WIDOW OF LATE PRES. HARDING DEAD AT MARION

MARION, O., Nov. 21.—Mrs. Florence Kling Harding, widow of the late President Warren G. Harding, died at 8:55 this morning at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Sawyer. She had grown slowly worse from hour to hour for the past week. Practically the last evidence of consciousness was her whispered appreciation yesterday morning of the message of President and Mrs. Coolidge, expressing hope and good wishes for her recovery.

Dr. Sawyer has known for weeks that she would not recover, but it was the strict command from Mrs. Harding that the most meagre of bulletins be put out regarding her condition. She had also denied Dr. Sawyer permission to bring specialists to Marion for consultation. The technical description of her malady was chronic nephritis, but Mrs. Harding has never fully recovered from the shock of the president's death. The endless grief and formalities that followed his death had undermined her nervous system. When Brigadier General Sawyer, the life-long family physician, died, almost in her presence in September last, the shock was renewed. It is the general's son who has been treating her in the last illness during the past weeks.

Mrs. Harding was born August 15, 1860, at Marion, Ohio, the daughter of Amos Kling, prominent banker and business man of the city and a direct descendant of an old Mennonite Pennsylvania Dutch family.

In her youth, Mrs. Harding was not in the most robust health, and in striving to keep physically fit, she developed a passionate fondness for horses, riding and driving at every opportunity.

At the age of twenty, Florence Kling married Eugene DeWolfe, a young native of Marion. One child—Marshall Eugene—resulted from this union, he dying about nine years ago, leaving two children—Jean and George.

As was the custom in those days, DeWolfe, in company with many of the other youths of that section of Ohio, went west one year to follow the fruit harvest up the Pacific coast. Mrs. Harding heard regularly from her first husband for a while, and then he dropped from sight, being last heard of in Oregon or Washington. For several years she clung to the hope he would return, but gradually came to the belief he had met with death in some manner. Establishing reasonable ground for belief that her husband was dead, she obtained her freedom from the courts after a perfunctory proceeding.

Mrs. Harding met Warren G. Harding shortly after he had purchased the Marion Star. The future president was working night and day to put his paper on a paying basis, and the struggle was slow and discouraging. Polishing a brief courtship, they were married in July, 1891, over the strenuous protests of the bride's father. In fact, the estrangement lasted for nearly seven years. The marriage ceremony took place in the famous Harding house, at Marion, from which Mr. Harding conducted his "front porch" campaign for the presidency thirty years later.

DISGRUNTLED FEW TRY ROB CISCO HIGH

Three affidavits attacking the eligibility of Cecil Couch, star football player of Cisco high school, have been filed with Roy B. Henderson, head of the interscholastic league at Austin. Dallas Scarborough, Abilene lawyer, representing two or three disgruntled Abilenians, is said to have filed the papers without the knowledge or consent of Abilene high school authorities. Nevertheless, Mr. Henderson saw fit to ask Superintendent Godbey of the Cisco schools to furnish him all records pertaining to Mr. Couch, that the matter might be taken up officially and reviewed by the league. This will be done at once and there is little likelihood of the Cisco football team or high school being further embarrassed.

SCRANTON IS NOW SUPPLIED OUT OF CISCO

One of the objectives of Postmaster Triplett is bettering the mail facilities in and out of Cisco. For years past the people of Scranton community have been supplied with mail from a rural route out of Putnam. Rural route 4 out of Cisco, has heretofore stopped within one-half mile of Scranton. Triplett realized the advantages that would accrue to Cisco if this route was extended so as to supply the Scranton community out of Cisco, and made application to have this service extended with the result that Route No. 4, with W. D. Hazel as carrier, is now taking the mail into Scranton. This service leaves Cisco at 7:30 every morning, and returns at 10:30. Patrons on rural routes trade largely in towns from whence their mail comes, and this will increase Cisco's trade territory to a certain extent. Scranton is still supplied with mail out of Putnam, which gives that place a double mail service.

The establishment of Motor Route A into Stephens county, is another mail facility that Triplett has added out of Cisco, and this is one of the longest and most popular routes out of Cisco, as it supplies mail within a few miles of Breckenridge. And many of the patrons on Route A are now trading here who have been trading elsewhere, it is said.

