BECK IS GIVEN DEATH IN SLAYING

Hostilities Are Renewed in Ruins of Chapei Today

NEW PEACE MOVEMENT IS INSTITUTED

(By United Press—)

Big guns roared along the Shanghai-Woosung front again today after a brief truce in which thousands of Chinese noncombatants were evacuated to the safety of the international settlement.

The renewed hostilities coincided with a new peace movement led by the American, British and French ministers on their arrival during the bombardment.

The Japanese still made withdrawal of the Chinese forces to a "safe distance" from the city a condition to peace parleys.

In Tokio the Japanese government considered sending diplomatic missions to Washington, London and Paris to clarify Japan's attitude toward settlement of the Shanghai crisis.

At Geneva the Chinese delegation precipitated a new crisis by demanding the League of Nations council call a special session of the entire league assembly to consider Japanese "acts of aggression" in China.

ARMIES FIGHT TO STANDSTILL

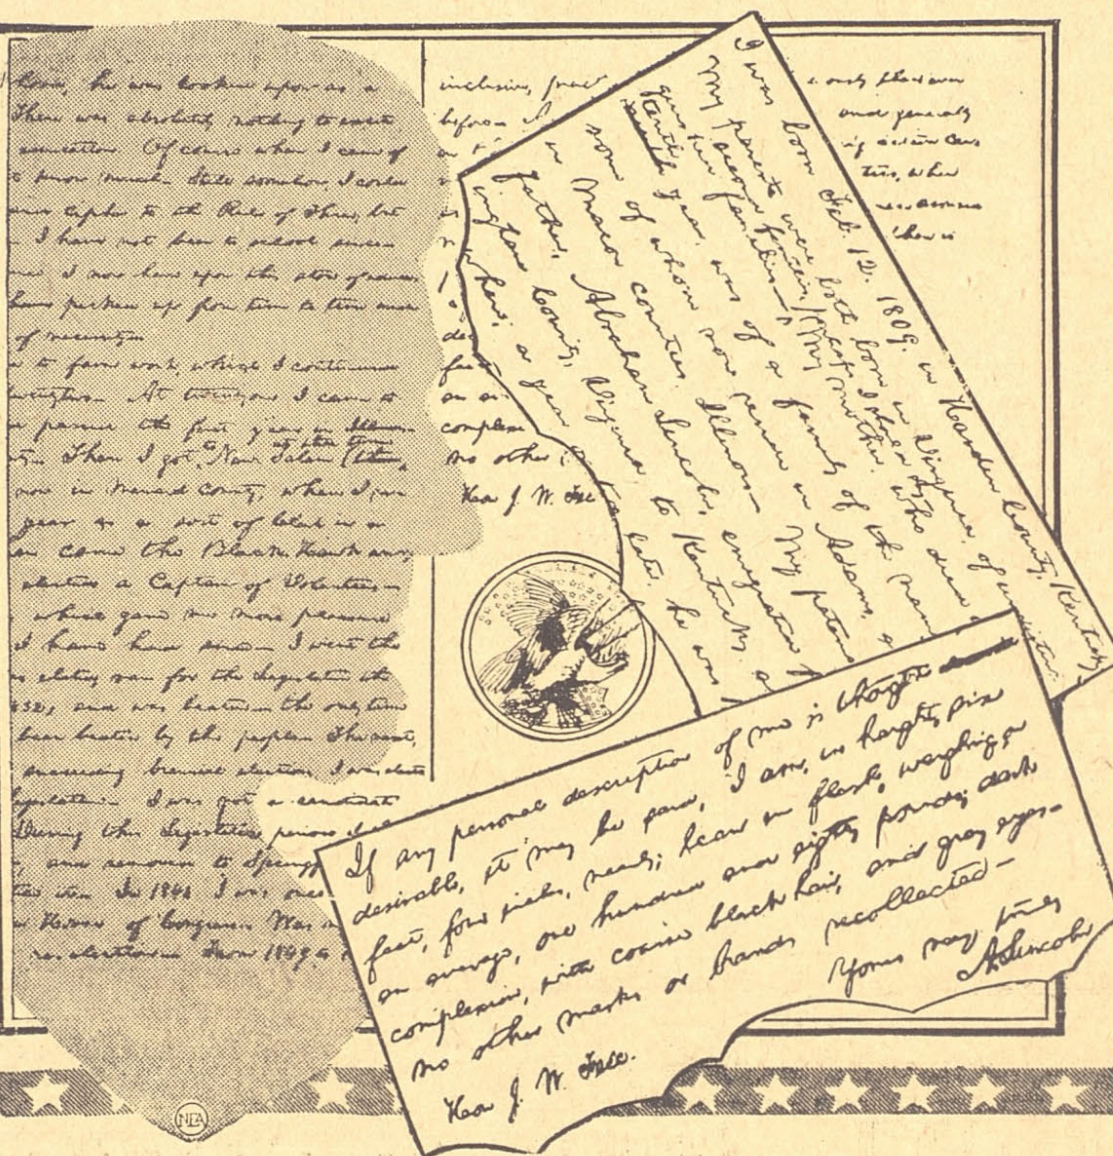

SHANGHAI, Sat., Feb. 13.—Copyright by United Press—The Japanese and Chinese armies fought against to a standstill in the ruins of Chapei Friday night. A terrific bombardment of heavy artillery and severe rifle and machine fighting resulted in a gain for neither side. The embattled Chinese, not only holding their own, made a desperate foray but the Japanese stood their ground.

At 1 a. m. Saturday the bombardment subsided and the weary armies sought a brief rest before the renewal of hostilities.

The Japanese were landing heavy reinforcements, estimated in some quarters at 20,000 troops, and were expected as soon as organized to begin a final drive to sweep the Chinese back from the city along a 20-mile front from Woosung to the city itself.

He was in Austin as an attorney for Ira G. Yates interest in the state's suit to settle title to valuable oil land in Pecos county. His son, J. P. Hill, was with him at the time of his death and will return with the body to San Angelo today.

