Coach Well Pleased With Valley Patriots' Scrimmage

The Valley Patriots began their 1983-84 season with Groom in a scrimmage there Friday night.

Coach Ted Giddens says he is well pleased with the showing the Patriots made, although the score was 2-1 in Groom's favor. He says the Patriots had 215 yards rushing to Groom's 108. The Patriots made 13 first downs to Groom's 6. Groom had five turnovers to Valley's two, and overall, the Patriots looked the best.

Tommy Williams got off to a good start, running 45 yards for the one score.

The Valley Tribune editor is expecting another good season for Valley. The fans can make a big difference in the team's performance. Let's get behind them in every way.

Valley Predicted To Win District 2-1A North Zone

The Patriots, who missed a shot at the playoffs a year ago, have been chosen to dominate District 2-1A North Zone. The taste of post-season play, which Valley has enjoyed in past years, slipped away and the Pats don't want that to happen again this year.

To keep up the recent tradition, Valley returns the Williams brothers—senior Tommy and sophomore Will in the backfield. Both started on Valley's 6-4 squad in 1982.

To help the Valley running game, four starters return on the offensive line—J. Dale Butler (6-1, 190), Keith Beavers (5-10, 160), Daniel Ortiz (5-9, 200) and Walt Rice (6-1, 175). Joining the four seniors is senior quarterback Kraig Cox, who won all-district honors as a defensive back last season.

Larry Bob Clay, a 5-8, 155-pound lineman, and defensive back Rex Morgan also return on defense along with Tommy Williams, a second-team all-district choice at linebacker.

"Our defense will be our strength," Valley head coach Ted Giddens says. "We've got seven kids back on defense and in the other spots we should fill in with some pretty good kids."

"Offense is my biggest worry. We lost our starting fullback and tailback, but we have the two Williams boys in there. We've got to come pretty quick on offense."

2-1A North Zone Forecast

1. Valley—With seven starters back on both sides of the line from a 7-3 squad, need you ask why the Patriots are picked to win?

2. Nazareth—The Swifts return even more experience—nine starters both ways—but a road game with Valley on October 7 could keep Nazareth from the district title.

3. Happy—The Cowboys rode to glory last year—an 8-2 regular season and a spot in the playoffs. But Happy could be a town without a frown again if it repeats last year's effort.

4. Vega—The Longhorns' stable has been depleted, with only one starter back.

5. Sudan—The Hornets, with only three seniors in their lineup, still are young, but experienced with six starters back on offense and defense.

6. Lazbuddie—The Longhorns return strength on the offensive line, but it won't be enough to better last year's 4-6 season.

7. Amherst—The Bulldogs forfeited three games last year. They may want to forfeit some this season.

Tory Giddens Scheduled For Surgery Sept. 20

Tory Giddens, 2½ year old son of Coach and Mrs. Ted Giddens, will go into Cook's Children's Hospital in Fort Worth September 19 and is scheduled for surgery September 20.

Tory was born with a bone disease in his leg and he has never known what it means to children to run and play. The bone is not developing normally after all this time of treatment, and the doctors' only hope now is to do a bone graft. It is the editor's understanding this will be taken from a bone-bank instead of from his person.

Mr. and Mrs. Giddens have two healthy children, another boy and a girl. None of us know the mental and physical strain this couple has gone through. Many prayers have gone up for Tory and his parents, and this is the time to begin again in support of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve (Maurine) Stevens visited in Turkey with relatives and in Memphis with her mother, Mrs. U. F. Coker, sr., who is a resident of the Memphis Convalescent Home. They brought Mrs. Coker to her home in Turkey Wednesday for a visit and took her back Thursday.

Save Your Campbell Labels

"We the Women" has joined in the Campbell's "Labels for Recreation" program. The ladies are saving labels to obtain free recreational equipment for Valley School. The area people are asked to join them in their effort. A collection box will be located at Merrell's and at the First National Bank Community Room. The entire label is required, and they may be dropped in the boxes without any cutting.