DR. SCOTT ILL

Dr. K. J. Scott left at noon today for Fort Worth, where he goes for consultation with other physicians as to his physical condition. Dr. Scott has been ill for the past ten days and confined to his home most of the time during that period. He is suffering from an infection of the left jaw bone and an operation may be necessary.

NO POLITICAL ALLIANCES FOR AMERICAN LABOR

EL PASO, Nov. 12.—American labor must remain free of all political parties, whether Democratic, Republican or Progressive, the executive council of the American Federation of Labor unanimously declared in its report to the convention today. The report urged the traditional non-partisan policy of the federation, and warned against uniting with any new labor party, saying the needs of the wage earners could best be served by working within the already established parties, but at the same time the report heartily lauded Senator Robert M. La Follette. The report also urged that the present cumbersome ballot be changed so as to make independent voting easier, that labor might participate more generally hereafter in primary elections.

Church South, telegraphs the officers of the church here from Gatesville that he will arrive in Cisco in time to fill the pulpit of the First Methodist church Sunday morning and evening. Upon his arrival here there will be a change in the ministerial residences. Monday Rev. Sam Thompson, presiding elder, will leave for his new field at Georgetown, and Rev. L. A. Webb, former pastor of the First church, who is now presiding elder of the Cisco district, will vacate the local parsonage for the incoming of Rev. Bowman, and will occupy the district parsonage vacated by Rev. Thompson.

COUNTY WIDE FARMERS' MEET

Farmers desiring to purchase state certified seed potatoes are requested to meet at the city hall in Cisco Saturday morning, November 22, at 10 o'clock. We plan to pool our orders for a car load of these state certified potatoes for next year's planting. There will be a discussion of fertilizers used this year, and pool orders for a car. There will be talks on sweet clover experiments conducted in Eastland county this year, and orders will be pooled for seed. By pooling orders we can secure these at greatly reduced prices.—Farmers Committee.

PRITCHARD OF MORAN COUNTRY IS GOOD FARMER

Lewis Pritchard, of Moran, was shopping with his family in Cisco this week. Lewis lives in the shallow oil district just northwest of Moran and reports a continued prosperity in his section, both in the oil industry and along farming lines. Farmers made good crops this year and are hopeful of a repetition in 1925. He says they will not let visions of untold riches in oil development retard their efforts along agricultural pursuits. Many are finding pleasure as well as profit in poultry raising. Turkeys have been found very profitable both for the market and as destroyers of grasshoppers and other insects that are pests to the farmer. In many cases, grasshopper ravages that would have resulted in whole fields of crops being total losses, have been held to the minimum by large flocks of turkeys ranging over the pastures and fields. Mr. Pritchard says that farmers used to say that turkeys destroyed crops and hence were pests themselves, but since people have begun to raise turkeys in real earnest they have found that the turkey was not a crop destroyer but that he really was the greatest friend to the farmer by destroying all kinds of insects. The turkey is a great meat eater and so hunts diligently for insects to satisfy his hunger.

Mr. Pritchard thinks that a large acreage will be planted to grain this coming year as Moran section harvested the largest grain crop in many years. Much cotton will be planted also.

CISCO DEMOLAY DEGREE TEAM TO GO TO RANGER

Members of the Cisco Chapter Demolay for Boys, will go to Ranger this evening to assist in putting on initiatory work in the Ranger chapter just organized in that city. The Cisco boys will put on the degree work, and will be joined by a delegation of the Breckenridge chapter, who will initiate a large class this evening.

CELEBRATING HIS HOME COMING, WANTS IN JAIL

BRECKENRIDGE, Nov. 21.—Not having been in Breckenridge for 25 years, and meeting convivial friends of former days, a certain prodigal applied to Sheriff Head to be locked up as he "was getting drunk." He was accommodated, and given quarters by Jailer Lea until he had slept off his home-coming jag.