The petition was filed by R. W. Hayden attorney for the company which operates the Laguna hotel here by W. A. Myrick, as president of the company, signed the financial schedule.

BIG SPRING, Feb. 12.—Evidence continued today in the trial of Louis Wisenhunt on charges of murder in connection with the slaying of Policeman H. F. Howie, with Wisenhunt testifying that he shot the policeman accidentally while shooting at Louis York in self defense.

York's widow was formerly Wisenhunt's fiancée. She testified Wisenhunt continued his attentions to her after marriage and urged her to divorce her husband and marry him. She was a witness for the state.

Policeman Howie was shot fatally last August 23 while attempting to quiet a disturbance at a tourist camp.

STERLING TO KEEP MARTIAL LAW IN FORCE

AUSTIN, Feb. 12.—Governor Sterling denied today that he intends to reduce the martial law force in east Texas. "I intend to keep them in there as long as they are needed," he said. How long that will be he did not indicate.

His personal attorneys have been instructed to take an appeal to the United States supreme court should the three-judge federal court at Houston hold martial law invalid.

DR. HORN TO PLACE CHARGES BEFORE BOARD

LUBBOCK, Feb. 12.—Although Dr. Paul W. Horn, president of Texas Tech, failed to find that atheism was taught in class rooms of his college, he plans to lay such charges before the school's board of regents this month.

Meanwhile Rev. R. C. Campbell whose statements in a sermon that four professors at the college had taught atheism and infidelity in the class rooms had thrown the students in a furore, claimed the accusations had been based on testimony he considered authentic.

"If the matter goes no further good will come of it," the Baptist minister said following his conference late Thursday with Dr. Horn who then issued a statement claiming he was unable to find evidence to support the charge that atheism was taught in the school.

Dr. Horn said the conference with Rev. Campbell would not end the matter but that he would place the charges before the regents.

