

Cisco Receives 4 Inches Of Rain

The Cisco area received rainfall that measured some four inches during thunderstorms Sunday and Monday, bringing needed moisture to lawns and gardens and benefiting Lake Cisco. Cooler temperatures accompanied the rainy weather.

With Lake Bernie full and spilling over into a creek that runs to Lake Cisco and the Battle Creek pumps running intermittently, Lake Cisco's gain was expected to be appreciable, City Manager Mike Moore reported. It will be a few days before the gain can be measured, he added.

North shore residents reported that Lake Cisco received some two and a half inches of rain Sunday and about a half inch Monday.

The Sunday thunderstorm occurred during the noon-hour. Lightning struck a tree at 702 East 23rd Street and the West Texas Utilities Company sub-station on East 5th Street, knocking out electricity in the town for up to an hour.

Manager Jack Kennedy of WTUC reported that the lightning knocked out a circuit breaker at the substation and local workers had to re-fuse the station to restore service. All circuits were back in service by 1:25 p.m. — an hour after the interruption.

The city hall rain gauge registered 2.5 inches for Sunday and 1.3 Monday.

South of town, rain gauges were empty for the two day period. Scranton received no rain Sunday and three-tenths of an inch Monday.

The Cisco Volunteer Fire Department took equipment to East 23rd Street after lightning hit the tree. There was no blaze and only the tree had damage.

Weather forecasters called for thunderstorm conditions to continue most of this week.

Historical Society Discusses Moving Of Buildings

Plans for financing the moving of several historical buildings to downtown locations were studied by members of the Cisco Historical Society at a meeting Monday night at the First National Bank's community room. Dr. Chief Brown, president, presided.

Several old buildings have been donated to the society to be moved to permanent locations, and the re-location work will require considerable expense, it was pointed out. Fund raising ideas will be studied further.

The society also discussed ideas for taking advantage of potential commercial development of downtown historical buildings.

The society's next meeting will be Monday night, Aug. 19. Mrs. Ayres Cermin is secretary of the society.

attracted 46 players. Under the format they used, each player teed off at each hole. After the tee-off, one dice was rolled to determine the player whose drive was used. This, Mr. Puryear said, cut down on the good scores of the previous week.

The team of Tracy Owens, George Owens, Pat Owens and Bruce Stovall had a score of 31 — three under par — to win top honors.

HALL OF REMARKS

BY HERREL HALLMARK

THANK GOD for the rains we finally received in Cisco. The grounds were beginning to really dry out and yards were beginning to look bad before Sunday's rains.

On Sunday rains started falling about 12 noon and continued for most of the afternoon. Again on Monday rains started falling just after noon and fell throughout the afternoon.

Tuesday, before noon, the skies were beginning to cloud up again but at the time this column was written no rain had fallen.

One person reported small hail just south of town on Monday.

Along with the rains, there was also a welcome relief from the hot temperatures we had been suffering during the month. However, high humidity still made local weather seem sticky and not real pleasant.

Again, we say Thanks to the Lord for the much needed rains.

SIDEWALK SALES were planned by Cisco merchants this Thursday and Friday, according to the Cisco Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber helps sponsors such sales several times a year.

Make plans now to be in town during the two days and shop your local merchants for bargains. Now is the time of year to take advantage of such sales and shop for school clothes and supplies, since school will be starting in a little over a month.

A YOUTH REVIVAL is planned at Calvary Baptist Church Sunday, July 28, through Wednesday, July 31, with nightly services at 7:30 p.m.

letters to the editor ...

Dear Editor,
There are times when Cisco comes under fire from its citizens about the way things are going in our little town. Cisco is a great little town that does have several plus marks in its favor. Our town will now have decent streets to drive on and for children to ride their bikes on. The water in our town taste so good, and a feeling of optimism is beginning to rise up in the citizens. When future businesses who need a new home see this they will consider investing in Cisco.

In the future, I hope that other citizens will write in to tell why they like Cisco.
Sincerely,
Wanda Hallmak

Dear Editor,
I like Cisco for a couple of reasons. First of all it's a quiet little town, where everyone knows one another. The people here are all very friendly. Not much happens in Cisco, but when it does it brings all friends together.
Sincerely,
Candy Escovedo

Dear Editor,
The reasons I like living in Cisco are, everywhere you go you know somebody. I also like the social gatherings such as "The Folk Life Festival" and the fourth of July celebration. You could never get lonely in Cisco.
Yours truly,
Teresa J. Pevey

Dear Editor,
The question is being asked of me what do I like about Cisco?
To answer the question I believe I would say that the number one asset of Cisco is the quality of people. I like the people. People that reach out to say hello and give a hand when a helping hand is needed.

I like living in a town where the police and fire department care about the people that they serve. I like living in a town where I can go walking and believe that I will be able to return home without being robbed.

I like living in a town where I can go and talk to the teachers and administrators of the school system if a problem with one of my children arises.

I like Cisco because I believe that Cisco is going to come alive and that Cisco has a bright future.

Sincerely,
John Clinton

WTU May Give Refunds Here

West Texas Utilities Co. customers may receive refunds as well as slightly lower fuel rates as early as next month.

A tentative agreement was reached this past week in meetings with the Public Utility Commission staff in Austin, and the matter is expected to go before the Commission July 26 for a final order hearing. That would be just in time for the refunds to go on the August bills for all of WTU's retail customers.

The full amount to be refunded now stands at $17.6 million. This is an increase of $3.9 million over the amount in WTU's original request, which included only fuel costs savings achieved from August 1984 through May 1985.

The new figure includes savings made in June and an additional $2.3 million representing a lump refund of fuel costs savings balance, plus interest, realized before last August. Refund of those total savings had begun in mid-November and were scheduled to be completed in November, 1985.

WTU estimates that the total refund now will result in a $41 credit to the average residential customer's bill. The refund is made possible by WTU being able to spend less for power plant boiler fuel than was anticipated when fuel cost factors were set by the PUC last fall.

Former customers will not receive refunds. The reasoning is that if the former customers had been undercharged for fuel, they could not be billed in the future to make up the difference.

Any refunds will vary with the amount of electricity a customer used during the period from August 1984 through June 1985. Interest will be included.

