Businesses Closed Thursday July 4

Most business firms and offices, including city and county offices, will be closed on Thursday, July 4, in observance of Independence Day. The Post Office and local financial institutions announced closing plans.

A survey showed that only convenience stores, some super markets and most restaurants would be open during the holiday.

City officials reported that the city landfill will be closed on Thursday and that there will be no garbage pickup. Household garbage that is normally picked up on Thursday will be picked up Friday, the city announcement said.

Friday, July 5th, will be a normal business day for most retail stores and offices.

McCulloch Is Appointed New C.H.S. Coach

BRYAN McCULLOCH Bryan McCulloch, 31, pictured above, has been employed as basketball coach at Cisco High School and will join the coaching staff this fall, Superintendent C.R. Saunders announced Tuesday. The new basketball coach was approved by the board of trustees at a special meeting Monday night.

Mr. McCulloch, who grew up at Scranton, will succeed Rick Land who resigned to return to Arkansas where he and his wife lived prior to moving here several years ago. The Lands resigned as members of the school faculty here.

Mr. McCulloch has had four years of experience as a basketball coach at Moran. For the past two years he has been employed by M&M Drilling Company with his brothers, Ken and Ted. His parents are the George McCullochs of Scranton.

After finishing high school at Scranton, Mr. McCulloch attended Cisco Junior College and Tarleton State University. He will teach physical science and assist with football coaching during the fall.

Mr. McCulloch lives with his wife Cindy and their three children at 508 West 2nd Street. Mrs. McCulloch teaches Spanish and English at Cisco High School. Their children are daughters Kelly, 7, and Nicky 5, and a son, Heath, 11 months. They are members of Holy Rosary Catholic Church.

Three Arrested In Cisco Tues.

Three white males were arrested by Sergeant Frank Thumsden of the Cisco Police Department at 10 a.m. Tuesday in a pickup truck that was stolen June 29th in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, Chief Billy Rains reported. They were arrested in the vehicle at Taylor Center parking lot.

The men were placed in the county jail and the pickup was impounded for Dallas police, Chief Rains said.

Fourth Of July Activities Planned

Splash Day at the swimming pool, contests for young and old, a city park carnival and a night-time fireworks display are items that feature the Independence Day program for Cisco area residents Thursday. And plans were near completion Tuesday for the holiday observance, according to a Chamber of Commerce announcement.

A flag raising ceremony by a Dyess Air Force Base Color Guard at 10 a.m. Thursday will officially open the holiday program. The ceremony will be held at the flag pole at City Park by the Dyess team.

The swimming pool program, including Splash Day with free admission all day, will begin at 10 a.m. There will be swimming and diving contests for young people, reported Manager Shirley Darr of the pool.

Beginning at 10:15 a.m., there will be games of horseshoe pitching, washer pitching and a "42" tournament.

Shooting Fireworks Prohibited By City

Shooting fireworks on July 4th or any time is prohibited by city ordinances and violators will be prosecuted, Police Chief Billy Rains reported Tuesday.

The ordinance prohibits any form of fireworks shooting and provides for a fine of from $10 to $200.

Chief Rains said the police department would have extra men on duty Thursday to assist with traffic and to enforce all city ordinances.

Golf Tournament Planned For Thurs.

Area golfers have been invited to enter the "Fourth of July Fun Scramble" golf tournament at the Cisco Country Club on Thursday, July 4, and the tee-off time will be 1:30 p.m., Chairman Jim Puryear reported Tuesday.

Members of the same family who desire may play on the same team in the holiday event, Mr. Puryear said.

"We hope this will encourage golfers to come out and make our scramble a 'fun family affair,'" he said.

Those who play to play were asked to register at the pro shop by 1:15 p.m. There will be a shotgun tee-off promptly at 1:30. Prizes will be golf balls.

Family members wishing to play together were asked to notify the chairman when they enter.

Details Announced For Summer Tournament

The Miniature Golf Course at Lake Cisco Park, announced the details of summer Tournament, which will be held during regular hours on July 5, 6 and 7.

Anyone playing during those days is eligible to enter. The course is open at 4 p.m. Friday, Saturday and Sunday all summer.

Four special golf trophies are offered to those who play this week and turn in a signed card. No special fees will be charged to enter. Regular admission is $1.00 for adults; those under 12 years, 50 cents.

The trophies will be awarded as follows:

(1) Singles trophy - ladies and (2) Singles trophies - men/boys. Turn in a signed/witnessed score card by the 10 p.m. deadline Sunday night, July 7. Low score wins; a tie will be broken by matching hole-by-hole scores on the tied cards.

(3) Blind Bogey trophy: You do not need to score well to win. The winner will be determined by a number drawing. The Blind Bogey number drawn will be subtracted from your score; if the result is PAR (59) you have a winner. Ties will be broken as mentioned above.

(4) Team Trophy (Low Ball): A team may have two, three or four players. Turn in a signed/witnessed score card by the 10 p.m., Sunday night deadline. The teams low-ball score card is then made up for the 18 holes using only one of the member's score (the lowest) for each hole. Thus the team low-ball score may be 30 or so.

If two or three teams are tied, the trophy will be awarded by matching hole-by-hole scores on the low-ball card.

These special trophies and runner-up prizes will be awarded the weekend following the Tournament.

The Kiwanis Club, which operates the golf course as a community service, invites the public out to this cool, pleasant setting for a lot of fun for all ages. The course will be well lighted in the evenings, and a number of players are expected to attend.

The carnival, sponsored by the Cisco Lions Club, will open at 11 a.m. and remain open until after the fireworks display around 10 p.m.

The afternoon game program will include events for young people - egg tossing, a softball throw, three-legged races, with a Softball Association and the Little League in charge.

The Lions Club will have a number of booths in the City Park Carnival, including a barbecue and soft-drink stand, snow cones, balloon darts, dime pitch and others. The Softball League will have booths for add-up darts, milk bottle toss, and dunking machine.

The Little League will have a baseball pitching machine in a booth and welcome batters. The Cisco Kiwanis Club will have a watermelon stand, and Calvary Baptist young people will hold a bake sale.

There will be continuous entertainment in the Lions Club Pavillion, beginning at 11:30 with Mrs. George Owens singing. Other events will include the Senior Citizens Band at 12 noon and another feature to be announced at 1 p.m.

Beginning at 5 p.m., entertainment will feature the Sweet Carolines, 6 p.m. the Senior Citizens Band, 7 p.m. New Beginnings, 8 p.m. Ghost Riders Band and 10 p.m. Ghost Riders Band.

The fireworks show will begin between 9:45 and 10 p.m. with Bruce Smith in charge.

At 4:30 p.m. there will be a softball game between teams of City employees and the Women's Softball Association. The game will be in the city park baseball field.

The Assembly of God Young People will hold a bake sale, and the Pony League Association plans a Lemonade-Ice Tea-Cookies booth.

The Lions Club barbecue stand will begin serving at 11 a.m. and continue through the afternoon and evening. Lion Brad Kimbrough will be in charge.

Stenholm Here This Wednesday

Congressman Charles Stenholm of the 17th District was scheduled to be honored at an informal reception and coffee from 9 to 9:45 a.m. Wednesday, July 3, at the community room of the First National Bank in Cisco.

