LENGTHY DISCUSSION OVER THE PROPOSED RAISE IN GAS RATES BEFORE THE CITY COMMISSION

Increase Not Granted But Committee Named to Confer With the City Attorney — Another Meeting Tonight — Local Company Claims It is the Texas Company Asking for the Increased Rate — Local Company Has Filed No Statement of Earnings on Which to Base Rate.

Manager Campbell, of the local gas company, appeared before an adjourned meeting of the city commission last night and formally requested the mayor and commissioners to allow the company to increase the rate for domestic gas in Cisco from fifty to seventy-five cents.

Following the disposal of some other business before the commission, Mayor Williamson announced they would hear Mr. Campbell.

Mr. Campbell said when the gas plant was put in during the year 1914, the company was allowed a rate of fifty cents and if that was an adequate rate then they must take into consideration what would be a relative fair rate now, considering that the price of everything entering into the work of supplying gas has materially advanced, much of it from 200 to 300 per cent. He said if fifty cents was a fair rate in 1914, surely seventy-five cents was a fair rate now.

He told of the arrangement this company has with the Texas company that supplies the gas. He said the Texas company brings the gas to the city limits, where the local company receives it into its mains, distributes it and collects the bills and gives two-thirds of the gross receipts to the Texas company.

Mr. Campbell said the higher rate, a raise to seventy-five cents, that it was really not the local company asking for the raise, but that it was the Texas company. Of course, he said, the local company would benefit to the extent of one-third of the raise.

He said if they could not secure the increased rate and the Texas company should fail, or refuse to supply the gas, they would have to drop out. He said the Texas company last year paid three cents for gas at the wells and was now paying six cents, just twice as much as formerly.

Asked why Cisco should be compelled to pay as much as Dallas, he said it was a matter of overhead and larger business, that in Dallas they had 35,000 users of gas and here only 1,000. He explained that in the proposed rate of seventy-five cents, there was a provision of 10 per cent discount on bills paid promptly, really making the rate asked for only sixty-seven and one-half cents.

Commissioner Hiltson said several citizens had told him that if they could get an adequate supply of gas, they would not mind paying for it, but they did not want an increased rate allowed and then have no better service than they had last year.

Mr. Campbell said it was absolutely impossible for service in supplying gas and went on to explain why. He said they had a contract for fifty pounds pressure at the city limits and many times it dropped to twenty pounds and nobody was able to explain why. He said when they had fifty pounds pressure there, the supply was good in the city, but when it dropped to twenty, there were some sections of the city without gas. He said their distribution plant was as good as any in the state. He said in one section where the service had been poor, they expected to continue the loop and remedy that and make some other extensions.

Commissioner Blitch said there was no gas at times in the sections of the city referred to; that he knew because he lived there and it had cost him $50 last winter to hedge against the gas failure. He said when gas was blowing off in the air all around Cisco he could not see why this city did not have gas; that Cisco was right in the heart of the gas field and it was not expensive to get into the mains.

KILLED WHEN TRYING TO STEAL FROM OIL MAN'S PRIVATE STOCK

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 27.—A party was in progress at the home of Charles Neal, a wealthy oil man, late last night when four men arrived in a motor truck, intending to steal two barrels of whiskey from Neal's private stock, according to operatives of a local detective agency.

In a flight following, one of the men in the truck was killed. Another was injured and is expected to die. Rifles, pistols, and sawed off shot-guns were used by the five detectives and two policemen.

here. He said the company made promises and promises and did nothing. Commissioner Blitch asked Mr. Campbell if his company had a right to go into the market and buy gas where it pleased, or was the local company a subsidiary of the Texas company.

Mr. Campbell said the company was independent, but believed it had a better contract with the Texas company than it could make elsewhere.

Commissioner Blitch asked if the Humble company, for instance, should pipe gas to the city limits if the local company could buy from it, and Mr. Campbell replied, yes, the local company could buy any place it desired.

