Coach W. B. Chapman and squad of 20 Lubbock high school football players are due to arrive here late this afternoon or this evening for their "Orbie D. Jacobs" benefit game with the Cisco Loboes tomorrow at 2:30.

Since it will be the only football game in the district this week-end, the contest is expected to draw a large crowd, not only from Cisco but from neighboring towns whose fans will be eager to see a Chapman-coached team in action again.

The game should prove attractive for other reasons. It will be the team against the Loboes, whom he West ward school announced for coached from 1922 to 1930, inclusive, the second six-week term by Prinand it will, of course, be his first cipal Howard Goss. WELCOME!

Welcome home, Chap! Welcome back to Cisco and Chesley field, even though you come in the guise of foe, bent on mischief to the Loboes. We are glad to have you and your splendid young men of Lubbock high school, and Cisco and Orbie Jacobs are mighty thankful for the spirit that brings you these hundreds of miles to do a good turn. Before the Loboes do their best to entertain you tomorrow afternoon in that fighting fashion for which you, Chap, are so largely responsible, we want you to make yourselves freely at home, because you have a real welcome here. Coach Shelley and Coach Hodges and their boys are happy to have the opportunity of meeting you on the field of sportsman-ship, and the Daily News and Cisco as a whole count it a real honor to be your hosts.

YES, "WHO'S AFRAID?"

Thousands of teachers attended the annual convention of their state association for 1933. It is said that 30 per cent of the membership carries a feminine brand. J. O. Loftin of San Antonio was the choice for new president by a margin of 803 votes over Mrs. Roy C. Owens of Tyler. Mrs. Owens made a vigorous campaign. She is said to be a very eloquent and efficient woman. All campaigners invent slogans. Mrs. Owens had a slogan, "Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?" The big bad wolf came and saw and conquered. Loftin of the Alamo was elected. Teachers who are veteran campaigners anticipated a very close vote. It was not close. It is said that Mrs. Owens ran as representative of "the women's inside circle." Moreover, it is conceded that women comprise nearly 80 per cent of the total membership. Incidentally, the ballot was one of the heaviest ever cast in a state teachers' convention, totaling 3117. Was it a victory for "The Big Bad Wolf?" Or did the big bad wolf slogan cause the defeat of the very aggressive and talented woman candidate for the presidency of a powerful organization of men and women who are giving their lives to the development of the brain and the training of the hands "of all the children of all the people."

COL. JESSE H. JONES GIVEN A CLEAN BILL

Col. Jesse H. Jones of Texas, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance corporation, was given "a clean bill of exoneration" by the senate banking committee. Charges that the chairman had benefitted personally through large R. F C. loans to Texas mortgage companies were dismissed by the investigators. Col. Jones, according to a Washington correspondent, was "sharp in condemnation of persons who had asked the committee to investigate the loans to mortgage companies formally operated by him before he was elected chairman of the R. F. C." He said (according to the correspondent) that "the complaints were not made from any honest motives but to aid unscrupulous lawyers who degrade an honorable profession and seek to use the courts of the land and the United States senate to furnish their own unholy purpose.'

They go right ahead slaughtering in artificial temperatures that remain scien-tifically exact, consistent and dependable. But out on the farm where the farmer has to depend up-on the providence of the weather the situation is becoming serious It's beginning to look as if the porker grunting in the sty will have another year's lease of life while the animals in the house longing eat him will have to be content with corn bread and turnip greens that thrive in this balmy weather.

It will be a good thing for J. E. as a harlequin bug and had to go on decisions of ultra-conservative trend, cereals and sweet milk for a change. For that reason the Cisco secretary of the chamber of commerce will probably remain away from his farmer relatives because he can't abstain from a menu of new pork and see it too.

DAVID BANNISTER undertakes to find out who killed TRACY KING, orchestra leader found dead in his hotel apartment. Bannister, an author and former newspaper man, works on the murder case with GAINEY, star reporter for the Post.

Among those suspected of the crime are JULIET FRANCE, blond and pretty, known to have visited King shortly before his death; HERMAN SCURLACH who wrote King a threatening letter; wrote King a threatening letter; and JOE PARROTT, down-andand JOE PARROTT, down-and-out vaudeville actor. It is also known that MELVINA HOLLIS-TER, middle-aged spinster, had quarreled with King recently. King was engaged to wealthy DENISE LANG. Steiner whose excuse for absence from church was that "it rained, or was raining, or was going to rain" she did not remember which.

The weather is too extensive to pay attention to our personal notions, although we praise or blame it as if we expect it to. My father related an instance of a man in pursuit of his hat before a mighty gale across the broad prairies of Kansas. I do not remember the sequel but presume he caught up with his objective in some roadside clump of sunflowers or at the bottom of some "draw." But this treatment of early settlers by Kansas weather was not meant to be personal. The wind has more to do than merely to whisper soft notes through the leaves. HE'S ON HIS WAY

Word has been received from way up in Canada, where the snow is already falling and the streams are frozen with ice, that old Santa Claus is speeding toward America and Cisco. He is making this flying trip to Cisco at the suggestion of the local Chamber of Commerce.

He has with him his snow covered sleigh, and is also bringing two of his famous clowns and some candy for the children. He wants to meet them all personally, receiving their letters and suggestions what they would like for Christmas. In case the snow runs out before he arrives in Cisco, he shall transfer to a snow-covered motor float so as not to disappoint all the good little girls and boys, so be on hand to greet him as he parades through the city at 3:30 on Saturday, Dec. 9, 1933.
