INTENSIFIED AIR BATTLES OVER CAUCASUS

Fourteen to Receive Diplomas at College Commencement

Cisco people are fortunate in being able to hear Senator A. M. Aikin, as speaker for Junior College commencement exercises Monday night at high school auditorium, when fourteen seniors will receive their diplomas.

Senator Aikin has been laboring for state aid for the junior colleges of Texas for more than ten years, and when he was finally able to muster sufficient collaboration two years ago to present the bill, it was through his energetic leadership that the wholesome measure was passed.

In addition to his valuable statesmanship, the senator is known over the state as an orator who can hold his audience enthralled. No person in Cisco should miss hearing the visitor, said R. N. Cluck president.

"This is the third commencement exercise to be held for Cisco college, and the community is to be congratulated for its efforts in assisting this institution in its plan for secondary education. Our students come to us from many of the surrounding towns and communities and graduates are showing a higher standard of efficiency each year," said Carlos J. Turner, registrar of the school.

"We are very proud of the record made by our students, several members of the senior class having been called into the armed forces, or have been taken into civil service jobs," Mr. Turner continued.

Graduates.
Those who will receive diplomas are: Yvonne Morris, Lois June Allen, Betty Sue McCandless, Totsy Threatt, Mrs. Charles Pence, Mrs. J. Brown, Lois Donham, Euna Faye Callerman, Anna Kate Blackburn, Wren Threatt, Jack Chambliss, Robert Blackstock, Evan Threatt and Wilburn Gormley.

Program.
Processional — Betty Slicker, Rose Ann Woods, Gloria Graham. Invocation—Rev. C. S. Moad. The "Rosary." "The Swan"—Betty Slicker, Rose Ann Woods, Gloria Graham.

Address—Senator A. M. Aikin. Harp Selection — Mrs. H. E. Dierdorff. Awards—Registrar C. J. Turner. Presentation of Class—Dean O. L. Stamey. Awarding of Diplomas—President R. N. Cluck. Recessional — Betty Slicker, Rose Ann Woods, Gloria Graham.

ROSCOE FOOTBALL PLAYERS MAY VISIT US

Monroe Sweeney, high school football coach, had a letter this week from I. R. Hutchinson, school superintendent at Roscoe, making inquiry regarding our ability to house his football team of 25 men during the last two weeks of August, for pre-school training.

Happily, Cisco has tourist camp service ample to care for the group, and with plenty of facilities for athletic training and recreation to make it an outing valuable from every standpoint.

Few towns are so abundantly provided with facilities for such visitors as is Cisco.

The Presbyterian camp is also a strong attraction for groups of young people seeking recreation, and its management never fails to pinch-hit for the town when added housing at the Lake Cisco is needed.

BOMBER CRASHED.
MIDLAND, May 29.—An army bomber from the Midland Bombardier school crashed and burned 40 miles north of its base Friday, killing the entire crew of five.

CONDITION OF ASA SKILES VERY GRAVE

Mrs. Asa Skiles, at the bedside of her husband in a Fort Worth hospital, stated over the phone Saturday that Mr. Skiles' condition had steadily grown more grave since Friday, and that their son, Rev. Elwin Skiles of Russellville, Ky., had been summoned. Mrs. Skiles' father, Rev. S. B. Parks, had already arrived.

Algie and Otis Skiles, brothers of the sick man, will go to Fort Worth today. Rev. Cooper Waters, Floyd Shepard and W. Frank Walker drove there last night to be with their friend for a few hours. They are expected to return this morning.

LT. M'CRACKEN ORDERED TO ACTIVE DUTY

From the transportation corps, officer candidate school, State College, Miss., comes the following information concerning a well known Cisco boy:

"James P. McCracken, son of Mrs. Elizabeth McCracken, 600 I avenue, Cisco, on May 26 was commissioned second lieutenant, army of the United States, upon graduation from this school, located on the campus of Mississippi State College."

