STEEL EXECUTIVES, UMW MEET AGAIN TODAY

RICH IN YEARS AND ESTEEM OF FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS, MRS. LE VEUX DIED SATURDAY A. M.

Mrs. Elizabeth LeVeux, 88, died at 7:45 o'clock Saturday morning at her home, 808 G avenue.

The funeral will be held at the Neil Lane funeral chapel at 3 o'clock this afternoon, with interment in Oakwood cemetery. Dr. Gary L. Smith of the First Presbyterian church, will conduct the services.

Mrs. LeVeux, nee Elizabeth Degenhardt, was born in Clausenthal, Germany, Nov. 2, 1853. While an infant, her parents came to the United States and settled first in Pennsylvania, and deceased attended a Moravian school for girls at Bethlehem, Pa. Later the family moved to New York City, where she was united in marriage to F. C. LeVeux, Sept. 16, 1874.

In 1879 Mr. and Mrs. LeVeux came to Texas, first locating at the now extinct village of Kimple, Bosque county. In September, 1884, they moved to Cisco and one year later built the home in which Mrs. LeVeux had lived continuously since that distant day and in which she died. The husband died in 1899.

Mrs. LeVeux was a devout

Christian woman and was reared in the Lutheran church. However, about 42 years ago she joined the First Presbyterian church of Cisco, there being no Lutheran church here at that time.

Mrs. William Reagan, long-time friend of Mrs. LeVeux, paid the departed this tribute Saturday: "She was a good friend, good neighbor, active in church and club work and all Cisco civic matters until her health failed. She joined the Twentieth Century club in 1906, if I am not mistaken, and was a consistent member until a few years ago, when her name was placed on the honorary membership list."

Surviving relatives are as follows: Mrs. Lily Baugh of Cisco and Mrs. Emma Parrish of Graham, daughters; Louis LeVeux of El Paso, a son; four grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Active pallbearers will be J. C. Holcomb, Stephenville; B. W. Patterson, Eastland; O. C. Holcomb, E. P. Crawford, William Reagan and Luther H. McCrea, Cisco.

All local postal employes are honorary pallbearers.

SOVIETS PRESS NAZIS

LONDON, Nov. 15. —The Moscow radio reported tonight that the Germans had been 'stopped on all sectors' before the Soviet capital and that Russian counter-attacks are in progress everywhere in an effort to break up enemy troops massing for a new drive.

On the far Northern front the Germans were said to have lost 5,000 killed, and heavy fighting is reported in progress on the Leningrad front, where a new enemy encircling movement had started along the Volkov river, after a Russian counter-attack had gained ground.

The Italians are said to have been pushed back in the Donets Basin.

German and Finnish troops are said to have resumed the offensive on a far Northern front —presumably toward Murmask or the Murmask railroad — with new German regiments from Norway thrown into the battle hopper.

Stockholm dispatches said the Russians are using British tanks in the Arctic fighting for the first time.

Berlin and Rome acknowledged persistent heavy Russian counter-attacks on the Leningrad, Moscow and Donets fronts, but claimed advances in Crimea.

The Moscow broadcast said that on one flank the Germans lost 5,000 killed in 10 days' uninterrupted fighting in which various strategic points changed hands several times. The fighting continues, it added.

Cisco Seniors Defeated Carbon By 115 Points In High School Quiz

Saturday afternoon, on the stage of Connelley theater, Eastland, the Seniors of Cisco defeated the Carbon Seniors in a radio broadcast of the "High School Quiz of the Air," a weekly feature.

The Cisco contestants had previously defeated the Ranger Seniors, several weeks ago.

Chalking up their second success, the Cisco team won by the noteworthy margin of 115 points.

The three contestants were Polly Ann McDaniel, Loyce Coates and Jackie Leach.

A girls' trio composed of Helen Kirklen, Doris Jamison and Betty Mae Davis contributed a vocal selection to the program.

They were accompanied by the sponsors of the Senior class, Mrs. E. L. Hazlewood, Miss Nellie Yunk and C. C. Duff.

On November 29 the Ciscoans will meet the Seniors of another nearby high school in the finals of the contest.

DALTON WHITE EXPECTS TO BE FLYING CADET

Sergeant Dalton White of Camp Bowie has returned to his post after having spent fifteen days with-home folks and friends. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer E. White and a 1936 graduate of Cisco high school; also a graduate of John Tarleton college.

