Loboes To Take On Ranger Bulldogs In Homecoming Game

The Cisco High School Loboes will take on the Ranger Bulldogs Friday night before a homecoming crowd at Chesley Field in a District 10-AA battle. Kickoff will be at 7:30 p.m. and the game will climax the annual homecoming events for Cisco High School.

Following Saturday night's 42-12 rout over the Bangs Dragons, Cisco is now 3-2 in District play and 5-3 for the season. Ranger, on the other hand, has yet to win a game this year with a 0-5 District record and 0-8 for the season. The Bulldogs have only scored 13 points this year and seven of those came in their 47-7 loss last week to the Eastland Mavericks.

Reflections In Perspective COMMERCE By I. Will Ussery

Systems of Criminal Justice vary widely from country to country. As mentioned elsewhere in this piece, there are some cultures in which the arresting officer seems to have unlimited authority. Likewise, "police brutality" appears to be an over-simplified term in our vocabulary andused to include a variety of abuses of the rights of the suspect, or the

On a tiny sand-spit of an island off the coast of Iran, named "Khargu" and alongside the route of a submarine pipeline connecting the mainland and the larger loading terminal island of Kharg we established a base for the construction of yet another pipeline to Kharg Island. The islet of Khargu is not inhabited. It was less than half a mile wide and perhaps two miles in length. There was a single banyan tree near the westerly end of the island, and at its highest ridge Khargu rose a little more than eight feet above extreme high tide. Strangely enough, it was necessary to maintain strict security against pilferage from the two camps (staff and labour) and from the shops and warehouse.

The Chief of Security was a member of the National Gendarmerie, the uniformed national police force of Iran. Apparently of Turkish extraction, although I suspected him of being Kurdish, he was called by everyone "El Turko". El Turko was assisted by a number of guards and patrolmen whom he recruited from the mainland.

We were never able to clear it entirely, but it seems that an element of rivalry developed among Turko's "troops". Some articles were stolen from the motor maintenance shop, and one of the night patrolmen fingered El Turko as having been the mastermind.

The entire matter was handled by the police from the port of Bushire, who held jurisdiction over the island. It seems that the charges were made in the port by one of the guards who was there on one of his off duty days. El Turko was placed under arrest by a boat-load of his fellow gendarmes. The only explanation given the heathen Americans was that "El Turko is a thief".

Now El Turko was well-liked around the staff camp. A robust, handsome sort of man, and with a very military bearing, El Turko sported a luxuriant moustache which he kept groomed, waxed and pointed at all times.

After some two weeks' absence, El Turko was returned to Khargu by a delegation of the Gendarmerie, headed by a lieutenant who explained that the suspect had been cleared of any and all charges and that he could again be entrusted with the responsibilities of Security Chief. El Turko was all smiles.

But he was smooth-shaven! In efforts to wring a confession from El Turko, the Bushire Port Police had removed his pride and joy...that handsome moustache. With tweezers. One hair at a time. Makes me shudder to contemplate such treatment. And El Turko stood just a bit taller in our estimation for the duration of the job. And he grew another 'tache. Just as handsome as the first. And he never complained of having had his civil or constitutional rights violated.

The original accusor was conspicuously absent from the project, though. Rumours were that in the course of their investigations the police had discovered that he was the real culprit, all along.

Texas Electric Sponsors Tour For AARP Members

On Monday, October 27, before 8 a.m. forty AARP members gathered at the Texas Electric Service Company's Reddy Room to board a Greyhound bus for a most enjoyable and informative excursion. Several members had worked untireingly to organize the trip. They were Hub and Connie Lewis, Polk and Daisy Valliant, Mr. and Mrs. Til Harbin and Henry and Ruby Hite.

Our very able tour guide was Mr. Emmett Lasater, who attended to every detail to make this a perfect trip to the Big Brown Steam Electric Station at Fairfield, Texas.

