About Our Friends

By STEP A. LONG

After we had reached the summit of the highest peaks in our journey to Mexico City, the view was indeed sublime ... valleys, lake-dotted, and irrigation everywhere ... Old haciendas several hundred years old in many cases, showed how diligently the Spanish had labored to make a thorough conquest of the country, headed by the soldiers, but closely followed by the priests, who enslaved the natives while teaching them Christianity and the arts of European civilization.

Everywhere crumbling monasteries and ancient temples reared their spires heavenward as a symbol of their creed ... The coloring of the high peaks, vari-colored greens, with the limestone formation showing in many places in such manner as to give the idea of snow-topped ... But only Popocatepetl, Mexico's active volcano, and "The Sleeping Woman," whose name we cannot spell without references that we do not have in our office, are snow clad ... These mountains rear their majestic heads above others and provide one of the beautiful views from Mexico City. The "Sleeping Woman" easily gives one the notion of a woman lying dead with hair outstretched and knees drawn up slightly, covered with her white shroud, breaking through the morning mists as the sun mounts the skies ... She sleeps eternally as the natives think, guarded by old Popocatepetl, who grows his sorrow as he becomes pent up with his grief at various times through the centuries, but faithful ever to his woman who will live no more.

But back to the trip which is almost ended ... As we have passed the summit and begin to drop down toward the bowl that is to contain the destination of three thousands of men and women, lime kilns abound ... Nature made it easy for the inhabitants to erect those vast and enduring structures that are to stand for still more centuries as mute tributes to the races who built them ... down ... down ... racing around the corners of mountains so fast and furious that it seems as though our train would pop off the rear coaches ... but our breaks hold ... at one place rounding a bend with a drop of many hundreds or thousands of feet, some less fortunate engineer did lose his train and the charred iron skeleton remains a reminder that gravity and centrifugal forces do things to

CORPUS GETS HITCH-HIKING MURDER CASE

FALFURRIAS, Tex., Aug. 8 — Trial of William Osborne, 18-year-old Falfurrias youth charged with the hitch-hiking slaying on May 29, 1934, of Jack Brinck, Harlingen paper salesman, will be held in Corpus Christi, according to a decision of Judge George O. Westerfield here.

Judge Westerfield heard the defense motion for a change of venue as a special judge, replacing Judge Lawrence Brooker after the latter disqualified himself, because he was district attorney for Brooks county at the time Brinck was slain.

Osborne has been held in the Brooks county jail since his arrest the day after Brinck's body was found lying in front of his parked sedan on State Highway 66 south of here.

He was sentenced to the Gatesville reformatory until he reached the age of 21 after being found guilty of carrying a pistol. He was later connected with the murder after a billfold containing his name was found beneath a wheel of Brinck's car.

Osborne orally admitted the shooting but later refused to sign a confession.

AMPLE CREDIT FOR BANKHEAD LOANS SEEN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 — The 1935 American cotton crop of 11,792,000 bales, 2,067,000 bales in excess of last year's production was forecast today by the department of agriculture.

Even though the estimate topped most private forecasts, and was more than a million bales in excess of this year's Bankhead act allotment of 10,500,000 bales, Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace professed to see no cause for anxiety.

He promised that "adequate credit" facilities would be extended to farmers to assure orderly marketing of the crop. Senator John H. Bankhead, dem., Ala., said he expected a 12 cent cotton loan.

The exact amount of the loan which the government will extend to farmers so that they can hold their cotton instead of dumping it on the market, will be decided soon. Cotton farmers are hoping the loan will be at least as large as the 12 cent advance on last year's crop. If prices sag as the crop comes on the market, Wallace promised the government loan would be ample to absorb the excess supply.

Immediate reaction of the market to the report was a drop of one-tenth to one-fifth of a cent a pound in future quotations.

If the crop is as large as now estimated, the Bankhead, acts minimum of six cents a pound would have been paid on more than 2,000,000 bales of the crop.

Texas production is estimated at 2,851,000 bales or 74 per cent of normal.

Future For FERA Work Is Described

AUSTIN, Aug. 8 — What will happen to Federal Emergency Relief Administration projects as the FERA employables are transferred to the Works Progress Administration rolls has been explained by J. B. Keely, chief engineer for the Texas relief commission.

The projects are to be re-estimated and, if acceptable, transmitted to the WPA, which is expected to complete them, Keely said. In some cases, the workers on a FERA project will be transferred with the project, and activity will not be halted.

Also, Keely pointed out, proposed projects which local communities have sponsored but which have not yet been accepted by the FERA, should be submitted to the WPA through the proper district office. Only enough work projects will be handled by the FERA to take care of employable relief clients until they are transferred to the WPA.

THREE NEW MEMBERS INITIATED AT ROTARY CLUB LUNCHEON TODAY

Initiation of three new members formed the principal feature of today's Rotary Luncheon program.

J. B. Cate, treasurer of the club, addressed his initiation remarks to P. R. Warwick, Lee Heitzel and Frank Langston, pointing out the aims, ideals, and responsibilities of Rotary.

"Rotary does not aim at the idea of 'live and let live,' he said, but at 'live and help live,'" he pointed out

Welcome, Future Farmers

Welcome, Future Farmers, to the seventh annual encampment at Lake Cisco. Enjoy your stay.

Cisco is always glad to have you come and take advantage of the opportunities the big lake and the swimming pool afford.

Did you know that the dam you are sleeping in is the largest of its type in the world. Here's hoping it makes you as comfortable a dormitory as it has made safe the city water supply since it was constructed. Take advantage of the lake. Fish in it if you have the time from your F. F. A. program. By all means take a boat trip over it. You'll be surprised to find just how much water is held back by the big dam. Look it over.