White will have served one year as a volunteer in the national guard on November 24. He expects to secure a transfer to the army air corps (flying cadets) in the near future. The Cisco boy has met all requirements and only awaits notification.

CATHOLIC YOUTH SESSIONS WILL OPEN SUNDAY

FT. WORTH, Nov. 15. — The fourth annual rally of Catholic Youth Organizations of the Diocese of Dallas will open with a mass at St. Patrick's church at 9 a. m. Sunday. Rev. J. Roger Lyons of the Queens Work, St. Louis, will preach at the mass. He also will direct the proceedings of the one-day convention and deliver the conferences.

"Our King, Christ, the Youth, Our Model," is the motto of the rally, and "A Good Christian Home, the Best National Defense," is the theme. More than 1,000 are expected to attend the meeting.

The conferences will be held at the Woman's club.

Luncheon Given Saturday For Miss Powell

Mrs. Randolph Lee Clark and daughter, Miss Mignon Clark, honored Miss Betty Lou Powell, bride-elect of Jack Lauderdale, with a lovely luncheon in their home on College Hill, Saturday at 1 o'clock.

Pretty floral decorations gave added cheer to the well-appointed rooms. The honoree was presented with two pieces of crystal by the hostesses.

The large dining table held as a centerpiece, an arrangement of bridal wreath on a reflector plaque, encircling a wreath of pink carnations in which stood a miniature bride and groom.

The invited guest list included Misses Betty Lou Powell, Mary Elizabeth Wright, Marian Jacobs, Mary Louise Poe, Mary Olive Garrett, Mary Sue Mobley, Mignon Clark and Mrs. Clark.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE NOV. 27 IN CISCO

The community Thanksgiving service sponsored annually by the churches of Cisco will be held Thursday morning, Nov. 27, at First Christian church with Dr. Gary L. Smith, Presbyterian pastor, preaching the sermon, according to a statement from Rev. J. R. Wright, president of the Cisco Ministerial association.

This date has been chosen instead of the earlier Thursday because the city of Cisco is officially observing the 27th.

Further announcements as to plans will be given later.

AUSTIN FOLK SEE ATTY. GENERAL MANN IN RACE FOR GOVERNORSHIP AGAINST GOV. STEVENSON

AUSTIN, Nov. 15. — Pre-campaign politics have taken hold of the state capitol in a big way.

Prospects that Gov. Coke R. Stevenson would be unopposed for elective term, after completing the unexpired term of former Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel, were dimmed with the likelihood that Atty-Gen. Gerald C. Mann will contest with Stevenson in next summer's Democratic primary.

Stevenson apparently accepted the challenge when Mann advocated a new constitution and outlined twelve changes in Texas, which sounded strangely like a campaign platform.

Mann presented his program to a convention of county judges and county commissioners. Stevenson told the same convention in the words of Benjamin Franklin: "Any form of government may be a blessing to the people if it is well administered."

Viewed in Austin, the political situation now is:

U. S. Senate—Junior Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel seeking election to a full term, opposed by Cong. Lyndon Johnson of Johnson City, runner-up in the race for the short term last summer.

Governor—Coke R. Stevenson running for an elective term, opposed by Mann or State Sen. Joe Hill of Henderson.

Lieutenant Governor — Nearly all the state senators, House Speaker Homer Leonard and a few outside the legislature in a free-for-all scramble.

State Treasurer — Jesse James, now serving Charley Lockhart's unexpired term, seeking an elective term, and Former State Rep. Lonnie Alsop of Carthage.

State Land Commissioner—Basscom Giles, for re-election with no opponent so far in the field.

State Comptroller — George Sheppard for another term, also unopposed.

Attorney General — County Judge Merritt Gibson of Longview, State Sen. Jesse Martin of Ft. Worth and former District Judge Ralph Yarborough of Austin, if Mann decides to run for some other office.

State School Superintendent — L. A. Woods opposed for another term by a candidate who will have the good wishes of a tidy number of voters, at least.

Railroad Commissioner — Col. Ernest O. Thompson for re-election, opposed by Rep. G. C. Morris of Greenville and others.

Wendell L. Willkie's new popularity with Democrats may play a part in one Texas state race. Agricultural Commissioner J. E. McDonald ran far behind the rest of the state Democratic nominees last election because he had given "aid and comfort to the enemy" as a Democratic nominee by counseling with Willkie on an agricultural policy and criticizing the Democratic national administration's farm policy.

