Plans For Hall County Picnic Finalized

by Ann Coker
The Hall County Picnic celebration will begin on Thursday, September 19th. At that time a hamburger lunch in Turkey will be served. On that date, beginning at 11 a.m. hamburgers, with all the trimmings, beans and drinks at a cost of $3.00 per plate will be served by the Picnic Association. (I assume the hamburgers will be served on Main Street, as usual.)

On Friday the same menu will be served on the Courthouse Square at 11 a.m.

The Hall County Parade will be held at 3 p.m. on Saturday, September 21. Lynn Davis, Bonnie Hill's granddaughter, is parade chairman and can be reached at Thompson's Hardware for applications and more information. Parade categories include: Bicycle Riders, Civic Organizations, Commercial, Horseback Riders, Motorized Vehicles, School and Youth Groups and Miscellaneous.

Rain At Quitaque

Rain has been coming down in our area once again. Saturday, Quitaque registered one inch. Sunday .90 was recorded. Tuesday .70 was registered while Tuesday night .30 was received. Toadstools and mildew are beginning to show up and make one think they were on the Gulf Coast.

There's more to a library than books on a shelf

by Nicki Bruce Logan
Plainview Daily Herald
Janice Henson thought it was a shame that her community, Quitaque, didn't have a public library. And, that niggling thought grew into an obsession when the school system was consolidated and the town lost what library facilities that were in the schools.

"I've lived here since 1978 and I really wanted us to have a library," Janice explains. In part, she says her motivations came from wanting her own children to have access to a library, but mainly, she felt that because Quitaque is "isolated," everyone of all ages would appreciate having a library handy in their town.

Still, it was in 1990 that Janice voiced her concern to the city council, of which she was a member. A committee was appointed by the mayor to investigate the feasibility and cost of establishing a library, knowing that costs could be prohibitive when asking a limited population to fund such a project.

Janice, along with Linda Stark, spearheaded the campaign.

"First, we consulted with Mary Ann Wells, who is system coordinator at the Texas Pan-

Quitaque Biking Events Upcoming

Two large biking events will take place during the month of October in Quitaque. The Caprock Bike Club of Quitaque will sponsor and promote a Kids Bike Parade and Race on October 19th along with other festivities of the Annual Fall Fest.

Kids of the ages 12 and under are encouraged to get ready to enjoy a bike parade down main Street of Quitaque. Not only are kids invited to join the parade, but, also all adults who enjoy biking, are encouraged to help out in this fun event.

Following the parade event, registration for the racing event will take place at the office of the old Co-Op Gin. A riding course of about one mile will be prepared on which the event will take place. A number of prizes donated by businesses will be awarded to participants.

On October 26th, the Quitaque Quest Mountain Bike Race will occur. This race, to be held on the trails of Caprock Canyons State Park, is already attracting a lot of interest from bikers.

Last year's Quitaque Quest attracted riders from near-by cities such as Amarillo and Lubbock and more distant places such as Dallas, El Paso, and San Antonio. A number of participants came from Oklahoma and New Mexico. Near a hundred riders are expected on race day to challenge the difficult riding course at Caprock Canyons.

Again, volunteers will be asked to help make these two biking events a success. Last year's Quitaque Quest participants were very complimentary of the Quitaque people who helped work at the race. Let's do it again! Put October 19th and 26th on the calendar.

The Briscoe County communities of Silverton and Quitaque are sponsoring a county wide garage sale on Saturday, September 7, 1996.

Individuals wishing to have their garage sale placed on a listing of participants in the county wide sale may do so by calling the First National Bank, in Quitaque. The listing will then be distributed by local merchants on that day.

Turkey Good Guy Award

by Ann Coker
What a pleasant surprise when Rick Mullin handed Joyce Guest a $10.00 bill the other day. Greg Fuston who realized that the $10.00 overage was due Joyce after she had been in helping Michael and Amanda select candy. If you've ever helped children choose candy then you know the confused state you're in when you pay.

Greg, you're the good guy for being so honest.

THEN & NOW!

by Eunice McFall
Alady was speaking about the golden years recently. She said that she was finding out that for her they did not seem too golden. It seemed that all they got to do was make doctor's appointments and keep them. True it does seem that the older we progress in our lives that the more the road to the doctor seems to be traveled by us. But just think what the alternative would be. It could be taken as golden that we have the ability, knowledge, funds and the availability of doctors to help with our disabilities.

