Bison Project Well On the Way! Much To Occur In The Future

Caprock Partners Foundation met at the Quitaque Community Center Tuesday, May 12, 1998.

Roy Welch, head of the Bison Project, Shirley Jones, Interpretive planner; Danny Sweptson District Director from Canyon and Ruben Canto, Director from San Angelo were in attendance to brief the group on the progress of the Bison Project. They announced that Vickie Sybert of the Lubbock office was the site manager for the interpretive project.

The Bison holding pens and pasture fences have been completed. Work is now going forward on the working pens which will be built on the same order as the holding pens but will include working chutes for vaccination and branding to handle the bison. The working pens will be completed by end of August this year.

Items still needed for this project are a chute made special for bison calves, concrete for alleyway floor, pipe and cable for the pens, and a bulk feed storage bin which will hold 10 ton of feed.

Plans for the future include the redevelopment of the interpretive center. In the future visitors to the park will be able to trace the history of the land, people and bison through the ages. Students will be able to come to this area and see the how, where and why of the past.

The annual budget for the bison program will need approximately $100,000. Plans are in progress to set up an endowment for one million dollars to generate this $100,000 for future generations.

Chevrolet's Suburban and Tahoe division will present the Interpretive bison project with $50,000. It will be matched by $50,000 from the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation but the bison project needs a matching $50,000. Therefore, sponsorship for the project is needed and most welcome. The completion date for the project will be April 1999. If you would like to be a part of this continuation of history, contact any Caprock Partners Foundation member.

Plans are to use these monies for the restructure of the interpretive center, the education of the children of Texas about the connection of the bison herds to the history of man in the great plains.

Pens and fences have been built by work crews from the Texas Department of Criminal Justice's Tulia Transfer Facility and Texas Parks and Wildlife Department employees. Also, interpretive exhibits will be constructed on the park using native rock when possible. Inmate labor will continue to be used in construction of the projects.

To date $448,000 has been spent for the Bison project. This includes not only money but supplies as well. $275,000 has been donated, the rest was in the Texas Parks and Wildlife budget. This does not include Texas Parks and Wildlife Department required manpower to get this project off the ground. The working pens will need $90,000 alone. A 30 foot by 40 foot hay and feed barn has also been constructed.

Geoff Hulse, Caprock Canyons State Park Manager announced that Caprock Canyons State Park will be having an exhibit at the Cowboy Symposium in Lubbock this year. The focus of the exhibit will be the bison program.

All but one member of the board of the Caprock Partners Foundation was in attendance as well as several interested citizens.

Quitaque Lions Club Celebrates 50th Anniversary

Saturday, May 23rd was a special day for the Quitaque Lions Club. The Club was chartered May 19, 1948 with twenty-five names listed as charter members. Last Friday evening its 50th anniversary was celebrated with a banquet prepared by the ladies of the First United Methodist Church.

Special guests included District Governor Joe W. Walters and his wife, Johnny, of Friona, two Past District Governors, Earl Long and Rick Garrett both of Amarillo, and the present Vice District Governor, Phillip De Hoyos of Amarillo. The late Odell Setliff was the first Boss Lion of the Quitaque Lions Club. One of his sons, Bobby and his wife of Canyon were among the special guests. The Turkey Lions Club sponsored the Quitaque Club when it was organized. A significant number of their club members was present.

Five past sweethearts, Lila (Jones) Ramsey, Quitaque; Judy (Colvin) Morrison, Lubbock; Chlonez (Woods) Starkey, Slaton, Charlene (Bailey) Rothwell, Plainview; Jeana (Smith) Tarpley, Shallowater and Julie Ross graced the banquet with their presence.

A broad spectrum of the past fifty years membership was well represented by a large number of past members and their spouses along with widows of past members. A good percentage of the present membership and their wives was in attendance despite so many other end of school and holiday week-end activities.

Of the twenty-five charter members only three are now living. And, one remains with the club today, D. L. "Jake" Merrell. He was honored with a fifty year membership certificate. Jake also has a fifty year perfect attendance record with the club.

