KIDNAP TRAIL TURNS TOWARD DETROIT

Sleet and Snow Damages South Texas Vegetable Crop

SUFFERING IN E-TEXAS OIL FIELDS ACUTE

AUSTIN, March 11. — Snow and sleet whipped into south Texas by a winter wave have extensively damaged tender crops, the federal-state crop reporting service said today.

In the Corpus Christi area cucumbers and snap beans were reported killed and tomatoes badly damaged. Freezing temperature today probably killed bean crops in the lower Rio Grande valley and damaged tomatoes and potatoes, it was reported.

Only slight damage was reported to such hardy vegetables as onions, spinach, beets, carrots and turnips.

Freezing temperatures were predicted for the Rio Grande valley tonight.

Three deaths already have resulted from the storm in Texas. Thousands of families of oil field workers in east Texas suffered much in their inadequate homes. Charity agencies at Kilgore and other east Texas oil field towns were swamped with requests for aid from the hundreds out of work there.

Other places reporting snow today included Denton, Tyler, Palestine, Houston, Port Arthur, Corpus Christi, Del Rio, Austin and Laredo. In many places it was the first snow in several years.

Low temperatures reported today included Midland, 18; Amarillo, 12; Abilene and Dallas, 22; Palestine 24; Austin and San Antonio 26; Houston 28; Corpus Christi and Del Rio 30; Galveston and Brownsville, 32 and Port Arthur 34.

Low temperatures reported today included Midland, 18; Amarillo, 12; Abilene and Dallas, 22; Palestine 24; Austin and San Antonio 26; Houston 28; Corpus Christi and Del Rio 30; Galveston and Brownsville, 32 and Port Arthur 34.

According to readings on the recording gauge at the West Texas Utilities plant here, a range of from 21 degrees at 4 o'clock to 34 degrees at 11 was experienced. At 6 a. m. the temperature was 23 degrees and by 10 o'clock it had advanced to 30.

