OIL POOLING BILL PLACED IN LEGISLATURE'S HOPPER

Citizens of Eastland County, producer of some $2.5 million worth of oil and gas a year, have a special interest in the "pooling" bill now before the Texas Legislature, James L. Sewell, Dallas, president of Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association, reported this week.

"Although Eastland County has production, the oil men who operate here, as well as the landowners and governmental officials, are interested in securing maximum development," Sewell said. "A pooling law will encourage a more efficient and more equitable approach to development of our oil and gas resources."

A measure, supported by all segments of the Texas petroleum industry after two years of intra-industry conferences and study, was reand entry fees paid by February 11 according to Robert Kincaid, Morton Valley rancher and general superintendent of the show that each spring brings hundreds of exhibitors and animals together for the annual event at the show ground a mile from downtown Eastland near the city lake.

A new feature of the show this year will be a judging contest for FFA and 4-H Club teams on Friday night, March 12th. Glyn Gilliam, Ranger banker and vice president of the livestock group has announced that his bank will sponsor the top trophy of the winning judging team.

As in the past there will be two large divisions of the show. The Junior division is open to any FFA or 4-H Club boy enrolled in a public school in the county. Adults and juniors from adjoining counties will show in the open division. Cash premiums are to be awarded only to the county members.

Sale of the fat steers, lambs and pigs will be held at the Eastland Auction Sales Barn, Hwy. 80 East on the last night of the show. Judging of all divisions will be on March 12 and 13th prior to the auction.

Committees from all over the county have been named and some have been working on plans for the events for the past several weeks, Kimmell said.

Big Quantity Of Beef, Chicken Given Schools

Texas schools participating in the national school lunch program have been allotted 8,022,000 lbs. of frozen beef and 2,490,000 lbs. of frozen chicken bought by the U. S. Department of Agriculture during 1964. This represents Texas' share of the 51.9 million lbs. of chicken and 178.5 million lbs. of frozen beef purchased to help schools meet protein requirements for lunches served under the school lunch program, explains John J. Slaughter, area food distribution director of USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service. The allotments will provide about 1 1/2 servings of beef per child per week, and 7 1/2 servings of chicken per child during this school year. Around 3,320 schools operating cafeterias under the national school lunch program in 1964 — the largest single feeding operation in the state. These cafeterias feed nearly 30 percent of the students enrolled in elementary and high schools. Under the program, USDA contributes cash and foods accounting for about one-fifth of the cost. Children's meal payments make up around 60 percent of the cost and local and state sources pay the remaining 20 percent. The State Education Agency will allocate the beef and chicken among Texas schools participating in the national school lunch program and the State Department of Public Welfare will make distribution.

AMA Discourages New Sports Fads

The athlete — including the weekend golfer or skier — who experiments with pep pills, whiffs of oxygen, odd dietary supplements and other such fads in the hope of improving performance is doomed to disappointment and may even be courting bodily harm.

Sports, with their premium on endurance and top performance, are fertile soil for experimentation with a wide variety of what physicians call "ergogenic aids," ergogenic being defined as increasing the capacity of bodily and mental effort, especially by eliminating fatigue symptoms.

The mystique of the readiness of the athlete for competition intrigues the sports enthusiast, says a joint comment of the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations and the Committee on Medical Aspects of Sports of the American Medical Association.

None of the fads, fallacies and quackery associated with ergogenic aids is of any more assistance to athletic success than the superstition of never changing underwear during a winning streak, the joint statement says. And some of the practices may even be hazardous if carried to extremes.

For safe and effective performance, there still is no alternative to the fullest utilization of one's natural resources through good personal health practices, top physical conditioning and confidence in one's ability based on careful coaching and good medical supervision.

The four-minute mile barrier was broken ten years ago and running the mile in the 3:50's is now commonplace although it was long considered impossible. Athletes set new records not through gimmicks but through spartan self-discipline and effort focused on peak condition and extreme refinement of skill.

The two sports groups label over reliance on isometric exercises as a fad for which claims have been exaggerated. Isometrics can increase muscular strength but they do not assist range of motion or heart lung endurance. The notion that extra vitamins are needed by athletes is labeled as a fallacy. The essentials of a normal good diet with sufficient quantity to satisfy increased caloric expenditure are all that's required.

Pep pills that lessen the feeling of fatigue obviously can be dangerous, in that they lead to exertion far beyond the body's capacity, and also impair judgment.