The feeling that cost him many thousands of votes in the general election may have subsided to a large extent but McDonald is likely to face stiff opposition—possibly from a candidate from the Coastal Bend area.

The efforts of persons in the now rain-soaked Panhandle to find the originator of the term "dust bowl" brought a request for cooperation from the Texas governor's office.

Albert Law, editor of the Dalhart Texan, asked Gov. Coke R. Stevenson to aid when an inmate of the Oklahoma State penitentiary at McAlester said that he had coined the description during droughts of the 1930's.

The inmate wrote to Law, who offered a $50 reward for the person who first applied "dust bowl" to the Great Plains, that he was responsible. The prison-dweller said he was a former photographer and took a series of pictures on the effects of dust storms on the plains from Idaho to the Texas Panhandle.

The series referred to "dust bowl," the man said, and was widely printed by customers of a national newspaper syndicate.

The photographer said he found

NO GIVE-IN BY UNIONISTS IS APPARENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15. — Spokesmen for the United Mine Workers Union said today that the captive coal mines supplying the nation's major steel mills will be shut down —effective at midnight tonight.

President John L. Lewis and the 200-man policy committee left the door open, however, for a possible resumption of work Monday morning.

U M W spokesmen said that in the event an agreement is reached when negotiations with steel company executives are resumed Sunday, the policy board could be called into emergency session to prevent interruption of production as requested by President Roosevelt.

President Roosevelt previously met with Secretary of War Stimson and Major Gen. Robert C. Richardson, commander of the Seventh Army Corps, headquarters at Birmingham, Ala., important captive pit area.

D. O. Birthday Club Honors Two Thursday

The Double Octet Anniversary club met in the home of Mrs. Mary Abbott Thursday and held a covered dish luncheon, celebrating the birthday of the hostess and Miss Willie Frank Walker.

Decorations were of chrysanthemums and other fall flowers. A Thanksgiving motif was observed. The luncheon was served buffet style, with guests seated at small tables where places were marked. Favours of small china turkeys were given.

Those present were Mrs. Barton Abbott of Abilene, Miss Willie Frank Walker, Mrs. W. F. Walker, Mrs. W. Bogan Dunne, Mrs. C. J. Stephens, Mrs. Barton Philpott, Mrs. Gayle Moore, Mrs. W. D. Brecheen, Mrs. Judson Prince, Mrs. J. R. Burnett, Mrs. W. I. Ghorrmley, Miss Miriam Ghorrmley, Mrs. E. J. Poe, Mrs. W. D. Hazel, Mrs. Algie Skiles, Mrs. F. E. Shepard, Mrs. H. L. Kunkel and Mrs. Abbott.

CATTLE MARKET

The small Saturday supply of cattle and calves on the Ft. Worth market was comprised mostly of low-grade offerings in most classes with sales about in line with Friday's levels.

Hogs were steady with Friday at a top of $10.75. Good and choice 180 to 280 pound averages ranged from $10.60 to $10.70. Good 150-pound weights sold down to $9.75. Packing sows brought $9 to $9.50 or steady. Good butchers were 10c below prices or a week earlier.

Most of the sheep offered were fall shorn wethers of mixed ages that cashed at $6.50.

Small lots and odd head of plain and medium slaughter steers and yearlings moved at $6 to $8.50 with very few at higher prices.

Most of the cow run was made up of canners and cutters selling at $3.50 to $5.50. Occasional sales of butcher cows were reported at $5.50 to $6.50 with very few higher. Bulls were quotable at $7.25 down.

Scattered lots of good fat calves brought $8.50 to $9.50 with most common and medium kinds at $6.50 to $8 and rannies at $5.50 to $6.25.

a prison sentence waiting for him in Oklahoma when he returned from a trip to the Antarctic with one of Admiral Byrd's expeditions.

Law (American-like) solicited Stevenson's help in getting the convict furloughed so he could attend a banquet at Dalhart celebrating the end of the "dust bowl." Sponsors offered to pay the fare of the prisoner and a guard to Dalhart.

The governor was not advised whether the Panhandle committee intended to give the man the $50 reward.

BOX FOR CHRISTMAS LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS TO BE PLACED IN FRONT CISCO DAILY PRESS

At a meeting of the executive committee for the merchants' Christmas trade campaign Saturday, it was decided to have the street lighting up by December 1, at which time the campaign begins, and to purchase 35 more strings of lights which would give a total of 53 strings.