UTILITIES CO. TAKES OVER SAN ANGELO PLANTS

Enlargement of the operating system of the West Texas Utilities company by the addition of electric, water and ice properties of Tom Green and Runnels counties valued at more than a million and a half dollars was announced Thursday from the general offices of the company at Abilene. The new properties comprise the holdings purchased from the Interstate Electric Corporation at San Angelo, Ballinger, Winters, Miles and Rowena, together with the entire electric transmission system serving these towns. The tying on of this territory to the main system places the West Texas Utilities company in the forefront of the great utility organizations of the southwest in point of size and importance, with a total of thirty-nine towns and communities served and more than 450 miles of electric high tension transmission lines. In line with its customary policy, the West Texas Utilities company will immediately put under way in the new territory acquired, an extensive program of improvement and enlargement and the entire system will be developed to the highest point of efficiency. Taylor Rowe, formerly superintendent of the ice properties at Abilene, for the last year superintendent of the company's ice properties at San Angelo, will be placed in charge of the San Angelo district as superintendent, and S. E. Galloway, until recently superintendent of the Baird district of the company, as assistant superintendent. The properties at Ballinger, Winters, Miles and Rowena will be grouped into a second district in charge of Earl Morley, former superintendent of the Stamford district of the company.

$25,000 FARMERS SPECIAL TRAIN OF ELEVEN CARS

CORPUS CHRISTI, Nov. 21.—Figures piled high when farmers of the four counties of the Gulf coast, backing an eleven car special train, the first ever run by farmers in Texas, took stock. It cost them about $25,000 for a twelve-day trip through central and north Texas and return. A single railroad ticket costing more than $9,000 was purchased at Alice, covering the 150 reservations for the train. There were more than a hundred farmers, each paying $150 for his reservation, making the trip. A sixteen piece military band from Fort Sam Houston was taken along. The train left Corpus Christi Nov. 9 to return Nov. 22. Thirty-eight towns were included in the itinerary, stopping for two hours or more at each point. The special was exclusively a farmers' train, organized and backed by them. Six months time was taken in preparing for it before it departed, and about 75,000 letters were mailed to individuals and organizations in the territory covered by the train, including farmers, most of whom formerly lived in north Texas. Supplementing the four cars of exhibits of farm products, a 4,000 foot motion picture of the counties represented, Nueces, San Patricio, Jim Wells and Kleberg, was taken along to show at the various towns. The population of the Gulf coast section supporting the special is about 64,000.

Alfred Rosenquest and Herman Lorenzen, returned from a deer hunt in Mason county and report bagging a big buck and also the fact that "the biggest one got away" due to the nervousness of one of the party when he went to shoot. They report seeing plenty of does and fawns.

DALLAS, Nov. 21.—Federal authorities of Dallas and Fort Worth today are combing those cities in their search for $50,000 worth of morphine, which was stolen from the express company while en route to Fort Worth from France. The dope disappeared after reaching Texas. Two dope addicts are held. A woman ring leader is sought.

ABILENE FAIR HEADS MAKE A GENEROUS OFFER

The following telegram from the Abilene chamber of commerce was received by the Cisco Daily News Thursday: "The Abilene chamber of commerce has today invited your high school to play the intersectional football championship game in Abilene, and the West Texas Fair association has offered, without charge, its football field and grandstand. We assure your citizenship in advance of a cordial welcome and promise to extend every possible courtesy. T. N. Carswell, Secretary."

Coming on the heels of the news that certain Abilene people had filed affidavits at Austin attacking the eligibility of one of the Cisco football players and the honor of Cisco high school, the above telegram was a surprise. However, the Daily News wired the following answer: "Appreciate your courteous offer and will give it full consideration when the time comes."

Phillips Petroleum Company Takes Over Landreth Holdings in a Four Million Dollar Trade Consummated

BRECKENRIDGE, Nov. 21.—One of the biggest oil and gas deals ever made in the mid-continent field has just been closed whereby the Landreth oil, gas and gasoline properties at Ibez are purchased by the Phillips Petroleum company, the consideration being slightly under 4,000,000. Papers in the deal were signed at Bartlesville, Oklahoma, yesterday, and the production of the Landreth properties became the property of the Phillips Petroleum Company.

Mr. Best of Ranger, the Phillips Petroleum company's North Texas superintendent, will arrive tomorrow morning and take charge of the properties.

"It was a good deal for us and a good deal for them," was the only comment E. A. Landreth would make, upon his arrival from Bartlesville, Okla., where he and Mortimer Smith, office manager of the company of this city, went to close the deal. But a more significant statement for Breckenridge and Stephens county was that made by Landreth when he declared: "We will now begin at once to develop nearly 4,000 acres we have six miles southwest of Breckenridge, to be known as the Landreth pool." Near the center of this undeveloped tract is a well which has been producing for four years, the Landreth holdings being along south of the Curry pool and being considered among the most promising in this section.