As we traveled down Highway 6 in the comfortable bus there was never a dull moment. Mr. Floyd Burke, Mr. Hub Lewis and Mr. Dave Fambrough led us in group singing. Mr. Lasater kept us laughing with his sparkling wit and humor. And, of course, there was food - doughnuts, Texassize cinnamon rolls and cold drinks furnished by our generous host, Texas Electric.

Our trip was interrupted briefly while we changed buses at the Greyhound bus yard in Waco due to malfunctioning air conditioner on the original one.

Along with the fun was also learning. After a delicious buffet lunch at Sam's Restaurant in Fairfield, we motored to the electric plant, the reason for our trip. Here we were shown first hand how lignite coal is converted into electricity for a large area of North, East, Central and West Texas. We were also privileged to see the mining process and to view acres of land that had been restored after the strip mining.

We returned to Eastland with a much deeper appreciation for the foresight of leaders such as men of Texas Electric Service who are finding fuel replacements for the future when our supplies of present-

Dr. Ayres Cermin Is Recertified As ABFP Diplomate

Kansas City, Mo .-- Dr. Ayres R. Cermin of Cisco has been recertified as a diplomate of the American Board of Family Practice (ABFP) as a result of passing a recertification examination offered by the ABFP. He thus maintains his specialist status in the medical speciality of family practice.

ABFP diplomates must continue to show proof of competence in the field of comprehensive, continuing care of the family by being recertified every six years. No other medical speciality requires diplomates to prove competence on a continuing

The written examination is designed to prove the candidate's continuing competence in the various components of family practiceinternal medicine, surgery, obstetrics and gynecology, pediatrics, psychiatry and community medicine.

To qualify initially for certification a physican must have successfully completed three years of residency training in family practice and passed an intensive 2-day certification examination. There are some 382 residency training programs in teaching hospitals and university medical centers across the United States.

There now are more than 24,000 diplomates of the speciality, each of whom must be recertified within seven years of initial certification. Most are members of the Academy of Family Physicians, the national association of family doctors. The Academy was the first national M.D. group to require members to take continuing medical study, and was chiefly responsible for securing status for family practice.

A fine ball game was enjoyed by all. Coach Wilcoxen's red flags chose the name of Wolves and Coach McMillan's gold team chose the name of Hawks.

The Wolves put their first score on the board when Steve Abbott took a pitch out from quarterback Jarrod Jeffcoat and scampered around right end for a TD. The extra point failed.

The group flew out of Dallas on October 14 for Los Angeles where they boarded a Pan AM 747 that flew first to Tokyo and then to Hong Kong where they spent a day and a half of touring and where, Mr. Heidenheimer said, you can have a suit of clothing or a pair of slices made while you wait.

From Hong Kong, the group flew to Canton for a day and to Hang Chow for another day. They took a train to Shanghai where they spent two days, to Nanking for a day and to Peiping for five days.

The great wall of China is a 40-mile trip from Peiping. While is has been rebuilt, its condition is pretty bad, the Ciscoan noted. He learned that the Wall is the world's largest cemetery for an average of 5,000 people died and were buried in each mile of the Wall during its con-

The cold, windy weather during the Wall visit gave both Mr. and Mrs. Heidenheimer bad colds. His required a doctor when they got back to Hong Kong and it cost him 600 Hong Kong dollars. The weather was from 90 to 100 degrees in the south to freezing in the struction centuries ago.

In Canton for two days, the group's visit was highlighted by a tour of the University of Nanking. Here, students of English language classes were guides for the Americans. They asked as many or more questions about the United States as the Americans did about China, Mr. Heidenheimer

The Chinese students seemed concerned about presidential candidate Ronald Reagan because of his statements about Tiawan, he said. They were also puzzled about the United States' acceptance of President Marcos of the Philippine Islands. Everywhere they went the Texans found English speaking people. Chinese students told about listening regular to Voice of America radio broadcasts.

What impressed them most? Mr. Heidenheimer said it was the vast numbers of people everywhere they went and looked and by the many, many bicycles. In Nanking, for example, there are 9,000,000 people and 3,000,000 bicycles. Streets have lanes for cars plus lanes for bike riders.

