COUNTY DEMOCRATIC TICKET IS MADE

Executive Committee Decides Relative Positions Candidates To Appear on Official Ballot

The Eastland county Democratic executive committee met in the county court room at Eastland Monday afternoon with Chairman Ed. T. Cox presiding. After calling the roll of precinct chairmen the first business transacted was the filling of vacancies of the chairmen of several precincts. All went by on well-oiled political machinery, with no contest except that of West Cisco precinct, of which Clayton Orn was chairman, but had removed from the county. A petition from West Cisco in behalf of George W. Daniels had previously been filed with the chairman, but it seemed that this petition, containing some 40 names of voters in West Cisco, had been devoured by the official cat, or otherwise inadvertently disappeared. Chairman Cox admitted that the petition had been filed with him when it was called to his attention, after Will St. John had placed in nomination W. J. Armstrong to fill the vacancy. Mr. St. John's nomination was amended by Tom Stanton, committeeman from Olden, who nominated Mr. Daniels for the place. Instead of voting on the amendment first the chair ruled that it would be in order to dispose of Mr. St. John's motion, with the result that the name of Mr. Daniels was never placed before the committee, as seven of the 20 precinct committeemen present voted for Mr. Armstrong and four voting against his being named. This vote made Mr. Armstrong chairman of West Cisco for the ensuing two years, while the 30 or 40 signers to the petition asking for Mr. Daniels' appointment was passed without consideration.

But the appointment of Mr. Armstrong was not personally objectionable to anyone in Cisco, and the only insistence made for the appointment of Mr. Daniels was that the people of West Cisco might name their own precinct chairman.

Precinct Chairmen
Following are the chairmen of the respective 26 precincts for ensuing two years, who are also, by virtue of their chairmanships, presiding officers of the primary elections to be held July 23 and August 27:

- No. 1, Eastland, Guy Parker.
- No. 2, Ranger, C. E. May.
- No. 3, Tudor, W. P. Guest.
- No. 4, Sabanno, W. E. Lush.
- No. 5, Cisco, Will St. John.
- No. 6, Cisco, W. J. Armstrong.
- No. 7, Rising Star, D. E. Jones.
- No. 8, Desdemona, J. R. Rushing.
- No. 9, Pioneer, L. C. Cash.
- No. 10, Fir, W. J. Jones.
- No. 11, Kokomo, B. F. Woods.
- No. 12, Carbon, J. E. Gilbert.
- No. 1, Gorman, F. S. Perry.
- No. 14, Long Branch, J. W. Gage.
- No. 15, Okra, J. E. Smith.
- No. 16, Scranton, R. R. Bradshaw.
- No. 17, Nimrod, W. N. Compton.
- No. 18, Olden, Tom Stanton.
- No. 19, Dothan, L. D. Dunnaway.
- No. 20, Romney, Guy Brogdon.
- No. 21, Mangum, J. L. Noble.
- No. 22, Pleasant Hill, Edgar Alton.
- No. 23, Staff, W. H. White.
- No. 24, Cook, Sam Hitt.
- No. 25, Ranger, R. L. Pearson.
- No. 26, Rising Star, J. F. Robinson.

Chairman Cox appointed Will St. John, Cisco; Guy Parker, Eastland; Frank Robertson, Rising Star; a committee to select the order in which the names of the candidates will appear on the primary ballot. Another committee consisting of Dave Jones, Rising Star; L. R. Pearson, Ranger; F. S. Perry, Eastland; W. J. Jones, Fir; and J. E. Gilbert, Carbon, was named to estimate the cost of holding the election, and assessing the candidates their pro rata amounts for defraying the expenses incident thereto.

State candidates were assessed $1; candidates for the two district judgeships, $150; candidates for the county offices, $100; candidates for county commissioner, $50, while precinct candidates were assessed $5.00.

165 Names on Ballot
There will be 165 names on the ballot, providing all qualify by paying their assessments by Saturday, June 25, making this one of the longest ballots ever made for Eastland county.

Nominations will be made by a majority vote, the committee decid, and those not receiving a majority of the votes cast, the two highest candidates will determine the nominee in the second primary, August 27. The only candidate expressing himself for the preferential vote for determining the nominee was County Judge Clyde Garrett. While not urging his preference Garrett stated that individually he would favor preferential nomination.

County Candidates
Space is not available in the Citizen for the entire ticket but we give below the relative positions of each legislative and county candidates as they will appear on the official ballot to be voted in the July primaries:

Announcement of L. H. Qualls For Co. Commissioner

L. H. Qualls authorizes the Citizen to announce his candidacy for the office of county commissioner for Precinct No. 4. He will appreciate your support in the coming primaries, and if chosen your commissioner will serve you to the best of his ability.

Mr. Qualls is a native of Texas, and for the last 25 years has lived in Eastland county, during which time he has been engaged in farming and ranching, which is still his occupation. About eight years ago he moved his family to Cisco that his children might have the advantages of the schools, but he still manages his farm and ranch interests.

This is the first time Mr. Qualls has been a candidate for any political office, but says the offices of the county belong to the people, and "if it is a good thing it should not be monopolized, but passed on to some other good man. If it is not, some one else should share its hardships, as the people should not inflict burdens continuously on one man."