Commissioner Blitch said while there was no gas, the pressure was on just the same and that the people went on paying for gas that they did not get. The mayor said he thought this discussion was out of order. The commission was not interested other than to learn what it could find here and then read from the statute that city commissions in cities of over 2,000 population, had the right to regulate the rate charged for gas, but the law provided that no rate should be fixed which would yield less than 10 per cent return on the physical valuation of the property.

The mayor said the company was asking an increase which he doubted the right of the commission to make on the showing, or the want of a showing, and that if they should go ahead and do so, he feared it would place them in a very embarrassing position, unless they had the figures before them, something tangible upon which to act. He said he had not talked with the city attorney, but thought it would be necessary for the company to file a statement showing that the net earnings were less than 10 per cent and that this should be submitted to the commission. He said it would be foolish for them to negotiate a rate with nothing before them on which to base it, to do this without an investigation would be folly. He said if the company was not earning a reasonable profit, or such as is guaranteed by law, then it should be given a rate which would enable it to do so. He said he wanted to be fair. He said if the local company will remedy the defects and improve the plant to a point where it can give service, which Mr. Campbell has assured them it will do, he thought the matter should be considered, but as it stood now, he did not see anything they could do. * * * He said as it stands now, the company has simply asked them to raise a rate, and he did not think they had the authority to do it. He suggested that a committee and he city attorney confer with Mr. Campbell. He said he did not think they had authority to act. Some citizens were saying, he declared, the Texas company would put Cisco in the position of being out of gas, while others were telling the commission to "not let Campbell work you." He said they must have some basis on which to act.

Mr. Campbell in reply to a question by Commissioner Blitch, said "Our revenue is not what we would like it to be, but it is not discouraging. "He repeated that it was not the local company that was making the increase, but that it was the Texas company. He thought the rates should be uniform over the state and they had ample proof that these other cities were receiving a seventy-five cent rate. He was of the opinion that all the proof necessary for the local company to place before the commission was the fact of the increased price of everything of which everybody was cognizant.

Attorney Stephenson was present at the meeting and said a fifty cent rate was too high. He thought the city should have a thirty cent rate and said it would be the making of Cisco. Commissioner Donovan made a motion that the subject be referred to a committee and the city attorney to confer with Mr. Campbell and find some basis on which to act. The motion was seconded and Commissioner Blitch opposed it. He said he didn't see the use of conferring further with Mr. Campbell and have a committee come in recommending something they did not want. Commissioner Donovan then withdrew his motion.

Commissioner Blitch then made a motion that a committee of two be appointed to confer with the city attorney and learn what they could do and report back to another meeting tonight. The motion prevailed and the mayor appointed on that committee, Commissioners Blitch and Donovan.

WELL MAKES 15,000
TAMPICO, Aug. 28.—The East Coast Oil company's No. 414 Willis, in the Panuco field, which was reported in last week making 15,000 barrels, is good for at least 16,000 barrels.

JUST BEFORE BEING HANGED NEGRO ASKS FOR BIG CHERRY PIE

DALLAS, Aug. 27.—Fred Douglas, a negro, was hanged in the Dallas county jail for the murder July 5 of I. T. Williams, manager of an oil station where Douglas worked.

The negro confessed he hit Williams on the head with an iron rod and robbed the station.

CISCO REFINERY IS SOLD AND WILL BE PUT IN OPERATION

Word received here yesterday from Fort Worth was to the effect that the Liberty Refining company's property in Cisco would soon be placed in operation.

Ernest Hiltson, who is trustee for the property, had today received no word of the sale, but much interest was manifested among those who had heard the report as the Liberty Refining company is largely a local concern, most of the stock having been subscribed here.

As reported from Fort Worth, the taking over of all the Ballentine properties by the Virginia company, the ownership of the Cisco refinery passes to the latter company and it is said it will operate it with crude from its own properties in Stephenson county. The report says that in addition to taking over the Cisco refining plant the Virginia company takes possession of a considerable block of acreage in Stephens, Eastland and Brown counties, together with several producing wells. The Pleasant Grove wells drilled a year ago by S. F. Ballentine, also pass to the Virginia company.

