WATKINS ASKS FOR LETTERS FROM FRIENDS

Writing the Cisco Daily Press from the Pacific area, Harry Watkins asks that his address be changed, since he is now with a different squadron.

He is a radioman gunner on a torpedo plane and a regular subscriber to the Press. Among other things he said:

"I enjoy reading the Cisco paper while away from home. I think it is the best paper in the country—always full of news about the home folks. I am now a radioman gunner in a torpedo plane and have been out on a couple of carriers—really have had some experiences at sea.

"Would like to hear from my friends in Cisco. My address is CAS U-5, radio department, care Fleet postoffice, San Francisco, Calif."

ARRIVED SAFELY.

Mrs. Charles Flaherty is happy because of a telegram from her son, Donald Flaherty. He said: "Arrived at Georgetown, N. Y., yesterday. Am feeling fine and will write tomorrow. Wasn't transferred to other ship. Don't worry."

REDS CLOSING IN.

MOSCOW, May 6. — The Red army was reported closing in on Novorossisk from the northeast today in a major offensive which had broken through the rim of the Kuban bridgehead on a 15½-mile front and threatened to envelop the Black Sea naval base.

DIXSON OF FEDERAL SECURITY AGENCY HERE BEHALF A RECREATIONAL PROGRAM

After a hearty meal which Rotarians pronounced one of the best they had eaten, R. N. Cluck, program chairman, presented the high school accordion trio in a series of numbers that were scored over and over, and this was followed by R. B. Dixon, of Austin, field representative of the federal security agency, who is in Cisco working out a recreational program with the local committee for the entertainment of the 300 woman trainees, who are students of the mechanics courses offered here.

Members of the accordion trio are Peggy Jean Gallagher, Francis Hanrahan and Yancey McCrea, Jr., who seemed at their best in their encore program.

A party of distinguished visitors from Abilene, consisting of W. T. Walton, vice president of Hardin-Simmons University; Don Morris, president of Abilene Christian College, and O. P. Thrane, vice president of McMurry College, dropped by to make up Rotary attendance and confer with Mr. Cluck.

Introducing Mr. Dixon, Rotarian Cluck said 14 states were represented in the personnel of the mechanics school, and added that so many women from so wide a scope of territory must necessarily bring many problems, some of which are the development of plans for recreational activities. Mr. Dixon, Cluck said, was here to arrange with the local committee for many varied kinds of recreation.

Mr. Dixon, first, had members and visitors rise and attempt certain simple drills, much to the merriment of all. He then plunged into his subject, showing how the war effort had brought many problems, not the least of which was providing wholesome recreation for workers as well as for civilians, whose morale must be kept to the highest point in order to get the most efficiency from every force of the nation.

Speaking of his work locally, Dixon said that Cisco was meeting her problems in a big way through organizing soft ball, tennis, swimming and many other forms of social contact. He said Cisco had many problems which grow out of the women brought to the mechanics school, but he reiterated that the local committee and the voluntary efforts of the citizenship were solving them in a very satisfactory way.

LAKE CISCO FISHING IS FIRST CLASS

Fishing is excellent at Lake Cisco, says Ray Judia, game warden at the lake, and numerous fine catches have been made, especially those made by H. T. Huffman, T. A. Graves, W. C. Clough and Karl and W. J. Armstrong.

Judia said Karl Armstrong got a great thrill when he landed a five-pound bass with a fly line.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—House pro-labor leaders today planned a battle to modify the Connally plant seizure bill, which passed the senate late Wednesday by a vote of 63 to 16.

CISCO'S NUR-ALL-DAY FELLOWSHIP SCHOOL MAY BE LOST

At a session of nursery school officials this morning, it was announced that lack of funds would compel the closing of the school on June 1, but some suggestions by Supt. R. N. Cluck left a little hope that perhaps, in some way, the school might be continued.

It was decided, according to Mrs. W. C. Hogue, president of the advisory board, to leave all equipment intact, so that if some means to continue was found, work could be resumed with minimum effort and preparation.

The school is serving about 50 children, Mrs. Hogue explained, and four people are doing the work, instead of the eight or ten needed. "We are hoping for a miracle to happen, so this service may not end at this time," the president added.

Those present at the conference this morning were Mrs. W. C. Hogue, Mrs. H. J. McArdle, Mrs. A. E. McNeely, Charles J. Kleiner and R. N. Cluck.

