San Antonio Bank Restricted in Bond Theft Probe

7 PROMINENT PERSONS MAY FACE CHARGES

SAN ANTONIO, July 31 — Business operations of the Commercial bank were restricted today and a statement signed by an officer of the institution said the procedure was taken because of unfounded rumors growing out of the purchase of five $100,000 government bonds found to have been stolen from the Continental Bank and Trust company, New York city.

The bank opened its doors to receive deposits but no checks were cashed during the past two days. It was learned nine persons were under arrest in connection with the theft case. Seven of these were reported held in St. Louis and two others in Boston.

The bonds were stolen from the Continental Bank and Trust company November 29, 1932. Two well dressed men supposedly using gum on the bottom of canes, fished the securities from a shelf in a cage.

UNION LABOR WINS VICTORY IN STEEL CODE

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Organized labor, aided by the recovery administration, won a significant victory today in its fight to give the 500,000 steel mill workers of the country the right of collective bargaining when the steel industry withdrew a code of fair competition provision aimed at retaining the company-union set-ups of the industry.

Elimination of the most controversial issue raised by the steel code came shortly after hearings opened on the proposed code for the leading American industry. Recovery Administrator Hugh Johnson's assertion that the provision was incompatible with the recovery program resulted in the directors of the Iron and Steel institute agreeing to delete the provision.

Contract Letting Is Ordered Postponed

AUSTIN, July 31 — First letting of contracts for road work in Texas under the federal relief program was ordered postponed until August 14 by the state highway commission today.

It had been planned to let contracts on the first work August 7. Delay has been caused because federal approval of the projects has not been received.

N. R. A. MARSHALS WAR-TIME SPIRIT FOR NATIONAL RECOVERY CAMPAIGN

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service, Writer
Copyright 1933, NEA Service, Inc.

WASHINGTON, July 31 — Dust off your old wartime spirit! The NRA is going over the top to chase the Huns of depression. Remember the Liberty Loan drives—the meatless days and the gasless Sundays?

Well, here Uncle Sam again, asking each one of us — 125,000,000 of us — to do his or her bit in the nation's unprecedented attempt to bring back prosperity by increasing buying power.

The other effort was a mere war. This one is the most ambitious economic experiment in history short of Russia's revolution. It is designed to put 6,000,000 persons back to work by labor day.

The men who promoted and put over the Liberty Loan drives have returned to Washington. They describe themselves as "sales managers of the New Deal."

BANK REPORT FINDS ACTIVITY IS SUSTAINED

By JOSEPH L. MYLER
United Press Staff Correspondent
DALLAS, July 31.—Sustained activity in business and industry was noted for the eleventh federal reserve district in the monthly report issued today.

The report also noted "increasing optimism generated by the district rise in the price of the district's commodities such as cotton, wheat, corn, oats, wool, mohair and others of lesser importance." "Department store sales," the report continued, "reflected a seasonal decline of 17 per cent from the previous month, and were slightly smaller than in the corresponding month last year."

"Wholesale distribution in a majority of lines, however, showed a further gain over the previous month, although recessions usually occur at this season, and sales in some lines exceeded those of a year ago by a substantial margin."

Enlarging Stocks. "Merchants are enlarging stocks to take care of the expanding consumer demand and in anticipation of the fall trade."

"Collections evidenced a further gain over the previous month. Reflecting the improvement in trade and industry, charges to depositors' accounts at banks in larger centers showed a further increase of 10 per cent over May, and exceeded those in the corresponding month last year by three per cent."

"Some improvement in the district's business mortality rate along with the betterment in trade and industry occurred during the month. The number of defaults and the amount of liabilities were not only smaller than in either May this year or June last year, but were lower than in any month in nearly three years."

"Construction work showed a no-

Such an employer — your local merchant, for instance — will have signed President Roosevelt's blanket agreement providing a 35-hour-week and a $14 weekly minimum wage for industrial employees and a 40-hour week with a $12 to $15 minimum wage for white collar workers.

Business men are to be convinced that only by coming in on this plan can they put more money in circulation and assure the purchase of more goods.

Twenty million NRA "consumer" stickers — showing the blue eagle and the motto "We Do Our Part" in red, white and blue — have been made by 30 factories on rush order. NRA members will distribute them, one to each customer who signs a pledge card promising to support and patronize employers operating under the plan.

Those stickers are for rear windows of automobiles and windows of homes. The theory is that few em-

Re-Employment Offices to Open

AUSTIN, July 31 — Plans for opening re-employment offices in various parts of the state were announced here today after a conference between Byron Mitchell, director of the United States re-employment service, Col. Lawrence Westbrook, of the state relief commission and welfare workers here.

Under the plan 30 to 40 offices will be opened with the assistance of county welfare boards which later will take over the offices.

