Briscoe County Historical Committee members Glenna Francis, Dean Burson and Faye Rampley worked all day out of the small room across the hall from the County Clerk's office.

Prepaid orders for books were mailed, in hopes they will be delivered in plenty of time for Christmas.

Extra copies are available for sale on a first-come-first-served basis.

C&L Food Sells November 1 To Owner's Son

After fourteen years, an established Turkey business has taken a new name and ownership. C&L Food, formerly owned by Charles and LaVerne Hamner, recently sold to Charles O. and Carol Hamner, and the store has been renamed CC's Valley Market. The sale became official November 1, 1991.

Charles and LaVerne wish to express their sincere gratitude for the local community's business and patronage.

Although the business has new owners and a new name, the staff will remain the same, along with continued service with a smile.

Quitaque Fire Dept. Collecting Food Items

The Quitaque Volunteer Fire Department will be collecting food items on the evening of December 16th beginning at 6:30 p.m.

These items will be collected for the food drive that the local ministers are sponsoring.

The department will be out driving and firemen will pick up any donated items, if you will leave them out and leave the porch light on, or call City Hall and leave your name and we will come by your home if you live outside the city.

A bake sale sponsored by We The Women and a frozen food booth by Valley Extension Homemakers will begin at 10 a.m. in the West Texas Utilities Building.

Catholic Celebration

Catholic Community will have their annual Virgen De Guadalupe celebration Wednesday December 11, 1991. Mass followed by a covered dish supper.

The "office" will be open through 5 p.m. Thursday of this week (December 12) for additional sales and delivery of the book. The Committee encourages you, if you are unable to get to the courthouse, please call a friend or relative and ask them to sign the list and pick up your copy for you.

Everyone involved in the project has worked very hard, including Taylor Publishing Company plant workers, to get the books completed in time for Christmas.

Please express your gratitude to Leon Lavy for driving his pickup and trailer to Dallas over the weekend to pick up the heavy load. (He blew out a tire, but came safely to a stop.)

The following Quitaque and Silverton businesses contributed to paying for the end sheets: First National Bank, Paymaster Gin, Valley Farm Store, Schooler-Gordon Funeral Home, First State Bank, Silverton Oil Company, Silverton Auto Parts, and Tulia Wheat Growers.

Charles Wallace Love Fund Set

A Love Fund has been established for Charles Wallace at the Turkey Branch-Memphis State Bank.

Fire Safety Can Save Holiday Spirit, Lives

'Tis the season to be jolly, so keep the holiday spirit uncharred this December by practicing fire safety at home and in the workplace.

On the average, a Christmas tree caught fire somewhere in Texas every day last December, and each fire caused about $42,000 in property damage, according to State Fire Marshal Ernest A. Emerson. "During the holiday months of 1990, 32 residential fires related to Christmas trees caused 13 civilian injuries, two fire service injuries and property damage totalling $1.4 million," he said. "Another 19 residential fires involved holiday decorations and caused property damage amounting to $97,000. In business properties, there were six fires that caused damage of $68,000."

Emerson warned consumers that natural Christmas trees are particularly dangerous. "All of the Christmas tree fires reported during holiday months in 1990 were natural products, not artificial trees," he said.

"It's important to remember that cut trees are not living and that it's essential to keep them as moist as possible. The longer a tree is kept in the home, the more likely it will be involved in a fire," Emerson added.

"In fact, about half of the Christmas tree fires occurred on Christmas Eve, Christmas Day or after, even through the first two weeks of January."

Carefully inspect light strings, cords, plugs and receptacles. Check for worn or frayed insulation and loose connections. If the item is damaged, throw it away.

Don't overload electrical circuits or extension cords. Read and follow directions on cord labels regarding connecting light strings and extension cords.

Use plastic holders for string lights, avoid nailing through wires or wrapping wires around nails.

Use only lights that have been laboratory tested. Check for UL or Factory Mutual labels.

Remember general safety rules throughout the holiday season: Check your smoke alarm each week. If you don't have a smoke alarm, buy and install one. (State law requires the installation of smoke alarms in rental property.)

Keep all heating equipment at least three feet away from any combustible items, especially upholstered furniture, bedding, Christmas trees and decorations.

Flomot Has Musical Fest

The warmth of music kindled harmony in the hearts of the overflowing crowd attending the Holiday Festival held at the Community Center in Flomot Sunday night, December 8.

Highlight of the night was the musical performance of the 3M's Company - Kathy Shorter, Carolyn Ewing, Pennie and Kelly Keltz, Dick and Sharon VanHoose, Billy Donaldson, Gerald Pipkin and Dr. Pat Williams. The talented Motley Music Makers sang "The Jingle Bell Rock", "Santa Claus is Coming to Town", "Silent Night" and "The First Noel". An instrumental saxophone rendition of "White Christmas" by Dr. Williams, and a solo, "Blue Christmas Without You" by Mr. Donaldson added to the enjoyment.

Wilburn Martin gave the opening prayer. Wayne Hunter led the congregational singing associated with the holiday season accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Joe Ike Clay. The Rev. Nathan Mulder, pastor of The Flomot Baptist Church, read the Christmas Story.

Coordinating Christmas decorations of green and red tablecloths, napkins, candles, and poinsettia bouquets enhanced the Community Center. Good food, including turkey, dressing and hot rolls, was served to those attending from Plainview, Lubbock, Matador, Whiteflat, Roaring Springs, Turkey, Quitaque, Lockney, South Plains, Floydada and Flomot.