For top performance in sports, there's no artificial substitute for good coaching, thorough conditioning, many hours of practice and general good health. These cannot be obtained from a bottle or box.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

January 23rd, 1965

Aloha:

Good things have a way of ending, and with the docking of the Lurline at Aloha Tower Thursday morning, a very enjoyable trip to Honolulu ended. The trip out was very smooth with exception to the rolling swells of the Pacific which have a way rolling the ship causing one to have the same rolling sensation. During the first twenty four hours ashore one can still have the same rolling sensation when looking in a mirror.

Thursday morning we were up at six o'clock for a buffet breakfast on the promenade deck. The lighted horizon before the sun came up outlined the island of Molokai on our port side, and looking ahead off the starboard bow we could see the Makapuu Point lighthouse which is eastern tip of Oahu. Still further ahead we could see Koko Head. Due to heavy rain the clouds we could not see the better known Diamond Head. The shore area between Koko Head and Diamond Head is now built-up with all kind of houses. Very little of the area east of Diamond Head was accessible to the public until after WW II. At 7:20 o'clock the sun came up with a display of color. We must catch the picture very quickly as the sun first shows its tip above the ocean because within a few seconds it is clear above the water.

After taking a few pictures on the stern deck we returned to the starboard side just as the sun broke through the clouds to shine on Diamond Head. After passing this landmark we could see Waikiki Beach and Honolulu. The weather was making the sea very rough at this time. At 8:45 o'clock several smaller craft met us offshore to put hotel representatives aboard. Only two were able to come alongside, they were the tugs Mahala and Kolo. Other craft had to turn back, which cancelled the morning entertainment which was to be sent from the shore. The larger and very colorful catamarans from the Hilton and other large hotels escorted us to the harbor entrance. By the way — one fellow asked, "You're from Cisco, Texas?" Yes, was my reply. He said, "Why, that's where Hilton went in to the hotel business." I then told him the building was still standing.

The reception at dockside was very friendly and many greeters on hand with flower leis, music by the Royal Hawaiian Band and the hula dances by a lovely and graceful Hawaiian young lady. Baggage flows ashore like clock-work and we were soon ashore and on our way to the hotel.

For those who have not seen Honolulu since the war days it is difficult to choose correct words to describe the changes. Where a few hotels stood in 1942, today there are hundreds. The skyline is dotted with tall buildings, both private and government, also industrial. Housing is climbing up the slopes of the mountain background of Honolulu, and the streets are crowded with automobiles.

Yesterday was spent at Pearl Harbor, where we found security very close. By public bus the trip was made without much delay at transfer points. It is interesting to watch the faces of all races here, and we have found them friendly and willing to talk with us. Through the Naval Public Information Office we secured a permit to tour the harbor on a Naval craft. We are permitted to photograph the Arizona Memorial and the hull of the old Utah. Other areas were closed to cameras. Some well known ships were in the harbor but most ships are on patrol or exercise duties. Hickam Field, Ford Island and other landmarks are about the same, of course there is new construction. Jets flit about replacing the jobs you flew in the Pacific. Jets have made Ford Island obsolete due to limited runways. It was a very enjoyable day.

Perhaps I can tell you more later and assure you another Pearl Harbor Day won't happen. Will tour the submarine base next Tuesday.

Tell Dr. C. E. Paul that Dr. Harold Yamamoto sends his very best Aloha to him. He and Dr. Paul were classmates several years ago.

Supt. Roach saw service at the Kaneohe Air Station where the Marines now fly about. The old winding road over Nuuanu Pali is still in use but much of it has been straightened by additional roadways. A new highway has been constructed to the north and goes through the mountain in a tunnel. Wonder if the Supt's footprints are still on the Kaneohe beach. Perhaps the seat of his trousers.

Will begin the other island hop sometime next week. Will try to make another entry in the log then.

Our address: Royal Tropicana Hotel 340 Royal Hawaiian Ave Honolulu, Hawaii 96815. J. L. JACKSON

Dear Editor:

The editorial "There Is No Such Thing As An 'Off-Election Year,'" urging us to be qualified to vote this year, is a good reminder of our responsibility as a citizen. The elections in our own community are the most important of all.

Our children are growing up here. For those we love we wish to give the best home, church, school, and city government that we can afford. While we are trying to expand industrially, may we develop an attitude of warm friendliness and sincere hospitality. People will come to our town and stay.

Respectfully yours, Patricia Anderson

LOBO DIN

By SUE COLLIER
Monday, the spring term began, after midterm tests, everyone was next to exhausted and Monday was truly a day. It seemed that everyone's resistance was lower to the flu, and it spread around school very quickly. A report from the office says that the daily absence average for the past week was about 40 people a day.

