The election in Eastland county brought out a better vote than was expected at the second, or the run-off primary, but there had not only been much interest worked up in the race for governor but there were several contests on the local ticket, those of judge of the county court-at-law, county attorney, sheriff, a commissioner in the Cisco precinct as well as a constable in this precinct and a justice and a constable in Precinct No. 7.

It is impossible to tell the number of women voting, but there was quite a good number in the Eastland precincts. Workers at the election were numerous and there was much good natured rivalry throughout the day, but no trouble. The returns given herewith are practically complete, with the exception of four boxes, Fir, Kokomo, Tudor, Staff, but these are small boxes and will not change the result as to the winners in the county.

The largest vote cast was that for governor, Bailey receiving 1923 and Neff 2650, making a total of 4573. The successful candidates were: For Governor—Neff; lieutenant governor, Johnson; justice supreme court, Pierson; judge county court-at-law, Jones; county attorney, Dunnam; Sheriff, Nolley; commissioner (Cisco precinct) Stubblefield; constable (Cisco precinct) Ray. In precinct 7, Rising Star, Okra and Pioneer, for justice of the peace, Deen; for constable, Barton.

LONGSHOREMEN ON STRIKE OF PROTEST TO GREAT BRITAIN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Three members of the American Women pickets saw Secretary of State Coby today and asked him to protest to Great Britain against the imprisonment of Mayor MacSweeney of Cork. Secretary Coby said he would take the request under advisement. Mrs. Gertrude Corless spokesman replied that unless an immediate answer was given the "administration will lose the entire Irish-American vote."

Secretary Coby said he represented the entire American people, not one group of citizens, and reiterated he had the question under advisement. Associated Press. NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Hostilities were resumed by five hundred Irish women pickets, who yesterday started a demonstration resulting in the walkout of more than two thousand longshoremen employed by British liners, as a protest against Great Britain's Irish policy.

They say they intend to cripple all British ships arriving in port, and plan to extend the protest and strike to other Atlantic ports and if possible to ship crews as well as longshoremen. The longshoremen declared they will not return to work until Archbishop Mannix is permitted to enter Ireland and Lord Mayor MacSweeney, of Cork, is released from prison in London.

NEW YORK RECEIVES GOVERNOR COX WITH ABOUT EVERYTHING

Speeches, Parades, Receptions, Luncheon, Field Games, Crowd of Two Hundred Thousand, Dinner With Party — Says He Has More To Tell About the Republican "Slush" Fund. Associated Press. NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Governor Cox spent today hustling through a cram-packed program of events. Speeches, parades, receptions, luncheon at a prominent hotel, view of the police field day games, where the crowd estimated at two hundred thousand, was addressed, and a dinner with party leaders tonight, gave Governor Cox the busiest day in his campaign.

In his luncheon address Governor Cox reiterated his charges that contributions are being collected by republicans to fund a fifteen million dollar "corruption fund," and promised further revelations, but did not give any additional information today. World peace, by America's entrance into the league of nations, industrial problems and pleas for Americanization of foreign born citizens, also featured his address. In all, he predicted democratic victory in November.

The fire of Governor Cox and other democratic leaders concentrated on the republican campaign fund. Governor Cox was cheered loudly as he reiterated that the "contributions involved an attempt to 'purchase the presidency.'" "The enemy has sought to deny my charges, but none of them make the same kind of denial. Chairman Hays says the fund is three million dollars. Treasurer Upham said it was about eight million. We have not yet started in the revelations which will be made to the public."

The league issue was emphasized by Governor Cox as paramount in the campaign between the champions of progress and reaction. "This is a great fight for a great principle and the fight for which we will know to be a victorious fight." Pleas for industrial peace were also made by Governor Cox in his address at the democratic luncheon.

"We cannot have national tranquility unless we have community tranquility. Public opinion has always settled industrial controversies and public opinion always will," he said. Jones, 114; Trumble, 36. For County Attorney—Dunnam, 69; Hazel, 95. For Sheriff—Nolley, 69; Lawrence, 89.

He expects the whole road to be completed within three months.

POST-OFFICE NOW IN IT'S NEW HOME

The people of Cisco will, beginning today, receive their mail from the post office in its new location and in a new building. The office was moved yesterday and last night and the old office will be wholly abandoned by Monday, no mail being delivered there today. The new building was erected by B. S. Huey, especially for the postoffice. It is a commodious one-story structure with concrete floors and is well lighted. It is easy of access and near the depot, making it ideal for handling train mails promptly. It is on D avenue between Fourth and Fifth streets, opposite, a little to the north, of The Daily News office.

The furniture and fixtures, the boxes and everything in the office are new. The woodwork is done in mahogany, and with the metal furniture and fixtures and the large windows to light it up, it presents a handsome appearance. There are 715 boxes, all with combination locks, neatly arranged and nearly all of these have already been taken. There were but a few over 400 boxes in the old office, so this shows the growing demand for boxes, in keeping with everything else in Cisco.