The statement, signed by L. A. Nelson, public relations officer, added that Lieut. McCracken has been ordered to active duty in the newly organized transportation corps of the army of the United States.

Lt. McCracken has arrived in Cisco for a brief visit with relatives and friends. He was accompanied home by his mother, who attended the graduation exercises.

LESLIE SEYMOUR DEAN OF ASSEMBLY

Rev. Leslie Seymour, pastor of First Methodist church, will serve as dean of the young people's summer assembly to be held this week at Glen Lake Methodist camp, near Glen Rose.

Registrants for the assembly are college students, soldiers and sailors on leave, and working girls on vacation.

Dr. Harold Ehrensperger of Nashville, editor of "Motive," a magazine for Methodist youth, is to be the main platform speaker.

The meeting begins Monday and will continue until next Saturday.

ARE ALLIES READY?

LONDON, May 29.—The London News-Chronicle said today that every detail has been worked out for an Allied invasion of Europe, British warships already have taken up strategic positions and the opening of a second front is imminent.

THIS IS AWFUL!

BOSTON, May 29.—Cigarettes are $6 a package, steaks cost $10 and a bottle of Scotch is worth $75 at the Army Transport Base in Northern India, declares Capt. James P. Segel, at home Saturday after a year in the ferry service.

SNUG AS A BUG IN GRAIN—Yank pilots in Iran, delivering planes to Russia, live in portable metal grain storage units. From left: Captains B. R. Seitsinger, Fairfield, Ia.; J. W. Cofer, Louisville, Ky., and R. L. Clayton, Minneapolis.

ALBERT WENDE WRITES SISTER FROM PACIFIC

Albert Wendt, 29, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wendt of near Cisco, a mechanic aboard a ship somewhere in the Pacific, writes an interesting letter to his sister, Emma Lee Wendt. Seaman Wendt is a graduate of Cisco high school and entered the service last October. His wife and baby reside in Austin. Excerpts from the letter:

"I am glad you told Mrs. Irby and Mr. Stamey hello for me. I would like to write to all, but am too busy."

"You know, I am proud of your school for buying those three trainer planes. I think that is fine. If all the schools would do that well, this war would soon be over, which would make us boys happier."

"Now, pray for us and think of me often and write when you can. All my love. Your bud, ALBERT."

VFW POST NO. 3359 THANKS CISCO PEOPLE

E. T. Personett, commander of VFW Post 3359, thanks Cisco people for the success of Poppy Day in the following statement:

"In behalf of Veterans of Foreign Wars, Cisco Post 3359, we want to express our gratitude to Mrs. Irene Hallmark for the splendid success of the Buddy Poppy Sale. The sale of 500 poppies was completed before 11 o'clock, leaving many who were desirous of contributing without receiving the poppy, expressing their patriotic spirit by contributing to this cause."

"We also wish to thank the following who assisted in the sale: Mrs. Paul Poe, Mrs. A. L. Clark, Mrs. E. T. Personett, Misses Gene Grantham, Dorothy Nell Pugh, Evelyn Pippen, Mary Jeanette Poe, Patsy May Wilbanks, Anne Dukes and Anne Fishburne."

"We wish to make special mention of two young women enrolled at the mechanic training school, Anne Dukes and Anne Fishburne; better known to the people of Cisco as Breezy and Dizzy, who volunteered their services. Miss Dukes comes from Orangeburg, S. C., and Miss Fishburne from Hendersonville, N. C."

"We wish to thank Mayor Edward Lee for declaring May 29 Buddy Poppy Day. We express also our appreciation to Nick Miller, who provided headquarters for the sale and the Cisco Daily Press for whole-hearted cooperation during this Buddy Poppy Sale and to the citizens of Cisco for making this so great a success."

SO HELL BE WARM—Royal Flying airmen found this bust of Mussolini in Balbo's palace in Tunisia and are using it as a mascot. Australians came along and put a bright red scarf around his neck "to keep him warm" and somebody contributed a hat. They hope scarf will soon be changed to hemp rope.

