

CISCO DAILY NEWS

CISCO, TEXAS—1,614 feet above the sea; 5 lakes of water; 5 rail exits; 6 paved highway exits; 137 blocks of brick streets; good hotels; A-1 public schools and Randolph College; no mosquitoes; no malaria or typhoid.

EASTLAND CO.—Area 925 square miles; population 33,981; cotton, fruit, poultry, dairying, natural gas and oil; Cisco is headquarters for operators of the great shallow oil field; churches of all denominations.

VOLUME XIII CISCO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JULY 29, 1932. FOUR PAGES TODAY NUMBER 162.

SOLDIERS "CLEAN UP" BONUS CAMP

Delegations to Urge Designation of Cut-Off August 2

HEARING TO BE HELD BY ROAD BODY

Designation of the Cisco-Leary cut-off from this city north to a junction with highway 27 will be discussed with the highway commission at Austin Aug. 2. Petition for state designation of this route was made some time ago and the hearing set for that date.

J. J. Collins, president, and J. E. Spencer, secretary of the chamber of commerce, will accompany County Judge Clyde L. Garrett and County Comm'r Birt Britain to Austin to urge designation of the 10-mile strip.

Delegations will also go from Graham and from Rising Star, Brownwood and Breckenridge are expected to be represented also.

The stretch of road is in bad condition and the county is financially unable to reurface it. Hence traffic sought from Brownwood and Rising Star to Breckenridge and northward is placed at disadvantage with the present condition of the road.

LOCATION OF HIGHWAY HEARING

AUSTIN, July 29.—Location of state highway 146 from Texas City to Dayton, conditionally designated by the Texas Highway commission will be discussed with delegations from Galveston, Harris and Liberty counties here August 3, it was announced today.

Nineteen delegations are scheduled to appear before the commission. Those to be heard August 2 include Eastland and Stephens counties requesting designation from Cisco, Eastland county, to a connection with highway 67, near Leary about 10 miles.

Young and Palo Pinto counties requesting designation from Graham to highway No. or 1-A, Palo Pinto county.

200 CARS IN HUMBLE OIL BELT PARADE

A caravan of cars two miles long will swing out of Cisco tomorrow bound upon a movement circling the oil belt. In the caravan there will be approximately 200 automobiles—50 of them sent by Cisco merchants who have no connection with the Humble company whose employees are sponsoring the parade. Each car will be bannered with the name of the merchant or organization sending it or with Humble slogans or informatics.

The parade will be the opening feature of a day during which the Humble employees will boost Humble sales and Cisco. It will start from Humbletown at 9 o'clock, proceed through Cisco business district to Moran, Albany, Breckenridge, Cad-do, Ranger, Eastland and back to Cisco. Schedule calls for the caravan to reach Cisco on the return at 4:30 when the parade will disband on D avenue.

A 20-minute stop will be made in each town visited with the exception of Breckenridge where the group will halt for 30 minutes for lunch. Each city to be visited has been prepared to extend the visiting Cisco group a big welcome and to provide them with all conveniences and courtesies. Local police and fire departments will escort them through the cities.

Returning to Cisco the Humble employees and their guests will enjoy a chicken barbecue and dance at the Cisco Country club during the evening.

TROPICAL FISH SOLD
HOLLY, Mich., July 29.—Tropical fish, including Guppies, are the latest merchandise to be sold by druggists. James E. Richards and Russell Murphy, druggists, opened "The Excel Tropical Aquarium" here recently. The fish are sold from 50 glass cases.

THIEF SENT HOME
MARSHALL, Mich., July 29.—John Bolman, 21-year-old Jackson, Mich., youth, was sent to his home town to serve a 7 1/2 to 15 year prison term when he pleaded guilty here to a burglary charge. Michigan State Prison is located in Jackson.

Garner Rests at Texas Ranch

Here are the Garner family, with "Speaker Jack" taking it mighty easy during vacation days, on the front lawn of the Garner home, Uvalde, Texas. Seated, left to right, Mrs. John N. Garner, Speaker Garner, Genevieve Garner, 9-year-old granddaughter, who is a favorite fishing companion of the speaker's, and Mrs. Tully C. Garner, daughter-in-law. The Garner's only son, Tully, is standing behind his mother.

Commander at Fort Bliss Has Most Responsible Position in Southwest

EL PASO, July 29.—Brig. Gen. Walter C. Short, commander of the First Cavalry division with headquarters at Fort Bliss, Texas, is charged with the supervision of 4,900 men and administration yearly of $3,000,000. It is perhaps the most responsible position in the Southwest, and many influential men, ordinarily considered captains of industry, are mere straw bosses in comparison.

Fort Bliss is the largest cavalry post in the United States, and in time of war Brig. Gen. Short would command 28,000 men—counting auxiliary troops, he would have 45,000. In addition to the government properties under his supervision at Fort Bliss, there are three other forts scattered over the southwest at which his word is law.

Brig. Gen. Short has spent 42 years learning to be a soldier, and has never found any branch of the service that suited him better than the cavalry. A superb horseman of international repute himself, this erect and vigorous 62-year-old man stoutly denies mounted troops will ever be displaced by airplanes.

"The cavalry is not passing out of the picture," he said. "On the contrary, every modern army in the world is adding to its mounted forces."

"They realize only cavalry can furnish the night reconnaissance necessary for long range guns. Airplanes cannot see at night."

Brig. Gen. Short was born in Columbus, Ohio, on April 3, 1870. He early developed a liking for the military life, and entered the army when 21 years old. Since then he has fought border bandits, traveled the world around, and fraternized with kings, queens, and presidents. He was wounded twice in the famous charge up San Juan hill in Cuba during the Spanish-American war. The Brigadier-General helped organize the Fort Riley cavalry school, the greatest in the world.

"I never wanted to be anything else but a soldier," he said. "If I had it to do over, I'd be one again."

Rev. Dow to Be Back in Pulpit

Rev. Victor D. Dow, who has been conducting meetings at Romney and Bedford for the past three weeks, will be in his pulpit at the Twelfth Street Methodist church for both services Sunday, he announced today.

Nazarene Church Revival Begins

The Nazarene church began its regular summer meeting Thursday evening. The Rev. Robert Jones, evangelist of Cisco bringing the message of the evening, using the subject "Influence."

Rev. H. A. Gregory of Dallas is to conduct the meeting closing out one in Anny, Arkansas, last evening he will arrive today in time to take charge of the evening services. He comes well recommended as being a lovable character and good preacher. He will be heard at the tent meeting just north of the church building on A venue and 8th streets. The Nazarene welcome you.

PROGRAM FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

A union service sponsored by the Young People's department of the First Methodist church, to which the young people of Cisco including all denominations are especially urged to attend will be held Sunday evening at 7 o'clock at the First Methodist church. A special program with the subject, "That Brotherhood May Prevail" has been arranged. A cordial invitation is extended.

WEATHER

West Texas—Partly cloudy. Probably thundershowers in west portion tonight and Saturday.
East Texas—Partly cloudy tonight and Saturday.

CONVENTIONS AT EASTLAND TOMORROW

County conventions of both the democratic and republican parties will be held in Eastland tomorrow afternoon at the county courthouse. The democratic convention will begin at 2 o'clock. A large number of delegates from the two Cisco precincts are expected to attend. The republicans will meet at 3 o'clock.

The democratic delegation from the west Cisco precinct will attend the convention with a resolution demanding censure of County Chairman Ed T. Cox for refusal to supply precinct chairman with ballots for the prohibition referendum. What developments this will have in the convention remains to be seen. Cox defended his action on the ground that he could not legally use candidates' money to pay for a referendum of the character.

Both the democratic and republican precinct conventions here passed resolutions directing their delegates to use their efforts to secure delegates to the state convention pledged to the support of a state resolution demanding resubmission of the state's prohibition amendment to the voters, and also demanding modification of the state liquor laws.

LONE STAR AD SEEN IN NEWS AWARDED PRIZE

First prize for the best public utility institutional advertising in the United States has been awarded to the advertising department of the Lone Star Gas system, but the Public Utilities Advertising association. More than 100 companies in the United States and Canada with several thousand ads were entered in the contest. The company also won honorable mention for an ad entitled "A Timely Reminder" which urged preparation for winter heating.

The winning ad appeared in this newspaper and other Texas newspapers last fall and was titled "Your Gas Dollar—What Becomes of It?" The advertisement displayed a large dollar divided into various sections, showing that 93 cents of each gas dollar stays in Texas, being spent for electric, supplies, gas, taxes and wages. Texas alone, according to the company, amount to 64 cents per month for each customer on the system. The theme of the ad was that most of the money paid out by customers for gas is put right back into the state to maintain a dependable and uninterrupted gas supply, and also to develop the gas system for future needs.

