BRECK OFFICER IS SHOT TO DEATH

Police Raid Fascist Haunts as Civil War Is Rumored

ALLEGE PLOT TO USE ARMS FOR CONTROL

BERLIN, March 17.—Prussian police raided Fascist headquarters and branches today on information alleging that the Nazis planned to mobilize their storm battalions for civil war.

An official Prussian government statement said the raids were intended to frustrate Fascist preparations to gain power by violence.

Defeat of the Nazi leader, Adolf Hitler, in the presidential election Sunday and rumors of an attempted Fascist coup published in Paris preceded the raids.

The Paris newspaper Le Matin today published what was purported to be a circular distributed secretly from Hitler's headquarters before Sunday's election. The circular outlined plans to seize power in Germany by force if Hitler was beaten for the presidency.

According to the alleged plans published the Fascists had a force of 520,000 "storm troops."

TWO INDICTED IN EASTLAND GARAGE FIRE

Indictments, charging arson, were returned by an 88th district court grand jury at Eastland yesterday against Frank Bida and Sam Baskin in connection with the destruction of the Superior Toy and Body Works, owned by Bida, by explosion and fire last Saturday morning.

Bida and Baskin were charged Saturday morning after an alleged confession by Baskin had implicated Bida in the burning of the building to collect insurance. Dynamite was believed to have been used in the explosion which completely wrecked the large building on West Commerce street and endangered the lives of employees and guests in the Texas hotel across a street.

Dynamite Used

Baskin's confession, officers said, related that Bida had witnessed burning the building with him for several weeks and that a plan had been laid whereby sticks of dynamite set off by means of an electric switch would shatter and ignite the building after the fire department had been called out to residence fire set a few minutes before the explosion.

According to the confession Baskin carried Bida to a point on South Scammon street and then went back to the building where, a few minutes after the fire trucks had raced to the south residential district to extinguish a fire in a vacant house, he pulled a switch and detonated the explosive. Gasoline sprinkled over the interior quickly rendered the building a mass of flames, which required the combined efforts of Eastland, Cisco and Ranger fire departments to control.

Baskin, questioned by officers after statements of his actions failed to coincide with known facts, admitted that his claim that hijackers had blasted the building, was faked and signed a confession to Asst. District Attorney Grady Owens at 6:30 Saturday morning. Bida's arrest followed.

Golf Schedule to Begin Sunday at 1

Qualifying for the 1932 Oil Belt Golf association play must be completed by Saturday night, O. J. Russell, golf team captain at the Cisco Country club said today. All members of the Cisco club who intend to participate in this season's schedule are asked to take note of this fact and to turn in their qualifying scores within that period.

The first matches will be played Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, with the Breckenridge club invading the Cisco links for a match with the Cisco club.

ROBS BANK

LAPORTE, Tex., March 17.—A lone bandit held up the First National bank here today shortly after noon and escaped with $1,500 in cash.

VICE-CHAIRMAN OF OKLAHOMA BOARD OF AFFAIRS TO BE MURRAY RALLY SPEAKER

Hugh C. Jones, vice-chairman of the state board of public affairs of the state of Oklahoma, will be the speaker for the statewide Murray-for-President rally at Eastland Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Jones, like Murray, is a native Texan. There is probably no man, it is declared, who knows and understands the Oklahoma plainsman governor better than Jones and his appearance at the Eastland rally, while not as attractive to the public as the appearance of "Alfalfa Bill" would be, is announced with satisfaction by the promoters of the political event.

R. N. Grisham, Eastland attorney, and chairman of the arrangements for the rally, said today that indications promise a great convocation of Murray friends and supporters. Large delegations from Fort Worth, Graham and other towns at a distance have been pledged, while correspondence reveals that interest in the event is widespread.

Jones will be introduced by Dr. Joe McCracken, Mineral Wells physician who was a boyhood friend of Murray and whose brother was president of College Hill College, at Springtown, in Parker county, from which both Murray and Dr. McCracken were graduated. The college is now extinct.

Arrangements Committee

Grisham will preside. Assisting him as a committee on arrangements are Judge Eugene Langford, of Cisco; I. J. Killough, of Eastland, and Bob Rowland, of Ranger.

The speaking will take place upon a platform to be erected on the court house lawn if the weather is fair, otherwise Jones will be heard in one of the district court rooms. The prospect of fair weather for the rally is good, however.