The deal transferred to the purchasing company a tract of 133 acres, together with thirteen producing wells in the shallow field at Brownwood.

There was considerable equipment also transferred to the Virginia company, including casing, drilling material, gas and water lines.

The Virginia company is carrying on extensive operations in Stephens county, both in the Breckenridge district and the Gunsight or Leary district.

At this time, he added, there are over 800,000 members of the order in the United States and the ritual is now printed in seven languages. The order is 15 years old.

R. W. Scovill, who looks after the athletic club room and entertainment end of the organization work, also left today, his work here being finished.

FREE LEGAL AID WILL STOP RADICALISM LAWYERS BELIEVE

GOVERNMENT KEEPS ON TELLING PRICES WILL SOON BE LOWER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—Retail prices will decline slightly during the fall and winter months and will slump next spring to still lower levels, the federal reserve board says, it believes.

Saving by manufacturers throughout the country lessened the cost of materials and increased the efficiency of labor. This eventually, will be reflected in a downward movement of retail prices.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Mae Swindale, a trained nurse, twenty-six, brought suit for $25,000 for breach of promise against Jack M. McQuaid.

She alleges McQuaid proposed to her repeatedly since their first meeting on June 1, 1917. When she accepted him on January 15, 1918, the affidavit states, he left his home and has not been seen since.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Aug. 27.—Reports that the Kalamazoo state hospital for the insane was about to organize a band composed as far as possible of inmates of the institution, for the purpose of testing the curative effects of music, including jazz, on persons suffering from nervous disorders, have been denied by officials of the hospital. Music has a beneficial influence on the inmates, but difficulties impossible to overcome stand in the way of the project, it was said. "Jazz" said one official, "would be more likely to send a patient here than to take one away."

COLUMBUS, Ga., Aug. 27.—Bill Bailey, not the fellow the song told about, but a negro with one leg missing and well known to local police, when arrested on a loitering charge and searched at the police station was found to have stowed away in the end of the leg of his trousers which covered the stump of a live chicken and a half pint of corn whiskey.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—Gauging landlords in Chicago are to be called to account for their outrageous profiteering, judging from plans prepared by nearly a score of recently formed tenants' protective associations. Candidates in public office as well as those in line for such positions are to be publicly called upon to assist in exterminating the nefarious practice. The movement is an aftermath of exorbitant rent increases levied by landlords in practically all parts of the city.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Aug. 27.—For the first time since 1917, the Delta Phi Omega, a national high school Greek letter fraternity, will hold its annual convention. Two hundred chapters will send about 500 delegates to the convention, which opens today and lasts three days. R. G. Lilly, of Los Angeles, is president.

MEXICAN FUEL OIL

HOUSTON, Tex., Aug. 27.—A sharp rise in the price of heavy Mexican crude has been seen during the past few weeks. Demand for heavy crude is becoming stronger as the price of the domestic fuel oil increases and its scarcity during the coming winter becomes more apparent.

CHICAGO YOUTHS TO KILL COMISKEY AND TAKE GATE RECEIPTS

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—Three boy bandits confessed to a plot to kill Charles Comiskey, baseball magnate, his office force and the police guard at the White Sox baseball park box office, September 18.

They were arrested yesterday in an attempted robbery of a $40,000 pay roll for Wilson & Company.

The three said they intended to rob the gate receipts of the White Sox and Yankees when the figured Babe Ruth would draw a record breaking attendance.

They planned to "shoot the evidence," they told the police yesterday, planned to kill the bank messengers and escape with the $40,000 payroll.

CITY MAKES CONTRACT FOR CRUSHED ROCK.

At the meeting of the mayor and commissioners last night an agreement was reached between the city and Lewis & Frazier whereby the latter will operate the rock crushers and supply the city with crushed rock.