CHRISTIE TO N. M. COATS REPORT FOR ADVANCED IN SERVICE SOON HIS RATING

Lt. Robert H. Christie, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Christie, 1400 Bliss avenue, will report for service at New Orleans naval air base on June 11.

Christie, who is at home for a brief visit with family and friends, graduated from the Corpus Christi naval air school on May 22 and is ready for active service with Uncle Sam. The lieutenant volunteered for flight training last June.

EISENHOWER HONORED.

LONDON, May 29.—The Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor has been conferred on Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower of Texas, by Gen. Henri Giraud, the Algiers radio said Saturday.

KREISLER US. CITIZEN.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Two famous personalities of the concert hall and theater, violin virtuoso Fritz Kreisler and ballerina Vera Zorina, became United States citizens today.

STALIN CONFERENCE IS CERTAINTY

WASHINGTON, May 29.—A Stalin-Roosevelt-Churchill conference is now unanimously agreed on, according to best available information. Probably in Russia. Apparently only the date remains to be fixed. Chiang Kai-shek probably will meet with Roosevelt and Churchill, perhaps in the Middle East, before or after the Stalin meeting. But there will probably be a foursome. (China is at war with Japan; Russia is not. Russia and Japan have a treaty of non-aggression. Japan would almost certainly take umbrage if Stalin and the Generalissimo met at a war council).

Creation of Office of War Mobilization seems to confirm that F.D.R. will travel, have less time than ever for domestic affairs, as a result of strategy-conference decisions. OWM was created hurriedly; apparently was known only to Roosevelt, Hopkins, Byrnes until a few hours before it was announced. And the new order is the first in which Roosevelt has delegated so much power.

About that strategy conference: No international gathering has ever been less concerned with protocol, more concerned with hard work. General atmosphere was of rolled-up shirtsleeves. Some critical sessions went all night, with high military men being called from bed to help form history-making policy. Luncheons were usually served over desk tops, dinners were only brief breathing spaces.

Confidential reports from European capitals say Germany's position is worse than outsiders suppose. Not that she's about to crack up. But she's on downgrade. The Nazi war machine is short of gas. Rumanian wells aren't adequate. Polish and other available fields are negligible. Synthetic plants fail to close the gap. Allied bombers have further reduced output just when it was needed to stave off Allied invasion.

Italy's plight is even worse. Some call it desperate. She is dependent on Germany for practically everything, and Germany can't take care of her own needs. So watch the Russian front. Germany must strike soon, while her war machine is stronger than it will ever be again, and before the Allies can strike her.

A. & M. APPOINTMENT.

COLLEGE STATION, May 29.—Dr. T. O. Walton, president of Texas A&M College, announced the appointment of George Barton Wilcox as director of a newly-created student personnel office. Wilcox has been connected with A&M's department of education for more than 20 years. The new program will be the direct point of contact between student, parent and college, Dr. Walton said.

RECOMMENDS SHOOTING.

FORT WORTH, May 29.—Civilians who impede the war effort by strikes should receive the same treatment members of the armed forces would receive were they to strike, a Marine Corps captain who served in World War I told delegates to the United Spanish War Veterans' encampment at Hotel Texas yesterday. "If we were to strike for any reason, we would be shot," Capt. Charles J. Maisel of Dallas told the veterans. "There are a lot of 'citizens' who deserve the same fate."

PLANE AND TANK LOSSES OF BOTH REDS AND NAZIS HEAVY; RED GROUND FORCES ADVANCE

LONDON, May 29.—The Russians today reported the destruction of 66 more German planes for a three-day bag of 197 in intensified air battles over the Caucasus, where German radio broadcasts hinted that Soviet ground forces have blasted out new gains.

Soviet sources still were silent on German reports of a big Russian offensive against the Axis bridgehead around the Black Sea base of Novorossisk, but a Moscow dispatch said that the tempo of aerial fighting was increasing with the Red Air Force successfully frustrating Nazi air attacks on Soviet troop positions and concentrations.