We need to look beyond the physical disabilities and aging to take into consideration all the trials we have conquered; all the beauty we have been blessed to behold; all the joys we have experienced in getting to this point in our lives; all the hours of happiness we have had with our families; all the love we have been privileged to share in the past and all the love that is still coming our way. We should see the gold in the sunrise each morning and the sunset each evening; the gold in our spouses eyes; the gold in our children and grandchildren's love; the gold in the ability to arise to face each day; the gold in the wonderful friendships along the way and the gold in one and all of the many blessing we forget to say thanks for each day. Gold, yes, there is a lot of it laying around. All we have to do enjoy it is to look for it!

Mary Beth Nelson of The Clarendon Enterprise put it this way: As I enter a new period of life when it's time to get the cholesterol down and the thyroid up; when arthritic threats become dominant with stiffer joints; when I clumsily drop things more often, and then, take a little more time to pick them up, I find myself wondering, "Just where is the gold in the golden years?"

While pondering this question one morning, images of energetic grandsons and beautiful granddaughters, one in her bridal gown, popped into my mind, sparking a reality of fleeting years, but at the same time, experiencing a sudden warmth in my heart, these thoughts brought a realization that this was possibly a fraction of the gold.

The gold became a little shinier when I actually considered the endless list that God has provided to ease physically, aching moments if I will just take advantage of some of them; enjoying more time with nature's elements through a flower's budding, a bird's melody, smell of refreshing rain, and falling snowflakes, unexpectedly hearing from cherished friends with whom younger years were shared, expressions of love and appreciation from one's own children as they tend to their immediate family matters, still being able to enjoy a picnic for two and an occasional candlelight supper with one's mate.

Gold in the golden years? Yes. God is helping me discover it, and has guaranteed its possibility. The probability is up to me.

Turkey Residents Satisfied With Garcia Sentence

People in Turkey were pleased with the sentence given Jesus Garcia, 35, of Hall County recently, after he pled guilty to assault with a deadly weapon in 100th Judicial District Court.
 Garcia was sentenced to 20 years in the state penitentiary, for causing bodily injury to Tonya Montgomery (sister-in-law of Jackie Jenkins) by repeatedly driving the motor vehicle he was driving into her car, and causing her vehicle to roll three times. Mrs. Montgomery was rescued by members of her family whom she had contacted by mobile phone while being pursued, and Garcia fled on foot.
 He later was apprehended by law enforcement officers and a DPS trooper.
 Mrs. Montgomery was eight and a half months pregnant at the time, and accompanied by her three-year old daughter.

Learning To See The Signs Of Aging Eyes

(NAPS)—Although you may see the future more clearly as you age, you also become susceptible to a number of vision-related problems associated with the aging process like cataracts, glaucoma and presbyopia, says the Better Vision Institute (BVI).
 Cataracts, which impair more than three million of us, and glaucoma, which is diagnosed in 95,000 new patients each year, probably sound a lot more familiar than presbyopia. Presbyopia, a condition caused by the hardening of the lens, may not be a regular part of your vocabulary, but 75 million Americans over age 40 recognize its symptoms. Presbyopes may:
 • Wish for longer arms as they strain to see the print while reading newspapers.
 • Confuse small, printed numbers such as 3 and 8.
 • Have trouble focusing on small items such as price tags and wristwatches.
 Presbyopes should take comfort in the fact that they are not alone. The condition is a natural, easily correctable part of aging and can be corrected with contact, progressive or bifocal lenses and reading glasses.

Is The Water On Your Land Yours?

Just because water is located on their property does not give landowners the automatic right to use it," according to attorney Judon Fambrough of the Texas Estate Center at Texas A&M University.
 He says the right to use water is granted or denied by the law. Deciding who can use water and under what circumstances stems from whether or not the water is publicly or privately owned, he says.
 For information on water rights, Texas residents can request publication No. 715 from the Real Estate Center by calling (800) 244-2144.

Safety For Labor Day

Trooper L. B. Snider, Public Information Officer for the Texas Department of Public Safety, states "Many people will celebrate Labor Day weekend traveling to lakes, rodeos and other festive events." Basic, yet often overlooked safe driving procedures need to be engaged for holiday traveling. These basics are: #1--pretrip planning, #2--a drug free and alert driver, #3--adequate travel time and space development and #4--correct use of safety belts.

Pretrip planning consists of having the vehicle tuned and in safe condition. A time frame and route schedule should be made and shared with a family member or friend who can contact you if needed, especially for emergency messages. Snider also encourages motorists to have first aid and emergency road kits in vehicles at all times.

The driver needs to be well rested and drug free. Drug free includes alcoholic beverages, over the counter medications, prescribed medications and obviously illegal drugs such as marijuana, cocaine, etc. Medications, whether prescribed or purchased over the counter which have warnings not to drive should definitely be followed. Drivers should allow time for occasional rest stops as needed, adds Snider.