Both ads were written by Willard G. Wiegell, assistant advertising manager for the Lone Star. Art work on the winning ad was done by Hugh Cargo, commercial artist of Dallas. Type setting, mats and electros were furnished by Western Union.

Garbage Contracts With City Sec'y

Copies of the garbage contract upon which the city commission will receive bids next month are with the city secretary, J. B. Cates, where they may be inspected by prospective bidders, Comm'r. J. T. Elliott announced today.

Young Bandits Rob Interurban Station

DALLAS, July 29.—Two youthful bandits robbed the Interurban ticket office at Grand Prairie, mid-way between Dallas and Fort Worth, shortly before noon today, fleeing in a roadster with about $50, police reported here.

COST 9 MILLIONS.
GOTHENBURG, Sweden, July 29.—It cost Sweden $9,500,000 to maintain its highways and motor roads in 1931. This was brought out by Ola Jeppson, Swedish Minister of Communications, at a meeting of the Swedish Road association.

He Can Catch and Cook 'Em, Too

First Woman To Girdle Globe

By HARRY W. FRANTZ
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, July 29.—The remarkable air voyages of Amelia Earhart, Amy Johnson, Lady Heath and other women fliers have aroused some curiosity concerning the adventures of women in bygone centuries, when their explorer brethren were finding the sea-tracks around the world.

The United Press has learned, on the authority of the famous French explorer, Louis Antoine de Bougainville, that a French woman named Bare was the first of her sex to circle the globe.

She was with the Bougainville Expedition on the world cruise from 1766 to 1769 that is best remembered for the discovery of the large island in the Solomon Archipelago which now bears the explorer's name.

The adventurous French-woman was born in Burgundy, orphaned at an early age, and after a lawsuit, donned a man's clothes. She heard of Bougainville's expedition to the Pacific, and went to Rochefort just before the ship sailed. She obtained employment as an assistant to Monsieur de Commacon, botanist.

Her sex was not suspected until the expedition visited Tahiti. There natives commented upon her womanly appearance and started gossip after the ship's crew.

After Bougainville left the archipelago, the commander took account of this gossip, and inquired of the woman the truth of the rumors. She confessed her sex.

Information is lacking concerning the fortunes of Mlle. Bare after her return to France.

MAN FOUND SHOT DEAD ON ROADSIDE

MAN FOUND SHOT DEAD ON ROADSIDE

FORT WORTH, July 29.—A. E. Black, Fort Worth, was found shot to death on a roadside near Wellington today, the Collingsworth county sheriff informed the police department here.

The dead man's son, J. I. Black, was found asleep in a car parked nearby. Officers failed to find a pistol in the vicinity, and held to the theory that Black was murdered. The son is being held for questioning.

The wife of the slain man's son said the two had left here Wednesday for Oklahoma to buy poultry.

Glacier Priest Finds Valley

SEWARD, Alaska, July 29.—An "Alaska Yosemite" — a marvelous hidden valley in uncharted areas of the Chignagak volcano — has been found by the Rev. Bernard R. Hubbard, S. J., geologist of the University of Santa Clara, Cal.

Turning from explorer to discoverer, Father Hubbard and his party of scientists put in at a precipitous walled volcano harbor called Port Wrangell after a perilous voyage in Being Sea in the motorship Polar Bear.

The "glacier priest" accompanied by Red Chisholm, former Santa Clara athlete, Edgar Levin and George Peterson, roved ashore and scaled the mountain barrier that hid the interior of the country from view.

From the top of the ridge they gazed on stupendous 2,000-foot cliffs that dropped to a walled valley surrounded by towering snow-capped mountains.

Ice was moving, grinding down glacier valleys. Waterfalls dashed over cliffs. A broad river entered the strange valley in a cleft of the mountains and swung through dense vegetation of the valley floor through another cleft to the sea.

Big brown bears and small game and wolf were seen in abundance.

ADOPTED BABY LYNX

LOVELAND, Colo., July 29.—Henry Martin, of Buckhorn, is very fond of pets. So much so, in fact, that he has adopted a baby lynx, deserted by its mother. The infant, weighing about two pounds, will be raised on the bottle.

COMPLETES TOMBSTONE

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., July 29.—Carlo Formenti, 74 years old, has completed his own tombstone. He is charging curious spectators 5 cents each for a glimpse at his handiwork.

70 INCENDIARY FIRES

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 29.—Pennsylvania had 70 fires of incendiary origin during June, according to records of the Bureau of Fire Protection of the State Police.

Lone Star Employees Will Picnic Here

About 50 employees of the Lone Star Gas company in this district will be here this evening for a picnic and swim at Lake Cisco. The picnic will be held in the Lions-Rotary park.

H. L. Dyer, local Community Natural Gas company manager, will be host.

Visitors will be here from Baird, Albany, Moran, Strawn, Gordon and Eastland.

TWO HUNTER MEN SWING TO STERLING

DALLAS, July 29.—George O. Wallace, Dallas county chairman of the Hunter for Governor campaign, today announced that he would support Governor Sterling in the second primary. In a statement issued to the press today Mr. Wallace said:

"Believing that Tom Hunter would make Texas one of the best governments it ever had, I gave to him my full support. In doing so I think that I fully discharged my duty as a good citizen of my state. Mr. Hunter having been eliminated, it now becomes my duty to make choice between Governor Sterling and Mrs. Ferguson.

"I would not vote for the best woman in Texas for this high office if I thought her husband would be the governor in fact. This would be true even if that husband should bear the best reputation for integrity and patriotism. I will not support a candidate who will be governor in name only, and approve a governorship by proxy. I cannot forget the corruption which occurred during the administration of the Fergusons husband and wife. As a good citizen I will not lend my vote for the possible return of similar conditions.

"The first qualification of this office is that of honesty. No amount of brains or efficiency will take its place. I therefore without hesitation or reservation will give my support in the runoff to Governor Sterling.

"I urge the supporters of Tom Hunter, who in the first primary were impelled by the sense of patriotic duty and service to the state to cast their ballots in the interest of the best welfare of the state, to continue the discharge of such high obligations by aiding the forces of good government in the defeating of Fergusonism. We must save our state from the withering blight which threatens it now. The only choice we have is Governor Ross S. Sterling."

A. J. Schulsier, South Texas campaign manager for Tom F. Hunter, simultaneous with the announcement of Mr. Wallace announced that he would support Governor Sterling and take active part in the campaign during the run-off.

"Mr. Sterling was accused of many things during the campaign just ended but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose—Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised but no one has been able to assert and dishonestly in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs

THE CISCO DAILY NEWS

Phone 80.

Published By
THE CISCO PRINTING & PUBLISHING COMPANY.
304-306 D Avenue, Cisco, Texas.

MEMBER UNITED PRESS.
MEMBER ADVERTISING BUREAU.
TEXAS DAILY PRESS LEAGUE.

W. H. LA ROQUE.....Manager.
B. A. BUTLER.....Editor.
Entered at the Postoffice in Cisco, Texas, as Second Class Mail matter.

Publication Days: Afternoons (except Saturday) and Sunday morning.
Subscription Rates: Per Week (delivered in Cisco), 15c, 1¢ paid in advance, Twelve months, $6.00.

Obituaries and Cards of Thanks, 10c per line; Classified, 2c per word.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation, which may appear in the columns of this paper will be gladly corrected upon being brought to the attention of the editor.

Any error made in advertisements will be gladly corrected upon being brought to attention of the publishers and the liability of this paper is limited to the amount of the space consumed by the error in the advertisement.

A VETERAN REPUBLICAN RETIRES.

In the Nutmeg state of Connecticut Representative A. B. Tilson has been a republican leader for many years. He was an aspirant for the house speakership when John Nance Garner won the gavel. Rep. Snell of New York won the republican house leadership and this threw Tilson on the sidelines. Now Tilson has decided to resign from congress and not seek a re-election. He has his reasons. They are economic. He is planning to seek activity in other fields where he trusts his talents will be equally well employed and where he hopes the net financial returns for his labors will at least be on the right side of the ledger. Regardless of all that has been said about the salary paid to a congressman, only a miser can get by in the city of Washington unless a handsome stipend goes with the job. A congressional representative has to do the honors of his district. He cannot sleep in a wagon yard and maintain the dignity of the position. He cannot browse around for free lunches. He has to entertain all visitors who invade the capital from his district or state. Tilson is wise. He is going to return to private life where he will be his own master and perhaps do something in a financial way for his loved ones.

A NEWS ITEM FOR TEXAS TAXPAYERS.

