Cisco School Board Files Suit in Suspension Action

RESTORATION

Basing its action upon three major points in allegation, the Cisco chool board yesterday afternoon brought suit in district court at Eastland against the oil belt football executive committee, as such and as individuals, against the state interscholastic league committee, as such and as individuals, and against John M. Mouser, of Eastland.

The plaintiff asks that the state committee's action in suspending Cisco from football competition in the Interscholastic league this fall be set aside, that the district com-mittee be enjoined from playing any football schedule in which Cisco is not included, and that the Cisco school recover actual damages such as the plaintiffs may show school to have sustained and exemplary damages in the sum of $5,000.

A petition, of six legal size, single spaced typewritten pages, containing the board's allegations, was filed yesterday afternoon by Conner and McRae, Butts and Wright and Frank Judkins, plaintiff's attorneys. Allegations.

The petition alleges that the action of the district committee in recommending to the state committee that Cisco be suspended, was taken without any character of notice being given Cisco; that clandes-tine conferences were held at Eastland when a "conspiracy" was entered into; that coercion was exert-ed by John M. Mouser of Eastland to force the action of the district committee; that ill-will, and "im-proper influence, duress and macious intermeddling" dictated the action; that false statements were made concerning the Cisco superintendent of schools, and also that a majority of the members of the dis-trict committee "had made either an express or tacit agreement" prior to the meeting of February 27 "to suspend Cisco, and undisclosed from the plaintiff but concealed from it, and it was for this reason and not because of any evidence introduced at the meeting that said act in recommending suspension was done, and it was for this reason that Cisco was not given any character of notice of the intention of the said defendant, N. S. Holland, to move that Cisco be suspended, and it was for this reason that no evidence was introduced at the hearing held on February 27, 1932."

Forfeiture Not Complained. The petition sets forth no commmittee in forfeiting the Cisco-Brekenridge game, won by Cisco, treckenridge, stating that "there such a conflict of testimony ing on the question * * * as ad authorize the district comlittee to declare the player ineligible and to forfeit" the game. But t declares in another section of the ecument that under the rules of the league "the ordinary penalty for playing an ineligible man is forfeiture of the game" and this should have been the only penalty that should have been assessed. The peition sets out that this penalty was inflicted and "the fact made known to the said John M. Mouser" but as a result of alleged improper inlfuence, duress and intermeddling on the part of Mouser Cisco high school was tried twice for the same offense and the action complained of taken "for the purpose of injuring Cisco high school and the Cisco Independent School district, and for the purpose of seeking personal spite and vengeance on the part of one or more members of the dis-trict executive committee."

that Mouser became "actively in-terested" in the question of the eliibility of Fred Hightower "commenced spending a great deal of time and the expenditure of sums of money for telephone calls, M. Darden, Fort Worth candidate telegrams and travelling expenses for congressman-at-large, will file in procuring evidence" bearing on for place No. i, as a result of the that the facilities of the Prairie Oil ing the state democratic executive and Gas company at Eastland and committee in requiring candidates Tyler were used under Mouser's supervision in procuring this evdience.

Meetings Alleged. "Soon thereafter," the petition re-cites, "the said John M. Mouser, not being satisfied with the action of the executive committee * * * called one or more members of said committee to the offices of the Prairie Oil and Gas company * * * and thereafter and on several occasions had one or more conferences with the various members of the executive committee of said district the members of the committee that | holiday

Unemployment in Great Britain hus far has been chiefly among the so-called working classes, and s said to have affected the professional and technically-trained men but little.

Teaching Favored As always has been the case in Great Britain, a large proportion of university graduates go into teaching, or the clergy. This tendency is on the increase, though no expansion of the educational system is being planned at present that would absorb graduates.

Many educators here believe that Great Britain's permanent needs do not require any more collegetrained men than are being turned out at present, and there is strong to entering the universities.

WANTON WASTE ALLEGED.

In a temporary restraining order granted by Dist. Judge Sam Russell of Erath county, the Texas highway commis-sion, the highway engineer and members of the commissioners court of Palo Pinto county are prohibited from any further work on highway 89 (Ranger Mountain to Weatherford) and the matter set down for hearing at Palo Pinto June 6. This action on the part of Judge Russell was taken after a petition was presented and suit of injunction filed by O. M. Burt of Strawn and other petitioners living in towns along the Bankhead highway in Palo Pinto county. A petition 26 pages long alleged a breach of faith with the taxpayers of the county on road district No. 1 by the highway commission and that the road was constructed by agreement with the state commission and under their supervision; that irreparable loss and injury to property owners along the Bankhead highway, which is designated and always has been through Palo Pinto county and as the connecting highway through the state constitutes a violation and repudiations of of the agreement heretofore made between the state commission and Palo Pinto county.