Adequate travel time and space development deals with areas of congested traffic and developing safe following space. When the vehicle ahead of you passes a landmark such as a delineator post or a tree it should take at least two (2) seconds before you reach the same location. Snider advises that drivers should work to minimize the time spent driving alongside other vehicles in the event they may need to move aside.

The Department of Public Safety has found that many people use safety belts incorrectly and expose themselves to greater injuries. Lap belts should be worn across the hips and the shoulder strap worn over the shoulder. The D.P.S. has found that numerous motorists wear the shoulder strap under the shoulder which diminishes the effectiveness of the shoulder strap. In cars with separate lap and shoulder straps, motorists need to use both to reduce the risk of being ejected through a door jarred open. Infant/child safety seats must be secured snug and preferably in the back seat, especially if the vehicle has dual air bags.

Trooper Snider adds that drivers of pickups with children under the age of 12 in the bed area have a maximum speed limit of 35 miles per hour. "Remember, these passengers have little or no means of securing themselves and become human projectiles with hard braking or in collisions."

"Whether we travel by car, truck, boat or even horseback we need to have a travel plan, have the vehicle in proper working order and have ourselves physically and mentally prepared for peak performance needed for holiday travel," concludes Trooper Snider.

HELLO, DOLLY!!

Hurricane Dolly gave a good "Hello, Dolly" performance during the weekend for the residents in northwest Motley County. She was accompanied by billowy clouds of every color and description that did not give the same rain dance at all locations. Whiteflat registered from 1.50 to 3.80 inches of moisture, and Flomot had from 1 to 4.30 inches. Mrs. Tommie Cruse officially reported 1.18 inches and Wilburn Martin west of Flomot reported over 4 inches!

To alleviate dry eye discomfort during air travel, many specialists recommend using lubricating eye drops.

(NAPS)—Whether flying for business or for pleasure, if you have dry eyes you could be in for a rough journey. Characterized by symptoms of burning, irritation and/or grittiness, dry eyes are common among travelers exposed to the dry, recirculated air of airplanes.

According to Dr. Alan L. Shabo, Clinical Professor of Ophthalmology, Jules Stein Eye Institute, University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA), "Most people don't realize that grittiness, scratchiness and irritation are actually symptoms of dry eyes that can be easily remedied with lubricating eye drops. If anything, they reach for a cosmetic 'redness reliever,' which does not restore moisture and can actually increase eye irritation and cause further dryness."

Freshman Class Elects Officers

by Jamie Taylor, reporter
Valley School started on the 14th of August. The Freshman Class, the Class of 2000, elected their class officers on that day.
The results of the election were Nathan Wheeler, president; Jess Yearly, vice president; Ben Pigg, secretary/treasurer and Jamie Taylor, reporter.
Sponsors elected by the class are Rickey McKay and Clint Easley.
"We are proud of our officers and sponsors and I feel sure that they will do an excellent job for our class."

FHA Chooses New Officers

by Mindy Proctor
On Thursday, August 22, 1996 the Future Homemakers of America had a meeting at Valley School to elect officers. To run for an office each person had to make a 30 second speech and answer a fact question about FHA.
The '96-'97 FHA officers are: Janet Ross as president, Jessica Ortiz as vice-president of programs, Jamie Taylor as vice-president of projects, Kristie Leal as vice president of achievement; Mindy Proctor as vice president of public relations; Amy Valdez as historian and Monica Ortiz as vice president of finance.
Cara Powell is serving this year as the State Reporting Secretary. She takes the minutes at all the state FHA meetings. The officers will be doing a wonderful job of planning activities for this school year.

Dear Editor,
Mr. Bailey and I have taken the paper for a long time. We have always enjoyed it. Mr. Bailey lived in Quitaque for years. We enjoy your paper very much.
We love the beautiful country there as well as the people.
The check for the paper is enclosed. Thank you.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seldon Bailey

4-H EXCEL Program Excellent Opportunity

by Rebel L. Royall
Fourteen 4-Hers from Extension districts one and two will travel to Washington, D. C. over the Thanksgiving holiday. The program was designed to reward 4-Hers whose record books placed first or second place at state competition in College Station.

"It is the only program of its kind in Texas and only for kids from districts one and two," stated county Extension Agent Rebel L. Royall.
While there, the 4-Hers will see the many sites of our national capital, meet with legislators, and visit the national 4-H Center in Chevy Chase, Maryland. The trip is filled with many educational activities and encourages 4-Hers to excel in record keeping. Record book entries in Extension districts one and two have increased because of the EXCEL program.