There may be a bit of consolation in this announcement for the taxpayers of the commonwealth: State automatic tax board set the state tax rate at 69 cents for a hundred dollar valuation for 1932, or a decrease of five cents on the tax collected on the 1931 valuation. For school purposes, the tax rate was set at the constitutional maximum of 35 cents; for Confederate pensions at seven cents; and for general revenue purposes at 27 cents. State tax rate last year was 74 cents. A prediction: The day is coming when a general sales tax will be the successor of all nuisance taxes in this republic.

BIG BOOTLEGGERS ARE LOSING GROUND.

Howard Jones of the capital city of Washington and acting chief of the prohibition division of the government, reports that big business bootleggers are losing ground with small scale competitors. There has been a big slump in the price of red liquor. Green corn liquor is bringing low prices in sections of the southern corn belt that barely meet cost and eliminate margins of profit required by the large scale bootleggers operating with expensively equipped facilities. This is the verdict of Col. Howard Jones, the big voice of Federal Prohibition Director Woodcock: "There isn't the money in it there was." Well, there isn't the money in any industry, legitimate or illegitimate, there was. Way down

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—Most of the petty "graft" and the cheap little tricks which members of Congress employ to augment their salaries are going to get a full airing in this year's congressional campaigns.

They have been exposed more mercilessly than ever before and the fellows who are out to get the seats of the present members already have begun to raise them as issues.

The practice of putting members of the family on the federal payroll as clerks, the collections of mileage allowances which are never spent, the economical practices of Senator Park Trammell who sleeps in his office, the junkets of congressional committees and the franking privilege have all been taken for a ride—just as if they hadn't always been practiced and as if they represented more than a tiny drop in the big bucket of federal expenditures.

Much Explaining Due

SOME members will have an easy time explaining themselves, while others are likely to find it rather difficult. No one, for instance, is likely to have the nerve to criticize Speaker Garner for employing his efficient wife as his secretary.

There are many similar cases where relatives, some of whom were employed by members long before they came here, are rendering able, faithful service both to the members and their constituents. On the other hand, some rather tall stories will have to be told to explain the value of senatorial or congressional relatives who are on the payroll, but are notoriously absent from the offices in which they are supposed to work.

Then There's the Record

A NICE point was raised at the very end of the session when the Senate broke into a brief debate as to the propriety of printing political speeches in the Congressional Record, which costs $5 a page.

It's an old Senate custom to insert political speeches such as those the cabinet members are delivering for Mr. Hoover and both houses let their members run more or less wild in printing speeches of their own which are never actually delivered, but which may be mailed out during the campaigns.

Copies of the latter, with the composition already paid for, are bought at cost—about $2.40 a thousand—and shipped free of charge to as many constituents as a member wants to reach.

Borah's Attitude

SENATOR BORAH says the habit of tossing political speeches into the Record costs hundreds of thousands of dollars a year. The nice point is how much of the stuff that goes into the Record is worth the expense.

Obviously, a great deal of it is not worth anywhere near $5 a page. But there is no authority who can possibly determine its value to the country or to a given constituency and each member decides for himself with frequently bizarre results. It is possible for a senator to cover a couple of hundred pages with a speech plus exhibits and to argue plausibly that the cause he advocates justifies the expense.

Congress adjourned July 16, but bulky editions of the Record appear for the next week or so, full of revised remarks and synthetic speeches which are desired for mailing purposes.

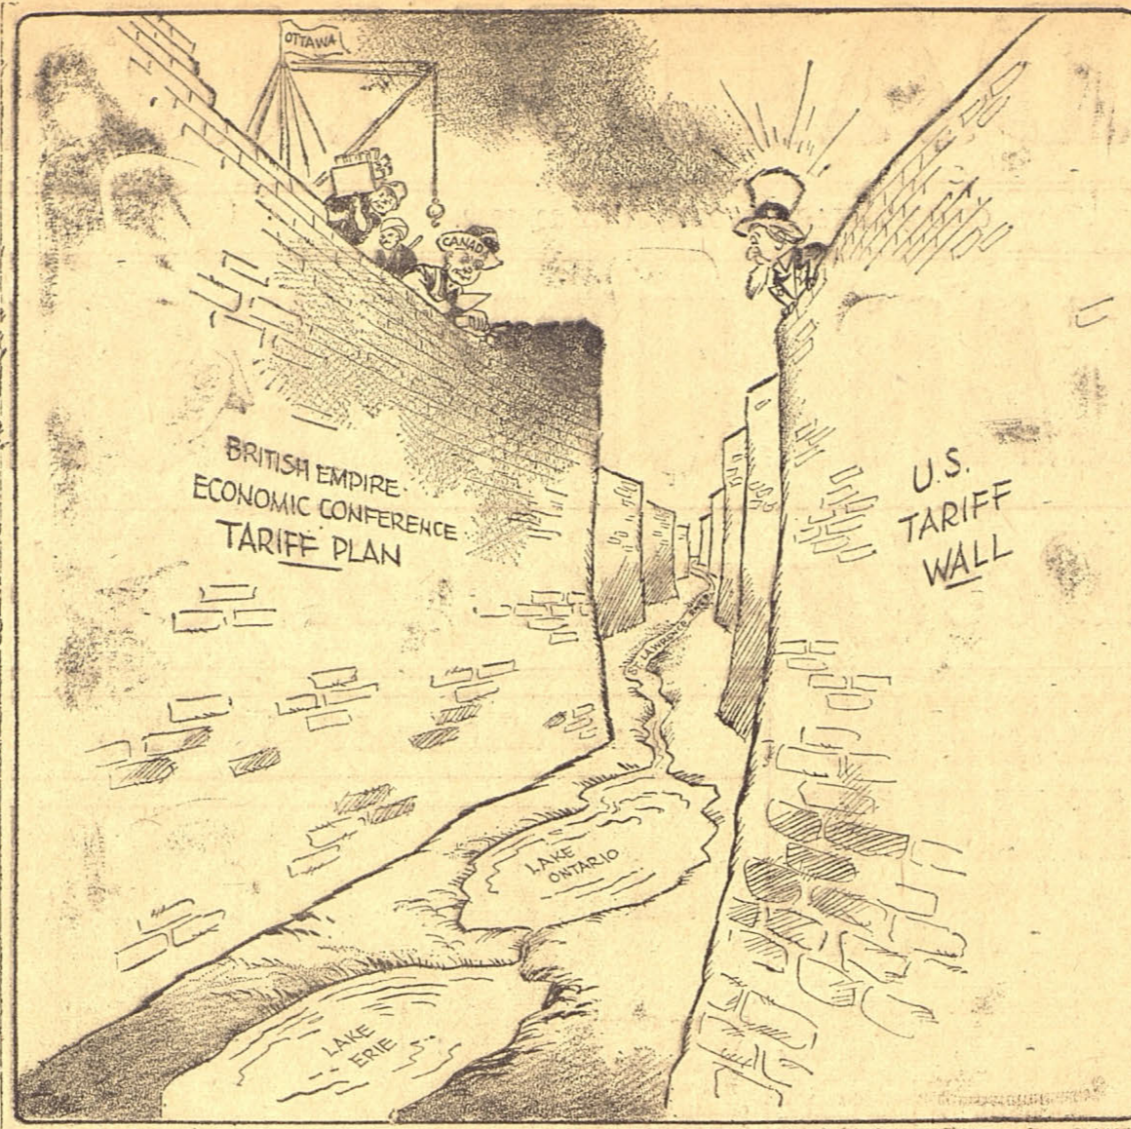

Queer Topics

IT'S a queer melange that gets in. Recent exhibits indicate a topical preference for prohibition, farm relief, federal expenses, veterans' affairs and war debts. Congressmen brag about all their states or districts have had out of the federal government during their terms and how successful their party has been in cutting expenses.

There are many warm individual tributes to departed members, a glowing description of the dedication of a new state capitol and musings on such topics as "home, school and the church" and the "workings of a divine Providence."

Yet there is much solid information which will do the constituent no harm if he cares to memorize it.

And We Just Celebrated 100 Years of Harmony Along the Border!

here in Texas the public relations men of the illicit industry are said to have chopped the price from $12 to $6 a gallon, with a decidedly inferior brand of the hotstuff. There is another reason why the pikers are increasing in numbers. Uncle Sam put away Col. Capone. Capone was accused of a thousand crimes. He was convicted and jailed for evasion of income tax payment and falsifying returns. Federal and state grand juries had been grinding for years. They couldn't get Capone on any charge except that of vagrancy. He won dismissal. How could a man be a vagrant who was reported to be the owner of ten million dollars and two or three palaces in the showplaces of America as well as in the mountains far, far away.

BRAZILIAN COFFEE IS GOING HIGHER.

