LETTER TO THE EDITOR -

Ar. Gaston Owens the Valley Tribune

Dear Gaston:

As I travel around the State, I am becoming more apprehensive that a great many people may not vote in the General Election on November 3.

You'll agree, I'm certain, that it will be a bad thing for Texas, if, say, only 35 per cent of the Texas electorate turns out. If such should happen it would be mathematically possible that a winning candidate would have the endorstmith of only 18 per cent of the qualified voters (less than one of five people).
