FINAL CHECK FOR "MISSED" FAMILIES UNDER WAY IN SOUTH BY CENSUS BUREAU
 One of the final steps in the

ARNOLD-DENTON WEDDING CEREMONY SOLEMNIZED ON JUNE 9 IN HONOLULU, HAWAII

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Denton

Miss Karen Arnold, daughter of Mrs. J. D. Lesley of Canyon, and Mr. Dennis Denton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loran Denton of Turkey, were united in marriage Tuesday, June 9, 1970 at 12:00 noon in Honolulu. The vows were exchanged in the Ft. DeRussey Chapel with Chaplain Knight performing the ceremony. The bridegroom was on R&R from Vietnam.

The bride wore a street-length gown of white crepe fashioned on an empire line with a lace overlay at the waist. The collar was white lace stand-up. Traditional Hawaiian leis were used during the ceremony. Each lei for the bride and groom contained 500 orchids.

The couple knelt on a kneeling bench before a large open Bible flanked by white candles and an arrangement of orchids.

The bride returned to her home at 1403E Interstate Dr., Amarillo, and the groom returned to service in Vietnam. He will return home in November.

Mr. and Mrs. Loran Denton of Turkey and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lesley flew with the bride-elect to Hawaii to meet the groom-elect. The Dentons were also celebrating their 35th wedding anniversary.

All three couples report a marvelous trip and stay in Hawaii. During the trip, the Loran Dentons and the Dennis Dentons went to the other Island of Kauai, where they saw the sugar cane and pineapple plantations, Waimea Canyon and many more interesting places.

Department of Commerce's Bureau of the Census.

The '70 census was taken by two methods: by mail-out and mail-back of questionnaires in most major metropolitan areas and by census takers in the rest of the United States. The latter procedure entailed the mailing out of questionnaires and subsequent visits by census takers who would pick up filled-in forms or, lacking this, interview families while following a house-to-house route.

Canvassing in the metropolitan areas required checking of addresses by postal employees before the mailout. A similar step is now being taken by mailmen following the visits by census takers.

This is the procedure: When census district offices completed their preliminary counts, they turned over to the post office a set of white cards listing every address canvassed. The mailmen, in turn, check these addresses against the households on their routes. If the mailman discovers what he considers a "missed" address, he fills out a blue card noting this fact. The blue cards are referred to the Census Bureau, which will check them against the census records.

The Census Bureau will check the blue cards turned in by mailmen and then take appropriate steps to provide a complete census count.

The Census Bureau has found from experience that many households for which such cards are filled out have already been enumerated. This can happen for a number of reasons. For instance, some people get mail at two or

GA Queens Crowned

Miss Cheryl Merrell, Miss Eva Cheatham and Miss Kim Ham were crowned "Queen" in a very impressive ceremony several weeks ago at the First Baptist Church in Quitaque. The three girls received a special crown because of their own private study. The three crown-bearers were Truette Stephens, Jayne Merrell and Lisa Herrington.

in their weekly meetings, but is home, all on their own time. Also something special they do at it is not absolutely compulsory for girl to pass these steps and still belong to Girls Auxiliary. It is their decision whether they do this extra work or not.

The Leaders do encourage them to do these steps because of the valuable Bible study they will receive, also a great amount of missionary education. You can only lead the girls to the blessings that are in store for them, but how full their cup becomes is up to each individual! Our prayer for each one of the girls is that their cup will be completely filled and overflowing every day of their life.

Not only did these three girls become Queens, but every girl in the Junior and Intermediate Auxiliary passed a Step. Their standings are as follows:

Queen Cheryl Merrell, Queen Eva Cheatham, Queen Kim Ham; Princess Seritha Helms, Princess Shonda Smith, Princess Marion Dowd; Lady In Waiting Regina Cathey; Maiden Martha Holman, Maiden Sonda Edmonds, Maiden Kim Baca, Maiden Debbie Dossey, Maiden Renee Smith, Maiden Darlene Hendrix, Maiden Mary Scoggins, Maiden Judy Britton and Maiden Louise Holman.

The scene for the GA Queens Court for the State of Texas this past April 3-5 was on the Baylor University Campus in Waco. What a beautiful setting it was for the 3000 teenage girls (between the ages of 12 and 15 years) to assemble together and sing praises unto God. Baylor University has been in continuous existence since 1845 and is, therefore, the oldest University in Texas. Today Baylor is owned and operated by the Baptist General Convention of Texas and is the largest Baptist school in the world, with attendance on and off campus of about 8,000.

The theme for Queens Court this year was, "Focus". Each service began with "The Lively Ones," a folk-singing group at Baylor consisting of three boys and a girl. (Can you imagine how popular these three boys were among 3000 girls).

The program personnel consisted of 23 personalities, among names such as Hal Brooks, pastor of Richland Hills Baptist Church, Fort Worth; Sheryl Churchhill, Actees Director, Dallas; Richard Greenwood of Fort Worth who is a Missionary to Guatemala; Eula

Most outstanding for the girls were "The Lively Ones" for entertainment; Marge Caldwell for the speaker; and Mrs. Bullard Jones, the musical director. Mrs. Jones really knew how to direct those 3000 teenage girls singing in complete harmony "He's Everything To Me." "Till by faith I met Him face to face, and I felt the wonder of His grace. Then I knew that He was more than just a God who didn't care, that lived away out there. And now He walks beside me day by day, Ever watching o'er me lest I stray, Helping me to find that narrow way, He's everything to me."

