 MCKAY-HALE VOWS READ
 AFTERNOON WEDDING
 In a pretty afternoon wedding solemnized at 3:00 p.m. Sunday July 24, in the First Baptist Church, Miss Sherita Gal McKay became the bride of Randall Hale.
 The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Argie Lee McKay of Memphis while the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hale of Shamrock, Texas.
 Rev. Melvin Hooten, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony. The double ring ceremony was followed by the traditional exchange of nuptial vows and the bride and groom were escorted down the aisle by their parents. The ceremony was held in the church's sanctuary with a reception following in the church's dining room.

MCKAY-HALE VOWS READ IN AFTERNOON WEDDING

In a pretty afternoon wedding solemnized at 3:00 p.m. Sunday, July 24, in the First Baptist Church, Miss Sherita Gail McKay became the bride of Randall Lynn Hale.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Argie Lee McKay of Memphis while the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Hale of Shamrock.

Rev. Melvin Hooten, pastor, read the double ring ceremony before an altar arrangement of arch-candelabras entwined with greenery holding long white tapers and altar baskets of yellow and white mums.

Music for the wedding was provided by Miss Jana Davis, organist, and Jay McKay, brother of the bride, and Mrs. Gary McKay, sister-in-law of the bride, vocalist. Mr. McKay sang "Color My World" and "More" while Mrs. McKay sang the "Wedding Prayer" at the conclusion of the ceremony. Both were accompanied by Miss Davis who also played pre-nuptial selections and the traditional wedding marches for the processional and recessional.

Mrs. Leroy Hamner served as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Cathy Hale of Amarillo, sister of the bridegrooms, and Miss Bonita Ballew of Canyon.

MR. AND MRS. R. L. HALE

They wore identical floor-length yellow dresses of doches satin crepe overlaid with sheer yellow dotted swiss accented with pink roses. The dresses were styled with scooped necklines and empire waists trimmed with white bridal lace with pink roses. They wore yellow picture hats with bands of bridal lace and carried nosegay of feathered pink and yellow carnations surrounded in baby's breath.

Miss Jill Combs served as flower girl. She wore a dress identical to the other attendants and carried a small white basket filled with petals in yellow and pink.

Eddie Chappel served as ring bearer.

Kent Payne of Canyon served as best man and groomsmen were Curt Blacketter of Abilene and Michael Hale of Dallas, brother of the bridegroom.

Ushers were David McKay of Clarksville and Gary McKay of Gainesville, brothers of the bride, who also lighted the candles.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of organza with sheer overlay, styled with empire waist and scooped neckline trimmed with Venice lace embroidered in seed pearls. The sheer sleeves were tapered at the wrist and covered the palms and the full back of the skirt swept into a chapel train which was applied with lace and embroidered with seed pearls.

Her waist length veil of bridal illusion fell from a headpiece accented with lace and seed pearls and she carried a cascading nosegay of feathered yellow and pink carnations surrounded in baby's breath and delicate fern.

For something old she wore a wedding band belonging to Mrs. Ida Melton of Electra, an aunt; something borrowed was the veil belonging to Mrs. David McKay of Clarksville, sister-in-law of the bride; something blue was her garter and she wore a sixpence in her shoe.

Mrs. McKay chose for her daughter's wedding a beige dress with chiffon overlay accented with dark brown and beige ribbons. Mrs. Hale, the bridegroom's mother wore a mint green frock with sheer overlay and sleeves. Both wore corsages of yellow carnations.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in Fellowship Hall.

The bride's table was laid with a white lace cloth and centered with an arrangement fashioned of two yellow candles and the bride's bouquet and bridesmaids nosegays.

The three-tiered wedding cake, trimmed with yellow roses, was served by Mrs. Gary McKay while Mrs. David McKay served the punch.

Mrs. Randy Whitten presided at the register table to secure signatures of the guests.