This for American coffee drinkers. Brazilian coffee is up and is going higher. There is a rising market. It is the direct effect of the revolution now in progress in the Brazilian republic. According to H. Wirts Teel, Brazil has a large surplus of coffee but not a pound can be shipped before the revolutionary arguments have been settled. Well, these arguments, in the coffee producing states of Brazil are settled by the machine gun method of dealing out equal and exact justice. There is a bloody row on between the established government and two or three revolting states. Truth is there is hell all around the world. Why worry? Evolution is the order of life and evolution ever moves upward and not downward. There is no peace except in a graveyard, and there has not been peace since the caveman discovered fire and invented the first tool which is said to have been a spade, the second a rude stone hatchet and the third a war club. "Onward and upward" on the part of human atoms appears to have been the record of history since the ancient days.

Through the Editor's Spectacles

By GEORGE

Maximilian Elser, fiery warhorse of 81 summers, is celebrating the anniversary of his birth with his daughter at Fort Worth today. Mr. Elser left Cisco yesterday to observe the annual event. He was born July 29, 1851, and came to the southwest from New York while a stripling. He is known as the man who built the telegraph lines along the Texas and Pacific, sections of the Katy and other railroads in this country, stringing the wires ahead of the crews who laid the new rails.

Another Cisco citizen has emigrated to office.

Arch Kennedy, X-Ray Barber shop porter, on vacation in southwest Texas, mailed back a newspaper clipping bearing a familiar likeness. The picture illuminates an advertisement of Ernest E. Van Zandt, formerly with Tullies Brothers Clearing plant here, who appeals to the voters of precinct No. 4, Upton county, for their preferment as justice of the peace.

In precise longhand at the bottom of the advertisement is Arch's laconic comment: "He was elected." Ernest, like the democratic nominee for the presidency, a victim of infantile paralysis, like Roosevelt didn't let the affliction get him down. Those of his friends here fortunate enough to have heard him in discourse upon a political issue, see a reason for his success. He is a stump speaker above the average. It is to his credit that he left Cisco little over a year ago and attained political office in a stranger county in that brief time.

Humble employees estimate that it will cost, all told, $1,500 to stage the two-mile parade they will lead through the city belt tomorrow and to provide the barbecue and dance at the Cisco Country club afterward.

Two miles of cars will make an impressive showing. The Humboldt boys are entitled to credit for energy they are putting into this campaign.

Rex Carrouthers is a moving force behind the arrangements. George Irvine is another. So is J. E. Caffrey and others of the Humboldt residents.

These boys are out to sell Humble, to boost Cisco. They are looking at the depression right. It is a time to work, not to complain. They have a single purpose in mind and they are going after it with a concentrated energy.

Cisco merchants are joining in their parade 50 cars worth. They should. Cisco owes a lot to Humboldt and anything that helps Humboldt helps Cisco.

A sign in Oakwood cemetery, looking back upon the graves, suggests a grim irony.

"Thank You," one reads in letter a foot high.

Of course the sign got its location by chance and is intended for those still using the highway.

Incidentally, the reader wonders instinctively for what the Broadway of America is thankful.

Troup—Additional telephone cables being installed in western part of city.

JUDGE BARKER MAKES STATEMENT

I wish it were possible for me to take all my friends in Cisco and Eastland county by the hand, and to personally thank them for the splendid vote you gave me on July 23rd. I deeply appreciate your loyalty, and the confidence you imposed in me.

It is true that I have been eliminated, but I feel I am the gainer, since I have been able to meet so many people and have formed friendships that will be lasting, and after all friendship is of a greater value than the emolument of office.

If I had been elected I would have made the county the best district judge that I have the ability to make. On account of the long experience I have had, I could have saved the people of this county thousands of dollars per annum.

I told you in the beginning that I was not a politician, and could only go to the people with what I had to offer and if they did not want it I would be defeated.

There has much good grown out of the campaign. I have enjoyed it immensely, and my pay for the losses I have suffered is the new contacts I have made. Here in Cisco I gave some folks who had an "imaginary grudge" against me an opportunity to break even. They could use their pencil to black the name, and therefore feel in their own souls that they were now even with me. I am sure this was a great satisfaction.

Now, since we are all satisfied, and

DANCE

AT THE
BAKER HOTEL
MINERAL WELLS
Music by Baker Blue Boys.

Saturday Night
9:00 UNTIL

Delightful floor, a fine orchestra—you will enjoy an evening spent at this fine Resort Hotel. A special invitation to the people of this community.

TO MY MANY FRIENDS:

I am grateful for the support of my many friends during the recent campaign in which I was fortunate enough to be successful.

The overwhelming expression of the voters impresses me with a feeling of responsibility. I will do everything possible to make you an efficient District Clerk.

Thanks to everyone.

P. L. (Lewis) CROSSLEY

Democratic Nominee for District Clerk

—(Political Advertisement).

all "imaginary grudges" have been evened up, let's get-together and work for the good of Cisco. I will be found doing business at the same old stand, and will be just as courteous, loyal and fair to everyone as I have been in the past. I have no ill-will toward any man, no old scores to even up, and the slate is now clean, and I have settled down in the office hard at work, trying to retrieve my losses and save all I can from the wreck. Come to see me.
I claim every man, woman and child in Cisco as my friends.
Sincerely yours,
J. D. BARKER.
—Adv.

WILBOURNE COLLIE EXPRESSES THANKS

Wilbourne B. Collie of Eastland county, was one of the leading candidates for state senator from this district as a result of the vote last Saturday. Collie, and Cunningham of Abilene, present incumbent ran neck and neck and until the final vote is tabulated it isn't known which will be in the lead. There will be a run off between the two, however as Mr. Howsley of Albany and Mr. Thomson of Haskell were eliminated. Each of the candidate carried his home county but Collie received by far the largest vote of any of the candidates in his home county.

"I am unable to express my true appreciation of the splendid vote which I received. But I do want to thank the people of my home county for their testimonial of confidence and faith in my ability to fill with fairness and judgment the high office of state senator. If the people of this district should be good enough to entrust me with this important office, I pledge them in return my untiring efforts shall at all times be directed to promote and conserve the best interests of my district." he said. —Adv.

Daily News and American and Roundup want ads are a good investment—Phone 80.

News want ads bring results.

QUALITY PRINTING
With Quick Service
CISCO DAILY NEWS
CISCO AMERICAN and ROUNDUP

WHY INSURE YOUR CAR

Protects against damage suits; pays for damaged car; pays for fire and theft; pays for hospital bill.

The Travelers covers any kind of Automobile insurance — and it's dependable.

BOYD INSURANCE AGENCY

Cisco, Texas.

Phone 49.

Nothing Takes the Place of MILK

in Children's Diets

Pasteurized for Safety.

And, by the same token, nothing takes the place of our Pasteurized Milk. It's so rich, so sanitary . . . produced by herds that are tested and fed properly. No wonder that once people have used our milk they will accept no other. There is health in every bottle, for your children and yourself. Since our milk costs the same as any other, why not have the best.

This is a convenient time to change to better milk.

CISCO DAIRY ASSOCIATION

Sole Distributors of Pasteurized Milk in Cisco.

Telephones—Office, 247; Residence, 9010.

USE DAILY NEWS WANT ADS.

BIG PENNIES

You seldom see the figure 1 cent in an advertisement, because there are so few things that you can buy with Uncle Sam's smallest coin.

Natural gas is one commodity that brings you a lot of comfort and convenience for one cent. In fact, we don't know where else you can get so much real value for so little cost.

Your Natural Gas Penny Is Your Biggest Penny . . .

1 cent

- Will cook a good dinner for 3 people
- Will operate a bathroom heater for 2 hours
- Will heat enough water for 2 baths
- Will operate a living room heater 45 minutes
- Will make 33 cups of coffee
- Will heat enough water for 14 morning shaves
- Will operate a laundry dryer 45 minutes
- Will operate an incinerator 15 minutes
- Will run a gas refrigerator from 8 to 10 hours

LONE STAR

Community Natural Gas Co.

GAS SYSTEM

In the Political Arena

By HUGH NUGENT FITZGERALD
Sen. Jacob J. Loy of the Sherman district is a lucky man. He was a holdover. He had served in the Texas house; he had been promoted to the Texas senate; he has grown weary of political life under the big dome, and this year he aspired to be county judge of Grayson. Sen. Jaks won hands down. He is the democratic nominee for county judge in one of the historic units of government in the upper blackland country. Now he will resign his senatorial prerogative. A newspaper man has entered the race as his successor, D. R. Huffaker or Whitesboro, Grayson county, on the theory that the early bird catches the worm, announced without delay. He is a native son. His grandparents and his parents were of pioneer stock. He is the owner of the Whitesboro News-Record, Collinsville Times and the Gunter star. There are three counties in the ninth senatorial district. They are Grayson, Fannin and Cooke. A special election will have to be called in the near future by the governor to fill the vacancy. First, it was Rep. Loy; second it was Sen. Loy, now it is to be Judge Loy. Loy is a regular. His district is regular. His county is regular. He is to move away from the big dome.