The congressman's stop in Cisco was one of several planned during the day and the July 4th holiday week in his district. Arrangements for the reception here were made by a committee including Mayor Eric Ritchie, Dick Woolley, W.B. Wright Jr., Truman Kirk, Mabel Fletcher and Brad Kimbrough.

Mr. Stenholm planned to brief residents of his district on the important issues before Congress. The public was invited to attend.

School Bids Rejected

Bids submitted by two construction companies for a contract to add class rooms and a cafeteria to Intermediate School building were rejected by the board of trustees of the Cisco Public Schools at a special meeting Monday night.

Supt. C.R. Saunders said the board decided to reject the bids as they were considerably higher than had been anticipated. Mr. Saunders was asked to contact the architect for the project and to suggest changes in plans and specifications and to set a new bid opening date.

A Breckenridge firm was the low bidder for the project with a bid of $749,000. The higher of the two bids was $864,000 by a Fort Worth firm.

THE OLD BUILDING at 610 Conrad Hilton Avenue (pictured above) became just a vacant structure in downtown Cisco Monday. It served as headquarters for the collection and rendition of taxes for the Cisco Public Schools and Cisco Junior College for some 60 years.

Cisco school and college tax collection work was taken over July 1 by the Eastland County Appraisal Office on the second floor of the courthouse in Eastland, and henceforth Cisco taxpayers will be obliged to go there when they have business with the collector of local school taxes.

Records of the tax office were moved last weekend to Eastland under the supervision of Director Steve Thomas of the Appraisal office. Mrs. Betty Wiggins, who had served as local school tax collector for some three years, became unemployed.

Old-timers recalled that it was in the mid-1920s that the school system obtained the building as their downtown office and tax center. Tax collectors serving there over the years included the late Frank Walker, the late Clyde Karkalits, the late Stanley Webb and Jammie Fry.

Dr. Allen McGinness, president of the board of trustees of the Cisco Public Schools, said the savings to the schools would be substantial by closing the office and turning collections over to the county office. This plan, he added, will eventually be the same all over the state with the county office handling collections as well as renditions.

Doyle Walker Named Head Coach at C.H.S.

Employment of Doyle Walker, 30, member of the coaching staff at Cisco High School for the past two years, as head football coach and athletic director was approved by the board of trustees at a special meeting Monday night, it was announced by C.R. Saunders, superintendent.

Mr. Walker will succeed John Parchman who resigned to accept a position as coach of the football team at Socorro High School in El Paso.

A native of Abilene, Mr. Walker is a graduate of Abilene High School and Abilene Christian University. He has been in coaching for seven years - two years at Hale Center and three years at Rotan.

At Rotan, the Walker team went 11-1 and lost in bidistrict the second year. The next, his team went 11-2-1 and lost to the team that won the state championship. He was 7-3 the first year.

At Hale Center, Mr. Walker was defense coordinator and the Owls had back-to-back trips to the state semi-finals in the two years he was there - 1981 and 1982. They had 12-2 and 12-2-1 seasons.

Coming to Cisco as defense coordinator with Mr. Parchman, the Lobos were 11-3 the first season, going to the quarter finals. The local team was 6-4 last year.

The outlook for 1985 indicates a rebuilding year as only six seniors are on the squad, which will have 19 juniors. Mr. Walker will have considerable talent coming up from junior high.

One other football coach will be hired to join the staff that includes Russell McLeskey, Jerry Reeves and Bryan McCulloch. Mr. McLeskey will continue as head track coach and serve as defensive football coordinator. Mr. McCulloch also will be head basketball coach. Lori Larrison will return as the girls basketball

Capitol Update
By: Jim Parker

I would like to take this opportunity, with "tongue in cheek" and in capsule form, to give you an idea of some of the more unusual aspects of the 69th Legislative Session as they affect you.

For example, as I have mentioned in an earlier column, you can, after September 1st, drive to your favorite retail outlet for Sunday shopping but you will have to wear your seatbelt to and from, unless your vehicle has a load rated capacity in excess of 1500 pounds.

While you can still drive with an open container of an alcoholic beverage, if you are caught driving with that open container and found to be driving while intoxicated, the penalty brought against you can be enhanced.

If you are a student in a public college or university in the Texas, you will be paying $12 per semester hour for courses instead of the $4 you paid last semester.

If you have a picture of a child, grandchild or other infant showing that infant's exposed backside, you better burn it (Sure, you're going to burn a picture of your grandchild.) because it is now a felony to possess it and your lascivious intent is presumed. (This particular piece of legislation should probably win some exalted award for being the most ridiculous piece of legislation to pass the 69th Session. It is a perfect example of the fact that good intentions do not insure a good result.)

Probation fees are up from $15 per month to $40 per month and the criminal must now pay restitution to the victim, court costs and fine, and must repay any crime stoppers' reward that was advanced for his apprehension. I am not sure we reduc-

Precious Memories

"Precious Memory" Mable Kinard Coats Jan. 2, 1898-June 19, 1985

By Vera Wheat
"Precious memories how they linger." I'm sure I can not ever know the wonderful memories you have, and will have in the passing years.

The foundation of civilization in the family is the mother!!

Today, I'm sure this has been your theme and will be. All that I am or ever hope to be, I owe to my angel mother!! I am fortunate and privileged to have loving beautiful memories of my mother. I had her love, understanding, and caring for years.

In my heart and mind I can still hear her voice, as she raised it in prayer for me, her "Son."

She loved to sing the songs of the church. I can still hear her singing with the congregation.

Most of all the sweetest of all my memories will be her love. She may not have always understood me, but she never failed me!! She cooked my meals, sewed my clothes, provided me with a home, from babyhood till her passing.

Leaving me a wonderful loving heart, full of loving memories of years gone by.

The love of "Jesus" manifested in her home, in her role as a housekeeper. She never preached, wrote a book, or lead a crusade, but she knew how to be a wonderful mother.

The passing of the years will make her memories grow sweeter. There will be scarcely a day passes but in some incident will bring her to my mind and heart.

My mother lies buried in a quiet, little country cemetery in the sleep that knows no dreams.

The warm summer winds blow across her slumber, and the wild country flowers will bloom near her marker. A steady sun warms her blanket of clay, and the beds of the kinsfolk who sleep around her. The distant hills grow green and farmers plow the field beyond the narrow cemetery road.

A young redbird throws his crimson wings on the canvas of the sky, and calls to his mate, across the valley, while I stand here and remember. I remember the days that used to be, a soft, sweet voice forever silent, a loving hand forever still.

And thank "God" I had a loving Christian mother. "God Bless This Family."

WORD of GOD

Have you come all THE WAY - been baptised with the Holy Spirit, speak in tongues and endued with power from on high to speak boldly that Jesus Christ is Lord? There is more! - Maturity in the Body of Christ and the manifestation of the Fruits of the Spirit:

This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other, so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

BRINGS YOU THESE IMPORTANT TIPS... YOU AUTO KNOW

Three drinks in a 2-hour period will impair the driving ability of anyone up to about 160 pounds. Four drinks is trouble for anyone, period.

Protect the finish of your car with a coat or two of quality wax before you drive in a coastal area. Sun and salt water are hard on a car.