How about the food? It was from bad to excellent. The breads weren't anything to write home about.

A three-hour tour of Shanghai harbor was really eye opening for they found that half of all of China's commerce enters and departs here.

Virtually all land outside the cities is farmed and you see from five to 20 people in every field as virtually all work is done by hand. Principal crops are rice, cabbage and beans. Water buffalo and donkeys constitute most of the animals you see. They were impressed by the fact that they could come and go at will, which wasn't the case a year or two ago when they visited Russia.

It was a tiring but informative trip that the Cisocans found very rewarding.

Deer Hunting

UVALDE - Football may soon have serious competition.

In a few weeks, deer hunters all across the state will relinquish their roles as armchair quarterbacks to renew their annual quest for freshly stocked freezers and handsome wall mounts. Many, however, will be on their first big game hunt and may be somewhat confused over the inordinate amount of hunting paraphernalia to choose from.

So, before taking to the countryside, it's a good idea for all hunters to make sure they have acquired adequate equipment and found it to be in good working order, says Dr. Dwight Guynn, a wildlife specialist based in Uvalde with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. First and foremost is the selection of firearms assuming, of course, that leases and licenses have been rifle with sufficient caliber (firepower) for a quick, humane kill. He says it's important to match valiber with one's physical size and shooting experience. Hence, large, heavier men can probably handle larger caliber rifles more accurately than small, petite women.

The most popular deer rifles used today are .243, .270, .30/06 and .30/30 calibers. Selection, of course, varies according to hunting preference, but inexperienced or beginning hunters can choose between these widely used models in good confidence.

Selecting the type rifle "action" depends on the kind of hunting one expects to do. In heavy brush for shots at close range (100 yards or less), a fast handling rifle with pump, lever action or semi-automatic may be appropriate. Guynn says a bolt action rifle is most often considered for open country requiring long accurate shots.

Scope selection, often a critical factor in the successful hunt, is influenced significantly by the terrain. For open country with long distance shooting, Guynn suggests a six-to eight-power scope. Under heavy cover with close shots, an open sight or two-power scope is usually all that's needed. A four-power scope is popular because of all-around versatility. Variable power scopes such as the 2x-7x and 3x-9x are also versatile.

Binoculars are a highly underrated item that many hunters often neglect to include in their gear. It allows the hunter to identify parts of deer in heavy brush surroundings and distinguish bucks from does in dim light situations. Guynn says the 7 x 35 binoculars (7 power with 35mm objective lens) are the most common type used.

With so many knives on the market today, selecting the proper hunting knife can be confusing. Guynn says a five-inch blade is plenty large for dressing purposes. For skinning only, a curved blade is well suited. Top quality steel knives are usually more expensive than economy models but hold their sharp edge and are more durable.

Boots, too, are integral parts of the hunter's regalia. Guynn recommends comfortable boots that are well broken in. Vibram or crepe soles, he says, are good choices for providing good footing. Slick leather soles are fine for dancing to the "Cotton Eyed Joe" or 'Faded Love' after the hunt but are inappropriate and dangerous while in the deer stand. Also, choose boots large enough to allow for heavy wool socks in cold weather, the specialist says. Clothes may well "make the man" (or woman) in the business world but not on a deer hunt. Guynn prefers the MAINTAIN STOPPING DISTANCE 'layered approach' with sweater, vest and light jacket which can be easily removed or added as temperatures change during the day. Bright colors that can be easily detected by deer are to be avoided. Even though deer are color blind, they easily spot differences in color intensity such as white or bright yellow. Instead, wear muted colors such as greens, browns, camouflage, dull reds or red and black check which blend with brush cover. Guynn says blaze orange may be worn as a saftey precaution where heavy hunting pressure exists.

Soft-textured clothing permits quiet movement for stalking prey. Brush scraping against stiff canvas pant legs can alarm deer as can the "swish-swish" sound of pant lets rubbing together as the hunter walks.

