VOLUME 26 NUMBER 26

Warren W. Merrill, a 4-H member from Galveston, successfully captured a calf to become a winner at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo calf scramble February 24, 1988. Merrill received a $500 cash purchase certificate sponsored by Leatherwood Painting to purchase a registered herd or dairy heifer. That heifer will be fed, fit, groomed and brought back to the 1987 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo calf scramble providing a year-long educational experience for each of the lucky winners. In fact, the Houston calf scramble and its sponsors have put more than $2 million worth of livestock into the hands of Texas youth. The annual Livestock Show and Rodeo is Houston's largest charity event, with all net proceeds contributed to scholarship and research programs throughout Texas. Pictured (left to right) are Brazoria County Extension Agent Dick Agnew, Merrill and Paul Leatherwood, sponsor.

Chamber of Commerce Banquet is March 22

University, will be the featured speaker at the banquet. He is a historian, philosopher and educator, having taught at Southwest Texas State University for 20 years. The Galveston Chamber of Commerce is very privileged to have Dr. W. C. Newberry as the featured speaker at this year's banquet.

Fire Damages Turkey Swimming Pool Wednesday

Turkey Volunteer Fire Department answered a call to the Turkey Swimming Pool Wednesday of last week. A resident in one of the apartments just south of the pool was burning trash near the fence, and some of the trash was thought to have caught on the grass and weeds near the pool and spread to the roof. The entire south side of the structure and the south side of the pool were destroyed. The great action of the fireman saved the remaining part.

There was no insurance on the pool, according to reports.

Unclaimed Money

An historic Departmental treasure hunt awards 100,000 Texas March 8, the date the State Treasury distributes the largest list of "lost" property ever published in the United States.

The list will contain the names of the 100,000 persons with abandoned or "lost" accounts worth at least $50, said State Treasurer Ann Richards. The entire list represents a total of $1.7 million of lost property.

The Valley Tribune has the entire list in a newspaper form from the State Treasury.

Those from Galveston whose names are listed are Jonathan or NCP Brown and Mike J. Doherty-Wheat.

Those from Houston listed are Gladys B. Arnold, Tracy Brown, Frances L. Crain, Thomas T. Crain, Pauline Crain, Steve Delight and William Brooks Winters.

If any questions, please call Bill Crain at the Treasury Department, 1-800-825-CASH.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Spier and son, Dennis, of Cleveland spent the weekend in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harrison, and her brother, Jim. They returned their son, Dennis, home with them. He had spent the week before with his grand parents and uncle.

Valley Patriots Lose In Regional Quarterfinals

Valley failed to score in the regional tournament held at Laredo last weekend. This was the 15th time in the last six years that Valley went to the quarter-finals and was stopped in the playoffs by two points, 48-50.

The Valley Patriots have nothing to be sorry about. They finished the season 28-4 which is hard to beat in any school. The Phillips team beat them in the first game of the tournament. Coach Adams says, "Our ability to hit free shots in the first quarter put us in a hole in which we were unable to overcome."

Coach Martin, Will Williams, Ray Beavers, Jamie Cox and Kenneth Sims were the Valley seniors who participated. The coach said, "We always look to the seniors for leadership and their young men did an outstanding job."

Coach Adams said in an earlier game that the Valley boys had played better with better "junk" than some of the teams in the area and region and it handicapped them to an extent. The advice was to shoot shortly before the team went to regional play and commented, "Don't go up there with the game already won—that will get you beat." When a team has had a good season, they often let down in the final hour.

Coach Adams and the Valley Patriots, the Valley Tribune congratulate you and the entire area in proud of you!

Turkey Senior Citizens Met Tuesday For Staw Supper

Turkey Senior Citizens met Tuesday, February 23, for a stew supper. In the absence of the president and vice-president, Mrs. Orel Ogilvie called the meeting to order. Ray Patterson gave thanks for the meal.

Several tables brought pots of stew, which others brought corn bread, biscuits and desserts. Tea and coffee were also served.

Table games were played following the meal.

The first club was held about 1980 and was off by about two hours each day.

Chamber of Commerce President James Cahley said that he is excited about this year's banquet and about the Chamber of Commerce in Galveston. He said that already there has been much preparation on the banquet and this should be one of the best banquets that the Galveston Chamber of Commerce has had. Tickets are now on sale at various businesses in the community and by each board member of the Chamber of Commerce. The price of the tickets is $15.00 and it is suggested that you purchase your tickets early for a large attendance is expected and you would have to be left out of this year's exciting banquet.

Caprock Camera Club to Present Contest Winners

Why not come to the Camera Club meeting and see the winners of the swanper best you read about last month? This will give you a chance to see what best photographs can do. It might even make you decide to join.

At the next meeting, March 22, the swanper best slides will be shown, a Kodak slide or camera will be shown, and everyone is asked to bring four of their favorite pictures which they have taken.

The club will meet at 7:00 p.m. in the Galveston bank community room Thursday, March 22. Everyone is invited and welcome to attend.

Kim Cagle Wins Trip to Austin

Six piano students of Mrs. Ross Herrington were entered in competition in the Regional University Interscholastic League Piano Solo-Ensemble meet in Lubbock on Saturday, February 22. All participants did quite well.

