EAGLES, BUCKS TO BE TARGETS NEXT SEASON

By BOYCE HOUSE What does the New Year hold

Without laying any claims to being a crystal gazer or a palm read-er, this writer believes that a wild race on the gridiron is in prospect for next fall. The likelihood of a division of the district complicates Commissions Vote matters somewhat.

While early prognostications have made the Abilene Eagles the favorites to cop, in the east half and for the entire district as well, experience in this district proves-that the favorites seldom come through. Cisco was the favorite year before. Breckenridge, in case both seasons, however.

Abilene fans told us last season.

The entire Eagle line, with the exception of Phelps, will be back. A strong line is of course the back-bone of success. Graduation hits the Eagles in the backfield as only Blackmon, blocker and defensive man, will return. But with the wealth of material available, the

Magness Is Through
Of course, the loss of Boyce Magness is a terrific blow to the Buckaroos. This lad is one of the greatest players in the history of the Stote Introvsehelectic league State Interscholastic league. It is doubtful if there was a Buck-aroo touchdown scored during the entire season against a strong club that Magness didn't lug the leath-er across or that he didn't fling it down the field to a receiver. Remove him from the 1930 club and the Buckies would have been like a lion with his teeth pulled out.

However, the Buckaroos will have a fine pair of guards—White, the equal of any in the State, and Martin, who is a capable runningmate. The tackles will be well taken care of and several of Magness' associates in the heal-field.