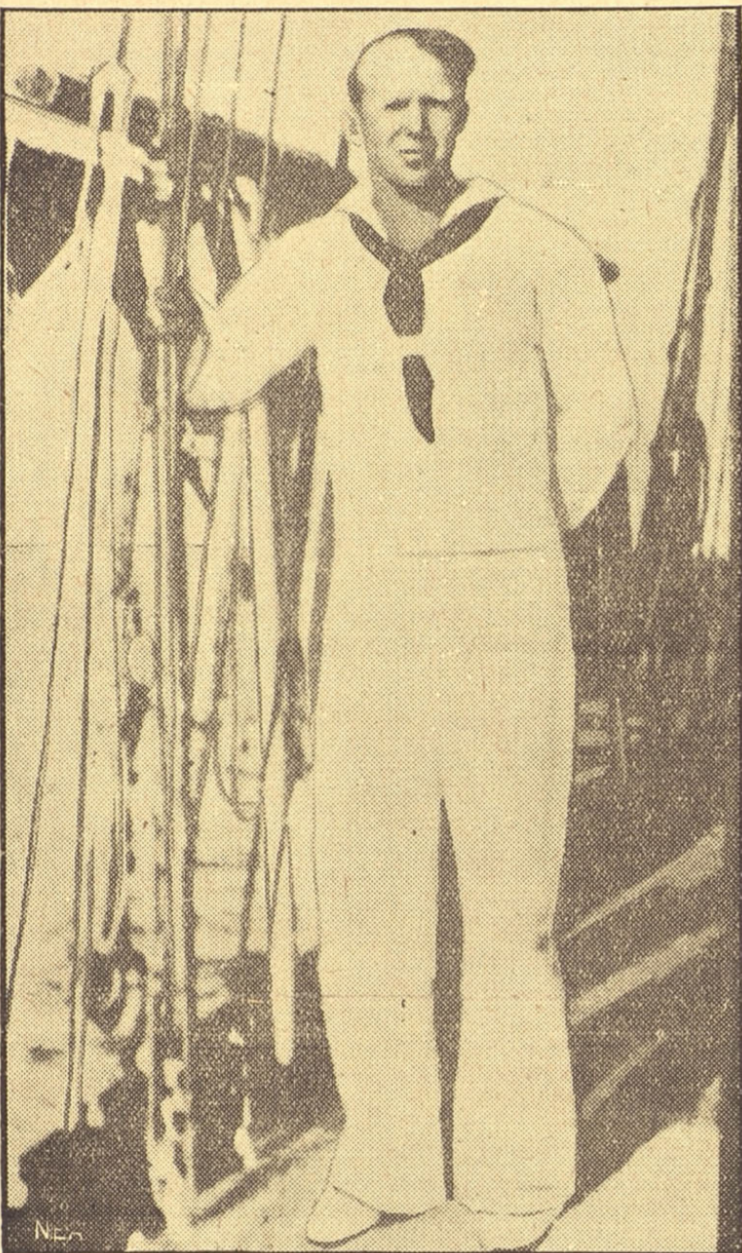

In the wake of the bitter wind that had swept almost unslackened from the north since last Saturday, lies almost total destruction of the early fruit crop, serious damage to young grain and to vegetables and lawn shrubbery. The extent of this damage is undetermined but, because of the widespread effect of the freeze there is due to be a shortage of fruits and vegetables that will have an appreciable effect upon the market.

That fact is argument for planting home gardens this spring. Prices for vegetables are likely to be considerably higher than normally to be expected, the public is reminded.

The local crop loan machinery is already beginning to function. J. E. Spencer, chamber of commerce secretary and a member of the Cisco application committee, said, Forms and blanks were received yesterday and applications are already being taken.

These applications are made at Mr. Spencer's office in the chamber of commerce.

"Red" Johnson, Mystery Man In Lindbergh Baby Kidnaping

Henry (Red) Johnson, suitor of the Lindbergh nurse, Betty Gow, is shown above in sailor uniform. He met Nurse Gow in Maine while she was taking care of Baby Lindbergh on the Morrow estate there, which adjoins the estate of Thomas W. Lamont. Johnson was employed as seaman on the Lamont yacht, Johnson's telephone calls to Nurse Gow, at the Lindbergh home in Hopewell, N. J., particularly on the night the Lindbergh baby was kidnaped, his trip to Hartford, Conn., and apparent wanderings, caused police to detain him for questioning. Charges of violation of the immigration laws have been filed against him.

FATHER OF GEORGE ATKINS SUCCEUMBS

Mrs. George W. Atkins left yesterday at noon for Lubbock in response to a message that Mr. Atkins' father, T. W. Atkins, had died at 10:30 yesterday morning. #### AKRON PROBE BODY OKEHS BIG AIRSHIP

WASHINGTON, March 11. —The congressional committee investigating the dirigible Akron today brought in a unanimous report giving complete approval to workmanship and construction of the giant airship.

The committee reported that charges of sabotage, faulty material, poor construction and dangerous overweight were without foundation.

The statement highly praised the navy and the Goodyear Zeppelin company, builders of the dirigible, for their cooperation and skill in completing the world's largest airship.

DuPont Yawl Is Unheard From

WASHINGTON, March 11. — Coast guard headquarters today ordered a wide spread search for the yawl Naamoa on which Richard DuPont and a party of friends have been unreported in the Atlantic since Tuesday.

DuPont's father at Wilmington Del., however, expressed no concern for the safety of the party as he said the boat was perfectly seaworthy.

Fined for Taking Drip Gasoline

EASTLAND, March 11. — Ten years ago it was no uncommon sight to see wagons with water tanks on them lined up at springs waiting their turn to get water to haul into town and sell. Today it seems to be a common sight to see them waiting with their automobile gas tanks empty and lined up near a drip in a gas line waiting their turn to draw off gasoline.

Sheriff Foster and Steele Hill were called out to a farm southwest of Eastland yesterday in response to a complaint and found six men waiting for the gasoline to accumulate. They had built fires to make themselves comfortable and one of them had made a pot of coffee. The six were brought into town and charges were filed against them in justice of peace court.

Pleas of guilty to stealing gasoline were entered by Oris Robinson, Elmer Robinson, Roy Justice, Elvin Harrison, W. L. Taylor and H. D. Lanham, and each was fined $1 and costs.

Cisco Debaters Sweep Circuit

The Cisco high school debaters swept through their round robin county schedule thus far without a set-back. Their defeats of the Ranger teams at Ranger last night marked the fifth straight victory for the Cisco schools.

Other school defeated are Gorman, Alameda, Scranton and Eastland. Rising Star is yet to be met, but it is probable that the contests will not be held before the county interscholastic league meet here March 25 and 26.

The teams are: Boys — Sterling Drumwright and John Peter Huey; girls — Bessie Pearce and Betty Fee Spears.

Mangled Body Found on Tracks

ABILENE, March 11. — The badly mangled and frozen body of a white man tentatively identified through papers found in his clothing as Sidney Rubinson, of New Orleans, was found on the Texas and Pacific tracks three miles west of here today.