Sen. Glasgow Announces Grant

Senator Bob Glasgow of Stephenville has just been notified by the Texas Juvenile Probation Commission that in compliance with Section 66, Article V of the Appropriations Act, a state grant in aid to Eastland County has been made in the amount of $22,096.00 effective 9/1/85.

"This grant," stated Senator Glasgow, "is made to the juvenile board and is to be used by the juvenile probation department during fiscal year 1986." Senator Glasgow stated that these funds are to supplement local funds for maintenance and improvement of statewide juvenile services. "I am very pleased to know that these funds have been made available to this juvenile probation department," Senator Glasgow stated.

County Commissioners Request Loan For Deficit

Eastland County Commissioners held lengthy sessions in the Commissioners Courtroom on Monday, July 22. Present were Commissioners Richard Robinson, Pct. 1; L.T. Owen, Pct. 3; and C.B. Dill, Pct. 4. County Judge Scott Bailey presided. Commissioners Jack Blackwell of Pct. 2 was absent due to illness.

Members of the news media, county officials and various other citizens filled the Courtroom during the morning. A number of those returned during the afternoon.

Numerous items of business occupied the day - some routine and some far from ordinary. The discussions were climaxed in the afternoon by a decision to pay bills owed by the Sheriff's Department, along with others from the courthouse offices.

In order to take care of the budget overrun, which included a figure quoted as "around $11,000" from Sheriff's Department, the County Commissioners requested that Judge Scott Bailey attempt to secure a loan from a Depository Bank. This is expected to be for around $60,000, and will cover the current deficit as well as possible overdrafts in the near future.

Discussions on these matters opened shortly after 10 a.m., when Sheriff Don Underwood spoke to the group about certain expenses in his department.

He first stated his displeasure at articles which had appeared in newspapers recently - one dealing with expenditures by a writer which said that "Jail food, medical expenses and travel expenses have risen sharply since the Sheriff took office Jan. 1."

He indicated that only the travel expenses had risen sharply, due to inflation. The others were not rising at a higher rate than they had been previously he stated.

He asked Viola Payne where she got this information, and she replied that it came from the County Auditor's office, where such matters were of public record.

He then brought out sheafs of bills, apparently from the previous administration through the present time, calling out totals and items to show that his administration should not be singled out for expenditures above the previous administration.

One of his problems, he said, was that his Fiscal year began last Oct. 1, not Jan. 1, and a lot of his budget had been used before he took office.

He went over various food items, telling how economical certain things actually were. On the seedless grapes and nectarines - he said that he was required to feed a certain amount of fruit in order to meet jail standards. Upon questioning, he said that he knew of no law against buying tobacco or "items which the men should need" in the jail.

"The auditor could have called on this," he said. "One phone call would have straightened things out."

He mentioned that such items as sugar substitutes and white pepper were fed upon recommendation of a doctor. Some of the inmates are on special diets, and there are several pregnant women in jail.

"I will feed the way the Jail Commission tells me to," he said.

During the next part of the agenda Mrs. Emma Morris, County Auditor, arrived. Bob Cashon, carrying a briefcase, also came up to the table, requesting time on the Agenda.

He introduced himself as "self-employed, a co-owner of the 1-20 Pawn Shop." He presented the Commissioners with a copy of the Budget, and questioned them on a number of things.

Some concerned the labor on road maintenance in rural areas of the county, and various technical matters on the handling of county funds. He said he had been checking county records.

He questioned the matter of a Cat Loader out-of-service to the county - equipment last seen in Pct. 2. A repair bill on this was also included.

The Commissioners assured him that they were very much aware of the problem, and had been attempting to solve it. Sheriff Don Underwood had attempted to locate the piece of machinery.

Bob Cashon then began a discussion with Emma Morris on the manner in which county officials were paid. He indicated that Sheriff Don Underwood had been cut short on his check for January.

"The Sheriff's Administration is going to run out of money before the year ends," he said. "There will be a $564.40 deficit."

"If that's all, we'll be downright lucky," one Commissioner was heard to say.

The meeting then adjourned, to reconvene at 1:15 p.m.

In the afternoon meeting the Sheriff told the Commissioners that there were no more funds for travel - that he had already turned down one Bench Warrant because of lack of money.

"The little bit extra allowed for groceries is all there is," he said.

The Commissioners looked down at the bills and answered: "It's not just these we're worried about - but asked where will three more months take us."

A public hearing to raise taxes was discussed.

"I like you, Don," Richard Robinson aid, "and the people want good law enforcement. But I am not going to sit up here and vote for a tax increase for one department."

A discussion of borrowing ensued, with the Commissioners stated that some cost-effective plan for law enforcement (under current guidelines) needed to be worked out. After current bills were approved, the plan to seek a loan was finalized. Extra money will be used temporarily from salary funds.

The meeting adjourned, but Commissioners were requested to be present at another called meeting on Thursday, July 24, at 10 a.m. Further discussion is expected to center around budgetary matters.

After the meeting ended County Auditor Emma Morris made a statement to the press, saying that she had called the Sheriff's Department numerous times from Jan. in an effort to iron out any problems.

County Has Several Pipeline Requests

Eastland County Commissioners had several pipeline requests during the meeting on Monday, July 22. One request was for permission to lower a Chevron pipeline in a County right-of-way near Bullock on the County line Pct. 2. Mel Tarrant appeared for the oil company. The request was granted, and work is expected to take place in around 30 days.

J.D. May appeared, requesting final approval of a Subdivision Plant near Ranger in Pct. 2. This acreage joins the Ranger city limits on Highway 80 East and Country Club Road. Approval was granted.

Another request was for permission to cross County Road 316 in Pct. 1 with a pipeline. Maurice Hazard brought this request for Texas Pipeline. This is on Highway 2214 near Staff. The request was granted.

A request to clear brush on County Road 239 north of Highway 36 near Pioneer was tabled. The brush is on private property, and county road equipment has no authority to enter.

Also tabled was the appointment of Election Judges - this will be done at the first regular meeting in August. The next election in the County will be the Tuesday after the first Monday in November - and is expected to deal with Constitution Amendments.

Putnam News

By Mrs. R.B. Taylor

Old man summer seems to hold sway with the Big Country. Hot and dry and there seems to be no respite. However, we should be thankful that we have water in the lakes, which we did not have but very little a year ago. Gardens are burning and just playing out. Black eye-peas, okra and tomatoes seem to be all that is left, but how good they are. The farmers are plowing grain and getting ready for next year's crop.

