T. D. GREENWOOD DEAD

Our people were shocked as probably never before by the news of the death of Tommie Greenwood on Saturday afternoon as a result of being hit by a pitched ball in a matched game in the morning at the picnic at Rising Star. He was hurt 10:30 in the morning, and at first was not thought to be seriously injured. He died about 3 o'clock at Dr. Patterson's office and word of his death was sent here immediately. The body was sent to Cross Plains on the train, and was carried from here to the home of the deceased's mother Mrs. Jesse Byrd at Cross Cut. He was laid to rest Sunday at about 3 p. m., at the family cemetery at Cross Cut, Rev. E. L. Sisk of Cross Plains conducting the services.

A large number of friends and sympathizers with the family gathered at the cemetery to do what little they could to pay homage to a departed friend.

The tragic manner of his untimely taking off struck home not only to his immediate family and closest friends, but to everybody. For a young man, just entering upon the threshold of life, with a family on his hands, to be taken away without warning, is a serious affair, and draws the whole human heart out in sympathy. A damper was thrown over the rest of the picnic, and it was with sad and heavy hearts that those who had gone from here for a gala day returned home on the train to meet others laden with sorrow.

He was a clean, bouyant, friendly young man, who had no enemies, who spoke ill of no one, and who was loved by all who knew him, and his circle of acquaintanceship was wide.

Cross Plains and Sipe Springs were playing the second matched game. Tommie who was really not well and had not been for some time, was at the bat. A boy only about 16 years of age was pitching. Most of his balls were out-curves, and the one that struck Tommie was not thought to be a very swift. It is likely that it was a straight ball and that Tommie expected it to be an out-curve, and when he saw he was mistaken didn't have sufficient time to dodge it. He threw up his left arm, but did not ward off the ball, which struck him squarely above and to the right of the left ear, stunning him.

Some of his friends went to his rescue, and in a few minutes he said he was all right and went to the grand stand where he watched the rest of the game, without complaining. After the game he in company with his wife, Jeff Clark and his wife went to town in Coran Beeler's car, all going to dinner at the hotel save Tommie who went to the drug store for something to go on his head. It was not long until word came to the hotel that he was worse. The doctor who had taken charge of him said that an operation was the only chance to save him. His parents Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Byrd of Cross Cut were sent for, but did not reach him until too late. Dr. S. P. Rumph also started but turned back on learning of his death. Everything that could be done under the circumstances was done to save him. Death is supposed to have resulted from a fracture in the skull or ruptured blood vessel. Had a surgeon been there his life might have been saved.

The deceased was something more than 26 years of age, and was reared in the Cross Cut country, where he lived on a farm until nine months ago when he moved to Cross Plains to work in the City Drug Store in which he had bought an interest. He leaves his wife and two small boys, Carl and Stancel, his mother Mrs. Jesse Byrd, a half-sister Mrs. Luke Clark, and a number of other younger half-sisters and brothers, he being the only child of his father, and the last Greenwood, save his own children. Mrs. Sam Eddington of Cross Cut is an aunt.

We have not been informed as to where the wife and children of the deceased will live, whether at their home in town or with some of her folks at Cross Cut. Mr. Jesse Byrd and Mrs. Greenwood desire to express their sincere thanks for the many kindnesses and considerations shown them in their hour of sorrow.

Truly the hearts of all go out in sympathy to the wife and children and the mother and sisters and other relatives of the deceased.

Mad at Paint

25c a gallon for paint is about $2.50 on the average job, and lots of men waited last year for that but they didn't reckon; they got mad; wouldn't pay it.

There are times to get mad and refuse to pay; but when one's property needs protecting is no time to get mad and not paint.

Besides, it costs more to get mad and wait than to paint.

Getting mad doesn't do any good to your property; paint does it good by keeping-out water; no water no rot; no paint, some water and rot; and a little rot is more than enough to make a man liberal towards his ainter and paint.

Paint costs not a cent. All the paint in the world as long as it keeps-out water, costs not a cent.

NEWS FROM BURKETT

Bob Pope who was the first to go out with a thresher, was the last to quit reaping, finishing his work Monday. He threshed last for Jim Gelson on the Henderson place, he finishing on the same farm last year.