The postoffice had been at the old location, in the next block south, near the alley, and on the same side of the street, for about thirteen years. Prior to that time it was across the street at Fifth, for a number of years. Postmaster St. John has held the office about six years. His highly capable clerical force will now be able to more fully demonstrate their energy, ability and general attentiveness to business. The stamp, money order and registry windows were open in the new building yesterday afternoon and some of the delivery clerks were at work there. The Daily News was the first patron of the new office to find mail in its box.

SENATOR HARDING WIDENS HIS VIEW ON LEAGUE AND MEXICO

MARION, O., Aug. 28.—Senator Harding pronounced the league of nations a definite and irredeemable failure in his front porch speech here today to a delegation from Indiana. The republicans proposed a new effort to construct a world association on the frame work of the Hague tribunal, clothed with such attributes of the league covenant as may be found safe and practicable. He pledged himself, if elected president to make this effort immediately with the advice of the ablest men in both political parties.

He asserted the league broke down at the first test, in Poland, and now had passed beyond the possibility of restoration. He quoted the British statement to support his contention that a revision of the covenant would be welcomed abroad. He said the passage of a peace resolution would make actual, effective peace, without the negotiation of a separate treaty with Germany.

Touching on Mexico, the republican nominee proclaimed plain notice to every government on the face of the earth that the United States would submit to no wrong to its citizens, in person or property. He replied to the charges of undue senatorial influence by asserting he would be quite as vigilant as president as he had been as senator to prevent trespass on that branch of government in which he served.

Bailey, Johnson and Hawkins Go Down in Defeat

Associated Press. Dallas, Aug. 28.—Pat Neff, of Waco, led former United States Senator Joseph W. Bailey by fifty-six thousand votes in the run-off democratic primary race, according to returns at midnight. Approximately two hundred and eighty-five thousand votes had been counted then. On the face of these returns, the Dallas Morning News announced Neff's nomination by a "large majority."

In the contest for the nomination for Lieutenant Governor, Lynch Davidson, of Houston, was leading W. A. Johnson, the incumbent and William Pierson, of Greenville, was leading William Hawkins, incumbent.

BRANDON-GRAHAM WEDDING.

Vicker Wade Graham of Butler, Penn., and Miss Francis Heckert Brandon, of Cisco, were united in marriage last night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brandon, on Sixth street. Rev. J. D. Leslie, of the Presbyterian church performed the ceremony. Members of the family and a few friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Graham departed last night for their future home in Butler, Penn., where Mr. Graham is engaged in business. Butler is the former home of the bride, and the Brandon's moving to Cisco from that city. The best wishes of many Cisco friends go with the happy couple.

PLUMBERS TO MEET CITY FATHERS

At the adjourned meeting of the mayor and commissioners Friday night and after the gas rate proposition had been disposed of, Mayor Williamson called the attention of the commissioners to the demand of the contracting plumbers and the journeymen Plumbers' union of Cisco, that they pass certain ordinances relating to the plumbing business. The mayor said this "demand" had been presented about a year ago by a lawyer named Baldwin, and a few days ago a like demand came from Attorney Claud Wild, signing himself as the attorney for the plumbers. This last demand was dated August 18th.

The city attorney, to whom the demand had been referred, offered an opinion that the effort of the plumbers undoubtedly was to have the commission pass an ordinance in keeping with an act of the Texas legislature, prescribing when and how such ordinance should be put in effect in certain cities and said that under the provisions of that act, the passage of an ordinance of Cisco, was wholly discretionary and that the commission could not be compelled to pass such an ordinance.

Mayor Williamson said he believed the present plumbing ordinance flagrantly violated and he did not think men who would not observe one ordinance, when in effect, were in a very good position to come to them and demand that they pass another. The mayor said he thought these plumbers should be called before the commission in a body and explain why they had made certain charges against the inspector and secretary. Commissioner Donovan said he had talked with two of the plumbers who complained of the inspector and that the secretary would not grant them a permit. The commissioner said one of the plumbers told him: they had an agreement that where their connections were called for they made it four, and, for instance, one hundred would call for an additional ten connections. The charges for these "pot" and the "pot" would then be divided among all of them. He said the last "pot" of between $300 and $360, was divided with out him being called in and he got none of it.

The commissioner also said one of the plumbers told him if his name was on the demand, filed with the commission, it was a forgery, as he never signed it.

Mayor Williamson said men who would employ a lawyer and come to the commission with a demand and make such statements should be inquired about. He said what these men want is to have all the plumbing work in the hands of the plumbers, fully controlled by them and that one of their number be the inspector. He said it was unthinkable to him that men would extort money from the citizens in this manner and then divide it among themselves. He could not believe it, but he thought it should be investigated. A motion then prevailed that all the contracting plumbers and the members of the Plumbers' union be invited to come before the commission Monday evening, that they might discuss the demand made by them upon the commission.

GOVERNOR COOLIDGE TRIES HIS HAND AT A LITTLE SARCASM

Associated Press. BOSTON, Aug. 28.—"Democrats at the San Francisco convention meant to endorse the administration in the platform and repudiate it in its nominee, but by a strange turn of fate it failed in the accomplishment of their purpose and with that failure went whatever chance there was of democratic success," Governor Coolidge said in an address today.

SCRIPTURE

Ecclesiastes 7:1-10

A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth. It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting; for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool; this also is vanity.

Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad; and a gift destroyeth the heart.

Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof; and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry; for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not enquire wisely concerning this.

The NEW EDISON "The Phonograph with a Soul"

The Original Official Laboratory Model! That's a name to conjure with. That's the phonograph which cost 3 million dollars.

Remember the 7 long years during which Mr. Edison experimented night and day. Remember the marvelous result he achieved.

Remember the countless times that exact duplicates of the Official Laboratory Model have matched their art directly against living artists,—and have proved that there is no difference between a singer's voice—or instrumentalist's performance—and its RE-CREATION by the New Edison.

We have exact duplicates of the 3 million dollar Original Official Laboratory Model. We guarantee that they will also match the living artist and equal the entire 3 million dollar musical ability of its famous prototype.

Our Budget Plan! The ideas of common-sense Americans, from Ben Franklin to Thos. A. Edison, applied to the purchase of a New Edison. Do you know about it!

CITIZENS DECLARE PRESENT RATE FOR GAS IN CISCO IS FAIR

Publication of the following has been requested:

Whereas, a low gas rate augments the growth of a city in many lines, and; Whereas, it is admitted our local company is making a good profit on its investment, and;

Whereas, there is considerable agitation at present to increase the present rate 50 per cent, therefore:

We, the undersigned citizens, being vitally interested in the future of Cisco, and fair to capital, agree with each other and resolve, that 50 cents per thousand cubic feet as is charged at present, is a fair price to the gas company and to the consumer, and so put ourselves on record.

AMUSEMENTS

Broadway Theater

Thursday evening, September 2, the Lewis-Worth Players will open the Broadway Theatre with Maude Fulton's stage success, "The Brat." This company will appear for the present in Cisco every Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, presenting the latest dramatic successes with complete scenic productions.

In selecting the company, Manager Lewis secured the very best people that were available in Chicago and New York. Miss Marcella Hamilton, a very clever leading lady, will head the company, and she will be supported by the best cast that has ever been in Cisco, in fact, this company compares very favorably with any stock company in America.

Following "The Brat," such plays as

"Mary's Ankle," "Jim's Girl," "Kick In," "Which One Shall I Marry," and in fact all the latest Broadway successes will be presented.

"It is up to the people of Cisco if they want high class, refined amusement this winter and we are going to give you the very best we can," says Manager Tunstall.

Reserved seats will be on sale commencing Tuesday at 1 p. m. at the Judia box office and reservations can be made by telephoning 398. All seats will be 75 cents and the left balcony will be for colored people.

Victory Theater

The screen version of Jack London's famous novel, "The Sea Wolf," which will be on view two days, commencing Monday, at the Victory theater, is said to be replete with spectacular scenes. A ferryboat and a fishing schooner actually crash at sea; a ship founders in a fog; "Wolf" Larsen's vessel, "The Ghost," is beached on a desolate island. All these episodes are thrillingly recorded by the camera. However, the emphasis in the picture has been laid upon the striking story, which is at bottom a study of contrasts—the brutal sea captain who believes that "might makes right" and the aesthetic, peace-loving young idler whom he rescues after a catastrophe at sea.

Noah Beery, a man of great physical prowess, as well as a talented actor, is said to do the best work of his career as "Wolf." Tom Forman, Mabel Julienne Scott, and Raymond Hatton are also in the cast. The picture, which is a Paramount Artcraft, was produced by George Melford.

Judia Theater

Alma Rubens, who was the featured player in "Humoresque," has the leading role in the new Cosmopolitan production, "The World and His Wife," which will be shown at the Judia theater today.

The scenes in the picture, which was adapted from a successful Broadway play, are laid in Spain. Miss Rubens has the role of Fedora, a young Spanish girl, who marries Don Julian, very rich and much older than herself. Ernesto, a youthful writer and son of Don Julian's deceased friend, comes to live with them. Evil stories are circulated about the young folks. A duel, in which Don Julian is fatally wounded, and several other startling events follow.

THE GAS RATE

The increase in the price Cisco people shall pay for gas is in abeyance. The mayor says so far as the commission is concerned, at this time, it is a closed incident before that body. This arises from the fact that the company had filed with the commission no formal application for an increase in the rate, nor had it presented to the commission a statement showing the valuation of its property, together with a report of its earnings and operation expenses for the last year, that the commission might be able to determine if its net earnings were less than 10 per cent and if it was entitled to a higher rate, the city attorney advising the mayor and commissioners this was necessary before they were empowered to act. If the company shall file such application and statement as required by the statute, on which the city attorney based his opinion, then it will again be before the commission for action.

The question is at all times before the people and what still more impresses itself upon their minds is the necessity for taking such steps as will insure to them an adequate supply of gas. The people are reasonable. They may have to pay more for gas, although they believe, situated as they are, with reference to the gas supply, they should be paying less than the present rate, but what they are going to demand, and insist upon, is some provision protecting them against conditions such as have prevailed in the past with reference to the supply.

There is no reason in the world why the people of Cisco should not have an adequate supply of gas at all times and they will expect the commission to surround any contract it may make, with any gas company, with such safeguards that the people will not fail to be supplied with gas and particularly to keep them from paying an increased rate, or any rate, for gas they do not receive.