MISS RUPE IS 1933 OIL BELT REVUE WINNER

Miss Laura Rupe, as Miss A. G. Motor company of Cisco, was awarded first prize at the annual Oil Belt bathing revue held at the Lake Cisco swimming pool Saturday evening. She was presented a diamond ring by the Lake Cisco Amusement company. Miss Lucille Clements, as Miss Laguna hotel of Cisco, won the second prize of a wrist watch, and Miss Betty Jane Brown, as Miss Albany, won the third prize of a bracelet.

Fifteen hundred persons saw the revue, according to an estimate by the management. The stage had been constructed above the water between the pavilion and the island.

The Lobo band, under the direction of G. W. Colburn, furnished music during the revue. Entrants in the revue and their escorts were guests of the Lake Cisco Amusement company at a dance which followed the contest.

KIDNAP PLOT BY FLOYD IS TERMED HOAX

LOS ANGELES, July 31 — A story that Charles (Pretty Boy) Floyd, notorious Oklahoma outlaw, planned to kidnap the two children of Richard Barthelmess, motion picture star, and take them by airplane to Mexico for $250,000 ransom was termed a hoax by federal authorities today.

A Texas aviator, whose name was withheld by government agents, was known to be in custody after he assertedly confessed manufacturing the hoax kidnap plot.

From reliable sources, it was learned the flier approached Barthelmess last Friday and told the actor that his two children were to be kidnaped by Floyd, reported to be in hiding in the vicinity of Los Angeles. Yesterday, it was learned, the aviator named another man as engineering the abduction plot. When federal officers and police took the second man into custody, the Texan is said to have confessed the plot was a hoax.

Governor Appeals For N. R. A. Sign-Up

AUSTIN, July 31 — Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson today issued an appeal to the people of Texas for prompt signatures to the president's industrial relief agreement.

"Trust in the president's purpose and encourage him in his struggle for our good and our welfare," the governor appeal said.

Urging people to go to the post offices and sign and thus show patriotism, the governor concluded:

"Let us recur to that old hymn 'Trust and Obey for There's No Other Way.' Sign it though the heavens fall."

RAINS BRING SOME RELIEF TO DRY AREAS

(By United Press)
Heavy rainfall was general over sections of Texas the past 48 hours and to the farmer who was short of grazing land and in need of winter fodder, it meant prosperity.

Agricultural authorities in Dallas said the rain would permit immediate planting of corn or other fodder crops. It was pointed out many farmers participating in the cotton acreage reduction plan could now plant fodder crops.

The rain soaked drought-stricken lands and gave new life to grazing areas.

A child, Janie Burton, 7, was drowned in Fort Worth when she stumbled while wading and was carried into a storm sewer. Three deaths two score injured and devastation of some 50 houses were listed in a survey of damage from a tornado that struck Oak Cliff, residential section of Dallas, yesterday. Damages were estimated at $500,000.

JAMES MATTERN PUZZLED OVER CELEBRATIONS

NEW YORK, July 31 — James Mattern limping slightly and wearing a wry grin, today was received by Mayor John O'Brien in a greeting although he couldn't understand why he had been constantly celebrated since he arrived here yesterday.

"I don't see why all this enthusiasm," he said. "I started out to fly around the world but finally got my whiskers during that time."

A spontaneous welcome was accorded him by some 5,000 persons when he landed at the airport.

Mattern attributed his crash in Siberia to Russian oil. He said he had 35 gallons in a tank and it froze shutting off the flow to his motor.

ANTI-KIDNAP DRIVE CENTERS ABOUT ALBANY

By United Press
The federal drive to stamp out the art of kidnaping was concentrated in Albany, N. Y., today where John O'Connell, Jr., was restored to his family after payment of $40,000 ransom. The heir to the powerful O'Connell political empire was held 22 days. Arrest of the abductors was predicted.

Charles F. Urschel, millionaire Oklahoma City oil man, was still in the hands of kidnapers and his family professed to be without word from them.

In Brooklyn, relatives of David Kahan, real estate operator, feared he had been kidnaped. Kahan has been missing since Thursday.

Three men were taken into custody today, less than 24 hours after O'Connell was released. Authorities let it be known they expected to "break the case" quickly with the arrest of six men.

The men were not identified as authorities subjected them to interrogation.

SIX FUGITIVES SAID TO HAVE ELUDED CORDON

OLKAHOMA CITY, July 31 — Six of the fugitive Kansas convicts, led by Wilbur Underhill, were believed to have slipped through a cordon of 70 federal agents, deputy sheriffs and police who surrounded a brick house here early today.

Gas projectiles, fired through windows of the bungalow in the residential section, brought out two two bank robbery suspects in their underclothing. The officers seized 12 shot guns, rifles and pistols and a trunk full of ammunition hidden in a closet.