And that swimming pool you've already inspected — It's the biggest artificial pool in the world, and you can have the most fun in it. What's a little sunburn? Try out that crawl stroke, or maybe a few flops from the boards. Cisco is proud of that pool and wants you to enjoy it.

Cisco realizes that much of the future of Texas depends upon agriculture. You are interested in agriculture of the new order or you would not be here. Agriculture is the backbone of the nation, and its success in America in the future will depend largely upon how you Future Farmers apply what you are learning of it in your classes and field trips. You have a great task in helping to mold America's future through its greatest industry.

Meet all the boys you can. They're interested in the same things that you are, and they're a pretty decent lot.

You know J. M. Bird, of course. That's his picture on this page. He's the sponsor of the Cisco F. F. A. chapters and the local man in charge of the camp. He's a regular fellow, too, and will help you to enjoy your stay. Be sure to get acquainted with him.

Enjoy your stay, boys. The Daily News joins with the city in bidding you welcome. Have the best time you can and when you go home, tell the folks about Cisco and come back next year.

3 KILLED AND 4 ARE HURT IN ITALY CRASH

ITALY, Aug. 8 — Three persons were injured fatally, and a fourth was not expected to live, and three others were hurt today in a head-on collision of two automobiles at a railroad crossing in the outskirts of Italy.

Miss Alma Allen, 27, and Miss Lovie Allen, 25, sisters, of Sherman, were burned fatally before they could be extricated from their wrecked machine.

Their mother, Mrs. A. L. Allen, 76, died several hours later in a hospital in Waxahachie. Their father, H. L. Allen, is not expected to live.

Clipper Ship Poised For Pacific Flight

ALAMEDA, Cal., Aug. 8.—Mechanics prepared Pan American Airways four-motored Clipper plane today for a takeoff Friday on a 10,000 mile flight across the Pacific ocean to Wake Island and back.

The new objective of the giant flying boat is a tiny dot on the broad expanse of the western ocean, a coral horseshoe owned by the United States and without commercial importance until Pan American began its plan for a California-to-China flying service.

Chemist Pleased With Lake Cisco

Helman Rosenthal of Dallas, state chemist and water technician, yesterday was well pleased with Lake Cisco and the water there, he told City Attorney R. E. Grantham.

The chemist was guest of the city attorney in a swim at the pool this morning.

U. S. SENATORS OUTLAW GOLD CLAUSE SUITS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 — The senate overrode vigorous opposition by conservative democrats and republicans today and approved a resolution outlawing suits against the government by holders of federal gold clause obligations. The vote was 53 to 24.

The measure now goes to the house, where an effort probably will be made to restore it to the form in which it passed originally July 18.

As adopted by the senate, the resolution would permit suits for six months after its final enactment.

Then the court would be closed to anyone who feels he has lost money on his government obligations because of the dollar devaluation program.

Million Is Paid To Rural Teachers

AUSTIN, Aug. 8 — Approximately $1,000,000 worth of checks paying rural teachers of Texas under the federal aid program which enabled nearly 1500 schools this year to complete a normal term have been mailed from Texas Relief Commission headquarters, State Relief Director Adnan R. Johnson has announced.

The checks are being sent to the superintendents of the various schools, who will distribute them to the teachers.

Schools in 161 counties received such aid. H. A. Ziegler, engineer in charge, reported.

By supply schools unable to complete a full term under their own finances with funds, the Federal Emergency Relief Administration enabled thousands of rural youths of Texas to obtain a normal term's schooling the past year. More than 1500 school districts applied, and 1493 projects were approved. A total of 8764 persons will receive the checks.

LOBO BAND IN TWO CONCERTS AT FESTIVAL

Cisco's delegation to the De Leon peach festival yesterday was well received.

The Lobo band led the parade down the De Leon streets during the morning and played two concerts during the day. The band made the trip in a school bus.

Other musical organizations at the festival were the Comanche band and the Roby drum and bugle corps.

Inventor Dies In Trap For Burglar

MOUNDS, Ill., Aug. 8 — Frank Beland, 71, was oothered by burglars repeatedly. It angered him because he had so little and they took so much.

Beland rigged a pulley and spring arrangement with a shotgun on his front door to trap the burglars. When the door was opened, the gun was fired.

Returning home late one Saturday night with an armload of groceries, Beland opened the door and forgot to unlock the gun.

Neighbors found him lying before the door. He had been shot in the heart with his own gun.

Bird in Charge Of F. F. A. Camp

J. M. Bird, above, vocational agriculture teacher in Cisco high school and agriculture expert of the Chamber of Commerce, has charge of arrangements for the seventh annual tri-district encampment of the Future Farmers of America, which opened at Lake Cisco this morning.

Mayor J. T. Berry, speaking for the city, extended the following greeting to the campers.

"The City of Cisco feel that it aiding the great agricultural industry of the state in a measure by providing a summer recreational camp for the members of the Future Farmers organization. Feel free to enjoy your stay with us, and know that the city is honored to have you choose this site for your annual camp."

Secretary J. E. Spencer, expressed the welcome of the Chamber of Commerce as follows:

"Highways lead to Cisco from all directions. As they are improved and as our recreational facilities are improved, we hope that the attendance of the F. F. A. at the annual encampment will increase. Make use of our lake and swimming pool and return next year, he said."

LAWYERS DUE TO ARBITRATE COTTON FIGHT

HOUSTON, Aug. 8 — Federal Judge T. M. Kennerly appointed five attorneys of opposing factions on a committee today to compromise a legal fight over enforcement of the Bankhead cotton control act.

The attorneys immediately went into conference.

The appointments were made in connection with the application of the Texas Cotton Ginners association for an injunction ordering collectors of internal revenue to issue cotton bale tags to all Texas ginners.

Those appointed were former Governor Dan Moody, chairman, Ralph Malone, attorney for the association; S. A. Lesourd, special assistant attorney general; U. S. District Attorney Douglas W. McGregor, and U. S. District Attorney S. D. Bennett of the Eastern district of Texas.