Don't be a statistic—each driver is likely to be involved in a crash once every 5 years, and one out of 14 of those crashes will be serious. Wear a seat belt for protection.

Your car's cooling system will work better if you clean the radiator by spraying with a hose from the engine side. That'll help get rid of the junk caught in it.

It's not always necessary to replace the entire system when there's a power steering problem. Many problems involve just one component that must be replaced.

Spotlights and Sidelights

COLOR ME ANGRY
Well, I swan, do tell and sho' nuff!

My blood pressure may never be the same. "Teacher tests called discriminatory" was a headline that caught my eye in Tuesday's (26) FORT WORTH STAR TELEGRAM. Sub-headed "Minorities must overcome such barriers, educators tell NAACP," the article was written by Lawrence E. Young and date-lined Dallas. My anger is directed toward those persons, black, white, or pea-green, who think "competency testing a form of racial discrimination." That quotes Asa Hilliard, a professor from Georgia State University.

Strike out "racial," and I will plead for such discrimination on behalf of every child enrolled in school now—or ever.

Remember this "no pass-no play" play we've dealt with this past school year? What's wrong with applying that to teachers?

Sure, some black teachers will get wiped out. So will a lot of white ones if we're going to play this game with color tiles.

The efficient white, black, brown, yellow, and "other" teachers I have known won't be bothered by the tests any more than the students who use that muscle between their ears are bothered by "no pass-no play."

I don't like the way this seems to take for granted the idea that minorities can't learn as well as majorities. They may not do it, but I don't believe it's just a guess that "will not" is the key to non-learning more often than "can not."

It was stated by Barnette Joiner, dean of the school of education of Grambling State University in Louisiana, that "the ethnic composition of the national teaching force will drastically change unless minorities devise strategies to live with competency testing."

That blew it for me. What in blueblazes is wrong with studying?

"Devised strategies" sounds like making copies of a swiped test to pass it around or getting the professor stoned in order to apply a little pressure.

Judging from his wife of pronouns, Joiner is black. If he really believes "black people can do anything," why does he say, "...we must devise strategies to overcome the discriminatory barriers?"

It's the "devised strategy" that gets to me...probably because Joiner also was quoted as saying that several years ago less than ten percent of the black education majors at his institution of higher learning passed competency tests and that this year eighty percent passed the tests.

What I want to know is: 1. Did the school of education attract seventy percent more students who were smarter? 2. Did the students get the "no pass-no play" message and study hard enough to bring up those grades? 3. Did Dean Joiner, or his cohorts, "devise strategies" and teach to the test?

I subscribe to the idea of teach-test; re-teach-re-test, but teaching to the test (teaching known subject matter of a test) is not ethical as I see it, any way you slice it, it cheats the individual who thinks s/he is getting an education. That's the way I see it...I suppose it could be called "devising strategy."

Grambling may be a "white" or a "black" college—I don't know. However, I see nothing but good resulting if we have no colleges identifiable as "black" or "white." I think all schools should be color blind. Brains and blood, brown and bones are all the same colors anyway.

Once I read a definition of history that supposed to be funny: History is fiction agreed upon as fact.

It doesn't strike me as hilarious. The history tests skim only the surface, and that may be much amended and edited.

So, blacks were made slaves in America...most of them.

So, the custom of slavery was well-established in Africa, Asia, the Orient, and the "Old Country" while in the "New Country" the local versions of the Noble Redmen were popping off their bows and arrows and enslaving each other.

Blacks weren't the only people not invited to sip tea in the front parlor. Read your old newspaper files and notice the lack of social items about Jews, Hispanics, Orientals—anyone who was "different." The Kennedys made it to the Court of St. James and the Presidency, but check out the story of most of the shanty Irish as opposed to the lace-curtain Irish.

Given humanity's general resistance to change, I understand the original need for organizations like the NAACP. Now, I think the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People should mark time for a bit. Maybe I have more confidence in the Carvers and the Cobys, the Hornes and the Bunches than the NAACP, but I don't believe all the "devised strategies" in the world man make anymore intelligent. People of whatever color should be discriminating where children are concerned.

If the youngsters have to live with "no pass-no play," their teachers can live with "no pass-no work." and the article did point this out. But proposing "devised strategies" to pass a test? As I said, my blood pressure may never be the same.

HAWAII

By H.V. and GayNell O'Brien

A little geography might be in order. It helped us understand Hawaii better. The eight islands in the Mid-Pacific make up the State of Hawaii which achieved statehood in 1959.

The better-known points (Waikiki, Pearl Harbor, etc.) are on the island of Oahu, where Honolulu is the state capital. Most tours and first-time tourists come first to Oahu, where they either spend the entire time or branch off to the other islands which are reached by air, except for the cruise system which we were on.

Seven of these are inhabited; the eighth, Kahoolawe, is used by the navy for bombing and gunnery practice.

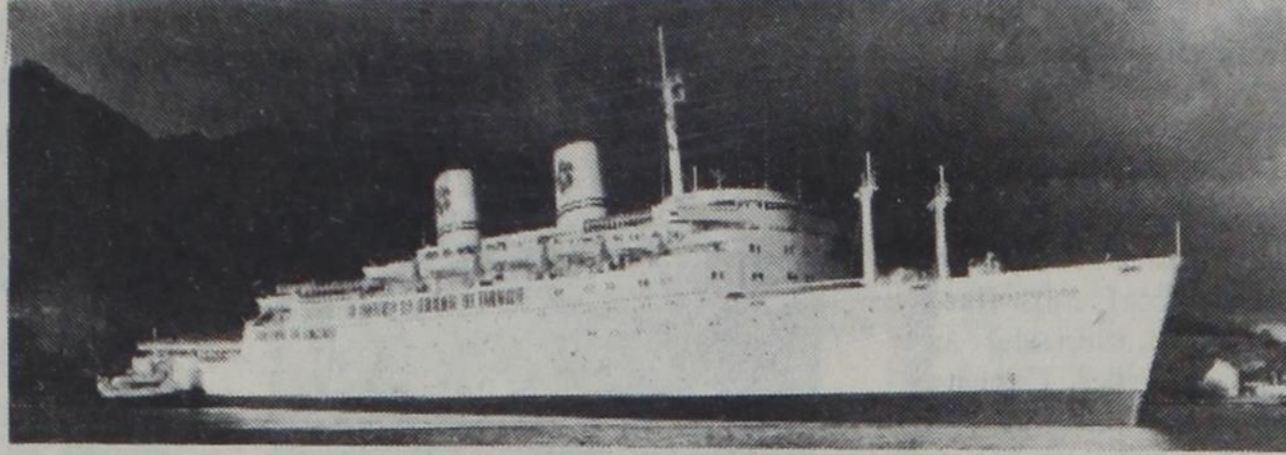

Maui is the second largest island. It contains some of the state's most magnificent beaches, a variety of resort areas, a refurbished whaling port, and the vast, colorful crater of dormant Haleakala.

West and northwest of Maui, the islands of Lanai and Molokai are quiet and still comparatively undeveloped. Much of Lanai is planted to pineapple; Molokai is largely ranch land.