Entered from Valley were Kim Cagle, Melissa Maupin, Joe Morrison and Stacey Rothwell. Stacey Rothwell entered freshman Class III division, and earned a I rating, which is superior, and also a medal. To earn a trip to state a student must be entered in the most difficult Class I division and receive a I rating. Kim Cagle will travel to Austin to compete in the UIL State Solo-Ensemble competition on June 1.

Tree Planting Ceremonies Observe State's 150th Birthday

Sunday afternoon's sesquicentennial tree planting ceremonies in Briscoe County brought to mind thoughts of Texas' heroes and their valiant deeds. One hundred fifty years ago men and their families gave their lives for a dream which has evolved into the present-day lifestyle.

Texas' fight for independence with its fierce battles was not a racial war; it was a firm, strong struggle against the tyranny of Mexico. One company in Sam Houston's army was composed entirely of native Texans, many of whom spoke no English and all of whom had Latin names. William Barrett Travis, Jim Bowie, Davey Crockett, Sam Houston, Deaf Smith, Andrew Briscoe, Stephen F. Austin and other "founders of Texas" were not native Texans; they came from elsewhere but were leaders and heroes of Texas. The hardships and the laughter, the battles and the victories, the bitterness and the loving, along with the prayers of penitence, thanksgiving and praise have blended to become the bright star and magnificent wonder of Texas' present-day mode of life with global recognition and thoughtful and kind neighborliness so firmly rooted in its heritage. The culture of the state's birthright was commemorated with two tree planting ceremonies.

The 2:00 p.m. program at the Quitaque Community Center began with the invocation by James Brunson. An honor guard, composed of Penny Marrs, Heather Gray, Jay Gray and Julie Ross, directed by Jimmy Davidson, presented the colors, raised the flags and led the pledge of allegiance to the American flag and the salute to the Texas flag. Mayor Jake Merrell welcomed those present and Ralph McCormick sang "Texas Our Texas." Bengie Hughes recited the poem, "Trees," by Joyce Kilmer.

Judge Fred Mercer expressed

THE VALLEY TRIBUNE

thanks to the early-day Texans and especially to Andrew Briscoe for whom this county is named. He dedicated a Heritage live oak tree to the Texas founding fathers and the Texas sesquicentennial as James Brunson and Jake Merrell set it in place for planting on the south lawn. Valley Grade School pupils signed their names and grades on post cards attached to 200 colorful helium-filled balloons and the "lift-off" was signaled with a happy shout of "Happy Birthday, Texas!" Everyone joined in the singing of "The Eyes of Texas."

At 4:00 p.m. the dedication of a Shumard red oak was held on the Briscoe County Courthouse lawn in Silverton. John Crowell gave the invocation and led the pledge to the American flag and the salute to the Texas flag. The welcome and dedication were given by Judge Fred Mercer, with John Crowell and Mike Delano planting the tree on the north lawn.

The two sesquicentennial oak seedlings were provided by the Texas Forest Service.

Genesis Eight, a vocal group from the Rock Creek Church of Christ, sang "America the Beautiful." This was followed by Rev. Lanny Wheeler reciting "Trees" by Joyce Kilmer. Those attending read "What Trees Teach Us" by Helen C. Hoyt and "Texas Our Texas," with words by Gladys Yoakum Wright and William J. Marsh.

The group joined in the singing of "America," led by the Genesis Eight singers, and Rev. Wheeler gave the benediction.

This was the first of several sesquicentennial activities planned in Briscoe County.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Wilson of Pampa visited Mrs. Cora Gragson Monday afternoon. They spent the night visiting his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wilson, in Quitaque.

CARDS OF THANKS

Thanks to each and every one of my friends for all their cards, calls and especially their prayers while I was in the hospital and since I've been home. May God richly bless each of you.
Sid McFall

A LETTER OF THANKS

To the people of Turkey and Quitaque, so much, by so many, was done for us that a small "thank you" note is not enough and we would like to share some of the lessons which you have taught us, by serving us in our time of illness and loss of our loved one. In Matthew 25 (in the Bible), the Lord shows us such simple ways in which we can serve Him, and, as in times past, all of you have been willing to follow what He says for each of us to do. For the Father said, "I was hungry and you gave me to eat; I was thirsty and you gave me drink," and you people were there preparing and serving so quietly delicious food which you had prepared for us.

And the Father said, "I was a stranger and you took me in." Some of you had not seen many of us in years, yet you had open arms and love for each of us. "I was sick and you visited me; I was in prison and you came to me." Again, the whole time Mom and Granddaddy were sick and in the hospital (which seemed to them to be a form of prison), you were there to visit and bring comfort many times.

In every area, all of you so very quietly went about doing such wonderful things for us, never expecting anything in return. Each act done, not to draw attention to yourself, but just to do with love and concern.

There were so many acts of kindness done by so many people that we can't call them all by name. We want, in this letter, to give you praise and a heartfelt "thank you" from us for deeds so well done.

The Father also said, "Anything you did for the least of these, you did for Me," and with that comes the promise "A kingdom prepared for you since the world was made and forever." We love and appreciate each of you.
The family of Pauline Smith