Landreth will retain his offices and practically the same force of men in the offices here and in the field, as he has left several strings of tools and other equipment which he will use to drill the new pool. His activities heretofore have been centered in Shackelford county in the Ibez pool.

"I will still make Breckenridge my home," he said. "The 3700-acre tract south of town which will be developed is traversed by the big 5 inch line of the Lone Star Gas company, and besides having a supply of gas on the field there is a supply of water also for drilling purposes."

The sale of Landreth properties to the Phillips Petroleum company makes it the largest gasoline producer in the world and in the deal with Landreth this company acquires the biggest gasoline plant in the world, being that which Landreth recently erected at Ibez and which has a daily output of 45,000 gallons of gasoline and which has a part of its equipment the only charcoal process ever tried in this territory.

The deal with Landreth buys for the Phillips company 2,000 acres of land in Shackelford county with 19 producing wells, 125 insulated tank cars and Landreth's interest in the Lone Star Gas line which he recently built to the Ibez pool and which carries 50,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily. The Landreth company controlled all the gas rights in the Ibez pool.

Landreth has been in the oil business a little over five years, having come to Breckenridge from Joplin, Mo., in 1919, and bought up a bunch of leases, later forming the Landreth Oil company. The only other men in this section holding stock in the properties of the Landreth interests just sold to Phillips company are Mortimer Smith, office manager here, and H. H. Watson of Ibez, field superintendent.

The growth and success of Landreth's oil and gasoline ventures in this territory has been phenomenal. And at the same time he has taken a prominent part in the growth and prosperity of Breckenridge, and is head of the Y. M. C. A. here, and is a factor in the chamber of commerce and other organizations.

EASTLANDERS PAY FINES TO GAME WARDENS

News comes from the Kerrville Junction hunting grounds that a nice batch of good Eastland county money was left to satisfy certain infractions of the game laws when a party of Eastland sports went for an outing in those game preserves. The Junction Eagle tells the story, but is considerate enough to withhold the names. However, those whose purses were depleted by the rude minions of the law will not be hard to locate, for other Eastlanders—those who stayed at home—have noticed that a number of returned hunters have been practicing a system of rigid economy since they came back from the hunt. Here is the story the Junction Eagle tells on the Eastland hunters: "The largest fine collected from any party this year, and probably the largest ever collected here, was assessed and collected in the justice court Wednesday when several men from Eastland were brought here by Deputy Game Warden Dent of Kerrville, and evidence produced that they had killed more than their limit of turkeys and had been trespassing and had killed seven turkey hens.

"They were apprehended in the east end of the county. More than $200 in fines were paid. Seventeen charges were reduced to ten and the men agreed to turn the hen turkeys over to the Salvation Army."

KID JORDAN GETS CHANGE OF VENUE TO STEPHENS CO.

EASTLAND, Nov. 21.—The case of the state of Texas vs. "Kid" Jordan, which was called for trial in the 88th district court was transferred to Stephens county on a motion made by counsel for Jordan and agreed to by County Attorney Barnes. Jordan is under indictment in Eastland county on a charge of conducting a gambling house. He was indicted about two years ago, but for one cause and another has never been tried. A good portion of the time since the indictment was returned against him he has been out of the state.

The main ground on which the change of venue in the case was sought was that the case became an issue in the political campaign in Eastland county last summer, especially in the race for county attorney in the primary, and by reason of that fact was known to many people, who, it was contended, had formed opinions regarding it.

LONG WOLF CHASE

A wolf hunt of unusually long duration took place last night, the chase extending over a period of twelve hours. It started at Red Gap, some three miles northeast of Cisco. Thirty trained dogs took part and were in close pursuit throughout the night, but were outdistanced by the flying lobes as daylight came. Hunters in the party were Messrs. Walter Ray, Hale, Maynard and Ford.

SUCCESS IN BUSINESS

Ten principles for business success were given in an address before the Harvard Business School club by Otto H. Kahn, banker and one of the most prominent business men of today.