At 10 o'clock and until 2, when Dr. McCracken will begin his introduction of the Murray speaker, opportunity will be given state and congressional candidates to make announcements. Charles Steel, of Fort Worth, state manager of the Murray forces, announced. What state candidates will be present was not known, although a number are expected to take advantage of the opportunity offered.

Jones maintains his home at

HUGH C. JONES

Hominy, in Osage county, Oklahoma. He was born at Kentuckytown, in Grayson county, and was named a member of the state board of education, of Oklahoma, and on June 1, 1931, was named vice-chairman of the state board of public affairs by Governor Murray.

Like Murray he worked in Texas cotton fields and on ranches. He takes pride in the fact that he is a son of a pioneer Texas family, as does Murray. He has relatives in Austin, Willis Point and Sweetwater.

CISCO KITTENS MEET LUCAS 6 HERE TONIGHT

The Randolph college Kittens bid farewell to home courts for 1932 tonight when they entertain the Lucas football team here at the Cisco high school gymnasium at 8 o'clock. The fast Fort Worth aggregation, one of the four strong teams in the Fort Worth city league, will arrive this afternoon in plenty of time to start the game at 8 o'clock. Coach H. R. Garrett, of the Kittens, announced.

Indication of the strength of the visitors is seen in the fact that they were defeated by the Powder Ice team, Fort Worth champions, by only one point Tuesday evening. Garrett sees plenty of trouble for his Kittens and predicts an exciting evening for those customers who see the final home game of the collegians this year. His team is in fair condition. Players who will represent Randolph are D. Fulford, McGeehee, Swindle, forwards; Russell and Greenlee, centers, and Farleigh, Johnson, Cross and O'Neal, guards.

Saturday morning the Kittens pack their kits for Shreveport and the national A. A. U. tournament with high hopes in the best prospects that any Randolph team has ever faced. En route they will stop over at Fort Worth for a game with the Bowyer Ice company squad Saturday night.

The national tournament will open for three days Monday.

FORT WORTH, March 17.—John F. Flore, Fort Worth and Cleburne realtor, who died here March 1, left an estate of $75,000 in a will filed for probate today.

The band will play at the intersection of D avenue and Eighth street. Its program will be preceded by a 30-minute concert by the Lobo band which will serve as the host organization for the visitors.

The Colorado players will broadcast over WCAP from 11 to 12 midnight Friday.

COMMITTEE TO DECIDE CISCO CASE MARCH 30

A decision on the recommendation of the Oil Belt district committee that Cisco be suspended from the Inter-cholastic league for a year will be announced March 30, Roy B. Henderson, secretary of the state executive committee announced yesterday at Austin. Henderson has just completed a personal investigation of evidence at Tyler and Cisco.

Cisco is charged with violation of ineligible rules in allowing Fred Hightower, quarterback, to play in the Cisco-Breckenridge game last fall. It is alleged that Hightower had not attended Cisco high school the required 30 days prior to the game, but that he was attending Tyler high school on September 23, the final date for enrollment in the local school to have been eligible. The game, won by Cisco, was subsequently awarded to Breckenridge and in a later meeting the district committee recommended Cisco's suspension.

In a hearing at Austin, in which Cisco presented its evidence to the state committee supporting its contention that Hightower was eligible the committee deferred action until it could conduct its own investigation. Henderson spent two days here Sunday and Monday after having scrutinized evidence at Tyler.

VIC GILBERT ACCEPTS POST WITH COMM'N

In a letter to the Cisco Daily News this afternoon, Victor B. Gilbert, announced acceptance of the post offered him as assistant director of the motor transportation division of the Texas Railroad commission. Gilbert left Cisco several days ago for Austin to confer with the commission after the post had been tendered him following resignation of Judge Walter Gates, of San Antonio.

In his statement announcing acceptance Gilbert says:

"Circumstances have demanded and good fortune has presented a change for me, and in accepting a position with the railroad commission I do so with only one regret, and that is leaving my friends. Of course I will not offer for re-election to the legislature, but I will not abandon my fight there for the principles I have heretofore advocated, nor will I abandon my interest in the welfare of my district, and my services are yours at any time to command. My citizenship and residence are still in Cisco and my partnership and interests still remain with Judge Scott. I would be most happy to take each of my many friends by the hand and thank you for the confidence and honor you have conferred on me—the errors I have committed have been of the 'brain and not of the heart,' which is a sweet consolation to me—and satisfying."

Meanwhile, much speculation hinges upon a probable successor in the legislative office. There is a well-defined rumor that his place will be sought by Ben L. Russell, Jr., of Baird a son of Judge B. L. Russell, long prominent in politics and road development in this section.