CRACK SHOT PICKED

WINNIPEG, Man. — Constable R. G. Pickrell, of the Canadian National Railways police force in Winnipeg, has been chosen to represent Canada and the British Empire in the Olympic shooting matches to be held in Rome in September, it is announced.

RANDOLPH COLLEGE BULLETIN FOR 1935-36 SCHOOL SESSION ISSUED

Randolph college has issued its bulletin with announcements for the 1935-36 school year.

Along with the description of the school, its faculty, the pamphlet outlines a group of reasons for attending the school. They are as follows:

"It is an undenominational Christian college stressing character building.

"All members of the faculty are active Christians.

"The faculty takes a personal interest in every student.

"It has a thoroughly trained and experienced faculty. All heads of departments have their Master's degree and average 12 years college teaching experience.

"It offers the best possible opportunity for preparation looking toward higher education.

"A senior can spend two years here for less than half the cost of a senior college and at the same time

F. F. A. Boys Given Souvenir Papers

Future Farmers of America, holding their seventh annual tri-district encampment at Lake Cisco, are being furnished souvenir copies of today's issue of the Daily News, in which their camp is described and they are welcomed.

This is in line with the Daily News policy of advertising Cisco and its advantages to the rest of Texas and in helping to promote the city's natural and recreational resources.

CITY GREETS FFA CAMPERS AT THE LAKE

The city of Cisco, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Cisco Boosters joined today in welcoming visitors to the seventh annual encampment of the Future Farmers of America, which opened at Lake Cisco this morning.

Teachers Hold Meeting

The encampment started officially today with a meeting of vocational agriculture teachers on the second floor of the Lake Cisco pavilion. Luncheon and announcements followed at 12:30.

On the program for this afternoon were horseshoe and water polo pitching contests at 1 o'clock, pole fights in the swimming pool at 2 o'clock; and boxing at 3 o'clock. Swimming events were to be at 4 p. m. and diving at 5 o'clock. A greasy pole walking contest to be held at 5:45 and a watermelon race at 6:15. Supper was to be at 7 o'clock.

A. Spangler of John Tarleton Agricultural college will have charge of the general assembly on the second floor of the pavilion this evening at 7:45. Besides Spangler and Dean J. Thomas Davis of the same school, a number of other persons well known in Future Farmer and agricultural education work will be present.

Several entertainment features are on the program for this evening's assembly, it was announced today.

The boys are quartered in the hollow sections of the Lake Cisco dam, where the water on the lake side will keep the concrete "rooms" at a cool, even temperature. Three sections of the dam have been flooded and will serve as a kitchen and mess hall. Two cooks have been employed to prepare and serve the meals.

Tomorrow morning the Best Future Farmer and Best Agricultural student contests will be held. Awards to winners in all contests will be made at the closing session of the camp Saturday afternoon.

Recreation is being stressed as much as possible at this year's camp it has been announced.

POST, ROGERS AWAIT BETTER AIR WEATHER

JUNEAU, Alaska, Aug. 8 — Wiley Post and Will Rogers, companions on a flight into Alaska to hunt, paused today at Juneau, awaiting a change in the rainy weather which greeted them on their arrival from Seattle.

Mrs. Post will proceed to Alaska by boat to join them.

Post expects to do some hunting in interior Alaska, while Rogers "watches the plane to keep the wolves away." Post and his wife intend to fly on to Siberia. Rogers indicated Alaska is the end of the journey for him.

Kin of Ciscoans Buried at Proffitt

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Whitaker attended the funeral of Robert Thomas of Proffitt yesterday.

Mr. Thomas was the grandfather of Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Whitaker, who are cousins.

WINE COSTS $40

VISALIA, Cal. — A 40-cent bottle of wine cost Theron B. Sanderson, 42, of Coarsegold, Cal., $40 because he couldn't refrain from celebrating his finding a job after a long period of unemployment. He was fined for driving while intoxicated.

Randolph's New Bulletin

Randolph college has issued a bulletin for the school for the 1935-36 session.

The bulletin describes the school and points out the advantages of it to the prospective student and his family. Attractively arranged, the booklet shows a number of views of the city and the college, including a picture of last spring's graduating class.

An effort is being made to bring more students to Randolph in the future and to build the school. These efforts, according to school officials, are bearing fruit already, with more than usual interest being shown and more pupils signing up for attendance.

The college faculty and its friends have worked long faithfully to give Cisco an institution of higher learning and to offer a chance for advancement to the boy or girl graduated from high school in this section. A junior college, Randolph seeks to build character as well as to promote learning.

If properly supported—not necessarily so much financially as morally—the school can become one of Cisco's greatest assets. It can be recognized by the residents of the city as a distinct advantage which Cisco has over other towns of this size and at the same time recognized in educational circles as a first class institution.

A little boosting for the college now will pay dividends for the city later.

Have you seen a bulletin yet?

Nationalism in the African Crisis

Nationalism is a peculiar thing. News dispatches this morning announced that the manufacture and sale of Ethiopian flags had taken a sudden jump. Most of the flags sold, it was said are small ones made to be worn on the coat lapel.

A year ago many persons, hearing the name of Ethiopia—or Abyssinia—might have been puzzled as to its whereabouts. Many, no doubt, would have said that Ethiopia is another name for Africa, but that they did not know what or where Abyssinia is.

Then Italy got busy. There were border clashes, then threats of war. Italy, already strongly nationalistic, became even more so. Ethiopia, ancient Christian kingdom of Africa, took on a new spirit of nationalism and dared the might of fascist Italy to invade the empire of Haile Selassie.