The following items are Campbell products: Campbell's Condensed Soups, Campbell's Chunky Soups, Campbell's Soup for One, Campbell's Low Sodium Soups, Campbell's Bean products, Campbell's Tomato Soup, Franco-American products, Swanson Canned Food products, Swanson Frozen Food products, V-8 Cocktail Vegetable Juice, V-8 Low Sodium Cocktail Vegetable Juice, Recipe Dog Food products.

Please Bring Me Home!

A nicely repainted "Yard of the Month" sign has once again run away from home. Will the persons who picked it up please see that our sign is returned to its original place.

A reminder again: the sign is given in recognition of an outstanding yard in Quitaque for the purpose of motivating others in keeping the community looking attractive and one all can be proud of. Surely we all want the best community we can have—don't we??

Hall County Approved For Emergency Grazing

Hall County has been approved for special emergency grazing of CUA acres.

Before the producer can graze the CUA acres he must go by the ASCS office and complete a form stating the number of cattle and farm numbers on which the CUA is located. No livestock purchased or leased after August 1, 1983 may be grazed on CUA under this program.

Mrs. Rolf Wooten and children of Baytown spent last week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hill and other relatives. While they were here their home in Baytown received considerable damage from Hurricane Alicia, and also her husband's dental office sustained heavy damage. Bob Hill in nearby Friendswood received minor damage from the storm, it was learned.

Howard Tant of Quitaque stepped out the door onto his porch Thursday morning of last week and almost stepped on the crayfish he is shown holding in his hand. This is a little unusual during such dry weather. The crayfish is of the crab family.

Cindy Griffin Receives Degree With Honors

Quitaque Senior Citizens To Meet Sept. 1

The regular meeting for the Quitaque Senior Citizens Association will be at 7:00 p.m. Thursday, September 1, and everyone is urged to be present.

In a called meeting, Monday, August 15, a very informative program was presented by the Association Director, Lolla Belle Harmon. She, Margie Boyles and Anna Mae Smith had attended a Workshop in Amarillo held the week before in the A&M Extension Building. The man and woman who instructed the workshop were from San Antonio and the ladies came back enthused and with goals for the local Association to work toward. They received manuals which will benefit them throughout the year in local work.

Mrs. Harmon used a diagram on the blackboard to tell of some of the things they had learned which will help to direct the work in the local association.

Everyone 55 years of age or older is invited to be present and help in the work and then will come the recreation.

Comptroller Mails Rebate Checks

State Comptroller Bob Bullock has sent checks totaling $103 million in local sales tax payments to 974 cities that levy the one-percent sales tax.

"So far this year, we are just a little ahead of 1982 payments," Bullock said. "This is about where we expected to be by this time when we put out our revenue estimate for the state."

Bullock said seven of the 20 Texas cities that collect the most local sales tax—Houston, El Paso, Beaumont, Odessa, Abilene, Midland and Tyler—continue to lag behind last year's receipts. But the August payment to all seven showed they had gained ground since last month.

Houston got the biggest check, $19.6 million. Dallas received $11.6 million. San Antonio received $5.8 million, bringing the city's 1983 payments 9.3 percent above 1982 levels.

Austin's $3.9 million check brought that city's 1983 total to $19 million, up 15.9 percent over 1982.

Fort Worth's check for $3.5 million was up 6.2 percent over last August's payment.

Bullock also sent August rebates to the state's two Metropolitan Transit Authorities. The Houston MTA got $21.9 million, down from last August's $22.1 million payment. The San Antonio MTA got $3.3 million compared with $2.9 million last August.

The August checks were for taxes collected on sales made in June and reported to the Comptroller by the end of July.

In Briscoe County, the payment for this period was $5,726.79, as compared to $4,925.39 for the same period last year. The 1983 payments to date total $19,857.03, as compared to $23,313.71 in 1982, this year's payment being 14.83% less than for the same period in 1982.

Quitaque received $2,198.17

this period, as compared with $1,846.43 for the same period last year. The 1983 payments to date have been $5,836.17, 30.89% less than the $8,444.46 payments for the same period in 1982.