Cisco is surrounded with gas. It is, as was stated in the commission meeting, "at the front and back door" and this city should have one of the lowest rates in the state.

TOO MUCH POLITICS

A sigh of relief will be evident throughout Texas today, an expression of satisfaction that the campaign is ended and business may now be resumed.

There are too many elections in Texas, too much politics, too much lost motion, too much wasted time for the real good of the state.

Let the farmer, the merchant, the banker, the laborer figure up what has been his probable loss in time since the beginning of the campaign preceding the first primary this year, estimate that in dollars and cents, had it been devoted to business and compare it with what will be his gain if his candidate shall have received a nomination for the office of who is benefitted, anyway? Under the present method in Texas, not even the man who receives a nomination and is elected to office is the gainer. It now costs several times the amount of the salary pertaining to a public office to make the campaign for and attain to that office.

The campaign just closed has not only been an expensive one, counted in dollars and cents, but more far reaching and of much greater loss and damage to the state is the enmity and bitter feeling engendered. It has been a campaign of bitterness and personalities and vilification. It has not been one to be proud of, no matter who wins.

Not all the candidates were to blame. Perhaps but very few of them are chargeable for what maintained throughout the campaign. It is the system, or the rut into which politicians have drifted, that is wrong.

It adds nothing to the wealth, honor or standing of a state to have a large number of its citizens, as a class, held up to ridicule and scorn. But there are so many politicians who will never learn that if they cannot win on their own ability, they may never hope to get by on the shortcomings of their opponents. When they do reach this understanding, the millennium in politics will be at hand.

But the people will all be glad it is over. There will be some "sore heads" for a day or two, but they, too, will soon see the foolishness in nursing their anger and business will soon be going on as it was before the disturbing campaign began. The great regret is that the time is so short until it will have to be done all over again, with no promise for improvement in the methods pursued.

DRY LAW VIOLATORS

A conference of representatives of the federal department of justice and state enforcement officers has just been held at Dallas and another is scheduled for Austin this week, looking to a better enforcement of the prohibition law in Texas.

In connection with the announcement of these conferences comes the statement of some of the officers, that conditions in Texas are simply terrible, so far as breaking holes in the Volstead Act go. It would appear from the statements of these daring officers that Texas just now is a hot bed of crime and that all the other states of the union, combined, do not sell nearly such quantities of intoxicants as are disposed of in this state. That is not a good advertisement for Texas. Neither is it the truth.

It is only necessary to read the newspapers and find what is going on in other states, and particularly in the larger cities of the north and east, to show that Texas is a real desert compared with them.

Yesterday a federal and a state officer were killed in an attempt to seize an illicit still in Oklahoma. The night before two men were killed while trying to steal two barrels of whiskey from the private stock of a rich oil man at Kansas City. Another was killed while two carloads of whiskey, openly shipped into Chicago said to be valued at $500,000, was being taken over by federal officers.

Stories of these violations of the law on such a wholesale order and the possession of private stocks by rich men, do not have a good influence. The American man, no matter how poor he may be, is always going to stand up and claim he is entitled to the same rights and privileges as the rich man. And this applies to whiskey. If the one has the money to pay the price, he can easily get his liquor. If the other has not so much money, he is going to make some whiskey, or get it by some means and by the application of this means, he violates the law and kills or gets killed and the state gets a bad name, both for the violation of the liquor law and for being a state of outlaws and murderers.

An eminent Englishman who recently visited the United States, on returning home wrote in one of the London papers that he did not see "such evidence of prohibition in this country among the rich; that in all the homes he visited he had plenty of whiskey, wine and other intoxicants, but he did notice the "public," as the British calls the saloon, was gone and that the working man who usually bought his liquor at the bar, a drink at a time, had to go without it.

Until the government gets the liquor business under control, until it stops the wholesale shipments and sales to the rich, the unrest among the poor, the impression they have that there is discrimination in favor of the rich, will grow and with that unrest will come a state of affairs making it still more difficult to enforce the prohibition law.

In Texas, there has been no report of large quantities of liquor being sold, consumed or captured. All the seizures are of small quantities. There are some towns where it has been difficult to enforce the law, but these can be counted on the fingers.

Texas has a wonderful prohibition law of its own. It is a notable fact that the transgressor in the bootlegging field would much rather be called to answer in a United States court than in a Texas state court.

There is also a disposition on the part of Volstead law enforcement officers to make their work and captures appear of the greatest magnitude, in order to tell what a great work they are doing. With some of these, a bottle becomes a case, a case a carload and it is not hard to find in some of their reports where more whiskey was taken in one raid than was ever inside the boundaries of that county in a year.

Texas is about as dry as it will can be, but it does appear that there are always some persons ready to take up the old game "give a dog a bad name and kill it."

HELP FOR THE ORIENT ROAD

(Kansas City Star)
The announcement of the approval by the interstate commerce commission of a government loan to the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railroad company is good news to Kansas City and all the southwest. The railroad serves a large territory tributary to this city. It has very great possibilities for development once the missing links that will connect Kansas City with the Pacific coast are completed.