The Tuesday "Sing Song" was cancelled because of sore throats. Along with the new term, two student teachers from ACC, Miss Chisum, and Miss Dalhart, and Miss McDonald, who is from Monroe, will practice teaching for eight weeks. At ACC, Miss Chisum is president of Campus Service Organization, woman's service club, member of ACC Home Economics Club, and a member of SEA. Miss McDonald is vice-president of Home Economics Club, and a member of Student Education Association, CSO, and Gata Social Club.

Fort Worth Man To Inspect Local Masonic Group

Sir Knight Richard T. Porter of Fort Worth will visit the Cisco Commandery No. 47 for an official inspection at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, Feb. 4, at the Masonic Hall here, according to a report by Recorder Carl D. Gorr.
The junior warden of the Grand Commandery of Texas, who will be here in a district tour, will be honored at a dinner at the Victor Hotel at 6:30 p. m., an hour before the meeting, Mr. Gorr said.
John L. Rose of Albany, commander of the commandery, urged all members to attend.

Heart Disease Tops State's 10 Killers

Ten killers are at large in Texas. These killers aren't bandits or criminals — they are the ten leading causes of Texans' deaths.

The ten leading killers account for a giant share of 82,692 Texans who died in 1963. The latest statistics released by the State Health Department categorize, profile and dissect the leading killers.

This is how they stack up on paper. Heart disease took the lion's share — one out of every three deaths in the State. National statistics also show the same leading cause of death.

Cancer ranks second, taking 15 per cent of the State's total number of deaths. Apoplexy — or stroke — is classified as the third most deadly, with 11 per cent of the death total.

Accidents, as the fourth leading killer, claimed 5,999 lives, or seven per cent of the total. Death due to accidental cause takes the largest percentage of lives for the age groups between one and 45.

Disease of early infancy, fifth in sequence, takes its toll — of course — below the one year marker.

Pneumonia ranks sixth in the line-up of killers claiming five per cent of the deaths. General arteriosclerosis, diabetes mellitus and congenital malformations are the seventh, eighth and ninth cause of death, respectively.

Suicide is the tenth leading cause of death. It first ranked tenth in 1958. Deaths from suicide increase in number each year.

The ten leading causes of death and other vital statistics are released yearly by the Health Department's Records and Statistics Section.

Rather than being cold, impersonal statistics, these figures represent your friends, neighbors and loved ones. Takes these facts personally, they are killers.

WSG T MEET
The WSG of First Methodist Church will meet at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the home of Mrs. R. N. Sanders. Mrs. Sutton Crofts will bring the meditation, and a program on "The Disciplined Life" will be presented by Mrs. Derward Morris.

Karnes Exhibit Well Received By Viewers

By MRS. S. E. HITTSON
The art work of Ben Karnes of Breckenridge on exhibit in the Cisco Public Library has been well received as evidenced by the enthusiasm of the viewers. Many have returned for a second and third study of the works.

Plans are being formulated for the art students in the Public Schools and Cisco Junior College to attend. A private showing was given for the benefit of the Girl Scout Troop 33, Tuesday afternoon. Library hours are Monday, Wednesday and Saturday 2 until 5 p.m., but for the benefit of those students and teachers who want to see the collection as a group, arrangements may be made by calling Mrs. S. E. Hittson, HI 2-1241.

Among the collection are two unusual works created not with brushes, but by dipping and throwing the paint, a method introduced by Hans Hofmann of California who has been called the greatest teacher of painting since the Renaissance. Later Jason Pollock was to concentrate exclusively on this idiom of dripping and throwing paint from the can, and has won world wide fame. One collage is entitled "Unnamed" with a background of orange and black brush applied and the symbolic "magic writing" in black and white applied with a mesquite bean. One art critic says this "magic writing" suggests man's age old ritual attempts at divining, or controlling one's destiny, exerting power over nature, or foretelling the future. Scribbling as if to perform magic with mysterious words is found in many forms, and may be associated with the "maze" form so common in ancient and primitive art — as in the labyrinths found in Crete. This reviewer particularly liked the work entitled "Yellow Daze." Squares and

Conserving Resources Is Program Subject

Mrs. P. G. Berry, conservation chairman, presented a program on "Our Heritage of Natural Beauty — National Parks" at a meeting of the Charles Crawford Chapter, DAR, in the home of Mrs. W. D. R. Owen in Eastland last Monday.

The speaker stressed the urgent need of reforestation, proper use of forests, preservation of our water supply, proper use of and reclamation of our soil, protection of our wild flowers and wild life, and proper use of all public lands, including national, state, and local parks.