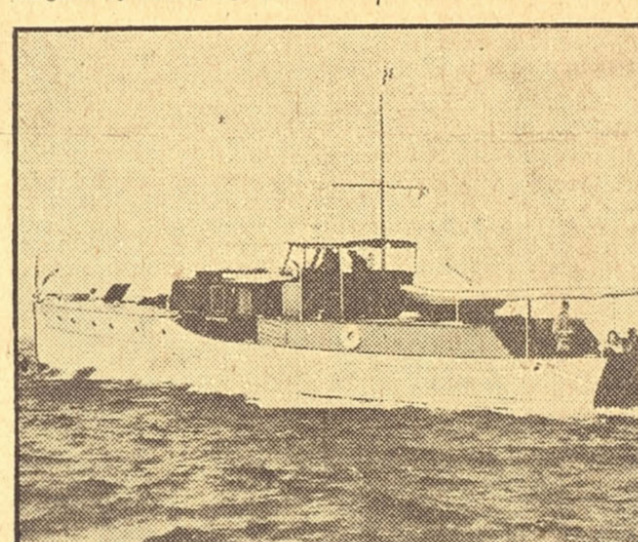

The man, who appeared to be between 25 and 30 years old, was thought to have fallen from a train last night. The body had lain for four hours in sub-freezing temperature. A coroner's verdict of accidental death was returned.

"Kidnap Air Flights" Attacked

Action of an aviation concern in offering to fly curious visitors over the Lindbergh estate near Hopewell, N. J., for $2.50 each aroused the ire of Dr. John G. Hibben, president of Princeton University, who deplored the "commercialization of the Lindbergh baby kidnaping" and who appealed to Governor Moore of New Jersey to intervene. Above is one of the air taxis which did a rushing business due to the fact that visitors are not permitted within three and one-half miles of the Lindbergh home on the ground. Governor Moore promised "to act at once."

Above is Thomas W. Lamont's yacht, where Henry (Red) Johnson worked as a deckhand before he was confined in a Hartford, Conn., for questioning in connection with the kidnaping of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's baby son. Johnson, a friend of Betty Gow, nurse in the Lindbergh home, was taken to Newark, N. J., for questioning.

KITTENS OFF FOR FT. WORTH ON TOMORROW

The Randolph college Kittens will leave early Saturday for Fort Worth where they will meet the T. A. A. F. champions, the Walker Shoe company sextet, tomorrow evening.

The Kittens are in fair condition. Coach H. R. Garrett said, but will likely be without Delma Fulford, all-American forward, in the game.

The team is planning to enter the Southwestern tournament at Fort Worth next week and will go to the National tournament which will be held at Shreveport, La., beginning March 21.

The Southwestern tournament is a new undertaking under the auspices of the Texas Amateur Athletic federation, and the leading teams of the southwest are expected to participate March 18, 19 and 20.

13th Oklahoma Bank Is Robbed

This was the 13th bank robbery in Oklahoma since January 1.

Swedish Prince Marries Commoner

LONDON, March 11. — Prince Lennart, of Sweden, renounced his royal rights and married Miss Karin Nisvardt, a commoner, today, despite refusal of the Prince's mother the Grand Duchess Marie, of Russia to attend her son's wedding.

It was understood the prince refused to have a church wedding and as a result the duchess refused to attend the civil ceremony.

The wedding was the climax of a story-book romance that began in childhood and won the admiration of all Sweden.

League Peace Plan Passed Unanimously

GENEVA, March 11. — The League of Nations assembly's resolution for settlement of the far eastern dispute, was passed unanimously by the general commission of the assembly today, China and Japan retaining from voting.

The resolution provides for cessation of hostilities at Shanghai and refuses to recognize any territorial gains made in contravention of the league covenant or the Kellogg anti-war treaty.

C. CALLOWAY CANDIDATE FOR LEGISLATURE

Cleve Calloway, of Cross Plains, today announced that he will be a candidate for state representative from the 107th district, the place now held by Victor B. Gilbert, of Cisco. The 107th district covers Callahan and Eastland counties.

Mr. Calloway's announcement: To the Citizens of the 107th legislative District of Texas, comprising Callahan and Eastland Counties:

Having been solicited by a number of representative citizens, and actuated by the belief that we need new blood in the legislative halls of this state, I have decided to enter the race for representative to the legislature.