When a man walks down the street wearing a flag pinned to his coat lapel, you can know that he is not doing it under any ordinary circumstances. There is high feeling somewhere. Americans love their flag, but they do not wear it as an everyday ornament. The Ethiopians are not wearing their flags as everyday ornaments, either. They are wearing them because they are at present keenly interested in the outcome of negotiations that may lead to peace or to war against the Italian armies.

Italy, too, has a history for its nationalism. The country was rocking along at no great speed until Benito Mussolini and his reformed socialists seized the power and began nationalizing it. The people were proud of the country which could come so rapidly to the front, and as long as they did not let nationalism get out of bounds it was a great thing for Italy or any other nation. But Italy, like most other countries which have had a national awakening, let the feeling run wild until it hit another country and caused another feeling of nationalism that was entirely uncalculated, from the fascist point of view.

SISTER MARY'S RECIPES

BY MARY E. DAVIS
NEA Service Staff Writer

COMES June and I could wish all I had to do in the world was lie in a hammock on a porch fragrant with the smell of climbing roses and honeysuckle and eat meals of strawberries, corn on the cob, crisp green beans and sweet garden peas, picked not twenty minutes before being plunged into the pot for my delectation.

I can't have all my wish but at least I can give thanks for one month in which there is such a profusion of luscious things to eat that I need never once voice the age-old cry of housekeepers "What on earth shall I have for dinner today?"

Lamb and veal are at their best now, too. Even inexpensive cuts that can be worked up in meat loaves.

Curry of veal with rice is an inexpensive dish that owes much of its charm to its unusual seasoning. Serve it with French fried carrots, tomato and cucumber salad and strawberry ice box cake.

Curry of Veal With Rice

One pound lean veal, 1 tablespoon curry powder, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 onion, 1-2 fresh coconut, 1 banana, 1-2 lemon, 1-2 teaspoon salt.

Cut meat in small cubes. Melt butter in stew pan and when it bubbles add onion cut in thin slices and curry powder. Stir with a fork and cook five minutes. Add meat and brown quickly. Add boiling water to cover and simmer one hour adding more water if necessary. Add salt, juice of lemon, banana cut in inch slices and coconut infusion. Simmer until

Breakfast Menu

Stewed dried apricots with sliced bananas, cereal, cream, plain omelet, toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Waffles with creamed salmon and buttered peas, rhubarb compote, toasted crackers, cottage cheese, lemonade.

DINNER Curry of veal with rice, French fried carrots, tomato and cucumber salad, strawberry ice box cake, milk, coffee.

tender and serve on a hot platter surrounded by boiled rice.

To make coconut infusion grate coconut and let stand in one cup boiling water for twenty minutes. Strain through cheesecloth, squeezing coconut as dry as possible.

Strawberry Ice Box Cake

Two cups whipping cream, 1-2 cup powdered sugar, 1 quart strawberries, 27 graham crackers. Wash and hull berries. Cut in large pieces. Whip cream until firm, adding powdered sugar and prepared berries. Place nine crackers on a flat serving platter and cover with whipped cream filling and remaining filling. Cover with crackers and chill in refrigerator for six to eight hours. When ready to serve garnish with berries and whipped cream. This recipe will serve nine persons. If necessary, number of servings if needed reduce quantities proportionately.

OBEEDIENCE, FOR ONCE

Texas Topics

By RAYMOND BROOKS

AUSTIN, Aug. 8 — Gov. Allred now is debating whether there shall be a special session of the legislature next month under the various constitutional amendments that may be adopted Aug. 24. He has not singled out any particular amendment, to say that if it is adopted, a session will be held. There has been a widely-held view that adopting the prohibition amendment would necessitate a session to adjust the law to conform to it, and to permit the state to begin collecting taxes on legalized liquor sales.

The old-age pension amendment which apparently has the best chance of all of adoption, is sure to create a strong public demand for a session and for enabling legislation to let Texas get the benefit of matching federal old-age benefits.

Decision whether there will be a session in September will be reached quickly on the unofficial count of returns and will likely not await the official canvass, Sept. 13.

The Texas State Teachers' association has decided to fight the constitutional amendment designed to permit the use of free state textbooks in institutional as well as state-supported public schools.

President C. N. Shaver and Secretary B. E. Cobb of the association are sending out articles and arguments against it.

This amendment contains an even more important provision than its declared object of letting Texas citizens have the benefit of free textbooks who choose to send their children to church schools. The other provision is to abolish longstanding abuses in the scholastic census method of apportioning state school funds.

The teachers' association certainly could not take the stand of trying to perpetuate these abuses, nor of trying to help schools get money for education of children not attending the schools. But defeat of the amendment would just that much longer deny the legislature the power to correct such abuses.

Long before enlightened governments assumed responsibility for education, the churches provided first elementary, then "academy," then university education; and gradually governments followed behind to assume the major portion of this burden. Texas pledged to education from the days of the republic, was slow in making it a reality. There seems no reason now to ask the voters to discredit and injure those institutions, which performed the public service of education so long, and which build colleges and schools which they still seek to maintain.

SIGNATURE TO POLITICAL ADS IS REQUIRED

AUSTIN, Aug. 8. — Anonymous political advertising is prohibited in Texas after Aug. 10 under a law passed to bring candidates out in the open concerning their campaign backers.

The act provides all political ads must be signed by the candidate, his campaign manager, or the person actually paying for the space.

Another law concerning elections provides that candidates for the legislature must pay a $50 ballot fee if their home county has a population of more than 195,000. In other counties the fee is $1 per county for placing one's name on the ticket.

These are two of more than 200 laws which become effective 90 days after the adjournment of the 44th legislature. Others run the gamut of usual minor laws.

Included are:

Back Tax Collection
Prohibiting collection of taxes delinquent before Dec. 31, 1919.
Allowing extra part time employees at the state laboratory in Austin to assist in making vaccines—given free to indigents.