Eastland county's part in the national drive for April for Thirteenth Billion Dollars War Fund is now history.

Our quota for April was set at $628,168, and the five banks and thirteen postoffices of Eastland county have reported total issue price of sales in the sum of $1,071,921.25.

It is possible, when we receive credit for employer-employee deductions and from others out of the county who have purchased and asked to be credited to our drive, that the grand total will be $1,100,000.

Included in the sales listed is an item of $6,500 which the Brazos River Authority bought and gave credit to Eastland county.

Sales broken down are as follows:

Gorman	$ 252,641.00
Rising Star	244,567.00
Ranger	201,916.25
Cisco	181,865.30
Eastland	180,451.25
Carbon	2,648.75
Olden	853.95
Desdemona	406.10
Okra	27.40
Pioneer	22.15
Scranton	13.00
Dothan	7.75
Nimrod	1.35
Brazos River Authority	6,500.00
Total	$1,071,921.25

From these figures it will be seen that our total sales for April were twenty-two times our usual quota of $50,400 per month. It is really difficult for us as citizens to realize what a fine job we have done. In this effort, your co-chairmen have had the patriotic assistance of the banks, business corporations, newspapers, churches, service clubs, the regular war staff committees in each city and community and the united support of almost all the citizens of Eastland county.

While this has been a great accomplishment, we are sure there is not one of us that fails to realize that it is small as compared to what our boys and girls and their leaders are doing throughout the world as soldiers, sailors, airmen, marines, waacs, waves, spars, sea-bees and in other related services.

America has never lost a war, and we do not intend to lose this one. However, the quicker and better the preparation we make at home, the sooner the war will be over and the fewer will be the sacrifices made.

It is our understanding that Eastland county has more boys and girls in the services in proportion to population than any other of the 3,070 counties in the United States. We doubt that in the April Drive there were very many counties which made a better showing than our county.

Again, we want to thank you all for the magnificent job done! Very truly yours,

CYRUS B. FROST,
Chairman, War Savings Staff.

R. L. PONSLEER,
Chairman, Victory Staff.

WANTS RAIN.

J. T. Berry, former Ciscoan, but now looking after his lumber business at Stanton, is here on business today. He stated that it was very dry in his section, but that he was encouraged by the report that it was raining at San Angelo. Said he hoped that his part of Texas was getting some moisture.

RETURNS BY PLANE.

US. LIGHTNINGS SHOT DOWN NINE AXIS TROOP SHIPS OFF TUNISIA COAST LAST NIGHT

NORTH AFRICA, May 6. — American artillery set fire to the harbor area of Bizerte, Tunisia's second city, today while ground forces pounded closer from both the west and southwest and the British First Army captured battle-scarred Djebel Bou Aoukaz, last formidable barrier guarding the plain leading to Tunis, the capital.

Today's report said a formation of nine Axis airplanes was shot down by U. S. Lightnings off the Tunisia coast. A press dispatch from a forward air base said the nine included six air transports, at least two of which carried troops.

2nd Lieut. Richard Kenny of Coronado, Calif., said he saw "soldiers climb out on the wings and struggle in the water" after he shot down two Italian transports which bore Nazi markings.

A United Press dispatch from an advance Allied air base said reconnaissance planes reported Allied artillery bombarding the Bizerte harbor area while bombers joined in the assault. Docks, wharves and shipyards were afire, the dispatch said. The fliers credited the gunners with setting most of the fires.

Flying Fortresses also set widespread fires in the harbor area of Tunis and nearby La Goulette, the dispatch said.

Franco-American troops captured 300 prisoners in their fighting advances toward Bizerte from the west and southwest, while the British First Army seized 30 more in its successful assault on Djebel Bou Aoukaz.

(A German report broadcast by Berlin Radio said 13 of 24 attacking tanks were knocked out east of Mateur yesterday, while the Italians reported the Axis was engaged in "hard, defensive fighting.")

The capture of Djebel Bou Aoukaz, 11 miles northeast of Medjez El Bab, climaxed a week-long see-saw battle and brought the British to within six miles of Tebourba and 21 miles of Tunis, the capital. Farther south, other First Army troops already hold positions less than 20 miles west of Tunis.

American troops operating on the British left flank also had driven to within six miles of Tebourba from the west.