How the men, believed to have been Underhill, Bob Brady, Jim Clark, and two others wanted in connection with the Union station massacre of Frank Nash, a convict, and four officers at Kansas City, escaped, was a mystery.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. R. Q. LEE ARE HELD SUNDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Robert Quincy Lee, well known Cisco church and women's club leader and widow of the late Congressman R. Q. Lee, were held from the First Baptist church here yesterday afternoon. The Rev. E. S. James, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated, assisted by the Rev. A. C. Miller, of Belton, Mrs. Lee's former pastor.

A union choir, under the direction of Mrs. Leon Maner, furnished music for the funeral. Mrs. P. L. Ullom sang "The Old Rugged Cross."

The body was removed from the funeral home to the church early in the afternoon, where it lay in state until 4:30, when the funeral services began.

Interment was in Oakwood cemetery beside the body of Mrs. Lee's husband, who died in 1930 in Washington while serving as congressman from the 17th district of Texas.

ACTIVE WITH HUSBAND

Both while her husband was president of the West Texas chamber of commerce and during his term as congressman, Mrs. Lee was actively associated with him in his work. While he was WTCC president Mrs. Lee drove 10,000 miles in assisting him in his program for the development of diversified farming in West Texas. She likewise accompanied him on his campaign for congress and served as his personal secretary during his term there.

Possessing strong qualities of leadership and being extremely energetic, Mrs. Lee was active almost to the time of her death. She even took part in civic movements from her bed, and at no other time during her life was the indomitable will for which she was noted more marked.

SILK TRAVELED FAST

WELLINGTON, Kan., July 31 — Local Santa Fe officials claim some kind of a record for the run between Belen, N. M., and Wellington. Five baggage cars of silk were being rushed from San Francisco to New York. The 656 miles from Belen were covered in exactly 660 minutes, officials said. Engineer W. J. Endsley brought the train from Waynoka, Okla., to Wellington, 117 miles, in 99 minutes.

Pennsylvania Mine Strike Spreading

UNIONTOWN, Pa., July 31 — The strike of southwestern Pennsylvania miners spread today to operations in the Pittsburgh Coal company. Banning numbers one and two in Fayette county and Euclid at Fitzherry were affected by the new walkout.

FINAL GROUPS REACH ACCORD ON PROGRAMS

With the conclusion of the meeting of restaurant men to be held at the Laguna hotel this afternoon at 3 o'clock, practically all the merchants and business men of Cisco will have come to some agreement on wage raising and hours of operation under the national recovery administration code.

Cisco dry goods merchants agreed this morning upon a schedule for opening and closing hours which will go into operation tomorrow morning. Grocers have likewise agreed, but will wait until after the meeting of all retail merchants of the Oil Belt in Eastland tomorrow evening.

Postmaster Craddock today announced that 100 business men have signed agreements under NRA and that he expects at least 20 more to sign, bringing the total to 120.

Restaurant men of Cisco were to meet at the Laguna hotel this afternoon at 3 o'clock to discuss plans to be worked out in connection with their code under the NRA.

Men representing the business in other Oil Belt cities were expected to attend the meeting, it was understood this morning.

CAFE PROPRIETORS TO MEET AT 3

Restaurant men of Cisco were to meet at the Laguna hotel this afternoon at 3 o'clock to discuss plans to be worked out in connection with their code under the NRA.

Men representing the business in other Oil Belt cities were expected to attend the meeting, it was understood this morning.

DRY GOODS SCHEDULE IN EFFECT TUESDAY

Representatives, of eight dry goods companies in a meeting this morning agreed to put into effect tomorrow morning their new schedule of opening and closing hours, without waiting for the district meeting in Eastland Tuesday night.

This means that dry goods, department, and clothing stores here will open at 8:30 tomorrow morning and close at 5:30 in the afternoon. This schedule will prevail every day except Saturday, when they will open at the same time and remain open until 8 p. m.

Following are the names of the firms adopting the new opening and closing hours to begin tomorrow:

John H. Garner's, Miller-Lauderdale, Perry Brothers, J. C. Penney, Wendle Dry Goods company, Altman Style Shoppe, Exchange and the Boston Store.

CLEANERS ADOPT BLANKET CODE

The Oil Belt Cleaners association, in a meeting yesterday, adopted the NRA blanket code to be used as the basis for business operations until the code for the cleaning industry is completed.

The plans adopted yesterday call for a 40 per cent increase in the wage earning in the cleaning industry. This means the employment of approximately 20 additional men in the fifteen shops in the district by Sept. 1 and the raising of wages. This was believed to mean work for four more men in Cisco.

The cleaners at the same time agreed on uniform prices to go into effect tomorrow, and uniform hours for opening and closing. All shops will open at 7:30 a. m. and close at 6 p. m. six days of the week.

Of the six cities represented at the meeting all shops with the exception of one in Breckenridge sent delegates, it was said. The association includes Cisco, Eastland, Ranger, Breckenridge, Strawn, and Thurber shops. Although their representatives did not attend the meeting yesterday, the Oil Belt men agreed that upon their request the shops of Albany, Moran, Rising Star, Gorman, Carbon, Desdemona, and Cross Plains would be admitted to the association.