Yet these principles have nothing directly to do with the complex machinery of business. They might, indeed, serve as a guide to success in any other line of endeavor.

"Eliminate from your vocabulary in working hours the word 'perfunctory.'" The most trivial task is a test, as well as the bigger one, and the way it is performed will testify for or against you.

This is but a brief statement of the precepts laid down by Mr. Kahn, which were not intended, of course, to open the doors of business success to his hearers, but which are nevertheless an unusually clear expression by a successful business man of what he believes younger men who seek success should do and be.

The football gambling element of Abilene is dying hard, but dying. For two successive years the Fighting Lobos have upset their calculations and drained their pocketbooks and they hate Cisco like the devil hates holy water.

"IF ANY MAN SERVE ME" A letter signed "G. G. J." from Christiana, Norway, to the Christian Science Monitor details an interesting incident of the Olympic games, as follows:

"I feel I must tell you about the young Scottish student, Eric Henry Liddell, who made a new world's record for the 400-meter race in Paris.

"Not believing that it was right to run on Sunday young Liddell refused to do so and at a banquet which was given later in his honor in Edinburgh he told about the incident. He said that after he had placed himself at the starting line for the 400-meter he was not able to conceal from himself that he was nervous about the result. The race had been postponed for him and he felt that more than the mere contest was at stake.

Nearly Ten Thousand Dollars Have Been Paid Cisco Farmers by One Firm For Turkeys During This Fall

Farmers of Cisco country have been enriched several thousand dollars this season from turkeys raised in this vicinity and sold on this market. Besides the regular poultry men who have bought many birds, the Hurd Poultry Yard reports the purchase and shipment of 4,551 turkeys since the season opened, for which the farmers were paid from 15 to 18 1/2 cents per pound.

"This season the Hurd Poultry Yard has shipped out of Cisco three cars of dressed turkeys to other markets, and the fourth car is now being chilled for shipment tomorrow," said W. H. Hurd when asked about his business. "We have only been out of the market one week, and that was during the time the ban was on turkey shipments, and during that week we were not buying. At that time our yards were full of turkeys and we could not handle any more.

"We are contemplating enlarging our poultry plant to double capacity for another year, and will be able to handle eggs in car lots. "Just as soon as the turkey rush is over we expect to ship out a straight car of chickens to the outside markets, and will pay the highest market prices for all chickens offered."

LAST ADDITION TO LAKE ZOO IS CANADIAN BEAR

The Lake Cisco zoo has received another addition to its aggregation of animals, native to Texas and otherwise. The zoo received its prize animal this week from Mrs. B. O. Carpenter of Caddo, in the form of a four months old cub bear of the Canadian black species.

CROUP Spasmodic Croup is frequently relieved by one application of VICKS VAPOR OIL Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

Paschall succeeded in safely delivering the bear to the quarters assigned to the animal at the zoo, much to the commissioner's relief. Besides the bear, the zoo now has an eagle, a prairie dog, opossum, ground squirrels, and perhaps other animals. Several armadillos have been donated, but none have survived. If these animals are kept in houses they soon die, as they feed largely on worms and grubs, and do not seem to thrive without this diet. If placed where they can secure their favorite diet they burrow under the ground and soon disappear.

STEPHENVILLE WILL PROVE A HARD OPPONENT

Stephenville will prove a worthy opponent for the Lobos when they meet Thanksgiving day at Ranger. Although the Yellow Jackets lost a game to Comanche by a close score, this game cannot be taken as indicative of their strength. The game was a pre-season and practice game only, having no bearing on the championship race. Potet, Stephenville star man, was not in the game, and other Yellow Jacket stars were not playing. The game may be likened to the game played by the Lobos when they met Strawn in a practice game.

Stephenville has run completely over every team in their conference games. In their last four games they have rolled up 189 points to none for their opposition. Their last game was for the bi-district title, played with Graham, the district champion of the Strawn district. Graham defeated the Strawn team 28-0. Stephenville defeated Graham by a heavy score. Another indication of their strength was the 18-0 defeat they gave Ranger, a team the Lobos barely nosed out by one touchdown.