A mail box painted red — for Santa Claus mail only — will be erected at the front of the Cisco Daily Press office, where children can mail letters any time, day or night. As many of these letters as possible will be printed in the Daily Press.

All merchants participating in the Christmas events will have windows dressed by the above date.

Only those merchants donating to the drive for finances, which is nearing a close, will be allowed to participate in the Christmas campaign, Nick Miller, chairman of the committee explains. In Friday's issue of the Press it was said erroneously that they might do so.

But Mr. Miller said that it was not yet too late for merchants who had not donated to do so. If no committeeman has asked for your donation, just take it to the chamber of commerce, Miller said.

About 1,000 balloons, with "Shop In Cisco" printed on them, will be purchased and distributed over the trade territory, and 300 pounds of candy kisses will also be distributed by Santa Claus.

December 11 and 12 has been designated as Ladies' and Men's shopping nights, respectively, and lady officers will arrest and jail any men who appears down town on ladies night, while men will protect the streets from ladies on men's night, December 12.

MORE GASOLINE AND OIL NEEDED -- THOMPSON

DALLAS, Nov. 15.—The United States during the present emergency should store at least 306,000,000 barrels of crude and 103,000,000 barrels of gasoline, Chairman E. O. Thompson of the Texas Railroad Commission, which regulates the State's oil output, said Friday night at the American association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors first annual convention.

Storage of amounts he recommended would call for an increase in present crude stocks of approximately 63,000,000 barrels and an addition of 20,000,000 barrels to gasoline stocks, Thompson asserted.

PUBLIC SCHOOL HOLIDAYS ARE ANNOUNCED

The holiday schedule for the Cisco public schools and the Cisco Junior college has been announced by Supt. R. N. Cluck as follows.

November 20-21 for teachers to attend the state teachers association at Houston (this date was set before the Thanksgiving proclamation by the governor); November 27 for the Texas Thanksgiving day; December 19 to January 5 for the Christmas holidays.

ATTEND EASTLAND MEET.

The installation service held by Eastland chapter OES Friday evening was attended by a number of Cisco members. Those going over were Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Witten, Mmes. Laila Smart, Pearl Elliott, J. J. Tableman, Paul Moore, J. T. Elliott, W. E. Dean, Joe Britain, A. Hansen and Mrs. Kimmeey.

ALLEN WEST WOOD.

Allen West Wood, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. West, of Cisco, Texas, has been selected for membership in the Freshman Pitkin Club at Centre College. The members were chosen by the faculty membership committee on the basis of their first six weeks grades. This club holds a weekly luncheon meeting which is followed by discussions of various subjects. It is one of the most popular campus activities. Wood is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

WAGES AND STRIKES.

The Canadian government has had the courage to fix or "freeze" both prices and wages. In this country we are getting around now, rather tardily, to putting a ceiling over prices, but wages are still rising. And this procedure is still accomplished largely by strikes and threats of strikes.

Such industrial conflict is very unfortunate. At a time when the nation needs the services of every able-bodied person, millions of work-hours are lost in needless squabbles and technicalities. It is childish business, creating a dangerous situation. We should be able to produce a better system.

Is it too much to ask of labor and management now the loyalty that we expect of our army? The war situation is grave, and industrial production is as important as production of trained soldiers. The government can take and operate industry when it is necessary, but shouldn't have to.

ADVICE TO VOTERS.

A piece of sensible advice given recently to a group of Americans of Hungarian descent should be taken to heart by all citizens. The speaker told his audience that nationality groups as such had no right to political representation and should seek to elect only men of competence and character regardless of race or religion.

The tendency to vote for some one because he is a member of your own set is not confined to naturalized or first-generation Americans. Social, racial and religious distinctions, not recognized in the Declaration of Independence or the Constitution, assert themselves in the nation's political life all too frequently. So do sectional and occupational prejudices.

Such influences are human and inevitable, no doubt. But if they are allowed to predominate they endanger the democratic process. The theory on which our government rests works best when all special interests are subordinated to the common good. That requires, as the speaker said, election to public office of citizens of competence and character, regardless of other factors.

PRACTICING DEMOCRACY.

The International Labor Organization, which has been meeting in New York City, is the only functioning department left of the League of Nations. It is no ghost, but a live and determined body composed of representatives of governments, workers and employers. Compelled by the war to move its headquarters from Geneva to Montreal and to omit its annual meeting last year, this group has never ceased to do its valuable work. Today it is ready for serious discussion of two prime questions—how to push the anti-Nazi fight to victory and how to win the peace after the war.