The main portion of the 2nd U. S. Corps farther north pressed its drive on Bizerte, beating off several counter-attacks and capturing "part of an important feature" in fierce fighting south of Lake Achkel, the communique said.

LAKE AMUSEMENT CO. IS PRIMING UP

A lot of improvements will be finished by Lake Cisco Amusement company this week, says Manager Monroe Sweeney. Lockers have been repaired, spring boards rebuilt and the big 40-foot diving tower has been repaired and strengthened and steps repaired, along with some painting which greatly improves the appearance of the buildings.

Schools of adjacent territory are beginning to come to the lake for their picnics—a class from the Moran high school is having a picnic and swimming party today, Sweeney said. We can be expecting one or more each day now until schools close out in June, he added.

The swimming pool will be cleaned out Friday night and filled with fresh, pure water, the manager stated.

SPEED.

This nation, more than any other, has gloried in speed. First there was fast horse racing, then fast bicycling, fast trains, fast motor-cycling and fast flying. It has seemed that man was destined to live by speed without limit. This nation especially has worshipped speed.

The latest triumph officially recorded is the transatlantic flight of a British transport plane, piloted by Capt. W. S. May of Montreal. He flew 2,200 miles from Newfoundland to Britain in a Liberator plane, in six hours and 20 minutes. Then, a few days later, these figures were cut to six hours and 12 minutes by another airman.

It is a wonderful feat, with doubtless more flying wonders to follow. But somehow there isn't the thrill there used to be in such announcements. Man gets used to speed and takes it for granted. As he does so, rationality tends to resume control.

Speed, man learns, though useful on occasion, is not much in itself. Familiarity breeds contempt. It may also breed sanity. The time may not be far ahead when mature men will get quite a thrill out of staying quietly at home. Some seem to be getting it right now.

One curious idea, now in process of liquidation, is that there are two or three governments in this country.

One trouble with education nowadays is too much science and not enough of the human studies.

FAITH.

Here's a man who certainly has confidence in his Uncle Sam. He is Simon Kronick, wounded veteran of World War I, who had never cashed his bonus from that war. The other day he took the bonus and its interest, added $135 from his own earnings, and bought a $2,500 bond.

The element that made this incident notable is its demonstration of faith. Simon believed in the first place that he could get along without using up that bonus the first minute he could cash it. He proved this faith by getting along without it all these years. It was a backlog freeing him from fear. He believed, moreover, that his government would be able to give him the cash whenever he asked for it. In this, too, he was justified.

Now, he still believes that the United States government is sound and will remain so. He is lending that bonus money, with some more, back to Uncle Sam.

Plenty of Americans join him in his faith, and are proving it by their response to the recent war loan drive. With the faith of those at home, and the works of the fighting forces, how can America be stopped?

AFRICA.

Whatever the Axis wants in the way of new territory, it can hardly be Africa and its riches. Broadly speaking, there are no such riches.

Most people think an undeveloped continent must necessarily contain great wealth. That is not always so. It is true only to a limited extent of Australia, and is not true of Africa.

Albert Q. Maisel, the author of a new book called "Africa: Facts and Forecasts," finds that the continent is both poverty-stricken and likely to remain so. South Africa has gold and diamonds, but there is no market for gold, and the great diamond mines are shut down. Egypt does well in long-staple cotton, cocoa is marketable, and palm oil, tin and rubber will command sales as long as the Far East is out of the picture. But almost everything else produced there is produced more cheaply or better by various other countries.

Add to all this the insects, the tropical diseases, and the climate, in all but a few parts unbearably hot. The heat could perhaps be borne and the diseases stamped out if it were worth the effort; but Maisel says Africa is not worth it. Certainly the Italians almost lost their shirts in their effort to develop one part of it.

TRUK.

Truk is a name to remember. Located in the Caroline Islands, it is the great Japanese naval base of the South Pacific. A thousand miles from Guadalcanal and 1,150 from Buna in New Guinea, it is too far for more than occasional American bombing. Yet a few well-placed bombs there would do more good than ten times their number almost anywhere in the Pacific.