We can report a 30-bushel yield of wheat for A. J. Nations; Bud Gelson made about 23 bushels; John Slate made good yields of both wheat and oats. Jesse Copeland threshed 57 1-2 bushels of oats to the acre. Dick Stone says he made all the way up to 60 bushels of oats and about 20 of wheat. Charlie Stone is said to have made 32 bushels of wheat, threshing a bout 1900 bushels off of his crop. Good yields are reported all over the prairie belt, that country averaging from 40 to 60 bushels of oats, and about 15 to 25 of wheat.

Corn on the Bavou is holding up well, even if we are needing rain. The crop so far is the best we have had for several years.

Frank Brown sold wheat at the Terminal Monday for $1.08 1-2 per bushel, which is a good price.

Postmasters Salaries Increased in Callahan county

Postmasters salaries have been increased at Clyde, from $1300 to $1400; Cross Plains from $1000 to $1300. Good for Clyde and Cross Plains! No other changes reported in this county.

Three postoffices in Eastland county got reductions in salaries, Cisco reduced from $2000 to $1900, Gorman $1600 to $1500, Rising Star $1400 to $1300. The new apportionment makes Cross Plains equal in salary of the Rising Star postmaster. This is rather strange as the towns are only a few miles apart and up to the readjustment the salary of the postmaster at Rising Star was $400 more than the salary of the postmaster at Cross Plains. Cross Plains has the distinction too of having the second largest increase in the state. Sour Lake had an increase of $400 while Hitchcock had an increase had a $300 raise the same as Cross Plains. The increase in salary at all other offices ranged from $100 to $200.

The list of postoffices in Texas that had the salary of their postmasters reduced is more than doubled the number of those that get an increase. Some of the large cities, Corsicana, Gainsville, Tyler, Brenham, Galveston and Longview and many more got reduced salaries. We are glad that Callahan is not falling behind in postal receipts at least.—Star.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst.

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.

Study The Amendments

On Saturday, July 24, at a election you will be given the privilege of voting for or against a number of amendments to the state constitution. To be frank, we have not studied these amendments very much, and are therefore not qualified to speak authoritatively concerning them. Really, we don't claim the functions of a political oracle, anyway. We have our opinion and think that you should have yours, both making up our minds after careful reading and study.

Amendment known as joint resolution No. 1, which is to enable voters to cast their ballots for state officers, at places other than their residence, is receiving considerable attention. In our mind, it should be voted down. "There is a reason," and perhaps reasons. There are enough charges of election frauds. With the carrying of this amendment there certainly would be opened a field for more fraud. It is designed to help traveling men and others who are unavoidably away from home on election day, which in itself is a good purpose.

The amendment to change the number of supreme judges from three to five is, we think, worthy of your most earnest support. Our Supreme Court is always behind with its work, and with the present arrangement will always be behind. There are only seven states that have as few as three members of the supreme court, and none of these states, save Texas, that has more than 400,000 population, and Texas has 4,000,000. One state has nine, two have eight, and thirteen have seven members. Thus it will be seen how much we fall behind the other states.

It is doubtful that the amendment enabling each county to provide a students' loan fund should carry. It smacks of socialism and paternalism.

We believe that the amendment Sec. 9, Article 8, which is to permit the levying and collection of a special road tax not to exceed fifty cents on the hundred dollars valuation, in any county, subdivision, or districts thereof when same has been authorized by a majority vote of the voters of said district or subdivision, is a worthy one and deserves your earnest consideration.

Study these and do what your judgment tells you is best for yourself and your neighbor.

The Amendments

The present legislature has justly been praised for its intelligent work along educational lines. All thinking people are appreciative of the fact that the present legislature has raised the educational standard of this state. The enactment of the Compulsory Educational Law was an advance step toward building up the present Educational system of this great state.

Unfortunately, the great value of the Act was curtailed, almost to neutralization, by reducing the scope of the law from the sixth grade down to the fourth grade. It seems to me, that the law should cover the grades, because the child that has been promiscuously promoted from grade to grade, until it has reached the fourth grade, has very little educational training. The grades, immediately preceding the high school, are of such great importance to a child that it ought to have them and should not be out of the province of the law.

Another Act, unfortunately, failed to receive the consideration that it deserves. The Metcalfe Resolution submitting a Constitutional Amendment which, if adopted, will permit every county to create and maintain, by means of a tax levy, a fund to be loaned to students in primary schools who are ambitious to complete their education.