Not much has been going on at Putnam.

We were grieved at the death of our long time friend this last week. Bess Herring, (Cathy). She was buried at Putnam Cemetery Monday. Bess was born and reared at Putnam, the daughter of the late Luke Catheys, early day settlers. She lived here until the death of her husband, "Tex" Herring, then went to Stanton and lived with a sister until going to a nursing home at Lampassas where she died.

None of our residents are on the sick list. Mr. Bilbrey is doing well after surgery. Mrs. Bilbrey is taking care of the Nutrition Center at Putnam.

Bob Cashon Offers A Public Apology

In speaking to Viola Payne of the Eastland County Newspapers, Bob Cashon stated that he felt he owed a public apology to County Auditor Emma Morris for remarks on the matter of Sheriff Don Underwood's salary, in which Cashon stated that Underwood had been paid less in January than he should have been.

"During the noon recess," he said, "I went into the County Auditor's office and looked over the records. Mrs. Morris was able to explain the method used. I now understand that Sheriff Don Underwood will not run out in his payroll budget in Fiscal 1985."

"On matters not related to this," he added, "I am still not satisfied. I plan to appear before the Court again."

Area News Briefs

CISCO

Anyone tasting the "new" Cisco water lately knows instantly that the quality has improved. But the word is official now - Cisco water meets all the requirements of state testing agencies for an approved rating. The excellent water quality has resulted from the building of a new treatment plant at Lake Cisco, the installation of new main lines, and cleaning and repair work for storage facilities. Painting work on the water tower is due to be finished soon. The tower will be equipped with 2500-watt lights, and the town's name will be visible to motorists on I-20 day and night.

A federal grant covering 55 percent of the cost of a new Cisco Waste Water Disposal System has been given tentative approval by the Texas Department of Water Resources, according to City Manager Mike Moore. The grant is expected to be more than $400,000, and come from Environmental Protection Agency funds left over from last year.

The Bennett Construction Corp. of Brownwood has started work on the old Mobley Hotel at the corner of Conrad Hilton Ave. and East 4th St. The Mobley will be restored as the first Hilton Hotel, hopefully in time for Cisco's Sesquicentennial project. The restored structure and area will be known as the Conrad N. Hilton Memorial Park and Community Center.

Twenty members of the Cisco Volunteer Fire Department "volunteered" for extra duty to paint and clean up the fire station. The appearance of the place has improved considerably. Firemen have some work planned for the structure.

EASTLAND

The Eastland Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors are considering various aspects of the Christmas lighting around Courthouse Square. At a recent meeting Chamber Manager James Wright said that the current lighting system being used was outdated, and replacement bulbs would run well over $4 each. The board voted to continue using the all-red bulbs, but may update to a new tear-drop system. Board members also discussed the idea of putting up pole decorations around the square. Texas Electric Service Co., which has been putting up and taking down the lights, states that it can no longer provide this service. Local people will have to find some way to do it.

A new classroom-gym is presently under construction at Siebert Elementary School. The building will contain 9,600 sq. ft., and will adjoin the existing one by a covered sidewalk on one end. The addition will house four classrooms with four restrooms, four storage rooms and a gymnasium. Hurt Construction Management of Sulphur Springs, will oversee the job, with Edge Genco Inc. as Contractors.

Amy Weekes of Ranger is an Intern in Eastland County Extension offices for 200 hours this summer. Amy, a Home Economics Major, plans to graduate in December with a B.S.

Degree. During her work here she will make professional visits with Home Economists Janet Thomas and Faith Ballard. She will also travel with the 4-H Recreation team.

RANGER

Water levels in the towers serving Ranger and Eastland are lower than normal, said Jesse White, Plant Superintendent at the Eastland County Water District at Lake Leon. "It happens every summer," he said, "but because of spring rains this is the first time this year people are being asked to conserve water. Pumps just aren't able to keep up with the use." On July 20 the water level in Ranger tank stood at 28 feet, compared to its normal 32 to 35 feet.

The Crawford-Bradberry reunion will be held at Bullock School, Caddo Highway on July 27, and July 28. The Saturday noon meal will be catered at $5 per person, and you may pay at the reunion. Sandwiches will be served on Sunday. A lot of activities are planned. Remind all of the out-of-town families you know who wish to attend, and contact Jean Pruett at 647-3824 for further information.

There will be a Junior High and High School Dance at the Ranger Swimming Pool on Friday night, July 26. Music will be provided by juke box with the assistance of Pool Manager Cora Walton and Sissy Crawley. The dance will start at 7 p.m. and last until 10 p.m., with admission set at $1 per person. So come join the fun - swim, dance and visit.

A Bake Sale will be held Saturday, July 27, in front of Food Fare and the Gholson Hotel, beginning at 10 a.m. There will be a variety of homebaked goods and candy, featuring peanut brittle. All proceeds go to help the Ranger Braves Pony League Team.

Drilling Bits

George S. Galgrath has revealed plans to drill a 3,950-ft. developmental well in the Plumb Field, Stephens County. The operator has 243 acres leased, with drillsite in the N.R. Brister Survey. The well will be known as the no. 2 B. A. Elliott. Drillsite is 12 miles west of Gunsight.

The Stephens Regular Field gained two new producers when S and J Operating completed the No. 1 G.E. Langford "A" and the No. 6 G.E. Langford. Drillsites are one mile northwest of Frankell. The No. 1 well indicated ability to flow 256,000 CF gas per day on an 18-64-in. choke. The absolute open flow rating was 530,000 CFD.

The No. 6 well flowed 25,000 CF gas per day on a half-inch choke. The absolute open flow rating came in at 25,000 CFD.

The wells will produce from perforations in the Strawn Sand Formation, ranging from 1,780 to 1,801 feet into the wellbore. Total drilling depths were 2,995 feet, respectively.

The operations are in a lease in the T and P Survey.

Palo Pinto County's south Mineral Wells Field gained a new producer when Ridge Oil completed the No. 2 Byron Unit four miles north-northeast of Brozos.

The well indicated ability to flow 2,380,000 CF gas per day on a 32/64 inch choke. The absolute open flow rating was 2,800,000 CFD. It was taken to a 4,525-ft. bottom and will produce from a set of perforations in the Conglomerate Formation, 4,391 to 4,396 feet into the hole.