Mr. Qualls is, in every way, qualified to make an acceptable county commissioner, as he is a careful business man, having made a reasonable success of his own affairs, if elected, it is reasonable to presume he will be just as careful of the business of the county.

Then too, he understands the importance of good roads, as he believes every farmer, oil man and others, should be provided with the best highways to better transport his products to market. But in times of depression, like the present, we should economize in road building as well as all expenditures of public money. However, he favors construction and maintenance of community roads wherever needed.

But the main policy favored by Mr. Qualls is reduction in taxes, valuations and the expense of administering county affairs, and believes that a program of economy should be adopted and practiced until we are able to finance more expensive public improvements. In short, Mr. Qualls says, his policy will be the reduction of taxation to the lowest possible figure to defray the expenses of the county government, administered on a basis of rigid economy.

If chosen your commissioner he says, he will work for every reform to relieve the taxpayers from the burdens under which they are now struggling.

He asks your careful consideration of his candidacy in the Democratic primaries, and will appreciate your support.

GUESTS AT SHEPARD HOME

Mrs. C. V. Gibson and Miss Lela Jacob, of Fort Worth, sisters of Mrs. F. E. Shepard, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shepard this week. They will remain through the remainder of the week, and return home early next week.

- Precinct 5—Horace Reynolds, J. T. Chapman.
- Precinct 6—J. H. McDonald, R. W. H. Kennon.
- Precinct 7—W. M. Morrison.
- Precinct 8—Tom Nabors.

Constables
Precinct 1—Sim Dabbs, Thomas A. Bendy, M. N. (Marion) Seaborn.
Precinct 2—G. J. Moore, W. C. Niver, John Barnes.
Precinct 5—H. F. Hodges, J. R. Todd, J. N. (Jimmie) Ellison.
Precinct 6—J. B. Hicks.
Precinct 7—G. W. Hardin, A. D. Carroll, J. B. Laurent.
Precinct 8—C. H. Williams.
Public Weigher, Precinct 7—Mark Pelfrey, Dan Hopper, R. C. Brown.

RECEIVER NAMED FOR STATHAM DRUG STOCK

Thursday morning R. W. Mancill was named receiver for the Statham Pharmacy, and the stock of drugs and fixtures were turned over to him for the benefit of the creditors. Mr. Mancill stated that the assets and liabilities have not yet been determined, as the inventory has not been made.

This business failure is just another result of the financial tragedy in which any business concern may be a victim. With ample but moderate capital, Statham brothers established this business several years ago under most favorable auspices, as both were well equipped to conduct the business. O. W. Statham being a registered pharmacist, and W. B. Statham an experienced business man, there was every reason to expect success, but this depression is liable to hit the best men in the land.

Mr. Mancill said he would inventory the stock at once, and it would be conducted at the present location for the time being, but could not say whether it would be sold at wholesale or be disposed of at retail.

WILL ATTEND NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Cisco will have one lady representative at the Democratic convention when the delegates will gather in Chicago next Monday to name the standard bearers of the party. This lady will be Mrs. L. H. McCrea, who is now sojourning in that city, and will remain over to witness the convention proceedings. Will St. John will go as a delegate from Texas, as will Silliman Evans, son-in-law of Mrs. McCrea.

FIREMEN RETURN FROM STATE MEET AT AUSTIN

C. O. Pass, chief of the Cisco fire department; J. E. Stuart, truckman; Barton Philpott and Dutch Boatman, members of the local fire organization; O. Gustafson, local fire marshal, have returned home from Austin where they attended the state meeting of Texas firemen. All report a good time, but complain of the warm weather that prevailed there, and all said they were glad to be at home again and enjoy the splendid climate prevailing in the Cisco country.

CLYDE L. GARRETT CANCELS PREVIOUS SPEAKING DATES

Some time ago my speaking dates were published in which I invited my opponents to be present and agreed to divide time with them. One of my opponents, Mr. George Bryant, declined to accept my invitation and proceeded to make and publish speaking dates for himself and did not see fit to invite and agree to divide time with me, and upon being asked if he would do so declined, therefore, I desire to cancel all speaking dates heretofore made and published.

I will, therefore, make a tour of the county with all county and district candidates and will discuss the issues of the campaign on the dates and at the places mentioned in the announcement for speaking dates for all other offices published in last week's issue of this paper.

CLYDE GARRETT,
Candidate for County Judge.

NEW BOY BABY ARRIVES

A new boy baby arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Seabourne, 606 East Eighth street, Thursday morning. The mother is a sister of Mr. Lloyd Doyle, of the Palace cafe.

Mrs. M. E. Townsend, well known Moran lady, was attending to business matters in Cisco Saturday.

Master Swims as Dog Takes Clothes

Orville Davis, about 18 years of age, who makes his home with his mother, Mrs. Nola Davis, of the Reich community, is the owner of a police dog of rare intelligence. The dog has been trained to do most any of the domestic duties around the farm that the boy could do—minus hands. When the cows are to be driven home for milking the police canine is told to get them, and he does. When any article around the home has been misplaced and can't be located, the police dog is put on the job and rarely fails to find the missing article.