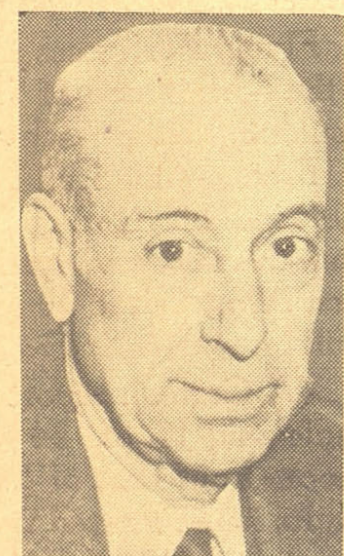

The track to Truk, if taken island by island, may be a long one. But taken it must be if the Japanese menace in the Pacific is to be done away with.

Who Wins?

Dallas News: The news behind the news from Washington is that the controversy over coal miners' wages will be worked out so that Lewis will win what amounts to a raise for the miners while the government wins what appears to be a victory in the eyes of the public.

Is the Ickes announcement of a guaranteed six-day week part of this scheme? Press dispatches state that 96 per cent of the mines have been and are now working on a six-day week. But this does not answer the question as to what might normally have been expected during the next few months. If there actually is need of full production to keep the nation's industries in operation, as Ickes states, then no harm can come of the guarantee. But, if it to be a program of government buying of coal that is not needed, purely for the purpose of keeping the miners from going on strike again, then the whole deal is a piece of camouflage and more harmful than an outright raise in wages would have been, because it will be just as inflationary in its effect, and it will have the additional harmful effect of keeping half a million miners engaged in useless work at a time when every ounce of the nation's manpower is needed at productive work and in the armed forces. If it is true that 96 per cent of the mines have been operating six days a week, and would have continued to do so through the summer season in order to supply industry's wartime coal demands, then there is little basis for the claim of Lewis with the miners' wage of $7 a day with time and a half for overtime ($45.10 for a six-day week) is inadequate because miners suffer so many layoffs. Possibly some sort of complicated agreement will come out of the present negotiations that will leave grounds for argument as to whether Lewis or the government won a victory. If the public really wants to know, it will have to wait only long enough to see what the other union leaders and the farm bloc in congress decide to do. If the miners win their objectives, either directly or in substance, there will immediately be demands from other pressure groups for a matching of these gains.

PUBLIC OPINION

Labor Bribes.
To the Public: I have three sons who volunteered. One in 1941 in the Army, one in early 1942 in the Marines and one in late 1942 in the Navy. All of them write hopefully and seem happy over the thought of fighting for liberty and their native land. They say that they are working hard, from sixty to seventy-two hours a week. They also say that they are getting heavier, stronger and healthier every day. Their officers tell them that the purpose of this hard work and long hours is to make them tough and able to stand the rigors of warfare. Isn't it a shame, a measly shame, that congress will not permit civilians to work more than forty hours without a bribe? Their excuse is that longer than forty hours will injure the workers' health, which, in view of the above, does not make sense.

MacArthur in Australia, Eisenhower in Africa, Chiang Kai-Shek in China, and Stalin in Russia are all crying for planes and other implements of warfare. Will their pleadings move congress, or will politics continue to rule?

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

PROGRAM HONORING MOTHERS AT YWA MEET.

The young women's auxiliary of First Baptist WMU met Tuesday evening in the home of their sponsor, Mrs. Leon McPherson. A splendid Mother's Day program was presented honoring mothers of members and a few other special guests.

The guests were met at the door by Misses Jeannette Burnam, Georgana Westfall and Sylvia Hazel and were presented with a corsage of red roses and a program.

Miss Jeffie Jean Robertson spoke words of welcome to the visitors and Mrs. Leon McPherson led in prayer. Mrs. Myrtle Anderson gave a response for the mothers. An accordion trio, Peggy Gallagher, Frances Hanrahan and Yancey McCrea, Jr., played

IN STEP WITH JOHNNY DOUGHBOY

Cisco and Eastland county are in step with Johnny Doughboy and the program to keep him supplied with material with which to fight the enemy in the remote parts of the world.

No strikes for higher wages here, but every body doing what he or she can to provide for the welfare of sons and husbands who are making the sacrifices—giving even their lives—for the sake of country and freedom from the domination of dictators should we fail to win the victory.

The school child with her drives for war stamps and bonds, the woman with her Red Cross aid that will serve to comfort in battle fields, and the farmer who is doing his part to grow food with which to feed soldiers and allies.

Yes, Cisco is in step with these moves. Eastland county has gone over the top with its bond quota and will continue to do the patriotic part for her soldiers.