Westernmost of the main islands are Kauai and Niihau. Kauai is a mixture of sugarcane fields, resort areas, home and ranches. Lush vegetation blankets its mountains. Tiny Niihau is privately owned and can be visited only by invitation.

Stretching beyond Niihau lie a series of tiny islets and atolls officially named the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands. Military installations on Midway and Kure and small wildlife facilities are the only marks of habitation.

Molokai - the friendly isle, 26 miles from Honolulu and a popular weekend destination for residents there. Fifth largest, Molokai is shoe-shaped, 37 miles long and 10 miles wide. Like the rest of the Hawaiian islands, it was formed by volcanic domes. Sheraton opened a hotel here in 1977, and now with the fading pineapple economy, the island will depend on tourism and a diversified agricultural. The Kalaupapa peninsula on the north coast - now a National Historic Park - was for almost a century, the place of banishment and isolation for sufferers of leprosy. We sailed around this island Sunday.

On this cruise we participated in the Third Anniversary Celebration of the Constitution. It was also the third consecutive cruise for fellow publishers from San Francisco, whom we met at captain's dinner table on evening of this celebration.

Lanai-sixth in size, 17 miles long and 13 miles wide. Population, 2,100; some 445 work for the pineapple company which has more than 12,000 acres in production - with 78,000 additional acres of wide-open space. The island has only one hotel, an 11-room. We were told that they are trying to maintain the original (before statehood, etc.) way of life here.

(Safety Note: On sailing Sunday, among other things, the ship had a fire and lifeboat drill, which included everything up to donning lifevests and lowering of lifeboats, but not actually getting into them. American Hawaii Cruises stresses safety.)

Monday found us docked at Kahului, Maui, and Capt. Harry T.Y. Wu's daily newspaper quote of the day: "A friend is a present you give yourself".

Maui, the second largest, has a land area of 728 miles and like Oahu was formed from two shield volcanoes and a connecting plateau. Lava flows from the two volcanoes met to form the island's isthmus. Population is concentrated at Kahului and Wailuku. Tours offered on Maui include: Iao Valley - Lahania - Kaanapali; Hana Drive; Lahaina-Kaanapali Shuttle; Haleakala Crater; helicopter to Molokai; Parasailing; horseback and/or bicycle rides.

We opted for the Lahania shuttle which took us to the historic town, once the capital of old Hawaii and the center of its whaling activity. We rode up to see the Royal Lahania Hotel and the magnificent Kaanapali Beach where luxury resort hotels abound. We declined the Sugar Cane Train ride, but did a lot of souvenir shopping in the most unique waterfront shopping centers, and witnessed the weigh-in of a 150 pound marlin on the docks where an antique whaling vessel was also museumed.

A day on Maui prompted us to think that if, maybe we were ever to come back to Hawaii and could only choose one island: this might be it. Many visitors do just that.

NEXT: The steaming volcanic craters of the Hilo area on the big island of Hawaii.

The S.S. INDEPENDENCE and S.S. CONSTITUTION were built as sister ships in 1951 at Quincy, Massachusetts. Unlike the many cruise lines which refer to any two of their ships as sister ships, the INDEPENDENCE and CONSTITUTION are true sisters, as they were built as identical twins from the same set of plans. Designed by Raymond Loewy, whose career with industrial design, particularly transportation, was noted for his creation of the Studebaker automobile. The vessels were launched in late 1950 to begin service for the American Export Line of New York in 1951. The INDEPENDENCE made her maiden voyage first in February with the CONSTITUTION following in April of 1951. The maiden voyage was a 60-day, 23 port gala cruise to the Mediterranean. The twins were built for express liner service from New York to Italy, with calls at Gibraltar and Cannes. They were American crewed and registered, and operated under the houseflag of American Export Line.

These ships are unique in style and design, having an exterior of the older, more traditional design, with a very low profile compared to today's modern cruise ships that are top heavy and built very box-like. The older clipper ship stern, called a "counter" stern, is also very distinctive on these ships. The counter stern was American Export's trademark. Interiors of the ships were very modern for 1951, and quite a contrast to the older style exterior. The Henry Dryfuss Agency of New York designed the decor with an accent on a new American style of cruising. This American "Club-like" atmosphere gave the ships their uncommon feeling of modern comfort at sea. This smart appearance must have been bold for 1951 when compared to European ships then sailing! They were successful and popular, offering an American alternative sailing to Europe on the "Sune Lane" route. The traveling public was pleased with having a choice to "sail American" on their own ships. It is difficult to imagine how modern these ships were for 1951, as we are now used to such conveniences on all ships. The INDEPENDENCE and CONSTITUTION were the world's first passenger liners to be fully air-conditioned. Even into the 60's many ships still only offer air conditioning in their public rooms. Three classes of serve offered passengers a choice of deluxe, budget, or no frills (first, cabin and tourist classes)!!

During their earlier history, both ships were popular in diplomatic and celebrity circles. Known to be the newest, safest, fastest (for a few years), smartest, most comfortable U.S. flag passenger liners, their passenger lists included presidents and film personalities.

Miss Grace Kelly sailed with her Wedding Party on the CONSTITUTION in 1956 to Monaco to begin her new life with Prince Ranier. Princess Grace held a special affection for the CONSTITUTION, and later crossed the Atlantic two more times with her husband. Also the ships themselves were celebrities, as the firm "An Affair to Remember" with Cary Grant and Deborah Kerr was filmed onboard the CONSTITUTION. The INDEPENDENCE played a starring role in a segment of the "I Love Lucy" television series with the Ricardos sailing off to Europe onboard!!

The former Tourist and Cabin Class restrictions were no longer used as the ship was now open class. The plan was unsuccessful, and by the end of 1968 the line laid-up both vessels. The INDEPENDENCE was "mothballed" near Baltimore, Maryland, and the CONSTITUTION at Jacksonville, Florida.

In 1974, Atlantic Far East Lines of the C.Y. Tung Group purchased the two ships for their Hong Kong-based Orient Overseas Line. The INDEPENDENCE was placed in their service under Today's passengers can still feel this historical mystique that remains from the ships' Trans-Atlantic days.

Due to decreasing numbers of passengers crossing the Atlantic by ship, with the airplane taking over, American Export Isbrandtsen Lines ended regular Trans-Atlantic service in 1967. The firm attempted Caribbean Cruises under the management of Diner's Club International with special low rates aimed at economically-minded passengers. To start this new service, the INDEPENDENCE was repainted (in 1968) yellow with a large orange sunburst on the sides to make her "noticeable" and look "with it!" Diner's Club offered three restaurants, each with different menus and price ranges with a "Pay As You Eat" policy.

The former Tourist and Cabin Class restrictions were no longer used as the ship was now open class. The plan was unsuccessful, and by the end of 1968 the line laid-up both vessels. The INDEPENDENCE was "mothballed" near Baltimore, Maryland, and the CONSTITUTION at Jacksonville, Florida.

In 1974, Atlantic Far East Lines of the C.Y. Tung Group purchased the two ships for their Hong Kong-based Orient Overseas Line. The INDEPENDENCE was placed in their service under the name of OCEANIC INDEPENDENCE flying the Panamanian flag. The CONSTITUTION, however remained mothballed in Hong Kong.