Russell is a brother of O. J. Russell, of Cisco. Other candidates for the legislative seat, already announced, are Cecil A. Lotief and Cleve Callaway, of Cross Plains, and Tip Ross, of Gorman.

Rotarians Enjoy 'Spring Fever' Songs

Songs that "just fit" the spring fever season of the year were offered by Mrs. Ben McClinton in her appearance at the Rotary club luncheon today as soloist. "Sleepy Hollow Tune" and "Love's Old Sweet Song" were the numbers she sang, accompanied by Mrs. S. E. Hittson.

Ernest Hittson, program leader completed his fine program with a couple of fiddle numbers that called back memories of rollicking barn dance days when hay rides were more of a "convenience and necessity" than a novelty. "Turkey in the Straw" was the final favorite of his offerings.

Visitors present were Minor Huffman, of Dallas, out of regional Boy Scout headquarters, who spoke to the club on the Boy Scout work, with particular emphasis upon a campaign to raise $7,000 for the Comanche Trail council, of which Eastland county is now a part. Guy N. Quill, executive of the council, and Will Talbot, both of Brownwood were present and introduced as the guests of E. P. Crawford.

LATEST LEADS IN KIDNAPING UNPRODUCTIVE

HOPEWELL, N. J., March 17.—State police today reported new discouragement and the blasting of what had seemed promising leads to the kidnapers of Baby Lindbergh. The forenoon bulletin to the press was entirely negative and acknowledged the failure of latest leads which police have investigated.

WORK OF CRANK.

DALLAS, March 17.—Detectives today said they believed a phone call from here, asking that Col. Charles Lindbergh drop $50,000 in a local cemetery from an airplane, had no bearing on the kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby and was the work of a crank.

The call was made several days ago from a marble works shed near a cemetery here. The man making it first attempted to place the call collect but charges were refused at the Lindbergh home and then the call was paid for here and completed.

DOG FRUSTRATES KIDNAPING

JACKSON, Mich., March 17.—Police detailed a guard to watch six-year-old Dewitt Ackerman today after the boy's pet dog Rover frustrated five men attempting to kidnap his master.

The men stopped Dewitt as he was en route home from school, his parents reported.

When the boy started to run, his parents said, two of the men pursued, but Rover's barks alarmed the would-be kidnapers, and they fled.

TWO HELD IN DANCE HALL GUN BATTLE

BRECKENRIDGE, March 17.—Deputy Constable Ollie Parks 35 years old, was shot to death early today in a gun battle at a dance hall following his attempt to arrest a man who dropped a pistol on the floor during the dance. Though struck by four bullets he managed to fire three shots himself before dying.

Harry Roberts, 30 years old, Throckmorton, Texas, was charged with murder today. His leg was shattered by a bullet from Parks' gun. Roberts was arrested by Jack Ellington, night watchman and nephew of Parks, as he fled down the stairs from the hall. Ellington said Roberts was still clutching a pistol from which five shots had been fired. The other two men escaped in the confusion.

Roberts and two men, described as ex-convicts wanted at Pampa and elsewhere in connection with bank robberies, were among the dancers at the hall, officers were told. During the dance one of the men dropped a pistol from his belt. Roberts, with his nephew following him, attempted to stop the three on the stairway leading to the street as the crowd was leaving the hall. The shots threw the crowd into a panic. One bullet lodged in the sleeve of John Boles' overcoat, but he was unharmed.

The body of Parks was sent to Paris, Texas, today accompanied by Police Chief John Kelley. Parks came here from Paris two years ago.

W. H. Barbee, one of the two men sought, was arrested at 11 o'clock this morning at South Bend by Sheriff J. B. Foster, of Graham. At the time of his arrest he was armed with a .45 Colt automatic pistol, a .38 Colt revolver and had $264 in currency covered with blood, on his person. The little finger on his left hand was almost shot off. He admitted being the man who first drew his pistol following the dance last night and preceding the shooting. He denied, however, that he fired any shots. The third man is Barbee's brother, according to local officers. He is still being sought.

Fired Three Times.

One of the four shots that killed Parks shattered his left arm at the elbow; another entered his left shoulder, penetrating downward and breaking his spine; a third pierced his right breast, ranging down and out at right hip; the fourth struck him in the center of the forehead.

Waited at Stairs.