But Orville says he thinks the dog is over-trained. About three weeks ago he decided to enjoy a swim in the farm tank, and while he was doing his aquatic stunts the dog left for home, unobserved by his master. To Orville's chagrin he found that his canine companion had carried his clothes with him. Too far to make himself heard at the house, there was no alternative except to await the coming of darkness to enable him to do a "September Morn" stunt and regain the shelter of the home under cover of darkness.

Orville had to remain in the water for about one hour before sundown till dusk by reason of having a dog with super-intelligence.

EASTLAND COUNTY FOLK GET LICENSE TO MARRY

The following Eastland county couples have secured marriage license at the office of county clerk:

- C. M. Van Geem and Miss Mamie Moon.
- Iro O. Murrell and Miss Opal Fultz.
- J. T. Crow and Miss Eta Belle Frasier.
- Winnifred B. Crossley and Miss Nell Ethel Curry.
- W. I. Loflin and Miss Loraine Meador.

NEW LITIGATION FILED WITH DISTRICT CLERK

The following causes of action are of recent filing in the office of the district clerk for litigation: 88th District Court—J. R. Rutherford vs. Archenhold Auto Supply Co., et al, injunction.

J. W. Mingus, et al, vs. J. B. Davenport, administrator, suit to establish claim against administrator.

Mrs. Katie White vs. D. T. White, divorce and injunction.

Marie Bryson vs. Aarco Oil & Gas Co., damages for $2,620.

H. P. Keith vs. Virginia Keith, divorce.

Miley E. Williams vs. Citizens State Bank, Ranger, et al, suit on stock.

91st District Court—Dolly Lou Slaughter vs. F. A. Slaughter, divorce. Mike McNamara vs. Empire Pipe Line Co., a corporation, garnishment after judgment. In Re: Liquidation First State Bank, Carbon, approve May expense account. In Re: Liquidation Texas State Bank, Eastland, sell oil well supplies to Hoffman & Page.

VISITING PARENTS HERE

Mrs. Barton Abbott, of Robstown, is here visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. J. Lee Cearley. She will also spend some of her visit with the parents of her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Abbott, Barton Abbott, who is a former Cisco boy, is now manager of a Piggly-Wiggly store at Robstown. His friends here will be glad to know that he is making good.

Judge Allen D. Dabney, a recent candidate for Judge of the 88th district court, spent several hours in Cisco Monday in the interest of his candidacy.

E. C. Satterwhite Is Making Active Race For Tax Collector

E. C. Satterwhite, candidate for Tax Collector, whose announcement appears in the Cisco Citizen, accompanied by Mrs. Satterwhite, was a pleasant caller at this office Tuesday while in Cisco in the interest of his candidacy.

Both are making a close canvass of the county, and from encouragement given them justifies the presumption, Mr. Satterwhite stated, that his candidacy is being most favorably received by the voters of the county. Therefore, he feels that his chances of winning the election is very favorable.

While this is not the first race he ever made for public office, yet he has always taken an active part in county affairs, and a keen interest in both county and state government. Then, too, he has lived in Eastland County practically all his life, and understands conditions as they now exist. During his residence in the county he has been actively engaged in business, having his business friends and customers in nearly every community in the county. Those who have known him longest and more intimately are today his strongest supporters for the office of Tax Collector. Many who may not place him in their memory book will readily do so when it is recalled that he owned and managed the Satterwhite Hardware Company at Eastland for many years.

His qualifications for the office are unquestioned, and if you elect him you will be assured that the office will be filled by a competent, and courteous public servant with whom it will be a pleasure to come in contact and to transact business.

He is asking a most careful consideration at your hands of his qualifications and will appreciate your support in the July primaries.

EASTLAND GIRL DIES OF GUN-SHOT WOUNDS

Daisy Dell Roper, 14 years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lee Roper of Eastland, died at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon of gun-shot wounds. Reports were that the girl had been suffering from melancholia for several weeks. Judge Elzo Been, who was in Cisco Thursday, told parties here that the girl shot herself with a shot gun by placing the muzzle against her body and pulling the trigger with a stick.

NEIGHBORS SURPRISE MRS. S. G. BLOUNT ON BIRTHDAY

Mrs. S. G. Blount, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. John Scott, at Avenue F and Twelfth street, was given a surprise Tuesday last when several of her friends called to honor her on the occasion of her 75th birthday. Bringing plenty of good things to eat neighboring ladies came and helped her celebrate the event in a most enjoyable manner. Those in the party invading the Scott home were Mrs. Mattie Robinson, Mrs. W. H. Kittrell, Mrs. J. D. Mann, Mrs. Jay Warren, Mrs. G. H. Kinsey and Mrs. M. Little.

The honoree had recently returned from a visit to Big Spring, and while her friends gave her a real surprise, the event was none the less enjoyable. The Blounts have lived in Cisco for the past 25 years.

Mrs. E. S. Bond, of McHenry, Miss., is a recent arrival at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wippert. Mrs. Bond will be remembered as Miss Clementine Wippert by her many friends in Cisco.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Praise the Lord with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument with ten strings. Sing unto him a new song; play skillfully with a loud noise.—Ps. 33:2-3.