OCEANIC INDEPENDENCE operated service from Hong Kong, South Africa, and South America with limited success. During 1975, she also assisted with the repatriation of Portuguese nationals from their former colonies of Angola and Mozambique.

In 1979, the INDEPENDENCE was acquired by American Global Lines of New York, and on June 21, 1980, she was reintroduced to passenger cruising under the U.S. flag.

She began operating weekly 7-day cruises by American Hawaii Cruises among the Hawaiian Islands from Honolulu.

Her sister, the CONSTITUTION, joined her in the new Hawaiian service on June 6, 1982, after having been completely redecorated and outfitted.

The CONSTITUTION was re-christened by Her Serene Highness Princess Grace of Monaco on April 20, 1982. The CONSTITUTION is the first and only American flag vessel to ever receive royal sponsorship.

The ship reportedly cost $25 million in '51, which could mean as much as $125 million in today's dollars. She's listed at 29,700 long-ton displacement; 682 feet long, 89 feet wide, and is propelled at 22.5 knots maximum, 37,000 horsepower, with two steam turbines with twin propellers, with bow and stern thrusters.

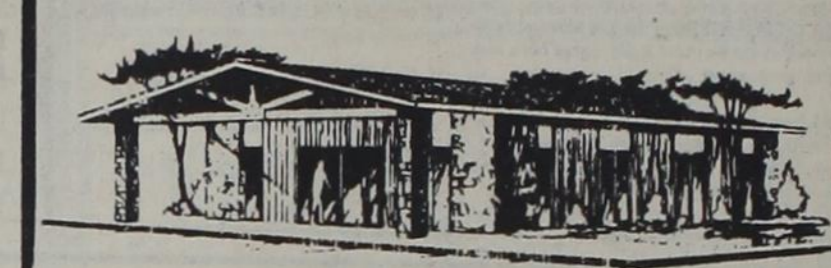

With seven elevators, 23,000 square feet of open deck, the Constitution has a capacity of some 800 passengers and a crew of 340.

Passenger list was down to just above 600 on our cruise due to the recent United Airline strike which had pretty well played havoc with the tourist business in Hawaii. Island-wide, they were guessing tourist business was off by at least 20 percent and they are hoping to catch up in July and August.

The ship has four clubs and show areas, two restaurants, conference room, disco, theatre, health spa sauna, two swimming pools, barber-beauty salon, boutique, shopping arcade, photo gallery, children's play room, sports deck area, hospital, and serves American and Continental cuisine generously.

REST
 "And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made." Genesis 2:2.

It was the fall of the year as I rode along the wide expanse of a Texas highway. I glanced at the landscape and observed ranch homes, farm buildings, and idle plows as they sat quietly against the backdrop of the small, barren trees and foliage.

The brownish colored trees were outlined against the sky. The tumbleweeds mingled with the corn-colored grasses and all of nature's shrubs and plants seem to fuse together in one tone of straw-colored harmony. The thought came to me that all I viewed was resting.

God ordained rest. When He finished creating the heavens and earth and all living things, He rested. When Jesus saw that His disciples had no leisure so that they found no time to eat, He told them to come apart from the crowd and rest awhile.

When the inhabitants came against the Israelites and oppressed them, the Israelites were told, "Your Redeemer is strong; the Lord of hosts is His name;

He shall thoroughly plead their cause; that He may give rest to the land..." Jeremiah 50:34.

Jesus knew that rest was important for all of creation. Are you tired of the crowds, tired of your daily work routine, or just tired of the circumstances surrounding you?

Friend, go aside from the "noise" of these things and rest. Listen to Him as He tells His disciples, "Let us go aside and rest awhile." You will find yourself renewed and strengthened so you will once again be able to enter into those things that are before you.

They are on sale now from any fireman or from the station. The Musical will start at 7:30 p.m. and last until late into the evening. All proceeds will go toward the new Fire Station Fund. The Park will be the future home of this station.

The Mini-Park on Main Street, in between the Joseph Building and Western Auto, is showing signs of becoming the beauty spot planned for it. Recently Ron Butler, Tommy Brashier, Ed Watson, Bobby Adams and Mark Gohlke were seen laboring at the site. A number of civic leaders have contributed material and labor toward this project.

The incoming Lion's Club officers for 1985-86 are Ron Butler, President, First Vice President, Doug Crawley, Second Vice President, Paul Kasper, and Third Vice President, Arturo Comacho. Lion Tamer is Charlie Hamilton, Tail Twister, Tom Brashier, Secretary-Treasurer Jesse White, and Song Leader J.R. Hunt. Installation ceremonies were held in the Community Clubhouse, and Guest Speaker was Ronnie Millican of Graham.

CISCO

Work on restoration of the old Mobley Hotel is expected to begin within a few days, with architect Gordon Marchant now having authority to finalize a construction contract. The Board of Directors and architect have held several meetings with the contractor, Mayor Eris Ritchie said. "We have reached the point where we will be able to accomplish what we desire with the funds at our disposal," he added. Mr. Ritchie said the Board was exploring ideas to raise additional money that will go into the Corporation's perpetual care fund for the restored Hilton-Mobley.

The Civic Planning Committee of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce is beginning a project of painting and reworking the wrought iron baskets hanging in downtown Cisco. They are to be renovated and filled with a fresh supply of artificial flowers. This is only one of the city beautification projects planned by the group.

The Miniature Golf Tourney sponsored by the Kiwanis Club is still underway out at the Golf Course near Lake Cisco Park. The Course will be open at 4 p.m. Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 5, 6 and 7. The Kiwanis Club, which operates the Golf Course as a Community service, invites the public out to a cool, pleasant setting for a lot of fun. The Course will be well-lighted in the evenings.

EASTLAND

Idella Taylor, Director of the MHMR Work Center in Eastland, has retired from her position. Mrs. Taylor, a native of Cisco, served in this position for more than 10 years. Jo Ashworth of May, an employee of the Central Texas MHMR Center in Brownwood, will serve as Director until a permanent replacement can be found. The facility, which is located at 306 West Plummer, will continue to offer training and work opportunities for the handicapped. Mrs. Taylor states that her work at the Center has been "interesting, rewarding and fulfilling."

The Eastland Chamber of Commerce is working on the project of a permanent float - something which will be readily available to enter in the various parades in the area. One of the latest invitations is for participation in the De Leon Peach and Melon Festival, and other occasions are pending.

Ernie Christie, Minister of the Daugherty Street Church of Christ, has moved to Waco to assume the ministry of a Church in that city. Christie, his wife Juith and their two children have lived in Eastland for about nine years. They have led out in community and Church affairs, and assisted with the Church of Christ Camp near Cisco. Mrs. Christie has also been a Speech Therapist in Eastland and Ranger schools.

A large tent will be set up to provide shade during the day, and registration will begin at 9 a.m. Tickets for the barbeque and ham dinner with all the trimmings are $5 each, and available from Betty Green or Arduth Been of Carbon or Grover Hallmark at the Eastland National Bank. Carbon residents have asked their friends in Eastland County and elsewhere to "come and have fun with us, whether you went to school in Carbon or not."