The operation is in a lease in the T and P Survey.

Food Safety Begins At Home

COLLEGE STATION-- "We have a far greater chance of contracting a food-borne illness as a result of our own negligence than from unsafe food products," says Marilyn Haggard, University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist.

The recent tragic food poisoning incidents involving cheese and milk have left many consumers concerned about the safety of foods they buy at the grocery store, says Marilyn Haggard.

But incidents such as these are very small in number when compared to the Food and Drug Administration's estimate of 69-275 million cases of food-borne illness per year, most of which result from improper food handling or storage at home, she says.

"The bacteria that cause most food-borne illnesses occur naturally in raw foods, so it's up to consumers to make sure these bacteria are destroyed before the food is eaten," Haggard explains.

The specialist recommends the following steps for increased food safety at home:

- Be sure to wash your hands carefully before handling food and wash raw foods very well.

- Be especially careful with your cutting board and knives. Cooked foods are often contaminated with raw foods that have been cut on the same cutting board. Wash your cutting board and knife in hot soapy water after each use.

- Heat foods to at least 155 degrees Fahrenheit before serving and keep cold foods well-refrigerated until serving time.

- Refrigerate or freeze leftovers immediately after a meal, and never allow foods to stand at room temperature for more than 2 hours.

"Fortunately, most cases of food-borne illness cause only flu-like symptoms and diarrhea," says the nutritionist. However, the potential for more serious complications is always there, especially for young children, the elderly and the ill, she cautions.

"We can depend on our extensive food inspection system to maintain our food supply as the safest in the world," Haggard says, "but we can't become lax about proper sanitation and food preparation at home if these illnesses are to be avoided."

Texas Housing Agency Offers Low Interest Loans

Approximately $176 million in low interest mortgages loans will become available to home buyers in Texas beginning July 29, 1985, Governor Mark White announced Thursday.

The money will be offered to eligible low and moderate income borrowers at a fixed rate of 9.75 percent for 30 years through the Texas Housing Agency in cooperation with numerous lending institutions throughout Texas.

"This state-wide program will help meet the tremendous consumer demand for affordable homes and strengthen the Texas economy by promoting new construction and sales of existing homes," Governor White said.

The housing agency has established maximum income limits and a ceiling on home prices to direct the program more effectively to households least able to afford conventional interest rates.

An individual applicant must have an adjusted gross income in 1984 of $33,000 or less; the combined income limit for two or more individuals (with each under $33,000) or for a family is $42,000. For homes in most areas of the state, borrowers may not have owned a home at any time during the last three years.

Lenders will begin accepting applications on July 29, 1985 for mortgage loans on homes costing $80,000 or less. Applications on homes priced higher than $80,000 will be accepted beginning August 5, 1985; however, for the first 60 days of the program, lenders are required to give priority to applicants buying homes costing less than $80,000. The maximum home acquisition costs vary from area to area.

Prospective home buyers may call (512)475-4005 to obtain a program brochure and a list of participating lenders.

The Texas Housing Agency was created by the state legislature in 1979 to provide affordable home financing to low and moderate income families. Its loans are financed through the sale of tax-exempt bonds, not taxes. Nearly 10,000 families have purchased homes since the program began in 1980. Current program funds are expected to finance approximately 3,000 homes.

Olden Baptist Union Pacific To Distribute Revival Services Institutional Grants Set

Olden Baptist Church will be having revival services beginning August 11, 1985. The evangelist is Don Chaffin and the music evangelist is Lonnie Chaffin. Services Sunday morning will be as usual with Sunday School at 10 a.m. and morning worship at 11 a.m. Sunday night service will begin at 7 p.m. Monday through Friday services will be at 10 a.m. and 7 p.m. Bro. Don has been called Oklahoma's Hero of Humor, but in addition to that he has a deep desire to see people in right relationship with God. You are encouraged to attend any and all the services.

Union Pacific Foundation will begin distributing grants totaling $1,034,600 to 120 institutions in Texas, it was announced today by Charles N. Olsen, President of Union Pacific Foundation. Final distribution will be made in October to United Way organizations.

Union Pacific Foundation, which has been awarding grants since 1959, is giving $6.8 million nationally in 1985 to more than 775 private institutions of higher education, health, social welfare and the arts located primarily in Western communities served by the Union Pacific Corporation's operating companies: Union Pacific and Missouri Pacific Railroad Companies, Champlin Petroleum Company, Rocky Mountain Energy Company and Upland Industries Corporation. Mr. Olsen said that many of the grants are designed to help recipients help themselves. Some grants will help finance energy conservation programs, while others will assist in projects that will increase staff efficiency and productivity, all of which will create on-going cost savings for the institution.

Annual Fox Reunion Sunday, August 4

The annual Fox family reunion will be held Sunday, August 4 at Olden Community Center. This will be the 75th reunion.

There will be a business meeting preceding the noon meal. Visitors and singing will follow the lunch.

All relatives and friends are invited to attend.

Students Make Remarks On Recent Trip To Europe

Editor's Note: Fifteen students and two chaperons recently went to Europe. They were asked to write in their own words about the trip.

On the morning of June 12, 1985, thirteen students from Cisco and two students from Littlefield embarked on the most educational experience of a lifetime - a twenty three day tour of Europe. This trip thrust us into history for a first hand look at life and cultures dating from the days of the vast Roman Empire to the present.

Our group landed at London's Gatwick Airport about 8:00 a.m. and we were then escorted to our hotel. After a two night stay and seeing everything from Buckingham Palace to the World famous Harrod's Department Store we were then off to Canterbury to see the imposing cathedral which offers new meaning to Chaucer's "Canterbury Tales". We then crossed the English Channel leaving the White Cliffs of Dover behind us.

From Calais, France, our coach was waiting to take us to Paris where our expert guide introduced us to its many wonders, including the Eiffel Tower and the Louvre Museum where we saw Leonardo Da Vinci's famous "Mona Lisa." After a two nights we headed through the rolling French countryside to Brussels for a brief visit to a lace factory and a demonstration of hand-made crafts.