O. R. Stark, Jr. presented a glowing report of the Quitaque Lions Club's service to the Quitaque community over the past 50 years. He reported that the Lions Club played a significant role in almost every important event contributing to the development, progress, beautification and improvement of the City of Quitaque and the surrounding area.

Jimmy Ross, a Past District governor and currently an International Director representing the State of Texas inspired the group with a brief overview of the Lions Club working internationally and visions for the future of the Quitaque Lions Club. In his world wide travels Jimmy reported that people all over the world wanted to know about the town of Quitaque. Especially, they want to know how to pronounce the name.

A clear message emerged from the banquet and the following program, Quitaque Lions Club has a glowing past; it has plans and a determination to see a bright future.

THEN & NOW!

By Eunice McFall

Today as I write this I have just returned from the cemetery here at Quitaque where the Memorial Day Program was held. The impressive program was presented by the VFW from Tulia in conjunction with the local Lions Club. The new United States Flag which was raised to fly over the cemetery was presented to the association by Corky Garner. This particular flag has flown over the United States Capitol in Washington DC and was presented to Corky in honor of his father John Luther Garner.

As Delos Johnson spoke about the price that has been paid for the freedom that we enjoy today, tears were in many eyes and hearts as they remembered those that gave the ultimate gift to their families, friends and country, their lives.

Today we would not be living in such a free nation if not for those who cared enough to give their all for those of us whom they never had the opportunity to meet. It seems that Memorial Day is one holiday that is just left alone. Sure people celebrate. They go to the lake as it is the first long week-end of the summer. They travel to camp out in the state parks since they have some time off. They cook out in the back yard for the family or perhaps even the whole block but do any of these give any thought as to why they are having a long week-end and a holiday?

If not for those who gave their all, there would not be any long week-end or a holiday to celebrate. We need to stop and give tribute to those who have kept the freedoms of the United States of America available to one and all. Sure, I realize that it is not the perfect government or the perfect nation but can you find a better one in the world today?

Can you find one that you would want to try to exist in instead of here? Do you think those who gave their lives for this country died in vain? If the United States were to be threatened today would you be willing to give your all so that others who come after you would have the freedom of choice such as we have today? Are we as patriotic as they were during the two World Wars?

Yes, we need to remember those who gave so very much so that we can go where we please, work at the job we choose, speak out when we feel wronged with no fear of retaliation, run for office if we so desire and travel throughout our great nation and gaze in awe at the majesty that has been preserved for us.

WIDE OPEN

by ShaVonne D. Taylor (student at MCHS)

This last weekend we celebrated Memorial Day. While we were out at the pool having a good time, lying in the sun and swimming in the clear blue, ice cold water at the Roaring Springs Ranch Club, it dawned on me how lucky I was to be able to do this. I started thinking how glad I am that all the soldiers who went to war were man enough to go fight for our freedom. If it were not for them we would not be doing what we wanted right now. I will forever be thankful for those brave men who left their families, to fight for the future generations' freedom. I don't think that I could ever leave my family to go fight in a war that I might not even live through, to get to enjoy the results that I gave my life for.

You must feel very special, knowing that that someone was very giving and caring. They did not just die for their own freedom, but for the freedom of everyone else in the world, and they probably did not even know one-fourth of the people that they were fighting for.

Well, I hope everyone had a memorable and safe weekend. And a big thank you to anyone and everyone who has ever fought in a war.

Lest We Forget: Veterans Remember USS Yorktown

(from Amarillo News - Globe)

Amid the uncertainty and thunder of battle, Jake Huckaboy's heart sank along with his brother's smoldering vessel.

"You sure get a strange feeling when you're standing on your flight deck, and see your brother's ship go down," said Huckaboy, an Amarilloan who served on the aircraft carrier USS Enterprise during the Battle of Midway in 1942.

Huckaboy's brother Don was among the crew of the USS Yorktown, another carrier engaged in the battle, but one nearly so fortunate. Hit hard by Japanese bombs and torpedoes, the Yorktown listed precariously and was ordered abandoned on the afternoon of June 4.

