News of Baird PEOPLE & THINGS

JUST IN CASE YOU ARE WONDERING what those white, square things are that are decorating the light standards down town, they are trash receptacles put up through the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce and about eight or nine womens clubs. A story elsewhere in the Star tells all about it. It would be nice now, if we will all get a habit of throwing our paper and other trash in the cans, rather than on the sidewalks.

new Chamber of Commerce Braves. manager Monday. He tells us that he is looking forward to lowing Monday's games are as moving to Baird and working fol with the people here in the C of C. He has had a number of years experience in Chamber of Commerce work, both as a manager and as a member. He served as president of two CofC groups so he has a pretty good insight into problems from both sides of the fence. We will all want to wish him well, and to do all in our power to make his job plea-

MR. JACK BRANDON was by the office Monday to invite us all to open house at the new rest home he and Mrs. Brandon are opening here. The new brick building is about completed and they are anxious to show it to the people of the community. The open house is scheduled for Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m. It is a credit to the community, and resulted from efforts of the Baird Chamber of Commerce. The CofC members raised the money to purchase the land on which the building sits. Mr. Brandon says the new home will employ

Who doesn't think of summer as a time for going places, doing things with a flourish? Certainly you do, or you wouldn't be lingering over that Chevrolet Impala Super Sport* Convertible, quite a flourish in itself.

The Impala Super Sport's summery spirit extends from fresh styling outside to sumptuous comfort inside. On the go, all Chevrolets offer a wide choice of optional-at-extra-cost engines and transmissions that whisk you away with a lift like school just got out. Lift up to 425 hp and we need only mention our popular 340-hp Turbo-Fire 409° in passing (which, incidentally, is where this one excels) to give you an idea.

And think how much more fun your holiday would be in a Chevrolet as new as the season! Your timing couldn't be better: your Chevrolet dealer is celebrating Trade 'N' Travel Time right now.