Sen. Nat Patton of Crockett swept the fifth senatorial district as a candidate for reelection. He carried all nine counties, defeating D. F. Standley of Huntsville. Rep. A. K. Daniel was re-elected. He had a contender but he buried the gentleman. Nat Patton is widely known the state over. He began service as a member of the house of representatives away back in 1912. He served several terms. He moved on to the senate. He became a candidate for railroad commissioner. He missed the third. He continued in the senate. Now he is fixed for another term of four years. He was an "in" and he remained an "in" by carrying every county in his district. He is a short, stockily built chap, but in his legislative races he had made a very high record as a speaker.

Cong. Clay Stone Briggs of Galveston has represented the seventh congressional district for a number of years. Regardless of his Galveston citizenship, he has been one of the ultra-dry in congress, a staunch defender of the 18th amendment and the Volstead act. July 23 the people of his district "definitely declared themselves" in favor of re-submission of the 18th amendment. Briggs is a regular and bowed to the wisdom as well as the verdict of a majority of his constituents. Speaking of his conversion to "the popular will," Briggs said, "In the future I will favor measures designed to submit the prohibition question to the people." He had been renominated by a huge majority. He had a rival contender, W. A. Cooke of Groveton. Cooke did not conduct a matchless campaign and was as silent as a clam at high tide on the prohibition issue. Submission carried Galveston district by a large majority. Briggs coming down the political road, like Saul of Tarsus, saw a great light. He succumbed.

Belated returns from the Alamo district changed the result of the early count and the claim of the Kleberg managers. Now it is said that there will be a run-off in the district with Thurman Barrett of Bexar county pitted against Richard Kleberg of Nueces. This will be one of the most exciting races in the August primary. It is probable that the new legislature which will find its place under the big dome the coming winter will redistrict the state. In other words, there will be 21 instead of 18 congressional districts. Three congressmen-at-large to be elected in November will be interested in the new redistricting scheme. Likewise the 18 who will be re-elected in November will take a hand in the district making game under the big dome. Kleberg managers crowded too early. They did not wait for the final returns. Now Roy Miller and his lieutenants in all the counties of the district will have to go down the line again in a contest which will be marked by war of the knife and the knife to the hilt. At any rate this is the latest from the sacred place where the Alamo heroes perished for liberty and the rights of man. If their shades were walking the earth, they would be dazed by the scars which have been placed upon the invisible body of constitutional government in many spots under the shining American sun.

Joseph Weldon Bailey, for 30 years the idol of the democracy of Texas and one of the leaders of the American congress, this in both houses was not "the last democrat." His son, Joseph Weldon Bailey, Jr., who has won his spurs as a lawyer and an orator, is in the picture and this too very largely as a result of the congress-man-at-large "free-for-all. He ran for place No. 7. He received the largest vote cast for any one of the 39 candidates for a congressional place. He has a tremendous lead over Cyclone Davis who may face the son of "the last democrat" in the August finals.

Cyclone Davis was ever a thorn in the side of the distinguished "last democrat" in the days of his dictatorial supremacy in the democratic politics of Texas. Bailey was a states right democrat. He believed the police power of the state should be wielded by the state and not the federal government. He opposed national woman suffrage as well as national prohibition by fiat of the federal government and insisted at all times that the people of the state had the constitutional right to be wet or dry and that woman suffrage, like prohibition, should be settled within the border lines of an American commonwealth. In 1914 James E. Ferguson's nomination was ratified at El Paso by the state convention held that year. One of the high lights of that convention was a face-to-face rhetorical combat between Bailey and the Cyclone of Texas. It was not a slap on the wrist affair. Bailey branded Cyclone as a renegade to the democratic gospel and to the ancient dogmas of the party of Jefferson. Cyclone retailed in kind. Now that erstwhile idol of the democratic party reposes in the windowless palace of sleep and his boy is telling it to the Texas democratic world that his father was not "the last democrat" under the skies of Texas.

Returns from the Fannin district

MOM'N POP.

indicate that Cong. Sam Rayburn may be forced into an August runoff with Jess F. Morris of Hurt county a printer and something of a hussler for an unknown in the district. Sam Rayburn is the personal representative of John Nance Garner in the nationwide battle for political control. He has had a long career and one that has not been colorless. He began under the big dome on the state capitol as a representative. He became the leader and then the speaker of the house. He moved from the speakership of the house to a seat in congress. He has been holding down the job for years. Now a representative of the art preservative may force him to campaign his district in order to retain his seat in the American congress. Rayburn claims a 2000 majority over all and a claim on his seat. In the Uvalde district John Nance Garner went over with a whoop and a bang if he wins the vice presidency in November, he will not only be

.....CLASSIFIED ADS.....

Quick Reference, Inexpensive Ads That Are a "Clearing House" for Your Needs.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATES AND REGULATIONS

All CLASSIFIED advertising is payable in advance, but copy MAY be telephoned to the Cisco Daily News office and paid for as soon as collector calls. RATES: Two cents per word for one time; four cents per word for three times; eight cents per word for six times. CLOSING HOUR: Copy received up to 10:00 a. m. will be published the same day. TELEPHONE 80 and place your copy with understanding that payment will be made at once, collector will call the same day or day following. Copy is received any hour from 8:00 a. m. until 5:00 p. m.

SAVE TIME! Get Results! A Daily News Want Ad will scour the field in a few hours for what it would take you days to locate. Phone 80 the Classified

Train Schedule

RAILROAD TIME TABLE New train time tables effective 12:01 a. m., June 7. T. & P. West Bound. No. 7 ... 1:45 a.m. No. 3 ... 12:20 p.m. No. 1 "Sunshine Special" ... 4:57 p.m. East Bound. No. 6 ... 4:13 a.m. No. 16 "The Texan" ... 10:20 a.m. No. 4 ... 4:25 p.m. C. & N. E. Leaves Cisco ... 5:00 a.m. Arrive Breckenridge ... 8:30 a.m. Arrives Throckmorton ... 9:20 a.m. Leaves Breckenridge ... 10:00 a.m. Arrives Breckenridge ... 12:20 p.m. Arrive Cisco ... 1:50 p.m. SUNDAY Leave Cisco ... 5:00 a.m. Arrive Cisco ... 10:55 a.m. M. K. & T. North Bound. No. 35 Ar. 11:00 p.m.; Lv. 11:10 a.m. South Bound. No. 36 Ar. 4:20 p.m.; Lv. 4:30 p.m. CLOSING TIME FOR MAILS. Waco and Stamford train No. 36 (S. Bound) 3:50 p. m. Fort Worth and El Paso Train No. 16 (E. Bound) 9:50 a. m. Fort Worth and El Paso Train No. 3 (W. Bound) 11:45 a. m. Waco and Stamford Train No. 35 (N. Bound) 10:45 a. m. Fort Worth and El Paso Train No. 4 (E. Bound) 4 p. m. Fort Worth and El Paso Train No. 1 (W. Bound) 4 p. m. All night mails close at 9 p. m. with exception of Sunday when night mails close at 6:45 p. m.

the speaker of the house but vice president-elect of the American republic. It is a long call from a pioneer cabin on the banks of the Red river to the chair of the speaker of the house of representatives and then a promotion to the second highest office within the gift of the American electorate. But why play futures? CARD OF THANKS. I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation for the splendid vote the people of Eastland and Callahan Counties gave me in the primary election. I made the race strictly on my own merits and I assure the people of the 107th district that I intend to continue my campaign on the same high plane. I will greatly appreciate the continued support of the voters of this district at the election to be held on August 27th. If you elect me as your Representative I promise you that I will faithfully perform every duty and responsibility of this office of high trust, giving due consideration to every individual of the district. If elected I will make a vigorous and uncompromising fight for a general reduction of government expenses and lower taxes, this being the basis of my platform. Thanking you again for the splendid support given me in the recent primary election and asking for your continued influence and support. Respectfully, B. L. RUSSELL, Jr., Candidate for State Representative, 107th Floritorial District. News want ads brings results

Apartments for Rent ... 27 FOR RENT—Furnished apartment, 404 West Fourth street.

Houses for Sale ... 33 FOR SALE OR TRADE—My place on West Sixteenth street. See Zelma Curtis, 107 West Sixteenth St.

FOR SALE—One small refrigerator for $3. Apply at Daily News.