The next morning we crossed the Dutch into 700 year old Amsterdam. Aboard a glass topped canal boat, we took a tour of the city of bridges and then drove to a quaint little village to see one of the last remaining operating windmills and a craftsman making the famed wooden shoes which are still used on the Dutch farms.

The next day found us crossing the Swiss border into indescribable Lucern where we saw the historic Lion monument and took an excursion to the top of mount Rigi.

Switzerland's majestic Alpine beauty surrounded us as we drove to tiny Liechtenstein and then on to Innsbruck, Austria, which is famous for its crystal.

The next morning we were off to Venice where we took a gondola ride up one of the many romantic canals. Then we took a tour of St. Mark's cathedral and the Doge's Palace. We then continued to drive through vineyards and olive groves for our three night stay in the Eternal City, Rome.

Once in Rome, our sightseeing included the Roaman Forum, the Colosseum, and of course, the Vatican and St. Peter's Cathedral. Some of the group took an optional excursion to see the splendor of Pompeii. Then we were off to Florence to visit a leather factory and to see Michelangelo's "David" in the gallery of fine arts.

The next day began with a climb to the top of the Leaning Tower of Pisa, then on to Gensu, one of Italy's busiest ports and birthplace of Columbus.

The following day afforded leisure time on the French Riviera and Nice and Monaco. Later we crossed the Spanish border into Barcelona where we saw the Magestic Barcelona Spires and then we were off to Valencia for an overnight stay before continuing into Madrid.

Once in Madrid, our sightseeing included a visit to the Royal Palace and the Prado Museum and then a stroll along the crowded streets to visit the many shops.

The next morning after saying our many goodbyes to friends with whom we shared this unforgettable experience, we drove to the airport for our return flight home.

Those students who made the trip were Sabrenia Justice, Laura Hutchens, Christie Purvis, Krista Shepard, Jeff Kinser, Kirk Wallace, Steve Abbott, Sampty Sipe, Leah Lambeth, Dana Carlile, Russell Williams, Cliff Hatcher, Shelly Schaefer, Danna McDole, Diane Hobralsch, and our sponsors, Don and Janice Shepard.

Since it is impossible to share each moment, some of the students wish to express their feelings.

Jeff Kinser

I really enjoyed the trip to Europe. It was a learning experience for me. I enjoyed meeting and talking to the European people. I was interested to find out their views of America, Americans and our way of life. The trip really made me appreciate America and all the things we take for granted. We are truly a blessed country.

I would also like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Shepard for their guidance, help and understanding those 24 days. We couldn't have made it without them.

Cliff Hatcher

I liked Italy best. The countryside was some of the most beautiful I had ever seen, and there were so many historic sites to see. It was a challenge to communicate with people because hardly anyone spoke English unlike everywhere else. Shopping was excellent because everything was so inexpensive.

Christy Purvis

My favorite country was Switzerland although I enjoyed the entire trip. I had a fabulous time. I would also like to express my appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Shepard for sponsoring us and also to all the parents who helped make our trip possible. I would like to return to Europe someday!

Leah Lambeth

Returning home on the plane, I began thinking about all the places we had visited. All of the castles, monuments, and museums we had seen; and all the things we had done. And really for the first time it hit me, what had just happened: we spent 23 days touring Europe.

It's still hard to believe. But one thing I know, is that it would never have happened without the help of some very special people.

First of all, I'd like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Shepard for all their time and energy in organizing this trip. They deserve special credit just for putting up with us for 24 days. We really appreciate everything they've done for us.

And to my parents and all the parents who have shown their love and support in helping raise money, and getting everything set for us to enjoy our trip. We are truly grateful for their time and effort.

Russell Williams

I really enjoyed Europe. My favorite country was Switzerland but I also liked Holland. The Alps are really beautiful.

I'm glad I had the opportunity to tour another part of the world.

Thanks Mr. and Mrs. Shepard for putting up with us.

Dana Carlile

One of the things I will remember about our trip to Europe is the experience of riding so many different types of transportation.

Most of our time was spent traveling on a tour bus much like a Greyhound. To get from England to France we had to go by ferry, a huge boat with several levels containing stores and a restaurant.

In the larger cities we rode subways. These were easy to use and much cleaner than I expected.

We looked at the mountains in Switzerland by cable car. The Rhine River was seen from a glass top boat. We were serenaded by an accordion player and singer in gondolas down the water streets of Venice.

The wildest ride was in a taxi in Rome. There seemed to be no speed limit and traffic rules were ignored. In Rome we also rode a horse and buggy which turned around in the middle of fast traffic.

As if these experiences were not enough, our plane leaving Madrid developed a fuel leak. We were taken off the plane for an hour wait while it was repaired.

Shelly Schaefer

I don't think that there is any way that we could ever describe how great the trip was. We learned and saw more than I ever imagined.

My favorite place was Switzerland and it was very beautiful and peaceful.

We are very thankful for the sponsors we had (Mr. and Mrs. Shepard) and I hope that maybe someday we will be able to go on another trip!

I loved it!

Sabrenia Justice

I had a very good time on the trip to Europe. We had so many new experiences that it made the trip so special.

My favorite places were Switzerland and Italy. They were all so different from what we are used to seeing that it was really exciting. I'd love to go back some day!

Laura Hutchens

Mrs. Ruby Anderson Is Honored Here July 6th

Mrs. Ruby Anderson of Ft. Worth was honored with a gathering of family and friends on July 6 at the Best Western conference room in Cisco.

Approximately 80 people attended the covered dish luncheon served at noon, and many more visited throughout the day. Games, swimming, talking and eating were enjoyed during the day and into the evening. It was a delightful day for all - and especially Mrs. Anderson. All of Mrs. Anderson's children, many grandchildren, and several great grandchildren were present for the event, along with many other relatives and friends. Mrs. Anderson expressed her appreciation and love for all in a short "thank you" speech.

The following poem, written by Lona McClure of Early was read during the afternoon, bringing both tears and laughter to everyone present.

TO OUR MOTHER
Ruby Mabel (Doyle) Anderson.

Mother, Mama, or Mom... either one sounds good to me.

For this little lady brought us into the world you see. Once a Miss, then a Mrs. was she. A Lady, A Madam...

Our Mother, Our Mama, Our Mom.

A Miss at 15 yrs. of age was she. At 16, she her title did change.

For she met her Love, we'll call Lee.