Soviet planes were credited with shooting down 54 planes in dogfights northeast of Novorossisk yesterday and anti-aircraft fire was said to have accounted for 12 more.

The Army organ Red Star said that multi-engined German naval bombers were making night raids on the Soviet positions while Junkers 87 dive bombers spear-headed daylight assaults, attacking in groups of 30 to 50.

The German radio reported that the fury of the Soviet ground assault in the Caucasus abated temporarily following the destruction of 128 Russian planes and 120 tanks in two days.

LEGHORN AND FOGGIA, ITALIAN WAR CENTERS, DELUGED WITH ALLIED HEAVY BOMBS

NORTH AFRICA, May 29.—Big American bombers, defying unfavorable weather, blasted the harbor, oil refinery and three ships at the big Italian port of Leghorn and dumped 80 tons of high explosives on Foggia airfield in record daylight thrusts that carried 200 miles north of Rome.

Reports said almost 100 Flying Fortresses made the attack on Leghorn, third largest Italian port, in their deepest bomber flight into Italy, while another 40 Liberator bombers attacked Foggia in two waves.

"Great damage" was done by the Flying Fortresses at Leghorn, which is one of the largest and most important oil fields in Italy, a submarine base and naval center, a message from Allied headquarters said.

Smoke columns rose so high over the wrecked oil refinery that they could be seen by crewmen when the Fortresses were 100 miles from Leghorn, en route home after shooting down one of 10 Axis fighters that attacked them. No American planes were lost on the flight which encountered little serious opposition as a result of steady blasting of Italian aerial defenses in recent days.

Fires and explosions broke out over the industrial area of Leghorn, the pilots reported, and two especially large explosions were seen in the refinery sector, followed by four more blasts as the fires spread among oil installations.

DESTROY AXIS GUNBOATS.
LONDON, May 29.—Fleet air arm Albacore planes destroyed six enemy gunboats and damaged three more in the English channel off the Chabourg Peninsula, a message announced today.

TURKNETT OF EASTLAND CO. HAD COURAGE

PACIFIC NORTHWEST ARMY HOSPITAL, May 29.—Wounded American soldiers returning from combat on Attu Island today told of the part played in the landing of Massacre Bay by Pvt. John E. Turknett, 23, of route 2, Eastland.

Private Turknett faced withering Japanese crossfire, emptying his gun despite suffering wounds. After he had no more bullets to fire, he walked a mile to a dressing station. A bullet struck his wallet, but didn't damage the picture of the home folks he was carrying.

CHINESE ATTACKING.

CHUNGKING, May 29.—Japanese bombers pacing the enemy's westward offensive, raided Liangshan, 110 miles east of Chungking, today as Chinese aircraft were reported maintaining steady attacks in support of ground troops fighting bitterly along the Yangtze river.

YANKS MOPPING UP.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—American troops on Attu today continued their drive to wipe out the two remaining pockets of Japanese resistance on the island by mopping up a series of high ridges where the enemy was firmly entrenched.

KEEP FAITH.

Memorial Day finds so much more to remember than ever before! Heroes by thousands are now to be commemorated, who were living and laughing a short year ago.

Heroes of the American Revolution come first. Then those of the minor wars between Revolution and Civil War, whose crop of heroes on both sides was so large. The Spanish-American war also had its gay, brave lads who went down fighting for human freedom. It is sad but wholesome to remember that more died in that war from profiteering and bad management than from gunfire. The United States profited by that unhappy knowledge in World War I. In this war, departments of food, medicine and supply are doing magnificently. So we do learn.

In the last war, heroes again gave up lives by thousands. Today we add to the long rolls the boys of Bataan, of the Coral Sea, of Guadalcanal, of North Africa—of all lands and seas where Americans have gone gallantly to glory.

We have to remember, also, great duties and high responsibilities, to God, to our nation, to the world of today and of the future. Because of our love for our boys who are gone, and who must yet go, because of our firm trust in the ideals which engender a free, happy, creative humanity, because of our hope for a better world, because of our strong sense of duty, we shall keep faith with our dead.

