Classes Begin Today For Students At Valley

Defense Driving Course Begins Tuesday Night

Tuesday evening, August 24, will begin a two-session defensive driving course for area drivers. The course is designed to be both enjoyable and beneficial. Completion of both sessions will entitle drivers to insurance discounts of up to ten percent. Young and old alike are encouraged to make our highways a safer place by participating in this program. There will be no tests of any kind to pass.

Fees are set at $5.00 for singles, $7.50 for couples, and $2.00 for each additional family member. Sessions will be held from 6:30 to 10:00 p.m. on August 24 and August 31 in the Quitaque Community Center. The Quitaque Lions Club is sponsoring this program.

Quitaque Lions Enjoy Wildlife Presentation

The Quitaque Lions met in the Quitaque Community Center Monday evening, August 16. After a delicious Mexican dinner, Lion Jimmy Davidson introduced the speaker, Julius Stevens. As game warden of Briscoe and Swisher counties, Stevens presented slides and gave data about aoudad sheep, whitetail and mule deer. The economic impact, as well as the local sport of these game animals, was presented to show the potential of this natural resource. In 1975, there were 105 aoudad permits issued to Briscoe County landowners. The sale of these permits alone averaged $325.00. This does not include additional money spent by the hunters for food, lodging, guides, or other local expenses. Of the 100 sheep killed in the four-county hunt area, 50 percent were killed in Briscoe County. Additionally, 250 mule deer were killed in Briscoe County with the permit fee alone averaging $100.00 for each permit. This illustrates the tremendous potential of the wildlife resources in our own community. Quail, dove, turkey and other game animals are also abundant.

Officer Stevens indicated that these resources should be managed as any other resource. For economic benefit of the landowners and community, as well as the physical welfare of the wildlife, game animals should be systematically controlled and utilized to the best advantage. The development of this resource in our area will depend on how effective organized efforts move in that direction.

Upcoming hunting seasons to remember are: Dove: Sept. 1-Oct. 14, afternoon only, Jan. 1-Jan. 16, all day; Quail: No. 13-Feb. 13; Deer and Turkey: Nov. 20-Dec. 5; Aoudad Sheep: Nov. 13-Nov. 19.

Richard Lanham of Sterling City, a former resident of Quitaque, was in Quitaque Tuesday on business and visiting with the Buddy Morris', eating lunch with them. He had spent the night in Silverton with his sister, Mrs. Josephine Mallow.

SID RETURNS HOME

On July 26, Betty Jo (Mrs. Jerrel Gaddy) my daughter arrived at my house from her home in Dallas. She remained here until Thursday, the 29th, at which time she and I took off for S. T.'s home in Richardson, at which place she left me as she continued on to her home in Dallas. Then on Saturday, the 31st, we all, Bogans galore, and some friends, met for the purpose of celebrating, belatedly, my birthday, July 25. Even though it was belated I did my part of celebrating. It was a wonderful meal, and an enjoyable get-together. I enjoyed ALL of it. After this good time together, and at going home, I joined Barney and E. M. for their home in Nacogdoches. On Sunday, Barney and I went to the First Baptist Church of Nacogdoches for the morning worship service. Then on Wednesday Wayne Campbell, a nephew of mine from Castor, Louisiana, came over for me. We drove from Nacogdoches to Shreveport, Louisiana and from there to Minden, Louisiana to visit my sister, Vida Campbell, who is in a rest home. On our way to Castor from there we stopped at Gibsland, Louisiana to visit Mrs. Helen Bogan Reno, another relative of mine, and during the conversation we told her of our plans for the next day, which included several miles traveling to the north and east and to our surprise Mrs. Reno said, "I am going with you, two and Mrs. Willie Bogan; I have a brand-new Ford car with 521 miles on it and I want someone to help me get some miles on it." She was planning a trip in a few days, and I thought, "Why in the world look further for help to get some miles on that new car?"

The next day, Wayne, Mrs. Willie Bogan and I took off to Gibsland, Louisiana where we picked up Helen and the new Ford car and took off. I think when we drove it back in the shed at Helen's house it had something over one hundred new miles on it. On this journey we went by Mrs. Velma Wise's house. She used to live in this community and is a sister-in-law to Mrs. Gladys Wise. From there to Homer, Louisiana where we had lunch. From there to the "Old Sharon Church" where my people attended church for a long time. My father and mother are buried there. I first joined the Baptist Church there. They have a new building. It sure is pretty. And so is the cemetery.

From there almost due south, I believe it is, we arrived at the old Bogan home place, where my father owned a pretty good sized farm for that country, 366 acres, I believe it was. The old house is gone. You can hardly tell where it was. I have a good picture of it, though. From there to Ruston, Louisiana which is the parish seat of Lincoln Parish. Only state in the union that calls them parishes instead of counties. From there back to Gibsland, where we left Helen and the new car after a good meal of Kentucky Fried Chicken. Then we were on our way to Castor for the night.

The next day Wayne and I drove to Coshatta, Louisiana for lunch, after which we drove across the Red River sightseeing, and believe me, we saw something that was worth seeing. It was fields of

Couple Honored At Housewarming

The Murry Wayne Morrisons were honored Monday evening, August 9, with a housewarming. Hostesses for the occasion were Mmes. Ruth Ann Conner, Jan Merrell, Mary Pigg, Jean Rice, Velda Ross, Brenda Phelps, Becky Hamilton, Johnnie Bell Pigg, Kay Myers, Patricia Maupin, Jackie Carpenter and Barbara Saul. Their gift was a pair of gold and crystal scales. The scales were used with beaded fruit for the centerpiece on the dining table which was laid with a hand crocheted cloth made by the honoree, Judy Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrison were pinned with corsages made of three dish cloths. Two of the cloths were put on a plastic spoon with measuring spoons, and one was fixed by itself for Mr. Morrison. Other gifts received by the couple were a gold and crystal bowl to match the scales, a Haeger covered dish, eight cups, tray, candle holders, sugar and creamer. A quilt made by Mrs. W. E. Morrison, Murry Wayne's grandmother, a blanket, bedspread, a set of glasses on a tray, pepper grinder, teapot, three plants, two towel sets, a set of classic doves, maple paper towel rack, a picture of fruit done in needlepoint, were other gifts.

There were many friends and relatives who came for the occasion. Some out-of-town guests in-cotton at least shoulder high. It was in the Red River bottomland, which is very rich land. On our way back to Castor we took a different route on which we saw several interesting things, one of which was a ranch home of one of the noted baseball players, Joe Adcock of 1954. Remember him? That evening, after work, Barney and E.M. came to Castor after me, after a good supper at Willie Bogan's house, we started to Nacogdoches and just as we crossed Red River at the same place we had, car trouble and had to call Wayne to come get us. He did, and we spent the rest of the night with him. The next morning we made it back to the car and on to Nacogdoches by 9:45 a.m. Sunday morning to church at the First Methodist Church. Then a rest day Monday, Tuesday evening, after work, Barney and E. M. took me back to Richardson to S. T.'s. They were on their way to Denton and from there to Arkansas. The next few days spent with S. T.'s family and saw a small part of Dallas. Friday afternoon about 12:45 p.m. S. T. and I left for Quitaque. We arrived here long before sundown. It seemed to us the sun would never go down since we were where we could see the sun set. It was real pretty. I will guarantee you could not see it set that beautifully in Louisiana. I enjoyed my trip very much, but I am glad, glad to be home.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Davis of Dallas spent from Friday until Monday visiting her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Harmon. On Sunday, the ladies drove to Lubbock to visit their brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fletcher.

numerous times. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson flew to Mississippi and back home.