In a welcoming talk at the opening session, Governor Lehman of New York cited as the "most deeply significant aspect" of the conference its "demonstration of the vitality of democratic methods in time of war as in time of peace, and of the unity of purpose of the nations assembled here to maintain at any cost their right—their duty—to the free pursuit of happiness." The phrase, "at any cost," implies the temporary surrender of certain ease and privilege for the sake of a lasting gain. One thing this nation needs to understand clearly is that democracy can be strong and disciplined and yet be democracy. The democratic method does not mean laxity. Liberty does not mean license. The I. L. O. delegates may help us to re-learn these truths that our forefathers knew and that the totalitarians have sought to make free peoples everywhere forget.

JAPANESE MANEUVERS.

Japanese spokesmen, who are rather given to hysteria, have been shifting their policy and jumping around more than usual lately. A week or two ago they were ready to fight us. Around the last week-end they seemed to be asking for peace and friendly cooperation.

They are evidently bent on a new assault against China and may really make a supreme effort to clean up "the China incident." Their latest strategy in that direction seems to be a drive westward through the mountains from southern China to cut the Burma Road, on which American supplies go to Chiang Kai Shek's army in the west.

But all of Japan's war cries and sleight-of-hand work come around to the one big problem of oil. Since Uncle Sam, as a sensible matter of self-defense, cut off Japan's oil supplies from this country, the Tokyo war-makers know their operations are limited. They doubtless have some oil hoarded for military use, but they haven't enough for a big war and don't know when they can get any more.

So they seem to be saying now to America: "Have a heart and also consult your own interest. Let us take China, and we'll play with you from then on. And in token of this sensible understanding, please start oil shipments again. Also iron and other metals." But Uncle Sam only smiles and looks at his hand and stands pat.

OTHER EDITORS

Place For Everything.

Scottish Rite News Bureau: There is a demand in some localities for religious instruction of one to two-hour periods a week in the public schools. This is just another idea to get away from the time-tried fact that public schools should be devoted entirely to secular education and not religious education.

Once upon a time, school children profited by religion's place in the public schools. Generally school opened with a prayer, a reading of a Scripture that carried an atmosphere of universal religion and not an atmosphere of sectarian dogma. The religious ceremony was short, simple and understood by the pupils. But not so now. The apathy has in many places let the enemies of the public schools destroy this beloved custom, let it be eliminated for a period of religious instruction that confused the students and did no good whatsoever.

It is admitted that the schools cannot accomplish in the school-room what is intended to be accomplished solely in the home and in the church. Even in the latter, many ministers have admitted falling down on the job.

Would it not be better to get at the root of the problem. Right now the public schools are overburdened with a top-heavy program that takes all of the students' time. School offers neither the time nor place for any kind of religious instruction—not when the duty has always been with the home and the church.

STUDY JAPANESE.

BROWNWOOD, Nov. 15.—More than 30 officers and enlisted men at Camp Bowie have enrolled to learn the most difficult of languages—Japanese. Maj. E. J. Sullivan will teach the class. The language is so complicated, he said, that the course will deal only with the spoken word. No attempt will be made to teach students to write Japanese.

PUTNAM

E. C. (Pete) Garvin, who has been ranching for sometime on the Caldwell ranch, the Dick Cordwain ranch in the Spring Gap mountains has sold his lease on the 12,000-acre outfit to Caton Jacobs of San Angelo, along with mutton goats and cattle on the place. He is keeping his sheep. Included in the sale, also were 71 head of thoroughbred mares, daughters of the highly-respected stallion, Madway. Mr. Garvin, a great lover of horses, has a few choice colts by the old stallion left at his place. Madway died at the age of 14 years, last winter. He was by Bulldog Tenacity, a E. R. Bradley-bred horse, and out of Mae Newman, a Kentucky-bred mare that was bought by the Newmans of Sweetwater. She later was purchased by L. S. White of Brady. Mr. Garvin received $5.50 around for the goats; $40 for dry cows and $80 for cows and calves. Most of the cattle were on the plain order and many of them were Jerseys. Jacobs will run mutton goats and sheep and plain steers on the place. Mr. Garvin is looking for a lease in this area for his sheep and if he doesn't find one, will move to Fort Stockton.