LEGION PLAY MATINEE FOR SCHOOL KIDS

The first performance of "Sweetheart Town" local talent play fostered by the American Legion will be a special grade school children only matinee to be given Monday afternoon at 3:40 o'clock at the high school auditorium. A small admission will be charged and a balloon given free with each ticket. Only grade school children will be admitted at this matinee.

The same show will then be presented Monday night and Tuesday night at the same place at 8:15 o'clock. These shows will be open to everybody, the Legion announced.

About 50 Cisco people are in the cast and chorus. A charming feature of the program is the "Jack and Jill Wedding" which will be the first number on the bill. This feature alone is well worth the price of admission. About 75 children take part in the number.

Fred Davies, aged Ciscoan, suffered fractures of two ribs in a fall last Wednesday. His son, Will, of Dallas, and a daughter of Mineola, Texas are here to take care of him. He will probably be removed to either Dallas or Mineola to make his home with his children.

Cannon Demurrer Is Sustained

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Justice W. M. Proctor in District of Columbia supreme court today sustained the demurrer of Bishop James Cannon, Jr., and Miss Ada Burroughs to indictments charging them with violation of the federal corrupt practices act.

United States Rover, in charge of the prosecution, said he would appeal to the District of Columbia Court of Appeals.

Resolutions to Be Presented to County Tax Payers Association for Adoption

The following is a draft of resolutions which will be presented to the next meeting of the Eastland County Tax Payers association for adoption either in present or amended form by the committee on resolutions appointed at a recent meeting of the association.

The resolutions were prepared by a committee consisting of Judge Eugene Lankford, of Cisco; M. C. Franklin, of Eastland; R. F. Holloway, of Ranger; W. A. Tate, of Carburn, and W. C. Couch, of Bear Springs.

"Inasmuch as there seems to be a question in the minds of some as to what the taxpayers association is trying to accomplish by organizing and—

"Inasmuch as it is necessary for us to have certain definite objectives toward which to work, so that the association will not be simply an indignant organization which will ultimately be dissolved without having accomplished redress of grievances:

"Therefore, it seems good to us to set forth in orderly fashion definite goals toward the accomplishment of which we shall direct our united efforts:

One

"Therefore, we demand, that any man who seeks our support in his candidacy for either house of the state legislature shall publicly agree to introduce and support:

"1. A bill to abolish the fee system for all public offices in the state of Texas, and substitute therefor the paying of a reasonable salary to all servants of the public;

(a) In case a bill to that effect shall have been introduced by another legislator, he shall agree to support it;

(b) In case the fee system is held by the supreme court inherent in the constitution, he shall agree to introduce and support and sponsor a resolution to submit an amendment to the constitution that shall provide for the change desired.

"2. A bill to abolish one of the district courts in Eastland county

"3. What ever procedure may be necessary to consolidate:

(a) the office of county treasurer and county auditor;

(b) the office of tax collector and tax assessor.

"4. A bill for a transfer of a sufficient amount of the gasoline tax to the respective counties of the state to be used in liquidating the bonded road debt.

"5. A bill providing for one assessment of property for all purposes.

"6. A bill to provide that only

SHOWS LITTLE EMOTION AS DOOM IS READ

WACO, Feb. 12.—A district court jury today sentenced William Beck, 19-year-old former University of Texas student, to death in the electric chair for slaying O. L. Jones, automobile salesman, last September 3. The defense gave notice of appeal.

Beck confessed the crime following his arrest in Wichita Falls and said he shot the salesman, who had given him a ride in his car, to obtain money, and received but two dollars.

Efforts were made on his behalf to show him insane as the result of a baseball striking him in head in 1929.

In contrast to the tears of members of his family, Beck heard the death verdict of the jury without a show of emotion.

The stillness of the court room that followed reading of the death sentence was broken by the sobbing moans from Mrs. J. J. Beck, of Wills Point, white-haired mother of the condemned youth.

Two of Beck's sisters, who sat near her, also sobbed. The boy's father sagged in his chair when he comprehended the verdict. Then he broke into tears.