Those who are parents of young children must now confront the tasks involved in getting them ready for the new school year which is approaching. In addition to clothes, eye examinations and a refresher course in discipline, unfortunately one more preparation is needed in today's world. In light of all the recent horror stories about kidnapping and other dreadful crimes perpetrated against children, be sure yours are safe. You must caution them to beware of strangers who might offer them a ride or some candy, and encourage them to tell you of any unusual occurrence. However, your children should be taught common sense and discretion without the trauma of unnecessary fear. Your house of worship can help guide you in this, along with its Sunday school, which can balance your warning with the faith in God that they will need right now; as well as all the rest of their lives.

"The most important thing that parents can teach their children is how to get along without them."

Utility Bills Taking All Your Money?

You might qualify! The Texas Department of Community Affairs provides services to make homes warmer in the winter and cooler in the summer through the Weatherization Assistance Program of Panhandle Community Services.

The Weatherization Assistance Program is not a renovation nor rehabilitation program; therefore the program does not address cosmetic improvements or other work which does not directly affect the energy efficiency of your house.

The condition of every house is different. An assessment will be made of your house to identify the location of cracks, holes and areas where air escapes. In winter, this means cold air entering the house and warm air escaping. Naturally in summer, this works in reverse, hot air enters and, if you use an air conditioner or evaporative cooler, expensive cool air escapes.

The following work may be performed to decrease your house's air leaks and energy consumption: Caulking, repairing/replacing doors; repairing/replacing windows or broken glass panes; reglazing loose glass panes; patching holes where air is entering the house; patching holes in floors and ceilings; installing electric switch and outlet gaskets; weatherstripping doors; installing threshold covers and door-sweeps; wrapping accessible exposed water pipes, installing insulating blankets on non-energy efficient water heaters.

The Weatherization Assistance Program limits the amount of money that can be spent on a house for weatherization improvement. Weatherization costs and the work done on a house will vary based on the condition of the house and the availability of funds.

At a minimum, the tasks identified above must be addressed. If the individual budget permits, the following areas are also evaluated and a determination made of the need for: insulation of ceiling, installation of storm windows; installation of solar screens.

Applicants are required to qualify by income guidelines.

If interested contact your local PCS office.

Use Care In Decorating For Holiday

USE CARE IN DECORATING FOR SAFE HOLIDAY SEASON

Decorating is half the fun of the holidays. But those festive items that brighten your home and office can darken your holiday cheer if they aren't handled safely.

If you're using a fresh-cut Christmas tree, Texas Safety Association reminds you to keep it fresh by adding water every day. Over 600 fires are started by Christmas trees each year. Keep your tree away from fireplaces and space heaters and use electric lights, not candles. Use care in picking the tree, too. If the tips of the branches won't bend without breaking, the tree is already too dry.

Artificial trees should be labeled flame-retardant. Never put electric lights on a metal tree.

Inspect strands of lights for fraying, bare wires, loose connections, and broken sockets. Make sure that they carry the Underwriters Laboratories (UL) symbol, and that outdoor lights are labeled for outdoor use. Unplug lights when you leave the house or go to bed.

Tinsel, garlands, and evergreen wreaths shouldn't be hung too close to heat sources. Be especially careful with candles. Keep them out of a child's reach, and always extinguish them when leaving the room.

Holly berries and mistletoe are poisonous. Poinsettias are not, but eating the leaves can lead to an upset stomach. Man-made decorations may contain toxic materials, too. Teach children that decorations are for fun, not food. Avoid hanging breakable ornaments near the bottom of the tree, where children and pets can reach them.

If you use a fireplace for holiday warmth, keep a screen in front of it to keep flying sparks off carpets and furniture. And don't burn gift wrappings—they may contain dyes that will give off toxic fumes. Put the wraps in the trash can instead, or recycle them next year!

Texas Safety Association is a not-for-profit educational organization and a chapter of National Safety Council, working to prevent accidents at home, on the job, and on the highway.

Students In Who's Who Publication

Who's Who, published by Educational Communications, Inc., Lake Forest, Illinois, is the largest high school recognition publication in the country. Students are nominated by high school principals and guidance counselors, national youth groups, churches or by the publishing company based upon students' performance in scholarship award contests or extracurricular activities.

Final selection is determined on the basis of criteria which include high achievement in academics and leadership in school activities, athletics or community service. Traditionally, 99 percent of Who's Who students have a grade point average of "B" or better and 97 percent are college bound.

The 25th edition of Who's Who, published in 15 regional volumes, features nearly 700,000 students or just over 5 percent of the nation's 12,000,000 high school students. They represent 18,000 of the 22,000 public, private and parochial high schools in the country.

Who's Who students also compete for over $75,000 in scholarship awards and participate in the publication's annual opinion poll of teen attitudes. The book is distributed to 15,000 high schools, colleges, universities, and public libraries throughout the country.

Local students selected for this year's volumes are: Penny Mars of Matador, daughter of Beverly Mars and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnhill of Turkey; Tina Clay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ike Clay of Flomot, and granddaughter of Mrs. Mary Clay, Turkey and Mrs. Lillie Tanner, Tulia; Melissa Woods, daughter of Becky Woods, Silverton and Carl Wayne Woods, Quitaque, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Thomas, Silverton and Mr. Carl Woods, Quitaque; and Langdon Reagan, son of Carolyn Reagan, Silverton and Bennie Reagan of Quitaque and grandson of Mrs. Lil Reagan, Quitaque.

Many households are quite diversified these days in the lifestyles and interests of the members, as well as in the biological sense because of step-children and half-brothers and sisters living under one roof. Indeed, many families find it hard to remember the last time they all had dinner together. Some of this is unavoidable, as in the case of a father who must travel on business or a mother involved in committee work for a worthy cause. However, the family members should make an effort to be together whenever possible, to discuss problems or just to have some kind of fun that spans the generation gap. Moreover, they should attend their House of Worship regularly, for this will help to cement the bonds. The family circle should be an unbroken one; a center of love and a haven of refuge from the outside world.

"Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity."