The project of this short line to the coast by way of Mexico was born in the imagination of Arthur E. Stilwell, who conceived the Kansas City Southern railroad to the Gulf. It was an enterprise that was bound to take time to develop for it had to depend to a considerable extent on the development of new territory. The consequence was that it was not completed when the evil days of railroads came. It was impossible to finance extensions and the Orient was left in the air between terminals. It was dependent on the charity of other lines for business, and naturally it did not flourish.

But the possibilities of that vast southwestern empire are still a titanic command. A period of rapid development for the territory it traverses is just ahead. It will put Kansas City and the Central valley five hundred miles closer to Pacific tide water than any other line and its coast terminal may become peculiarly a Kansas City port.

In the last decade the country has been starving for railroads. It grew up to its railroad facilities and outgrew them. An era of railroad development is inevitable. It will be a great thing for the southwestern country that the Orient road has received government recognition. That ought to give an impetus that will make this road one of the first to be extended to meet the requirements of advancing trade.

COMING FREIGHT BILLS

(Santa Rosa (Calif.) Press)

Many railroads are following the example of the New York Central and the Pennsylvania in pointing out exactly what effect the new freight rates bear to the cost of commodities, and warning the public against improper increases. The railroads are not altogether philanthropic about it; they want to protect themselves against the charges of adding too greatly to the cost of living.

It is explained that the cost of shipping a suit of clothes 1,000 miles, when the new rates take effect, will be only 3 cents more than it is at present. For the same distance the cost of transporting a pair of shoes will be increased only one-fifth of a cent, a pair of stockings one-eighth of a cent, a pound of flour one-tenth of a cent, a pound of beef one-fourth of a cent, a pound of cotton one-fifth of a cent, 100 pounds of oil 15 cents, 100 pounds of lumber 16 cents, etc. A 50-pound typewriter can be sent from New York to St. Louis for an additional 24 cents, and a piano from New York to San Francisco for an additional $10.20. On butter from a long distance the increase may be half a cent a pound. On potatoes for the average consumer, says one authority, "it should not be more than about 1 cent a peck, and on apples perhaps 25 cents a barrel."

Says George Dallas Dixon, traffic vice president of the Pennsylvania system: "While it is true that in the case of some few articles and commodities small increases may be justified, the amounts which in any instance could be added fairly to the present prices are a very small fraction of the whole, and in the case of practically every article or commodity of daily consumption the increases in transportation charges are relatively so small as to be practically negligible."

It would be unfair to expect jobbers, wholesalers and retailers to absorb all the increased freight charges. In many cases, however, they could certainly do so without cutting dangerously into their profits, and in cases where they cannot be justified in trebling or quadrupling it. The public should be on guard for just this very thing, however, because that is the way such things usually work.

The People's Forum

To the Editor of the News:
Concerning article in Wednesday's News by Mr. Stevenson, about the 50 per cent gas advance having been voted on Cisco by the chamber of commerce: This article, I think, is the first information the people have had of the matter. Why should less than a quorum of the directorate of the chamber of commerce decide this question? If the chamber of commerce is to make this decision, why not call all of its members together, stating specifically what the purpose is in the call?

In my opinion, the advance is wholly unjustified, from any angle or standpoint. The original contract, or franchise with the city is binding and should be adhered to. The city has never asked for a reduction—with millions of feet of gas around us, within easy distance, we would be much more entitled to ask for a reduction than the gas company is in asking for an advance.

The Philadelphia Gas company of Pennsylvania has been for years and is now furnishing gas to almost the entire state at 27.12 cents, and getting rich.

The price of gas at production, I understand is still three cents per thousand feet, and maintenance expense is practically nothing. Even the time and expense of paying the bills is on the consumer.

If there is anything to justify this advance I think the people should at least know what it is.

LEERAY OIL FIELD HAS MANY WELLS IN LIME - QUIET WEEK

Smith and Lee's Greene No. 1 was given a shot of 420 quarts Friday and responded with a flow of 180 barrels for the first twelve hours gauge. The shot bridged the hole forty feet from the bottom and it is the general belief that when that is drilled out, the well will make between 600 and 800 barrels. It is now rated at 400 barrels. Location is about one mile east of Leeray.

The Greene got the top of the lime at 3,165 feet and was shot from that depth to 3,210 feet.

Late news from the Producers & Refiners; M. Baggett No. 1 was to the effect that steps will be taken today to complete the well at once.

The Ajax Good No. 2 was today reported showing oil to the extent of covering the tools while drilling a short depth in the lime.

Operators in the Leeray field reported nothing new of interest this week, not even rain or mud, both common now, and relative to important developments or completions for the week, there were none. Misfortune and the weather played havoc with several of the wells expected in this week.

Up to Friday morning no change was reported in the M. Baggett No. 1 of the Producers and Refiners company, located about one mile east of the Leeray townsite. Thursday night of last week a shot of 160 quarts of nitro was placed in over a hundred feet of the lime and at a depth of about 3220 feet. Shortly after placing and before ignition, twelve feet of cavings covered the shot and made ignition impossible. The time limit for ignition of the shot due to heat has expired and steps will be taken to complete the well at once. Either a light shot will be placed above the cavings or the hole will be cleaned. The hole is reported standing in fluid and it is thought that this prevents the shot from ignition. The Baggett is looked upon as a good producer with a good chance of coming in at a several thousand barrel clip. The well made three heads when the bit was eighteen feet into the lime.