On this Memorial Day we pledge that faith to our nation and to our men and women in the fighting forces. We must keep the faith—and we shall.

SAVING.

"Many a mickle makes a muckle" is a Scotch proverb, and it's the Scotch who have the reputation for that little extra thrift which saves pennies to make pounds. But the Welsh can save them, too. There's the little boy in Wales who heard over the radio that the Savings Campaign had reached the total of a billion pounds—roughly equal to $4,443,000,000. "Well," he remarked, "They wouldn't have reached that if it hadn't been for my shilling."

The English, however, are not to be outdone. There's the little girl in Kent who had just bought her weekly penny stamp—which viewed by comparative standards would be more like the nickel the American child spends for his candy bar or the dime for his War Savings Stamp. Her teacher asked, "Do you know Lord Kindersley wants us to save another 50,000,000 pounds in three weeks?" "Oh well," said the little girl, "I'd better have another pennyworth."

It's easy to smile as British children put pennies and shillings into great funds of millions of pounds, or as American children drop dimes and quarters into our incredible totals. But all the shillings, pennies, dimes and quarters are needed. And the savings of children count most. For they are learning how to share with their own country and with children suffering in other lands.

The Greeks have a word for it. One of their sayings is, "Better live an hour as a free man than 40 years as a slave."

DAWDLING.

It is strange that congress, which has handled the nation's vast war bills promptly and cooperatively, should snarl itself up so badly with regard to income tax legislation. The lawmakers have dodged along, hesitating and arguing and postponing, week after week and month after month, until the public wonders whether it will ever get an income tax bill and know what its obligations are going to be. The people seem willing to accept almost any reasonable tax bill. They know taxes must be heavy, in order to maintain the national credit at a time of vast war expenditure. Broadly speaking, they have the money and are ready to pay. Yet while congress has dawdled and fumbled, a good deal of money has been slipping through people's fingers, going not to useful and safe purposes but to lavish expenditure that starts inflation.

People are beginning to complain that, in matters of domestic policy and action, congress acts as if it were paralyzed. Such futility is dangerous, because it tends to spread a spirit of hesitancy and incompetence. War time demands action, and sometimes it is safer even to act unwisely than not to act at all.

RUSSIA.

Soviet propaganda in the capitalist countries had been lessening in recent years, so that, more and more, Communism seemed a bugaboo rather than a serious menace to nations like the British and Americans. Nevertheless it remained one of the major obstacles to cooperation and confidence between absolutist Russia and the democracies.

So a wave of relief has swept through the democracies since the announcement at Moscow that the Communist International was abolished. If this declaration is observed in good faith, as presumably it will be, the last important barrier between the allied democracies and the Soviet government is removed. That barrier was the maintenance of subversive Communist activities by Russia in countries opposed to the Communist system.

It is a relief all round to have Russia itself taking the initiative in this historic action. From now on, although government in Russia is still centralized in one man or group of men, that great nation assumes a governmental form considerably closer to the republican ideal.

It is also a definite reminder to the world that the official name of the Russian governmental system is the "Union of Soviet Socialist Republics." Russia is evidently, taking a big step toward living up to its title. And perhaps true republics, operating directly through representative rather than centralized government, may expect Russia to reach this ideal in due time.

PLANTIN' AND PANTIN'

I chose a spot by my kitchen door
And worked the ground till my arms were sore;
I pushed the fork and I pulled the rake
Till I thought for sure my back would break.

The roots from my neighbor's tree were tough,
The dirt was hard and the rocks were rough;
I dug old cans from beneath the earth—
Enough to relieve the salvage dearth.

(I pause to think how I'd like to quit
And gather the worms to fish a bit,
And wonder why they were never there
When to fish I had the time to spare.)

At last I'd fashioned with fork and hoe
A rival for Eden row on row,
Then I volleyed forth with double speed
To put my money in garden seed.