Good city is to put the crushers in good repair and the contractors are to keep them so. The city will pay $2.50 per cubic yard for crushed rock, delivered any place in the city where it may direct.

CONTRACTORS ARE ALLOWED TO SUPPLY ROCK TO OTHER PARTIES IN THE CITY AT $4 PER CUBIC YARD AND TO PAY THE CITY TEN CENTS PER YARD FOR ALL RUCK CRUSHED AS RENTAL FOR THE CRUSHERS AND EQUIPMENT. THE CONTRACTORS WILL EXECUTE BOND FOR THE FAITHFUL PERFORMANCE OF THEIR UNDERTAKING.

FIND MOONSHINING IN MAINE'S WOODS

GAINESVILLE, Me., Aug. 27.—Activities of Federal prohibition agents who have blocked the smuggling of liquor across the Canadian border in this vicinity, though it is reported as still merrily going on in some other sections, have led to considerable "moonshining" in the pine woods hereabouts.

At least, that is the claim of local authorities, who have begun a crusade against illegal distilling.

GOVERNOR COX CARRIES PROOF OF REPUBLICAN SLUSH FUND ON FROM PITTSBURGH TO THE EAST

Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Governor Cox today indicated he would make further exposures of the republican campaign funds within a week.

He paused here for an hour on his way to New Haven, Conn. Newspapersmen asked him if he would press his charges. He replied, "You will have new leads within a week, I think."

Referring to the announcement of Will Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, that individual campaign contributions were restricted to one thousand dollars, Governor Cox said:

"No one needs to worry about my not naming the sources of the funds I accused the republicans of raising."

Governor Cox said that if the senate committee really wished him to appear before it at Chicago, he would do so.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—Governor Cox's schedule of republican campaign fund quotas of fifty-one of the principal cities is a "phony list I never heard of before," Fred Upham, republican national treasurer, declared. "Somebody must have played a joke on the Governor," Upham declared.

"The republican national committee never apportioned any quotas to cities," Upham said. "The only quotas assigned are given by states, each state apportioned its quota as was thought best."

The republican treasurer denied the charges that vast amounts were collected exhibiting a statement showing the collections up to this morning total $1,017,255 of which New York state, including New York City gave $225,292, and he reiterated the statement of Chairman Will Hays that the budget for the national campaign only slightly exceeds three million dollars.

FARM TENANTS ARE FORMING A UNION TO FIX LIMIT OF RENTS

WESLEY, Tex., Aug. 27.—South west Texas has its first tenants' association. A notice published in a Corpus Christi newspaper informs "all landlords" that as a committee representing the federated crafts of laboring men residing in Kingsville, Tex., "we desire to notify you that said laboring men will not in future pay the exorbitant rents often demanded for a dwelling house. We are willing to pay promptly and cheerfully a rental which will yield a fair return upon the reasonable cash value of the property; if an exorbitant demand is made we expect to tender you such reasonable rental in lieu thereof."

The notice further stated that tenants belonging to the federated crafts of laboring men will refuse to vacate rented premises upon the demand of the owner "unless and until we can obtain another shelter for ourselves and our families at a reasonable rent."

The signers of the notice suggested a board of arbitration to pass upon rental disputes to be composed of one member selected by the landlord, one by the tenant and the third by the two members thus selected. "The decision of such board after reasonable notice and full hearing to be final and binding."

LIONESS CLAWS BOY WHO CRAWLED UNDER TENT TO SEE SHOWS

BEACH, N. D., Aug. 27.—Harold Elidge, eleven years old, suffered serious injuries when he was clawed by a lioness at a carnival here yesterday.

More than fifty stitches were required to sew up the wounds on his head, back and chest.

Although his scalp was nearly torn from his head, he is expected to recover.

He crawled under the animal tent while the attendants were at lunch and got too close to the lioness' cage. While holding him with one paw she clawed with the other. Two shots were fired before she released the lad.

