Hedrick - Farley Vows Exchanged In Amarillo Church Ceremony

Olsen (Park Baptist Church in Amarillo) was the setting for the wedding of Miss Debra Gean Hedrick and Larry Wendell Farley Friday evening, July 16, at 8:00 o'clock. Officiating the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. J. W. Sisemore.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. W. Wayne Hedrick of 3501 Huntington in Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Farley of Quitaque.

Miss Terri Hedrick was maid of honor for her sister, and Miss Deborah Farley of Quitaque, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. Miss Carri Newberry was flower girl, and Dennis Farley, brother of the groom, was ringbearer.

Weldon Griffin of Quitaque served as best man, and Dwight Ramsey of Floydada was groomsman. Ushers were Jimmy King of Dumas, Billy Mack Farley and Dale Ramsey of Quitaque.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal-length white satin peau de soie gown accented with lace applique flowers centered with seed pearls. Her tiny rolled collar was accented with the lace flowers and pearls and edged in the satin ruffle. Her full-length sleeves were also edged in the ruffle at her wrists and accented with the lace flowers and pearls. Her chapel train fell from a double crown of lace flowers and seed pearls. Her tiny waist was accented with a large bow in the back.

She carried a bouquet of white carnations and white daisies accented with pearl stamens and streamers of white satin ribbon tied in love knots atop a white Bible and surrounding a white orchid.

Her attendants wore full-length gowns of yellow and green sheer illusion.

The vows were exchanged before an arch of white candelabra with white gladioli and yellow poms flanked by baskets of white gladioli and yellow poms.

As the couple knelt at the altar on a kneeling bench, Melvin Ogle sang "More" and "Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Barbara Ogle at the organ.

The guests were registered by Lolei Day and Sherry Baker.

As the bride entered she gave her mother a single yellow rose, and as she left the altar, she gave her new mother, Mrs. Farley, a single yellow rose.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony. The serving table was centered with a memory candle which was lighted by the couple before the three-tiered wedding cake was cut and served with yellow punch with floating lemon rings. Appointments of crystal and silver were used.

The groom's table held a chocolate cake and coffee.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Colorado following the reception.

They are at home at 3603 Harrison in Amarillo. He is employed by Scivally's. She is employed as secretary with a linen service.

The bride finished Tascosa High School in Amarillo in 1970 and attended Amarillo College. The groom finished Quitaque High School in 1969 and he also attended Amarillo College.

Mr. and Mrs. Solon Owens of Turkey visited Mrs. W. W. Cain Tuesday morning.

Blakney - Rickman Vows Exchanged In Turkey Recently

Miss Anna Jean Blakney of Dallas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Blakney of Turkey, became the bride of Donald G. Rickman of Dallas Saturday evening, July 17, at 8:00 o'clock in the First Baptist Church in Turkey. Rev. Ray Riley of Kirkland officiated the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Rickman of Kirkland.

The pews were marked with devotional light candles.

Kim Carey played pre-nuptial music, including the theme from "Romeo and Juliet" and the theme from "Love Story," while the candles were lighted by nieces of the groom, Jennifer and Jodessa Betts of Wichita Falls.

Wedding music was furnished by Jacquelyn Crump and Beverly Barnhill at the piano and organ. They played "Somewhere My Love," "Bride's March" and "Wedding March."

Mrs. Johnny Lacy of Amarillo was matron of honor. She is a niece of the groom. She wore a red crepe gown with a red satin bow in her hair, and carried a long-stemmed white rose. Miss Cynthia Christian of Wichita Falls served her cousin as bridesmaid. She wore a red and pink dress with a red satin bow in her hair, and also carried a white rose. Carla Christian, cousin of the bride, scattered white rose petals down the aisle. She wore a pink crepe dress with a pink satin bow in her hair.

