Tuesday, November 19, at 7:30 p.m. in the Pioneer Room at First State Bank in Silvertown, there will be a planning meeting for the 1986 County Stock Show. All board members are urged to attend this very important meeting. Funding and awards will be discussed.

All persons interested in the County Stock Show are also invited to attend. The 1986 Stock Show will be held January 25.

For more information, contact John Schott, board chairman, 823-2233, or Dirk Aaron, County Extension Agent, 823-2343.

344-110.

Will Williams led Valley rushers with 121 yards on 12 carries. Kirk Saul completed 12 of 21 passes for 124 yards and three touchdowns. Matt Barrett caught eight passes for 104 yards.

Valley's defense was led by Rosendo Silva, Tomas Rodriguez and Roy Beavers.

Valley plays Munday, the State defending champion and No. 1 ranked team, Friday night at 8:00 o'clock in Childress.

Valley EMTs To Meet Monday

The Quitaque and Turkey EMTs will meet Monday, November 18, at 7:30 p.m. at the Quitaque Community Center. This session is to help the EMTs maintain their skills. There will be practice stations for bandaging and splinting, oxygen therapy, cardiac pulmonary resuscitation, and vital signs.

They will be taking blood pressure readings, and anyone wishing to have his blood pressure taken is invited to come by to give the EMTs practice.

Last month, the EMTs held certification classes for Military Anti-Shock Trousers (MAST). This session will include practice of the application of the trousers and review of the protocol.

TURKEY LIONS HEAR DENNIS FLAUGHER TUESDAY NOON

Turkey Lions Club met Tuesday at noon for their regular bi-monthly meeting in the Bob Wills Cafeteria. Rev. Dennis Flaugh, pastor of Quitaque-Turkey United Methodist Churches, brought a timely message on "Using Your Talents" to 13 members and the Sweetheart, Karen Clinton. Her guests were Laurie Harp and Cristy Calvert.

Lion Melvin Clinton presided, and Byron Young and David Setliff volunteered to put out the flags on Thanksgiving morning. It was voted to go in with Quitaque Lions Club to sponsor a drug prevention program at Valley School. Terry Woolley will represent the club on that committee.

Wilma Wedge served a good meal of baked ham, beans, slaw, tossed salad and fruit cobbler.

Bonnie Hill, GERALD Daniel and Mabel Christian visited Goldie Russell at the Heritage Home in Plainview Monday.

Caprock Camera Club Meets Here Tonight

If you have an interest in photography, the Caprock Camera Club has a program for you! On November 14 (tonight) at 8:00 p.m., a video program will be presented on "Exciting Photo/Video Features for the Entire Family." Special features will include First Look, a beginner's guide to flower photography, Another Angle, easy, creative picture-taking ideas, Behind the Scenes, insights into a major professional photographic production, Hands On, to discover fascinating and good do-it-yourself equipment techniques, Visions, a photo essay on influential photography from the past, Portraits, a documentary interview with a current photographic personality, Mailbag, to learn answers to questions most often asked of photo experts, Snapshots, a montage of prize-winning pictures set to music.

The program will have something for everyone. It should be an exciting program, so make plans to join us Thursday (tonight) at 8:00 o'clock in the Community Room at First National Bank.

The Camera Club is sponsoring an all-day seminar on the basics of photography taught by a professional photographer from Amarillo on Saturday, November 23. For more information, contact one of the Camera Club members, or better yet, come to the Camera Club meeting tonight!

IT HAPPENED IN 1919

by Curtis Tunnell

I once knew a boy who could take two strips of rubber from an old inner tube and a forked limb from a mesquite tree, then a piece of leather from the tongue of an old shoe and make it into a rock shooter. He would use this to shoot rabbits and birds and very seldom ever missed a shot.

One day he was on the Plains and ran out of rocks for ammunition and a small bird lit on the ground close by. Not having a rock to shoot he picked up a piece of dry cow chip and shot and killed the bird. Then another bird lit close by, so he pulled off the heat of the first bird and shot and killed the second bird.

One day he wanted to have a contest to see who could shoot a rock high in the air and make it come down the closest to where we were standing. I shot first and the rock went high and fell about twenty feet from where we were standing. Then he shot a rock high into the air. We were looking up, but did not see the rock and it came down and hit him in the eye. He almost lost his eye and I lost the contest.

MR. AND MRS. TODD WASHINGTON

Miss Chadwick Becomes Bride of Todd Washington in October

Miss Stachia Chadwick, daughter of Buster Chadwick of Quitaque and the late Sue Chadwick, became the bride of Todd Washington in a church ceremony Friday, October 4, 1985, at 6:00 o'clock in the evening at the Quitaque Church of Christ.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Seab Washington of Flomot.