SMOKE YOUR OWN BIRD

Smoking or curing poultry at home goes back to a bygone era, but it can still be done without a lot of "back-breaking" work.

The result can be a delicious smoked bird, says Dr. James H. Denton, poultry marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

All that is needed to cure and smoke poultry at home is a curing vat, a small scale, curing ingredients, ice, a smoker and a hypodermic

A curing vat can simply be an insulated cooler or ice chest. Curing ingredients can usually be purchased from a local co-op or locker plant. Brown sugar cure can be used and is usually available in grocery stores.

To begin, mix the curing solution as follows:

- 5 gallons of water - 12-pound of saltpeter (sodium nitrite)

- 4-12 pounds of salt

- 34-pound of sugar If brown sugar cure is used, dissolve 5 pounds of the ready-mix ingredients in 4 gallons of water. Substitute ice for part of the water to chill the solution to 34-36 degrees F., advises Denton. Next, weigh the bird to be cured. Then inject 10 percent of the body weight of curing solution using a hypodermic needle. This distributes the brine uniformly in the muscles.

cess, place the bird in the chest) filled with the remainder of the brine and add a small amount of additional ice to insure a temperature of 34-36 degrees F.

Remove the bird after 48 hours in the curing solution and drain thoroughly (about 15 minutes), recommends Denton. Be sure there are no brine pockets in the body cavity. Place the bird in the smoker when it's nearly dry.

Any type of backyard cooker that will hold the temperature between 170-200 degrees F. is suitable for a smoker. A 55-gallon drumtype smoker works well, says the specialist. A small fire, such as one of charcoal, is needed to generate the heat. For smoke, use some type of green wood, such as green hickory, pecan or oak.

Keep smoking the bird until it takes on a light-brown pecan color. This usually takes 8-12 hours for turkeys and 4-6 hours for chickens. The bird is done when the muscle temperature reaches 162 degrees F. or when a slight twist will loosen the drumstick, says Denton.

A turkey or chicken will shrink about 20 percent with this smoking and cooking process. The finished product is completely cooked and will keep in the refrigerator for two weeks. Of course, it can be frozen for longer storage.

Farmers Home Administration added $837

million to Texas's Rural Financial Resources

Temple, Texas received $837 million during fiscal year in 1980 in loans and grants by the U.S. Department of Agriculture Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) supporting farms, home improvement and community development in rural areas, FmHA State Director, W.H. Pieratt, reports.

The agency's farm loan services, which supplement private credit available in rural areas, added $524 million to Texas's resources for operation of farms during a year of emergency and commercial credit shortage for many farmers.

FmHA home loan programs accounted for $134 million to build or improve 3,847 homes in town and countryside areas.

Loans and supplementary grants to improve rural community water, sewer, health, fire protection and other public facilities totaled $78 million for 164 projects throughout the state.

FmHA's service in guaranteeing commercial loans for business and industry that employ rural people accounted for $101 million in the year ended September 30.

The Eastland FmHA office, which serves Callahan, Eastland Stephens counties, provided $3,940,230 for the various loans in fiscal year 1980. W.H. Pieratt said FmHA's improvement as a multi-purpose rural financial agency, serving rural localities through county and district offices, has resulted in $1.75 billion more farm credit and community development in rural Texas during the past two years.

The state director emphasized that FmHA has been given a lead responsibility in the system introduced this year to coordinate the Federal Government's rural development assistance with goals adopted in local and regional areas of the states.

"This action to implement the Rural Development Act has provided a clear channel of communication from localities, through their state development organizations, to highest levels of Washington for finding resources to meet the greatest needs of rural areas," W.H. Pieratt said. Pieratt added, "We expect to further improve this system of cooperation during the coming year".

published August 1972) SCIENTIST PROVES

SCRIPTURE Ivan Panin (1855-1942) an exiled Russian Mathemetician has discovered that the Bible is built upon a mathematical framework impossible for man to counterfeit! Panin states that both the OLD AND THE NEW TESTAMENTS WERE DIRECTED BY THE SAME MIND-A MIND FAR GREATER THAN THAT OF MAN...