Non-Quota Peanuts Appear Risk

COLLEGE STATION-- Because of a record peanut crop last year that pushed stocks to huge levels, U.S. farmers likely will keep 1985 plantings within their allocated quotas.

Peanuts are the only crop grown under government quotas, which are designed mainly to control production and maintain price, points out Johnny Feagan, economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. Quota peanuts are supported by a government loan rate, which is $559 a ton for 1985 basis grade peanuts, up $9 from last year.

Farmers may plant additional acres of peanuts, but these are supported by a government loan rate of only $148 per ton to discourage production. That rate was $185 per ton last year. Additional peanuts designated for edible use in the export market only are supported by a loan rate of $425 per ton, the same as in 1984, notes Feagan.

Peanut shellers, crushers and processors are showing little interest in contracting for additional peanuts this year, the economist points out, so farmers need to look closely at the risk of planting non-quota peanuts. Feagan expects this situation to result in an overall decrease in U.S. peanut acreage.

Texas farmers will likely plant from 220,000 to 240,000 acres of peanuts this year, about 90 percent of their allocated quota. Other peanut-producing states also will average about 90 percent of their quota.

With rising production costs and declining loan rates for additional peanuts, farmers need to have a contract in hand before growing peanuts outside of their allocated quotas, says the economist.

Feagan believes that domestic use of peanuts will be up slightly in 1985 compared to last year due mainly to large available supplies and a slight decrease in price. However, total use will not have much effect on the large supplies of a commodity that has a relatively short storage life.

July 15 Final Date For Insured Peanuts

July 15 is the final planting date for insured fall southwest spanish peanuts in Eastland County, Texas, according to Ardell Kalmbach, District Representative for the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC).

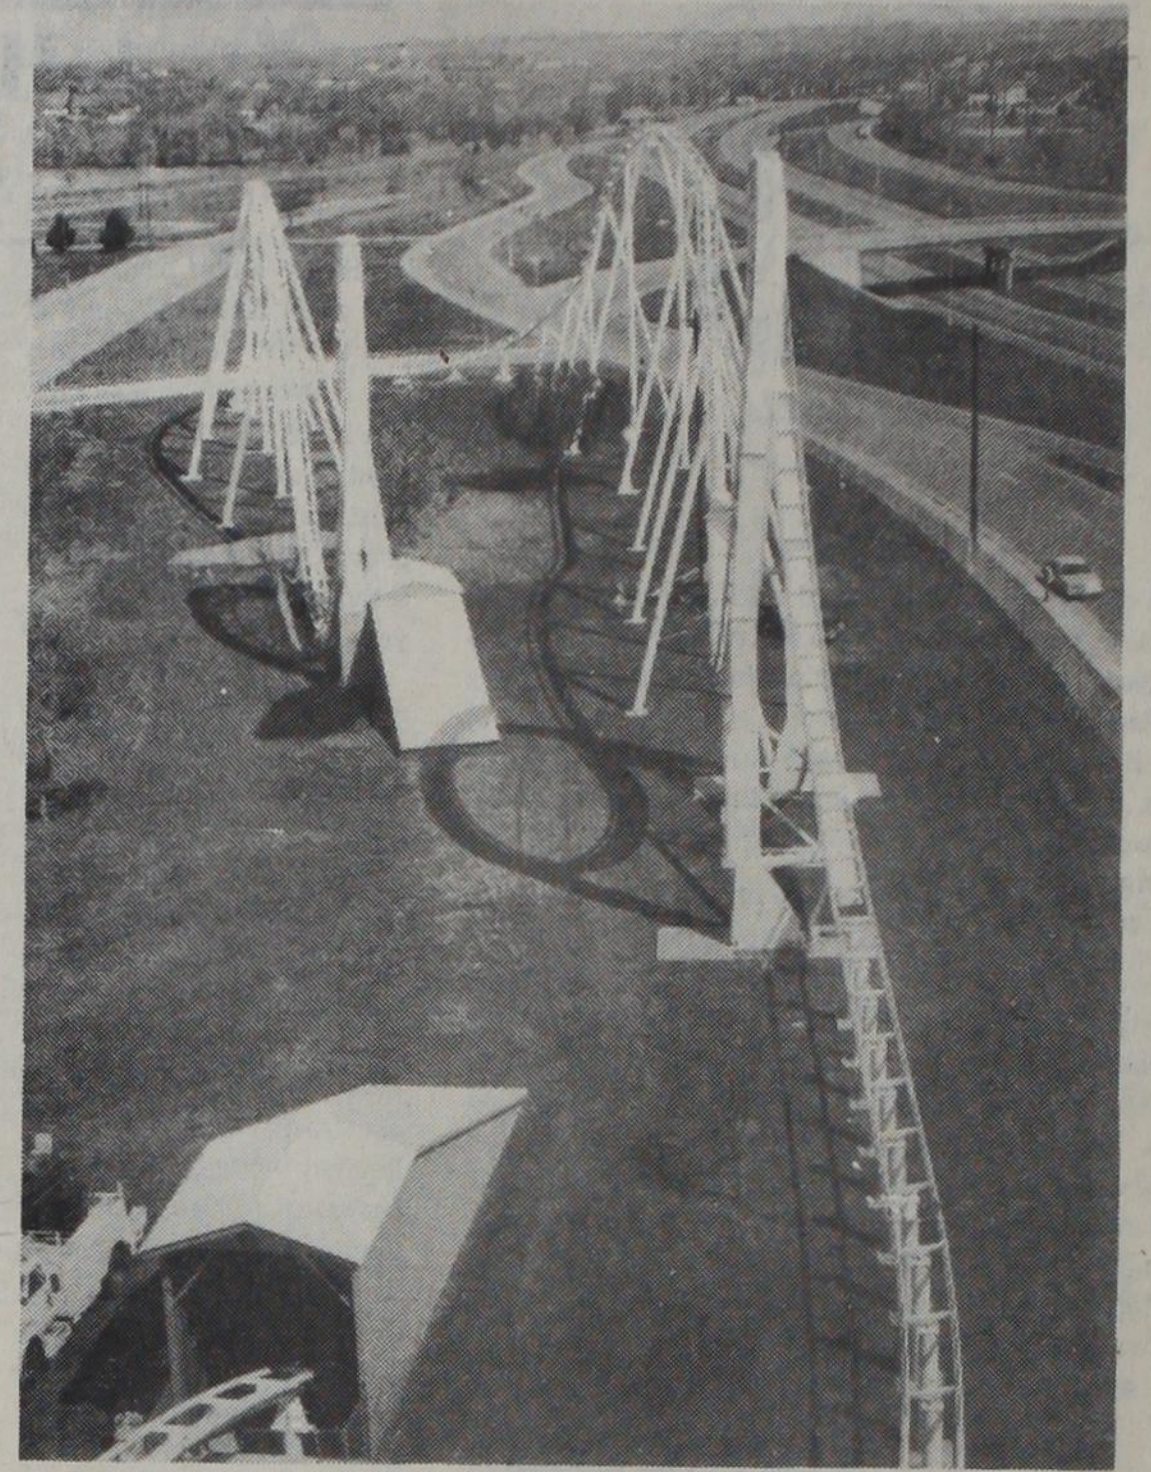

Insured peanuts planted by July 15 must be reported by July 31 in order to receive full crop insurance coverage. The acreage report reflects the actual acreage planted and reported by the farmer.

