But a local resident of Hereford, Charles Lyles, and his family have changed all that. Lyles began an unusual business venture back in February making quail easier to come by in Here-ford. Lyles raises quail commer-cially on his land just outside

"I enjoy quail meat a great deal but didn't like to drive for hours to hunt them. Quail is not native to Deaf Smith County, so I decided to start raising them commercially for area residents to enjoy," Lyles said.

Lyles originally is from Turkey. After graduating from high school, he entered the Army as a medi-cal service officer. He spent four years at Fort Sill, Oklahoma and Fort Polk, Louisana before leav-ing the service as a First Lieut-

As the two squads warmed up before the scrimmage it appeared that the Kangaroos, a Class A team, had the Patriot squad outmanned both in numbers and in size. It turned out that the Patriots had other ideas and con-ceded the Kangaroos nothing. In crimmages of this type there are to kickoffs or punts. A team is given the ball on its own 30 yard ne and is allowed to run 20 plays, the team makes a first down it is allowed to continue downfield If the team does not make the first down the ball is moved back to the 30 yard line. Each squad is allowed two possessions (40) plays. The Kress squad may have had a bit of an edge offensively but was not able to score during its two possessions but the Pa-triots were not able to score eith-

When the two varsity squads got together the outcome was much the same as the JV squads. The Kangaroos, boasting an allstate lineman and well-regarded in their division, started moving the ball on their first series of plays and appeared headed for a score. As the 'Roos moved into scoring territory, however, the Pa-triots jarred the ball carrier loose from the ball and then recovered the fumble to stop that drive. The Patriots stopped the visitors the remainder of the evening, but ould not muster a scoring drive of their own.

Coach Rick Dill stated that he vas pretty well satisfied with his squad. The Patriots came out of the scrimmage in pretty good con-dition, although Kenneth Helms suffered a sprained ankle that is not believed to be too serious. Coach Dill has been holding Ken neth out of the rough drills this

In going over the upcoming scrimmage against the Crosbyton Chiefs, Coach Dill said that he expects Crosbyton probably to be just about as tough as Kress, and that they will probably be heavier than the Kangaroos.

The Patriots will open the new football season Friday night of next week against the Chillicothe Eagles, the team Valley has opened each season with since Valey has been in existence.

You could say that Mrs. Buck (Ora) Hale has been putting it together in Hereford for 21 years. But then again, Mrs. Hale does "The thing I enjoy about sewing" much more than that.

Rev. Kenneth Bass of Service Memorial United Methodist Church performed the ceremony. The bride's sister Miss Karen Mayfield and Jeff Isom were honor attendants.

The newlyweds will live in Denton where Mrs. Muse is a student at North Texas State University and her husband is employed by Texas Woman's University.

There are many school days wh en the weather does not permit our children to play outdoors. These days are very hard on the children being confined to one ro-om. The situation could be helped some. If anyone has toys o games your children have outgr games your children have outgrown, we would greatly appreciate using them. Some of the appropriate toys would be Lincoln Logs, Tinker Toys, Dominoes, wooden puzzles, checkers, or games suitable for children 6-10 years. Any toys you might like to contribute could be brought to Jean Rice's office at Valley School To. Rice's office at Valley School. Teachers and children thank you.

TAYLORS HONORED AT WEDDING TEA

A gift tea honoring Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Franklin Wise Taylor was held at 1128 Lakeview Drive, Mesquite, by the Copeland family owners of Flowers by Cherly.

The bride and groom stood with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Taylor, both Mesquite Indep-endent School District teachers, and the groom's aunt, Mrs. Eula Merrell of Clarendon, Texas, when receiving guests.

Miss Rebecca Lynn Fenley rece ived guests and Miss Penny Richardson was in charge of the registry. Miss Lisa Hearn, Miss Elisa Nutt, and the groom's best man, Dr. James Gourley, register-

The refreshments table was beautifully decorated in pale yellow with silver appointments. Mo Curtis Cole, a friend of the Taylor family, prepared the refreshments which consisted of a fresh-cut melon filled with melon balls and fruits; finger sandwiches, cheese balls, sausage puffs, and other hors d'oeuvres, served with a peach, lemon tea blend punch.

Mr. Cole also entertained with nusical selections.

Bob Self went for a medical check-up last week. He received a good report.

Mrs. Dora Hawkins drove to Lamesa and spent Saturday night and Sunday visiting her sister. Ruby Busby.

Cold war.

It was bad enough we had to fight the British for our freedom. But on top of that, we had to fight the weather, too.

Because winter at Valley Forge meant snow, ice, and freezing temperatures. All serious enemies to a makeshift army without proper clothing, not nearly enough food, and short on ammunition. It was an army long on courage, but short on money.

And then the money came. Some $27,000,000 from the pockets of new Americans.

They had waited for this real vacation - this long trip - for years. But this time it was different, this time he wouldn't be going back to his job.

At first, retirement seemed frightening, like being shut off from the mainstream of life. He had seen too many men age beyond their years, after their career ended. He had no wish to be on the sidelines. He and his wife could have moved to a warmer elimate and just have taken it easy. He didn't want that.

So, before he left home, he had a long talk with his minister.

He found that there was plenty a man his age could do. Financially se-cure, he could afford to volunteer for a job. In fact, through the Church there was work he could do that would spread to the farthest corners of the world. Right now, he is enjoying this vacation. He is savoring every moment of Because, when he gets home, he's going to lead a full and useful life. And