Enlarging the list of things free from attachment by courts to include personal articles as well as a home, car, and tools with which to make a living.

Applying the "Jim Crow" law to divide white and colored passengers on motor busses as well as trains and street cars.

Allowing trial of criminal cases in county where the injury occurred or where the body is found.

Permitting cities to sell municipal water and sewer service outside their corporate limits.

Limiting local option elections on 3-2 wines and beers to not more than one each twelve months.

Protecting the public from injury by deputy constables by making constables responsible for acts of the deputies and allowing them to require bond of their assistants.

Allowing county tax assessors—collectors to appoint and bond deputies.

Exempting property of the Texas federation of women's clubs from state taxes.

Making it a felony to burglarize a vessel, steamboat or railroad car. No such punishment is now provided.

Did you ever stop to think?

Your city is no place for a man who is always waiting until tomorrow to grab the opportunity that is offered him today.

The Dairen, Manchuria, Daily News recently published its 7,000 edition. Its editor says that the figure seven is generally regarded in the Orient, as well as in the Occidental, as one of good omen.

"The social contributions it makes in raising the standards of living and in introducing the public to new comforts and conveniences stamp newspaper advertising as one of the most essential public services of the times," says Howard E. Blood, president of the Norge Corporation, noted economist and business leader.

The quick and straight road to greater prosperity has been blazed. Your citizens should take this road, sweep all obstacles aside and march on to their goal.

Behind the Scenes in Washington

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—You might say that one of the manifest injustices of the New Deal was that the 2,000,000th patent issued by the Patent Office received so much more publicity than the 1,999,999th patent, which in fact attracted no attention at all.

Patent No. 1,999,999 came so very near being Patent No. 2,000,000 that the sheer pity of it is quite obvious even to those who are sometimes a bit hardboiled about such things.

The widely publicized Patent No. 2,000,000 was granted to Joseph Ledwinka of Philadelphia, who has been successfully inventing for many years, for a pneumatic rubber railroad tire chiefly distinguished for safety devices calculated to keep cars from bouncing off the rails.

Patent Office officials deny that No. 2,000,000 was fixed to land on that one just so it wouldn't light on something like Benzathrene Selenoethers.

But every Tuesday they grant a batch of maybe a thousand patents and for weeks there'd been an atmosphere of suppressed excitement around the place as the boys drew nearer and nearer to No. 2,000,000.

You remember, of course, that Patent No. 1,500,000 in 1924 was for Simon Lake's submarine designed for navigation under the polar ice—which never proved very popular—and that No. 1,000,000 in 1911 was for a stronger automobile tire.

No. 1,999,999 was granted to Melvin A. Perkins of Milwaukee and turns out to be a vat dyestuff of greenish blue which is only one of a long series of such dyes patented by Mr. Perkins.

Neither Mr. Ledwinka nor Mr. Perkins will become wealthy through his latest invention. They work respectively for the du Pont and Budd Manufacturing companies, which now own Patent No. 2,000,000 and Patent No. 1,999,999.

MR. JOE SCHECHTER, the chicken magnate who is the chief defendant in the big NRA test case now being studied by the supreme court, is something of a card.

Long ago Poultry Code Administrator Leroy Peterson telephoned him in New York and said: "Joe, you're violating the code!"

"I know I am," said Joe, "and I'm going to keep right on violating it."

So the mills of justice began to grind and just the other day Schechter and Peterson met in the corridor outside the supreme court, where a throng of New Deal lawyers, NRA officials, correspondents and others were milling around more or less excitedly.

They agreed they never could have imagined what would come out of that telephone conversation and the poultry man philosophized rather proudly:

"Eighteen years ago it was the United States of America versus Germany."

"Today it's the United States of America versus Joe Schechter!"

PREVIOUSLY unrecorded item of the celebrated Roosevelt charm. The president usually insists on lighting a visitor's cigaret or cigar, which ordinarily makes a hit.

Justice Brandeis, who yearly takes a recommended graduate from Harvard Law School to serve 12 months as his secretary, has broken precedent by inviting the present man, Allen M. Strook, to stay for a second year. He likes Strook's ability and humor.

Married Students To Get Cottages

CANYON, Aug. 8 — Ten cottages for married students will be constructed on the campus of West Texas State Teachers college here as an experiment in housing, it is announced.

The cottages are to be ready for the fall term, which opens in the latter part of September. The buildings are a part of the $500,000 building program now under way at the college.

Mexican Animals To Go Into Menagerie

MERCEDES, Aug. 8 — Mexican burros, armadillos, javalinas, or wild hogs and other native animals will constitute the menagerie which Lower Rio Grande Valley boy scouts plan to take to Washington to the National Boy Scout Jubilee Jamboree, Valley Scout Executive John Leslie said today.

A virtual replica of the summer camp at Camp Perry, near Rio Hondo, will be set up in the National Capitol and in addition, the Valley scouts will construct a complete Mexican village, surrounded by a bamboo fence. Materials for the construction will be taken to Washington in a box car, Leslie said.

Food will be hauled between the two camps in a typical Mexican burro cart. The scouts will wear typical Mexican costumes and will make tortillas and black coffee to be served to visitors who come to their camp.

JUMP SEEN IN DEATHS FROM AUTOMOBILES

AUSTIN, Aug. 8 — Automobile deaths in Texas' five largest cities jumped from 329 to 349 persons during the year ending July 6 compared to the year before, the federal division of vital statistics reported today.

Vacancies for the four-weeks period ending July 6 were considerably lower than the corresponding time in 1934, the bureau added. Sixteen deaths resulted from injuries in automobiles. Half of the number died from injuries received from wrecks inside city limits.

El Paso's death rate was highest with 40.4 per 100,000 compared to 32.2 per 100,000 last year. Fort Worth's record showed 37.5 deaths for each 100,000 population compared to 31.7.