Those joys of earth, what do they bring?
The promise that the angels sing:
The Christ is near.
They are but symbols of the real,
Whose bliss Love only will reveal,
And heaven appear.

—William Forbes

One of the most vivid recollections of my boyhood is the picture of my mother, standing at the gate with a lamp in hand, sending one boy to work in the mills and welcoming another boy home. My brother was on the night shift and I was on the day shift. On dark nights my mother, realizing that my little brother was afraid, would go with him to the gate, and holding the lamp high in her hands, she would sing an old Welsh song while he trudged bravely into the dark. She would keep singing till he disappeared, and then as he passed into the night I would walk wearily out of the same, and find my way home guided by her lamp and song. The memory of her music has made my whole life happy.—Arthur C. Archibald.

SOVEREIGN PEOPLE FAWNING AT FEET OF MONOPOLY

Communities of Texas served by the Community Natural Gas company will ask that company "in the name of mercy" not to raise gas rates at this time, it was decided at a meeting here Thursday afternoon attended by officials and citizens of a large number of West Texas towns and cities.

The "name of Mercy" phrase was coined by Judge C. M. Caldwell of Abilene, a member of the resolutions committee, who said:

"We are not asking the gas company to lower rates now; we are asking in the name of mercy that rates be not raised. If by pleading with them we cannot reach the hearts of the gas company officials, about all we can do is to fall back on kerosene, coal and wood."—Abilene News.

To my mind no more pitiful sight could be visioned than the picture one can draw from the above statement of C. M. Caldwell, made when the people of Abilene and other cities were called together to consider the threat of the Community Natural (hijackers) Gas company, and its parent, the papacious Lone Star, to force an unjust and unreasonable gas rate upon the people of those communities. It is indeed a sad day for an alleged free people, and a pitiful spectacle to see a sovereign people grovel in the dust at the feet of corporate greed and beg for mercy from a child of their own creation.

Merciful God, have we lost every vestige of that rich heritage bequeathed to the American people by patriotic forebears?—It is sad indeed when a sovereign people, once lords of the land in which they live, feel there is no other remedy to right our wrongs except to fawn at the feet of corporate greed, grown powerful from polluted pelf extracted from a lethargic people, who have slept while monopoly fastened its deadly fangs in their very vitals; a people, so secure in their sovereignty that they cared little of what was going on until it is everlastingly too late. Truly the wisdom of "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty" is now being brought forcibly home to Texans.

Surely those immortal heroes who made the supreme sacrifice in throwing off the yoke of Mexican tyrants must turn in their graves if they could only know how little we have valued their patriotic valor. If their spirits can realize how faithlessly we have kept the trust reposed in their followers they must feel that their sacrifice was to no purpose when they know they freed this fair land only to be ground in the lust under the heel of a more ruthless tyrant.

It is no consolation to know that we are being tyrannized by a creature of our own creation, under the laws of our own enactment.

But we are told that history repeats itself, and one need never be surprised should these same sovereign people decide to take back the authority usurped by these monopolies, and ignore statutes enacted by the hirelings of corporations, even though this can only be done by the rule of the mob.

The Cisco Citizen would deplore resorting to violence in righting the wrongs that corporate greed is seeking to impose upon the people, yet there is a limit to human tolerance, and that limit, we can see, is fast approaching the breaking point.

Previously this paper has warned our local octopus, the Lone Star and its illegitimate child, the Community Natural (hijackers) Gas companies, that the finger fate is slowly writing their doom at their own instigation. So far, this warning goes unheeded, but when the wrath of an outraged people does break it will be just too bad. It will also be everlastingly too late.

There is no lesson that bloated monopoly will learn. Everyone is from Missouri, and must be shown. The fate that befell the ruling house of Russia means nothing to them; the horrors of the French commune has faded from their memory. They must have their "guaranteed 10 per cent on their invested capital" regardless of how their expense accounts may be padded, and what price they may pay into their own coffers for the raw material they are selling the people.

We repeat, it is indeed a sad spectacle to see a sovereign people fawning at the feet of corporate greed, and suppliantly "begging for mercy."

We predict that Abilene will get nowhere in its "mercy plea" to corrupt monopoly, grown rich with ill-gotten gains extracted from the people. What care they for your "mercy pleas;" what care they for the untold suffering that may occur this winter when jobless men find their gas meters removed and their loved ones shivering with cold; what care they if some child may die, even, by reason of the fact there is no fuel in the home to keep its frail little body warm? Mr. Chester May, of the Community company, told the city commission: "We must do something, as we are not making what the law allows." He may be again reminded that the people, if forced to, may also "do something."

Whether the people wish to do so or not, it seems that they will have to adopt the alternate plan of reverting back to wood and coal for their fuel supply, for there will be many who cannot pay the present rate, to say nothing of the rate requested, which is more than double that now being charged.

TARRANT NOT ALONE FOR ECONOMY

The taxpayers of Tarrant county are on a rampage and give every appearance of meaning business in their demands for fewer taxes and wiser expenditure of the public funds. An example of their desperate earnestness is their proposal to reduce the number of representatives in the lower house of the legislature to seventy-five. That means that Tarrant county is ready to give up two of her members in the house and perhaps three. It is only by that sort of self-denial, however, that we will ever get any real relief from taxation.