Stephenville has a heavy team. The Cisco fans who saw the basket ball game between Cisco and Stephenville last year well remember the size of the Yellow Jackets. Potet, their star backfield man, is declared to be a marvel. Coach Fred Erney of Cleburne, stated to Coach Chapman that he considered Potet one of the greatest ball carriers he ever saw on a high school team. Erney scouted the Stephenville-Graham game and made this statement while he was at Comanche Monday. Potet is a triple threat man who is strong, heavy and fast. He has had several years of experience, and last year almost single handed, played Abilene to a standstill all through the first half, and several times carried the ball to within a few feet of the Eagle goal line. Potet has a big strong line to protect him, with backfield men as heavy as the Lobos have to run interference for him. He will not be in the position Marshall of Comanche occupied last Monday, when his every attempt to run was snared before he got started.

Cisco will strive to beat Stephenville. Last year, the Yellow Jackets sunk their stingers into Cisco on the basket ball court, and several of the Lobos were on the basket ball team. They have been waiting for this chance to even the score, and they will receive their chance Thanksgiving day. Also, Cisco has not forgotten the baseball incident with Stephenville last spring, and the boys feel that the way to right things is to beat the Yellow Jackets when they meet at Ranger.

RISING STAR GAS CO. ACQUIRES BIG GASSER

RISING STAR, Nov. 21.—To supplement the present fuel supply the Rising Star Gas Co. has just acquired the big gasser known as the Gann well, located about seven miles northeast of town. John Bryant, manager of the local gas company, stated that the well would be conditioned and placed in readiness to be used to augment the local gas supply should it ever become necessary. At present the old well is supplying more gas than is needed, but the new well will always insure a bountiful supply of gas here which means that there will never be a shortage. At present the well is said to be making about one and one-half million feet of gas, but will produce even more when placed in condition.

HALF CENTURY OF WEDDED LIFE IS CELEBRATED

RISING STAR, Nov. 21.—The fiftieth anniversary of the wedded life of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dill was most fittingly celebrated Wednesday. They were given a most joyous surprise when Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Dill, Mr. and Mrs. F. Weaver and Mrs. R. W. Chastain drove out to their farm five miles from town, laden with choice delicacies prepared for the 60th wedding dinner for this venerable and popular couple. At the noon hour the splendid feast was spread, and a most enjoyable day was spent by all present, recalling to this popular pair the scenes just fifty years ago when they entered into the joys of conjugal bliss, which has been fruitful of many blessings as they passed the half century mark in their wedded life.

75 CHILDREN OF EX-UNIVERSITY STUDENTS ARE FRESHMEN

AUSTIN, Nov. 21.—Personal statistics pertaining to the members of the freshman class of the University of Texas show that there are 45 boys and 30 girls in the class whose mothers or fathers formerly attended the University. This information was obtained by L. H. Hubbard, dean of students, in connection with other facts of interest about the new students. In six cases, both parents are ex-students of the University. These students are Tom Pickett of Palestine, Edgar Townes of Houston, Hans Winkler of Austin, Ruth Hemmet of San Antonio, Virginia Tallichet of Houston, and Elizabeth Keuhne of Austin.

SALARIES OF STATE SCHOOLS TO BE RAISED

AUSTIN, Nov. 21.—The general salary increase of all state educational institutions, including the presidents of the State University and A. & M. were made today in the biennial budget of the board of control for submission to the coming session of the legislature. This increase would make the University president's salary $8,000, and the A. & M. president's salary $7,500. The deans, professors and associate professors are all to receive proportionate increase in the recommendations.

TO BURN CARBON BLACK PIONEER FIELD SHORTLY

PIONEER, Nov. 21.—With the expenditure of more than a quarter of a million dollars on the building of two carbon black plants that are now in the course of construction on the eastern ridge of the Pioneer field the burning of carbon black from the residue gas from the casinghead gas plants in this field will soon be a reality. With the completion by the Western Carbon company and Peerless Carbon company of their plants will mean the commencement of the burning of carbon black in Eastland county. Stephens county has several plants in successful operation near Breckenridge, but these are just the beginning of the industry in Eastland county.

Excavation work is now under way on the Western Carbon Co. plant, which employs a large force of men, and others will be given employment as the work progresses, and construction of the plant gets under way proper.

The framework of the steel structure is now practically ready at the Peerless Carbon Co. plant, where a force of men will be employed in construction. It is said this plant will be ready for operation within three months, and in practically four or five months both plants will be burning carbon for the markets, which will give Pioneer an additional payroll that will stimulate business materially.