Mrs. Berry told the DAR members that a successful conservation program in our nation depended upon public concern — the concern of every individual.

Mrs. Joe Clements, regent, presided over the business session.

rectangles in yellow and cream form a background with the illusion of a long corridor marked by tall Cathedral columns. The drip and thrown turquoise "magic writing" creates a beautiful symphony in color.

The public is cordially invited to the exhibit.

Refreshments were served to the following: Mmes. Edward F. Horrigan and Amy Brown, both of Ranger; Mmes. W. D. Owen, C. E. Terrell, C. B. Wellman, and Joseph M. Perkins, all of Eastland; Mmes. P. G. Berry, N. A. Brown, Joe Clements, F. E. Harrell, Raby Miller, Roy Reed, Homer Slicker, Alex Spears, Robert Stewart, D. E. Waters, T. C. Williams, all of Cisco; and Mrs. Blanche Chapman of Little Rock, Ark., guest of Mrs. Reed.

WHITE ELEPHANT SALE

This is the craziest kind of sale you ever heard of! To tell the truth there's not a thing that's worth shouting about! It's just a conglomeration of odds and ends, slow movers, buyers' mistakes, and things you wouldn't even think of buying . . . not if you are in your right mind. If you want to have some fun you might come on in and join the crowds, but if the weather is cold and disagreeable you'll be better off to just stay at home and play with the kids! There is no use wasting your money!

WOMEN'S HATS

You've got hats in your closet that you bought 5 years ago that look better than these! Many of the hats have been tried on so many times they are out of shape. One woman stuck her finger thru one hat and then exclaimed, "Oh, did I do that?" Another good lady decided the next day after one of the town's social functions that the hat just did not look good on her! Do you want to take a chance? All hats to $7.95. . . take your pick, $1.00 each . . .

LADIES' ROBES

Even during the height of the Christmas season these 17 robes looked out of place on our robe rack. We should have sent them to relatives as gifts, but . . . well, here they are! We just now have had time to mark them down. 14.95 values $4.97!

WOMEN'S WOOL SKIRTS

If you have sensitive skin you won't be able to wear one of these wool skirts! The wool is the Rocky Mountain scratchy kind. We have all sizes, styles and colors but when we find a customer the color or the size is always wrong—but why wear uncomfortable skirts even though you can get $9.98 to $12.98 values for only $4.97?

LADIES' SWEATERS

All the stylists and even "Seventeen" magazine were stressing the fashion smartness of smart sailor collars on the bulky sweaters. We have 6 of these left in snow white with high color trims — $14.95 originally, now $4.97!

WOMEN'S DRESSES

You are really bad off for a dress if you buy one of these regular $10.98 to $24.98 values! Why we bought such dresses is beyond us! Pull out some of your last year's dresses instead of buying one of the 40 left at $3, $5, or $7!

WOMEN'S FLATS

One group of regular $4.99 to $7.99 shoes that will make your feet look flat, $2.97!

WOOLENS

2 pieces of wide woollens in solids . . . they were $2.98 yard. It is a matter of pride with us to sell out completely . . . $1.00 per yard for what's left!

PRINTED CORDUROYS

Bad patterns, warm values . . . 98 printed corduroys — 2 yds $1.00!

BOYS' OVERALLS

They are okay, these $1.98 overalls of corduroy in sizes to 6 at .88 a pair!

LADIES' CORDUROY SLICKS

They haven't been best sellers at $2.98 . . . but you will have to hurry if you want a pair at $1.00!

BOYS' FLANNEL AND BROADCLOTH SHIRTS

Mostly small sizes but some up to size 16. Also a few corduroys mixed in that sold up to $2.98 — $1.00 each!

GIRLS' SLACK SETS

Group of girls' slack sets that we are tired of moving about. They are good for mud pie cooks and small football players! Sizes 3-6X and 7-14. At $1.44 and $2.44 you should be able to let them do anything in them.

GIRLS' PAJAMAS

These are the odds and ends of nylons and flat knit pajamas — the color is usually wrong but you can surely close your eyes to the color at $1 pair.

MEN'S VESTS

Every man likes to feel he is the "most important!" How about the black or white vest he wanted? Values to $5.95 now $2.00 each. Try one for Valentine!

LADIES' WOOL SLACKS

We can always depend on the cold weather in February to force the workers and other people to buy these all-wool slacks for use as work slacks! Do you want to gamble that it will be cold? If you do, buy these $3.95 slacks now for $1.99.

TROOPER CAPS

The No. 1 leading style winter cap! Our buyer bought black and beige, the only colors that did not sell. Do you want one for 1/2 price . . . $1.49?

