GOVERNOR BICKETT OF NORTH CAROLINA WARNS DEMOCRATS

Warns Them That If They Do Not Ratify Suffrage Amendment Some Other State Will — Tennessee Senate Against Suffrage Twenty-three to Ten, Based on Vote on Minority Report.

Associated Press.
RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 12.—De-ling that women should have "the right to speak when the issue is whether or not the world shall henceforth be ruled by reason and righteousness, or by blood and iron," Governor Bickett, in a special message, called upon the legislature to accept "the inevitable and ratify the woman suffrage amendment."

The governor warned his democratic friends that the most they will be able to do in defeating the ratification will be to delay "for six months a movement you are powerless to defeat." Adding that within the period of a few months "some other state will open the door and women will enter the political forum."

L. A. Hargrove, of Houston, vice-president and general manager of the gas company, will be here tonight to confer with the mayor and city commissioners relative to an increase of domestic gas rates in Cisco. There will be a meeting of the commission tonight for this purpose.

Mayor Williamson said today that before the matter was passed on finally there would be a mass meeting of the citizens called, probably some time next week, but they were not ready for it until the matter had been placed formally before the commission, which will be done tonight.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WILL MEET TONIGHT

There will be a meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce tonight when it is expected A. Hargrove, vice-president and general manager of the gas company, will appear before them as they desire to discuss with him the probability of Cisco having an adequate supply of gas the coming winter.

In order to secure this service it is necessary to install larger pipes in the southwestern portion of the city and if this is not going to be done, the Chamber of Commerce and Production wants to learn it in time to advise persons in that section of the city that it will be necessary for them to make other arrangements for fuel.

Another examination will be held next month for others of the local postoffice force.

Postmaster St. John stated that he hopes to have the new postoffice building ready for the inspector early next week.

AMERICAN LEGION NOT TOUCH MARTIAL LAW IN GALVESTON

Associated Press.
HOUSTON, Aug. 12.—The resolutions committee of the Texas branch of the American Legion will not permit the presentation of a resolution or motion touching on the proclamation of martial law at Galveston by Governor Hobby, it was announced here today by Legion members making preparations for the state convention to be held. This puts to rest any talk that the Legion might adopt a resolution in this regard, it was announced through Kent Watson, director of publicity. The convention date is August 22, 23 and 24.

A lively fight is expected when selection of a permanent headquarters for the state branch comes up on the floor of the convention. Dallas, San Antonio and Austin have lined their delegates to fight for the honor.

Guy O. Shirley, of Fort Worth, vice commander of the state organization, is expected by precedent of the 1919 state caucus, to succeed Henry Hutchings as state commander. No opposing candidate has been announced.

El Paso was the only city that has announced intentions of capturing the 1921 annual convention. Mr. Watson said, however, that he expected other cities to present their claim when the delegates begin arriving.

"KANGAROO" COURT IN CITY JAIL IMPOSES FINE ON "OUTSIDER"

There are about twenty prisoners in the city jail. They are whites and Mexicans and form the weed-cutting gang. During the recent rainy spell they have been kept in the city jail much of the time, and have organized the usual "kangaroo" court.

They show a wonderful spirit of thrift, and when a victim for trial is wanted they do not confine themselves to their own number, but let a visitor beware. Yesterday Stuart L. Williams, publicity manager for the Chamber of Commerce and Production trespassed slightly, placing his foot on a table of which the "kangaroo" court claimed to exercise jurisdiction, and Williams was arrested, tried and fined fifty cents.

He paid and avoided the strap. All the money finding its way into the court is expended for tobacco.

REGULAR COURIERS BETWEEN SOVIET IN RUSSIA AND I. W. W.

Diamond Supposed to Be Part of Crown Jewels of Russia Produced at Trial of Luedwig Martin, Self Styled Soviet Ambassador to the United States — Other Jewels Found.

Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—The Oscar Hitred diamond, supposed to have been a part of the famous jewelry of the Russian royal family and addressed to "Comrade Martens" was intercepted by customs officials while en route from soviet Russia to the United States, according to evidence introduced at the deportation proceedings against Luedwig Martens, self-styled soviet ambassador to the United States.

A sailor, with diamonds, also had in his possession a package containing a large amount of communist literature, including an "appeal of the executive committee of the third international at Moscow to the industrial workers of the world."

Details of a regularly established courier system between the bolshevik agent in Sweden and the soviet representatives in New York, by which large quantities of jewels have been transported for six months past, were also introduced as testimony by the government. It is announced.