FOR SALE—Used refrigerator for $4. Apply Daily News.

Announcements The Rotary club meets every Thursday at Laguna Hotel Private Dining Room at 12:15. Visiting Rotarians always welcome President H. S. DRUMWRIGHT; secretary J. E. SPENCER.

Lions club meets every Wednesday at Laguna Hotel Coffee Shop at 12:15. A. D. ANDERSON, president, W. H. LA ROQUE, secretary.

TO BE PRESENTED PHILADELPHIA, July 29. A jade green china plaque of the petite Chinese actress, Ann May Wong, made by Adam Piets medalist at the United State Mint, will soon be presented to the University of Shanghai China mint officials said.

A RED LETTER SATURDAY AUGUST 6th El Paso ROUND TRIP $9.00 Pullman Fare Extra On Sale AUGUST 6th Only! PULLMAN FARES ALSO REDUCED In answer to popular demand, we again make it possible for you to enjoy a glorious vacation for a fraction of the usual one-way fare. All tickets bear a 10-day return limit. Make your pullman reservations early! 10 DAY RETURN LIMIT ALSO unusually low Round Trip Fares to Dallas ... $3.20 Ft. Worth ... $2.50 Good On All Trains Children Half Fare THE TEXAS AND PACIFIC RAILWAY for LOVE or MONEY by H.W. CORLEY

BEGIN HERE TODAY MONA MORAN who supports her mother, invalid father, little sister, KITTY, and never-do-well brother, BUD, is determined to marry for wealth and position. She is receptionist for a Wall Street law firm and in the office sees most of the world to which she aspires. Mona's brother announces that her childhood sweetheart, STEVE SACCARELLI, grandson of the ice and coal dealer, has returned home from the war. Three years earlier and it was rumored he was in prison though Mona never believed this. She meets him on her way to work one morning. Steve is handsome, well dressed and well mannered. Mona does not wish to renew the friendship but accepts his invitation to dinner. She declines that of BARRY TOWNSEND, a young man of wealth and social position, telling him she makes it a rule not to accept engagements with clients or employers. However, she cannot dismiss Barry from her mind. Steve, wanting Mona to look her loveliest and with no thought of impropriety, orders a gown and wrap sent to her from Pilgrim's exclusive shop where Mona once was a fashion model.

Mona lifted the grayish-green gown from its wrappings and held it before her.

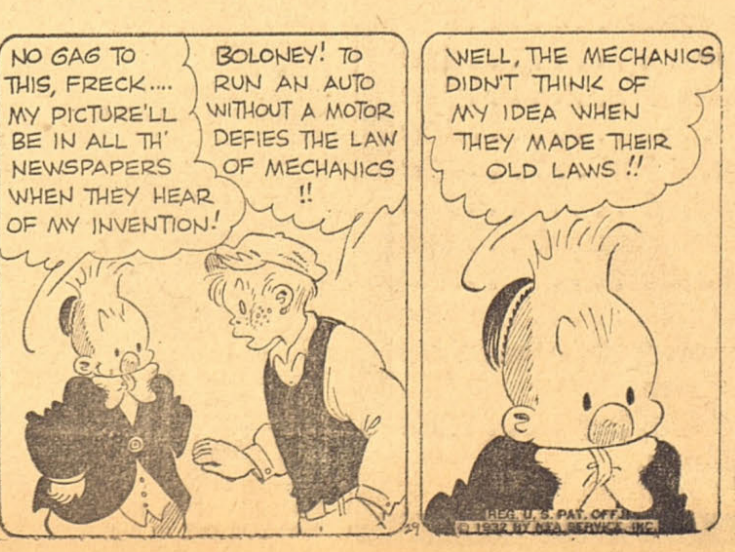

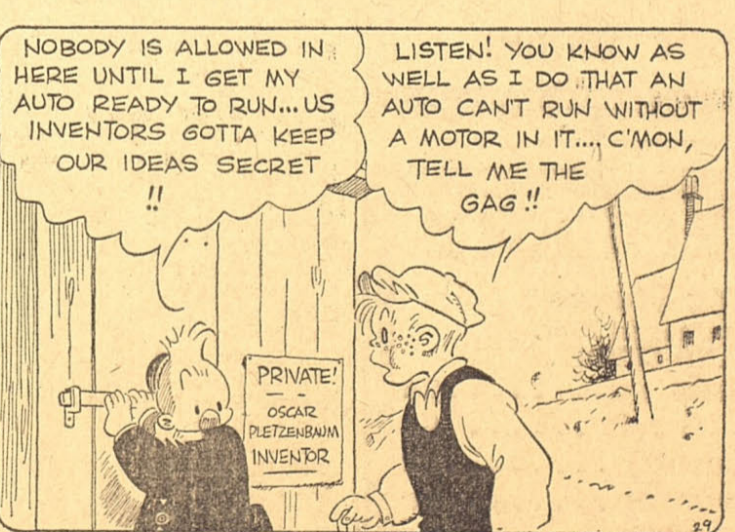

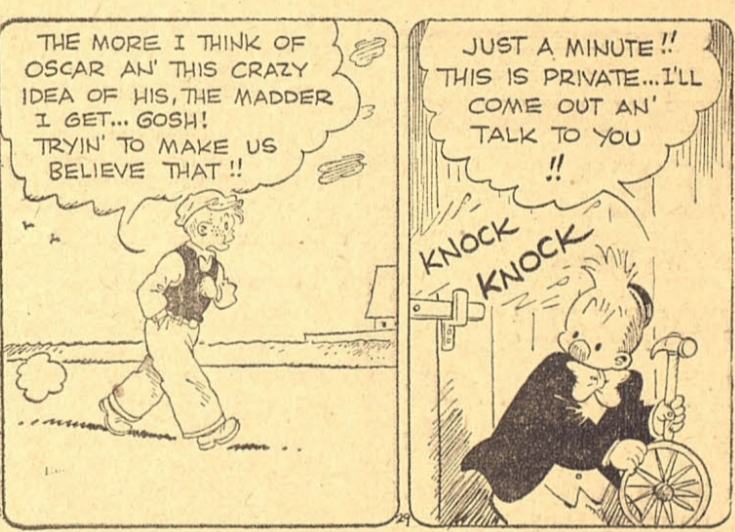

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER V CLIMBING the stairs after her visit to the hospital, Mona's step was lighter and brisker than it had been for a long while. Dad had seemed better, more cheerful than he had been for weeks. The doctors were encouraging. Somewhere in science there had been a discovery. They did not hold out a definite hope but maybe when he was stronger—at any rate, they assured Mona that he was not losing ground. Steve was to come for Mona at 7:30. He had gone home to dress. Suddenly Mona stopped in dismay. If Steve were dressing it meant she must wear formal evening clothes, too. And she had nothing to wear—nothing! Her old black satin had done service for a year. Usually when she accompanied Lottie on parties the other girl would insist on loaning Mona a dress so that lack of a costume would not be sufficient excuse for declining the invitation. But Mona could hardly borrow from Lottie tonight after turning down definitely Lottie's invitation for the evening. No, the black dress would have to do. Then she recalled that she had sent the dress to Alice, ostensibly to be darned as only Alice could do it, actually so that Alice could go to the Elks' ball. Well, either Mona would go as she was or not at all. Steve would have to understand that. Mrs. Moran opened the door and let Mona into the little flat redolent with frying pork chops and warmth. Ma was expansive with innocent gossip. Mrs. Casey had been over during the afternoon. Mary was going with that fellow who kept books in her office, the tall one they had seen coming out of the motion picture show. Genevieve was taking tap dancing and would teach Kitty. Alice had phoned. She was well and would run down some afternoon soon to bring Min's dress, all darned, back with her.