Going further, the taxpayers would limit courthouse salaries to a top of $5,000. They would combine the office of county clerk with that of district clerk, abolish the treasurer's place altogether, consolidate posts of tax collector and tax assessor, economize on lateral roads, let the sheriff police traffic on highways, tighten up collection of delinquent taxes, trim off a number of county sinecures, hire a reliable outside audit of county accounts and clean house generally. If one-half of these recommendations should be adopted, Tarrant county will save hundreds of thousands of dollars.

But the taxpayers propose even further to cancel $1,700,000 worth of bonds by the county and by the city of Fort Worth and now left unspent. The News is not prepared to say what should be done in that case, but the very fact that it is proposed shows that the sentiment for saving money in public business is getting very strong and very concrete. If that determination becomes general, taxation will actually come down.—Dallas News.

KENNON ASKS FOR YOUR SUPPORT IN COMIN PRIMARIES

To the Voters of Precinct 6:

When I announced for the office of justice of the peace of the Cisco precinct, No. 6, it was my purpose to make a close campaign and personally visit every voter in this precinct. Owing to the fact that other duties, principally publishing the Cisco Citizen, I find that it will be impossible to prosecute this campaign as closely as intended, for like many others I must labor to support my family, and rely to a large extent on my friends to support my candidacy.

I hope to see as many as possible, and those whom I do not meet I hereby solicit your support in the primary election July 23. I believe all will give me credit of being a friend of those, who, like myself, find that the present depression is sorely afflicting the entire country. You who have been reading the Citizen know the interest of the more unfortunate has been championed by the Citizen, and if I am elected will administer the law as justice demands, and that is where leniency should be exercised the law contemplates the unfortunate should not be unduly or severely punished. In fact the law recognizes that the administration of justice should be tempered with mercy, and always administered impartially and without bias. This I know I can do, as I will, if elected, go into the office with experience, and some knowledge of the law.

Poor Man's Court

The office of justice of the peace is the court of the poor man. Here he is arraigned, and here his disagreements are adjudicated. If your justice has an eye single to fairness, justice and equity, your interests will be taken care of. If yours is a case where leniency should be exercised, I promise that you will have every consideration, and none will be penalized more harshly than the gravity of the offense should warrant.

In civil matters the poorest and most obscure person will be treated with the same courtesy and fairness that will be accorded the most influential citizen. And it will be the policy of the court to administer justice according to the law and evidence, and not according to the pleadings of counsel. In other words I will be the justice in fact, as well as name.

The law does not require a li-giant to employ counsel to have his rights adjusted, while it is always advisable, but if the litigant is not financially able to do so, it is the duty of the justice to prepare citation and have the process served. Then, too, the poorest man in the county can file his case, and get the same court service as the wealthiest citizen by simply making an affidavit of his inability to pay the court costs. From having previously held this office in another Texas county, and spent much time in the study of law, I shall go into the office equipped to prepare the court papers for those unable to employ counsel. In other words, I know the duties, am familiar with the practice and understand the court procedure. I believe my judgement of the law is as sound as the average lawyer, and more so than the average man who is not a practicing attorney.

Will Move From City Hall

Should you elect me as your justice one of my first acts will be to establish a place for holding court separate and apart from any other tribunal, as I do not believe justice can be as well administered where two courts occupy the same location. So, if I am elected to preside over the justice court I shall not maintain my office in the city hall. In the first place the city needs the entire building to administer its own municipal affairs, and I deem it an intrusion upon the city to hold justice court in the police court room.

I have gone into some detail to acquaint you with my qualifications for the office I am seeking and to give you my ideas on how the office should be administered. I presume most of you know me personally, but only as a man and newspaper worker. As such I have always championed the cause of the less fortunate, because those financially and socially strong are able to protect themselves. The justice court is the poor man's court and it is the duty of your justice of the peace to see that the humblest citizen gets as square a deal as a most influential person that may have business with this court. It will be my purpose to see that this is done. I know that after I have served one term as your justice of the peace that you will be convinced that I have made no promises that will not be fulfilled.

Ten Years Long Enough

I have no rocks to throw at my opponent. He and I are personal friends. But I believe I can make you a better justice by reason of the knowledge I have of law and the procedure of litigation, be-

PRORATION OF COFFEE EFFECTIVE IN BRAZIL

A press dispatch says that in an effort to bring prices back to a profitable scale, Brazil has undertaken not only to buy and destroy 12,000,000 bags of coffee, but between 300,000,000 and 400,000,000 coffee trees. Funds for the purchases are obtained from a tax on exports. Only the best grades are allowed to leave the country.

Former Police Chief Miller, and candidate for sheriff, was summoned to Fort Worth Tuesday as a state witness in a burglary case. The defendants against whom felony charges were filed for house-breaking, were arrested here about two months ago by then Police Chief Miller and his patrolmen, when most of the stolen loot was recovered. He returned home Wednesday night.

criminal and civil. Then, too, the well known Democratic policy of rotation in office should apply to his case. We generally favor a second term to all officials who have demonstrated their fidelity, and qualification. He has not only been honored with the second term, but is now a candidate for his sixth term, as his present tenure dates back to 1922, if I remember correctly. But he had previously held the office one term. So, if I am correct, he has already served in the office 12 years, and unless I can unseat him, will have held the job 14 years if elected for the ensuing term.