Parks, witnesses said, was waiting at the head of the dance hall stairs for one of the Barbees, after he had been told the man had dropped a pistol on the floor. As the trio started to leave the hall Parks attempted to arrest the man.

Officers were of the opinion the ex-convict did not understand immediately what the arrest was for, but surmised it was in connection with other crimes of which he has been charged. Roberts was standing behind Parks at the time and when the ex-convict showed the officer, the firing began. Parks fell, mortally wounded, his own 44 automatic spitting fire.

At the jail Roberts denied shooting. District Attorney Ben J. Dean announced he would oppose bond.

Parks was unmarried. He had been in Breckenridge for about two years, first as an employee of the fire department. Less than a year ago he was made deputy constable.

DAILY BIBLE THOUGHT

MAN'S APPEAL:—O Lord, revive thy work in the midst of the years.—Habakkuk 3: 3. FOLLOWING JESUS:—Be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving, one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.—Eph. 4: 32.

A FEE LAW THAT IS A RANK OUTRAGE.

An old statute enacted in 1905, which says no witness shall receive pay in more than one case during the same term of court, has been called to the attention of the sheriff of Tarrant county by the state comptroller of public accounts. Now sheriffs and deputy sheriffs are important witnesses in criminal proceedings. It appears that the sheriff and a deputy sheriff of Tarrant county were summoned twice to Waxahachie, Ellis county, as witnesses in two famous cases. There were two trials. These officers were compelled to attend, necessitating two trips from Fort Worth to Waxahachie, and then this statute of 1905 was resurrected by the state comptroller of public accounts. Of course, the law is very specific. It provides in part that no witness shall receive pay for services as a witness in more than one case during the same term of court. A term of court in Ellis county is three months and the ruling means that if any out of county witness was summoned from Tarrant three or four times during the three months period he would be entitled to pay for only one trip, "not to exceed four cents a mile and living expenses not to exceed $2 a day." This or be in contempt of court.

There is no excuse for fee grabbing. There is no defense for it. But the provisions of the 1905 law are just as iniquitous as the fee system itself. There is no defense for the existence of the law. There is no excuse for it. There is one way out of it. Salaried officers for all public servants. Legitimate expenses for legitimate business trips. All excess fees to be paid into the treasury.

WHERE HOPES OF MILLIONS ARE CENTERED.

Bascom N. Timmons is a noted Washington correspondent. Speaking of the federal government's $2,000,000,000 loan agency which is said to be operating at full speed, he says: "Actions of the corporation carry with them the hopes of millions of Americans who are able to secure loans from usual sources when credit and relief are most needed. Now that all banks everywhere are eligible to receive the support of the reconstruction finance corporation, there is a feeling that money is obtainable by deserving borrowers, industries, and individuals, to an extent that will afford a measure of recovery." Correspondent Timmons advises that it will not be a cure all! that no one should expect the reconstruction finance corporation to function as a panacea for all ills of business, but he holds it is logical to expect its operations felt in all parts of the country, with a consequent improvement in business, agriculture, manufacturing, and the public welfare in general. Moreover, he says, it can be stated that the reconstruction finance corporation is to be the big brother of banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, mortgage loan companies, federal land banks, joint stock land banks, federal intermediate credit banks, credit unions, agricultural credit corporations, livestock credit corporations and railroads. In fact, he avers this organization can be characterized as Uncle Sam himself. "trying manfully to build himself as the human system is built up by injecting new and healthy credit into the veins and arteries of business." Texans are interested. Texas has many industries, covering the list noted by this Washington correspondent.

Texans are talking in a money sense today more than they are in a political sense. Their territory is one of the greatest in the sisterhood. They look to the Dawes commission to give ample recognition to the industries of Texas in all lines of human endeavor. Moreover, they have a right to expect it.

HITLER FAILED TO BREAK THE HINDENBURG LINE.

President Von Hindenburg remains the idol of a vast number of the German voters. He overwhelmed Adolf Hitler at the polls Sunday, March 13, but he did not receive a majority of all the votes cast. There will be a runoff in April with Hitler the runner-up, and Von Hindenburg the probable winner of reelection as president. Total vote was 37,660,377. Von Hindenburg received 18 million, Hitler 11 million, Thaelmann, a communist, nearly five million; Duesterburg two million; Winter 100,000. Von Hindenburg lacked 168,453 votes in having a majority over all, but he was so far ahead of every other candidate, Berlin takes it for granted the warrior-statesman will succeed when the republic votes again April 10. Really, it was a glorious victory for the conservative forces of Germany. It was a magnificent tribute to the veteran soldier-statesman who never in his active career refused to be drafted by his people where loyalty to government and fealty to duty called. He faced the crisis of his statesman career in the opening battle which was fought at the polls on a memorable 13th of March. His political and personal enemies failed to smash the Hindenburg line. Those who are for peace and order in Germany are hopeful that the election in April in his verdict will declare for a continuance in power of this warrior-statesman who long ago passed his 80th milestone.