Minister Elgin Conner performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar featuring arched candelabra flanked by a spiral candelabra covered with greenery and bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length Mori Lee gown with stand-up neckline trimmed with Alencon lace and simulated pearls. The yoke was trimmed with Schiffli embroidered lace and simulated pearls and the fitted bodice was trimmed with Alencon lace and simulated pearls. The Juliet sleeves were of chiffon accented with embroidered lace and simulated pearls. The Basque waistline dropped to a full pickup skirt trimmed with Alencon lace and extended into a cathedral train. She wore a hat covered with Alencon lace trimmed with simulated pearls and sequins to which was attached in back a waist-length veil of illusion.

She carried a bouquet of cascading tiny ivory rosebuds and red roses with the bride's parents' wedding rings tied in its center.

For the traditional something old, the bride enclosed her parents' wedding rings. Something new was her wedding gown. She borrowed diamond earrings from the groom's mother, and something blue was the garter made by her good friend, Ma McFall.

The maid of honor was Candy Jones of Lubbock. She wore a floor-length gown of navy taffeta, featuring a fitted bodice accented by a sweetheart neckline and leg-o-mutton sleeves. The sash was of grey ribbon.

Debra Davis of Memphis was bridesmaid. She wore a gown identical to that of the maid of honor.

Miss Alisa Woods of Plainview was her aunt's flower girl. She wore a floor-length gown styled on the order of those worn by the bridal attendants.

Zant Woods of Plainview, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Candlelighters were Angie Clay of Lubbock and Billy Neal Shannon of Flomot.

Brent Brown of Quitaque was best man, and groomsman was Glen Calvert of Flomot.

Ushers were Glen Calvert and Billy Neal Shannon, both of Flomot.

Mrs. Ross Herrington accompanied Vanessa and Steve Jennings of Combes, Texas, aunt and uncle of the bride, as they sang, "Nobody Loves Me Like You Do" and "And It Seems I've Always Loved You."

RECEPTION

A reception was held at the Quitaque Community Center immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with an ecru crocheted cloth with blue underlay. The centerpiece was designed of blue and grey silk flowers and was flanked by hurricane candle holders. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with navy roses and was served with punch. Miss Melody Cruse served at the bride's table.

The groom's table was covered with an ecru cloth and was centered with a tool set. A German chocolate cake and coffee were served by Miss Lori Clay of Lubbock.

Miss Angie Clay registered the guests.

REHEARSAL DINNER

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at the Flomot Community Center.

The bride finished Valley High School and attended Clarendon College.

The groom finished Motley County High School and also attended Clarendon College.

The couple is at home in Quitaque where both are employed.

SENIOR CITIZENS TAKE BLOOD PRESSURE TESTS

Turkey Senior Citizens met Tuesday night, November 5, and were given blood pressure tests by Glynn Christian of Memphis. He was assisted by his daughter, D'Lynn.

Following the delicious meal of chili and stew, salads and desserts, table games were played and a time of gospel singing was enjoyed by all present. Guy Smith, president, conducted the meeting.

There were 29 present and a visitor, I. N. Sears of Amarillo, who came with Buck and Ruth Lancaster.

UNITED METHODIST DISTRICT MEETING HELD IN TULIA

Plainview District Conference was held Sunday at the First United Methodist Church in Tulia, beginning at 4:00 p.m. Rev. Bruce Parks, District Superintendent, was in charge. General theme was "Offer Them Christ" with Rev. Richard Edwards of Olton, Rev. Kenneth Wyatt (R) of Tulia, and Rev. Bill Watson of Littlefield bringing messages. Congregational singing and an anthem by the choir were also a part of the service. Members of the District Council on Ministries were elected.

Following the worship and business, refreshments were served in fellowship hall by the host church and then workshops were held on Spiritual Formation, Corporate Worship, Evangelism and Church Growth and the Church School.

Those attending from Turkey and Quitaque were Rev. and Mrs. Dennis Flaughter and Rev. and Mrs. Roy Patterson.

MRS. BELLE CRUSE IS HONORED ON HER 88th BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Belle Cruse was honored on her 88th birthday with a dinner Sunday in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Vernell Cotten. Betty Driskill made the beautiful birthday cake.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cruse, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Driskill, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Cruse, Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Cruse and family, Mr. and Mrs. Derrell Cruse and family, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Clinton and family of Matador, Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Smith and Wynter, Mr. and Mrs. Lyn Payne and family, Quitaque, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Robbins and girls, Lockney, and Mrs. Curtis Shelburne and boys of Muleshoe.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Browning, Mrs. Evelyn Hutton of Abilene and Voleta Hutton and Joanna Brown, both of Mineral Wells.