Dallas had 33.7 per 100,000 compared to 31.3. Houston showed 28.4 and 26.6 in similar calculations, while San Antonio offered the best average of all Texas cities surveys—25.7 deaths per 100,000 population this year and 24.1 per 100,000 last year.

Texas cities compared unfavorably with the 81 other places in which statistics are made. The average was 24.1 deaths per 100,000 population. Total auto deaths in the 86 cities was 9,013 for the 52 weeks ending July 6, an increase of 249 over the preceding year.

Adult Classes Cut State's Illiterates

ASHVILLE, N. C., Aug. 8 — After attending classes faithfully when the day's work was done, 10,000 North Carolinians, men and women, were awarded certificates in an impressive commencement ceremony here, showing they had learned the rudiments of reading and were capable of writing their names.

These were former illiterates aided by the government's classes.

New Wheat Type May Create Big Problem

DALHART, Aug. 8 — The agricultural Adjustment Administration may face a new problem in wheat production.

J. D. Amend, young wheat farmer in Sherman county in the Northwest Panhandle, may introduce a new type of Russian wheat, a perennial requiring re-seeding only once in six years.

If the wheat is widely accepted in the United States prices would inevitably decline because production costs would be cut from 55 to 80 cents per acre; cost of seed now being 25 to 30 cents per acre, according to E. H. Fennell, regional director of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service here.

SUN-TAN

BEHIND HERE TODAY JO DARIEN breaks her engagement to BRET PAUL, college athlete star, because Bret objects to her taking a job as hostess at Crest Lake Inn, fashionable summer resort owned by wealthy DOUGLAS MARSH. Jo goes to Crest Lake. Marsh's eccentric mother dislikes her and causes difficulties. These are increased when PETER FRAGONET, film actor, arrives. Fragonet pays marked attentions to Jo, asks her to marry him as soon as he can secure a divorce. Bret Paul comes to Crest Lake as the guard. BABS MONTGOMERY, school acquaintance who is jealous of Jo, is also there. Fragonet leaves and returns when his film company undertakes to make part of a motion picture at the resort. He begs Jo to return to Hollywood with him. She delays her decision. Marsh takes Jo to watch the film company in action. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXVIII "HERE comes Montez," whispered Marsh. "Like to meet her?" Jo nodded, watching the actress. She was astonished to note that the storied and glamorous Lolita Montez was hardly older than herself. She had the faultless skin of youth, smooth and soft even beneath her thick make-up, and her mouth was as irresolute as a child's. It was only her eyes which betrayed that Lolita Montez was older either in experience or years. But which of the two it was, Jo couldn't for the life of her discern. As the actress caught sight of Marsh she smiled faintly and nodded her small dark head. "Miss Montez . . . this is Miss Darien." "How do you do?" said Lolita Montez pleasantly. "I should have met you before. I'm ashamed of myself, really. But," she shrugged helplessly, "I was pretty well worn out and I thought I should rest before this terrible Drann got hold of me again." Montez was so slight, so young (except for those disturbing eyes) that Jo sympathized with her, at most pitied her. She had heard that movie actresses work hard, that, considering their "life" on the screen, their salaries are not as fabulous as they seem. And now, looking at Lolita Montez, she understood this for the first time. "This waiting must be worst of all," Jo ventured. "You're right. I could wring Fragonet's neck." Marsh laughed. "So that's what they're waiting for." "That's what we always wait for," said Montez shortly. "When Fragonet's here, then Barley is drunk. And when Barley is sober, Fragonet's gone." "Has anybody looked for Pete?" . . . The actress nodded. "Yes . . . but he won't come until he's ready." Then, in answer to Jo's incredulous expression, she added, "He can get away with it. His contract's almost up, and the other studios are clamoring for him. I wish they'd get him." "We aren't going to stay out here

GRID CHANGES FOR PLOWBOY TEAM LISTED

STEPHENVILLE, Aug. 8. — The intercollegiate game between the John Tarleton Plowboys and the Cameron Aggies of Lawton, Oklahoma, which was scheduled to be played at Stephenville on September 27, has been called off, W. J. Wisdom, head coach, announced today. The Plowboys will meet Clifton college at Clifton on that date.

Another change made in the schedule is that Tarleton and Weatherford college will meet at Stephenville on Armistice Day, November 11, rather than on November 9, as previously announced. The opening game will be played at Stephenville on September 20 with a new school in Central Texas football, Westmoreland college at San Antonio. On October 26, the Plowboys will meet Texas Wesleyan college of Fort Worth for the first game between the two schools.

Complete schedule follows: Westmoreland college, at Stephenville, September 20; Clifton college, at Clifton, September 27; Daniel Baker college, at Brownwood, October 5; Decatur college, at Decatur, October 12; Hillsboro Junior college, at Stephenville, October 26; Texas Wesleyan college, at Stephenville, November 2; Weatherford college, at Stephenville, November 11; Texas Military college, at Stephenville, November 16; and Ranger college at Ranger, November 23, and North Texas Agricultural college at Arlington, November 28.

Co-captains for the season are Bill Gay Kennerly of Brady and Henry Todd of Albany. W. J. Wisdom is head coach and Chuck Saunders assistant coach.

Pop Warner Sets Grid Call Sept. 3

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 8. — Pop Warner faces a bright outlook at Temple University Sept. 3, when he calls together his football squad for the 1935 season.

Warner, whose contract at Temple runs for three more years, will issue invitations to about 40 players to attend the pre-season drills at Oak Lane Country Day School. The squad will be composed mostly of 1934 lettermen headed by Dave Smukler, Gloversville, N. Y., fullback.

Smukler has kept in condition during the summer by competing in track meets and working in a glove factory. He hopes to weigh 215 when he reports for training.