Silverton's rebate check was $3,528.62 for this period, up from the $3,078.96 received for the same period in 1982. The 1983 payments to date total $14,020.86, off 5.71% from the $14,869.25 received for the same period in 1982.

A "furnace" in a plant? Because skunk cabbages often begin to bloom before the snow melts, the plant produces its own heat when blooming, which melts the snow around it, says National Wildlife's Ranger Rick magazine. This heat also attracts insects chilled on nippy nights, which may pollinate the plant.

Food Preparation Methods Compared

Researchers at the United States Department of Agriculture's consumer nutrition laboratory compared a variety of foods prepared in preheated and non-preheated ovens and found few significant differences in the quality or size of the items, reports home economist Bonnie Piernot.

The non-preheated ovens required five minutes or less extra baking time than the preheated ovens, says Ms. Piernot, who is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

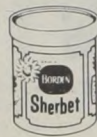

The energy savings from not pre-heating averaged about 10 percent. "Overall," Ms. Piernot says, "the findings confirm that preheating the oven is not essential for good quality baking, so it's an unnecessary use of energy."

To reach under bark and into wood, the European green woodpecker, says National Wildlife's Ranger Rick magazine, can stick its tongue out 25 inches beyond its beak.

Although birds and animals evolved on nearly identical time schedules, there are more than twice as many different species of birds, than animals alive today, reports National Wildlife magazine. At last count, there were over 8,700 species of birds, ranging in size from the condor to the tiny hummingbird, compared to 4,000 species of mammals.

The "good ole summertime" may bring discomfort and illness in the way of food poisoning if you fail to take precautions with food. There are four main types of bacteria which can cause food-borne illness—salmonella, clostridium perfringens, staphylococcus, and clostridium botulinum. Only one of these is usually fatal—botulism. The others generally cause discomfort for 24-28 hours.

Salmonella is one of the most common with over two million cases per year in the United States. It is usually found in raw meats, poultry, eggs, milk, fish and products made from these. These bacteria are destroyed by heat, so proper cooking and thorough heating of left-overs will help prevent this type of food poisoning.

Clostridium perfringens bacteria are more wide-spread everywhere than any other disease-causing micro-organism. To avoid this illness, again cook meats properly and keep hot (above 140 degrees) when serving or refrigerate (below 40 degrees). Thoroughly re-heat left-overs and bring gravy to a rolling boil before serving.

Staph organisms are also everywhere, even on your skin. They also multiply on meats, poultry, egg products, tuna, potato or macaroni salads, cream pastries, and sandwich fillings. If they multiply to high levels, they form a toxin which cannot be "boiled away." Though botulism is very rare, 700 people have died since 1925 from eating contaminated home-canned products. The primary means of prevention is to process home-canned low-acid foods (meat, poultry, vegetables) at the correct pressure for the recommended time in a pressure canner. A high temperature for a specified time is required to destroy this toxin.

Do not eat food from bent, leaking or bulging cans. Do not taste a food you are unsure of. When in doubt, throw it out.

Keep hot foods hot—above 140 degrees—and cold foods cold—below 40 degrees F. Bacteria multiply rapidly when food is left sitting at room temperature.

MAURO ANNOUNCES
IMPROVED INSURANCE POLICY FOR VETERANS

Texas Land Commissioner Garry Mauro announced the Veterans Land Board will provide an improved group credit life insurance program to veterans who have obtained loans through the Veterans Land Program.

The Veterans Land Board in its August 15 meeting awarded a contract to Pruco Life Insurance of Texas for the group credit life insurance policy for the Veterans Land Program.

"This is a dramatic improvement in our insurance program which Texas veterans will be happy to see," commented board member Jack Rains of Houston. "This continues our policy of running the Veterans Land Program like a business."

Of the seven bids submitted, the board felt Pruco provided rates that benefitted most veterans. The new rates will lower premiums as much as 65 percent for many age groups who participate in the insurance program. For the first time ever, veterans over the age of 65 will be able to obtain coverage.

The current average age of all contract holders presently participating in the optional insurance program is 53.9 years of age. Veterans under the age of 49 will get a decrease in their present rate. Participating veterans can expect to be provided with competitive rates with potential premium reductions based on actual claim experience.