OTHER OPINIONS

THE BIG GAMBLERS WAIL. Now comes the complaint (from the exchanges) that the farm board has depressed prices and threatens to drive commission merchants out of business because the board has been working for direct marketing. The president of the Chicago Live Stock Exchange told the house agricultural committee at a hearing in Washington, that the board's activities have been "a disrupting influence and have produced incalculable damage." He added that the board was working hand in hand with the packers to depress prices but this statement is so wild as not to be worthy of comment.

One Dog That Will Never Bite Again;

If exchanges would confine their activities to the buying and selling of actual existing merchandise—live stock, wheat, cotton or what not—there perhaps could be no complaint, but so long as they use the exchange as a base for gambling there should be, not only complaint but action, and action that would remove the gambling and the gamblers.

This protest from the big gamblers is of the same kidney as that made by the little gamblers in Paris years ago—the crap shooters and poker players—when B. E. Stungren and Tom Carlock, county attorneys, in conformity with their oaths, prosecuted them and seriously reduced their business. They protested that these sworn officers of the law were running the town—that people liked an "open town" and would not come here to trade, and sell their products if they could not have the opportunity of being robbed of their money by the professions (only they did not say robbed). Time proved how wrong they were.

If big gambling is good for the country small gambling certainly can not hurt it, but the fact is that neither kind is good and the sooner both are stopped the better situated the people will be. — Paris News.

In the Political Arena

By HUGH NUGENT FITZGERALD

Regardless of what may be the political future of John N. Garner of Texas, he is the ace of aces among those who have been highly publicized by the newspaper and magazine writing propagandists of the Hearst organization as well as other magazine and newspaper organizations of America. A week ago George Creel furnished the readers of Collier's Weekly with perhaps the most fascinating as well as most thoroughly satisfying story of the life achievements of Newton D. Baker. Now comes the Cosmopolitan magazine with a very colorful and gripping story of the career of "The American Man of Destiny." Incidentally, and to the point Speaker Garner is the Hearst "man of destiny." His name will be submitted to the Chicago convention by the democrats of Texas as a candidate for the presidential nomination.

Distinguished propagandists of the writing tribe before the coming and after it was on of the campaign of 1928 made Herbert Hoover "the mightiest and most majestic son of destiny," that ever made the run around the political arena. Just think of what happened to Herbert Hoover after he had reached the pinnacle and was a man of tremendous responsibility instead of a mythical personage and the man of destiny of the republican party "who walked in the footsteps of Abraham Lincoln," as we have been told by Fighting Fat Hurley and thousands of others of prominence and ability as well as golden tongued in the training quarters of the elephant and the G. O. P.

ment that landed Texas in the republican camp four years ago.

Now the former senator is playing the game as usual. He has thrown the gauntlet down to Chmn. Huggins and the state committee. He threatens another bolt this year unless the chairman and the state committee hold a special session and rescinds its action at the Fort Worth meeting, when it adopted a resolution that predict voters pledge their support to democratic electors for president and vice-president. His warning to Chmn. Huggins is, "if this drastic action is allowed to stand it will result in driving thousands of free democrats out of the precinct and primaries eight weeks from today." He also predicted "that the pledge would estrange many of them permanently so that they are likely to stay out of the democratic primaries in great numbers." And then the leader of the bolt of 1928 made this appeal to Chmn. Huggins: "I earnestly hope the state executive committee will be called together to reconsider this matter and to give those of us who are opposed to it an opportunity to be heard. No such drastic test has ever been suggested in Texas since our election laws were passed."

Thomas B. is running true to form. In recent years he has led many forlorn hopes. In 1928 he led his followers to a republican victory in Texas and the nation. Now what will happen this year?