Don Huckaboy was a survivor, and after several very scary hours in the water, he was rescued by a destroyer in the area.

Rural Texans Don't Buckle Up

provided by Calley Payne

Figures from the Texas Transportation Institute at Texas A&M University indicate that people who live in the country don't see the need to wear their seatbelts. Statewide, 78 percent of Texans buckle up. In rural counties that number plunges to 48 percent. That could explain why the largest increase in fatalities is on rural county roads.

The Huckaboy boys -- products of Turkey, Texas -- were not reunited for months after Midway. But now they get together regularly, as they did recently in Amarillo for the 57th reunion of Fighting Squadron 42, Don Huckaboy's aircraft-support group aboard the Yorktown.

Jake Huckaboy, an honorary member of the squadron, served as host for the five-day reunion. He commented "I think you can dwell on World War II too much." "Yes, I get aggravated when my grandkids don't know what the old man did. I think people should remember all the wars. But you've got to go forward. I don't remember our generation begin big on knowing about the Civil War."

"We like to think we did so much, then the people who fought in Korea came along, and then Vietnam, and they surely think that they did it all. I guess we all did."

JOB OPPORTUNITIES FOR THE PANHANDLE

U.S. Census Gears Up For Regional Project
[Dallas, Tx.] The regional office of the U.S. Census Bureau is gearing up for an "address listing" project covering all 26 counties that make up the Texas Panhandle and it means lots of jobs will be available for local residents. Scheduled to begin in August, the project will send out census field workers into ever neighborhood and community in the Panhandle to physically verify all household addresses and thereby update Census Bureau maps. "The work will mainly be on weekends and evenings, so we're looking not only for people who are unemployed or who are retirees," explains regional recruiter Donna Stovall, "we're also looking for people who want to schedule census work around their current employment."

Full time and part-time jobs are available in two categories of work:

- (1) Census Field Workers, earning $8.00 per hour, who will update address lists; and
- (2) Crew Leaders, earning $9.50 per hour, who will manage teams of Census Workers.

As local people know their own communities better than anyone else, the Census Bureau especially hopes to find workers who reside in the communities where the fieldwork will be conducted. Moreover, the Bureau is seeking individuals who are not afraid to contact people and ask them questions. "This is not an office job," Stovall emphasizes. "it's out in the field locating addresses and conducting door-to-door interviews."

Applicants must pass a written exam of basic skills. The testing will start at the end of May and will be conducted in Amarillo and other locations throughout the Panhandle. Work begins in early August and continues thru late September. Employees will be paid to attend a training session and will be reimbursed 31¢ per mile for using their own vehicle for fieldwork.

To qualify, applicants must be at least 18 years old and U.S. citizens. 4-H Curriculum Teaches Importance of Water

provided by Calley Payne
We drink it. We bathe in it. We cook with it. Water is an essential part of our lives, yet its importance is often overlooked. That's why 4-H youth development specialist Dr. Ron Howard has helped develop a workbook for 4th graders.

It's called Investigating Water and it covers the physical properties of water as well as water quality and conservation. In the section on the three states of water, there is a lesson on how water is in gas form all around us. It involves watching as condensation forms on a glass filled with ice.

The Investigating Water workbook will be available for the next school year. It's available to schools, home schoolers and other groups.

Turkey Happenings

By J. Guest
Amanda and Michael Mullin and a friend of Michael's enjoyed an active, fun-filled weekend with their dad, Rick Mullin. The highlight of their weekend was hiking in the Caprock Canyons, seeing what they could see and experiencing the beauty of the countryside. They saw three antelope, numerous deer and I'm sure other canyon wildlife: rabbits, lizards, birds, etc.

Hoss and Lillian Mullin enjoyed having their granddaughter, Vickie Howard, and her two children, Clayton and Carly of North Richland Hills, Tx in their home for a couple of nights. Dean and Jean of Quitaque, Rick Mullin and Joyce Guest also came over to play with and laugh over the antics of the great grandchildren. All had Wednesday lunch in Joyce's home. Vickie had visited her grandmother, Lois Melton, former Turkey resident, at Memphis, Lois, who has had a lot of health problems, is doing well at this time.