GOVERNOR CANTU IS WILLING TO QUIT IF ALLOWED THE MONEY

Associated Press.
MEXICO CITY, Aug. 12.—Governor Cantu, of Lower California, is willing to abandon his rebellion against the government if he is permitted to remain in the office until December, agreeing to surrender the office to the successful candidate, according to advices to the government.

It is believed the proposition will not be accepted, because it would give him a chance to benefit from the export taxes from the new cotton crop and from the saloon and gambling concessions.

CLERK AIDS MINER AND FINDS HIMSELF HEIR TO A FORTUNE

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., Aug. 12.—The sudden transition from the humdrum existence of a store clerk on a small salary to the possession of a fortune of $60,000 was too much for Harry Duncan, and he fainted when a lawyer revealed the joyful tidings.

Duncan, living in a local rooming house, was approached by an attorney. "Is your name Harry Duncan?" he asked.

"That's what they call me," answered Duncan.

"Well"—and the lawyer struck a real movie pose—"I have the pleasure of giving you notice that a $50,000 legacy has been left you."

Duncan swooned.

About ten years ago, while working as a section hand, Duncan "grub-staked" an old miner, who later made a rich strike in the Cobalt mining region of Canada. Duncan had completely forgotten the incident until approached by the lawyer here, who informed Duncan that the miner had died five years ago, leaving a will that bequeathed $60,000 to his benefactor. The administrator of the estate had been looking for Duncan since the miner's death.

COTTON MILL COULD BE BUILT WITH PART LEFT OVER COTTON

Special to The News.
STAMFORD, Aug. 12.—West Texas towns and counties which have long desired cotton mills but have not had the proper aid can now build their own cotton mills by means of the "Give-A-Bale-of-Cotton" plan recently originated by Thomas M. Caton, pioneer Jones county farmer. Since the movement gained publicity it has been accepted as feasible by a number of counties which may be expected to adopt the plan and erect such mills.

Thousands of bales of cotton remain in the hands of the farmers because of the low market. Much of it cannot be sold. Farmers of this section have witnessed a hazardous situation, when they could not dispose of their product advantageously. They are willing to contribute from one bale upward in order to get themselves out of the present dilemma.

Now comes Mr. Caton with a proposition to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, which will solve the situation if adopted wholeheartedly by the farmers. Let reputable farmers form a cotton mill association. Farmers with cotton on hand can contribute to the association a certificate of stock valued at what the bale or bales actually bring when the sum total is sold and the funds derived applied in the common fund for the establishment of a mill, owned and operated by the farmers, who not only thereafter will have a cotton market, but will derive the huge profits therefrom. Say that 5000 bales of cotton in Jones county were given over to such a common stock and that this cotton would bring $500,000. That large sum could be invested in a Jones County Community cotton mill, which could be expanded in capacity and service with each succeeding year. In course of time the mills would multiply.

MANY OF ENGLAND'S WAR HEROES ARE OUT OF WORK AND HARD UP

LONDON, Aug. 12.—"Will the heroes of war become the outcasts of peace?" That is the question propounded the nation by the Daily Express, which points out that after July 31 a quarter of a million ex-soldiers and ex-sailors will no longer receive the government's out-of-work donation.

At present 180,000 of these men get the British equivalent of $5 weekly from the state. Most of the men are married and have several children. They have been unable to get work since demobilization, which was completed several months ago.

The government is considering further extension of the unemployment dole in worthy cases.

"Something will have to be done and done quickly," declares H. Griffin, secretary of the national ex-soldiers' federation. "You can't have these 250,000 men who have fought for their country walling the streets destitute."

OLD WOUNDED KNEE STILL LIVE INDIAN

Associated Press.
FAULKTON, S. D., Aug. 12.—Minus the lively colored feathers and war paint and otherwise a very peaceful citizen, Wounded Knee, one of the fast surviving Indians of the famous Custer battle, stopped over here recently to visit Indian friends. Wounded Knee is 34 years old and despite his age is traveling around visiting friends and relatives.

Wounded Knee sat in the middle of a curious crowd and told of the battle fought not far from here that meant the death of General Custer.

WEST TEXAS HAVING TOO MUCH RAIN FOR COTTON AND MAIZE

Special to The News.
STAMFORD, Aug. 12.—Showers have been falling over almost all of the cotton belt of West Texas in the last three days, according to reports to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. The rain fall at Stamford for the week has been considerably over an inch, practically all of the moisture having been absorbed by the earth. Cotton is not needing moisture at all, and maize which is now heading will not stand a great deal more rain, reports indicate.

