Prayer Outlawed At School Events

Football season opened last week at Valley School, and the game began as usual - except for the tradition of opening with a prayer or invocation. Due to a February ruling by the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, such invocations and benedictions at high school football games "violates the Establishment Clause of the United States Constitution.

The court made it clear that a school district violates the Establishment Clause if it allows someone to recite a prayer over the loudspeaker at a football game. It does not matter whether the person leading the prayer is a school district employee, a member of the clergy, or a student. Because the Fifth Circuit Court has jurisdiction over Texas, Louisiana, and Mississippi, this decision is binding on all Texas School districts.

Although this decision has been appealed to the United States Supreme Court, all school districts must comply unless the Supreme Court rules otherwise.

School districts that continue to allow school-sponsored prayer at football games are taking legal risks...and the consequences of disregarding the court's order could be very

Students may, however, pray on their own (individually or in groups) at football games as long as they aren't leading the entire crowd in prayer, and as long as school district employees aren't involved. Students can spontaneously pray among themselves at any time, even at school-sponsored events, as long as no school district employee (teacher, coach, aide, janitor, or otherwise) is involved in any way.

School Districts are to discontinue school-sponsored prayer at all school-related activities, except at graduation. School officials of Turkey/Quitaque ISD said the decision for Valley School's response will

The garage sale has been a great success. Approximately $1,800.00 worth of merchandise has been sold. It takes both the giver and the seller to make that kind of money. Many, many items have been donated and are continuing to be donated for this cause.

The people in Turkey must want a museum on Main Street. Much enthusiasm is shown by everyone involved in this project. Margie Pinkerton has done an excellent job planning for the Museum and organizing workers for the extended days of the garage sale.

Not many furniture items have been received but if you have any, please call Margie Pinkerton at 806/423-1230, Lawana Cruse at 806/423-1273 or Marie Cruse at 806/423-1420 They will make arrangements for the pickup of these items.

Life is full of interesting happenings, some good, some bad, some that matter and some that really mean nothing to anyone. Most of the happenings are really of little consequence until we decide that they are a major event. If we like someone, it is an occurance but if we are in love with someone, it is a major happening. When it first happens this is all that we think about, all we talk about and the one we love is the only one we really care about being with for any length of time. If we are given a party for our birthday it is a great happening but if it is a surprise one, it really is some-thing wonderful! When we are small children, our parents are very important to us and we would not like them to leave us but as we grow older, we come to realize how very important that our parents are to us, the life we have and the life we would like to lead in the future

If we want to have a pet, we can think of nothing else but acquiring that certain pet. After we get the pet, we come to realize how very special that pet is when they are totally dependent upon us for their life---food, shelter and love. Come to think of it this is the same with a child when they come to live with us. They are totally dependent upon us to give the food, shelter love and care that they deserve and need. Some of the happenings are not as pleasant as a new love, a new puppy or a new baby in the home

We all tend to have unhappy happenings in our lives too. Such as the loss of a loved one, the death of a favored pet, moving away of a good friend, a new teacher that gives very hard assignments quite often, a co-worker that is hard to deal with, a family member that gives everyone a hard time, or a bill that has the amount entered for you to pay or even mistakes that we make in

Mistakes are so very easy to make. Sometimes they are very hard to correct and make the person injured by the mistake feel that the mistake was not intentional. We all need to take another's mistakes like we would like for them to take ours, with a smile. I read the following poem recently and thought it might give us a smile about all the problems that our computers give us-mistakes we make because of clumsy fingers, mis-information or just not having the right knowledge.

DOWN TRUCK CAR DIFFERENTIAL SIGN ON SEPTEMBER 1, 1999.

Speed Limit The Same For Cars And Trucks On Most Texas Roads

Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT) began removing the 60 mph day/55 mph night truck speed limit signs on all inter state, U. S. and state highways on September 1, 1999. This is a result of House Bill 676 passed by the Texas Legislature 76th Session. The new law applies to both rural and urban areas and states that large truck (including 18 wheelers) will have the same speed limit as cars on interstate, U.S. and state highways

This new law does not impact Farm-to-Market (FM) and Ranchto-Market (RM) roads. The maximum truck speed limit on these roads will remain at 60 mph during the day and 55 mph at night. There are approximately 41,000 miles of FM and RM in Texas. The maximum speed limit for cars on these roadways will remain at 70 mph day and 65 mph at night.

Having all vehicles traveling at a uniform speed is considered safer than having vehicles traveling at a variety of speeds on the same roadway. The uniform speed reudces the chance of conflict

Motorists are reminded that they should always drive at a speed that is safe and appropriate for the conditions. Speeds should be reduced during bad weather and during other poor driving condi-

Crashes can be prevented if motorists practice safe driving habits. They should obey the speed limit, use safety belts properly pay attention to traffic and nevera drink and drive.

Star Party Considered Huge Success Saturday

The Star Party given by the Ft. Worth Sidewalk Astromoners was considered a huge success when over 150 persons arrived to view the stars Saturday evening at Carpock Canyons State Park. After a very informative slide show before dark, the group enjoyed viewing the night sky through the 10 large aperture tele-

This large group of people consisted of visitors to the state park, local residents, residents of the surrounding area and quite a few school children. After the clouds cleared away following showers in the area Saturday, they were able to view the galaxies, star clusters and nebulas. The planets were out in full glory in the dark night time sky. Those attending said it was quite an experience and they would enjoy returning to view the night sky again when the program was offered next year.

Rusty Griffin, who grew up in Quitaque, belongs to the Ft. Worth Sidewalk Astronomers and was instrumental in getting the group to come to Caprock Canyons State Park. He stated that they are looking forward to coming again next year

Outstanding players included Derrick Cruse who threw for three touchdowns and ran for another. Chris Leal caught two touchdown passes and Aurelino Regalado caught one