He was our Father, Our Daddy, Our Dad.

A Minister of the Gospel, many glad tidings he did tell. Built churches and houses, with God's Word and hammers and nails.

The spiritual and the natural, he cared for so well.

For all this we loved and respected him too.

Forget him? Never! No Never! could we.

To this household was added one and then eight.

Troy being the first one, was precious you know.

He must have worn pantaloons, cause that was a long time ago.

Then came a baby girl and Jewell she was called.

A beautiful addition of which there was no doubt.

Red Cross Helps In Beirut Crisis

The American Red Cross participated in the release of the hostages through the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC). One of the ICRC delegates participating in the role stated "I want to make it clear that the ICRC has never been involved in negotiations concerning liberations of hostages before this incident. Our interest were out of pursuing humanitarian and transportation to Syria, we played a technical role only. Our role is to relieve suffering. We are happy that in this situation we were able to relieve the suffering of innocent people."

During the night of 25-26, the 37 hostages were visited in Beirut by a doctor and a delegate of the ICRC. The three crew members of the TWA Jetliner were also visited in their aircraft. The captors did not witness the visits, and the hostages were able to speak freely. These visits were made in accordance with the traditional role of the International Committee of the Red Cross, which is to materially assist detainees and by its presence provide moral support.

The captors released one of the hostages for medical reasons as a direct result of the ICRC's visit. Messages were written by the hostages and relayed to the National Headquarters of the American Red Cross in Washington, D.C. for transmission to the families of the hostages.

At the American Red Cross National Headquarters an emergency task force swung into action upon the ICRC's request that the American Red Cross serve as a conduit for messages between the hostages and the families. During the exchange all of the families of the hostages were contacted by the arc at least once.

Throughout the nation this summer, Americans will come in contact with the American Red Cross because of disasters or due to personal problems. You are encouraged to contribute to the American Red Cross so the obligations, as so clearly are outlined by the Act of Congress, will be fulfilled on the same basis as the service to the hostages - on a humanitarian basis. If you desire to give to the Red Cross please send all contributions to: Mr. Grover Hallmark, Eastland National Bank, American Red Cross, Eastland, Texas 76448.

WORD OF GOD

Prophecy (Old Testament)

Thus saith the Lord; A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.

Jeremiah 31:15

The Cisco Press

Thursday,

July 25, 1985

Norman was the third one, a boy once again, oh my, oh my, oh me.

Poor Mama, by this time, she probably was saying, "Somebody please help me. 3 kids, then another on the way."

It's a good thing there were no songbirds then, as are today.

"Cause Mama would - seen another mud-tracker about to be, and she just might have walked away from this very scene today.

But, it was Bill, and sure-nuff, she loved him too, more than he'd ever know.

You might question how could there be so much love for one little woman to give to so-o many? THE ANSWER: she's a true Mother; A Mama, a Mom.

But wait, that's only half of this clan. There's still Patsy, with her little blond curls.

And Lona somewhere in between.

Poor Teddy, he's the last little son, just before the FINAL-LE.

Then came Keta & her "baby" ways, demanding we all clear the way.

AND Mama love us then and she love us now. None more, none less.

So, in tribute to this LADY FAIR, OUR MOTHER: We, and all our offspring, our mates, and her friends, offer and give our love and our thanks to you for every sacrifice you've made for us, and every dirty diaper you've changed... WE LOVE YOU MOM!

Your kids, P.S. For Troy there was Nig.

Jewell fell for Doyle.

Bill loved Betty,

Patsy conned Larry,

Lona wished for Sam,

Ted fought for Nina Jo,

Keta (without saying) had her way and got Johnny..

And so, from all these wonderful in-laws & kids came 76 heads, IF we didn't miscount... Now can anybody here top that?

Stefanie Powers On Cover Of Sears Catalog

Actress Stefanie Powers makes an encore appearance on the front of Sears new Fall-Winter catalog. The only stage performer to appear on the cover, she debuted on the 1985 Spring-Summer edition of the book.

"Stefanie's first appearance was a huge success," said Ronald Ramseyer, Sears national catalog advertising manager. "Her great appeal with the contemporary customer fits our current marketing strategy for the catalog."

The country's interest in sports and fitness has brought some additional personalities to this fall's catalog: Larry Bird, Julius "Dr. J." Erving, Joe Klecko and Mary Lou Retton.

Bird of the Boston Celtics and Erving of the Philadelphia 76'ers are shown in items from their activewear lines/made by Converse. Klecko of the New York Jets appears in activewear featured in tall and big sizes. Olympic gymnast Mary Lou Retton models her line of girls' activewear. Sears Fall-Winter catalog continues to offer lines by Cheryl Tiegs, Evonne Goolagong and Arnold Palmer, as well as designer Gil Trudsson's Boston Athletic Club collection of casual wear for men.

An ebony colored washer-dryer pair seems to float in mid-air. Children play on a foam mattress with steel support and a comforter that automatically senses body temperatures and heats only where necessary.

AFTER SEVERAL weeks of dry weather, we enjoyed the experience of seeing and driving in a lot of rain last weekend. Went over to Longview in East Texas last Friday, and the rains came soon after we arrived. It rained on and off until we left in the rain Sunday morning. We drove in intermittent rain from Longview to Dallas. From there on to Cisco, we were in light rain once or twice. Arriving home, we were delighted to find that more than two inches had fallen on our moisture straved yards. And it rained again Monday.

THE FRESH Peach season is in full swing, according to reports in our area. Local orchards are inviting you to pick your own and pay from $8 to $12 per bushel. And the quality is good. Some apples are ripe, too. Good rains during the spring months did wonders for orchards and small grains and hay. The outlook for a pecan crop are real good right now.

MR. BRET McMillian, son of the Eddie McMillans and a CHS student, hooked a bass that weighed over eight pounds the other afternoon. He admired the fish, petted it for a time and then turned it loose in the waters from which it came.

Where did he catch the fish? Bret isn't about to tell you.

VISITING IN Cisco from Garland last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jackson. They came to visit his parents, E.L. and Elsie Jackson, and they found Mr. ELJ home from the hospital where he spent most of the past week. He's doing nicely and up and out. Ed, who grew up in Cisco and finished high school here, is an electrical engineer with a responsible job with a big electronics firm at Garland. His early days business experience included a paperboy for the Cisco Press.