Brief History of the American Agriculture Movement

The American Agriculture Movement was started in September 1977 in Campo, Colorado out of desperation. Congress had just enacted another farm bill that insured four more years of prices below the cost of production.

The American Agriculture Movement spread like wildfire. Within a week after a "strike" had been called, farmers from all over the nation drove tractors to Springfield, Colorado to tell the then-Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland the troubled, depressed situation the farm sector was in.

December 14, "strike day", was the beginning of massive protest all over the country. Most of the farmers involved earnestly believed that all they had to do was to make the people and the legislators aware of their problems and then by working together the problems could be solved.

How innocent we were! Farmers who once had considered it a disgrace to be outside the law were now picketing and demonstrating.

When Congress reconvened on January 18, 1978, 50,000 farmers were in Washington, D. C. to greet them. In March, 30,000 farmers marched down Pennsylvania Avenue in one of the largest farm demonstrations ever.

After the rally at the Capitol, several thousand farmers decided to visit the U. S. Department of Agriculture. USDA officials hearing about this, locked the doors. As thousands stood outside the USDA building in a cold drizzle, the then-Secretary of Agriculture left by a window.

Farmers visited every Senator and Representative telling their story; some of them took income tax returns and others took receipts showing how much fuel and fertilizer had gone up while the price of our products had stayed the same or gone down.

The five basic points established by the original founders of the movement were:

- (1) 100% parity for all domestic and foreign used and/or consumed agriculture products.
- (2) All agricultural products produced for national or international feed reserve shall be contracted at 100% parity.

(3) Creation of an entity or structure composed of agricultural producers to devise and approve policies that affect agriculture.

(4) Imports of all agricultural products which are domestically produced must be stopped until 100% parity is reached, thereafter imports must be limited to the amount that the American producers cannot supply.

(5) All announcements pertaining to any agricultural producing cycle shall be made far enough in advance that the producer will have adequate time to make needed adjustments in his operation.

AAM organized a tractorcade to Washington, D. C. in January 1979. It took 18 days to get there from the farthest points, traveling about 100 miles a day, through snow, sleet and mud they drove on, camping each night in a different location. They endured a blizzard in the mountains, were snow-bound in Illinois, very carefully making their way in heavy city traffic.

Parade permits had been secured once they reached Washington, D. C., but the city and police force couldn't handle it when thousands of farmers converged on February 5, 1979. On that day, 19 farmers were arrested, 17 tractors impounded and police penned farmers and their vehicles into an involuntary prison camp on the Washington Mall.

The farmers were the villains until Washington, D. C. was hit with 20 inches of snow. The tractors were the only means of transportation. The farmers worked on mercy missions around the clock.

The city dug out. The farmers stayed several more weeks, holding hearing after hearing and lobbying in the halls of Congress, but nothing was done about the basic problems—low prices below the cost of production.

The battle wore on. The American Agriculture Movement organized. The farmers didn't change their opinion, just their strategy.

After President Reagan took office, Congress passed a farm bill that the farmers called the 1981 Farm Bankruptcy Act. Thousands of family farmers have already been driven into bankruptcy and off the farms and into the city to find jobs.

The USDA's Farmers Home Administration has embarked on massive force liquidations driving thousands more off their farms.

"The American Agriculture Movement represents family farmers in 34 states, and we believe in buying American and supporting American jobs. Our country can no longer afford to export jobs, import finished products and destroy our fundamental economic base," said David Senter, AAM National director.

The American Agriculture Movement is made up of hardcore determined individuals who are a lot wiser after years and years of battle. AAM has an office in Washington, D. C. and has earned a reputation as being an aggressive, progressive and outspoken farm organization which targets the real problem, low prices. Through this office we keep farmers in Washington, lobbying.

The AAM has established a parity fund, and the interest from the money is used to help finance the national office.

When our local farmers became concerned in early 1978, we needed money to go to Washington, D. C. to lobby and try to get a good farm bill. Then then-president of the Valley Peanut Producers Association came and asked if we wanted to sell peanuts for a project to raise money. The proceeds from the peanuts we sell through the AAM office here in Quitaque is put into the parity fund. We have needed to relinquish some of it to assist Wayne Cryts in his bankruptcy ordeal, which is not over yet.

We have not failed. We do not apologize for anything. We have made the people and our Congressmen aware of what is happening. There is no comfort in saying "I told you so" when you, too, are going under. The consolation comes when you continue to try to save the few remaining farmers and in so doing save the nation.