Warner and his assistants, Fred Swan and Cradley Winterburn, can lose little time in whipping their charges in shape. Only three weeks of practice are available before the opening game with St. Joseph's college, Friday, Sept. 20.

At present, Warner is teaching football in Luchock Texas. He plans to return to Philadelphia Sept. 1.

Bill McKechnie May Give Son a Tryout

STATE COLLEGE Pa., Aug. 8. — Bill McKechnie, Jr., lanky first baseman and captain of the Penn State baseball team, has tentatively decided to seek a tryout with his father's Boston Braves next season.

With a record of errorless performance on college diamonds, Young Bill is rated highly.

Joe Bedenk, Lions' coach and former All-American football player, believes Bill will eventually "make the grade" in big league competition. "He would," Bedenk said, "even if his name were Bill Smith or Bill Jones, Penn State never had an infielder quite so flashy."

As a youngster in Pittsburgh, where his father managed the Pirates, Bill, Jr., often participated in fielding practice with the club, but his father, fearing possible injury, seldom allowed him to face Pirate pitchers.

Singles Play Will Begin On Aug. 29

NEW YORK, Aug. 8. — Following are dates for national tennis championships announced by the United States Lawn Tennis Association:

Men's and women's singles at Forest Hills, N. Y., August 29 through Sept. 7.

Men's, women's mixed veterans and father and son doubles at Chestnut Hill, Mass., August 17-24.

Wightman Cup at Forest Hills, N. Y., August 17 and 18.

Street Is Razed To Save Mongrel

BOISE, Ida., Aug. 9. — It was only a mongrel dog, but no effort was spared to save its life.

The dog was trapped in an irrigation canal, its head wedged in a weed catcher. One man offered $5 to anyone who could free the dog. Another volunteered to swim down the ditch to rescue the animal. Police and firemen were called. Street employees finally used hammer and chisels to tear up the street, ditch and concrete foundations, and the dog was freed.

It feebly shook the water from its body, and was on its way.

MACHINE RABBIT LOSES RACE TAUNTON, Mass. — Rusty, the mechanical rabbit, lost his first race of the season at Taunton dog racing track recently. The greyhound Gypsy Sue caught it midway of the back stretch. The event was called off and the mutuels pool of $5,198 was refunded.

Picture That's a Knockout

There's no question what's happened to Seaman Watson, who is falling to the canvas in his bout at Liverpool, England, against featherweight champion Freddie Miller. The twisted right leg, the arms still raised in fighting attitude, the lack of effort to break the fall—they all testify to the fact that Watson has just been knocked out. This is one of the rare instances in which the actual knockout has been recorded by the camera.

MANY DUE TO ATTEND A. & M. COACH SCHOOL

COLLEGE STATION, Aug. 8. — Previous attendance records are expected to be shattered when the sixth annual short course for coaches at Texas A. & M. college, under the direction of Coach Homer Norton, opens its sessions on Aug. 18 to continue through Aug. 24.

Coach Norton will be assisted this year by his newly appointed staff consisting of J. W. (Dough) Rollins, former head football and track coach at East Texas State Teachers college, Commerce; J. V. (Siki) Sikes, who was basketball and assistant football coach at the same school last year; H. R. McQuillan, former coach at John Stetson University, DeLand, Fla.; Bill James, former line coach at Texas University and Lil Dimmitt, former Beaumont high school coach. W. L. Penberthy, of the physical education department, will instruct in physical education and intramural athletics. Blair Cherry, coach of Amalillo high school, state high school champion, will also assist.

Instruction will be given in the four major sports as well as the courses in physical education and intramural athletics. All courses will be available for those who desire to take the full instruction.

PRO FOOTBALL IN ITALY WINS WILD ACCLAIM

By VIRGIL PINKLEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
ROME, Aug. 8.—Association football today is Italy's most popular sport.

Persons who make their livelihood directly or in part from football number 1,000,000, according to official estimates.

Popularity of the game adopted from Great Britain is so great that there now are 2,650 recognized teams, with 65,000 players. During the past season 18,737 official games were played under the supervision of the Italian Football Federation.

Ding Schedules Played
Italian football, which is played annually from mid-September until June, centers around three divisions. Each division has 16 clubs. The teams play only on Sunday afternoons. Weather makes no difference.

The Italian sports fan generally knows his football thoroughly and is an ardent rooster. Supporters wear symbolic badges throughout the season. The greatest rivalry occurs between teams of the same city. For instance, in Rome the two clubs are Roma and Lazio. All anyone who desires trouble on a Sunday afternoon needs is to shout "Abasso Roma or Lazio" (down with Roma or Lazio) and he is accommodated willingly and quickly.

Rooters Use Cane
One of the most effective and respected methods of an ardent club fan to suppress a spectator who is in the wrong rooting section is to bang the misguided fan neatly on the head with a cane. This system is used with finesse and great speed.

Players receive an average salary of approximately 1,500 lire (about $125) a month throughout the year. In addition, prizes are given for victorious games, especially those played away from home.

Suav rosa prizes also are paid to championship clubs. Players are bought and sold in the same manner as football players in Britain or baseball stars in the United States. The average paid for players in the first division is 20,000 lire ($1,750), although Rome spent 260,000 lire ($23,140) for the services of Monzeglio, a fullback from Bologna.

Players Get Bonus
Players selected from first division teams for international matches receive from $40 to $80 from the Federation, depending on the result of the game, where it is played and difficulties encountered.

Speed and teamwork are the outstanding features of Italian football. Most players are not big men. This characteristic was shown in the international match against Great Britain last fall. The Italians looked like boys playing a professional club. The Britons were too powerful and rugged and their secondary line of defense was stronger. Great Britain won, however, only by a score of 3 to 2.