YOU PROBABLY saw the nice picture and story about Frank Stamey of Abilene in last Sunday's Press. The son of the Joe Stameys and grandson of O.L. Stamey, Frank and wife are moving to Austin where he will enter law school in the fall.

The rest of the story: When he graduated from McMurry last spring, Frank sent applications to three law schools with the hope that one would accept him. A copy of his college record accompanied the applications. All three colleges accepted Frank and he had to make a choice.

While in college, Frank worked at the Outpost Restaurant in Abilene and also worked part-time for a lawyer. He and his wife are getting set up in Austin and he hopes to work part-time there.

MR. O.L. STAMEY, Frank's granddad, recalls when he started teaching at grammar school in Cisco in 1925. He organized the first football team among the boys and named them the Midgets. The name stuck, as the junior high team still goes by that name. Mr. OLS recalls that the Temple juniors were a hot team and issued a challenge to anybody who wanted to play them. Cisco invited them up and they came and took a 17-to-7 licking. Many of Mr. OLS's junior high players went on to Big Dam Lobo fame.

THE MANAGER'S office was dark when we looked in at the Chamber of Commerce Monday. Office Secretary Helen Gaeta was very much on the job and business was good. If and when something comes along that she can't handle, Mrs. HG reported that she contacts President Bill Austin.

The board was expected to meet soon to hear recommendations for a replacement for Mr. Ron Scheuren, who completed his tenure there last Friday.

MR. DOUG FRY, the city judge who has a ranch southwest of Cisco in Callahan County, robbed a bee hive out there recently and the hive yielded nine quarts... Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brashear of Scranton went to Comanche last Sunday afternoon to attend services for Fred Moore, former oil company president and state official and friend of the Brashears while they lived in Austin... The computer that set the type for this column his a "7" instead of a "4" in the item last Sunday about Dr. Chief Brown's airplane. It's a four-place Cessna.

LIKE OTHERS WHO saw it in Editor Hallmark's column about the First Christian Church's information number (442-4301), we called it.

The recorded message by Dr. Kenneth Breeze, pastor, gave the program for Sunday, July 28, which is their regular services until 7 p.m. when union services with the Methodist and Presbyterian congregations will be held at FCC. The Rev. Frank Williams will speak and Methodists will serve refreshments.

Young people of the church will enjoy an outing at White Waters on July 27th. The three churches are holding Vacation Bible School at FCC all this week, starting daily at 9:30 a.m. They gave a report on sick folks.

Concluding, Dr. Breeze offers a thought for the day: Some folks never look up until they're flat on their back.

County Commissioners Sign Letter Of Intent For Garbage-Fueled Power Plant In Eastland

During their regular monthly meeting Monday night, the Eastland City Commissioners signed a letter of intent with Energy Advancement, Inc. as the first phase in building a garbage-fueled power plant.

Present at the meeting was Harold Dement, E.A.I. representative. Mr. Dement told the commissioners that a six month survey will now be made by the company to determine if the required 50 tons per day of garbage is available. The plant requires the 50 tons to continue running.

Mr. Dement said that a formal contract between the city and E.A.I. will draw up at the end of the six month period. At that time, if enough garbage-waste is found, the city of Eastland will be obligated and will be responsible for providing a suitable building site, providing utilities, and paving the roadway to the main gate of the plant.

Experience the Joy of Faith

With that taken care of, the $7 million dollar plant should be in operation in two years, Mr. Dement said. He said E.A.I. would also approach neighboring towns to see if they would commit their garbage to the plant.

Kauai North Coast Is Much-Filmed Senic Paradise

Thursday, July 25, 1985

By H.V. & GayNell O'Brien
On our last day on the outer island of Kauai we experienced the two tourist stops which are probably most closely associated with the Hawaiian Islands - the Fern Grotto and the Hanalei Coast of "South Pacific" fame.

It was an all-day tour from the ship and our guide, a longtime narrator of Hawaiian lore, gave us, perhaps as we are doing, more than we might really want. Or, as Capt. Wu said on that day: "Destiny is not a matter of chance, it's a matter of choice."

For those planning to go, we would join those who had been and told us about Hawaii: "It's more than you've ever imagined," but maybe wouldn't go quite as far as the natives there who put much legend in the creation of their beautiful state - "In the beginning, God created the world, and when the waters receded from the face of the earth, and the land masses, the continents, the subcontinents, the polar caps the islands all emerged..."

"THERE WAS NO HAWAII.

"But He built into the earth, tremendous internal forces which thousands of years after creation, and millions of years ago, exploded through the ocean floor to build a sprawling undersea mountainrange. Some of these volcanospewed masses were so towering, they exceeded the 13,000 foot depth of the ocean and reached above the only wind-curved waves of the Pacific, and continued to climb towards the skies and sun...latitude 22 north, longitude 158 west, where nothing had been, there came to be an archipelago. A curving necklace of islands that, upon the quieting of their volcanic furies, grew rich green mantles to cloak their majestic, sharply-etched spires - and then there were Niihau, Kauai, Oahu, Molokai, Lanai, Maui and Hawaii - the Hawaiian Islands."

Today some four million visitors fall under the spell of Hawaii each year. The mystique has spread far nurtured by images of brilliant sunsets and grass-skirted maidens. Historians have not pinpointed the exact date when the first sea voyagers rode in with the surf and decided to settle the islands. Most agree, that the earliest Hawaiians originated from the Marquesas. Here, Polynesian navigators sailed across the vast Pacific Ocean using as charts only the star-flecked skies, the ocean currents and the movements of the birds and clouds. They belonged to a sea-going race with origins in the Indo-Mayasian Straits of Southeast Asia. These people are found across the expanse of the Pacific as far as Easter Island, and westward to Madagascar on the eastern coast of Africa. Their story is still being pieced together through the common languages, archaeological findings, legends and songs.

It is through such surviving stories that Hawaiians trace their closest ancestors - the people of Tahiti. Why the Tahitians left their lush home land to find a new land is a subject of much speculation, but it is certain that they plied sturdy double-hulled canoes between the two archipelagos, carrying with them coconuts, taro, medicinal plants and animals until Hawaii became hospitable enough to sustain life.