Don't you think a change would be beneficial? If you elect me I believe I can show you even if you are from Missouri.

Assuring each and all of you of my appreciation for the voluntary support you have promised me, and the further assurance that I will administer the office conscientiously and faithfully, I am

CISCO BOY SECRETARY OF TEXAS DELEGATION

Sam Rayburn, chairman of the Garner campaign forces, has named W. H. Kittrell, Jr., secretary of the Texas delegation to the Democratic national convention at Chicago. The appointment of Will Kittrell as secretary of the Texas delegation is a reversal of the action taken at the convention in Houston, which named Miss Carter, daughter of Amon G. Carter, secretary. Just what process Rayburn resorted to, or his authority to reverse the action of the presidential convention, is not known. However, the Dallas News Monday carried the following paragraph, telling of the departure of the Texas delegation:

W. H. Kittrell, Jr. was named Sunday as secretary of the Texas delegation. The appointment came in a telegram from Representative Sam Rayburn, chairman of the Texas delegation. He announced immediately that the Dallas members of this delegation will leave from Dallas Friday afternoon on the train that carries the Old Gray Mare band. Will Rogers, America's ace humorist, will also be on the train, as well as a number of prominent Texans not members of the delegation.

NEW MANAGER OF HOTEL

GUDE IS L. B. CAMPBELL

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Campbell and children have recently moved to the Hotel Gude, where Mr. Campbell has been made manager of this popular hostelry, where he is arranging to take care of the general transient business. Mr. Campbell was manager of the Laguna up to the time the property was sold, and no doubt many of the traveling public will be guests of the Gude just as soon as it is ascertained that Campbell is in charge.

Practically new, gives excellent light, will sell cheap. Citizen office.

QUESTIONNAIRE PROPOUNDED BY TAXPAYERS ASSOCIATION TO LEGISLATIVE ASPIRANTS

The following is a condensation of the questionnaire adopted by the State Taxpayers association to be answered by candidates for the state legislative bodies.

QUESTION 1—Reduction of state, county, precinct and municipal government expense 33 1-3 per cent exclusive of bonded indebtedness.

QUESTION 2—Limitation of all bond issues; requiring two-third vote of tax payers to issue bonds.

QUESTION 3—Graduated income tax to take the place of general property ad valorem tax.

QUESTION 4—Re-adjustment of tax system, removing burdens now placed on real property, and forcing personal property to be rendered for taxation, that it may pay its share of the cost of government.

QUESTION 5—Re-apportionment of gasoline revenues: One-fourth to schools, one-fourth to retire county road bonds, one-half to build and maintain roads; abolishment of highway patrol, placing this in the hands of the counties.

QUESTION 6—Assessment of all property at reasonable market value at time and under conditions existing when assessments are made, to eliminate fictitious values to raise revenues.

QUESTION 7—Elimination of all necessary offices, departments and bureaus and the consolidation of others that all departments of state may be reduced to not exceed twenty-five.

QUESTION 8—An effective arbitration measure as required by the constitution. Simplifying court procedure; reduction of courts; reduction of cost of litigation at least seventy-five per cent.

QUESTION 9—Abolishment of fee system and excess fees to be paid into general fund of each county.

QUESTION 10—System of compensation of officials and employees of state, county, municipal and precinct officials on a par with remuneration of private persons for an equivalent service. Change of primary election laws to prorate cost of holding such elections between the counties and state, that men of limited means may run for public office.

QUESTION 11—Restoration of original authority to commissioners courts for full control over all business of the county, with full power to determine the help required for each office and the compensation to be paid therefor.

QUESTION 12—Requiring all local laws to be published in the county affected to be prominently published for thirty days prior to passage, declaring intention to make application for such a law.

QUESTION 13—What is your connections, if any, with the larger corporations, including all public utilities? If elected, do you pledge yourself while serving the people as legislator, to refrain from any connection, directly or indirectly, with above named interests?

The following additional questions are suggested by the Cisco Taxpayers league:

QUESTION 14—The repeal of the state guaranteeing 10 per cent returns on invested capital of public service corporations.

QUESTION 15—A law to prevent utility companies from promulgating rates to ruin and destroy competition, after having been petitioned by such municipality to inaugurate such prices that are reasonable, after which said public service corporations refused to do:

QUESTION 16—A law requiring the rendition of all vendors lien notes, mortgages, deeds of trust, etc., as a pre-requisite to their collection.

Taxpayers Warning To Voters of Texas In Coming Election

The paramount issue in Texas today, is the question of taxation as shown by the records. Thousands of homes in the cities and in the country are being foreclosed and titles passing to the State because the owners are unable to pay the taxes. To close our eyes to this condition is worse than criminal. The taxing bodies of this state, to wit, the commissioners court and the legislature, have indulged in an orgy of extravagance and expenditure unheard of before in the history of the world. These are the bodies to which the people must look for relief and every taxpayer in Texas should be on edge from now until the election to see that only persons are elected whom they know will carry out a policy of rigid economy in county and state government.