The problem with this program is that it is very expensive. The 4-Hers are not required to pay for any part of their trip. They only have to come up with spending money. To solve this problem, two Apache stock trailers are to be raffled off. Tickets for the raffle cost $100 apiece, and only 100 will be sold. The drawing for the trailers will be at the Tri-State Fair for District 1 and the South Plains Fair for District 2.

Briscoe County 4-H is required to sell five of these tickets. If you are interested in purchasing one, please contact the County Extension office at 823-2131, or come by the Courthouse. Partnerships in purchasing a ticket are welcome. The donation is tax deductible, as it is a donation to the 4-H program.

PLUG INTO ELECTRICAL SAFETY.

An Electrical Lifesaver

(NAPS)—If an inexpensive electrical device were installed in every U.S. household, nearly 70 percent of the approximately 330 electrocutions that occur each year in the home could be prevented. According to the National Electrical Safety Foundation, this life-saving device is a ground fault circuit interrupter, known as a GFCI.

- GFCIs are products designed to prevent serious injury or death from electrical shock by detecting ground faults at very low levels.
- A GFCI should be used in any area where water may come in contact with electrical products. GFCIs are now required by code in certain areas of the home including unfinished basements, kitchens, bathrooms, garages, crawl spaces, and around swimming pools.
- If a GFCI senses minimal current leakage to ground in an electrical circuit, it assumes a ground fault has occurred. It then interrupts power fast enough to prevent serious injury from electrical shock.
- Three types of GFCIs are designed for home use—wall receptacle, circuit breaker, and portable plug-in. All three are readily available, inexpensive, and fairly simple to install.

For more information, send a 55¢ stamped, self-addressed No. 10 (business size) envelope to National Electrical Safety Foundation, 1300 North 17th St., #1847, Rosslyn, Va. 22209.

... 'He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house'...

-Proverbs 15:27

Though money can't buy happiness,
With the purchases we like to flaunt
We are enabled to possess
The kind of misery we want;
Yet lessons of our faith imply
That hoarding of excessive wealth
Results in taxes much too high
And often, damage to our health.
According to a Bible phrase,
The love of money is the root
Of evil, till we mend our ways
And make our faith a substitute.
So give your loved ones what they need,
But spend more time with them alone;
Because they are, a you'll concede,
The greatest treasure you could own.

There's More to A Library Than Books. . .

For funding, the county and the school board donated $3,000 apiece.

"We are in a unique situation here since the public schools are not in our town," Janice points out. Caprock Library serves a four county area which includes Hall, Briscoe, Motley and Floyd Counties.

Besides the individual book drives, area libraries sent their duplicates to Quitaque and several libraries, including Unger Memorial in Plainview, that have book sales, sent their remainders to Quitaque.

The library got a big boost when the Harrington Foundation in Amarillo approved a matching grant of $14,650.

"We used that grant to purchase the core collection of books," Janice said.

In addition, an auction company in Amarillo donated books that belonged to a woman in Wichita Falls. When the books didn't sell, he gave them to Caprock Library.

"They told us that we could have them if we would pick them up and haul them off," remarks Arlene Hinkle, who is librarian at Caprock.

The library also raises funds from book sales they have twice a year, one during Caprock Canyons Trail Days in June and another October 19 during the Fall Foliage Days.

The enthusiasm Quitaque citizens have for education and knowledge came to the forefront and the library was able to become a member of the Texas Panhandle Library System in 15 months while most libraries struggle to meet the requirements in three years.

In fact, Caprock Library is bursting at the seams.

"We are looking for a larger building and planning funding for it," Janice laughs.

And, if you're thinking that Caprock is a primitive rural library, think again.

"We are trying to keep our community current, which is hard in this age of computers," Janice, who is a "teacher of all classes" which includes computer and business classes, in rural Lakeview school (about 80 students) near Memphis. The county gave one computer to the library and Caprock has received two more recently from fellow libraries in the Panhandle.

Janice says that they are in the process of automating Caprock through an internet assistance grant arranged for by the Harrington Library Consortium, which includes Amarillo College, West Texas A&M University and the Amarillo Public Library.

The Consortium includes the top 26 counties in the Panhandle and Janice says that Caprock was one of nine libraries in the Consortium that was not automated.

The automated libraries voted to help those nine libraries by forgoing their collection development money, apply those funds to helping the poor and small libraries in the Consortium.

"We have been fortunate to be in the right place at the right time," Janice claims. "From the very beginning, we have been fortunate."