I'm tired of limb and broken of frame
But my garden's finished just the same
And whether my labor's lost or not
At least I've planted my Victory plot.

—J. L. WILKERSON.

CHURCHES

Grace Lutheran.
Sunday school and Bible class 10 a. m. Morning worship 11 o'clock. Subject of the sermon: "The Glorious Ascension of Christ." Lutheran Hour over Mutual network at 3 p. m. We cordially invite you to come and worship with us. W. H. SYMANK, Pastor.

First Methodist.
Constant, unrelieved attention to business matters bends and may even warp one's mind in that direction. Looking at life always from a secular standpoint gives one a materialistic conception of all that happens in the world. Going to church relieves the pressure of the secular world that bears upon us daily. There is more in life than business or food or wealth or the war. Worship helps keep alive in us the consciousness of this very real element of living and enables us to sustain the sense of wonder in God's great creation. You are invited to share in our worship each Sunday. Sunday school meets at 9:45. The services in the sanctuary is at 10:50. We join with the other churches of Cisco for the baccalaureate service at the high school at 8 o'clock tonight. LESLIE SEYMOUR, Minister.

Presbyterian.
9:45 a. m. Sunday school. 11 a. m. Sermon by the pastor. Subject: "God Against Sectarianism." Special music and congregational singing. 7 p. m., Young People's League. 8 p. m. we will join with the other churches in the baccalaureate service in high school auditorium. GARY L. SMITH, Pastor.

First Baptist.
All will find a welcome at our church; special recognition is given service men, women ordnance workers and out-of-town visitors. Services for the week are as follows: Sunday school, 9:45; morning worship, 11; training union, 7:30. There will be no evening worship on account of high school baccalaureate sermon at the high school auditorium. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 8, with men of the church in charge. Bob Walker will lead the program. COOPER WALTERS, Pastor.

You no longer hear a man bragging about being a good cook. He's afraid you'll think he does it while the old lady runs a machine.

Repentance without amendment, is like continually pumping without mending the leak.—Dilwyn.

By this time next year we'll be producing 1,000 big bombers a month, but there may be no Nazi targets left to use them on.

God hath promised pardon to him that repenteth, but he hath not promised repentance to him that sinneth.—Anselm.

The only thing worse than a striker is the bullheaded tyrant employer who goads men into striking.

We've got to elect abler men. If these can't even plan a tax measure, how will they deal with a 500-billion debt?

MRS. H. A. MOORE HOSTESS AT PARTY.

Mrs. H. A. Moore entertained members of Goodwill Rebekah lodge Thursday night with a party at her home in Humboldt. A number of lively games were enjoyed and delicious refreshments were passed by the hostess.

Members present were Mrs. J. A. Jensen, Mrs. Ben Krauskopf, Mrs. Troy Powell, Mrs. W. C. Clements, Mrs. L. B. Mayhew, Mrs. Whitaker, Mrs. Edith Rainbolt, Mrs. W. S. DeRossett and Mrs. H. A. Moore.

FAMILY GROUP MUSIC AT CLUB MEET.

"Music In the Home" was the topic discussed when Cisco Music Lovers' club met Wednesday morning, with Mrs. J. A. Jensen and Mrs. Ben Krauskopf as hostesses in the Jensen home, 1410 N. avenue.

The program, of which Mrs. S.

E. Hittson was leader, was carried out as follows: "Madame Sabourin's Musical Family," was discussed by Mrs. Krauskopf; Mrs. J. E. Waters was presented in a vocal solo, "Maytime," by Olej Speaks; The "Jonassyns" (Johnsons), by Mrs. Alex Spears. An illustration of family group music was given by Mrs. Jensen and her daughters. Mrs. Jensen played the accordion, Mrs. John Kleiner played the piano, Mrs. Ben Krauskopf, the violin and Mrs. Troy Powell the cello.

MRS. LEON McPHERSON HOSTESS TO D. O. CLUB.