These two plants are located in close proximity, and the Katy road has already constructed sidings to convey building material and to load their products.

INVALID SINCE 4 YEARS OF AGE GRADUATES AT 16

TERRELL, Nov. 21.—In spite of the fact that he is an invalid and has been since the age of 4, Frank King, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. King, is a member of the graduating class of the Terrell high school at the age of 16, and ranks high in his class standing.

Stricken with infantile paralysis when 4, he has been an invalid ever since, using a wheel chair to go to school in. His mind, however, is bright and alert; he is ambitious and anxious for an education and his desire is being fully gratified along this line.

Wednesday was regular students' day at Randolph College, but there seemed to be great secrecy concerning what the program would be. When every one was seated Edwin Camp Martin, president of the Junior class, took charge. He announced that an impromptu program would be given, and requested Mr. Holloway to see that each carried out his part. Mr. Holloway only too gladly assented.

The first number was a talk, "The Evils of Football," by Presley Stubbs. "Stubby" walked boldly to the front and said, "Ah, the evils of football, yes they're there. Er—ah—oh—yes, sure, the evils of football, they're great, very many evils, yes they're there." He took his seat amid roars of applause.

The second number was, "Why I like to chew gum," by our president. Applause greeted the speaker. He seemed exceedingly glad to talk on this subject, but then he never misses an opportunity. "I like," began Mr. Holloway, "to chew gum and see others chewing it just as much as all girls like pig noses and freckles, and I might say almost as much as the girls love wearing number seven shoes. Oh, yes! folks, I adore chewing gum anywhere; especially in chapel. I consider it good decorum."

"The next was a short talk on 'The evils of dancing' by Mary Shultz, Miss Mary, with her head very high declared that the evils were so many and so terribly evil, that she hardly liked to think about it. "I have never been to a dance, and assure you I never will," she said. No one doubted it. She took her seat amid applause.

President Martin announced the next number was "How to overcome bashfulness," by the football coach, Mr. West. He certainly acquitted himself creditably and no one would have guessed he was bashful. All he said was, "We learn to do by doing, I'm doing, ain't I?"

Mrs. Cannon, our beloved English teacher, was called upon to tell why she bobbed her hair. "I don't know," she said, "I knew it couldn't look any worse and I hope everybody likes it. But I wonder; some don't like it straight and some don't like it frizzed. I think it's alright." Everybody agreed as she sat down.

The next number was, "Why Eastland is not as good as Cisco," by Lillian Sprull. "Why, I'm sure you have me down wrong. Eastland is the grandest little place in Texas! Them is my sentiments."

Lorene Meek was asked to tell "How it feels to be a queen." "I don't know much about being a queen except for Randolph, and its lots of fun." Then with her characteristic sweetness and consideration she told how pretty her lady in waiting looked in the parade. Much hand clapping followed.

Next was "Good table manners," by Joack Easley, who is a competent authority on the subject. He never leaves anything on the table at the dormitory. Any time of the night, and sometimes during the day, he will be found in the kitchen probably practicing good table manners. Such knowledge as this should not be looked upon lightly; I'm sure all the students appreciate it as they should.

The last number was "How to make room for five on the back seat," by Barney Tiller. Barney knew all about it; in fact, Barney is known as a great little fixer, and never late for anything, especially classes. "Leave it to Barney" should be a slogan.

The program was enjoyed by all and President Edwin Camp Martin is due congratulations for his ingenuity and originality. These programs are free, and the college would be glad to have any visitors on any morning at 10:30 for chapel on "Randolph Hill."

Old Folks' Ailments

"I began taking Black-Draught over fifty years ago and my experience with it stretches over a good long time," says Mr. Joe A. Blakemore, a Civil War veteran, now a prominent citizen of Floyd, Tex. "It is the best laxative I know of for old people. . . . A good many years ago, in Virginia, I used to get bilious and I found that was the best and quickest relief I could get. Since I came to Texas I have these bilious attacks every now and then—and I find a little Black-Draught soon straightens me out. After a few doses, in little or no time I'm all right again." Theford's Black-Draught acts on the stomach, liver and bowels in a gentle, natural way, assisting digestion and relieving constipation.