Eleven shops in the district association joined the National Cleaners and Dyers association yesterday, it was announced.

J. B. Johnson, of Eastland, is president and S. P. Bonn, of Ranger, secretary of the district organization. Mrs. Bertha Reimer is head of the Cisco group.

FLOWERS TO MOFFETT.

A high official of a major oil company was invited to a place in the recovery administration. The president of his company, with whom he differed over federal control of the oil business, informed him that if he answered the call of the president of the United States he would have to give up his job with the oil company.

The junior official showed his mettle. He showed his loyalty to his ideals and his country. He gave up a $100,000 a year job to accept a post that pays practically nothing compared to the salaries he has been accustomed to drawing.

The row grew out of a disagreement over the best policy to be followed in trying to bring the oil industry out of its chaos. The principle involved is whether or not a man must give up his job if he lends himself to public service in an emergency.

"CALIFORNIA, HERE WE COME"

California lawmakers, almost without debate and in both houses, enacted a bill providing the death penalty or life imprisonment without right of parole for kidnapers who kill or mutilate their victims.

Public sentiment appears to be crystallizing in the United States. It may sound the doom of gangs and gangsters. It began with the kidnaping and the violent death of the Lindbergh babe.

HOME OWNERS IN CITY AND COUNTRY.

"Owners of homes in towns and cities may obtain loans from Home Owners Loan Corporation for the payment of taxes, assessments and needed repairs in addition to refinancing their mortgages if the security is adequate," writes Rep. Wright Patman of the first district.

"Application forms for this purpose can only be obtained from Director James Shaw of Dallas or one of his authorized agents," Rep. Patman passed this bit of information on to the tillers of the soil.

"The government through the Farm Credit association will loan money on farms for payment of taxes. The interest rate is five per cent. If the loan is small, the cost of obtaining it will be proportionately greater as appraisers and attorneys and abstractors and recorders fees are about the same whether the loan is large or small."

ABOLITION OF AD VALOREM TAX URGED.

State Auditor Moore Lynn in a recent report made the sweeping declaration that since it completely fails to fulfill the constitutional requirement that all taxes shall be equal and uniform, the state ad valorem tax should be abolished without delay.

An investigation made by the state auditor's department indicated that for the tax year 1931 such property as was rendered for taxation was placed on the rolls at an average for the entire state at 50 per cent of its value; that in some counties the assessment was as low as 25 per cent of the actual value and in other counties it was claimed that property was rendered at 100 per cent.

For the tax year 1927, the net increase in delinquent state ad valorem taxes was $765,000, or three per cent of the current year's taxes assessed. Four years later, or in 1931, the net increase in such delinquencies amounted to $5,261,000 or 17 per cent of the current year's taxes assessed.

"When collections of back taxes are regularly far from sufficient to offset current year's delinquencies (reads the report) and the total amount collected falls below the amount of the current tax levy for several years in an increasingly large amount each year, a very serious situation is presented."

Well, the constitution was adopted in 1876 and the requirement has become one of the moss-covered jokes of Texas history.

The Terrible Plight of the Railroad Executives

Texas Topics

AUSTIN, July 31 - Hopes of many hundreds of Texas school teachers for unpaid salary in the schools they taught last spring have been upheld by the attorney general's department.

They are entitled to their pay ahead of payment on the coming school year's apportionment of state funds, under the ruling.

The opinion said that unpaid balance of the school apportionment for a previous year must be paid before payments can be made on a later apportionment.

This follows the unbroken custom of the state. Question of its legality was raised by Chas. H. M. Washer of the state board of education, as the basis of an official determination.

College boys and national guardsmen who take part in boxing matches, even where admission is charged, are exempt from the state boxing law, requiring permits and paying license charges.

The Texas relief commission has appealed to citizens throughout the state to work in behalf of a favorable vote on the public works bond issue.

They have been reminded that the voters themselves do not issue a lump twenty-million-dollar bond issue, but merely authorize the legislature to issue such sums of bonds from time to time as is required for public works that will provide employment to the jobless and food for the destitute.

The constitutional amendment provides the bond issue shall not be a charge upon the farms, homes and real property of Texas, but that the legislature shall find the source of tax revenues to pay it off over a period of years.

Texas ought not to try to pay its entire relief burden during the depression period; but should spread it over the years.

McCRAKEN, Kan., July 31 - A recent invention of C. A. Wilson was heralded throughout the country. When Mrs. L. A. Fidler, Grand Junction, Col., and John W. Wilson, Vancouver, Wash., read about it they recognized their brother's handiwork and it reunited the family after 48 years of separation.

UNDER THE DOME AT AUSTIN

United Press Staff Correspondent.

AUSTIN, July 31 - For all the declarations of Former Governor Dan Moody that he has not been recommending federal appointments at Washington, some of the appointees are among his close friends.

