Quitaque Fire Department Needs C.B. Call Letters

The Quitaque Fire Department is trying to secure the Citizen's Band Radio call letters of all persons in the area to be printed on posters that will slip on the sun visor of a car or pickup. These posters will be sold to raise money for the Fire Department Equipment Fund. Call letters can be given to any member of the Fire Department.

The Quitaque Fire Department would like to thank everyone who donated batteries to our battery drive. The first batch of batteries was sold recently for $123.00. This money is going for equipment that is badly needed by the Fire Department. We are still collecting batteries and anyone who has some old batteries around can either bring them by or tell any member of the Fire Department and we will pick them up. Again, thank you.

Drama Presentation Hailed as Excellent

A new mode of family entertainment, already hailed as excellent, is in the city of Plainview this weekend with the dinner theatre performance of John Patrick's "The Curious Savage."

The production is a joint effort of the Wayland Baptist College Theatre and the Plainview Civic Theatre, an organization which had previously been inactive for some 20 years.

According to Roland Myers, chairman of the Civic Theatre board of directors and Wayland Theatre director, the "Impetus for the Civic Theatre came entirely from Plainview's Chamber of Commerce and the business community. The Chamber was aware of the need for a community theatre in Plainview, and they came to me for help."

The cast includes some 12 people, including nine from the community itself. Plainview people who are among the cast members are Janey Burgess as Florence, Dennis Applin as Jeffrey, Dee Ann Curry as Mrs. Paddy, Lianna Hickerson as Miss Willie, Dr. Bill Norton as Titus Savage, Paty Witten as Lily Belle, Eddy Curry as Samuel Savage, Beth Son as Mrs. Ethel Savage, and Lance Myers as the Boy.

Cast members who are students at Wayland Baptist College are Phil Alford as Hannibal; Judy Jones as Fairy May and Stan Hickerson as Dr. Emmett.

Myers, former director of the Lubbock Theatre Center, is directing the production, and Donna Cumiford is assistant director-stage manager. In charge of set construction and publicity is Eddie Owens, and Jackie James is handling costumes. Nita Kennedy is hand property chairman, and Lou Burleson is in charge of soft scenery.

Reservations may be obtained by calling Herral Memorial Auditorium, 806 293-3515, between the hours of 12 noon and 5 p.m. Friday and between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Saturday. MRS. RODNEY LANE HILL

Stackhouse - Hill Nuptials Read June 5

Miss Diana Leigh Stackhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stackhouse of Amarillo, became the bride of Rodney Lane Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hill of Turkey, at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, June 5, in the United Methodist Church in Turkey.

Dawn Glover, Jane Gibson, both of Dallas, and Marilyn Lindquist of El Paso.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Carroll Burroughs of Richland, Indiana. Groomsmen included Jim Hudson, Thomas Hudson of Hutchinson, Kansas and Carl Hudson. John W. Burroughs assisted the groomsmen in seating the guests.

The bride is a graduate of Texas Tech University where she was a member of the American Home Economics Association. She taught at Valley High School, Turkey. Her husband attended the University of Evansville, Evansville, Indiana. He is serving a tour of duty with the U. S. Air Force stationed at Minot, North Dakota.

The Rev. Fred Brown of Lubbock read the double-ring ceremony before a nuptial space decorated with an archway of greenery, yellow and mint green carnations, yellow bows and a pair of large white wedding bells in the center. Baskets of yellow gladioli, white and mint green carnations and branched candelabra holding yellow tapers. A white satin covered kneeling bench completed the setting.

Pre-nuptial piano selections were played by Mrs. Janis Payne of Plainview, aunt of the groom. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of sheer organza over bridal satin fashioned with lace over-lay yoke and front panel studded with seed pearls. The sheer long bell sleeves were accented by wide lace overlay cuffs. Her veil of illusion fell from a petal shaped headpiece, originally belonging to her grandmother, covered with satin and lace over-lay, with seed pearls edging each petal. Lace flowers matching the gown were sprinkled over the entire veil, which was edged in lace. She carried a lace-covered bible, edged with seed pearls and topped with a bridal bouquet of white carnations with white satin and lace accents.