Panin, a scholar and lecturer from Harvard University converted from agnosticism to Christianity after finishing college. An ardent student of the classics, as well as the literature of other religions, he applied his discovery to these other writings.

NO SYSTEM NUMERICS WAS FOUND TO BE IN ANY FAMOUS WRITING OTHER THAN THE BIBLE!

The New Testament was written in Greek, and the Old Testament in Hebrews, but neither language has separate symbols for expressing numbers, but uses instead, the letters of their alphabets. Panin discovered that both the Old and New Testament original manuscripts are full of patterns of sevens, such as: the number of words divided consonant words by sevens, so were their number of letters divided between vowels and consonants by sevens. According to Panin, "THERE IS NOT A PARAGRAPH IN THE BI-BLE THAT IS NOT CON-

(From Beautiful Feet", STRUCTED ON A SIMILAR NUMBERICAL SCHEME!"

> Even if men had the skill to construct the 66 books of the Bible, thus, the construction of even a single book would in nearly all cases require some hundreds of years. As no man or group of men could write books thus, the only rational explanation for the phenomena-is that the writers were guided by a superior mathematical mind--the mathematical author of nature and the universe . . . This also proves the verbal inspiration of the Scriptures as a whole, in every part thereof, even to its letters in the original languages. It is impossible to explain these phenomena by an assumption that the different Bible writers had an understanding among themselves as to the production of these numerics. SOME OF THE BIBLE WRITERS WERE AS MUCH AS 16 CENTURIES APART! And the skill required for carrying out such numeric schemes even for any one book of the 66 books of the Bible is superhuman! Even with modern-day computers

it is unlikely that such a book

could be produced. When the odds against anything "merely happening" run to even a million, it is highly improbable that it JUST HAPPENED; but when they run into the hundred millions, it is held as practically certain, that no mere chance was at work. In Bible Numerics the chances against these coincidences are some BILLION MILLIONS TAKEN A MILLION TIMES! Rational men do not even think of ascribing it to chance. You cannot argue with mathematics-the Bible was written under the guidance and inspiration of GOD! NUMERICS WERE NOT FOUND IN THE SEP-TUAGINT NOR IN THE

APOCRYPHA! But the Scripture cannot be broken. Ivan Panin's Numerics may be found in EVERY PARAGRAPH of the Bible, in both the Old Testament in Hebrew, and in the New Testament in Greek, and NOWHERE ELSE! Numerics interlock paragraph with paragraph, book with book; and the Old Testament with the New Testament. It separates the Bible for all time from all literature in existence!

Here is an illustration of Ivan Panin's Numerics: The Bible begins: "In the beginning God created the Heavens and the Earth." The number of words in this verse in the original Hebrew is-seven. These seven words have 28 letters or 4 sevens. These 28 letters are thus divided: the first 3 wordscontaining the subject and the predicate of the sentence, "In the beginning God created"-having 14 letters, or 2 sevens; the last 4 words-containing the object of the sentence: "the heavens and the earth"-have also 14 letters. While the last four words, consisting of two objects are in their turn subdivided thus; the fourth and fifth words-containing one object, "the heavens"--have seven letters; the sixth and seventh words-containing the second object, "and the earth" have also seven. In relation to the importance of the words themselves the 28 letters are thus divided: the 3 leading words: GOD, the subject, HEAVEN, EARTH, the two objects, have 14 letters, or 2 sevens; the other four words have also 14. PANIN'S VERSION OF THE NEW TESTAMENT IS NOW IN PRINT

Panin has published a Greek and an English text of the New Testament using the version of all "disputed passages" which provides correct numeric patterns. Because of the design which permeates the Bible, he was able to ascertain which of the thousands of unsettled readings were the correct ones, and which passages suspected or rejected by other textual critics, were part of the orginial writings.

