Crowell Defeats Valley By Narrow Margin

Junior High Patriots Take Loss From Spur

Valley Junior High School football team fell short in its attempt at two straight victories as Spur defeated them 6-2 there Saturday.

Saturday. The young Patriots played sloppy the first half but came back and played good enough to trail only 6-0 at halftime. The second period was a different story as Valley proved capable of moving the ball. A march to the goal line, however, ended when Warren Wayne Merrell attempted a pass and had it intercepted at the one-year line.

On the following play, Jason Little hammered a Spur back in the end zone and secured a valey was driving for the winning touchdown late in the game, but a fumble stopped the drive.

Defensive standouts were Ja-on Little, Bubba Clardy and Clay Edwards. Offensively, Warren Merrell performed well in his first outing as quarterback and Bubba Clar-dy did an excellent job of running the ball.

(Ed. note: The editor wants to thank the coaches for the write-ups of the games. This will encourage the players.)

New Business To Open Soon In Turkey

Browning's Peanut Patch is a new business scheduled to open soon in Turkey. The tentative date is November 1. Mary Ann, E. J. and their daughter, Del Ray, are the owners and operators of the business.

Products to be made and sold Products to be made and sold are peanut butter, peanut oil, all sorts of peanut candies, peanuts in the shell and peanuts out of the shell. In fact, they say, "Most anything you can do with pea-nuts, we will have it." The location of this new business is at Main Street and Second in what the "old timers" call the old M System building. It is being completely removated