In order to provide some flexibility on planting dates, a late planting option may be exercised by farmers who find themselves unable to plant their crops on time due to adverse weather. The late planting option provides insurance coverage for the late planted crop, but at a lower guarantee.

For insured farmers, "Entering into the late planting option is not automatic," Kalmbach said. "Farmers wishing to use the late planting option must sign an agreement prior to the final planting date in order to have coverage under the late planting option."

"Increasingly, our insured producers are discovering that with yield guarantees which reflect production capability, crop insurance establishes a farm income floor. Thus, cash flow and the ability to repay a loan can be more accurately projected," explained Kalmbach.

Farmers wishing to discuss local conditions that may reflect planting should contact their local, authorized crop insurance agent.

80 FOOT VIEW-Shown here is a view of the Texas Tornado from the top of the 80 foot lift hill. The Texas Tornado is a double loop roller coaster and is new this year at Wonderland Park in Amarillo.

Wonderland Park To Host Roller Coaster Conference

AMARILLO--It is a "Tornado" that many Texas roller coaster lovers are ready to tame. It's the Texas Tornado, a double loop coaster, new to Wonderland Park this year in Amarillo.

On July 6 and 7, the Texas Tornado will be the site of the Fourth Annual Southwest Coaster Conference. Roller coaster lovers from Texas and other states will be in attendance at the park to catch their first ride on Texas' newest roller coaster. Past conferences have been held at The Texas State Fair/Six Flags Over Texas, Pontchartrain Beach and Astroworld.

The opening of the Texas Tornado keeps in American tradition alive and strong by kicking off the second 100 years of roller coasters. The American roller coaster celebrated its 100th birthday in June, 1984.

Although the double loop roller coaster is nothing new, the Texas Tornado certainly is. It is not only the first double loop roller coaster to be built in West Texas but it also the first metal loop coaster to be constructed for $1 million.

The Texas Tornado features, along with the two vertical loops, a rabbit hop type hill, a 50 degree banked turn and a thrilling 200 foot long tunnel at the end of the ride.

Beside the Texas Tornado, Wonderland Park features 21 rides and 32 attractions. Wonderland Park is located in Thompson Park on Hwy. 287 North in Amarillo.

Faulty Wiring Cause Of Fire In Cisco

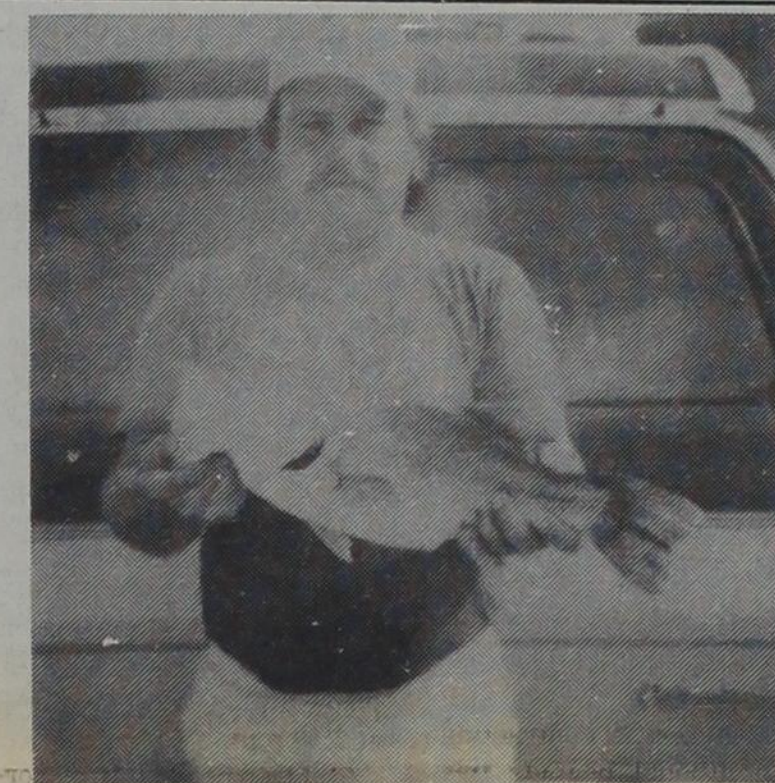

FIREMEN WERE looking for smoke outside Foster's Sales and Service on Wednesday of this week after the fire inside the attic had been

Fishing Outdoors

Terry L. Wilson

Don Flowers, 5.92 night fishing on Lake Leon.

During our dog days of summer fishing slows to a snails pace for most. But those anglers who have learned to beat the heat and the summer ski crowds, night fishing can be a productive method.

As a rule night fishing is most productive during a period beginning three days prior to the full moon and runs until three days after. And contrary to popular belief; its not the fact that this period offers more light to fish by, but the gravitational pull of the moon is the main effect. Just as it affects the tide so does it affect our wildlife.

Let's take a look at some of the baits used during these night moves. The worm: perhaps the most vesital lure next to the spinner bait made. Worming at night is a true test of your ability to concentrate. Normally line visibility is zero.

Therefore one must rely strictly on feel. Here is where a quality brand rod can make or break you. Berkely's lightning rod offers super sensitivity and weighs only ounces. Back to our worms. Color can be important even in night fishing. At present blue and white, black and green, purple, and red are producing some action on Leon. When working these baits, slow is the key. Make only short hops or simply slowly reel your worm along bottom.

Another popular bait in the dark is the copper bladed spinner bait. These spinners will create maximum vibrations in the water which will enable Mr. Bass to better zero in on its prey. Trial and error must be inacted until speed and depth can be found at which the fish are working. Silver or chrome blades can be used and be productive, we feel copper will produce better flash at night.

The ever popular crankbait is probably the simplest bait to use at night and not quite as boring. Baits containing rattles are very productive again due to the increased simplicity by which Mr. Bass can zero in on this target. Larger size crankbaits are recommended. Patterns may vary, crawdad print are good when crawdads are present. Baby Bass patterns during summer are always a producer. No matter what pattern you choose, work the bait only fast enough to inact swimming motion. Stop and go retrieves are good also.

Above all when going out for a cool night of fishing "Be safety aware". Drive slowly, wear your life jacket and have proper lighting on your craft. August 4th the Stephenville Bass Club will be hosting an open tournament on Lake Granbury. July 13th, Eastland County Bass Club's Inerclub tournament. Lake to be drawn July 11th at our meeting.

Open Horse Show July 6

The Stephens County Riding Club will sponsor an "Open Horse Show", Saturday, July 6th., at the county arena in Breckenridge.

Books are open at 8:00 and the show starts at 9:00. All halter classes for mares, geldings, and stallions will be offered along with Showmanship, Western Pleasure, Reining, Trail, Barrels, Poles and Flags.

Age groups are:

People in Things

THIS WEEK Magazine, which appears on Sundays in Fort Worth and Dallas newspapers, carried an interesting feature story last Sunday about our part of the country. It was entitled "This Is My Home" by Larry L. King.