The AAM was conceived in adversity, born in despair, nurtured with hope, grew in participation and lives with determination.

With U. F. and Ann Coker was Ann's brother, Chuck Bogan of Borger.

NEWS OF BEAUTY

Pretty Ways To Pamper Yourself

Do you need some pampering? Most people do every now and then. Fortunately, there are many ways to make yourself very pretty and luxurious without spending a lot of time or a small fortune, psychologists say.

Pamper and lavish yourself with a gift of silky and oh-so-feminine lingerie one day this week. Buy something pretty for the bathroom, or have the inside of your car cleaned at a carwash. Bring home little gifts for yourself—a small box of your favorite chocolates, a book you've been anxious to read.

Protecting Our Environment

Are you in the swim when it comes to saving water? These five easy-to-do tips from the American Water Works Association will help you stop wasting water.

1. At least twice a year check every faucet for leaks. A single slow drip can waste 15 or 20 gallons a day.
2. Check all toilet tanks, which can silently leak 100 gallons or more daily through faulty fixtures.
3. Don't shower too long or fill the tub too full. Five minutes for showers and five inches for tubs is plenty.
4. Only use automatic dish and clothes washers when they have full loads.
5. Water lawns and gardens with good sense, neither too much nor too little.

Pamper yourself with scented body sprays.

Another way to pamper yourself is with one of the new, deliciously fragrant body sprays now on the market. What a delightful way to indulge yourself and feel pretty all over. Just spray the mist all over for a quick pick-me-up. Body sprays, such as the new Body Flowers collection from The Gillette's Personal Care Division, can be applied all over the body to help you feel refreshed anytime, day or night.

It took eleven years to polish and grind the 200-inch mirror of the Palomar telescope, which was used to photograph the sky in the Northern hemisphere.

Apples, grapes, cranberries, plums and cherries should be stored in the refrigerator immediately after purchase and are best eaten within a week.

It's easy—when you know the answers

All of life is not far removed from the classroom. There are truths to be learned every day. And there are questions to be answered.

But some people don't have the answer when they need it. And some people do...

Any teacher will tell you it's a question of preparation. And any preacher will tell you the same.

The people who go to church on Sunday have no more problems than those who stay home. Nor do they expect as a result to have any fewer.

They believe simply in preparation—preparation of the mind, conscience, heart and soul . . . faith.

This is the preparation God offers men . . . for the questions that will confront us all tomorrow!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .

. . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

It's Such a Big World

Some folks say that as we grow older the world grows smaller. Is that because of the wonders of modern communication and transportation? Or is it because when some folks grow older they become preoccupied with their own little orbit of life?

Junior certainly enters life completely preoccupied with himself. But once he begins to walk and talk—gosh how his world balloons!

That's why he needs the religious training our churches provide. His faith must keep pace with his burgeoning world.

And as grown-ups, in worship and Christian devotion, we need likewise the spiritual gifts our churches offer.

For it really is a big world. Full of challenges, opportunities, and promising tomorrows. It always looks that way to a growing soul.

Staubach To Chair Smokeout In Texas

The American Cancer Society has announced that former Dallas Cowboys quarterback Roger Staubach will call signals on the finer points of quitting cigarettes as honorary chairman of the 1985 Great American Smokeout in Texas.

Recently named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the star quarterback will salute the good-natured spirit of the Smokeout and encourage fellow Texans who smoke to quit for the day—November 21—to prove to themselves they can.

The annual Smokeout, now in its ninth year, is sponsored by American Cancer Society volunteers nationwide as a fun and supportive celebration to help smokers give up the habit for just one day.

A survey by the Gallup organization last year indicated that more than 20 million smokers tried to quit, the highest participation in the Smokeout's history. The same survey showed that 3.1 million smokers were still not smoking one to five years later.

"I've never been one for quitting anything," says Staubach. "But quitting cigarettes for one day might be the best thing you can do for your health. It's a chance to join a proven winning team."

According to Texas ACS volunteers planning the event, Staubach's participation should help in reaching one of the event's indirect audiences—Texas' youth.

"Roger Staubach is a hero to many young Texans and if his support might deter some would-be smoker, so much the better," said Russell Autry of El Paso, who is the volunteer spearheading the campaign in Texas.

As for the smokers choosing to brave the "cold turkey" day, Autry says the ACS has a number of support materials—including survival kits and a new booklet, "How to Stay Quit Over the Holidays."