Brenda Coker's Team Wins State

Brenda Coker, coach and teacher at Sabinal, took a boy's double team and a girl's double team to tennis to state in Austin last Saturday. The Sabinal boys' team won first place and the girls' team won second at state.

When Brenda called her parents late Saturday night to share the good news she was quite excited.

Brenda said she had a lot of Sabinal fans in Austin, but she also had one fan from Turkey, Ronald Eudy. Ronald's mother, Mozelle Eudy, had told Ronald about the event so he made arrangements to be there. She was quite pleased to see Ronald.

Precinct Four New County Barn

When the Texas Highway Department moved from Turkey, Commissioner Coker traveled to Childress numerous times to talk to the Texas Highway Department about acquiring the State Barn for Precinct Four.

Word was received recently that the Highway Department had decided to turn over the State Barn in Turkey to County Precinct Four, for a reasonable amount.

Also this week Precinct Four acquired a new Caterpillar. The bid from Caterpillar was accepted at Commissioners Court last week.

For these accomplishments, we are grateful to U.F. Coker! Thanks for your many hours of service to this Community.

Jeff Blythe, recent graduate of Abilene Christian University and grandson of Oleta and Louis Randell, came by for a visit Friday night. Jeff is in the process of moving all his things from Abilene to Amarillo, and then making Decisions about his Future.

Good Guys, Buster Hanna, Louis Randell, Ray Whitaker and Don Turner, spent part of their holiday installing two new air conditioners in the Senior Citizens' Room. Good Girl, Oleta Randell, prepared sandwiches to keep the guys' energy levels up for the work they were doing. The Senior Citizens will enjoy better cooling while they are feasting and playing all kinds of games Tuesday night at 6:00 p.m.

Memorial Days are always touching. About 30 or 40 people gathered at the cemetery to think back not only to the veterans who gave their lives for their country but also to those who have served in any way to protect those of us who live in this great country. Brother Early, Methodist minister, stated it so well when he said that our veterans' job was commitment to duty, our job is to continue to remember them for as long as we are able. Those who died for us gave the ultimate sacrifice, but all the others gave tremendous sacrifices too: loss of family togetherness, loss of buddies, health, emotional well-being.....SO LET'S REMEMBER!

Buddy Colvin. What can we say? After 2 1/2 terms of service as Mayor of Turkey, you are leaving us. We are grateful for the excellent way in which you served and represented this town. Your advice to our new mayor was great: "A good thing to remember is to work with a construction gang, not with a wrecking crew." We wish you well now in your other endeavors. Grazie, Spacibo, Danke, Merci, Gracias - in other words, Thank You!

Another Good Kid

Katrina Stewart, daughter of Laura and Danny Stewart, was the recipient of a $300.00 scholarship from the Turkey Family and Community Education Club. She is planning to attend South Plains College for two years, transfer to West Texas A&M University and graduate with a bachelor degree in child development. I have personally observed Katrina in action during a vacation Bible School. She is great with Kids!

Problems No Longer Problems

When the word gets around to the people of this town, and others, that there is a need, they respond. The Senior Citizens' room needed two new air conditioners and a better stove. Two alert men, Buster Hanna and Louis Randell, read or heard about a used one, like new, so after checking with the Treasurer, they went to Amarillo. They discovered some minor defect and the owners lowered the price $50.00 (a savings). Buster and Louis spent hours cleaning and installing the stove.

In pursuing a loan from Memphis State Bank for the AC's, the owner learned it was for Senior Citizens and donated $50.00 to help in the purchase. Louis and Buster found two AC's in Amarillo at Sight and Sound, but the store discovered they actually didn't have exactly the ones for which they had bargained. The store donated $50.00 for the trouble they had caused. A deal was made. The old AC's were sold to individuals. Ray Whitaker donated all the wiring and supplies for a 210 outlet, as well as his service in helping to install the AC's. Louis, Buster, and Don Turner were also very much involved in the installation. Donations of $200.00 from TAFCE, $50.00 from the Heritage Foundation, $125.00 from Senior Citizens members, and an impending donation from the Turkey Lions Club have been made. WHO HAS A PROBLEM? ISN'T THAT AMAZING????