It is my sincere belief that the people of this country, being sorely oppressed and harassed by the top-heavy government and extortionate taxes, to take a deep interest in, and make a searching investigation of the men whom they send to the legislature this time.

Being a native product of the very soil of this immediate country, reared in a staunch Democratic family, educated in the University of Texas and envied by students of government, I think, qualify me for this position.

In this my platform, I have no new fantastical ideas to put forward for the purpose of currying favor with any organization or group of people, but it is my idea to represent all of the people fairly and justly, which is the kind of representation every patriotic and freedom loving individual desires. I am in favor of sweeping reduction in taxes and know no sound and permanent way in which to do that except through the reduction of government by simplifying and abolishing the unnecessary boards and commissions whose duties overlap thereby complicating and rendering unenforceable the laws of this country.

Sincerely, CLEVE CALLOWAY.

Convicted Forger Sent to Abilene

WICHITA FALLS, March 11. — A. G. Thomas, 40 years old, Galveston shipworker, was returned to Abilene today to face further forgery charges.

Thomas pleaded guilty here yesterday to forging the name of Dr. Joe G. Carter, of Marshall, Texas, to a $10 check and was sentenced to two years.

He is charged at Abilene with giving the West Texas Baptist hospital a forged draft for $2,250 drawn on Dr. Carter.

Thomas admitted serving terms in San Quentin for forgery and in Atlanta for violation of the Dyer act.

QUIET REIGNS ABOUT HOME OF LINDBERGH

By BATES RANEY U. P. Staff Correspondent HOPEWELL, N. J., March 11. — The trail of the kidnapers of Baby Lindbergh turned today toward Detroit.

It developed that Col. Lindbergh's go-betweens, Salvatore Spitalo and Irving Bitz have "leads" which will take them soon to the Michigan city.

Spitalo and Bitz are among a group of 16 indicted on liquor conspiracy charges in Brooklyn. They are listed under fictitious names but the defense counsel confirmed today that the pair are listed and that they "planned to go to Detroit as soon as this matter (the liquor case) is disposed of."

Both Col. and Mrs. Lindbergh slept well last night at their mountain home, according to the word of visitors there, and both were up and around the house early this morning.

All signs of brisk activity have disappeared from the Lindbergh residence and a general atmosphere of quiet prevailed. Meantime the Lindberghs and the authorities continued efforts at restoration of the baby with nothing positive to show that there had been any real contact between the kidnapers and the Lindberghs or police.

The liaison officer at the Lindbergh home decided today to abolish the previous system of questions and answers for newspapermen but agreed to give two press announcements today on developments.

Another Arrest. The first statement under this system revealed that at Miami, Fla., John Norman Brett, reported to have been a friend of Lindbergh's servants, had been arrested and questioned. He offered an alibi which is being further checked, and denied knowing the servants.

A "public notice" in the New York American Tuesday and Wednesday caused some speculation concerning possible efforts of the Lindberghs to communicate with the kidnapers in that manner. It read:

"Letter received at new address. Will follow your instructions. I also received letter mailed to me March 4 and was ready since then. Please hurry on account of mother. Address me to the address you mentioned in your letter. Signed Father."

Today this notice appeared: "Money is ready—Jaslie."

The American said it had learned through checking addresses that both messages referred to the Lindbergh kidnaping.

AT MIAMI MIAMI, Fla., March 11.

John Norman Brett, wanted for questioning in the Lindbergh kidnaping case, occupied the attention of federal and city authorities here today at the offices of the federal attorney and the Miami police detective chief could not say what disposition could be made of him.

Brett was said at the federal attorney's office to have surrendered voluntarily. He was questioned about his possible knowledge of servants in the Lindbergh household and denied any knowledge.

Small Damage in Filling Station

A blazing fuel oil heating stove in the Magnolia filling station at J. avenue and Third street at 7:30 this morning was extinguished by the Cisco fire department with little damage. Woodwork in the interior of the building was slightly scorched.

The blaze burned in the stove was believed to have accumulated faster than it was burning, causing the blaze to escape the heater and threaten the building.

The station is operated by Gene Watson.

DAILY BIBLE THOUGHT

SIN SEPARATES: — Your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.—Isiah 59: 2.

ALL OVER THE WORLD.

Just the other day the John D. Rockefeller of Japan, the most powerful and the richest individual of the Orient, the kingfish of shipping, the kingfish of finance, the greatest industrial captain of the Far East, had his life snuffed out in the twinkling of an eye. Peru is on the map. It should be. There is a lot of American money planted down there by the money lenders of the United States. Well, an assassin took a fancy shot at the president of Peru. Luck was on the side of that official. He escaped with a slight wound.