The primary object of the amendment is to aid boys and girls, worthy of such aid, to complete their education in the grades or even the University, A and M College or Girl's College of Industrial Arts. That proposition, alone, should commend the proposition without further comment.

The teaching profession is suffering from the lack of trained men and women, likewise the subjects of the profession are suffering more, because of the lack of college trained men and women.

There will be six amendments of the state constitution to be voted on Saturday, July 24, and we respectfully call attention to the nature of these amendments. We believe that it is the duty of every voter to register his approval or disapproval of the amendments that are to be voted upon the 24th inst.

Amendment to the Sec. 2 of Art. 6, authorizing qualified voters to vote in precincts other than the precinct of their residence under certain conditions is a dangerous proposition, offering an opportunity for fraud, assuming that certain men would take advantage of said opportunity, as they are so often accused. This amendment in our opinion should be voted down.

You will be asked to approve or disapprove of the separation of the State University of Texas and the Agricultural and Mechanical College and equitable division of the University land by amendment to Art. 7, of the Constitution of the state of Texas, which we believe to be a bad policy.

Amendment to Sec. 9, Art. 8, authorizing the levy and collection of a special road tax not to exceed fifty cents on the hundred dollars valuation of property in any county, subdivision or subdivisions or defined districts thereof, when same has been authorized by a majority vote of the qualified electors of said division or subdivision, at an election held for that purpose.

The road question is one of the greatest questions that confront us and directly affects all industrial propositions and this amendment should have the deliberate consideration of every sovereign elector in the state and have his enthusiastic support.

Amendments to Sec. 3, Art. 7, adding thereto Sec. 3b, authorizing the Commissioner's Court to create a Student's Loan Fund, is one of more than passing importance. It means that any country can, by this means, put her worthy boys and girls in a position to be of great worth to their country.

I very earnestly ask that every sovereign voter in this county study the amendment proposition and cast his ballot for the good of our schools and public highways, especially.

NEWS FROM BURKETT

Bob Pope who was the first to go out with a thresher, was the last to quit rearing, finishing his work Monday. He threshed last for Jim Golson on the Henderson place, he is finishing on the same farm last year.

We can report a 30-bushel yield of wheat for A. J. Nations; Bud Golson made about 23 bushels; John Slate made good yields of both wheat and oats. Jesse Copeland threshed 57 1-2 bushels of oats to the acre. Dick Stone says he made all the way up to 60 bushels of oats and about 20 of wheat. Charlie Stone is said to have made 32 bushels of wheat, threshing a bout 1900 bushels off of his crop. Good yields are reported all over the prairie belt, that country averaging from 40 to 60 bushels of oats, and about 15 to 25 of wheat.

Corn on the Bayou is holding up well, even if we are needing rain. The crop so far is the best we have had for several years.

Frank Brown sold wheat at the Terminal Monday for $1.08 1-2 per bushel, which is a good price.

He remained in the ditch until an auto came along when the men in the car got him out of his predicament. He was slightly injured in the leg or thigh

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Postmasters Salaries Increased in Callahan county

Postmasters salaries have been increased at Clyde, from $1300 to $1400; Cross Plains from $1000 to $1300. Good for Clyde and Cross Plains! No other changes reported in this county.

Three postoffices in Eastland county got reductions in salaries, Cisco reduced from $2000 to $1900, Gorham $1600 to $1500, Rising Star $1400 to $1300. The new apportionment makes Cross Plains equal in salary of the Rising Star postmaster. This is rather strange as the towns are only a few miles apart and up to the readjustment the salary of the postmaster at Rising Star was $400 more than the salary of the postmaster at Cross Plains. Cross Plains has the distinction too of having the second largest increase in the state. Sour Lake had an increase of $400 while Hitchcock had an increase had a $300 raise the same as Cross Plains. The increase in salary at all other offices ranged from $100 to $200.

The list of postoffices in Texas that had the salary of their postmasters reduced is more than doubled the number of those that get an increase. Some of the large cities, Corsicana, Gainsville, Tyler, Brenham, Galveston and Longview and many more got reduced salaries. We are glad that Callahan is not falling behind in postal receipts at least.—Star.

FOUR ISSUES CONSTITUTE A MONTH

CROSS PLAINS, TEXAS.

The Big Picnic, July 21 and 22 Remember and be prepared.

Study The Amendments.