Mr. Panin's publications include "Bible Chronology," "The Writings of Ivan Panin," "The Last Twelve Verses of Mark: Their Genuineness Established", and many booklets on the numeric phenomena of the Bible.

1980 marks the one hundredth anniversary of farming in Eastland County for the Johnson family of Desdemona.

It was 1880 when Jeremiah (Jerry) Sanford Johnson, his wife Martha Elizabeth and children came from Tarrant County and settled northeast of Desdemona. The Johnsons had been farming in Texas for over 30 years before coming to Eastland County. In addition to bringing all their possessions they drove a herd of steel dust horses to provide the power for farm-

Jerry Johnson was born in Georgia in 1821 and his wife Martha was born in 1835 in South Carolina. Their oldest son, George W., was born in Alabama in 1845 before coming to Texas. After he family arrived in Texas five more children were born - Nany in 1851, Henerietta A. in 1871, J.S., Jr. in 1873 and the youngest, Toby Lee in 1875. The Johnson's began farming by renting land near Desdemona, and two years later purchased the 160 acres of land they had been renting. This land is still owned by their grandchildren and great grandchildren.

The youngest son of Jerry Johnson, Toby Lee, stayed on the land and farmed it as did his son Doyl. Doyl's sons Paul, Roy and Clyde continue to farm in the Desdemona area and grandson Greg, now a student at Texas Tech, plans to continue in the Johnson tradition of farming.

Doyl and his wife Lucille, now retired, have five other grandchildren Paula grew up and knew farm work first hand, when she entered Tarleton University three yers ago. Toni, Brent, Brad and Kristi continue to help with farm and garden work and will probably carry on the Johnson farming in the Desdemona area.

Other land was settled by the Johnsons in 1883 and is now owned by Doyl and operated by his son Clyde. Clyde is owner of Johnsons Seed and Fertilizer Store in Eastland County. Roy, another of Doyl's sons, is an outstanding farmer in the Desdemona area. Roy is a State Director Program Building Committee.

Today the Johnsons use modern, efficient methods to produce cattle, peanuts and Mrs. Johnson says that after years of working from sun up until sun down and sometimes all night to save the crops, it is rewarding to retire and just enjoy life. This gave her time to check the records and do research on the family history. Two other members of the family assisted her with the research. They are Mrs. James A. (Jenny) Hawkins of LaPort, Texas and Mrs. Lois Hawkins Dart of Hartford. Arkansas.

'Retirement means you have time to enjoy the grandchildren'', Mrs. Johnson says and "take them on hikes through the woods, enjoy the beautiful flowers, birds, and animals such as wild turkeys and deer." "Also it gives us time to teach the younger generations to love the land that our forefathers fought and died for" she says. With that kind of training there will probably be Johnsons farmers near Desdemona for the next two or three hundred years.

DID HE MAKE any pictures while they were in China recently, we asked Mr. Winston Heidenheimer. local merchant. Yep, 612 - 17 rolls of 36 pictures each.

The Heidenheimers got home last Friday night at around 3 a.m. and their luggage arrived here by bus at noon Monday . . . "Did you enjoy my vacation" is what Mr. WH asked employees at the Heidenheimer store. And the answer was ves.

Have they been everywhere or is there another vacation in the works? No and yes. They're booked next spring for a trip on the Norweigan passenger liner that recently spent 24 hours dead in the water.

THE ANNUAL Bazaar staged last Friday and Saturday by the ladies of the First Christian Church was a real good success. While enjoying a good stew and cornbread over there last Saturday morning, we learned that their profits would be between $2500 and $3000.

What do they do with the profits? The money that the FCC ladies make at the bazaar and by quilting during the year goes into the church building fund - every penny of it. The new church building is free of debt and they're now busy with plans to add several Sunday School rooms across the back of the attractive building.