The secret of staying young is to live honestly, eat slowly and lie about your age.

"He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God."

-II Samuel 23:3

The greatness achieved by our founding fathers was to a great extent due to their exceptional qualities of leadership. However, in spite of this they believed that they could accomplish nothing without the help of the Almighty. They felt the awesome responsibility which they bore for the destiny of our nation and its citizens; and they prayed for divine guidance before making the decisions on which our freedom and our system of justice would depend for all time. They saw themselves as merely the instruments of God's will, and it was this very humility that earned them their place in the history books and in our hearts. We who are responsible for only ourselves and our families could learn much from our founding fathers; therefore, we should attend our House of Worship and thank God for their foresight which has allowed us, among other things, to choose it.

SPACE MISSION BIBLE CAMP

First Baptist Church of Quitaque invites children to Blast Off at Space Mission Bible Camp.

This year our church is reaching for the stars. We're blasting off for Space Mission Bible Camp, where kids won't find any boring reminders of tedious schoolwork. Our Space Mission Bible Camp program will provide fun, memorable Bible-learning activities for kids of all ages. Each day kids will sing catchy songs, play team-work-building games, nibble tasty treats from Mission Munchies, soar through Bible adventures, and create Space Crafts they'll take home and play with all summer long.

"Space Mission Bible Camp is a five-day mission of God's love. Kids will get to take part in a worldwide mission project that will reach needy children across the globe. At 11:30 each day we'll conclude with a festive Mission Send-Off Show Time program that gets everyone involved in celebrating what they've learned. Family members and friends are encouraged to join us daily for this special time. We hope Space Mission Bible Camp will launch our community on a mission of God's love."

Space Mission Bible Camp begins June 8th and continues through June 12th. "Astronauts" will train at The First Baptist Church of Quitaque each day from 9:00 a.m. until Noon. For more information call Karen Allen (806) 455-1295.

Extreme Fire Danger Predicted for Summer

provided by Pammy Millican, CEA-Ag

Mexico is on fire and Texas Forest Service officials say Texas could be in for a fiery summer as well. El-Nino rains promoted plant growth that the drought is quickly turning into fuel for fire. Parts of the state are extremely dry already and it's just going to get worse.

Texas Forest Service director Jim Hull says the El Nino rains encouraged the growth of grasses and plants that will turn into fuel for wildfires as summer sets in.

Ornamental Grasses Add Texture to a Landscape

When thinking about landscapes, we typically think flowers, shrubs and trees, but don't rule out ornamental grasses. Extension horticulturist Dr. Doug Welsh says ornamental grasses add texture with their strap leaves in contrast to the course texture of the more common landscape plants.

Lemon grass is popular. It emits a lemony smell. Welsh also likes zebra grass with it's unusual horizontal stripes. He says blue stem and muhly grass work well since they're native grasses. Purple fountain grass is popular, but a hard freeze can kill it, so in many places it has to be replanted each year.

'Let all things be done decently and in order.'

-I Corinthians 14:40

If you are like a lot of us, you are hardworking, generous, kind-hearted, and in fact virtually the who list of Boy Scout attributes; but you have never learned the secret of being organized. You can quickly turn your house or office into a state of chaos, because you try to do too many jobs at once; and since you can't bear to throw anything away, you never have enough storage space. Moreover, you overload your circuits because you are too public-spirited to say no to any worthy cause; and so you are too busy to serve any of them properly. Nevertheless, take the time to attend your House of Worship, for it will help you bring neatness and order into your life. There are only so many hours in the day, and you should let the Lord show you how to make the most to them. After all, He arranged the workings of the whole universe, so He can easily do the same for you.