R. M. Kelly, Longview, was one of the original Moody men in his campaign for governor. He accompanied Moody on a trip East a number of years ago and was a frequent caller at the governor's office during the Moody administration.

The influence of Amon G. Carter, Fort Worth publisher, also a foe of Ferguson, is seen in the designation of Ike Ashburn of Houston to be a member of the Texas advisory board on public works.

Dwyer is a member of one of the oldest Bexar county families. If he went to Washington, he probably could call by christian name any constituent who might visit him.

quently he was engaged in various business enterprises in Houston including chamber of commerce work. Appointment of S. A. Goeth of San Antonio likely had the strong endorsement of Vice President John N. Garner, while the designation of John Shary of Mission is likely due to the apparent intention of the government to back the irrigation and drainage improvement works in the great citrus belt that has been developed in that section.

Creation of the new congressional district for Bexar county has resulted in a flood of prospective candidates for congress from that district. It now is represented by Congressman Richard Kleberg of Corpus Christi, but the county will be taken out of his district.

It is common report about the state capital that all the San Antonio state representatives are out for the place. Two of them, Pat Dwyer and Harold Kayton, met in the capital a few days ago. Each asked the other about how his race was going.

Kayton still believes a state sales tax will be enacted. He says conditions will force it. He advocated such a bill at the regular session, his measure differing considerably from that sponsored by Governor and Former Governor Ferguson. He eliminated the pyramidical feature and provided for a division of the tax with the counties and municipalities.

of a pioneer Texas family, Maury Maverick, will also be in the race. Thurman Barrett, brother of A. P. Barrett, now of Fort Worth, is a candidate. A. P. Barrett ran for congress in the San Antonio district election a number of years ago but was defeated. P. L. Anderson, co-author of the state beer bill, is also mentioned as a likely candidate.

The office of state tax commissioner, once an almost forgotten post, has bloomed out as one of the important places in the state. For many years its chief duty was looking after the intangible assets of railroads and their distribution among the counties for tax purposes. As the valuations were based on several-year periods of earning, the variations were slight from year to year.

Henry P. Edwards of Dallas, present tax commissioner, however, has a real busy man's job. Pipe line valuations now must be taken under a new law. When the race track law becomes effective, it will also be his duty to look after revenues from that source and he is a member of the commission to supervise racing.

The department now is seeking suitable quarters as it has outgrown the small fourth floor office it occupies in the state capitol.

W. J. Rutledge of Dallas has been designated as state tax attorney.

Vice President John Garner will not go on the stump in the campaign for ratification of the 21st federal (prohibition repeal) amendment. This word has been sent to Yorkum, where he had been invited to address an anti-rally. Further, it is said from an informed source here the vice president will make no speeches while in Texas.

The stork has been paying visits to persons known in state affairs. To Senator and Mrs. George Purl of Dallas he has delivered a boy, and Sergeant-at-Arms Joe White and Mrs. White Harlandale, now have a second daughter to go with their son.

WHEN CHRISTIAN HUYGENS DISCOVERED THE RINGS OF SATURN, HE WISHED TO SECURE PRIORITY FOR HIS DISCOVERY WITHOUT MAKING IT KNOWN TO THE PUBLIC UNTIL HE WAS MORE CERTAIN OF WHAT HE HAD SEEN. HE THEREFORE PUBLISHED THE ABOVE ANAGRAM WHICH, WHEN LATER ARRANGED IN THE PROPER ORDER, SPELLED THE LATIN SENTENCE, "IT (SATURN) IS ENCIRCLED BY A RING, THIN, PLANE NOWHERE ATTACHED, INCLINED TO THE ECLIPTIC."

AT THE death of the Roman Emperor Pertinax, the praetorian guards, who were in complete control, with the army to back them, put the Roman Empire on the auction block. Didius Julianus outbid all others and became ruler of the great empire, but his reign was short, for after only four months the army turned against him and he was executed.

BARGAIN BRIDE

BEGIN HERE TODAY. ELINOR STAFFORD, 20, falls in love with BARRETT COLVIN, 35, but her jealous, scheming mother, LIDA STAFFORD, breaks up the romance by convincing Barrett that Elinor is a heartless flirt. When Elinor's aunt, wealthy MISS ELLA SEXTON, dies she leaves her fortune to Barrett. Then drunken VANCE CARTER shoots BARRETT STAFFORD. Elinor's father, Barrett tells Elinor that if she will marry him and live in his home as a guest for a year he will give her the entire Sexton fortune to divide among her relatives. Knowing the money may save her father's life, Elinor agrees. The marriage takes place. Barrett, in spite of the lies Lida told him, finds himself more in love with Elinor than ever. Barrett has a ward, nine-year-old GERALD MOORE, who is the son of his half-sister, MARCIA RAYMOND. Barrett has promised Marcia never to reveal the boy's real story. Lida Stafford discovers the child's existence and concludes he is Barrett's son. Elinor's father dies. Barrett takes her to Cuba and the trip is a happy one. After their return Lida, angry, tells Elinor about Barrett's ward. Elinor asks Barrett about this. Because of his promise to Marcia he can not explain. Elinor considers divorce but decides against it. Barrett decides to join an expedition to South America. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XLIII come back and I don't suppose there's any hope of that." "I don't know. I don't think I even understand myself. I don't know what is the matter with me or why I feel the way I do. Of course I've always known there was this sort of thing in the world. All my life I've seen deceit—