This is a democracy. This is said to be the land of freedom and opportunity. It is not a land of compulsory methods or repressive tyranny. An American is free born. It is his privilege to vote as he sees fit. There is no compulsion on entering the democratic precinct primaries in May, the nominating primary in July or against a republican ballot in November if the voter sees fit. Now the state committee declared for three places in the congressional battle of July. Chmn. Huggins and the committee arrogated to themselves with the democratic right as the chosen representatives of the democratic party to take this form of procedure. This ruling gave Mr. Love complete satisfaction as well as vociferous pleasure. Democratic lawmakers of Texas and democratic committees of Texas have banished negroes from participation in democratic nominating primaries. This appealed to the former senator.

Now the nited States has a constitution. If a democratic executive committee has the power to undertake what the Texas legislature refused to enact at its most recent session then a democratic committee representing the 31 senatorial districts should have a right to adopt a primary pledge in the coming month of May. In the eyes of the law speaking of the constitution, the negro is a citizen if he has paid his poll tax. There are negroes in Texas who demand the right of participation in democratic primaries. They have been excluded. They have appealed to the supreme court of the United States.

Judge Benjamin Nathan Cardozo of New York has qualified as an associate justice of the supreme court. He is a native New Yorker. He is acclaimed to be one of the ablest as well as one of the most high-minded and humane jurists that the republic has known. New York, by its statutes, gives the negro the right as well as the privilege to invade democratic or republican or prohibition or socialist primaries. They are not barred for color reasons. They are not subject to restrictions. They are recognized as full-fledged American citizens according to the constitution of the United States.

There are nine supreme court judges. One of the first cases that Associate Justice Cardozo will be called to pass upon is an appeal case from Texas involving the right of a negro to declare himself a democrat and to function as a citizen on primary election day, general election day, or any other day of political importance. Now how will the distinguished jurist from New York face the issue? He has a record. Those who know him best say that he has ever been on the side of the constitution and the valid statutes of his native state.

William Gibbs McAdoo will head the Garner ticket for delegates-at-large in California. If he wins, he will be in the picture as well as in a big seat at the Chicago convention. An agile, aggressive, resourceful and master political craftsman, Thomas B. Love of Texas, will do his level best from now on until the May convention is held to capture the delegation from Texas in order to be close to his chieftain of all the years, the former secretary of the treasury, a son-in-law of Woodrow Wilson, and a distinguished personage who is just as ambitious today as he was in the long ago when the presidential bee hit him and his followers made two extraordinary campaigns to win for him the presidential nomination and then place him in the high office of chief magistrate. It is a beautiful game, it is fascinating to those who know the plays, and will be watched with interest for "the next eight weeks to come."

ATTACKED ZOO MAN.

PORTLAND, Ore., March 17.—A six-year-old Virginia whitetail buck and a 70-year-old park attendant waged a terrific battle in the Washington Park zoo, here. C. H. Poppenhagen escaped, badly injured, after crawling 30 feet through the mud as the deer lashed him with its forefeet and gored with its horns. The man partially stunned the buck with a club and climbed through a fence.

AWAITS DEAD MASTER.

KENNEWICK, Wash., March 17.—A short time ago Ray Copeland and four others were killed in a grade crossing crash. Since his death, Zip, a setter dog, has been portraying the faithfulness for which the breed is noted. Zip waits anxiously on the porch for Copeland's arrival. As machines turn up the street he jumps out wagging his tail. The machines go by, Zip, with lowered head, returns to his lonely vigil.

British Frown on 'Vulgar' Bronx Cheer

LONDON, March 17.—Victor McLaglen is coming back to his native land to appear in the star role of a British talkie, but he must abstain from making Bronx cheers because the British film censors regard that undignified form of razzing as "vulgar."

Although McLaglen is a native of Great Britain and got his film start here a decade ago, he may not even be allowed to resort to his laugh provoking "sez you." The genteel English folks frown upon that linguistic corruption and claim that it is becoming too popular in everyday speech.

Seven years ago, McLaglen went to Hollywood because he was satisfied with the opportunities of the English film industry. Now he is coming back for an eight weeks engagement as the star of an elaborate British outdoor talkie version of Jeffery Farnols' "The Broad Highway."

His salary is reported to be more than $5,000, but only about $3,500 if he spends it abroad. It is noteworthy that his salary for his first important film engagement here 7 years ago was but $100.

Herbert Wilcox, of the British and Dominion Films, which is to make the Farnol story into a talkie, gave McLaglen his first film job.

CLAM SEASON OPENS. ABERDEEN, Wash., March 17.—The annual Grays Harbor clam canning and digging season is in full swing. Hundreds of men have gone to work on the beaches and in canneries. Eight canneries started and the failure to agree on a price schedule insures better prices for diggers.