"The benefits derived from this coverage will allow us to continue operating on a sound, business-like basis without any additional cost to the taxpayer," stated Veterans Land Board Chairman Mauro. "This policy will not only attract more veterans to the program but also encourage participation by lending institutions and sellers."

In other action by the board, a non-refundable fee of $75 will be charged for each bid submitted on tracts offered in the forfeited land sale on September 30. Forfeited land information brochures containing descriptions and locations of approximately 100 tracts in the sale will be issued at no charge on August 31. Prior contract holders of the forfeited tracts failed to comply with a July 22 deadline to bring payments to a current basis for reinstatement and the tracts were ordered for sale.

"If we are going to continue to offer generous terms and low interest rates to our Texas veterans, we must maintain a strong delinquency collection policy. If we want to continue to close loans within 90 days, veterans will have to make their payments on time," Mauro stated.

A Wyoming economist estimates acid rain is costing approximately $5 billion a year in damage to forests, soil, crops, buildings, fish and other aquatic life, and drinking water, reports National Wildlife magazine.

Fifty million acres of the world's tropical forests—an area about the size of Great Britain—are destroyed each year as forests are cleared for cattle pastures, timber and human settlements, reports National Wildlife magazine.

Social Security In Briscoe County BY TERRY J. CLEMENTS

A person who pays a household employee at least $50 in cash during a 3-month quarter is considered an employer for Social Security purposes. The employer is required to deduct Social Security taxes and report the wages paid, including cash payments made to cover the cost of bus fare, meals or a room.

So that the necessary reports may be made accurately and on time, employers should keep a record of the name, address and Social Security number of each household worker, as well as the amount of wages paid. For 1983, both employer and employee are required to pay Social Security taxes of 6.70 percent on cash wages up to $35,700. Reporting forms and instructions on how to complete them can be obtained from the Internal Revenue Service Center.

There are a number of important exceptions to Social Security coverage for household employees. For example, payment for household work performed by a husband or wife or by a child under 21 is not covered under Social Security. However, wages paid a parent for similar work may be covered under certain circumstances.

Employees of a hotel or rooming house are not subject to the requirement that a household worker earn at least $50 during a calendar quarter; all wages paid these employees must be reported.

Household workers employed on a farm that is operated for profit comprise another special group. Wages paid these employees must be reported if they amount to $150 or more for the year. Wages must also be reported if the household employee works at least 20 days during the year on a time basis—by the hour, day, week or month—even if total annual wages amount to less than $150.

Question: Is a baby sitter considered a household employee covered by Social Security?

Answer: For Social Security purposes, a baby sitter is considered a household employee, and wages must be reported if they amount to $50 or more in cash during a 3-month calendar quarter.

If you have a question concerning household employees or a question on any Social Security matter please call us at 293-4371. If you need to visit our office our address is 1401-B West 5th Street in Plainview.

BRIGHTER SOYBEAN OUTLOOK FORECAST

Earlier gloom regarding the soybean outlook has changed to improved price prospects for the 1983 crop. Factors brightening the soybean picture are a smaller than expected crop and dry weather in the Midwest that has dampened grain prospects, says an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

U. S. soybean acreage is down 12 percent from earlier estimates, and yields will likely be down due to the dry weather. Furthermore, corn acreage is down sharply, so increased feed demands from expanding hog and poultry operations should boost soybean prices.

SELECT CATTLE FOR FUNCTIONAL EFFICIENCY

Selecting cattle for functional efficiency—fertility, growthability and carcass quality—is the key to a profitable beef business, an official from the University of Pretoria, South Africa, said at the recent International Ranchers Roundup at San Angelo.

Dr. Cas Maree also emphasized such factors as adaptability and physical and structural soundness as critical to production economics. Cows should not have a beefy appearance while bulls should be capable of producing live fertile sperm, have a high level of sexual drive, and be able to serve a large number of females.

It can be easy to be on the right scent when you want to control odors in children's clothes. Simply use a safe laundry additive such as 20 Mule Team Borax. It makes for naturally cleaner, fresher smelling diapers and underwear and bed linens as well.