"And it has made you hate it even more than you would normally," he said. "I understand that. Well," he made an unsuccessful attempt at cheerfulness. "We'll see about a place in the country. What sort of place do you think you would like?" "I don't care. Whatever you think best—"

"Before I start we'll drive around a bit and see what can be found." So he was going, Elinor realized. He really was going away to leave her for months and months. The thing was settled, a certainty.

"Do you suppose," she faltered, flushing, "that the little boy will like me?" Barrett smiled his first genuine smile. "I think he may!" he said with a rising inflection that made her know he was teasing. Quickly he stooped and kissed her hair. He said almost harshly, "Now run along!"

She was gone then. Alone Barrett paced the room. Back and forth. Back and forth. He tried to get it all straight in his own mind, thinking about Elinor, about Marcia, about the trip to South America and the miles and miles of land and water there would be between Elinor and him once he was on his way. How dreary and uninteresting the whole trip seemed!

It was Bessie Thrope who discovered the country house for Elinor. Bessie declared as soon as she had heard their plans that she knew "just the place." The dwelling she had in mind was not far from the Thropes' new home. It stood on a hillside, well back from the road. Bessie pointed out that she and Elinor would be able to spend long afternoons together and that Sexton and the little boy could share play hours.

"I'd love to be near you, Aunt Bessie," Elinor said. Her aunt saw that the girl was fighting to keep back her tears. "There's something very odd about all this," Bessie reported to Jim that evening as they sat alone on the porch. It was still light and the boys were playing tennis. Now and again a shout floated to them from the court.

"Um—!" said Jim. He twisted the cigar in his mouth and frowned. "You see, Jim, I don't for a moment believe that things are—well, the way they seem. But Elinor does and that's the pitiable part of it. Barrett came in before I left this afternoon and he looks dreadful. I'm sure that seeing Elinor so unhappy hurts him worse than anything else about the affair. Her misery is more to him than his own." "Well, you and I can understand that," Jim said slowly. "Yes, we can. I almost hope he players will have the nerve to refrain from membership although NRA officials frown on suggestions of "boycott" or "coercion."

Speakers Recruited
The war's Four-Minute Men will be succeeded by NRA's "two - minute men," armed with a speaker's manual and a speech. You will hear them, according to present plans in theaters, churches and schools, before every organization which holds meetings and "in every public place."

Speeches will be along this line: "In the general deflationary process profits were narrowed by declining business. Wages shrank and knocked down consuming power. That hit the retailer and damaged the manufacturer. Unemployment rose enormously. Then landlords found their property values going down and all investments tumbled in value. The way to restore prosperity is by spreading employment and raising wages, which can't be done unless everybody does it."

Tons of literature—code agreements, instructions, textbooks copy for newspapers—are being poured out of Washington. Broadcasting stations, beginning with the president's address to the country will plug the theme song continuously.

Movie companies have been recruited and one is doing a two-reeler with newspapers, plot scenes and animated charts to show how the depression developed, to show our interdependence on our neighbor's prosperity and how we can "do our part." Short NRA subjects will be available for all theaters.

Local "NRA campaign committees" already are being organized in nearly all communities of more than 10,000 population, representing business, civic, welfare, labor and all other important groups. This is the present plan of local organization: Each local committee will appoint a man as "general," and a woman as "co-general." Under them will be as many "captains" as may be needed depending on the city's size. Each "captain" will command ten persons.

The duty of these "troops" will be, first, to make block canvases of merchants and other employers and make a census of compliance with the blanket code; second, to make a census of the unemployed, catalog them by trades and study expanding industries with an effort to get the unemployed absorbed.

Huge "Selling" Task
The other chief task of the local committees will be the education of small business men and consumers. The NRA estimates that about 80 per cent of business men belong to no trade associations and that most of them will have to be "sold." There are about 5,000,000 employers in the United States and the campaigners will be after nearly all of them.

Above the local committees will be special regional and state recovery boards.

Among ambitious plans under consideration is one through which the 17,000 automobile dealers would try to canvas more than 20,000,000 automobile owners in an attempt to get NRA stickers on every motor car.

Organizers of the great drive insist that they will avoid "ballyhoo" and spectacular stunts. They promise to make no appeal to mass hysteria and say that they will appeal conservatively to "self-interest" rather than to any spirit of sacrifice.