VILLA TELLS ZAMORA TO SURRENDER AND RECEIVE A PARDON

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 27.—Francisco Villa, former outlaw, who with his troops surrendered recently to the government, wrote Pedro Zamora, the bandit who raided Cuale and carried off British and American subjects, advising him to surrender. He urged Zamora to "surrender peacefully" and obtain from the "Mexican government" a "letter containing guarantees for us all."

PSCO DAILY NEWS

RAISING GAS RATE From the reading of the Texas statute it is very evident that it was never intended by the lawmakers that public service corporations should not be allowed to earn a reasonable return upon their investments.

THE LOCAL COMPANY should be allowed to charge a rate sufficient to enable it to earn what the law provides it shall earn. This cannot be determined until the company makes its application to the commission...

THE GENERAL LAW of the state governing cities of the class in which Cisco, provides that city commissions may fix rates for gas, but places a limitation upon them, providing that they may not make that rate so low it will not produce a return of 10 per cent upon the investment.

AFTER THIS RATE is once established, it becomes very questionable if a city commission can, on request, change this rate. This was the point considered at a meeting last night when the commission appointed a committee of two of its members to request the city attorney to give the commission an opinion as to its power in the matter of the local company's request that it be allowed to increase the domestic gas rate in Cisco from fifty to seventy-five cents.

THERE IS A PROVISION of law, however, that in case any public service corporation is not earning a revenue...

denies it is making the request for the increased rate, but that the Texas company demands it and that the local company receives the gas at the city limits, distributes it, collects the bills and gives two-thirds of the gross receipts to the Texas company and a representative of the local company said he did not know if the Texas company would supply gas for Cisco if the increased rate was not granted.

When this application is filed, if it is so done, and its accompanying statement properly verified, as the law requires and it is found the company cannot earn 10 per cent at the present rate, it would be the duty of the commission, under the law, to allow an increase in the rate. Should this be done, the commission would be neglectful of its duty to the people of the city if it did not insist upon and make provision for an adequate supply of gas.

Even the survivors of Mark Hanna, in the party he so ably financed, will look upon the dead statesman as a "piker" when they compare the fund with which he "put over" McKinley, with that now proposed as necessary to elect Harding.

Compare conditions now with what they were when McKinley entered his first campaign and it will readily appear that Mark Hanna was not the "piker" but that the sum he raised then makes the proposed $15,000,000 now look like the proverbial thirty cents. Do not overlook the inflated currency and even to raise this, the present day managers may have to do more "fat frying" than did Mark Hanna. Governor Cox no doubt has the right information and there is probably not one doubt of the intention of the republican ways and means committee to raise this sum and that the assessments have been decided upon, but if the committee succeeds in getting the $15,000,000 there is more interest in the election of Senator Harding than the voting public have yet been led to realize.

IF GOVERNOR COX should be called before that senate investigating committee, controlled by the republicans, he may hand to the republican members the list of assessments, with which they may already be familiar.

AN HLL WIND AUSTIN, Tex., Aug. 26.—A young damsel came tripping down Main street recently. A wicked little wind came down Austin. At the corner they met a blind man who was arrested by a cop a few minutes later for collecting money under false pretenses told the police department "that as long as hoses/tes remain in style he was going to change his calling."