MEN'S SALE—100 PAIRS LOAFERS AND OXFORDS

Blacks, char browns, sharp toes, medium toes . . . the works! I don't even remember why they were bought . . . we honestly thought that they would sell for as much as $12.95 but kinda mis-figured. Will they sell at $5.97? Only you can tell. The selection is poor enough so you better be here early.

LADIES' BOOTS

They failed to sell with us this year and we aren't fooling! Do you want a pair of these $7.95 & $8.95 boots for only $3.97? Nothing reserved. Crocco Moccas and lined ones.

GRAB BOX

Here is the spot to settle your curiosity . . . one big table piled high with grab boxes! Every item guaranteed to be at reduced prices and some terribly cheap! Buy it, if it isn't your size or style you will have the first gift for this year's Christmas! If you will ask us on the side we will tell you frankly that this is some goods that we made such a mistake in buying that it has to be sold sight unseen . . . Try your luck — it might be just the item you have always wanted.

MEN'S SPORT SHIRTS

You will think that these sport shirts were made out of scraps and rejects and you may be right. Why else do you think we would sell regular $3.95 sport shirts for $1.89?

WOMEN'S SHOES

We have sold and sold on these heel shoes and we are now to the point where all the women want the low high heel or this or that. We will bet you that you don't find the right color, heel and width in the 300 pairs of shoes in this lot that sold as high as $8.99. . . If you do. Only $3.97 a pair. If you believe in helping a fellow out you could buy two pairs or more.

MEN'S HATS

The hat business is one we don't take all the credit for buying the wrong thing. One fellow says the brim is too big, the next says too small. We wonder if any brim is ever just right . . . not on these $7.95 to $10.95 hats now on sale at $4.88.

THERMAL UNDERWEAR

If you are with the group that likes warm underwear but light weight, try some of these. Bought special for a cold winter that did not get cold soon enough — good for all-outdoor wear. Drawers — only .88 each!

20 MEN'S JACKETS

Any man who would wear one of these jackets must surely be mean to his wife and kids because only a man with a don't-care attitude would buy one of these regular $8.95 to $10.95 values for $5.99!

MEN'S SWEATERS

Why we bought sweaters like these is beyond us. They are pullovers and cardigans and come in colors that we wouldn't want to wear even under a coat, $8.95, $10.95 and $12.95 values now $4.97!

LITTLE MISSES' BLOUSES

I guess the girls in the 3-6X and 7-14 size range have quit wearing blouses from the looks of our stock. Won't you buy one to put away until they come back in style again? Entire stock $1 and $1.44.

MEN'S SLACKS

32 pairs men all wool slacks that sold as high as $12.95. There is something the matter with each pair of them — one is too soft, the other the wrong color — some have been altered and the length was made too short — any way want a pair? At HALF PRICE? NOW ONLY $6.49.

MEN'S WHITE WOOL SPORT COATS

We should have given these to the church bazaar and we might find someone to take them yet — meanwhile, $24.95 white wool coats $3.97 each!

LADIES' BELTS

You will be happy we bought several of these because everybody in the store will treat you like a queen for taking them with you. . . they used to sell as high as $1.98 . . . how about .39

GIRL'S SOX

These are the old sized kind with the .39 pre price on them . . . now they all want stretch sox so we have these in a basket "so you can't see them too well" — 6 for $1.00. (If you want just one pair, it is still .39).

LADIES' COATS

Were higher — yes, much, much higher . . . we feel bad to tell you how much we lose on each coat. $15 for the one you select if you please —

CHILDREN'S CAR COATS

We are stuck here with a FEW. Try one only 4.97.

CHILDREN'S DRESS COATS

We need the room they are taking up — take one please. Size 7-14, $10. Size 3-6, $7.

CULOTTES

1/2 skirt, 1/2 pants and I think about 1/2 mistake we ever bought them. How about you buyin' 'em at 1/2 price.

LEOTARDS

Hot and hot sellers when it is cold weather — maybe if enough of you see this ad we will sell a pair or two at $1.44 pair.

ALL-WEATHER COATS

These all-weather coats have zip out pile linings and were the leading sellers in coats for all fall — except we sold the light ones and these are the dark ones — Who would like a dark one for only $11.

BOYS' VESTS

Hope it isn't too late. . . every boy wants a real nice bright vest. 21 left, sizes to 16 . . . $1.50 each!

MEN'S SPORT COATS

You don't like girls? Well wear one of these coats and you won't be bothered with girls and once the boss gets a look at you, you will have plenty of time to catch up on some fancy loafing . . . values to $24.95 — $11.88!