The Putnam gin had turned out 616 bales of cotton to close of business Saturday night. This was 63 bales for the week or an average of ten bales per day. The past week has been fair and many of the farmers report being through picking or only one or two bales to pick. They may gin 700 bales by the time the gin closes if they gin until it is all out. Cotton is selling for about 12.50 to 13 cents and seed is selling for 37 dollars per ton. If the weather is fair this week they will just about complete picking for the season.

Ennis Qualls living about five miles north of Putnam in the Union community was in town a few days ago and reported he would gather 14 bales of cotton off of 21 acres. He said the bales would average considerably over 500 pounds per bale. Figuring on an average of 525 pounds per bale this would equal 7,350 pounds of lint or about 350 pounds of lint per acre. The Putnam territory will average more than one-half bale per acre which is the best average we have had in years. This increased production is the result of plenty of moisture and generally better farming. The higher the lint the less it costs to produce a bale of cotton. When the cotton season is over we will give an average on the number of farms reported which will be a fair average over the entire trade territory.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude King have two sons visiting them this week. Kieth is from Honolulu and Calvin from Detroit, Michigan. Kieth has a leave of absence of 25 days from the time he left, while Calvin has only ten days before he must return. — Putnam Weekly News.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.
Really we know of some things that cannot be uprooted today. They are invincible. What are they? We shall tell you in the message at the First Baptist church at the 11 o'clock worship hour, when we speak on "How Firm a Foundation." The Sunday school convenes at 9:45. The Association Training Union will be held in our church at 2:45 p. m. today. The Training Union meets at 6:30 p. m. Some people are not our friends. But there is one who is a friend to everybody. Hear the pastor's evening message on "Everybody's Friend." We want you. We need you. You need us. A warm welcome awaits you. Come. JUDSON PRINCE, Pastor.

"... Folks today are using many times more electric service for all household needs and it costs less than we used to pay for a few small lights alone..."

MR. AND MRS. WILEY JAMES OF BAIRD

It's Funny How Folks Still Call it the 'Light Bill'

YES, SIRE! In the old days it really was the "light bill." And folks called it the "light plant" instead of power plant as we say today. All we got was light. And in most places lights were off in the daytime—and we weren't too sure of 'em at night. Of course it's different now. It's like Mrs. James says...

"I remember how proud we were of the little light plant here in 1908 when my Old Bill entry was paid. But it was nothing compared to our pride in the West Texas Utilities during later years because they brought us the first really good service we ever had. The cost has been steadily going down ever since until now we are using many times more service for all our household needs and it costs less than we used to pay for a few small lights alone. I have been a customer of the company since it began serving Baird in 1915 and know that the good service, the lower rates, and the taxes it pays have been very valuable to our town. Long may it serve!"

Mrs. James is right, too. We're getting better—much better—service. For about what we used to spend for lights alone, we're lighting the house many times better and washing and ironing clothes, cleaning rugs, toasting the bread, running the radio, using the refrigerator and the food mixer. We're getting a lot more for our money!

West Texas Utilities Company

Reddy Kilowatt says:

"Why not call it the SERVICE bill? The thousand men and women in this organization have had the training and experience to render you a service—and do it more economically than is possible with the old-fashioned, obsolete light plant at the mercy of freakish weather, breakdowns, and periodically worn-out machinery."

HOW HIGH DO YOU FLY WHEN DRIVING AUTO?

How high do you fly when driving? What's your "altitude"? Silly questions? Well, not so silly as they sound. The Texas Safety association asks you to suppose your car were to shoot straight up into the air at the speed at which you travel. How high would it go before starting to fall? At 30 miles per hour it could rise 30 feet; at 60 it would go up 120 feet!

And when it hit the ground in coming down it would be going about the same speed as when it started up—30 miles per hour from 30 feet, 60 miles per hour from 120 feet—but the crash on landing would be no worse than hitting another car head on, a train, a bridge, or rut, or any other "fixed" objects at such a speed. A little slip in steering at 60 miles per hour may be pretty much the same thing as the crash from a plane up 120 feet. The chances of broken bones and torn bodies would be about equal. When driving you might think of yourself as hovering over the road (at a height which depends upon your speed) with any accident resulting in a crash from that altitude. You might even think of your speedometer as an "altimeter" which would read like this table. When the indicator needle points to 50 don't think 50 miles per hour, but 80 feet up.

Table with 2 columns: Speed in Miles Per Hour, Altitude in Feet. Values range from 5 mph to 100 mph and 1 foot to 330 feet.

This will help you understand the hazards of speed. By it you can better judge when and where to drive fast or slow. Such thinking will make you a safer driver.