Sort your laundry before washing. Colors should be separated... whites, lights and darks. That goes for fabrics, too...delicates, synthetics, permanent press and non-synthetics. New garments, especially bright or dark colors, often contain excess dye. Wash them separately the first few times to remove that excess.

Tips To Help You

Washday blues needn't be sung around your house if you follow a few simple laundry rules. For instance, close hooks and zippers to prevent snags. Mend rips and tears. Check pockets for tissues and other "treasures." Read care labels before washing any garment. They give washing instruc-

Dove Season To Open Sept. 1

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission has approved a new three-way zone alignment for dove hunting for the upcoming season. The dove season starts September 1 this year in Hall County.

Meeting in Austin recently, the commission established the Panhandle, Central and Rio Grande zones. The new alignment replaces the two-zone system which had been in effect since 1946.

Ron George, dove program leader for the Parks Department, told commission members the three-zone system was designed to provide optimum hunting opportunity for hunters when the birds are available, within the contest of proper management.

Significant changes brought about by the new alignment include a September 1 opening date for a large portion of Southwest Texas which formerly had the later south zone date; a straight 70-day season for the Panhandle-South Plains and much of North Texas; and allowance for two white-winged doves in the daily bag limit.

The new system also utilizes highways for boundary lines for better delineation of zone boundaries. Under the two-zone system, county boundaries were used.

The Panhandle zone mourning dove season will be September 1-November 9; the Central Zone season will be September 1-October 30 and January 7-16, 1984; the Rio Grande season will be September 17-November 5 and January 7-22, 1984.

The statewide bag limit will be 12 doves, not to include more than two white-winged doves. Shooting hours will be one-half hour before sunrise and last to sunset.

As in the past, all persons who hunt white-winged doves will be required to have a special stamp, in addition to a valid hunting license. The stamp requirement applies to any person taking or hunting white-winged doves statewide.

A hunting license is not required of persons hunting doves in the county of residence.

The Panhandle zone runs north from interstate Highway 30 all across Texas to Texarkana.

Folks used to wonder what Grandpa Brown and I had in common. He must have been close to eighty when I was just a kid. But I remember him as one of the best friends I ever had.

He was a wonderful old man, with a simple, native wisdom. We used to go fishing together and he would talk to me about God and Faith and Love. I remember he said people shouldn't wait until they're in trouble before going to Church. "When you're happy," he told me, "take time out to offer a prayer of thanks."

The Church had acted as a balance for him during good times and a bulwark during bad times.

Down through the centuries the Church has made great Christians out of unassuming people. They in turn have transmitted the blessings of the Church to oncoming generations. I hope I can bring Grandpa Brown's faith and wisdom to others, as I was impressed by him.

Mrs. Bain Is Leader For Turkey UMW

Mrs. Gordon Bain was program leader for the Turkey United Methodist Women Monday, August 22, held in the chapel of Turkey United Methodist Church. Topic used was "To Whom Do We Listen," and was based on the scripture taken from James 2:8. Purpose of the lesson was "to learn to be witnesses of God's love to an unloving world."

Mrs. John Adamson brought the devotional, entitled "Gaining an Intimacy with God," which was an original article written by her friend, Maybell Mesner of San Francisco.

Mrs. Gene Fuston, president, presided for a business session. It was voted to sell paring knives to raise money for the organization, and to have a rummage sale again this year during the month of October, on Saturdays only, at least for four times. Meeting adjourned with prayer. Nine ladies were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Price spent some time in Dallas this week at market buying for the store.

Ninth Annual Allsup's Marathon Is Oct. 1

The stage is set for the Ninth Annual Human Drama that is: The Allsup's Marathon! From all over the United States, runners will gather in the traditionally beautiful fall atmosphere of Clovis, New Mexico for one of the biggest events for runners in the Southwest.