The Good No. 3 of the Ajax company which was expected in this week is fishing for collapsed casing after pulling the pipe a short distance to get it away from the shot. Completion will be held up several days. It topped the lime at 3105 feet. Ajax Good No. 2 is reported drilling at 3160 feet and in the lime.

Choate Oil company's M. Baggett No. 1 is reported topping the lime at 3103 and No. 2 is reported at 3145 feet.

Fensland-Stokes No. 2 is reported in the lime at 3103 feet and Higginbotham No. 1 of the Higginbotham Drilling Co. is reported topping the lime at 3113 feet.

Thorpe No. 4 of the Plateau Oil company is awaiting a shot at 2339 feet and should in next week. Smith Lee's Greene No. 1 is also awaiting a shot, at 3210 feet. Virginia's Thorpe No. 1 is topping the lime at 3093 feet and the Mid-Kansas Nussbaum No. 1 and the Sterling Nussbaum No. 1 are each reported in the lime. Southwestern's Stokes No. 1 is drilling at 3060 feet, and Transcontinental's Thorpe No. 1 is down 3239 feet.

The Green No. 1 of Parker et al is now making 200 barrels after a shot last week. Southwestern's Tolle is reported increasing its flow after a shot in the Red Bank's Tolle, which is now reported making about 700 barrels.

Virginia's Thorpe No. 4 is reported shut down on account of water.

Following is a drilling report for the Leeray field:

Ajax Oil Co.—Good No. 2 topped lime at 3151 and now drilling at 3155 feet. No. 3 topped lime at 3187 feet, now seventeen feet in lime and fishing for collapsed casing. No. 4 is a rig.

American Oil Engineer—Stokes No. 1 drilling at 2400 feet.

Ardizzone Braden—Stunnitt No. 1 re-set twelve and one-half inch casing at 1170 feet. Stokes No. 1 set eight-inch at 2500 feet and now drilling.

Brandon Drilling Co.—Good No. 1 cleaning out after shot.

Caldwell—Greene No. 1 under-reaming to 2400 feet.

Choate Oil Co.—M. Baggett No. 1 topping lime at 3105 feet, and now fishing; No. 2 drilling at 3145 feet; No. 3 set six-inch at 2300 and now drilling at 2425 feet; No. 4 is a rig; Nos. 5 and 6 are locations.

George M. Church Interests—Watson No. 1 set eight-inch at 2110 and drilling at 2400 feet.

Frey Coogan—M. Baggett No. 1 fishing at 325 feet.

Dorsey & Kiley—Baggett No. 1 shut down.

E. Paso-Ranger & Ballintine—Watson No. 1 shut down.

The Bankers of the United States

Have watched with great interest the progress of the Guaranty Fund Law in Texas.

How splendidly the plan has justified itself is proven by the fact that since the enactment of this law not a single depositor in a Guaranty State bank in Texas has ever lost one cent. As a result of this showing other states have followed the lead of Texas and have passed similar laws for the benefit of depositors in state banks.

State banks are the only banks in Texas that operate under this law, and every depositor in this bank receives the benefit of this wonderful protection.

Drop in and talk with us about it.

BILLY MISKE SAYS HE'S NOT AFRAID OF THE DEMPSEY PUNCH

Associated Press. BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Aug. 28.—Billy Miske, the St. Paul heavyweight, declared today he has no fear of Jack Dempsey's knockout punches. He is matched to meet the champion here Labor Day.

Miske fought Dempsey twice before the champion won the title, and survived each encounter without even being knocked down.

He impresses his admirers with the fact that he is a bigger, a heavier and better fighter now than when he met Dempsey before.

The St. Paul heavyweight said he would carry the fight to Dempsey instead of backing away and would match speed in boxing skill.

EASTLAND PEOPLE WRONGLY CONSTRUE INTERVIEW WORDING

In a recent interview with County Judge Starnes, published in The Daily News, part of the wording evidently led some citizens of Eastland to infer that Judge Starnes was criticizing the Retail Merchants' association of that city. Judge Starnes did not mention that organization throughout the conversation, but to explain it fully, a letter written by Judge Starnes to The News, is herewith published. It is as follows: Editor Cisco News.

My dear Sir:

I note in your recent issue an article that would have it appear I was criticizing the committee from the Merchants' association of Eastland. The committee was insistent upon certain road locations, but the matter of the Cisco and Eastland roads north was not discussed at any length with this committee, but was discussed with another and you misunderstood me in that.

I would be glad if you would say in your columns that the meeting of the committee of the Retail Merchants' association was entirely agreeable and that I have no criticism to make of it. I believe it will result in good.

Yours very truly,
C. R. STARNES,
August 27, 1920. County Judge.

Marvelous, Thinks Babe; Elementary, Says Sleuth

By International News Service. DETROIT, Aug. 28.—Phil Garvey, house sleuth, is a disciple of Conan Doyle.