The Dallas team is captained by Thelma Russell, former Kitten Mattie Beas Russell, sister of Thelma and also a former Kitten, is a member of the team.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 12.—Federal District Attorney Edmond Talbot made public today indictments against 104 persons which he claimed exposed an international rum syndicate that operated a fleet of schooners and an intricate distribution system in which airplanes and wireless systems played a part.

Talbot said members of the Capone gang in Chicago are involved in the case. The southern terminus of the alleged rig was Honduras and its ramifications extended to Canada, involving four distilleries, Talbot said.

DAILY BIBLE THOUGHT

THE HIGHEST ROCK:—Hear my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer. From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.—Isalm 61: 1, 2.

TIME TO GO SLOW.

"All that glitters is not gold,
"Often have you heard that told."

The above haphazard quotation illustrates pointedly what we have in mind in regard to the proposed Diesel engine power plant for the city of Cisco. It does not deny, however, that gold glitters.

But the city commission is taking the right attitude when it refuses to act upon the advice and information of one side and without looking all around the problem. Of course to hear the engine company's side of the story would lead one to believe that the installation of a municipal power plant to provide energy for pumping water and lighting the streets and eventually coming into competition with the privately operated power company would be the shortest way to a municipal Utopia. The amazing cheapness at which such a plant can produce current causes one to wonder why in the world every municipality from Alaska to Chile does not have one in use.

On the other hand the power company has a few facts and figures that erect some serious doubts in the minds of the investigators. We learn that there are certain things overlooked in considering the case for the municipal plant—things that put an entirely different complexion upon the matter. The project may be a profitable one for the city and again it may not. From the present status it seems to be about six of one and half a dozen of another.

The city should give the most serious consideration to the project, but it is doing the right thing in jumping at nothing, but, instead, going into the matter with a determination to look around the entire problem and see what is keeping it up before doing anything of a radical nature.

It is quite possible that the commission could plunge the city into additional debt that would never be gotten rid of, but be just that much more of a millstone that it must stagger along under. On the other hand it is also possible that it can relieve itself of a great expense and effect savings in municipal operation for future years that will be of great benefit in cutting down the present load of indebtedness.

FARMERS ACTIVE.

Signs of new life and interest are being seen among the rural communities about Cisco according to observers. Farm homes are being repaired and repainted, fences mended, plots of ground cleaned up and put in shape for gardening, and outhouses and other equipment overhauled. With plenty of time on their hands now farmers are more inclined to busy themselves about the premises than when conditions are flush and there is excitement or other interest to be found elsewhere.

The farmer, by the way, quite different from his urban cousin, is in fair shape this year. If he is the average farmer, he has a cellar pretty well stocked with canned goods and meat and with dried vegetables to round out the larder. He has a place to live comfortably and enough feed in his barns to take care of his stock. What surplus crops he raises and turns into money are that much of profit.

He has learned a pretty severe lesson during the past two years but he seems to have learned it well and to be on the high road to self-support. He may not make much money but he will make a living and that is about all anyone can hope for now.

OTHER OPINIONS

ABOUT UTILITIES

The more interest they have to pay upon borrowed money, the more profit utilities earn. There is a proviso, of course. They must not pay too high a rate for their borrowed capital.

The fact is of interest to the average citizen for two reasons: First, it has made utility bonds stand like a Rock of Gibraltar against the fluctuations that have characterized an otherwise demoralized securities market; Second, it makes the common stock of utilities a most profitable investment—if you get in on the ground floor.

Judicial decisions are pretty unanimous in holding that a utility is entitled to charge a rate for its services that permits a net earning of eight per cent upon its invested capital. Now—if the major portion of that capital investment is represented by bonds in which the utility pays five and six per cent and preferred stocks on which it pays not more than six per cent, it is obvious that the common stock is entitled to the rare. To put it more clearly, the common stock is entitled to its own eight per cent net earnings plus the difference between the five per cent the bond-investment gets and the eight per cent it earns.