'Money is the Root of all Evil' Mrs. Patterson's Letter A Lesson in gratitude. "Mr. E. R. Pedigo, Austin, Texas.—Dear Mr. Pedigo: I have tried so hard to put aside and dwell as little as possible on the injustice that has been done my husband, knowing that he has gone where the unworthiness of men cannot harm him. However, I appreciate your action in the matter and will state as nearly as possible the facts in the case. My husband always considered Pat Neff one of his warmest friends. They began the practice of law about the same time at the Waco bar, and while Mr. Patterson lived at Moody, his practice took him to Waco several times each week. Naturally, he formed warm friends among the young lawyers, always speaking of P. N. as among the closest. The years went by; my husband never failed to give him support whenever he sought an office. They called each other by their given names and acted in the customary way for men who are friends. Not a month before my husband's death he remarked to me that P. N. would likely be in the next Governor's race and that he expected to support him. When we brought Mr. Patterson to Waco, Pat Neff was the first to meet us. Soon the sanitarium was thronged with Waco friends and hosts of relatives from Moody. The doctors were anxious to keep the room free of people on account of my darling's labored breathing. Most everyone came out of the room, I, myself, sitting in the doorway. But this "mere acquaintance," as he called himself, who "only came because Cullen Thomas had phoned him and asked him to make inquiry as to Mr. Patterson's condition," stayed by his bedside and shed bitter tears, although Cullen Thomas had already come, been in the room and gone out on the porch, realizing how precious the oxygen was to my dying husband. "The morning passed, but this "mere acquaintance" remained in the sacred chamber where we only want those who love us. When the end came, he asked to be allowed to take me to the hotel, although my sisters, brothers and numerous relatives were there to do so. My sister and I went with him and he was the last to say good night. So many people may be manifesting all this interest in order to try and get in the case. He and his God only know as to that; all I know is that my husband counted him among his best friends, and his actions in my husband's death chamber made me think he had a strong love for him, and quite naturally named him as one of the pall-bearers. A few days after the burial, Pat Neff phoned and asked to see Mr. J. C. Reynolds, President of First Nat'l Bank at that place, my brother, and me on business. I was in bed, but thinking it a friendly mission made an engagement to see him. We were dumfounded when he told us that the demon who had murdered my husband wanted him to defend him. Mr. Reynolds, my sister and brother told him plainly he could not afford to do such a thing; he urged his warm friendship and his intimate knowledge of his life as a reason for his taking the case, saying he would see to it that no mean, insinuating thing would be said against him. I told him there was nothing that could be truthfully said against my husband; that if he went into the case he would hurt himself and not my husband. He left, saying he would phone next morning. He phoned Mr. Reynolds and asked him if we took the skin off of him after he left. Mr. R. said they are of the same opinion that I am; we do not see how you can do it, but if you really want to do so, we have nothing more to say. Meaning that if his standards of honor were no higher than that we did not consider him worthy our notice. Respectfully, "EDNA C. PATTERSON."

"The corn crop is made and will fall short of last year's yield about 25,000,000 bushels," says the report of the Texas industrial congress. "The wheat crop, according to reports, will not exceed 15,000,000 bushels."

IF TELEPHONES IN LONDON WORSE THAN AMERICA, PITY THEM

LONDON, Aug. 27.—Announcement by Pike Pease, the assistant postmaster general, that the American telephone system is now inferior to that in this country, is disputed by Sir Joseph Duveen, who divides his time equally between this country and the United States. In an interview with the Pall Mall Gazette, Sir Joseph said:

"The telephone service here can only be described as rotten. If the postmaster general does not realize the difference between the American and British services, he should send a few men to New York for a month, and tell them to note the differences, and then learn how it is done.

"Personally, in America, I practically spend all my day on the telephone. Here I hardly ever use it. I have neither the time nor patience. The service, like Mr. Pease's statement, is a joke."

PROSPERITY IN HOMES OF DAKOTA FARMERS

BISMARCK, N. D., Aug. 27.—Prosperity is smiling on the farmers of North Dakota according to a bulletin issued by the Bank of North Dakota, which declares that prospects are for a crop sufficient to offset all losses that may have been sustained during the last three years.

"There is no unemployment, farm labor is just about equal to the demand and business shows a healthy increase," says the bulletin. North Dakota has not had a land boom, but farmers are coming into the state, while thousands of abandoned farms are being reported from other states. Taxes per capita and per acre have been less than in any neighboring state, with a promise of lower taxes for the present year.