The FCC ladies meet every Tuesday for a quilting session, and there is a waiting list of people who buy their quilts at $65 each. One Irving lady has purchased several and has an order in for another. The ladies had two quilts in the bazaar sale and they were bought

HALLOWEEN WAS a nice affair, reports several of our young trick or treat friends. At the Tom Smartt home at 1100 West 12th Street, there was an interesting scene. There was a smoking pot (probably full of dry ice) with Mrs. TS in appropriate costume ladling witches'

Scores of youngsters in costume moved out over town for tricks or treats . . . Students of Primary School and kindergarten donned costumes and paraded through town between 12:30 and 1:30 Friday. A good crowd applauded them . . . Students at Intermediate School enjoyed a big Halloween party . . The Cisco Lions Club didn't hold their carnival this year because Community Gym wasn't available.

WHEN WE RAN into Mr. Jammie Fry, local rancher, last Saturday he was ready to sell a white cow at a discount - where is as is, that is. If you read Press wantads you noticed that Jammie had a white cow missing from the pasture west of town.

The white cow was one of several pairs of cows and calves that Mr. JF bought last week. The white cow escaped from the pasture, abandoning her calf, and started west on the railroad right-of-way. A couple of days later, somebody called to report seeing a white cow east of Cisco on the railroad right-of-way.

Jammie and his dad, Doug Fry, enlisted the help of a cowboy with a horse and went after the cow. They didn't get close before the cow had jumped two fences and left them far behind. If the situation hasn't changed by now, you might be able to pick up a bargain - if you can catch the white cow.

THE DR. AYRES Cermins drove over to Arlington last Sunday to visit relatives . . . Met up with Ken and Lillian Russ of Abilene in town the other day. They're just back from a Mediterranean cruise that was very interesting, indeed. They were still having trouble getting their sleeping schedule back to normal.

Sharon Sawyers Wilcoxen is a new employee out at the Otis Engineering Company plant . . . Ginny Webb Taylor has resigned her job as office secretary at the First Baptist Church to move to Clyde where her husband is the high school music and band director . . . Retired Mail Carrier Carrel Smith got a thrill the other afternoon when his shot from 150 yards out rolled into the cup at the No. 4 green at the Cisco Country Club - an eagle two

Perple Things Loboes Douse Fire Of Bangs Dragons With 42-12 Victory

The Loboes of Cisco High School traveled to Bangs Saturday night and defeated the Dragons there before a full-house, homecoming crowd with a 42-12 District 10-AA victory. The Dragons are now 3-5 for the season and 3-2 in District play while Cisco is also 3-2 in District play and 5-3 for the season.

The Loboes scored once in each of the first three quarters Saturday night and burst loose in the final quarter for three touchdowns, while Bangs managed only touchdowns in the second quarter.

On Bangs first possession of the ball Cisco's defense gave up only six yards in four plays and forced the Dragons to punt to the

The Loboes took their first possession of the ball on their own 32-yard line. Lobo quarterback Randall Rattan handed off to Forrest Starr and Gary Speegle and completed a pass to Mike Galleagos to move the ball to Bangs' 20-yard line 11 plays and four first downs later. Another attempted pass to Galleagos was fumbled and Bangs' Mike Perez recovered the ball for the Dragons at the 15-yard line.

The Dragons gained five yards on a handoff from quarterback Brent Cox to football at CHS, is back home and a resident of Cisco again. He and wife and little son live over on 4th Street. Bobby was employed recently by the Otis Engineering Company at their new plant here and is real happy with his job.

Bobby is the son of Mrs. Olga Fay Parker, retired CJC instructor. He is in the National Guard. They moved here from Fort Worth.

OUR SCOUTS report that some 35 local ladies are enjoying the new aerobic exercise classes that Mrs. James Norman, the former Debbie Wheat, has organized and teaches upstairs over Stereo Central. Classes meet in the morning and at night to meet demands.

Debbie, who is a graduate of both CHS and CJC, is a former Wrangler Belle and she took a course in aerobic exercises to prepare herself to teach. They use music and do special excercises while the band plays.

