Mr. and Mrs. Ray Persons re-turned home Thursday of last week from a trip to East Texas. Graham and visited one of the sis-ters. Her son-in-law has a cabin on Graham Lake and they fished on Granam Lake and they lished there and enjoyed a fish fry with all the fish seven of them could eat. They stopped back by Vernon for a short visit enroute home.

Rev. Raymond Bowlin of Amarillo directed the ceremony. The sanctuary was decorated with baskets of gladioli and feathered carnations in the bride's colors.

Mike Shapely sang "More" and "The Twelfth of Never" during the ceremony. He was accompanied by Mrs. Glen Dowlen on the organ.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown of angel mist peau de soie

Some of the key moments in our education are those times when we discussed with someone older the interesting things we

But, to speak frankly about religious education today, one of the serious handicaps facing boys and girls who are sent (not brought) to church is that they have little opportunity to "talk

Moral and spiritual growth is nurtured by family discussion of the truths taught in classroom and pulpit. But this presumes that parents and children together are sharing the experiences of worshipping God and studying the Christian Faith. Candidly, too, it presumes that the parents will be the pace-setters . . . advanced enough in their own religious growth to answer simple, urgent questions.

It was always fun to tell "Sis" what we had learned at school. But, remember, it was I we counted on when we couldn't find the answer