As questionnaires are returned to the organization from many counties in West Texas, the indication is that the acreage this year will surpass that of last year by more than 40 per cent. This applies particularly to cotton.

Many of the counties which last year planted large tracts in wheat this year devoted this ground to cotton following the very dry early spring. Wheat was plowed under for the cotton.

The precipitation in many parts of West Texas this year has not been above the average for the period, but the distribution was more uniform. Abilene reports a total precipitation for the year of less than 18 inches, and Stamford's total rainfall this year will reach about 21 inches. In 1914, the heavy precipitation year, the government gauge at Abilene showed more than 45 inches. In some parts of the state in 1918, the dry year, the rainfall was less than seven inches. No extremely heavy rains have fallen over the West this year, but they have been gentle and penetrating.

NEW SELLING TERMS FOR FARM LANDS IN THE GULF COUNTIES

Associated Press.
CORPUS CHRISTI, Aug. 12.—Complete reversal of the generally understood methods of securing settlement of land by farmers has been proposed by members of the Rural Land Owners' association, composed of land owners in twenty counties of the Texas Gulf coast district. Practical farmers with capital, under this plan, are to be allowed to begin farming land and improving it, their payments being deferred over a long period.

The cash the farmers possess, it is proposed, could thus be expended upon improvement of the raw land, acquisition of livestock and erection of necessary buildings, making the land pay for itself in crops raised.

The usual procedure is to require payment of at least one-third cash, and the remainder in one, two and three years' time. This plan, directing the farmer of his capital at the start, has been responsible for more agricultural failures in the Southwest than any other single factor. It was stated in the offices of the Rural Land Owners' association here.

OLD TIME ENGINEER GRANTED A PENSION BY THE KATY COMPANY

Associated Press.
DENISON, Aug. 12.—J. S. Clark, who has for forty years "pulled a throttle" on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas rail road, has been pensioned. Clark began his long services as an engineer in 1880, at Sedalia, Mo., after serving two years as a fireman.

He was transferred to the Denison district four years later. He has had thirty-six years of continuous service on the various divisions of this city. For many years he was in passenger service, but was forced to give that up a few years ago and take an engine in yard service here. Clark has been in several wrecks, but was never seriously hurt.

RECORD CROP OF FRUIT PROSPECT IN COLORADO

DENVER, Aug. 12.—Thirteen thousand refrigerator cars will be required to move Colorado's huge fruit crop this season, it was estimated here by the state utilities commission.

The Western slope reports a record-breaking fruit crop and growers in that section are making strenuous efforts to secure 9,000 cars for their peaches, pears and other fruits, while the Rocky Ford region, in Eastern Colorado, seeks 4,000 cars for its output of melons.

Of the 13,000 cars, 7,000 will have to be fully iced.

WHAT ENGLAND WILL DO TO ASSIST POLES AS AGAINST RUSSIA

Most Recent Statement of Lloyd George May Be Taken to Mean Either Peace or War — Poles Putting Up Heroic Defense As Bolsheviki Continue Their Advance Toward Warsaw.

Associated Press.
LONDON, Aug. 12.—Significant reference to the present crisis was made by Premier Lloyd George, addressing a meeting on the coal situation of the liberal side Thursday.

After expressing fervent hope for cooperation between England and France, the premier continued, apparently alluding to the possibility of war with Russia:

"When the terrible question of peace or war has been decided, our first duty as a government is to the people, who trust us not to commit our treasure to any unjustifiable adventure."

"Nothing but the most imperative call of national honor, national safety and national freedom, can justify war. Before this country is committed to it, even in a most limited form, we must be satisfied these are in peril."

Bolshevik Advances.
WARSAW, Aug. 12.—Polish successes on the southern front, where the Russians have been pushing for Lemberg, are reported in an official statement.

Polish cavalry and infantry ousted the bolsheviks from Radziechoff, Lityn, Stanyslawek and Toproffu. These towns are in the district northeast of Lemberg, and to the west and northwest of Brody, on the old Galician border.

Fighting is continuing further south along the Stripa.

Poles' Heroic Efforts.
WARSAW, Aug. 12.—The soviet forces are attacking the line northeast and east of here, reaching a point twenty-five miles from Warsaw.

A state of siege is declared here. Civilians are not permitted in the streets after ten at night and cafes must close at nine.