Phil, clad in a dressing robe and smoking a pipe of the general dimensions of a tar-burner, was seated in his lodgings, endeavoring to look as much like old S. Holmes as possible. He was considering taking up the violin and hypodermic as Holmes did when a mystery confronted him.

For Phil was puzzled.

A moment before a breathless young man had burst into Phil's room. I have lost—

"Good evening, Mr. Ruth," said Garvey politely. "You are astonished? I recognized you at once by the passionate silk shirt and the egg on your vest. I have just finished reading a story that has you carded for Ringling's menagerie next season. Applying the description I deduce that you are Mr. Babe Ruth."

"Marvelous," said Ruth.

"Elementary," countered Garvey.

"I have lost a diamond-studded fob," began Babe, and related the disappearance of a K. of C. token given him some time ago by that order.

"We shall see, we shall see," said Phil, placing his finger tips together and gazing dreamily off into space.

"My dear John," said Garvey to the house manager, "according to the papers we have a wild man to deal with."

"In a monograph I have written on jungle life you will note that these people do little besides eat, sleep and brain wild animals."

"We may discard the first and last of these activities and concentrate on the second. Where does he usually snooze in the hotel?"

"Well, after a light breakfast of 28 eggs and a half a ham," replied the h. m., "Babe is accustomed to curl up on the lobby lounge and snore until an hour before the game."

"Let us examine the lounge," said Phil.

There, beneath the cushions, they found the fob.

The token was dispatched to Babe. The next morning Phil received the following telegram:

"Marvelous, Babe Ruth."

In reply Phil wired immediately: "Elementary, Garvey."

DE PALMA WINS THE ROAD RACE AT ELGIN BREAKING RECORDS

Associated Press. ELGIN, Ill., Aug. 28.—Ralph De Palma, leading from the start, won the eighth Elgin road race today. He covered the course, 251 miles, 2,827 feet, in three hours, nine minutes and fifty-four seconds, breaking lap and race records in the process and averaging seventy-nine and one-half miles an hour. Milton was second. Time, 3:7-01. He also broke the lap record, tying De Palma for one round of the course. Murphy was third, Mulford fourth, Eddie O'Donnell fifth.

DePalma won $50,000 for finishing first, the trophy cup and $3,000 additional because he led on each of the thirty laps at $100 each.

SOMETHING NEW COMING IN CANS FOR SARDINES

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Representatives of local fisheries companies who have returned from the Maine sardine canneries districts, state that, owing to the tin can shortage, an innovation is coming in sardine cans. This year for the first time, they say, Maine canners of the tasty little fishes are to use other than the familiar small oblong cans for sardines. They will use both the round salmon cans and the large oblong cans in which kippered herring have heretofore been put up.

The 1920 sardine yield, they announce, will be a large one, but much of it is likely to go to waste unless more cans are forthcoming.

CURSED UNBORN CHILD. CHICAGO MOTHER CHARGES

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—A father's curse on his unborn child is the principal allegation cited in a divorce case in Chicago. Henry L. Hertz, former state treasurer, coroner of Cook county and internal revenue collector for the Chicago district, is the defendant in the action.

That her husband pronounced the curse that "he hoped his baby would be brought into the world without legs or arms," is the claim of Mrs. Hertz, who tells a lurid story of the alleged cruelties inflicted upon her. However, the child was born unaffected by her father's unseemingly wish.

WHEAT FOR EXPORT ABOUT THE SAME AS THAT OF LAST YEAR
CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—There will be 220,000,000 bushels of wheat for export this year, or approximately the same as last year, according to figures prepared by P. S. Goodman, Chicago grain statistician.
This, Mr. Goodman says, is on basis of 938,000,000 bushels for supplies for the United States and a minimum carry over of 50,000,000 bushels. Requirements of Europe and other importing countries last year were 603,000,000 bushels, or 75,000,000 bushels over the previous year. Assuming that the requirements this year are 600,000,000 bushels, Mr. Goodman says the United States and Canada can furnish 290,000,000 bushels, leaving 310,000,000 to be furnished by other countries.
India has 250,000,000 bushels for export, leaving 160,000,000 bushels to be furnished by Argentina and Australia, both of which are reported to have exhausted their surplus. It is stated by members of the Chicago Board of Trade that the outcome of the new crop in these countries will have an effect on wheat prices ultimately. Prices in the world open market have been stabilized to a considerable degree by the law of supply and demand which is governing dealing in wheat futures. Such dealing was resumed in the Chicago Board of Trade last month.

STOLE A CHURCH

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Aug. 28.—Theft of a church worth $1,000 at Milton, W. Va., is charged in an action in circuit court. Phes. Rank, a trustee of the Holiness church of Milton, charges that two other trustees withdrew from the church in a factional split, organized the Church of God and transferred to it the Holiness church building.