To illustrate: Suppose a utility has a total capital investment of $1,000,000. At eight per cent, its approved net earning would be $80,000. Suppose further, that the capital structure includes $200,000 of common stock, $300,000 of preferred stock at six per cent and $500,000 of bonds at five per cent. The $80,000 net profits would be distributed in wise: To the half million dollars of bonds, $25,000; to the $300,000 of six per cent preferred stock, $18,000 and to the $200,000 of common stock $37,000.

Upon its entire investment, the utility has made but eight per cent (the bonds have earned the guar-

DIZZY HEADACHE RELIEVED

A dizzy, sickening headache often is a warning sign of constipation. Poisons which constipation dumps up in the intestines are beginning to get in their dangerous work. There's refreshing relief in a dose of two of Theiford's Black-Draught. "I first began taking Black-Draught for biliousness and constipation," writes Mrs. Alonzo Rothrock, of Illinois, Mo. "I would have sick headaches and dizziness so I could not stoop over. I did not get any better until I began taking Black-Draught. After using it for some time, I quit having sick headaches."

...ed five per cent and the preferred stock has earned the guaranteed six per cent. But the common stock has earned the rather handsome returns of eighteen and one-half per cent.

In such a financial arrangement there is nothing objectionable either to the buying or the investing public. It is not unfair to the consumers of utility services. But is it an angle of the utility business that should be of interest to the people as a whole, especially when the matter of taxation upon intangible values is being considered.—Texas Opinion.

Smallpox contracted on a trip to the island of Barbados left his face pitted.

He was elected to the House of Burgesses, Virginia legislative body, in 1758.

© 1932 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

After the death of his father when George was 11, he went to live with his half-brother, Lawrence, at Hunting Creek, now called Mt. Vernon, on the Potomac. Lawrence was a gentleman of fashion, married to the daughter of the wealthy and socially prominent William Fairfax. Turning to surveying as a profession, George made many trips into the western wilderness which taught him resourcefulness and endurance and toughened his character. He shared log cabins with pioneers, ate bear meat and corn mush, swam rivers, followed deer trails, and encountered Indians who fired upon him at 15 paces, but missed. He contracted smallpox while on a trip to the island of Barbados with Lawrence and this left his face permanently pitted. When Lawrence died in 1752 George became heir to and manager of Mt. Vernon. Life there formed the background of his existence for the next two decades. He was known as a "hail fellow well met" and excelled in all outdoor pursuits, from wrestling to horse-breaking. His routine was interrupted for several weeks every year by attendance to the Virginia House of Burgesses, a legislative body to which he was elected in 1758. Tomorrow: Washington, the man.

Kathleen Collum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Collum, was presented in a tap dance. The program was concluded with an interesting talk by Mrs. Alfred Irby on the library at the high school of which Mrs. Irby has charge. Altman Grocery Makes Its Bow

The Altman Grocery, successor to Gentry's Cash Grocery, makes its bow to the Cisco trade in today's issue of the Cisco Daily News. S. W. Altman and son, F. B. Altman, of Abilene, are the new proprietors. They have had many years' experience in business and are casting their lot with Cisco where they will become permanent citizens just as soon as they can move their families. Marion Gentry and his wife have made many friends in Cisco who will regret to have them leave. Mr. Gentry has not decided just where he will locate but will likely have charge of another of his father's store, either in Breckenridge, Ranger or ElIASVILLE.

20 YEARS OF ILL HEALTH Then Mrs. Duke Discovered Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Of her own accord, Mrs. Duke sat down and wrote us a glowing tribute to Kellogg's ALL-BRAN: "I have been constipated all my life, which has been about 20 years, up until last year when I started eating your ALL-BRAN. Since I have been eating it, people tell me I am looking better, and I am sure that I feel a great deal better."—Mrs. L. W. Duke, 210 Hardin Ave., College Park, Ga. Constipation is usually caused by lack of two things in the diet: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines; Vitamin B to help give them tone. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides both of these dietary necessities, as well as iron for the blood. Within the body, the "bulk" in ALL-BRAN forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes. How much more natural it is to enjoy this delicious cereal than to risk taking pills and drugs—so often harmful. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily—serious cases with every meal—for most types of constipation. ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor. Sold in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