Over 500 runners are expected to compete in this year's road-races to be held October 1, 1983. Again, this year there are three big events from which runners may choose: the full marathon (26.2 miles), the half marathon (13.1 miles) and the 10 K (10,000 meters). All of the races begin and end at the same locations (an Olympic style finish in the stadium) and the running surface is fast, flat asphalt throughout the courses. As in the past, the courses are all certified to insure quality races and accurate times for all participants.

Quality trophies will go to: Men—first five overall, and Women—first three overall, with awards in each class for men and women. Tee shirts will be awarded to all finishers, plus commemorative patches for all marathon finishers.

All runners are invited to come and run in the Ninth Annual Allsup's Marathon, October 1, 1983 in one of the friendliest cities in the Southwest. You may register until September 30, 8:00 p.m. by writing Allsup's Marathon, P. O. Box 1907, Clovis, New Mexico 88101 or by calling (505) 769-2311, Ex. 224. Registration fees are $7.00 prior to September 24 and $9.00 after September 24. All proceeds go to the Clovis Roadrunners Club.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Friend:

I have strongly and consistently opposed withholding on interest and dividends since the provision became public law last summer. Knowing of your interest in legislation to repeal this provision, I am pleased to inform you that with my support, the Congress has passed and the President has signed into law the repeal measure, thereby putting to rest this unfair tax proposal.

As a result, the Internal Revenue Service will not be collecting a percentage of the taxes owed on your interest and dividend income prior to the due date of your taxes. However, the final measure contains several compliance provisions designed to facilitate the collection of previously unreported dividend and interest income. These provisions will enable the IRS to identify and collect from tax evaders without placing undue burdens on law-abiding citizens.

Your comments and those of other citizens were instrumental in bringing withholding to the attention of the Senate for consideration. I hope you will continue to keep me apprised of your views on issues of mutual concern.

Sincerely,
Lloyd Bentsen

Summer Vacation Soon To End

The summer vacation will soon be over and thousands of youngsters will be starting back to school, many of those for the first time. Last year in Texas the pedestrian fatalities accounted for 732 traffic deaths, according to Major Vernon Cawthon, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

He said, "Motorists need to slow down as they drive through school zones and in and around school areas."

He added, "Those big yellow buses will also be back on our streets and highways, and Texas law requires the driver of a vehicle meeting or overtaking a school bus displaying red flashing warning lights that is in the process of loading or unloading passengers to stop until the school bus starts moving, the red

Taylor Elected CML Vice-President

James (Buster) Taylor, Littleton, Colorado City Councilman, was elected Vice-President of the Colorado Municipal League at their 61st Annual Conference in June. Taylor has been active in Municipal League affairs (policy committee, resolutions committee, legislative committee, highway finance committee, nominating committee, revenue-sharing re-enactment committee, and chairman of the majors and councilmen section) since his election to the Littleton City Council in 1977 and has been on the Executive Board for two years. He previously was an elected member of the Northglenn City government from 1969 to 1975 and was on the Executive Board then from 1973 until he resigned to move to Littleton in 1975.

"It was an unexpected turn of events," Taylor said, "although I did intend to be a candidate for an office, getting elected Vice-President was a mild surprise." There were about 1,000 people in attendance at this year's annual meeting which was held in Colorado Springs.

During the four-day conference speeches were given by presidential candidate Gary Hart, Governor Dick Lamm, National League of Cities President Charles Royer, and Evan Vlachos, Director of Environmental Resources Center at Colorado State University. In addition, there were section meetings for all city departments, and workshops on water, small communities, innovative ideas, municipal/county relations, energy impact programs, community development block grants and financial management.

Taylor, a commissioner of the Littleton Riverfront Authority, presided over an Urban Revitalization Workshop. The workshop discussed urban renewal authorities, downtown development authorities, tax increment financing, creative debt financing for public projects, and how to make and use an economic development plan.

Besides City Council, Municipal League and Riverfront Authority, Taylor is a board member of Western Welcome Week, Inc.; InterFaith Task Force; South-East Metropolitan Disadvantaged Homemakers Committee; treasurer of the Sheridan Community Library Committee; and chairman of the Sick Leave Bank Council for Sheridan Schools. He is a member of the Friends of the Library/Museum; Arapahoe County Republican Central Committee; South Suburban Capital Improvements Committee; Colorado Department of Elementary School Principals; National Association of Elementary School Executives. He is the Executive Officer of a Boy Scout Troop and one of the head supervisors of the South Suburban Ski Club which takes busloads of teenagers skiing each winter weekend.