Miss Mary Eunice Stackhouse served as her sister's maid of honor and Miss Shelly Hickey of Amarillo was bridesmaid. Miss Renee Elizabeth Stackhouse, sister of the bride, was the flower girl.

The attendants wore identically fashioned floor-length gowns of rose print sheer organza over silk taffeta, the maid of honor in yellow, the bridesmaid in mint green, with matching picture hats. Each carried a be-ribboned single carnation complimenting the color of her gown. The flower girl wore a floor-length gown of white peau de soie sprinkled with appliqued roses matching the attendants' gowns and a crown of yellow carnations, her white basket filled with yellow rose petals.

Bob Hill of Houston served as his brother's best man and Dennis Irby of Mesquite was groomsmen. Hal House of Turkey and Ricky Mosley of Amarillo served as ushers and candlelighters.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Stackhouse chose a lilac floor-length ensemble with white accessories while Mrs. Hill, mother of the groom, wore a wedge-wood blue floral floor-length ensemble with white accessories. Both added corsages of white carnations.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Mrs. Hal House presided at the bride's guestbook at both the wedding and the reception.

The table was laid with a white lace-edged cloth, crystal punch service, silver coffee service, yellow tapers with the bride's bouquet as a centerpiece. The three-tier wedding cake was decorated with white and yellow roses, pink iridescent doves, and topped with two white feathered doves attached to a double wedding ring.

Mrs. Henry Storm and Miss Gaye Stackhouse, sisters of the bride, Mrs. Harry Stackhouse, jr., of Houston, Miss Muriel Clark of Houston, Miss Glenda Stickler and Mrs. Lovelle Phefer of Amarillo presided at the refreshment table and distributed rice bags of yellow and green net, tied with ribbon, to the guests.

The bride is a 1976 graduate of Amarillo High School. The groom is a graduate of Turkey High School and Texas State Tech of Waco, and is presently employed as Field Manager for P. F. Callier, Inc.

The couple will be at home at 502 Slide Road in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Brunson drove to San Antonio and their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bloxom and girls, accompanied them from there to Port Aransas where they all spent a week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nance, Mrs. W. E. Morrison and Mrs. Jessie Hooks were guests for lunch with Mr. and Mrs. James Brunson Sunday.

REDDY'S HELPFUL TIPS

- ★ Your air-conditioner will operate inefficiently if filters are not cleaned regularly. Dirt and lint, collected on the filters, restricts air flow to the coils. Clean filters every two weeks.
- ★ Let nature help you save energy by shading your home with trees and shrubs to help cut down on summer cooling costs. Draw draperies against afternoon sun.
- ★ Remember to keep outside doors, windows, and fireplace dampers closed. If you have window units, close the heating vents near the floor, as cool air falls and can escape through vents.

AN ALLEGED LETTER TO A FATHER FROM HIS SON

Dear Dad: I am a little fellow, but I have been doing some thinking. Some day I will be a big man just like you. You are my ideal — I think you can do anything. I like to hear you talk, and watch you walk, and to see you drive the car. You are so strong, and it seems that you know how to handle any situation. I am never afraid when you are around.

But, Dad, there is something that is bothering me a lot. I know that I am going to be like you, even though I should try to be different. I like to go to church and worship God. When I get a little older, very likely I will not — 'cause you don't go. I like to study the bible now, but will I when I get as big as you? You do not. When I get big like you, Daddy, I want to go to church with my wife; but, will I? You don't very often. I am going to be like you. I want to give thanks at the table for food, clothing, and the home God has given us. But, Daddy, I want to help my wife win others to Christ, and especially our children — but how can I? You think only of your work, and paying for our house, and buying our food and clothes. This is very nice, Daddy; but the Bible says, "Man shall not live by bread alone," and I know that is true, because people are dying every day and leaving pretty homes behind, and also their savings accounts. Daddy, I am afraid you wouldn't take time off from your work to go to heaven.

Anyway, Dad, I have enjoyed talking with you about these things. I do hope you will become a Christian some time — so that I can be the kind of man I want to be — and be just like you, too!

Love,
YOUR SON