He was acclaimed one of the most brilliant as well as one of Dear Governor: he most daring Missourians who wore the gray in that memorable conflict. He came to Texas like thousands of Missourians after the conquered banner had been furled forever. He became a leader in democratic political activities as well as in the legal world of the Southwest.

He came to Texas when a little lad. He worked his way with a pick and shovel on the railroad. He studied law at night with the aid of a coal oil lamp. He was admitted to the bar and practiced law for a time in the city of Dallas. He married a Texas girl, the granddaughter of a distinguished judge of Jefferson

In ancient days Horace Greeley had a slogan "Go west, young man." Martin W. Littleton invented his own slogan, law within five days, and would give the people of Texas the relief time enough for that when the railjourneyed to Manhattan Island. He became a leading member of the Brooklyn-New York bar. He was elected president of Brooklyn borough. He was delegate-at-large at the national convention that nominated Alton B. Parker for president. He made the speech nominating Parker. He was a close neighbor of Theodore Roosevelt. Democrats of the district nominated and elected Littleton as a congressional representative. He served two terms under the big dome in Washington and made a record for himself. Then he withdrew from political activities. He became nationally known as one of the greatest criminal lawyers of America. He conhave an immediate favorable reply, tinues a leader of the New York bar.

Palo Pinto and Parker are neighbor counties. In the county of Parker Littleton placed his foot on the first rung of the ladder. It was most appropriate that he should have been selected by the Texas Bar association as the chief among the spellbinders programed as leading figures of the Palo Pinto convention. It is a long journey from section hand of the Texas and Pacific railway in Parker county to a high place among lawyers and leaders of the Empire State of the East. This adopted son of Texas made the journey and he made it with a rapidity that astounded many of his friends of by-gone years.

There are two kinds of leaks that have been draining the state's monfrom the treasury. One was of the kind involved in criminal collection of illegal sums from the state and criminal evasion of the payment of taxes and fees to the state.

This kind has been stopped through decisive action of legislative bodies, constitutional administrative officials, and vigorous action of the juries and decision of Texas supreme

The other will require future leg islative action. Here at least are two or three of the main types into which these diversions fall:

Three Major Objectives in Work Program Announced by New West Texas C. C. Head

Basing his program upon three major objectives, Wilbur C. Hawk, Amarillo publisher and president of ne Wet Texas Chamber of Commerce, today made public a statement of the platform upon which his administration will seek to carry forward the work of the regional organization during the next year The three objectives adopted by Mr. Hawk are:

Reduction of public expenditures and taxation; beautification of west Texas, and fostering of west Texas industrial enterprises through a buy-at-home campaign.

"Press on" is the slogan he has adopted for his administration. He announced his program in the following statement:

Mrs. John Shertzer gave a brief re-Tuesday on the two chapters, "Jewsh Exclusiveness," and "The Book of Jonah." There were thirteen members present.

HOSTESS TO CIRCLE C.

Circle C of the Baptist W. M. S. met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ed Bates, 506 West Fourth street. After the opening song, Mrs. J. H. Grantham led in prayer. During the buiness period, over which Mrs. Bates presided, Mrs. G. B. Langston waselected vice-chairman. Mrs. Cecil Adams taught the lesson from the book of Ruth. Mrs. L. W. Skiles led the dismissing prayer. The circle presented a lovely gift to Mrs. J. H. Grantham as a token of appreciation for her faithful services as chairman.

Refreshments were serve during the social hour to Mesdames G. W. Carmichael, Allen Crownover, W. H. LaRoque, L. W. Skiles, J. H. Grantham, Cecil Adams, Eugene Lankford. members and Misses Wilma Burnam and Florence Fielder, visitors.

Further Allegations..

Further allegations set out that: The defendant N. S. Holland requested the chairman of said District No. 3 to call another meeting of the Executive Committee of said District No. 3 to consider further action with reference to the Cisco player. The chairman advised the said N. S. Holland that he saw no point in calling another meeting unless the Committee wished to recommend the suspension of Cisco from the League. The said defendant N. S. Holland insisted, asking again that the Committee be called but did not indicate that he desired said meeting for the purpose of suspending Cisco. Thereafter the Chairman of the Executive Committee submitted to the various members the question of whether or not it was agreeable to call another meeting for further consideration of the case of the ineligible Cisco play-Honoring two of its members who er.