Mrs. Patsy Herrington and Mrs. Phyllis Cheatham sponsored this trip and they were truly blessed, returning with the realization, more than ever before, that GOD IS NOT DEAD, NOT AMONG OUR YOUNG PEOPLE, ANYWAY. HE LIVES!

The girls that attended this meeting were Kim Ham, Eva Cheatham, and Cheryl Merrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Parker and family of Midland visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parker over the weekend.

What's right about America?

Today, the surest means of a book becoming a best seller is for the author to highlight and denounce bitterly the faults of this country. The same can be said of television and the movies, which prefer in these modern days to depict the seamy side of life in America.

But there's hope. As I have moved across this state, I have sensed that our people are growing weary of gloom. It's becoming easier to strike up a conversation on what's right about America.

I always suggest that there are a lot more level heads in this country than we are sometimes led to believe. There are a lot more decent, law-abiding citizens than there are criminals and cheats and sharks. There are a lot more young people in the "now" generation who want to improve America than the handful of radicals who want to burn it to ashes and start all over.

I can understand why the "majority" has broken its "silence." There's a growing impatience with agitation and controversy. But I feel we should continue to approach our nation's problems with a cool head and an open mind. I've listened to the voices of dissent. I think I know what they're asking of their government.

One thing they want is confidence. They want the assurance that their public officials have the courage to meet the issues of the 1970s with imagination and integrity, and not with some form of "old politics" that thrashes around with problems but never quite locates the workable solutions.

It was my desire to answer this urgent need that prompted me in January to seek the office of United States Senator.

Is it fun to be

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

SURPRISED?

When each new experience springs forth like a jack-in-the-box . . . and your fondest possessions are toys . . . and your chief concern is to squeeze out of every hour the last ounce of amusement—then it's fun to be surprised.

But when you've grown too old for toys . . . when life is laced with serious challenge . . . when happiness depends on a thousand social, economic and moral decisions—then surprises can be devastating!

It is elementary that our early education must prepare us for the later surprises. The knowledge, habits and skills we acquire must be adequate for meeting the unexpected as readily as the expected.

And because religious faith and moral fortitude are men's chief resources in the unheralded crises of adult life, we must nurture their development in every child.

Support, encourage, serve your church in its vital efforts to mold the character of today's youth — tomorrow's adults.

Shirttail Sermon

"I came not to send peace, but a sword."
Matthew 10:34

At first glance, these words do not seem to reflect the character or the teachings of Jesus Christ. Yet they are His exact words. When we have studied them, we find that there are three ways in which the coming of Jesus Christ into the heart sends a sword there.

First, He opens up the depths of sin within us. We then realize just how far we have fallen short of the goal of the Christian life. We look into the open wound and are appalled at the corruption that sin has deposited in our lives. We are prone to deny that this heart is ours for it is nothing like what we had led ourselves to believe that it was. We had always thought our lives and hearts to be somewhat clean but this heart is black as a lump of coal.

Second, He calls us to lifelong warfare. Our enemy is temptation placed in our lives by Satan. We find that he cannot be defeated once and for all time but that we must fight him everyday of our lives. We find also that temptation comes in many forms: when one form fails, he simply uses another form to attract us.

Third, He heightens our ideal, thereby causing peace and complacency to flee and pain to begin. Our first pain is the hurt of a bruised pride. It is followed shortly by the pain of a sense of unworthiness. As we gaze at our heart, we realize just how unworthy we are to be called by His Name. We also realize how far we must climb in order to attain the goal of Christian perfection. The realization drives us to our knees in supplication for forgiveness of our sins and for strength to fight our way upward to the goal.

MARRIAGE PLANS ARE ANNOUNCED

BRENDA STANDFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Standfield of Turkey announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Brenda, to Mr. Roger Brunson, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Brunson of Quitaque.

Plans are being made for a July 20 wedding.

Jones-Jameson Vows Read Recently At Turkey

Mrs. Leslie Clyde Jameson — nee Miss Linda Jones

Marriage vows were exchanged by Miss Linda Sue Jones and Leslie Clyde Jameson in a double ring ceremony read at 7 p.m. Friday, May 29. The Church of Christ in Turkey was the scene of the wedding, with Minister Jack Hutton officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jones of Turkey. Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Jameson of Matador are parents of the bridegroom.

An arch, entwined with greenery and centered with wedding bells, and baskets of roses in pastel colors decorated the altar. Recorded music included the traditional wedding marches.

Miss Marsha Rogers of Turkey was maid of honor and Johnny King of Turkey attended the bridegroom as best man. Flower girls were Crystal and Susie Williams of Turkey, nieces of the bride.

