Mark A. Simmons Completes Training At Fort Benning, Ga.

Army National Guard Private Mark A. Simmons, son of Dewey T. and Olive E. Simmons of Memphis, has completed one station unit training (OSUT) at the U. S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia.

OSUT is a 12-week period which combines basic combat training and advanced individual training.

The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications, and combat operations. Completion of this course qualifies a soldier as a light-weapons infantryman and as an indirect-fire crewman.

Soldiers were taught to perform any of the duties in a rifle or mortar squad.

His wife, Jeana, is the daughter of Joe Edd and Janell Smith of Quitaque. Mark is a 1980 graduate of Memphis High School.

Visitors in the Bud Bailey home over the weekend were their daughters and families, Mrs. Janet Turner, Jennifer and Allison, Mrs. Sharon Wassom, Lori, Angie and James, all of Amarillo, Gordon and Charlene Rothwell and children of Quitaque.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey drove to Plainview to visit her mother, Mrs. T. J. Reeves. Mrs. Reeves had been dismissed from Central Plains Hospital on Tuesday of last week and moved back to the Heritage Home.

Mrs. Ann Kessinger of Grenola, Kansas, had spent two weeks with her mother. She returned to Quitaque with the Baileys and spent the night, leaving Monday morning for her home.

Mrs. Irene Purcell of Meridian had come back to Plainview to spend a few days with her mother.

Lottie Owens drove to Plainview Saturday to visit Mrs. Olive Owens before Mother's Day. She found Mrs. Owens had gone to Lubbock to spend the weekend with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ebbs and Carl Wayne. Lottie drove on to Lubbock and had supper with the Ebbs and then they all drove to Levelland to see the Sesquicentennial Wagon Train but couldn't get within a block of it. Bill had seen it "hooked up" in Lubbock Saturday morning but he wanted the "girls" to see it, but it had already arrived in Levelland and the crew were at dinner when the group arrived.

Lottie returned home Saturday evening. Sunday after church, she drove to Plainview and had a late lunch with her son, Eddie Owens and Kami. Mrs. Eddie Owens is taking a pre-law study course in order to take a law entrance exam sometime in June. She had enrolled before she got a job in the Levelland bank. Diane is really busy at the time being.

GAFFORD'S POSTERS GO TO FORT WORTH MUSEUM

Betty Wills thought so much of the posters LaVon Gafford made for the Bob Wills parade that she asked to take one to the Bob Wills Museum in Fort Worth, so LaVon gave her permission to use it. Also Dr. Charles Townsend wanted one to display in a prominent place at West Texas State University.

The posters depicted the Bob Wills theme with a fiddle in gold glitter and the words "Grand-marshal Betty Wills and Charles Townsend, driver" which were used on the car in which they were riding in the parade. Turkey is proud to have a poster maker with so much talent.