COMPLIMENTARY LUNCHEON

Complimentary to her guest, Miss Mildred Forte of Cooper, Texas, Miss Maurine Manell entertained most delightfully with a luncheon on Friday morning at her home on Front street. A few games of "500" were enjoyed before the luncheon hour. The dining room was most attractive, with its softly shaded lights and many colored flowers. A beautifully appointed three-course luncheon was served by the hostess' mother, Mrs. J. W. Manell, assisted by Mrs. L. E. Brown, and Mrs. R. W. Manell. Dainty place cards marked places for the following guests: Misses Addie and Mary Fee, Sarah Maud Benham, Francis Dorsey, Ada and Sarah Lee, Lucile Brown, Lucille McCree, Mary Jane Butts, Norma Patterson, Nova Shelton and Mildred Forte of Cooper, Texas.

HONORING J. A. BASFORD

A most delightful occasion was the Thursday evening event at the home of Miss Maybelle McDaniel, when about thirty of the young people of the Epworth league gave a surprise for J. A. Basford. The pretty home was decorated with the league colors and the moonlit lawn furnished an ideal spot for the games of the evening. During the past year Mr. Basford, who is a talented pianist, has afforded the people of Cisco, and especially the attendants at the Methodist services, much pleasure, and in appreciation of his services, the league attempted to show its gratitude. The many friends of Mr. Basford will regretfully learn of his leaving Cisco to take up his duties in Austin with the state fire insurance commission. In behalf of the church, the Epworth league and the many friends, J. J. Godbey paid a most fitting tribute to Mr. Basford for his unselfish service during his residence in Cisco.

THE MERRY WIVES CLUB

Mrs. A. J. Ward entertained the Merry Wives club Friday afternoon with three tables of "42". The high score fell to Mrs. A. R. St. John. The hostess served cherry ice and cake. The plate favors were lovely pink and white roses. The guests were: Mesdames R. A. St. John, Winchell, Lingle, Charlie Fee, W. W. Moore, Frank Harrell, Guy Ward, Forrest Wright, J. J. Butts, Jean Bell, Fisk and Miss Norma Patterson.

PASTOR AND MRS. HOWARD

Beautiful in its simplicity was the entertainment given Friday evening from 7 to 10 o'clock by Rev. and Mrs. C. G. Howard. It was in the form of an open house, and was the formal opening of the new parsonage, built especially for the new pastor and his wife. The reception rooms were thrown open to form one large room. No decorations were necessary to make the new home lovely.

The guests were given a most cordial welcome by Rev. and Mrs. Howard. This entertainment afforded an excellent opportunity for the pastor and his flock to become better acquainted, as only members of the Baptist church were invited. Music was rendered throughout the evening by Miss Duten at the piano and Mr. J. B. Ely on the violin. The lovely strains of the music blended harmoniously with the gay voices and laughter of the guests.

Mrs. Rose Evans gave a clever toast to the pastor, and upon request, read the toast to the minister's wife that she gave at the reception for Mrs. Howard.

In a most winsome way, little Miss Sarah Stafford gave a humorous reading.

Delicious punch was served by Mesdames Stafford and Buchanan.

Rev. and Mrs. Howard were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Perry and Mr. and Mrs. Skiles.

About one hundred members accepted this invitation and carried away with them a heartfelt appreciation and deeper understanding of the pastor and his wife.

APPLICATION FOR A RAISE IN GAS RATE IS CLOED INCIDENT

So Declared By Mayor After City Attorney's Opinion Showed Company Must File Application and Statement of Property Valuation, Earnings and Operating Expenses Which It May Do Later.

The city commission has decided that the next move in the gas rate controversy is up to the company asking for the increase.

This conclusion was reached at an adjourned meeting of the commission Friday night, after the receipt of the report of the committee, composed of Commissioners Donovan and Blitch, which report included an opinion they had received from the city attorney.

The opinion of the city attorney cited the statute providing how the commission might proceed in regulating rates and also cited the provision of that statute prohibiting the fixing of a rate which would not produce the gas company an income of at least 10 per cent on the value of its property.

The report was received and it being decided that in order for the commission to be enabled to pass upon an application for increasing the gas rate, such application must come from the company asking it, be in tangible form and accompanied by a statement setting forth the value of the applicant's property, employed in supplying the city with gas and a full report of the receipts and operating expenses for the last year, to enable the members of the commission to arrive at a conclusion.

Until this is done, the mayor said, the application for an increase in rates was a closed incident, so far as the commission is concerned. The secretary was instructed to notify the manager of the gas company and to furnish him with a copy of the committee's report, including the opinion of the city attorney.

Shortly after the commission completed some other business coming before it, Manager Campbell of the gas company, appeared and was shown the committee report.

He said he believed the company would willingly make the statement suggested, but that before doing so he desired to confer with the general manager of the company.

Then Mr. Campbell addressed the commission at length, going into the expense of operating a plant, securing gas, the constant demand for extensions and betterments, and insisted that more than a net 10 per cent earning was necessary in a business as hazardous as a gas plant. He said while they have an investment in the plant now of $60,000, it might be $120,000 within a year. That they were doing all they could to meet the demands of the city, that if the city grew they would succeed and if they grew, the city would succeed, they were inseparably interested in the maintenance of the service and an adequate gas supply.

There followed an exchange of assurances of the utmost good feeling between the commission and the company, the mayor saying he believed the commissioners would approach this subject, when it was properly brought before them, with open minds, determined to be fair to both sides.