Our morning excursion proved that the modern Hawaiian is hospitable - and well-versed in dealing with the influx of visitors, down this year by some ten percent because of the United Airlines strike. At the Wailua River we were among about a dozen who boarded a riverboat built to haul 50, and chugged up-river to the Fern Grotto. This bit of Hawaii is so well known that it hardly needs describing. Suffice it to say, you walk through a manicured park up into an open cave in a cliff edge which is literally grown-over with rich ferns and vegetation, water dripping from springs high above. Once under the canopy of the ledge, the visitors are serenaded by the entertainers with the traditional Hawaiian song - "This is the Moment..." And then on the boat ride back, the guides sing and dance and play their ukes, all in perfect harmony with keeping the tourists happy and busy.

The tour took us through the coconut grove area to the Opaekaa Falls and then back to the quaint town of Nawiliwili (where our ship was docked) and on toward the Hanalei Coast.

Lunch was at an exclusive golf resort on the coast, with beautiful views of the mountains and our afternoon tour took us to the Hanalei Valley Lookout with spectacular views of the beach area that has been the setting for many television shows (Fantasy Island) and movies, including the fabled film, "South Pacific", based on Michener's book with words and music by Rodgers and Hammerstein. You might guess that I'd picked the wrong peak as being the one they'd used for the beautiful Bali Hai sequence. We saw the ruins of what was once the Plantation Hotel, which was also settings for many of the scenes in the movie.

"The Thorn Birds" was also filmed in this area.

This was a highlight. Some of us had grumbled to our tourguide about her lack of descriptive information and too much personal background, and she attempted to close out the day with some up-close observations. She took us by her home which is about a block from the beach and showed us where her children had grown up playing in the surf, protected by a natural reef of coral.

From one lookout point, we saw the unusual sight of taro fields, which are grown much like rice in flooded fields. The entire north (windward) side of the island is spotted with beautiful beaches, but is not recommended for swimming because of the treacherous currents.

It was a fitting close to the Garden Isle.

Spotlights and Sidelights

by Julia Worthy

SPEAKING OF NUMBERS...

One number is 6,984. That's how many more cases of child abuse in Texas that were reported in 1984 than in 1983.

Those figures are from the Texas Department of Human Resources.

Eastland County is in Region 04 of the Texas DHR, and 2,247 of those confirmed instances of child neglect and abuse happened in Region 04 which is comprised of 43 counties.

Only 138 of the reported problems can be discredited to Eastland County.

"Only 138" does not mean our county record is all that bright and shining. Given human nature with man's tendency to explore mind-altering substances, some child abuse, self abuse and parent abuse come under "inevitable."

Roughly, six per cent of reported incidents is too high, though probably inaccurate. How many potential cases were unreported? Of the 43 counties in Region 04, sixteen of them have no child welfare board. That's over a third of the counties not included in that 2,247 figure. Eastland County's six per cent is higher for a true figure.

Figures are impersonal, and as you can see, often misleading. I give you a 6% and almost at once tell you it's wrong.

Unless you are a CPA at heart, you are going to have to translate those 138 Eastland County youngsters into blondes, red-heads, and brunettes. You're going to have to visualize big blue, melting brown, and misty gray eyes. That 138 represents cuddly fat babies, inquisitive toddlers, and energetic school-agers—all of whom can just as easily be malnourished, repressed and lethargic.

There is a large gray area in dealing with child abuse, and no one wants to be caught in it. Life would be much simpler if choices were clear cut on what is deliberate harm and what is accidental.

Parents are defensive about children and the right to do as they wish with their own children. But humanitarian rights transcend those of the family. The child often is the last one to rely on for factual information, so he can't protect himself.

When a child suspects disapproval, he is likely to deny that anything is wrong, or he will agree that the leg bruise he got from tripping on a curb is from a belt. Most children learn quickly that life is more pleasant when adults hear what they want (expect) to hear. The child obliges.

Neglect is as much abuse as is mistreatment, and it complicates matters for observers. The kid in cut-offs wading in a mud puddle may be better cared for than the one in a swimsuit in a private pool.

"Hugs and Kisses" aren't just for closing a letter to your sweetie-pie. They make up for a lot of dollars and cents while growing up. They also make it difficult to distinguish between actual neglect and mere lack of possessions.

Identifiable signs of child abuse are shaking, beating, burning and/or inadequate food. Yelling, teasing and name-calling are verbal abuse. Unfortunately, this is not often recognized as abuse by people who would recoil in disgust at physically mistreating a child.

Emotional abuse is most often found where the abuser in "doing his duty." Patent leather slippers or cowboy boots do not have the same effect as hugs, kisses, reading a book or play "Fish."

Sexual abuse probably does the greatest immediate and long-term harm. This topic has been secretive so long that increase in numbers of cases reported may not mean an actual rise in incidents but only more of such incidents reported.

This is a very sketchy report, but it will be enlarged. Keep in touch.

Huey Green Descendants Met

The descendants of the late Huey Green held their seventh reunion here July 6 and 7. Celebration at the N. Seaman Friendship Park. There were five generations presents. The family came from as far east as Longview and to the west from Odessa. The mother of Mrs. Freddie Crawford and Amelia Govan who is Mrs. Hattie Green Trotter was present. The first wife of the late Huey Green. Mrs. Evelyn Wilson the daughter of his second wife Ruby Green. These three daughters had a total of 54 family members present. Coming from Houston, Dallas, Corpus Christi, Longview, Ft. Worth, Odessa, Abilene and Austin. There were 9 visitors. The men of the family prepared the Bar-B-Q meat and the women fixed all kind of soul food to go with it. Everyone was happy. Eastland is home to most of the third and fourth generation.

The men in army were not present this year Sgt. Dan R. Washington and family who have left lately leaving Fort Campbell, Ky. and gone back to Germany, whose mother is Mrs. Billie Washington and married to Mrs. Freddie Crawford's granddaughter. Mrs. Washington visited the family in Ky. before they left for Germany. Sgt. Glen Wayne Turner, son of Mrs. Freddie Turner Crawford is stationed near Chicago, Ill. was absent. We are real proud of the men in service. They are Eastland natives.

We were thankful for our park in top shape. We are thankful to have our young going to college and finishing high school. God has been good to us. May He continue to bless us to meet here again next year. Our family is still growing with two little girls added to the family this year.