On Saturday, July 24, at a election you will be given the privilege of voting for or against a number of amendments to the state constitution. To be frank, we have not studied these amendments very much, and are therefore not qualified to speak authoritatively concerning them. Really, we don't claim the functions of a political oracle, anyway. We have our opinion and think that you should have yours, both making up our minds after careful reading and study.

Amendment known as joint resolution No. 1, which is to enable voters to cast their ballots for state officers, at places other than their residence, is receiving considerable attention. In our mind, it should be voted down. "There is a reason," and perhaps reasons. There are enough charges of election frauds. With the carrying of this amendment there certainly would be opened a field for more fraud. It is designed to help traveling men and others who are unavoidably away from home on election day, which in itself is a good purpose.

The amendment to change the number of supreme judges from three to five is, we think, worthy of your most earnest support. Our Supreme Court is always behind with its work, and with the present arrangement will always be behind. There are only seven states that have as few as three members of the supreme court, and none of these states, save Texas, that has more than 400,000 population, and Texas has 4,000,000. One state has nine, two have eight, and thirteen have seven members. Thus it will be seen how much we fall behind the other states.

It is doubtful that the amendment enabling each county to provide a students' loan fund should carry. It smacks of socialism and paternalism.

We believe that the amendment Sec. 9, Article 8, which is to permit the levying and collection of a special road tax not to exceed fifty cents on the hundred dollars valuation, in any county, subdivision, or districts thereof when same has been authorized by a majority vote of the voters of said district or subdivision, is a worthy one and deserves your earnest consideration.

Study these and do what your judgment tells you is best for yourself and your neighbor.

The Amendments

The present legislature has justly been praised for its intelligent work along educational lines. All thinking people are appreciative of the fact that the present legislature has raised the educational standard of this state. The enactment of the Compulsory Educational Law was an advance step toward building up the present Educational system of this great state.

Unfortunately, the great value of the Act was curtailed, almost to neutralization, by reducing the scope of the law from the sixth grade down to the fourth grade. It seems to me, that the law should cover the grades, because the child that has been promiscuously promoted from grade to grade, until it has reached the fourth grade, has very little educational training. The grades, immediately preceding the high school, are of such great importance to a child that it ought to have them and should not be out of the province of the law.

Another Act, unfortunately, failed to receive the consideration that it deserves. The Metcalfe Resolution submitting a Constitutional Amendment which, if adopted, will permit every county to create and maintain, by means of a tax levy a fund to be loaned to students in primary schools who are ambitious to complete their education.

The primary object of the amendment is to aid boys and girls, worthy of such aid, to complete their education in the grades or even the University, A and M College or Girl's College of Industrial Arts. That proposition, alone, should commend the proposition without further comment.

The teaching profession is suffering from the lack of trained men and women, likewise the subjects of the profession are suffering more, because of the lack of college trained men and women.

There will be six amendments of the state constitution to be voted on Saturday, July 24, and we respectfully call attention to the nature of these amendments. We believe that it is the duty of every voter to register his approval or disapproval of the amendments that are to be voted upon the 24th inst.

Amendment to the Sec. 2 of Art. 6, authorizing qualified voters to vote in precincts other than the precinct of their residence under certain conditions is a dangerous proposition, offering an opportunity for fraud, assuming that certain men would take advantage of said opportunity, as they are so often accused. This amendment in our opinion should be voted down.

You will be asked to approve or disapprove of the separation of the State University of Texas and the Agricultural and Mechanical College and equitable division of the University land by amendment to Art. 7, of the Constitution of the state of Texas, which we believe to be a bad policy.

Amendment to Sec. 9, Art. 8, authorizing the levy and collection of a special road tax not to exceed fifty cents on the hundred dollars valuation of property in any county, subdivision or subdivisions or defined districts thereof, when same has been authorized by a majority vote of the qualified electors of said division or subdivision, at an election held for that purpose.

The road question is one of the greatest questions that confront us and directly affects all industrial propositions and this amendment should have the deliberate consideration of every sovereign elector in the state and have his enthusiastic support.

Amendments to Sec. 3, Art. 7, adding thereto Sec. 3b, authorizing the Commissioner's Court to create a Student's Loan Fund, is one of more than passing importance. It means that any country can, by this means, put her worthy boys and girls in a position to be of great worth to their country.

I very earnestly ask that every sovereign voter in this county study the amendment proposition and cast his ballot for the good of our schools and public highways, especially.