He will be beginning his 27th year in Sheridan School District in September and his eleventh as an elementary school principal and is the director of the

  - Leave unnecessary cards at home in a secure place.

DOUBTER

She's young, she's beautiful, but she doesn't believe in God. At least, she doesn't think she does.

Shocked? Lots of young people today and a good many older ones aren't all that sure of the "old religion." They don't want a panacea. They want something of substance, a truth to live with.

That's why the Church has risen to meet the challenge. There's a new tide in today's church, a reality as old as the centuries but as new as the future.

You owe it to yourself to investigate.

Senator Bill Sarpalius Reports

AUSTIN - Two years ago, a commission was created by the Department of Education to study the quality of education in America. In its recently published report, "A Nation At Risk," the National Commission on Excellence in Education has identified many problems affecting public education across the nation.

The Commission found that approximately 13% of all 17 year olds in the United States can be considered functionally illiterate. The average achievement scores of high school students on standardized tests are lower now than 26 years ago. There has been a continual decline in Scholastic Aptitude Test scores from 1963 to 1980. The average SAT verbal scores have dropped an alarming 50 points, while average mathematics scores have fallen nearly 40 points.

While these deficiencies might accurately reflect national trends, Texas is on the move to significantly counter mediocrity in public education. In its answer to "A Nation At Risk," the State Board of Education has stressed that it has already implemented many changes designed to improve the quality of education in Texas. Texas is well ahead of most other states in accepting the recommendations of the Commission.

In recent years the State Board, with the approval of the legislature, has instituted changes such as curriculum reform and improvement in teaching and the teaching profession. Although there has been much progress in improving the quality of education in Texas, we recognize that there is still much work to be done. We must reaffirm our commitment to provide quality educational opportunity for all children.

Recognizing this need to

RICK'S MUFFLER (located at Hester's Gulf) For all your exhaust needs, including customizing. (806) 823-2015 Silverton, Texas ensure quality education in Texas, a Select Committee on Public Education was recently created to study various educational issues in the state such as teacher salaries, educational funding, and merit pay for teachers. The Committee is currently conducting public hearings throughout the state before making its recommendations.

Certainly the most controversial issue under study by the Committee involves the concepts of teacher salaries and merit pay. Many education experts contend that experienced educators are leaving the teaching profession at an alarming rate, largely because of an inadequate salary schedule that is unable to compete with the private sector. They add that unless we significantly increase teacher salaries, we will be unable to attract an acceptable number of qualified students into the teaching profession, and will eventually suffer from a critical shortage of teachers.

Opponents of across-the-board pay raises complain that higher salaries will not guarantee a higher quality of education. They support a merit pay system whereby teachers are rewarded according to their job performance. Opponents of merit pay systems counter that such systems are unworkable because any assessment of job performance is too subjective. These opponents add that such systems do nothing to address the problems of attracting more teachers into the profession. One suggestion would combine the principles of both sides by approving an across-the-board raise for all teachers, along with a merit pay system that includes administrative and teacher assessment of job performance. Regardless, it is certain that something must be done to ensure the quality of education for the future children of Texas.

We want to know what you feel about this. If you have any comments or questions about public education in Texas or any other items, please let us know by writing Senator Bill Sarpalius, P.O. Box 12068, Austin, Texas, 78711.

Mr. and Mrs. Randy Clay of Hereford spent Friday in Quitaque and Turkey visiting relatives including their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Odis Reagan and Mary Helen Wallace.

When they returned home, they took four girls with them for a visit. They were Chastity and Crystal Price, Dee Dee Harmon and Doneta Wallace. Mr. and Mrs. Odis Reagan drove to Hereford and spent Sunday and brought Chastity, Crystal and Dee Dee home. Doneta remained and her mother drove up Monday and visited and brought her home.