For a wedding trip to Carlsbad,

New Mexico the bride chose for travel a three piece yellow pant suit accented with a corsage of yellow carnations. Her accessories were white.

Mrs. Hale is a graduate of Memphis High School with the class of 1977. Mr. Hale is a graduate of Shamrock High School and is assistant manager of Perry's in Memphis.

Mr. and Mrs. Hale are at home in Memphis.

Mrs. Danny Morris of New Braunfels came Wednesday of last week to visit her in-laws, the Buddy Morrises. Mr. and Mrs. Corky Morris of Dimmitt joined them on Friday afternoon and stayed until Sunday noon. Mrs. Danny Morris returned to her home Monday morning.

Recent visitors with Mrs. Gladys Wiley were her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Immel, and their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Immel of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Miss Shonda Smith, who is attending Texas A&M, is spending a vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Smith, and her brothers and sisters. She reports she is enjoying school very much.

Mrs. E. J. Farley and son, Junior, returned home Thursday of last week from vacationing in New Mexico and Colorado. A grandson of Mrs. Farley, Mark Baugh, of Brighton, Colorado came home with them to spend a week. Mrs. Babe Chandler and daughter, Linda Dalluge of Tulia, took Mark to Amarillo today (Thursday) to emplane for home.

Mrs. Wayne Whittington visited her daughter, Mrs. Willie Gragson, in Wellington Saturday. Laurene had been hospitalized on Thursday with what was determined to be a viral pneumonia. She was able to return to her home Monday.

MORRISON'S VACATION IN COLORADO

Murry, Johnny, Joe, Colvin and Criss Morrison left Quitaque Wednesday, August 3, for Colorado. They stopped in Dimmitt for a short visit with Bailey Eddleman. They drove from there to Fort Sumner, New Mexico where they had a cup of coffee and a short visit with Sprout Craig, a former resident of Quitaque. They spent the night in Las Vegas, New Mexico.

The next day they stopped in Tres Ritos to see Mary Ollie Persons, then drove to South Fork, Colorado. There they met Jake, Jo Mae and Beth Merrell for a fish fry on Friday. They had fish three times while in South Fork, thanks to Jake, they report.

They left South Fork on Tuesday, going by Creede, Lake City and Gunnison, to Colorado Springs. They met Murry Wayne, Judy and Cari there on Wednesday.

On Thursday they all went to Cripple Creek where they rode the narrow gauge train to view some of the old gold mines and to see the countryside. They toured the Molly Kathleen gold mine. The children really enjoyed the mine.

Thursday night they met Bill and Nadine King and went to the Pike's Peak or Bust Rodeo.

Friday everyone except Murry rode the cog rail to the top of Pike's Peak. That night they were guests of the Bill Kings at their trailer in the mountains for a "cookout" of hamburgers and all the trimmings.

Saturday Murry and Johnnie started home by way of Amarillo, where they spent the night with Neva and Mike Spier.

Murry Wayne, Judy and children went to the Air Force Academy Saturday and that night to Seven Falls. They arrived home Monday afternoon.

Reported by Mrs. Murry Morrison

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Russell spent the weekend in Amarillo visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Young and son, Rowdy.

Mrs. Bud Bailey and her mother, Mrs. T. J. Reeves of Plainview, met their sister and daughter, Mrs. Irene Purcell of Lake Whitney in Henrietta Thursday, August 4. They drove to Nashville, Arkansas where they visited relatives until Sunday. They drove to Wicks, Arkansas on Sunday to attend a Smith Family Reunion. Those attending were the brothers, sisters and step-mother of Mrs. Reeves. They met relatives they had not seen in forty years, they report, and they enjoyed a very nice visit.

The ladies left the reunion that night and drove to Mt. Wilhelmenia and spent the night. They report this provides a very beautiful view of scenery. They drove home the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Melton and daughter, Kenny, of Stratford spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Lois Melton. Elaine Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Adams, accompanied Kenny to Stratford for a week's visit.