The determination of the bolsheviks to press on toward Warsaw is demonstrated at various points of the battle line, hand to hand fighting occurring in many instances.

The Poles are savagely defending their positions and have contested every foot of the ground.

Fighting was reported Thursday within thirty miles of the capital.

It is said Pulaski changed hands several times, and at the last account fighting was proceeding in the Vistula.

British Labor Objects.
LONDON, Aug. 12.—Opposition of British labor to assistance in war against soviet Russia was voiced with extraordinary vehemence and absolute unanimity at a special conference here, representing all elements of the workers.

Flying Russian Colors.
LONDON, Aug. 12.—The news is that a number of bolshevik units on the Dunaburg front are flying the old Russian colors, white red and blue. This is taken to confirm that the bolshevik idea is to foster a nationalist spirit among the troops.

Peace Delegates to Meet.
WARSAW, Aug. 12.—Polish commissioners with authority to negotiate a preliminary peace, expect to leave here early Saturday morning to meet Russian soviet delegates somewhere on the road between Warsaw and Brest-Litovsk, the foreign office announces.

The meeting, it is said, will take place between 5 and 7 o'clock Saturday morning.

American and British newspaper correspondents will be permitted to accompany the Poles, the bolsheviks having invited their attendance.

COUNTY'S WEALTH

The total assessed valuation of Eastland county, as rendered for taxation, is found to be $32,461,110. When it is considered that a member of the board of county commissioners who has held that office sixteen years, remembers when the total valuation of the county did not amount to as much as the rendition of one oil concern at present, a good idea of the wonderful increase in the wealth of the county may be obtained.

The official figures show that almost one-half, or near $24,000,000, of the total, is represented by holdings of the oil companies. The total assessed value of the county two years ago was about $10,000,000, and one year ago, $24,000,000. These figures show that not all the increase in the county's wealth has been in oil properties.

And that is just the point and one at present too frequently overlooked. The advance in the wealth of the county, represented by oil properties, is wonderful, but deduct the $24,000,000, rendered by oil concerns, from the total and you find that the value of all other property in the county, as rendered for taxation, amounts to more than $8,000,000.

$8,000,000 represents the value of property in agriculture, livestock, banks, merchandise, manufactures and everything substantial in the commercial world. This is the portion of the total which is the real basis of Eastland county's real wealth.

Oil may come and oil may go. Gas may blow and it may cease to blow, but the broad acres of productive land, the fields and orchards, the ranges, covered with cattle and hogs, the mercantile establishments, the manufactories, the railroads, the industries so well established and others to follow, will go on increasing the wealth of Eastland county long after the oil and gas era passes, if it does and that has been the history of every oil field.

Towns, cities and villages are built rapidly on the wave of excitement attending any development of a great oil field; some drop out and are forgotten, others built only on the bubble, continue to hang on, but their permanent growth is always retarded by reason of having made the wrong start, while others, beginning in a substantial way, or having already been well established when the "boom" came along and continued the even tenor of their way, building and establishing permanently, looking to the wonderful agricultural resources of the county; for Eastland county is first and all the time an agricultural section, not overlooking the development of all its resources, holding its efforts within conservative lines, will continue to progress, to build, to increase in population and wealth and live.

This is history. Cisco, of all the towns in the county, leads in this class. What it has built it has builded well and with a view to the future wholesome prosperity of its people. It has overlooked nothing. Its wealth has increased in a ratio equal to that of any other portion of the county, even if it has not exceeded it in the same manner as its wonderful increase in population.

Eastland county is rich, is one of the richest counties in the state and its resources probably have only been "scratched." Its future is all that can be prophesied for it. It will continue to grow in wealth and population, its towns and cities will continue to improve.

Some of these have yet to reach a "house-cleaning," to rid themselves of an undesirable element which always comes with the rapid development of a town or city and when this is done and the law abiding citizens settle down to enjoy the wealth the county offers to the wide awake and industrious, it will be with a realization that the chaff has been blown away and only the pure wheat remains.

Cisco and the other cities of the county can find no better advertisement to send abroad, both in their respective interests and that of the county, than this statement of the assessed valuation of the county, showing in what short time it has been accumulated, even impressing the fact that the real basis of this wealth was here before the discovery of oil and that Eastland county would be very rich even had oil never been discovered within its borders.

MARTIAL LAW.