Wheat growing in North Dakota has given way largely to diversified farming, according to agricultural experts, is in a measure responsible for the greater prosperity of farmers.

Total resources of the Bank of North Dakota are given at $21,748,631.63. Individual deposits were increased 50 per cent during the month covered by the bulletin.

HANDKERCHIEF SHOWER

As another token of the popularity of Miss Betty Newcomb, bride elect, Mrs. Leonard Simon entertained with a handkerchief shower Wednesday morning.

Ferns and cut flowers were effectively placed around the reception rooms. Five tables were placed for an unusual and interesting progressive game. Each table represented a different game such as Bunco, Old Maid, Hearts, Fourty-two and India.

At the conclusion of the games messenger boy, Christie Lee, appears at the door with a daintily wrapped box for Miss Newcomb for which she signed. On opening the box the bride-to be found that it contained lovely handkerchiefs, each a love token from her girl friends.

Assisted by Mrs. Thomas Brownlee and Miss Sara Lee, Mrs. Simon served a delicious salad course.

Miss Newcomb chose black taffeta for this occasion, while Mrs. Simon's frock was of pink organdy. Miss Lee's pink organdy and Mrs. Brownlee's black satin.

The guests, girl friends of Miss Newcomb, were: Misses Sara Lee, Jany and Ada Fee, Lucille Brown, Juanita St. John, Maurine Mancill, Forte of Cooper, Ruth and Helen Williamson, Ada Lee, Francis Dorsey, Sara Maud Benham, Marcia and Kathryn Pettit, Nora Shelton, Mesdames Frank Bell, Jean Bell and Harry Gray.

COUNTRY WITHOUT MONEY BUT IT HAS BILLIONS OF RUBLES

Associated Press.

SEBASTAPOL, Aug. 27.—One million rubles were purchased for twenty-five dollars by a correspondent, but after he had paid sixty thousand rubles for a meal, and ten thousand more for a short cab ride, he was a bankrupt millionaire by the close of the day. Crimea has twenty-four billions rubles but no real money. The harbor is filled with idle, disabled warships and merchantmen. No cargoes are on the docks, street cars are stopped because of lack of coal. Stores are without stocks. The old Russian naval base has lost all brilliancy.

ATTENDING PHYSICIAN EXONERATES PAT NEFF

The State of Texas, County of McLennan.

Before me the undersigned authority on this day personally appeared Dr. W. L. Crosthwait, of Waco, Texas, who after being by me duly sworn, deposed and says:

About 8:50 A. M. Pat Neff came to the sanitarium and inquired of me concerning Mr. Patterson's condition, saying that he wished the information to convey to Mr. Cullen F. Thomas, who had requested him to do so by telephone. I told him of Mr. Patterson's condition.

Mr. Neff then entered Mr. Patterson's room for a few minutes, extended his sympathy to Mrs. Patterson and left the sanitarium.

The serious condition of Mr. Patterson demanded my constant attention through the day of August 27th until 7:40 P. M., at which time he died, and during the day I did not see Mr. Neff at the sanitarium until about 8:20, when I met him and Mr. Cullen F. Thomas on the walk in front of the sanitarium porch and informed them of Mr. Patterson's death. Mr. Neff was not present when Mr. Patterson died.

ent and when Mr. Patterson died. The only persons I recall being present were Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Waller S. Baker, the nurse and myself.

The above statement is made solely in the interest of truth and justice and of no political significance as far as concerns me.

W. L. CROSTHWAIT, M. D. Subscribed and sworn to before me this, the 7th day of July, 1920.

The Autumn Hats are Truly Beautiful

It seems as if the designers of this season's millinery actually dreamed these beautiful creations. Wonderful blending of colors, sensible shapes, together with exquisite trappings feature the unusual display.

No longer need we hear the stereotyped expression: "Honestly I cannot find a Hat that suits me." Selection is merely a matter of finding something that harmonizes with your ideas—and that should be comparatively simple with our large, but unusual stock.