PAID HIS POLL TAX. CAMBRIDGE, Mass., March 17.—Opening an envelope which had been mailed from Japan, City Treasurer William J. Shea found 15 yen. Frederick S. Hulse, a research worker for the Peabody Museum of Harvard University, was paying his 1931 poll tax. He has been in Kobe several months.

HOUSE, AUTO COLLIDE. BURLINGTON, Vt., March 17.—An automobile and a house (seven rooms and bath) were in collision on a highway here recently. Motorist William Garen, in the darkness, failed to see the dwelling, which was being moved along the road from one location to another. Garen was not seriously hurt.

SNATCHER GOT BIBLE. BOSTON, March 17.—Miss Byrtle Chapman, 38, was standing on a Roxbury street curb when a man snatched her handbag, leaped into a parked automobile, and escaped. In reporting the theft to police, the woman explained that she was only one thing in the bag—a Bible.

This Woman Lost 64 Pounds of Fat Mrs. H. Price of Woodside, L. I. writes: "A year ago I weighed 190 lbs. I started to take Kruschen and now I weigh 126 and never felt better in my life and what's more, I look more like 20 years old than the mother of 2 children, one 19 and the other 18. Every one of my friends say it's marvelous the way I reduced."

To lose fat SAFELY and HARMLESSLY, take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—don't miss a morning—a bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle—but don't take chances—be sure it's Kruschen—your health comes first—get it at Moore Drug Co. or any drug store in America. If not joyfully satisfied after the first bottle—money back—Adv.

AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION NEWS

From the Office of the County Agent and The Home Demonstration Agent.

Year Round Gardens. Twenty-one club members are special year round garden demonstrators for the county, with 290 other club members as cooperators in the work. These club members aren't satisfied with just the spring and early summer gardens with a few vegetables in them. These gardens are planned to have at least three vegetables growing the year round and during much of the time as many as 18 different varieties and some times more. The plans are made with different kinds of vegetables growing, not all the leafy ones at one time and all the starchy ones together. The gardens are planned to supply the family, with both fresh and canned vegetables during the year. The following statements are remembered throughout the planning: 1. To supply a family of five persons for one year with fresh and canned vegetables, the garden must produce at least 2912 pounds of vegetables. 2. In planting the garden you can roughly estimate that one pound of vegetables can be harvested from one foot of row. The demonstrators and cooperators have record books in which they make the garden plans and keep record of all work, expenses and receipts. At the end of the year they have a complete financial report of the family garden. These reports are compiled at the end of the year by the demonstrator and given as an annual report for the club. The hot bed is another part in the garden plan and program. This is used for growing the early plants for the home and the neighbors. These plants are protected from the cold and then transplanted to the garden, giving an earlier supply of the vegetables. The demonstrators and cooperators study the diseases and insects of the vegetables and methods for preventing and curing them. These methods are practiced by all and by doing so the gardens are at least 50 per cent better. The following club members are special demonstrators for the 4-H Girls' clubs and the Home Demonstration Club. Mrs. Lillian Neal—Eastland-Ranger; Mrs. L. J. Hazelwood—Carbon; Mrs. N. B. Gray—Grapevine; Mrs. Young Gregg—Elm; Mrs. J. S. Turner—Flatwood; Mrs. L. A. Lawrence—Reagan; Mrs. Walter Easter—Friendship—Dothan; Mrs. O. E. Clements—Kokomo; Mrs. O. C. Bowen—Colony; Miss Doyle—Claborn—Okra; Mrs. Lue Burkhead—North Star; Mrs. Sadie Gardner—Cook; Mrs. Floyd McCormick—Bass Lake; Mrs. J. R. Lanham—Nimrod. March Gardening Hints: This is the month in which to plant vegetables that will not stand frost mornings, squash, cucumbers, okra, sweet corn, peppers, pole beans, and the like should be planted now. It is also good plan to make another planting of the short-lived vegetables that were planted in February such as radish, lettuce, English peas, bush beans, mustard, and the like. 2. The dime-a-dance girl

BY JOAN CLAYTON

BEGIN HERE TODAY
Ellen Rossiter, beautiful 20-year-old, falls in love with Larry Harrowgate, an artist whom she met at Dreamland where Ellen works as a dance hall hostess. Larry is engaged to Elizabeth Bowers, a debutante, but he shows affection to Ellen until his fiancée returns from Europe.