Latin Players Imported
Italian teams during recent years have purchased a number of players from Argentine, Brazil and Uruguay. These visiting athletes usually are used at wing and forward positions. Ticket prices for ordinary division matches range from 50 cents for standing room to $2.25 for reserved grandstand seats. Special discounts are given to soldiers, athletes and other special groups. Reserved grandstand seats for international contests cost $4.45.

Most good league games attract an attendance of 20,000 to 25,000.

Special Trains Run
Special trains offering greatly reduced rates are run on Sundays for football fans.

At present the Juventus club of Turin is on top of the football world here. During the past season Juventus won its fifth consecutive championship.

Other leading teams are Ambrosiana of Milan, Fiorentina, Florence and Roma and Lazio, of Rome.

Truthful Answer Irritates Police

PHILADELPHIA, August 8. — It was a hard chase. Police Captain Robert Strange ran a zigzag course down the street, dodging milk bottles, flower pots and other household projectiles.

"What've you got there?" the captain demanded when he had finally collared a frightened boy.

"Nuts," replied the youth, holding up a box. It was a warm day, and the captain was irked. He examined the box and found — nuts.

He arrested the boy on a charge of stealing nuts from a truck.

Remodeling White House Kitchen The home modernization program which has been pushed extensively by the New Dealers has finally reached the White House. Here you see the work on the "below stairs" portion of the executive mansion in Washington, which, when completed, will provide a completely electrified kitchen and adequate food storage facilities. Meanwhile President Roosevelt eats meals cooked in makeshift kitchen on the third floor.

THANKS from CONOCO

We want to thank our friends for their cooperation with us in our Crankcase Drainage Contest which resulted as follows:

Drained 57 Crankcases which amounted to 81 Gallons of Oil; Sold in bulk enough Oil to total 138 Gallons.

Breckenridge with whom we were contesting, drained 45 crankcases, which gave us a lead of 12 drainage jobs—thus beating them for the second consecutive time.

Again expressing our Thanks to our Cisco friends, who made this showing possible, we are,

Most Sincerely,
J. H. MITCHELL, Conoco Agent, bodies with too much speed even in so beautiful a country as this ... but on down...everyone watching for the first glimpse of the "Jewel of the Sierra Madre"...and here we are.

We have now descended into the vast bowl that contains the ancient city of no ones knows how ancient ... built on an ancient lake bed, parts of which still show as a shallow morass...no wonder the land is so rich...for many centuries nature builded this land from the silt and animal matter from the bottom of this vast body of water and then raised it up to do its part for many thousands of years in sustaining a race of people who were to carry on and then be succeeded by other races who would come after and wreak many other changes, but the land still not exhausted...and the beauty of surroundings enduring forever as a stimuli for the minds of master artists and builders.

But the city is fast becoming modern ... no dragging about in this city today...fine department stores...people rushing here and there, trying to sell you something ... or if you want something else, they drop their modern commercialism for a moment and rush away to find you a taxi or whatever you may have desired ... smiling and courteous...but alive with the new modernism that the foreigner is bringing in from his hectic lands across the seas or across the borders...Soon the ancient quaintness will be only a memory...a few places carefully preserved and guarded will remain as a reminder of the charm, the romance, the wonder of the Mexico which will be no more.

Amarillo Chorus To Sing at San Diego

MARAILLO, Aug. 8—The Balladrop Balladette mixed chorus of Amarillo Junior college will sing at the Pacific Exposition at San Diego during the week of August 11-17, it has been announced. Twenty-five members of the group will make the trip. The chorus has for the past three years been first ranking in its group at State Federation of music meets. Miss Alta Turk is director of the group and Hjalnar Bergh accompanist.

LIKE LUXURY
VANCOUVER, B. C. — China is mountain-climber's paradise, Mrs. Edith M. Clark, Vancouver importer of Oriental art objects, reports. The Chinese Alpinists recline comfortably in a hammock and are carried up the slopes by coolies, she says.

Protect Your Roses From Plant Lice

Don't let your lovely roses be spoiled by lice when it is so easy—and cheap—to protect them all season. Simply sprinkle the bushes with Bu-hach and you can know your roses will be safe. Human Slate' Sees Fortune From Body

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 8 — John Darch, 17, is a human slate, and has visions of making his fortune out of it. Through some strange substance in John's blood, writing done on his body with a stick remains legible for long periods. "I've had it stay for three and some times four hours," Darch says. "My doctors says I can make a fortune out of it."

'Dad' Joiner To Be Honored at Jubilee

HENDERSON, Aug. 8 — Leading citizen there are joining in a move to hold an oil jubilee in Henderson on Sept. 5. This will be the first undertaking of its kind to celebrate the discovery of oil in the East Texas field and C. M. (Dad) Joiner, who brought in the discovery well, will be the honoree. Plans are being made to feed 10,000 visitors for which a free barbecue is to be staged. Several of the large oil companies have joined in the move and many prominent oil men are expected to be present for the celebration.

H. A. Daley, local oil company representative, has been named chairman of the jubilee committee.

GIVE ME THREE WEEKS TO SHOW YOU WHAT I'LL DO ON GULF

A Sporting Offer: If your motor hasn't teamed up with Gulf lately you've no idea what a pair they can make! Give them 3 weeks together—a real workout. It's the only fair way to judge gasoline! And here's what to expect...

750 "Takers": 750 motorists accepted our offer—matched Gulf against their regular brands on mileage, starting, pick-up, power, all-around performance.

The Winner—Gulf! Over 7 out of 10 reported Gulf better on one or more of the 5 points—many on all five. For Gulf refining gives it not merely 2 or 3, but all five important gasoline qualities! Try That Good Gulf Gasoline 3 weeks—and you won't want to change!

15 ways to save GASOLINE MONEY

Q. What free Gulf battery service can help save gasoline? You'll find the answer in this Gulf Booklet, plus 14 other valuable economy hints. Free—at the Sign of the Orange Disc.