In its application to the courts, the city of Galveston failed to get out from under martial law. It is true the case went off the docket on a plea to the jurisdiction, but had it gone to trial on its merits the plaintiff, the city of Galveston, would have been compelled to show that the disorder prevailing there before the troops were sent to the city and martial law proclaimed, would not at once be renewed and this, with the same element which brought about the disorder remaining there, would have been beyond the power of the plaintiff to do.

The necessity of martial law is something to be always deplored, but to such an extent had lawlessness in Galveston reached that it was not only a menace to life and property in the city, but had materially interfered with the business of the entire state, and with commerce and resulted in a great injury and damage to the whole people.

Courts very largely take judicial cognizance of the conditions existing to an extent to demand a proclamation of martial law and while the civil law should prevail, they will be slow to interfere when the result of their decisions might tend only to a renewal of disorder, or illegal acts, beyond the power of the government of a city to control.

How long this condition of affairs in Galveston may continue is problematical, but it does not speak well for the state when it is admitted there is within its borders men who are able to successfully defy the law and create and maintain a reign of terror, menacing life and property and preventing the carrying on of business in a legal manner and refusing to other men the rights guaranteed them by the constitution.

Galveston, by ever permitting this condition to arise in that city, has brought stigma upon the state and it devolves on that city to remove this before it can come into the courts for relief.

GRAIN MOVEMENT HELD UP BY CAR SHORTAGE

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—Movement of wheat to Chicago is being seriously interfered with by the shortage of freight cars.

Officers of the Chicago Board of Trade declare that in normal times the influx of new wheat, beginning about July 15, averages twenty cars a day. Up to the present time the average has not exceeded five cars a day.

It is stated that considerable wheat of last year's crop also remains to be shipped, having been delayed by inadequate shipping facilities. Normally the old crop is disposed of and preparations made for quick movement of the new crop by July 15. Last year the first of the new wheat arrived on July 7. The first arrival this year, a single car, was on July 15, the date on which trading in wheat for future delivery was resumed here.

AMUSEMENTS

Judia.
There are some great moments packed with action and suspense in "Hell's Hinges." Among other scenes, two stand out particularly. One is the fight between the tough and the good elements of the town, which results in the temporary victory of the evil forces.

They signalize their triumph by burning down the church. But the evildoers had not reckoned with Blaze Tracy (Wm. S. Hart). When he comes riding in and finds that the church has been destroyed, the rascald minister killed, and the woman he loves in danger of insult, his wrath exceeds bounds. He kills Silk Miller, the crafty and treacherous saloon and gambling house keeper, and stands off a whole room full of desperate men while he shoots in two the wires by which the lamps are suspended.

There seems danger that the whole bunch will be consumed in the flames, but Blaze shows them to slink out. In the narrow, winding streets, there are scenes of disorder and excitement as the flames of destruction sweep over the whole town. See "Hell's Hinges" at the Judia tonight.

Victory.
Claire Anderson, one of the most charming blondes on the screen, and leading woman with almost every important male star of the past two years, has the leading feminine role in "The Girl in Number 23," in which Frank Mayo will appear at the Victory Theater tomorrow. Miss Anderson is probably best remembered for her wonderful acting in the Triangle production, "The Servant in the House."

National Airdome
Answering the age-old question, the sobriety of which has dumped philosophers and followers of Occultism into a timid silence, D. W. Griffith, creator of "Birth of a Nation," "Intolerance," and other film sensations, will present his latest creation, "The Greatest Question," at the National Airdome tonight. Griffith's presentation of his latest spectacle at the National Airdome will mark the linking of the world's most famous cinema producer with the First National Exhibitors' Circuit which has contracted for the distribution of a number of special attractions by D. W. Griffith.

Judia.
A succession of hair-raising stunts, declared to be beyond belief until seen with your own eyes, feature "Terror Island," the Paramount Artercraft screen melodrama starring Houdini, which will be shown at the Judia Theater tomorrow. The exploits of the famous self-liberator before the camera are said to be even more baffling than those which he demonstrated on the vaudeville stage. A well developed story has been written around Houdini's feats by Arthur B. Reeve and John W. Grey. It presents Houdini as the inventor of a secret submarine device with which he hopes to salvage the cargoes of wrecked ships. However, through his meeting with a girl whose father is held captive on a South Sea island, Houdini is forced to put his invention to work sooner than he anticipated. Clashes with the native islanders in which Houdini makes all sorts of unbelievable escapes while under water from safes and packing boxes, a fight with a diver on the ocean bottom, as well as several feats of magic that mystify the audience as much as they do the South Sea natives on the screen are only part of the program of thrills.