And Janice says that she is still amazed when she thinks about what has been accomplished.

"At first I had a dream of a small library in a little building. What we have now far exceeds my expectations."

She laughs and with a note of amazement in her voice says that the future looks bright for Caprock Library.

"People are excited about the library. And we're proud of it. We couldn't have done what we've done in such a short period of time without the cooperation and full support of everyone. We've had so many volunteers—no one ever told us 'no'. It's been a lot of work, but it has been rewarding.

"I keep remembering what

Linda (Stark) has said from the very beginning as we traveled to other libraries and learned the process involved in starting a library from the ground up.

"There's more to a library than books on a shelf."

If you haven't been to Quitaque and ridden the 'Doodle-Bus,' you don't know guano from grandeur

courtesy John Perry & The Plainview Daily Herald

There is a well-worn adage about living in this area and that is: This is the center of hunting, fishing and sight-seeing. . . it's 400 miles in any direction before you can find it."

I've spent a good portion of this past year "exploring" this area and have found there is wealth of all this right at our fingertips. One such experience I will share with you . . . it should be on your list of things to do.

Last Saturday morning, I and a couple from Brownfield met Virginia Taylor and her "Doodle-Bus" just on the west side of Quitaque, where once had been the train depot and tracks.

Some 22 miles of what was formerly railroad is now a state park's trailway. If I remember correctly it is the longest in Texas and the fourth longest in the country.

Joe and Virginia Taylor have permission to operate a motorized tour service over this trail. They operate the Circle Dot Ranch and a portion of this trail crosses their ranch.

This turned out to be one of the most surprising trips I have taken. In a short distance from Quitaque we entered the Quitaque Valley area - the "Peaks" loomed picturesquely in the distance. Suddenly we were crossing a trestle that spanned a deep ravine. Thought I would get a nose-bleed just looking down.

THINGS SEEN & HEARD by Ann Coker

On Tuesday, August 27, we spent the day in Lubbock. Coker had been feeling quite badly so we spent the day in the Doctor's Clinic. After spending most of the day there he was diagnosed as having a bad ulcer.

Coming home we ran into several torrential rains. We were quite thankful when we arrived home! Hence little news this week! We've been going to doctors.

Willie Grace Majors visited with her daughter, Belinda, in Canyon last week-end. While there she fell and injured her shoulder. It has been quite painful.

J. T. and Tootsie Mullin recently returned from a vacation at South Fork, Colorado. While there, Tootsie fell and broke her arm and several ribs. They were vacationing with old friends, Clinton and Vee Lane and Harve and Gin Williams.

Bonnie Hill visited in Memphis last Sunday in the Wiley Davis home and with Lynn Weatherly. She also enjoyed visiting with another niece, Janna and Michael Pinka of Plainview who were also visiting with Lynn and the Davises.

Before returning home Bonnie visited with Louise Meacham and Zona Lane at the nursing home. Mrs. Hill served Zona her supper before returning home.

Visiting in the home of Lorene Setliff's last week-end were two of her granddaughters, Robyn and Taylor Setliff. They are the daughters of Rod and Millie Setliff. Also visiting with Lorene was her son, Scotty Setliff and his friend, Jerry. Scotty and Jerry brought Robyn and Taylor with them.

-Jeremiah 5:5

THE FAITH OF OUR FOUNDING FATHERS INSURED OUR FREEDOM

There is a tendency to regard any encouragement of religion by our elected officials as an attempt to impose a government-mandated form of it on our citizens. This comes from a natural concern about the separation of church and state, but it can result in an attitude toward religion normally reserved for an insidious disease. It should be remembered that our founding fathers who make no secret of their reliance on divine guidance, insured our own religious freedom by including it in the laws by which we live. Moreover, to this day every public official takes the oath of office with one hand on the Bible, and legislative sessions routinely begin with prayers; with no harmful effects on the populace. Indeed, perhaps the encouragement of faith would help to solve many of our own serious problems. Our revered forefathers thought so, and we would do well to follow their example.

TURKEY vs. MATADOR

(by Billy Fred and Tommy)
The Turkey Turks will encounter Matador in their first game Friday night at Vardy Field Turkey.

Turkey will be supplied with 26 boys, 13 lettermen who are returning for action, some of them for their last year.

Matador who has defeated Turkey for the last two years will run into better competition Friday night.

This looks like a good year for the Turks. They are supplied with a 165 average team and eight of the regulars of the '47 team, which won third place in the 12B district.

The boys will appreciate your presence at these games, so come on out folks, we'll give you a good game and guarantee your money's worth.