While the course is designed primarily to provide ladies (or men, if interested) with good exercise, weight loss is often a bonus. One lady told Debbie she has lost six pounds. So far, Debbie has 35 women in three classes but no men.

MR. O.O. Mobley, who lives at 1101 West 9th Street, was sawing a good size limb off a tree a couple of weeks or so ago. When it fell, the limb struck Mr. OOM's left arm. The arm got pretty sore and started aching. Last weekend, he went to see his doctor.

An x-ray picture revealed a fracture, so Mr. OOM has his arm in a cast and its due to stay there a month or so. DON'T FORGET the Lions Club fish fry at the CHS cafeteria Friday from 4:30 to 7:30. Get your tickets from any Lion or at the door.

Randy Berniard on their first play, but drew an offsides penalty on their next play to wipe out the gain. Again the Lobo defense held, forcing the Dragons' Cox to punt to the Loboes. Cisco's Chuck Cannistraci fielded the punt at Bangs' 45-yard line and carried to Cisco's 30 before being pulled down by the Dragons.

Cisco QB Rattan handed off to Starr three times in a row getting a first down on the first carry and eight yards on the second carry. On the third, the ball was knocked loose and Bangs recovered ten yards from their own goal line.

On Bangs' first play, the Cisco defense knocked the ball loose and Kory Wallace recovered for the Loboes at the 11-yard line.

Again using Starr's running abilities, the ball was moved to the one-yard line in four plays. Another handoff, this time to Speegle, got the Loboes their first touchdown with 1:58 left in the first quarter. The extra point kick by Jimmy Elrod was good, giving the Loboes a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. On the Loboes next possession, they lacked eight yards in the fourth down and were forced to punt the ball. Lobo Cannistraci's punt was fielded by Bangs' Berniard around their 15-yard line and he ran all the way back for a Dragon touchdown with 9:16 left in the second quarter. The try for two points was no good, making the score 7-6 with the Loboes leading byone point. That was as close as the score would be throughout the remainder of the game.

The Loboes took the ensuing kickoff at their own 48-yard line and started their second scoring drive. The Loboes moved the ball downfield on runs by Starr, Speegle and Rattan in eight plays to the one-yard line. A handoff to Speegle got the touchdown and a handoff to Starr got two extra points, making the score 15-6 with 5:59 left in the second quarter.

Bangs fielded the kickoff at their 38-yard line and mustered up their final scoring drive of the night. Dragon QB Cox utilized the running abilities of Berniard and Aubrey Balfour to move the ball to Cisco's 13-yard line in nine plays, making three first downs. A Bangs penalty on the next play moved the Dragons back 15 yards setting up a third down and 20 yards situation. A pitchback to Balfour not only got the first down, but a touchdown as well with 2:25 left in the second quarter. The try for two extra points was again no good, making the score 15-12 at the end of the first half. The Loboes took the second half kickoff at their own 43-yard line and moved the ball across mid-field in six plays to Bangs' 45-yard line. Rattan handed off to Speegle who scampered all the way to the goal line to make the score 21-12 with 8:40 left in the third quarter. The extra point kick by Elrod was no

Early in the fourth quarter, Cisco's Starr fielded a fourth down punt from Bangs at the Loboes 40-yard line and returned it for a touchdown. A pass to Starr added two more points to the score, giving the Loboes a 29-12 lead with 11:06 left in the game.

A little over four minutes later, Cisco's Kenneth Preston blocked a fourth down punt by Bangs giving the Loboes possession of the ball just two yards from the goal line. A handoff to Brian Fleming got the six points and the extra point kick by Elrod added one more, making the score 36-12 with 6:23 left to play.

Bangs had the ball on their next possession for seven plays, moving it 38 yards before Cisco's Speegle intercepted a Cox pass at Cisco's 30-yard line and returned it four yards from the goal line, being stopped by Bangs' Balfour.

Three trys were made by Fleming on handoffs from Cisco QB Rattan and he