Cody Christian, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Johnny Lacy of Amarillo served his uncle as best man. Keith Nance of Quanah was groomsmen. Ushers were Jimmy West of Duncanville, cousin of the groom, Craig Christian of Matador, cousin of the bride, and Glynn Christian of Memphis, Larry Christian of Wichita Falls, Jackie Christian of Amarillo and Ronnie Christian of Matador, all uncles of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie satin and Kor-de's re-embroidered lace with a chapel train and chapel-length veil of illusion. The gown and veil were designed and made by Barbara Christian, aunt of the bride.

She wore a ring belonging to her great-grandmother and grandmother, her new wedding gown, a blue garter and pennies in her shoes bearing both birthdates of the couple.

Mrs. Blakney chose a hot pink chiffon dress and wore a white carnation for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Rickman, mother of the groom, wore powder blue.

Mrs. Jerry McFather and Mrs. Glen Lemons sang "As Long As He Needs Me." Both of the ladies are from Turkey. Jack O'Brien of Dallas sang "More" and "The Wedding Prayer." Pam Williams gave a reading.

A reception was held in Fellowship Hall immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Bob Betts, Mrs. Bill Nance, Mrs. Larry Christian, Mrs. Ronnie Christian and Mrs. Jackie Christian assisted with serving and other courtesies.

Rice bags of red-pink-white rice in pink net with red bows were passed out by Nick Christian, cousin of the bride.

Dorcas Jones, niece of the groom, registered the guests.

The serving table was laid with a red linen cloth centered with an arrangement of red and white flowers. Pink napkins, crystal and silver appointments were used to serve the three-tiered wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bride and groom and decorated with red rosebuds, and the traditional punch.

After a wedding trip to Las Vegas, Nevada, the couple will be at home at 815 North Beckley in Dallas.

The bride is a graduate of Turkey High School and is employed by the Bank of Dallas.

The groom finished high school at Childress and is employed by Universal Motor Company in Dallas.

REHEARSAL DINNER

A rehearsal dinner was held in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Blakney, for the wedding party Friday evening, July 16, at 8:30.

Those attending were Mrs. Bob Betts, Jennifer and Jodessa, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Christian, Nick and Cynthia of Wichita Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nance and Keith of Quanah; Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Rickman, Rev. and Mrs. Jay Riley of Kirkland; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Lacy of Amarillo; Mrs. Pauline Todd of Brownfield; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lee of Hobbs, New Mexico; Mrs. Zula Bush of Galveston; Jacquelyn Crump, Beverly Barnhill, Rev. and Mrs. Jerry McFather, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Christian, all of Turkey; Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Christian, Craig, Cody and Carla of Matador; and Mr. and Mrs. Glynn Christian and Robert of Memphis.

LAQUITTA SUE SPIVEY

Spivey - Pierce Wedding Set

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spivey of Bowie announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, LaQuitta Sue, to Robert Floyd Pierce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Pierce of Turkey.

The wedding will take place October 14, in the home of the bride's parents.

PRENUPTIAL SHOWER

HONORS KAY COCHRAN

Miss Kay Cochran, bride-elect of George Calvert of Flomot, was honored with a pre-nuptial shower Thursday, July 22, from 4:30 until 6:00 p.m. in the Quitaque Bank Community Room.

The bride-elect's chosen colors of mint green and white were used throughout the decorations.

The registry table was laid with a white cloth over green and was decorated with a miniature bride and groom on a stool holding the birthdate pennies of the couple.

The refreshment table was laid with a white linen cloth and bows and streamers of mint green ribbon were used. The centerpiece was a bouquet of mint green and white carnations with tiny bride and groom dolls scattered through the arrangement. White cake squares decorated with green, nuts and mints were served with frosted green punch with milk glass and silver appointments.

The hostesses gave her a set of Avocado Club Aluminum cookware. Other gifts included a service for eight of Melmac, a service for eight of Ironstone dishes, a full-sized Mixmaster, an electric coffee maker, sheets, pillowcases, towels, blanket, Pyrex and Corningware cooking utensils, coffee mugs and tree, a trash can full of cooking cutlery items, a Morgan Jones bedspread, a drainboard and dish rack, and many other articles too numerous to mention.