Getting nearer home there is an uproar in Hidalgo and contiguous territory. Six or eight leading citizens are under arrest on charges of having conspired to take the lives of six or eight other "prominent fellow citizens." Capt. Frank Hamer of the Texas rangers uncovered as well as unraveled the so-called plot. And there is another commotion in the political circles of Hidalgo and adjoining counties.

A federal grand jury has indicted one of the road-building concerns of Texas and the allegation is made in the presentments returned that well-known county officials, a well-known lawmaker, and many other important personages split to the extent of $1,600,000 in the divided or undivided profits. Senator Parr, state senator from the district, has the floor. For 50 years he has been able to take care of himself. Now his name is linked with more than a statewide sensation. An indictment is not direct evidence of guilt, and until the road contractors are sent to trial and the evidence is all in, Texas will wait for the showdown.

Just to keep the home fire burning bank robbers looted small country institutions of a financial and depository nature in the towns of Burton and Shamrock and got away with considerable swag in the shape of the coin of the realm. Taxpayers are on the warpath everywhere. They are on the warpath in Texas.

Now, will it be all talk in the primary nominating elections this year or will the people go to the polls and retire to private life a lot of public servants who are of but little use on the firing line when it comes to the reduction of salaries, the abolition of a lot of little governments that are antique and costly by the consolidation of counties and cities into compact government and a sweeping reduction of the cost of same government from the Gulf of Mexico to the foothills of the Rocky Mountains?

The place to strike is at the primary and the weapon to use is the ballot. It speaks lastly and loudly. It retires the unfit and places the fit in the service of the people as public servants. Time, the month of July. Place, the primary ballot box.

MEXICO FOR THE MEXICANS.

Mexico for the Mexicans is the slogan below the Rio Grande. Well, why not?

"America for Americans" is the slogan on this side of the Rio Grande. Fifteen hundred Mexicans are on their way from Los Angeles to interior points in their native land. Between 50,000 and 75,000 Mexicans, unable to cope with economic conditions, have left Southern California for Mexico in the last 14 months. More than 150,000 have been repatriated from sections of the United States since early fall of 1931. For every alien landing on these shores four aliens departed for foreign countries.

Mexico has problems of its own. An army of native born Mexicans deserted the United States in less than a year for the homeland. They were given an American education while here. Their demands will be heard later under the skies of Mexico.

In the Political Arena

By HUGH NUGENT FITZGERALD Political "stoppers" and "steppers" and spellbinders regardless of economic conditions, are everywhere in evidence.

Franklin D. Roosevelt and Alfred E. Smith went to the bat in the state of New Hampshire Tuesday for the election of delegates to the Chicago convention and Roosevelt won New Hampshire was almost solid for Roosevelt until Smith broke the padlock on his mouth and instructed his friends to "do their damndest" to win the delegation for "Smith for president" in the home state of Sen George Moses, the snappiest and most peppery member of the American senate since the days when James A. Reed of Missouri was the terror of what was once known as the American House of Lords.

Thus it is, that Smith is the chief of the "stoppers" in New England while William Randolph Hearst and William Gibbs McAdoo are the kingfishes of the Roosevelt stop movement in the Golden Coast state of California. New Hampshire democrats are wet. That is, the vast majority are wets. Smith has been a prime favorite in New England.

This was the first real test in New England between the followers of Roosevelt and the followers of Smith.

Gov. William H. Murray is milling around the country. He made seven speeches in North Dakota, where the price of wheat had reached a low level and the price of other farm products has hit the earth. Murray is very ambitious.

He is going to make a coast-to-coast campaign, extending from California to New York. He said he is going to make speeches in the Wall street country and drive the bulls and bears into the Atlantic ocean or the Adirondack mountains. Gov. Murray coyly admits that he may not be nominated but he is going to place his branding iron "on the enemies of the people" and win as great a number of the grass roots as his standard as it is possible, for a second Andrew Jackson to achieve by tongue and physical presence.

Melvin W. Traylor was given a warm reception by his Kentucky friends. He very bluntly stated that he was not a candidate for office, that he was neither an avowed or receptive candidate for the presidential nomination, that he was and is a democrat and hopes for a democratic victory next November. Then his brother native Kentuckians organized a Traylor-for-President club and told it to the world that Melvin is the pride of his native state as well as its favorite son.