THE run from 245th street sounded more casual than it would turn out to be, Mona knew. The dress, most likely, would remain in Alice's possession until Mona herself could go for it. "And your dress came back from the cleaner's. Or maybe it was your suit or whatever you were after sending. I didn't open it. I was at the telephone. Bud won't be back for supper. He's working tonight." Ma's soothing voice trailed on. "So Bud had landed that job! It brought Dad's treatment nearer if Bud would work and stay home and help run the household. "Flowers came from that scamp, no doubt, who bought the oranges," Ma was saying good humoredly. "I put them in the ice box. A nice handful, says I, to take up to the old man!" Dazed, unhearing, Mona lifted the cover of the box. On top of the silken tissues lay a square lavender note addressed in a hand which after all these months Mona was to recognize at Henri's. "Dear Miss Moran," the note began, "please accept these trifling appointments in the spirit in which they are offered. When I ask a young lady to play a part even for an evening, like all good stage managers, I insist on selecting the wardrobe as well as its setting. "For both must do justice to the leading lady, Steve." Steve indeed! Henri had written that note but Steve had put him up to it.

ly, "Miss Minnie Moran, East 67th street." There was no other Moran at this address. Even if there had been Pilgrim's would hardly have been her emporium. PERHAPS Lottie had picked up a bargain for her, though that was unlikely. The models did not send their furtive purchases out in expensive firm's boxes! "Flowers came from that scamp, no doubt, who bought the oranges," Ma was saying good humoredly. "I put them in the ice box. A nice handful, says I, to take up to the old man!" Dazed, unhearing, Mona lifted the cover of the box. On top of the silken tissues lay a square lavender note addressed in a hand which after all these months Mona was to recognize at Henri's. "Dear Miss Moran," the note began, "please accept these trifling appointments in the spirit in which they are offered. When I ask a young lady to play a part even for an evening, like all good stage managers, I insist on selecting the wardrobe as well as its setting. "For both must do justice to the leading lady, Steve." Steve indeed! Henri had written that note but Steve had put him up to it.

Mona lifted the grayish green chiffon gown from its wrappings and held it before her. Smooth was the right word. Her practiced eye had already poured herself into the frock. She could see the line which brought her back into full view to the waistline, trailed the unevenly cut straps over her shoulders and the front neckline close to the collar bone. Few women could wear that line—and Mona was one of the few. The gown swirled and draped about the slender hips in the famous Patou line. Midway on the left thigh it formed a cup, to balance the fold on the opposite shoulder. It ended in the region of her heels, in foamy chiffon, shading to white. There was a gossamer combination, cobweb hose, and slippers of silver. They had cost—dear Heaven! the entire outfit was worth untold sums! MONA caught her breath and lifted the last fold of tissue. She caught it and grew paler. There lay a coat of ermine, against which her hair would gleam like a flower shaped in bronze. She grew weak at the knees. At last she would be dressed as she had longed, as every woman longs to be gowned. But of course she couldn't take all this from Steve! He meant it well enough. Mona was certain of that. But she couldn't take it, even for a single evening. She would have to tell him when he came. Hanging the gorgeous gown and wrap where she could see them, Mona lay down on the bed. The ice man's grandson—the bad boy of the Sixties. The Mrs. Callahans and Mrs. Caseys would have much to dwell upon if they could glimpse the contents of that box and the note. Mona smiled faintly at the thought. She couldn't take such gifts. Not even for an evening. She simply couldn't. Well, maybe—why not? Just for tonight! That was all he was offering it for—and it was Steve, her old friend, Steve. He wanted to be proud of her. Rising resolutely from the bed, Mona searched in her purse for a coin. Heads would be yes and tails no, she decided. She flipped the coin. Twice out of three times. Heads. Tails. Ah, yes, heads! She threw herself on the bed again, the tumult of indecision ended. Such is our emotional mechanism that before 7:30 had arrived, simultaneously with her escort, Mona had made herself firmly believe that she was wearing the gown for him alone. She was wrong there—or at least a trifle wrong. Anyone who looked as lovely as Mona as she sped down the stairs to meet Steve before the Callahans and Caseys should see him, was doing a more universal service. The world and the bait world, too, was to gaze on Mona and feel well repaid for the optical exertion. (To Be Continued)

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS.

IT'S FUN for you both!

It affords you real pleasure to watch the children enjoy their meals. And of course it's fun for them to eat Kellogg's Rice Krispies—to hear those crunchy rice bubbles actually snap, crackle and pop! And Rice Krispies and milk are so good for children. Nourishing, rich in energy—extra easy to digest. Fine for breakfast, splendid for the evening meal. Rice Krispies encourage restful sleep. Always oven-fresh. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Quality guaranteed.

About Cisco Today

Society Editor, Miss Marjorie Noell—Phone 80.

Word has been received from Mrs. Asa Skiles who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Griffin, in Atlanta, Ga., that she has returned to Texas and is now with another sister, Mrs. Dawson, in Port Arthur.

J. W. Harris of Abilene was a business visitor in Cisco yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Cate and son, Tommy, of Breckenridge were guests last night of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cate.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Strobel are in Cisco today from McCamey.

Mrs. M. E. Oney, supervisor of the cannery, will return tomorrow from A. & M. where she has been attending a weeks course in canning methods.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Johnson are leaving tomorrow to spend the week end in Abilene with Mrs. Johnson's father.

Mrs. Don Sivalls and baby, Mary Martha, are expected to return tomorrow from Fort Worth, accompanied by Mr. Sivalls of Kilgore.

Milton Killough of Eastland is transacting business in Cisco today.

Mrs. James Endicott Jr., and daughter, Jean, of Ballinger are guests of Mrs. J. H. Endicott and Mrs. R. B. Carswell.

Chester Conklin of Fort Worth was a visitor in Cisco yesterday.

Mrs. Fannie B. Craddock of Denton is the guest of her son, W. H. Craddock, in Cisco.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Walker are leaving this weekend for a vacation to be spent in Oklahoma City.

J. E. Elkins who has been seriously ill is reported to be improved today.

Mrs. Thomas Maxwell of Olden was shopping in Cisco yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Campbell of Abilene visited friends in Cisco yesterday.

Dick West was in Eastland yesterday to participate in the tennis tournament.

Mrs. George W. Daniels who has been quite ill for the past two weeks was reported to be somewhat better this morning.

H. S. Harkey of Dallas transacted business in Cisco Wednesday.

Rev. H. D. Blair is conducting a meeting in Dohhan this week.

Mrs. J. W. Robertson and Robert Blackburn returned today from Breckenridge where they have been visiting for several days.

K. N. Ireson of Houston was transacting business in Cisco Wednesday.

Misses Nettie McCollum and Eunice Huckleby of Haskell have returned home after a visit with Miss McCollum's aunt, Mrs. Paul Woods and Dr. Woods.

Mrs. F. C. LeVeaux and grandson, LeVeaux Parrish, have returned from several weeks visit in Graham.

Mrs. Albert Russell and son, Clifford, of Houston are guests of Mrs. R. H. Love and family this week.