"This one came about because smokers from previous years told us they needed extra guidance and support through the hectic holiday season," said Autry. "Although some remained quit, others needed the reinforcement. This should help if coupled with support and encouragement from family and friends."

Local volunteer-sponsored activities highlighting the day range from a tobacco tea party in Corpus Christi Bay to a torch relay in downtown Dallas. Additionally, thousands of schools, colleges, businesses, corporations and organizations are planning in-house promotions.

"We wanted this year's event to have a true Texas flavor," said Autry. "With these activities and Mr. Staubach's support, I think we will. It's the Great American Smokeout—Lone Star style."

SESQUICENTENNIAL QUILT BLOCK CONTEST

(1) Purpose—Quilt block petitions will be held in each of the 26 counties of the Texas Panhandle. The blocks will represent a specific characteristic of each county. The winning block from each county will be sent to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum. The blocks will be assembled into a 30 block Sesquicentennial Quilt. The quilt and related documentation will remain at the Museum as a historical record of a Panhandle Sesquicentennial Celebration project for future generations of Panhandle residents to study and enjoy.

(2) Anyone is eligible to enter, however, County Extension Agents, the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum staff and their families (household members) are ineligible to enter.

(3) Quilt block competition sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, will be held in each county. County judges will be chosen by County Extension Agent.

(4) The top three blocks will be recognized per county. The place block will be sent to Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum and become the property of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society. The second place will represent the county in case first place was lost and could be duplicated.

(5) Blocks must be 14 1/2" x 14 1/2", allowing seam allowance outside the 14" design.

(6) Each quilt block is to be hand applied. Reverse applique, machine applique, embroidered, painted, beaded, or ruffled appliques are not acceptable.

(7) WHITE is the background color for the quilt block. Small scale printed fabrics suitable for the applique fabric are acceptable.

(8) Fabrics should be pre-washed, medium weight (light to medium) and texture, and to manipulate. Select from 100% cotton, washable, wovens, fabrics, i.e., gingham, percale, muslin, etc. Example of suitable brand names of fabrics are VIP, Roelon, Concord, Peter Pan. Do not use knits, leathers, vinyls, velvets, corduroys, laces, satins, or fets.

(9) Each quilt block will be named after the county. Donley, Hall, Castro embroidered in a block, outline stitching, navy blue embroidery floss, height, centered, and 1 1/4" from the bottom edge of the block. Do not use the word "county" in the name of the block.

(10) Select an applique indicative of the county's agricultural, historical, geographic or any other typical characteristic.

(11) Each entrant may submit as many entries as desired. Contact Johnnie Morris or Lynda Fogerson for more information.

CARDS OF THANKS

Our many thanks to all who sent cards and brought food, and for your prayers during my stay in the hospital and since my return home. Your concern was appreciated.
R. C. and Kathleen Green

We would like to thank everyone for all the deeds of kindness that you have done for us during John Thomas' illness and after his death. We appreciate the many calls, visits, flowers, food and, especially, your prayers. May the Lord richly bless each of you.

VALLEY FFA PARTICIPATES IN GREENBELT DISTRICT LEADERSHIP CONTESTS

The Greenbelt, Top o' Texas and Amarillo Districts of the Area I FFA Association held their District Leadership Contests at Clarendon College Saturday, November 9.

Valley FFA participated in six of the eight contests. Kirk Saul, Joe Morrison, Lane Myers and Matt Barrett participated in the Farm Radio Broadcast Contest and placed third; Tomas Rodriguez, Jeff Fuston, Freddy Ruiz and Robert Patrick were members of the Valley FFA Senior Farm Skill team who placed sixth. The Senior Chapter Conducting members who placed third were Scott Saul, Derek Mullin, Jess Little, Kirk Martin, Brandon Smith, Craig Setliff and Suzie Farley.

The Extemporaneous Speaking contest was won by Gary Brannon. Gary did an excellent job.

The Junior Chapter Conducting team placed second, also qualifying them for the Area Contest along with Gary. The team members were John David Harmon, Shane House, Lance Fulbright, Randy Pointer, Jessie Chavira, Brandon Stark and Jamie Cox. Brandon Stark placed third in the Creed Contest which is excellent considering the number of participants in the contest.

The Area Contest will be held Saturday, November 23, also at Clarendon.

Best of luck to Gary and the Junior Chapter Conducting team members.

Psychology

Meaning to return those phone calls but haven't had the time? Set aside a specific hour for just that purpose. Relax with a hot cup of tea as you leisurely talk with friends and make plans for the coming week. Tea can be the right pick-me-up for chilly evenings and talking to warm friends across the miles.

The first state agriculture department was instituted in Georgia in 1874.