From a sense of gratitude the girl agrees to marry Steven Barclay, a kind and wealthy man of 57 who has paid hospital expenses for her young brother, Mike, injured in a street accident. He finds a job for Bert Armstrong, engaged to Ellen's sister, Myra, and agrees to provide for her mother, Molly Rossiter.

Barclay has been married and divorced. Scandal accompanied his divorce from Leda Grayson, a dancer, and fearing this talk may be repeated, scandal accompanied his marriage secret until after they shall for Europe. Barclay wishes to settle a fortune on Ellen. They go to the offices of Louis Syms, his attorney, but the papers are not ready and Ellen insists that they be signed after the ceremony.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

Barclay and Ellen, Bert and Myra are married in a double ceremony in Connecticut. Hardly have they left the church when Syms arrives, demanding to see Barclay. The minister does not know where the couple have gone.

Barclay and Ellen drive to Barclay's Long Island home. Ellen is terrified at being alone with her husband. She sees in a newspaper that Larry Harrowgate's engagement to Elizabeth Bowers is broken.

The words fell on Ellen's heart as many separate blows. Too late now — forever too late for it to be of any consequence to her — Larry Harrowgate was free. Oh, it was impossible cruel that he should have been free at the very hour she was saying the words that bound her for life.

The newspaper dropped from Ellen's hands and into the fire. The nightmare went on and on. Presently Steven returned to the room and she heard herself talking to him. She was scarcely conscious of what she was saying. She understood that Larry must have gone to the apartment two nights before to tell her he was free. Her mother must have sent him away.

Ellen raised one hand with a trembling gesture and in the fire-light saw the frosty sparkle of her wedding ring. It was true then. She was married. This was no evil dream from which she would awake. "Are you tired, my darling?" Steven asked.

She followed him to the enclosed veranda where supper had been laid for two. She acknowledged the introduction to Fergus, the only servant on the place, and thought vaguely that she disliked him. The butler moved about, saying "madame" this, and "madame" that until she could have screamed with the revelation of the fact that she was Steven's wife. Wild, impossible fancies assailed her. She thought of throwing herself on Steven's mercy — begging him to let her go. No she could not do that.

In time she would forget. She must forget. She was Steven's wife now. Only this morning she had promised to cleave unto him through sickness and health through poverty and riches. There was no escape from those solemn vows.

She heard whispering tree branches against the window panes, the lapping of invisible water, the sleepy, occasional chirp of a nestling bird. Outside were fireflies drifting to and fro. Outside was the velvet blackness of a perfect night. Inside the table gleamed with candlelight shining on fine old silver and china and touching the purple of hothouse grapes. Across the table Steven smiled at her, so proud and confident, so serene and sure of her love.

She could not break his heart. She must try to remember, she thought sardonically, that if her own heart broke it broke amid pleasant surroundings. This was the life of which she had dreamed. She had it now. What blind fools girls were and what a fool she herself had been. There was no one else to blame. Not even her mother. Ellen knew she herself had decided that love could be made to yield to affection and gratitude, to ease and luxury.

She must be a good sport, play out her chosen cards. She was too generous-hearted to make a niggardly surrender. Steven deserved the very best that she could give. Under his affectionate regard Ellen forced herself to eat and to respond, as best she could, to his mood of deep and quiet happiness. It almost brought the tears she had held back when she saw how very little of herself it took to make him happy.

and told her that Syms had called the house again it did not seem important or even interesting. She hardly remembered the hours as they passed. She hardly realized they were leaving and that Steven, deep circles of fatigue beneath his eyes, was adjusting her silver cape about her shoulders, paying a check and leading her through a brightly lighted room filled with noisy people.

Out in the cold night air her head cleared instantly. Her fears were back. Silently she got in the car and was silent as they drove away.

"All right, Ellen?" Steven asked. She thrust cold hands into her cuffs so that he should not claim them. "I'm all right," she said, adding in a shamed voice, "I took some of the champagne when you were out of the room."

He laughed and called her an audacious child. They were back at the house again, stealing like conspirators into the great, dark living room and up the stairs. He was whispering to her in the darkness, intimately tenderly.

New U. of T. Library Construction Starts

AUSTIN, March 17.—Construction of the new $1,000,000 University of Texas library has been started. A rear wing of the old main building, mute memorial to men of the last century who laid the foundations of a greater university, has been razed to make way for the new structure.

The new library will be a building of modified Spanish Renaissance architecture. There will be three wings on the north. The two outside wings will be used as reading rooms and the center will serve as book stacks. Each wing will be four stories high.