Ushers were Larry and Lynn Jameson, brothers of the bridegroom.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a fitted white satin gown, trimmed with applied lace and seed pearls on the bodice. The gown featured long sleeves and A-line skirt. A panel of satin at the back which extended in a train was attached to a bow at the waist, and was trimmed with self-covered buttons extending from the bow. Her veil of illusion was attached to a pearlized coil and draped over the shoulders, extending into a train. She carried a bouquet of white carnations on a white Bible.

Her attendant, Miss Rogers, wore a formal gown fashioned on Empire lines, with a white lace bodice and blue chiffon skirt extending into a train.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the school cafeteria. The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth over blue and centered with a tiered wedding cake which was served by Miss Brenda Standfield. Mrs. Dwight Ramsey presided at the punch service.

Guests were registered by Miss Sandy Standfield.

The bride wore a blue dacron dress with white trim when the couple left for a weekend at Burson Lakes. They are making their home in Matador, where the bridegroom is associated with his father in the construction business.

Mrs. Jameson is a 1970 graduate of Turkey High School. She was the Turkey Lions Club Queen for two years, and 1968 Farm Bureau Queen. Her husband graduated from Matador High School in 1969 and attended Oklahoma State Tech at Okmulgee, Oklahoma the past year.

Attending the wedding from Matador, in addition to the bridegroom's family, were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jameson, also Mrs. Dortha Carson and children, Terry, Ricky and Connie, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jameson and Eddie, Mr. and Mrs. Arwayne Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Jameson, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Cartwright and Tina, Jones, Kate Reed and Miss Ruth Reed.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Herman Smith and Brett of Amarillo and Miss Nancy Reid of Silvertown.

Miss Brenda Fuston, bride-elect of Mack Seymour, was honored with a bridal shower Tuesday, June 16, in the home of Mrs. Smith Guest. Guests called between 4:00 and 5:30 p.m.

The honoree's chosen colors of yellow and white were used in decorations. She was given a yellow corsage. Mrs. T. R. Fuston, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Lee Seymour, mother of the groom-elect, greeted the guests with the honoree.

Mrs. G. P. Driskill, Jr. and Mrs. J. T. Mullin registered guests.

Mrs. Jack Case, Mrs. Mark Lane and Mrs. Pat Britain presided at the serving table.

Refreshments of punch, white cake squares decorated with yellow sweetpeas, nuts and mints were served with crystal and silver appointments. The table was laid with a white damask cloth and featured a miniature bride doll attired in white tulle bridal gown, flanked by yellow tapers in double crystal holders. Yellow lilies in a crystal vase completed the decorations.

HORN FLIES ON THE INCREASE

Horn flies are beginning to increase rapidly on cattle on the Texas High Plains as warmer weather continues to be the order of the day.

"These pests live on animals continuously and feed as much as 20 times a day," explains Dr. Bill Clymer, area entomologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "A moderately heavy infestation of 5,000 flies can extract one-half pint of blood or about one percent of the blood value of a 1000-pound animal.

"In addition to the blood loss, the flies constantly irritate animals thereby causing a loss of energy. Digestive upsets are common and feed utilization and consumption decrease.

"Some authorities say that uncontrolled infestations of horn flies can cause a loss of one-half pound of flesh or one quart of milk per day," points out Clymer.

Safety Around The Pool

Rules and regulations from several national agencies governing safety procedures in and around swimming pools have helped save countless lives. But there are still some areas of pool use and care to which private and public swimming pool owners and operators pay little—if any—attention. Foremost among these is storage, handling and application of swimming pool chemicals.

Calcium hypochlorite, for example, is the most popular chlorine sanitizing agent in use today. It is an effective swimming pool bactericide and algicide. But, it is also a dangerous oxidizing agent which has been responsible for several fires in past years.

Recent development of flameproof calcium hypochlorite now dramatically reduces chances of fire during storage or handling of this widely used pool sanitizer. Called Sentry, the specially treated formulation has been tested by the Bureau of Explosives with results showing it to be safer than calcium hypochlorites now on the market.

In addition to its flameproof qualities, Sentry resists fires caused by chemical contamination by such familiar poolside materials as cosmetics, sun tan lotions, beverages, fertilizers, dead vegetation, and other organic matter. Under certain conditions, however, such as intense heat or gross contamination, it may burn. Label precautions should always be followed. Fires caused by contamination of the untreated chemical have resulted in regulation of its storage and use by some local fire departments.

Sentry is available in a dustless, granular form in 5 lb. plastic bottles, 25 lb. and 35 lb. pails, and 100 lb. drums at pool supply dealers handling the Pennswim product line of pool chemicals. It is a product of Pennwalt Corporation, world-wide producer of chemicals, specialized equipment, pharmaceuticals and dental health products with headquarters in Philadelphia.

To combat horn flies during periods of peak populations, insecticides may have to be applied on a two-to-four-week basis, he adds. In addition to spraying, other methods that are effective are dusting, dipping, self-treatment dust bags, back rubbers and mineral-treated salt blocks. Numerous insecticides are available for controlling horn flies. Information on these can be obtained from the "Texas Guide for Control of External Parasites of Livestock and Poultry" available at the county Extension office.