As you know, Larry King is a nationally famous writer whose nostalgic articles about his home country around Scranton and Putnam have appeared from time to time. In THIS WEEK, he told about taking his three children and his 82-year old father back to Scranton for a visit.

They found the old family home missing but picked up a few bottles and items. They visited the cemetery where Larry's grandfather and his great-grandfather were buried. They mentioned staying in a Cisco motel during their visit to "the land of our roots."

It's an interesting article, indeed.

A COMMERCIAL on a Abilene television station showed Rick Abbott of Cisco, a salesman for Industrial Fork Life Trucks, Inc., in the cab of a truck. Steve Thomas, director of the Eastland County Tax Appraisal offices in Eastland, was in Austin this week attending a school on tax appraising and collecting. The Joe Wheatleys spent last weekend visiting their son and family near Cleburne.

MR. ROYCE Darr, who recently closed down the Darr Automotive Shop to accept a position with the city water department, may have decided that his action was a bit hasty Monday. They had him in a deep hole in front of The Press office digging out a leaking water line.

The water was turned off for a hour or so around 10:30 a.m. while the leak was repaired. Royce told us that he would run the automotive shop on a part-time basis for the time-being.

TWO CISCO Cowboy Clowns, 84-year old Neal Moore and 8-year old Joey Roberts, will be on Abilene TV Channel 9 (five on the cable) at 12:15 p.m. Friday. They'll appear on the Mid-Day with Kay program and will be in costume with their stick horses.

Neal, you know, appears frequently in area parades in his cowboy clown costume. He was on NBC-TV last Thanksgiving with the CJC Band and Belles appeared.

Joey, son of the Bill Robertses, likes to clown around and he has teamed up with Neal. They'll be appearing in parades together.

Neal, by the way, plans a trip to Hawaii in September. He will go with Bobby and Caryon Garrett who are planning a vacation to Hawaii at that time. Neal will stay a week and the Garretts will remain for two weeks to see four of the Hawaiian Islands.

OUT FOR A walk, like the doctor told us, the other afternoon, we met up with Mr. Duane Hale of Norman, Okla., who was in town to visit his mother, Mrs. Oleta Hale. Duane, who has BA, MA and PhD degrees, is working under a federal grant on Indian history.

During the year or more that he has been working with Indians, Duane has visited with several tribes to collect historical information. He reports that he has just finished a series of interviews with an Indian lady, age 92.

Duane is a CHS graduate and was a Lobo football star. He went to ACU on a football scholarship.

THE GARNER Altoms of Abilene spent last weekend in Eastland and Cisco to visit friends and relatives. Saw him at the golf course last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Lela Lloyd, who attended a 50th wedding anniversary observance and party for her brother Paul Latch and wife at New Braunfels last weekend, reports seeing Neice Carol Richardson who has just finished Stephen F. Austin University with four years of perfect grades. Carol is the daughter of Mary Carey, sister of Lela and Paul, who lives in Alaska. It was a nice party at New Braunfels, Mrs. LL reports.

MRS. MANNING Davis, business manager at CHS, underwent surgery at E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital on Monday. She was reported to be doing nicely and will be in the hospital a few days.

Mr. Ed McGough tells us that the McGough family will open a Flea Market this month out on Highway 80 in one of the big tin buildings that used to be part of the turkey farm. Plans for the first Flea Market are being finalized. The market will be open July 19, 20 and 21 this month and on the third weekend of each month in the future, Mr. EMCG told us. You'll be reading all the details soon.

YOU'LL WANT to get organized to attend this week's big July the Fourth Carnival and Celebration at City Park. Complete information appears on Page One. If you're hungry and don't want to cook at noon Thursday, you might go out and buy a Lions Club barbecue sandwich. For dessert, you might like a slice of watermelon at the Kiwanis Kids Club booth.

There will be continuous entertainment between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. and between 4 p.m. and 11 p.m. And, of course, there will be a big fireworks show around 10 p.m.

THE GUYS AND Dolls golf tournament at Lakeside (Pioneer) Country Club last weekend was not a complete loss for Cisco's three teams that took part. Dorothy Farnsworth and Ralph Glenn won 2nd place in the championship flight.

Flo and Robbie Robinson and Pat and George Owens also played in the tournament, but they didn't bring home any bacon.

A NOTE FROM Neva Dobbins reports that her mother is presently in a rehabilitation hospital at Gonzales, near San Antonio, and recovering from a stroke she suffered last May. She will be there until July 22nd or so and would appreciate hearing from friends.

Address her: Christine Brown, c/o Warm Springs Rehabilitation Hospital, Box 58, Room 2116, Gonzales, Texas 78629.

Rebekah Sunday School Class Meeting Held

The Rebekah Sunday School Class of East Cisco Baptist Church held its quarterly social and class business meeting on Monday, June 10, at the Educational Building of the church. The time was 7 p.m. and the hostesses were Mrs. Jean Posey and Mrs. Leona Morton. It was a salad supper with each lady bringing her favorite salad and the hostesses bringing in addition, the drinks, crackers and with the help of Mrs. Ivie, also the desserts.

The meeting and supper began by members forming a circle of love, repeating the class watchword (Philippians 4:13) and Mrs. Leona Morton voicing the opening prayer.

After the delicious meal of fish salad, hominy salad, bean salad, green vegetable salad, bluecheese dip, pimento cheese dip, bean dip, two kinds of crackers, mints and coconut cake served with ice cream, the class began the business meeting.

The first order of business was secretary-treasurer's report given by Mrs. Leona Morton. Then she sang the "birthday song" to four members who were having birthdays the month of June.

Next the class had to elect officers for the coming church year. Each was elected by acclamation with Mrs. Christene Moran seconding each motion put before the group.

Those elected were: Mrs. Marie Ivie, teacher; Mrs. Omalee Holdridge, president; Mrs. Bonnie Ervin, vice president; Mrs. Leona Morton, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Jean Posey and Mrs. Doris Crutchfield, activities chairpersons; Mrs. Jewel Kinard, reporter; Mrs. Clara Hallmark, scrapbook chairperson; Mrs. Clara Hallmark, group leader group I; Mrs. Jean Posey, group leader group II.

The next business before the group was a proposal by Mrs. Jean Posey that the class take as a class project volunteer work helping patients in the nursing home. After discussion by members it was decided that because so many class members work, it could not be a class project. It was decided that members who had time and opportunity volunteer to help anytime.

The meeting closed by those present forming a circle of love and Mrs. Marie Brock voicing the closing prayer. Those present were Mrs. Jean Posey, Mrs. Leona Morton, Mrs. Marie Ivie, Mrs. Bonnie Ervin, Mrs. Clara Hallmark, Mrs. Christene Moran, Mrs. Jewel Kinard and Mrs. Marie Brock.

Cisco Volunteer Firemen Busy

Cisco volunteer firemen answered alarms to put out two fires during the past week. They went to Foster Sales and Service, 1304 Conrad Hilton Avenue, last Wednesday and to the home of Adam Moore, 206 Avenue E, Thursday night.

A short in electric wiring in the ceiling caused the blaze at the Foster business. Firemen responded quickly and put out the fire with damages of about $200, Mr. Foster reported.

A faulty water heater caused the fire at the Adams home and damage was light, firemen said.