JUNE CATTLE SHIPMENT IS DOWN 3 PCT.

AUSTIN, July 31—June shipments of all classes of livestock combined, to Fort Worth and interstate points, amounted to 3,980 cars or about 3 per cent less than the 4,095 cars during the same month last year, according to the University of Texas bureau of business research. Cattle shipments were slightly larger than those of last year while calf shipments were somewhat smaller. On the other hand hog shipments were more than double those of June 1932, while shipments of sheep were only about half as great.

For the first six months shipments of all classes combined totaled 29,618 cars, against 26,633 cars during the corresponding period last year, an increase of 11 per cent. Shipments of cattle for the entire period increased 4 per cent, calves 31 per cent hogs more than 100 per cent, while sheep decreased 15 per cent.

"Shipments of sheep to Fort Worth market were only about 40 per cent as large as in June last year while hog shipments to this market from Texas points were almost three times as great as those a year ago," the bureau's report said. "Normally, shipments of sheep to Fort Worth during the spring months greatly exceed those to out of state points, while in the fall, the reverse is true. During June this year, however, shipments to out of state points were comparatively close to those to Fort Worth and were a little larger than a year ago. A marked increase occurred in shipments of sheep to Chicago while an equally sharp decline occurred in shipments to Kansas, City and Oklahoma City.

"Los Angeles received a considerably larger number of Texas cattle and hogs which was partly offset by a smaller number of calves and sheep, but the total shipments to this market were about 13 per cent greater than in June last year.

"The method of transporting livestock to the Fort Worth market has undergone a radical change during the past year. In June, 1932, rail shipments constituted 72 per cent and truck 28 per cent of the total, while in June of the current year the proportion by rail was 36 per cent and by truck 64 per cent. Whereas, last year in June the number of cattle shipped to Fort Worth by rail and by truck was about equal this year, twice as many were shipped by rail as by truck. Last year only about half as many calves were transported by truck while this year three times as many were shipped by truck as compared with rail. A year ago the number of hogs shipped by truck and rail was about equal while this year almost twice as many came by truck. Half as many sheep came by truck last year while this year truck shipments exceeded rail shipments by about two-thirds.

Considerable change is to be noted in the relative number of livestock shipped from the various districts of the state in comparison with June last year. For example, in contrast with other parts of the state there was a marked increase in the number of cattle and calves shipped from the southern highland

Add to that the fact that I am naturally inclined to be the nervous type. I didn't start with Camels, but later switched to them because I found they are milder and have a delightful flavor. I smoke only Camels now because I have discovered that they allow me to smoke all I want—without upsetting my nerves."

Steady Smokers turn to Camels

In an exclusive interview WILEY POST says: "Circling the globe alone in the Winnie Mae was the toughest ordeal I've ever been through! A round-the-world flyer has to be in shape to stand the extremes of physical exhaustion. He has to be ready for any weather, any emergency. His job calls for nerves in perfect condition. Smoking Camels as I have for so long, I never worry about healthy nerves—and I'm a constant smoker, too. Everybody knows that Camels are made from more expensive tobaccos, and you can certainly tell it in the mildness and good taste of Camels, and the fact that Camels never jangle the nerves!"

Thousands of smokers have switched to Camels and found that they are better for steady smoking. Your nerves and your taste will confirm this. Begin today with Camels. Know that you are smoking a milder cigarette... and that steady smoking does not interfere with healthy nerves!

Bank Report---

Noticeable expansion during the past month. The valuation of building permits issued at principal cities was 62 per cent larger than in May and was 49 per cent greater than in June, 1932. Increasing activity was also noted in other industries, including textiles and lumber.

Dry goods led all lines in increased wholesale turnover with a 76.9 per cent gain over June, 1932, and a 12.6 gain over May, 1933.

The financial situation at a glance: Bank debits to individual accounts $469,646,000, up 9.5 per cent from May; reserve bank loans to member banks at end of month $3,362,742, off 34.9 per cent from May; reserve bank ratio at end of month 57.4 per cent, up 3.5 points from May.

Cotton exports from the ports of Houston and Galveston were in much greater volume than for the corresponding month last year and at Houston were in excess of those a month earlier. Contrary to usual seasonal trend.

Petroleum production for the district declined 5,649,500 barrels in June to 39,081,000 barrels from 44,730,500 barrels in May.

FORT WORTH, July 31 — Justice of the Peace J. K. Faulkner today denied bond for Frederick Simmons, 22-year old negro charged with murder in the double slaying a week ago of A. S. Michael and Miss Geneva Cantrell. The negro, in a Dallas jail for safe keeping, was not present at the examining trial.

CASCARA BARK STOLEN
HOQUIAM, Wash., July 31 — Somebody must have had an idea! The somebody, according to Carl Sund, was the thief who stole between 500 and 600 pounds of cascara bark from his camp at a nearby resort.