William Randolph Hearst is very much in evidence. He has the greatest publicity organization in the world. He has the most magnificent high powered combination of news gathering organizations and brilliant manufacturers of favorable publicity to be found anywhere on earth. Gov. Roosevelt had California tied up until the entrance of Garner — a movement which was not precipitated but was projected by William Randolph. Now William Randolph hasn't the slightest use for the 18th amendment or the Volstead act. He is doing his level best to round up California for the favorite son of Texas.

On the dry side William Gibbs McAdoo is the leader of the Sahara desert camels and camel drivers. According to their correspondents and press associations, Roosevelt is going to be buried by the democrats of California and then the democrats will sweep Herbert Hoover into the Pacific ocean on the great show-down day next November.

Hoover carried California by 589,000 majority over Alfred E. Smith in 1928. Now the Hearst-McAdoo forces are claiming a complete victory and the final snuffing out of Hoover along in harvest time. It is a remarkable combination. Smith is the kingfish of the "stoppers" in the East, and Hearst and McAdoo the two bitter personal and political foes of Smith sleeping in the same bed with the man with the derby, for the present at least, under the skies of California.

McAdoo late in the day had a favorite candidate in 1928. This before the coming of the Houston convention in that year. He dragged Sen Thomas J. Walsh into the political arena, and McAdoo and the dry democrats backed Walsh against Smith. Smith captured the California delegation. Now it is said Smith may throw his hat into the California arena and make a bold play to win the delegation or some of the delegates for the Smith cause.

A deadlocked convention appears to be in sight. Will it be a combination of the Garner and Roosevelt forces or will the wise boys in the East with their allies the nation ever place the standard in the hands of the distinguished war secretary of the Wilson administration? As the German farmer said to a pig buyer, "You pay your money and you takes your choice."

The dime-a-dance girl

By Joan Clayton

BEGIN HERE TODAY
Ellen Rossiter, beautiful 20-year-old, falls in love with Larry Harrowgate, an artist whom she met at Dreamland where Ellen works as a dance hall hostess. Larry is engaged to Elizabeth Bowers, a debutante, but she shows affection to Ellen until his fiancée returns from Europe.

From a sense of gratitude the girl agrees to marry Steven Barclay, a kind and wealthy man of 57, who has paid hospital expenses for her young brother, Mike, injured in a street accident. Barclay also gives Bert Arnsted, her sister's fiancé, an excellent job. Ellen believes gratefully can take the place of love.

Barclay has been married twice. His first wife died and the second, divorced, was Leda Grayson, notorious dancer. Barclay fears that talk of the divorce may be revived when he marries Ellen so they plan to keep the marriage secret.

Ellen and Myra quarrel when Myra refuses to let Barclay pay for her trousseau. She and Bert are to be married the same day as Barclay and Ellen.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXXI
In one morning, after breakfast Myra and Ellen bought everything they had ever dreamed of desiring. And how they loved it!

Steven had opened accounts in all the smart shops. The two excited girls had only to walk into the scintillating interiors and choose what they liked of New York's most beautiful offerings. Gowns, shoes, hats and gloves—all the accessories they had never been able to afford, they exclaimed over and bought.

They did not entirely lose their heads. They were sensible for that. But both discovered that for years they had consorted themselves with a fallacy. It was not true that a beautiful girl could make a cheap frock look expensive. It was true that an expensive frock could make a beautiful girl more beautiful. Like all girls they revelled in this discovery.

They bought suits first, suits of soft imported tweed. Myra's was deep brown with cuffs of beaver. Ellen's was Oxford gray with a blue fox collar that stood around her face like an arrogant ruff. There were silk frocks and woolen frocks in brilliant autumn colors. There were quantities of cobwebby lingerie, delicate and talloned things in heavy crepe. They really splurged in shoes, ordering six pairs each. Handmade shoes, the first either girl had ever owned that exactly fitted the narrow Rossiter heels.

After calls back and forth to the hospital and much consultation they selected the gown Molly was to wear at the wedding. It was a pale blue chiffon with a brimmed hat to bring out the lake-blue of Molly's eyes. Ellen and Myra were to wear identical frocks—simple, dignified white frocks bearing the definite and unmistakable stamp of Paris and the glittering Rue de la Paix.

They ate a hurried luncheon on the Avenue. They watched the crowd outside the windows, discussed their purchases and swore they wouldn't change a thing. At three o'clock, exhausted and happy, they wound up the orgy by buying three pair of pajamas—black and gold for Molly, blue for Myra and peachy satin for Ellen.