If this spending orgy shall continue for a few more years, both county and state governments will be irretrievably bankrupt, and repudiation of their bonded indebtedness will necessarily follow.

Association's Fight Unselfish
The State Taxpayers association of Texas is devotedly and unselfishly working to relieve this situation. It earnestly solicits the cooperation of the entire citizenship of this state.

We know without going into details that thousands—even millions—of dollars are spent unnecessarily; dozens of institutions, boards, and commissions may be abolished or consolidated, and the expenditures of other institutions may be greatly reduced without loss of efficiency in administration.

We earnestly urge the passing of state and federal laws requiring candidates for the legislature and for congress to make full and frank disclosure under oath, before proper authorities of their connections with corporate or other special interests and providing for the publication of such statements.

We further urge that members of legislative bodies be required to restate their connection of this character when they shall take the oath of office.

Question Each Candidate
We urge that every taxpayer shall consider himself a committee of one to question every candidate for the commissioners court, the legislature and for congress at public meeting and for this purpose will employ the questionnaire as adopted by this association.

One of the sources of enormous waste of public funds is the payment of salaries and fees wholly out of proportion to the compensation paid for equivalent private services. If the beneficiaries of this system shall refuse to cooperate with taxpayers in correction of this abuse, they should be promptly retired from public office.

The issue of this campaign lies with you. If you shall vote to carry out the purposes of this association, the relief which may be had at the hands of the next legislature and the next administration will work the beginning of a new and better epoch in the history of this state.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH SERVICES

The lesson-sermon subject is "Christian Science" in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, June 26.

"When ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe," is the golden text from I Thessalonians 2:13.

The lesson-sermon includes the following passages from the Bible (Isaiah 29:18,19): "And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness. The meek also shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel."

The service also embraces citations from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, among them being the following from preface p. vii:

"The time for thinkers has come. Truth, independent of doctrines and time-honored systems, knocks at the portal of humanity."

Linking Scenes of Solomon's Temple And Texas Capitol

It's a far cry from the "cedars of Lebanon" to the cedar brakes of the Colorado, likewise it is some distance from Mount Lebanon to the rocky hills on Travis county, yet to negotiate that intervening space is the ambition of one who seeks to represent his people in the Texas capitol.

About 3000 years ago King Solomon decided to erect a temple of worship, which, he said, was to be "exceedingly magnified" in which God was to meet with man.

He sent to "Hiram, king of Tyre," to cut him cedar trees on Mount Lebanon, and said: "I will give thy servants 20,000 measures of wheat; 20,000 baths of oil; 20,000 baths of wine," (that is 180,000 gallons. The records fail to mention any protest, so evidently the "noble experiment was not in effect at that time.)

An English statistician estimated that Solomon's Temple cost the princely sum of "seventy billions (not millions) dollars" to construct this "house of God."

About a year ago, Cecil A. Lotief, a youth 15 years of age, emigrated from this scene, where these cedars were "cut, felled and hewn in the forests of Mount Lebanon", coming to America. He lives here now, and is offering to represent this florid district in the Texas le-gisature. He is an aggressive and progressive citizen, of about 45 years of age, the husband of a beautiful Syrian wife, (of his own nativity); the father of two bright children; a good business man, and if sent to Austin will battle for that which he believes is for best interests of his constituents.

Incidentally, his election will form an invisible chain connecting Jerusalem, the site of the ancient temple, with our own magnificent temple, the state capitol, in the city of Austin.

A Shot-Scarred Ford Stands Mute Witness Wednesday Tragedy

A shot-scarred Ford sedan, the death car that figured in an horrible tragedy enacted near Cisco last Wednesday evening, stands as a mute witness, when little Clyde Alvin, the three year old child of Clyde C. Custer, was accidentally killed when Steve Rogers and Lee Custer engaged in a pistol duel at the farm of Rogers, who lives about three miles west of Cisco.

The trouble that led up to the shooting between Rogers and Custer is said to be of long standing, having its commencement over Rogers signing a bond for Custer some time ago, and Custer's disappearance, causing Rogers considerable expense to bring him back to Eastland county authorities.

Many rumors are being circulated as to the cause of the feud between these parties, which will doubtless be brought out when Rogers is arraigned on the charge of homicide in connection with the death of the child.

After the shooting the little fellow was brought to the Graham sanitarium, but life had left the little body before it reached the hospital.

A formal complaint was made against Rogers before Judge J. H. McDonald, who placed his bond at $2,000, which he readily made and was released, after the bond was signed by F. E. Shockley and D. E. Waters.

After the shooting Custer escaped, went to the home of his mother, where his wounds were dressed, and then he was at liberty till Thursday when he was captured by Sheriff Foster and deputies. Custer was taken to jail at Eastland where he is held on a charge of car theft.

The dead baby was the little son of a brother of Lee Custer.

Lee Custer, who has a long criminal record for a young man, had only returned to Eastland county after being released from the Texas penitentiary. County officers were notified to arrest him for automobile theft. The stolen car, however, was not the one in which Custer was riding when the tragedy was enacted. The owner of the stolen car came for the machine Thursday. The car was stolen at Carlton, Texas.