GOV'T FINANCE MOVES HOLDING FIRST INTEREST

In its weekly review of business and financial conditions The Wall Street Journal says:

Hunting for matters of significance on the future course of security prices, the financial community is taking more and more interest in the course the administration will take in regard to government financing operations. Within the next two weeks, the administration may show its hand on this all important subject, and the decision will be a momentous one.

Word from Washington is to the effect that the administration is considering an attempt to dispose of $1,000,000,000 in government securities, in conjunction with refinancing maturities or roughly $470,000,000 in mid-August. How these securities, possibly 10-year obligations, are absorbed, and what the federal reserve is called on to play in their absorption, will be a portent that the financial community should follow. If any of the inflationary provisions of the Thomas amendment are invoked, or even if the federal reserve only steps up the rate of its government securities purchases, the effect on the securities market would be vital.

The administration's decision on this matter will rank in importance with other major decisions which it has been called upon to make. The effects of the most recent important step—the promulgation of the blanket code for industry—are now being felt. Wage scales are being advanced, and hours of work shortened. The temporary effect should be some reduction in profits, but if volume increases, due to enhanced public buying as result of enlarged purchasing power, then lessened profits will be likewise temporary. With higher prices, and increased volume, corporate profits should grow. If they do the administration will vindicate its attempts to prove that higher wages make prosperity.

The improvement in security prices last week was largely the reflection of the rebound in commodities. Grains went up without any new inflation stimulus, reports of sensational crop damage in Canada touching off the rally. Some deliveries of wheat went up the amount allowed under the limitations fixed for one day's fluctuations. Distress selling, which followed on the heels of the break and the difficulties of E. A. Crawford, was concluded early in the week, and that helped grains, too.

Second quarter reports, and June railroad statements, were other factors helping the stock market. Judged by traffic, numerous railroads will turn in reports in July recording equally good gains in gross revenues, although operating income will be affected by added expense incurred by a number of roads in putting equipment in shape. While industrial production is tapering somewhat from the recent high levels, it is holding up fairly well, all things considered. The financial community is watching closely for mail order house and chain store sales reports covering the full month of June, which will reveal the trend of public buying. If the reports are as good as some optimists anticipate, they should help the market.

The tendency in the steel industry for new buying to quiet down was reflected in the past week when operations for the first time in months, failed to advance further. Dow-Jones placed operations for the industry at about 56 per cent, the same level as in the preceding week. Mills generally are still running along with substantial backlogs, which should carry them along through most of August at an operating rate fairly close to these levels. Producers are hopeful that buying by them will take on new life in preparation for the fall season.

Second quarter earnings statements for the leading producers were published during the past week and offered additional testimony to the improvement which has taken place in the industry. Some of the independents made unusually good showings, while the large companies, such as Bethlehem and United States Steel, reported a substantial improvement in operating results. Myron C. Taylor, chairman, said he expected U. S. Steel to ship steel at a 53 per cent of capacity basis through July, while Eugene Grace, of Bethlehem, declared his company would operate at 50 per cent during the month.

The week's range of the Dow-Jones averages follows:
30 Industrials—High, $96.03; low, $88.42; last, $94.54.
20 Railroads—High, $48.31; low, $44.32; last, $47.81.
20 Utilities—High, $32.25; low, $29.58; last, $31.56.
40 Bonds—High, $88.24; low, $87.46; last $88.23.

Week ended July 28, 1933.

DRY GOODS CODE

We, the undersigned dry goods dealers, are cooperating 100 per cent in the N. R. A. program of our President Franklin D. Roosevelt, and pledge our hearty co-operation to carry out its principles so far as it lies within our ability to do so.

It will be our policy to co-operate in the movement with the president and his staff to give employment to the greatest number that our business will allow, and will give 100 per cent loyalty to our adopted code when it shall have been approved by our president and put into operation Sept. 1, 1933. Meanwhile, we have adopted temporarily a schedule of working hours effective August 1, as follows:

Open ordinary week day at 8:30 o'clock and close at 5:30
Open Saturdays 8:30 o'clock and close at 8:00

ADJUSTMENT OF DRY CLEANING PRICES

Every member of the Oil Belt Dry Cleaners Association is participating in this movement.

In sympathy with the Nation Wide Movement for Industrial Recovery all members of the Oil Belt Cleaners Assn. have agreed upon adjustment of prices. This is a step in cooperation with the President's Re-employment Agreement.

It has been made necessary because of increased production costs under shortened hours and raised wages, making it necessary for the Cleaners in the Oil Belt to increase employees approximately 40 per cent.

Every fair minded person will agree that an adjustment of Dry Cleaning prices in the Oil Belt is long past due. We are confident of maintaining the splendid co-operation our customers have afforded in the past.

Furthermore we know this action will be accepted in the spirit it is intended as a movement to improve general conditions in this section, and not as an act for the personal gain for the select few.
