Isn't it true that there must be red tape regulations? R. F. C. contributions to states and cities are loans. They are not gifts. They must be paid. Taxpayers must pay them. Regardless of this the hungry must be fed; the shelterless must be given roofs; the ragged or semi-naked must be furnished clothing until jobs are provided for the jobless when "the happy days return." Uncle Sam is a pauper. He hasn't a dollar of his own. Every dollar he appropriates or spends for any purpose must come out of the pockets of the American people. It is impossible for a nation to exist on credit alone. Pay day always comes. It is "pay or repudiate" and Americans are not repudiators.

PROFESSOR HAS A RECOVERY PLAN.

George R. Roraback is professor of foreign trade at Harvard. He is an Academy of Political Science speaker. As a prerequisite to the restoration of international trade, he advises that modification of war dabts and tariff barriers with the United States leading the way, must come without delay.

Frederick E. Murphy, publisher of the Minneapolis Tri-bune is another Academy of political Science ace. Col. Murphy in an address pictured American agriculture as steadily sinking to the low level of peasantry. He said inter-government debts are at the bottom of the difficulty and the fundamental cause for the stoppage of international trade. If the growers of the world produce more cotton than the mills of the world consume or the buying trade takes, how will it be possible to pay the grower a price above the cost of production? How will it be possible to pay the grain grower a price above the cost of production? How will it be possible in this machine age to create jobs for ten million men and women who are idle? Colonels and professors of economy are very glib and very fascinating talkers, but the question is are they "bringing home the bacon?"

WOLL SPEAKS FOR LABOR.

Matthew Woll is one of the big shots of organized labor. He is a fascinating talker, a most imaginative writer. He is not a radical. He is for the constitution as it is written and believes that a real civilization will provide jobs for every man and woman as well as maintain high standards of living for those in gainful employment.

He is chairman of the labor committee for modification of the Volstead act. In a statement he said that labor sees "no excuse for violation of the law until congress has amended it." Interpreting the November election as clearly against the Volstead act and the 18th amendment this labor chieftain declared to rush forward under the assumption the law had already been changed was "not the way of Americanism and not the road to true temperance." Matthew Woll thinks

WHERE THE MORON HAS THE BEST OF IT.

Yes, the depression has been hell. Now another affliction is about to fall upon American humanity. Dr. Carroll C. Turner of Memphis told a group of the Southern Medical association that 1,000,000 students now in college faced the prospect of becoming inmates of hospitals for mental diseases and among them one-third will be classed as incurable. This ratio is 7.5 per cent higher than for tuberculosis, according to the distinguished medical scientist, and one type of mental disease alone "takes more beds than are used for tuberculosis and its complications." Dr. Turner appears to be a lightning calculator. He has his figures: There are about 300,000

Besides being Thanksgiving day tcday will be football day. Over at Ranger, if it doesn't rain, the Buckarcos of Breckenridge will engage the Bulldogs of Ranger in a game that will have much to do with who will be the schoolboy football champions of the oil belt district. If it does rain the game will be played anyway. The crowd will probably be less, however. * * *

The day is important for another reason. The sale of Christmas seals will begin. These seals, sold at cenny each, are the means of getting funds with which to fight tuberculosis, that plague which has cost humanity so much in suffering and misery, ruined more fine talent and cost more happiness than perhaps any other affliction. Thanks to the Seals and to the consecration and heroism of many fine people the scourge is being slowly but surely eradicated from the world.

If it hadn't been for the Plague thirty or forty years might have been added to the life of Robert Louis Stevenson with a consequent great increase in the volume of his masterful contributions to English literature. One can find many other instances where the world has lost much because of affliction.

In Cisco the seals will be sold by

TO USE RADIO IN ARMY ONLY EMERGENCY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23. rmy has decided to restrict the employment of radio to emergency se for all arms of the service that can use wires, it was revealed in the annual report of Maj. Gen. Irving J Carr, chief signal officer.

Carr cited two reasons for this new policy. First, "lack of a sufficient number of channels to permit the simultaneous operation of nore than a small fraction of the authorized number of sets, without intereference." Second, "the apparent impracticability of furnishing the necessary number of qualified radio operators within a reasonable time in an emergency. New Policy

By RAYMOND BROOKS AUSTIN, Nov. 23. - Beer advoates in the Texas legislature see only the forlorn hope of a peculiar wording of the 18th federal amend-

Texas has a constitutional amendment that will not be modified for many years at least, and the stringent Dean law that imposes prison sentences in liquor cases where the federal law provides only jail sentences or fines.

The only prospect of legalizing beer in Texas a layer-member of the house has said lies in a federal court ruling on this language in the 18th amendment:

"The congress and the state shall have concurrent jurisdication.'

According to his argument, congress by definition says the 18th amendment does not include beer, that ruling will bind the state by a similar limitation.

The Texas amendment did not limit its definition to "capable of producing intoxication," but provided that any sort of spiritous vinous or malt liquor containing over one-half of one per cent of alcohol would be considered intxicating. Among lawmakers here in the recent special session of the legislature the feeling prevailed that Texans who have a thirst for beer will be compelled to nurse it for a long time It was declared impossible to get 100 house members and 21 senators to vote for the submission of any other constitutional amendment to believes. Lewis has secured a patent repeal or modify the existing amendment. The Dean law could be appealed or modified by a majority vote in the legislature, but any new act would be held unconstitutional because it would be in open and direct conflict with the constitutional amendment. The only possible means of practical though not actual nulliifcation would be to modify the penalties to such nominal amounts that officers would not en-

THANKSGIVING!

Thursday, November 24th

When the PILGRIM FATHERS assembled one cold and bleak November morning to give thanks to God for their safety through the first year of their existence in the New World, and spread a feast to typify the bountiful harvest that had blessed their efforts, they did not realize that they were setting a custom that would survive through the years to come.

We Too Are Thankful

For the blessings of life, health and a measure of happiness during a year of depression and wide-spread suffering throughout the world. In addition to our gratitude to God, the Giver of all blessings, we wish to speak a word of good cheer and thanks to our friends and patrons who have enabled us to survive in business during 1932 Please accept this as our personal wish for a truly Happy Thanksgiving for each of you.