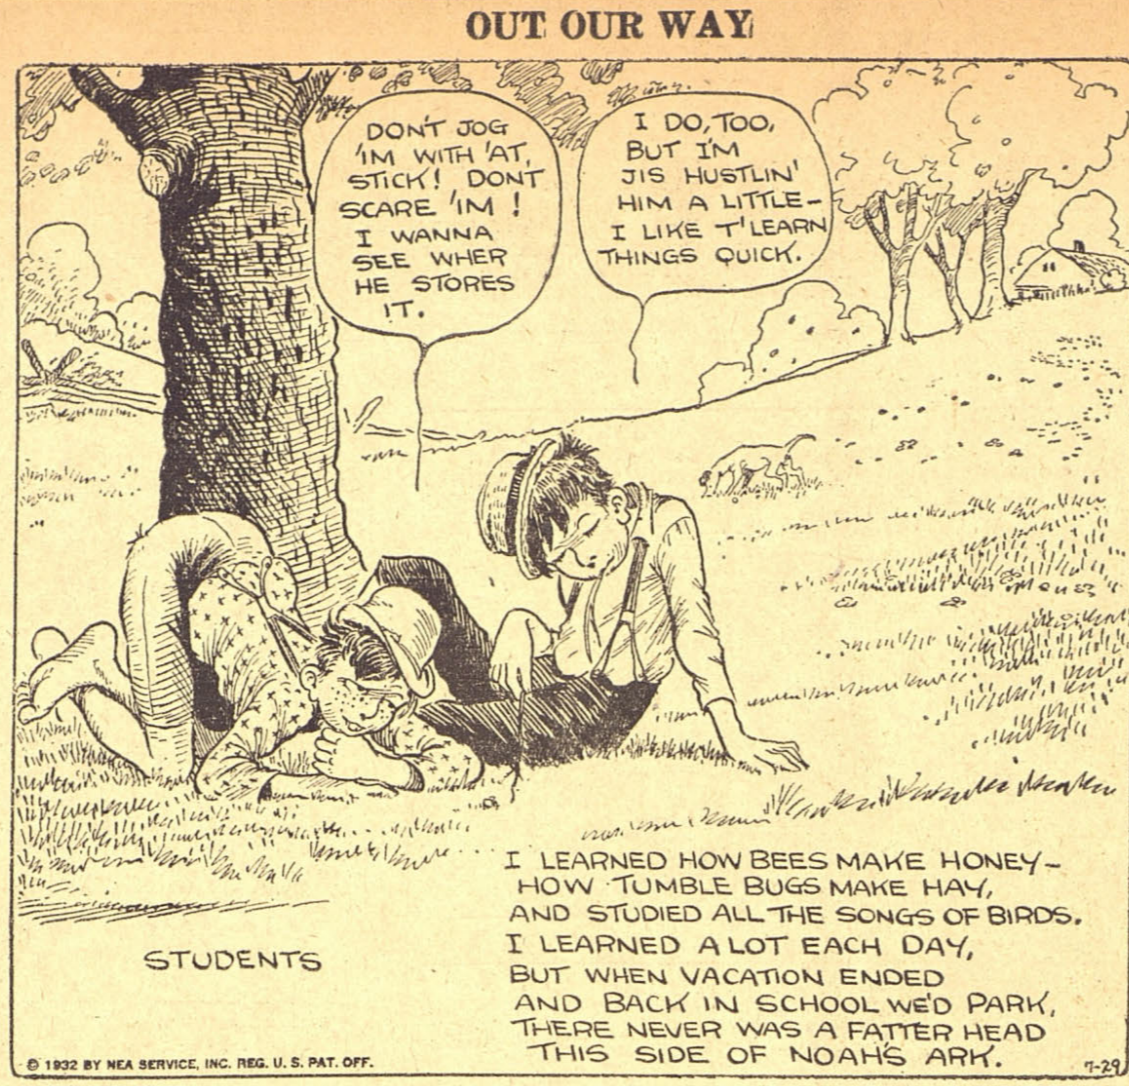

Mr. and Mrs. Fink left today for their home in Clinton, Mo., after several days visit with friends in Cisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Bricker left yesterday to spend several days in Houston.

Mrs. Alec Waugh of Strawn is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Bennie in Cisco this week.

Mrs. B. Hicks of Rising Star is visiting her son, J. B. Hicks and Mrs. Hicks for several days.

Mrs. Paul Woods and children, Rose Ann and Paul Harlan, and Mrs. W. J. Harlan are leaving to-

Bonus Army--

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE

Officers R. B. Ellison accompanied Burke.

HOOVER EXPLAINS HIS ORDER.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—United States troops were necessary to end "rioting and defiance of civil authority," President Hoover said in a formal explanation of his order under which cavalry, infantry and tanks moved into the capital and forcibly drove the bonus army from all federal property.

Commander-in-Chief Walter Waters of the bonus expeditionary force in reply declared "Every drop of bloodshed can be laid directly upon the threshold of the white house."

President Hoover expressed belief that "communists and persons with criminal records incited the veterans to the fatal clashes."

Kaufman — J. J. Painter opened new grocery store on east side of square.

CONNELLEE THEATRE

Eastland, Texas

LAST SHOWING OF

The Man Called Back

Starring

CONRAD NAGEL

DORIS KENYON

PURE DRINKING WATER

Highland Springs, W. B. Starr, Owner.

Will deliver water at your residence, 5 gal. for 15 to 30 cents, according to arrangements.

These Springs are wholly sanitary. Your inspection and patronage solicited. Delivery starts August 1.

W. B. STARR, Route 4, Cisco, Texas.

NOTICE

By Popular Request We Repeat

HOSE SALE

1c 1st Pair 99c

2d Pair 1c

Full Fashion, 42 Guage, New Fresh Stock, All Colors. Every pair perfect. Saturday Only.

Altman's Style Shop

SKILES GROCERY

The Quality Store

Open That August Account Now.

WE DELIVER AND CREDIT.

LETTUCE, nice heads 5c

Beets and Carrots, bunch 5c

Fresh Tomatoes, pound 4c

Nice Potatoes, 5 pounds 9c

Best Flour, 5 pound sack 19c

Best Meal, 5 pound sack 13c

No. 2 Can Peas, 2 for 23c

Snow Drift, 3 pounds 39c

Toilet Soap, 3 for 10c

Medium Ivory Soap, 4 for 23c

Best Beef Roast, pound 14c

Hormel Sliced Bacon, pound 20c

Ground Meat, 2 pounds 25c

Beef Rib Roast, pound 11c

Woman's Club Coffee, 3 lb. can $1.00

25c Can of Tea Free.

1 lb. Woman's Club Coffee 35c

10c Can of Tea Free.

We will have plenty of Nice Dressed Fryers.

ANNOUNCING

Lower Grocery Prices

Sugar Imperial Cane 10 lb. Cloth Bag 44c

Steak, lb. 10c | Roast, lb. 10c

Saltine Flakes, 2 lbs. 19c | Dry Salt Meat, lb. 10c

Altman's Grocery

PIGGLY - WIGGLY

SPECIAL SALE

BANANAS, pound 6c

ORANGES, large size, Red Balls, dozen 25c

Lettuce, fresh and firm, 2 heads .. 9c

Sugar, pure cane, 10 lb cloth bag 47c

SOAP, P. & G. or Crystal White, 10 bars 28c

Fonchon Soap, 10c bar, 6 bars .. 25c

Post Toasties, large box 10c

Jello, all flavors, 3 boxes 23c

Potato Chips, 10c pkg's 6c

FLOUR, Light Crust, 12 lb bag 30c; 24 lbs. 52c; 48 lbs. 95c

Spaghetti, Beechnut prepared ... 9c

Tomato Juice, Campbells, 3 cans 25c

Milk, Pleezing Brand, 3 tall cans 18c

PEAS, large can 19c

Pineapple, 3 small cans 25c; 1 gallon can 45c

Butter, fresh country or creamery, pound 22c

Sliced Bacon, best grade sugar cured, pound 18c

Beef Roast, fancy baby beef, lb. 10c

Hamburger, fresh ground, lb. 12c

Dressed Fryers

Fresh South Texas Honey.

THRIFT is Fashionable...

So Electric Refrigeration Is, Too!

Now that it's smart to be thrifty and economy is a fashion . . . it is fashionable to own an Electric Refrigerator. Because Electric Refrigeration is a thrifty and wise investment!

An Electric Refrigerator provides thrift in the preservation of foods, thrift in low operating costs, thrift in utilization of leftovers, thrift in easy purchase plans, and thrift throughout years of service.

Leftovers may be transformed into delicious new dishes . . . bits of fruit can be made icy appetizers . . . frozen desserts can be made just as you like them . . . and salads may be attractively molded on crispy lettuce. Thrift again and again in a multitude of good things to eat!

In addition, you enjoy the constant and plentiful supply of frozen ice cubes, even on the warmest of summer days.—And you enjoy the assurance of year 'round protection—which an Electric Refrigerator provides, constantly and automatically.

You need the many conveniences and superiorities of modern Electric Refrigeration. Ask one of our salesmen for an interesting demonstration . . . or see any Electrical Dealer.

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule . . . and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

West Texas Utilities Company

Be Sure and Consult Our Windows for Special Values on SUGAR - EGGS - BUTTER FLOUR, SHORTENING and POTATOES

In fact all of your table needs before making your purchases. Plan to come to your A&P Store FIRST and you will save time as well as money.

A&P GRAPE JUICE, Quart Bottle, 23c; 2 Pint Bottles 25c

OLD MUNICH MALT, 3 Pound Can 43c

Del Monte or Libby's PINEAPPLE, Sliced or Crushed, 2 No. 2 cans 25c

QUAKER MAID BEANS 3 Medium Cans 14c

Encore Prepared SPAGHETTI, 16-oz. Glass, 10c; 2 Medium Cans 13c

CIGARETTES, The Popular Brands Carton $1.55

GRANDMOTHER'S BREAD, 5c; Raisin Bread Special, 8c; Swedish Rye Bread. . . 5c

N. B. C. SPECIALS—Marshmallow Mound Cakes, lb., 19c; 5c Package Cookies, 3 pkgs., 13c; Uneda Graham Crackers, 1 lb., 15c; Premium Soda Crackers, 2 lbs. . . 17c

8 O'Clock Coffee	19c	Skinner's Quick Ade	15c
1 lb. pkg.	15c	2 packages 23c	Youkon Ginger Ale
Nectar Tea, 2 oz. pkg.	27c	2 bottles 15c	Iona Cocoa
Nectar Tea	7c	1 lb. can 3c	Fresh Blackeyed
1/2 lb. pkg.	10c	peas, pound 2c	Potatoes,
Iona Corn,	10c	10 pounds 19c
No. 2 can 10c
Iona Peas	10c
No. 2 can 7c
Chum Salmon	7c
tall cans 7c

MEAT MARKET SPECIALS

Sliced Breakfast Bacon, lb.	16c	Dry Salt Bacon	10c
Veal Cutlets	24c	Seven Steak	25c
pound 13c		2 pounds 9c	Bulk Peanut Butter
Fancy Cream Cheese	13c	pound 12c
SEVEN ROAST, Veal or Beef.			