The Double Octet anniversary club held the covered dish luncheon of the month in the home of Mrs. Leon McPherson, Thursday. Decorations of cut flowers adorned the living room and the two large dining tables, where guests were seated while eating, held attractive centerpieces portraying victory gardens. The meal was served buffet style and invocation was given by Mrs. Warren Hall. Special guests of the occasion were Mrs. Joe Holleran of San Antonio, Mrs. Warren Hall recently of El Paso, Anna Lake and Mike Waters and Misses Mary Philpott and Mary Prudence Harris.

Following luncheon a program was presented in which Mary Philpott gave a clever reading and Anna Lake Waters sang two hymns. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in knitting for the Red Cross.

Those attending were Mrs. Joe Holleran, Mrs. Mary Abbott, Mrs. Warren Hall, Mrs. Cooper Waters, Mary Prudence Harris, Mrs. J. R. Burnett, Mrs. W. D. Hazel, Mrs. Willie Bogan Dunn, Mrs. Barton Philpott and daughter Mary, Mrs. W. D. Brecheen, Mrs. F. E. Sheppard, Mrs. Mack Stephens, Mrs. W. L. Ghorney, Mrs. W. Frank

Walker, Miss Willie Frank Walker and Mrs. McPherson.

THEATER PARTY FOR PATRICIA STOCKARD.

Mrs. Edward Lee entertained a number of children Thursday afternoon with a theater party honoring her niece, Patricia Ann Stockard of Magnolia, Ark. The group met at the Lee home and went to the playhouse in a body.

At the conclusion of the afternoon feature Mrs. Lee came for the children and served them refreshments of ice cream. Favors of jumping ropes were presented to the girls and sets of marbles to the boys. The guest list included Patricia

ISSUANCE SPECIAL SUGAR ORDERS STOP

Issuance of sugar permits for canning purposes has been temporarily suspended in Cisco following government instructions to the county board and the announcement that coupons 15 and 16 are now good for five pounds each to stamp book holders.

Since this will give each person entitled to sugar a total of ten pounds, it is thought this will be sufficient for the present.

However, numbers of people called at the chamber of commerce building Friday and Saturday, being unaware of the new order.

At least we have learned that senile sullenness, vanity, petty politics and pouting over hurt feelings can't produce a tax bill.

Most people long to be young again, but they don't do anything about it. All you need is to have honeysuckle at your doorway.

Another explanation of "juvenile delinquency" is general acceptance of the idea that chastity is old-fashioned and queer.

Congratulations to THE GRADUATES of 1943 To the Graduates of Cisco Public Schools and of Cisco Junior College! "MY COUNTRY 'TIS OF THEE, SWEET LAND OF LIBERTY..." Thousands of boys and girls — young men and young women — will graduate this month in schools all over the country. Some will look forward to more education... some will take up tools... others will start careers and professions. Each turning a page in the book of life... Each will begin writing in that new page. What will it be? "WE, THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES IN ORDER TO FORM A MORE PERFECT UNION..." George Washington was a well educated man... but high school students of today are presented with vaster fields of learning than were available to anyone in Washington's time. But Washington was great then... and would be great today... because he could THINK, PERCEIVE, EVALUATE AND ACT! He learned more from life than he did from books. So did Abraham Lincoln... a great man without formal education. So can today's graduates... that from which they graduate... a school... is intended to prepare them for learning from life. WORLD CONDITIONS NECESSITATE AND PRODUCE ACTION AND REACTION, DEFENSE AND OFFENSE, WAR AND PEACE, PROSPERITY AND DEPRESSION... Great problems lie before the graduates of 1943. To some, further preparation is necessary before tackling them... of hers find themselves on the long road that leads to future responsibilities... in business... in government... in social activity. There's a challenge for every student... a problem to be solved... mistakes to be corrected... errors to be avoided. There's something that needs licking... something that only one person can lick. It may be a personal problem... but each personal problem affects a national problem... this is a big country... there's plenty to do. Cisco Gas Corporation