Steve Rogers is well known to many in this part of the county, and all speak highly of him as a man of many good qualities. It is said that the tragedy that ended in the death of little Clyde Alvin is deplored by no one more than Rogers, as it was stated he said he did not know the baby was in the car when he was shooting at Custer.

Popular Cisco Girl Succumbs to Injury By Fall off Truck

Cisco was shocked this morning when it was learned that Miss Dorothy Chambliss, popular high school graduate and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Chambliss, had passed away. Death resulted from injuries received Tuesday evening when she fell from a truck at Avenue D and West Tenth street. With a party of young folk she was returning home from Lake Cisco, all riding on the truck. As the machine turned at D and Tenth street she was thrown to the brick pavement and one of the rear wheels passed over her chest. She was immediately taken to the home of her parents, but later removed to the Graham sanitarium.

Until Thursday evening it was thought there was a chance for her recovery, but death ended her suffering at 4:45 this morning.

Miss Dorothy was a favorite with all who knew her, and many are sorrowing today over the untimely passing of this popular young lady.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed at the Citizen's hour of going to press, however, it is presumed that burial will be Saturday.

TOM HUNTER SPEAKS IN CISCO JULY 4th

Tom Hunter, candidate for governor, writes Cisco people that he will speak here July 4, in the interest of his candidacy. The hour will be at 1:30 p. m., but the place of speaking has not been announced, but will likely be in or near the city hall.

Mr. Hunter favors many of the reform measures that are being advocated by the people in general and the Taxpayers association particularly. All are requested to hear him. Among those reforms he favors is included taking 70 per cent of the ad valorem tax off real estate, both farm and city; exemption of homesteads of $3,000 from any state tax and regulation of utilities.

COUNTY TAXPAYERS MEET AT RANGER TODAY 2 P. M.

The fortnightly meeting of the Eastland county Taxpayers association will be held at Ranger Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. This will be one of the most important meetings of the association that will be held before the primaries, and every person interested in economical administration of county and state government should be in attendance. Also it is anticipated that many of the candidates will be present, and probably some questions will be propounded to those who expect to represent Eastland and Callahan counties in the legislature.

Pampa Man Advises Round-Table Talks To Adjust Gas Rates

The Abilene News, anent the gas rate squabble that is now agitating all towns in this part of Texas, quotes a Pampa man, who advises a conference between the gas officials and members of the several city commissions. The plan is at least worth trying, and it seems to the Cisco Citizen that an amicable adjustment might be likely unless the gas officials are hell-bent on driving the people to desperation. The people are carrying every ounce of expense that it is now possible, and if there is a bit of reason in those representing the gas utility a settlement is not impossible. Worse things have happened than a bad compromise.

Quoting F. M. Gwin of Pampa, and the recent gas conference, the Abilene paper says:

"We have been over the same ground," Gwin said. "Up in Pampa, instead of having our domestic gas rate raised, we have had two reductions from the Central States Power & Light company since 1927. We just sat across the table from the gas officials and made an amicable deal for all concerned."

Pampa's rate is second lowest in the Panhandle. Domestic users pay 30 cents per thousand for 30,000 feet; 18 cents for the next 170,000 feet; and 16 cents for the next 300,000 feet. Minimum bill is $1.50 monthly, no service charge. The town has 2,400 gas connections. The customer who uses 5,000 feet pays only the minimum, $1.50. If he were in Abilene, under the present flat rate of 67 1-2 cents, he would pay $3.38. Under the Community's proposed sliding charge of $1.50, $1.25 and 75 cents, he would pay $5 for 5,000 feet.

"The Central pays four to six cents for its gas wholesale, and pipes it an average of ten miles into Pampa," Gwin said. "The company is not complaining, although since 1927 it has had to reduce the rate from a top of 75 cents net per 1,000 feet. In 1928 we were granted a 45-cent rate, and in 1930 the present 30-cent rate. Amarillo has an even better rate than ours, a top of 27 cents. Other Panhandle towns served by the Central States pay generally about a fourth more than we."

Gwin has been at Pampa since January '28. He has recently resigned. Earlier he was mayor-manager at Cross Plains.

CISCO LODGE NO. 556, A. F. & A. M. ELECTS OFFICERS
Cisco Lodge No. 556, A. F. & A. M., elected officers Thursday night for the ensuing Masonic year. The elected officers are G. R. Kilpatrick, worshipful master; George Boyd, senior warden; Howard Brown, junior warden; Jewel Poe, treasurer; L. D. Wilson, secretary; Fred Steffey, tiler.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ELIMINATES THE BAND
At a meeting of the directors of the chamber of commerce Tuesday night, the allowance for the maintenance of the local band was withdrawn, in conformity with the program of economy made necessary by the recent cut in the chamber's budget. The appropriation for the vocational department was reduced 25 per cent, and other fixed expenses, such as utilities, supplies, etc., were reduced 33 1-3 per cent. Owing to matters that delayed the Citizen in appearing this week we cannot go into the significance of this action, as was our intention, but the Citizen will likely have something to say next week. However, this action is anything but meeting popular approval, as the vocational department and the band, the people of Cisco regard, as of more importance than the chamber of commerce itself.