"My feet will never be the same again," Myra admitted with a sigh "but it was worth it."

"It was fun, wasn't it?" Ellen agreed, as she turned to give the interested saleswoman the Brooklyn address. She was pleased by the saleswoman's courteous interest even though she knew it was due to the limousine outside waiting for them.

"She thought we were rich," giggled Myra as they left the shop "but then you are—I keep forgetting."

"You take the car, Myra," Ellen said, feeling a vague let-down in spirit. "I'll take a cab to the hospital after I've finished that business with the lawyers."

"Why don't we drive there first?" asked Myra.

"Too early. Besides, I want to walk."

"You must be made of iron," Myra laughed.

The chauffeur sprang to the curb to open the door. The boxes were piled inside. Myra stepped into the car, sank back with a sigh of blissful relief and gave the hospital address. The car whirled away. Ellen watched until it was lost in traffic. She had a special reason for wanting to walk, but she did not intend that Myra should know it. She had an absurd and foolish desire to walk.

INDIGESTION

Take a Pinch of

Black-Draught After Meals

It bothered with indigestion after meals, try taking a pinch of Black-Draught just after you leave the table. Many people do this to avoid indigestion. Mrs. H. A. Goff writes from Sherman, Texas, to say: "I suffered with bloating—a full feeling. I would also lose my breakfast. My food disagreed with me. I began taking a pinch of Black-Draught after each meal, and I found that was the best way. I soon was relieved of so much gas, and the smothering spells did not come on so bad. I soon began to feel much better. Since then, my health is much improved."

TEXAS FIRE INSURANCE FIRMS LOSE

The fire insurance companies doing business in Texas operated at a book loss of $2,723,221 in 1930, and apparently will show a still larger loss for 1931 operations, according to sworn reports to the state insurance commission.

The reports on 1931 business are required to be in the hands of the commission by Aug. 31, and the figures will be tabulated and totals reached by July in one of the most complex statistical computations made by any branch of the state.

The companies collected gross direct premiums of $26,983,764 in 1930 on business in Texas, their reports showed. They paid direct losses of $17,225,418 and reported expenses paid of $12,481,567.

Out of each dollar collected in premiums, they reported that they paid out 63.8 cents in losses and 46.2 cents in expenses.

The expense items included agents' commissions, salaries and all other items of cost against the premium collections.

Reinsurance was not accounted for in these tabulations.

The companies that in 1930 collected over $1,000,000 premiums had the following experience as to expense and loss payments:

Home Insurance company, premiums, $1,024,099; losses, $567,414; expenses $414,551.

Republic Insurance company, premiums, $1,191,090; losses $684,107; expenses, $42,961.

The Aetna company had $654,310 premiums $412,670 losses and $340,490 expenses on fire insurance, and United States Fire Insurance company, $539,675 in premiums; $362,510 in losses and $211,627 in expenses.

AIRPLANES OF BRITAIN FLY MILLION MILES

LONDON, March 11. — Airplanes of the British Imperial Airways fleet, covering Continental and Dominion services, flew 1,510,867 miles in 1931.

Statistics also show that in that period the machines carried 30,581 passengers and 1,664,970 pounds of mails and freight. The mileage was an increase of 24 per cent over that flown in 1930, while the number of passengers carried represented an increase of 31 per cent.

The year was also notable for the introduction of eleven of the world's largest and most luxurious passenger-carrying planes on the cross-Channel, Mediterranean and Indian services. Eight four-engine 40-seater, 2,200 horsepower biplanes were placed in commission on the London-Paris and Cairo-Karachi routes. Three giant flying boats of similar power superseded older and smaller craft in the Mediterranean the latter machines, fully loaded weigh 14 tons.

During the year, orders were placed for a fleet of eight highspeed monoplanes for use on the newly inaugurated London-Cape Town service, when it is extended to the carrying of passengers in few weeks time.

In the summer of 1931 the England-India air mail, which, then inaugurated in 1929, operated on a schedule of seven and a quarter days, was speeded up to five days and two hours for the summer schedule and six days for the winter time-table.

Experimental flights were also carried out, with a view to the establishment of a regular weekly air mail service between England and Australia.

Imperial Airways officials also held preliminary discussions with officials of the Pan-American Airways and the French Aeropostale company, with a view to the possibility of operating an air mail between Europe and North America via the Azores and Bermuda, as soon as technical and other progress may permit.

RE-ENSTATEMENT SOUGHT

AMARILLO, March 10. — A move to have Jack Murr re-instated on the police force was started today after he was acquitted of charges of murder in connection with the slaying of Bill Elston.

"ALL-BRAN LIVES UP TO REPUTATION"

Her Constipation Overcome by This Delicious Cereal

If you are troubled with constipation, read Miss Bundy's enthusiastic letter:

"I would like to congratulate the one who discovered ALL-BRAN. It really does live up to its reputation when it is said to 'relieve constipation.'"

"I used to feel poor all the time—just down and out—and after reading an advertisement in a magazine about ALL-BRAN I got a box. It has evermore helped me, and it is not hard at all to eat."—Miss Mary Bundy, Bennettsville, S. C.

Laboratory tests show ALL-BRAN brings two things needed to correct common constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines; Vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also furnishes iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears the intestines of wastes.

How much safer than taking pills and drugs—so often harmful. ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming. Two tablespoons daily will overcome most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Use as a cereal, or in cooking. Recipes on the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

WILL DEPLORES TICKER TAPE SUBSERVIENCE

If people would get out of the habit of living by the stock ticker there would be fewer causes of depression, is the opinion of Will Rogers, world famous screen comedian, humorist and cowboy philosopher.

"Personally I can't see how a stock can be worth $100 at ten o'clock in the morning and only $50 at three in the afternoon," he said. "If the basic value is correct, there is no reason for such a fluctuation."

Rogers believes that the reason New York has felt hard times more acutely than any other city in the country is entirely due to the stock market habit.

"When I was in New York recently I talked to the head of one of the largest theatre ticket brokerage offices," he said. "He told me that he could tell how the market went during the day without ever looking at a tick report."

BURKETT TO SPEAK SAT. AT EASTLAND

EASTLAND, March 11. — Senator Joe Burkett of San Antonio, who is a candidate for congressman-at-large, will deliver the opening address of his campaign here tomorrow (Saturday, March 12) at 2:00 p. m. The meeting will be at the Eastland county courthouse in the 18th district court room. Mayor Marshall McCullough will preside and Judge Elko Been will introduce Senator Burkett.

Having lived for many years in Eastland and adjoining counties where he farmed, conducted newspapers, taught school, practiced law and held public office, Senator Burkett is well and favorably known to the voters of this section. It will be remembered that Senator Burkett served this county as district clerk, county judge and district judge. Also, so that he represented this district in the state senate and served as a member of the state highway commission.

Texas, according to the late federal census, is entitled to elect three additional congressmen - at-large until such time as the state has been redistricted. Senator Burkett aspires to be elected as one of these. He has already canvassed a good portion of the state and everywhere he is being given enthusiastic receptions.

A few years ago Senator Burkett moved to San Antonio, where he established a law office. He is said by his friends over the state to have a large following in San Antonio and South Texas where he has lived only a short time. In Central and West Texas he is well known and doubtless will draw a good support from those sections.

Senator Burkett's friends and supporters, especially his old friends, are urged to attend the meeting here Saturday. Senator Burkett is a good speaker, is well informed on the issues of the day and will have something interesting to tell his audience.

Offers Help

Dr. John Grier Hibben, above, president of Princeton University and close friend of Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. "There should be no compromise with evil," Dr. Hibben said, "but the factor of restoring that infant to his father and mother outweighs all other consideration."

Ancient Church Organ Heard Again

PARIS, March 11. — After six years of careful repair work, the ancient organ of the famous church of Saint-Eustache has been heard again.

A crowd of ten thousand people gathered for the ceremony presided over by Cardinal Verdier in celebration of the venerable instrument's complete restoration. Joseph Bonnet, who has been for 25 years organist of the church, played the musical program.

The organ was first installed in 1376, and was hailed by musicians from all over the world as the finest instrument of its kind in existence. In 1926 it was thought inadvisable to continue to play it until it had been thoroughly gone over and repaired. This was its first overhauling in 56 years. Certain modernizing improvements were made simultaneously with the repairs and so minute was the work done on the ancient pipes and delicate fixtures that a period of six years was required. Many of the pipes were enlarged and the whole organ electrified.

The program given consisted of the Prelude and Fugue in F minor Gierambault's "Suite du Premier Ton," Jean Philippe Rameau's "Invention," and Liszt's "Grande Fantaisie et Fugue."

The organist and Archbishop of Paris were further assisted by several soloists, the choir, and an orchestra. A group of religious numbers were given by the Maitrise under the direction of A. de Vallombrosa.
